

Chapter 3650

Immediately after, between the crazy shaking, the surrounding began to collapse.

Those white gas, like a mountain, are constantly falling apart, disintegrating, and degenerating.

George Han dazzled around. An acceleration, soaring into the sky.

When it flew through the air and reached the zenith, when I looked down, I saw that my feet had already begun to sink after the collapse.

The five lights converge, the ten colors gather together, and then they fall apart, blending with each other and pulling away completely with the wind.

“Huh!”

A stronger wind suddenly blew from the east. Blowing in the entire formation also blew away all the breath in the entire formation.

Everything vanished in an instant. Under George Han’s feet, a stream of water gently lifted the Qi up and rose all the way.

In the end, through the deep underground, straight through the fierce Suntan Lake, all the way up, staying on the Suntan Lake for about a few meters.

“Gossip has been broken, yin and yang do not exist, from today, the jungle will no longer exist, and everything will rest in peace, congratulations, George Han, your goal has been achieved.” In the sky, the sound of curling is like the void.

Of course, the reverberation echoed, and it could be heard that the voice was from Shengyuan.

“The rivers and lakes are long. The love is long and long. You and I will see it. Don’t let it go. Take care, my little brother, haha, hahaha!” As soon as the voice fell, a white light could be seen flying straight up from it.

“George Han, our ten brothers didn’t see you wrong. There is a fate in the rivers and lakes. If there is a reincarnation, you and I will see you again.”

“And our four brothers. Haha, it is a good choice to make way for you.”

“Shuiyue Palace also expresses congratulations.” After the words were finished, sixteen rays of light shot up into the sky, and one of them was obviously weakened. Obviously, it should be the Shuizhuren who was killed by himself.

“Roar!”

A familiar beast roared. In the distance, the gluttonous gluttons of evil were already rushing towards him.

The silhouettes of the Four Heavenly Kings stood slowly by the pool.

"I'm not ashamed to wait for the grass on the wall, but because of the situation, you are strong, stronger than we can imagine. The jungle will be broken, and the four souls I will leave here completely."

"Originally, we should also just like them. Give you something."

"However, we believe that the Sun God has given us far more. Besides, it's too late for us to tell you something." The wind monster said.

George Han patted the gluttonous gluttons that were rushing over, looked back at the Four Heavenly Kings, and said, "You four don't need to be polite."

"If you don't need to be polite, then I will say something." Feng Wei said.

George Han smiled bitterly. It was obvious that the other party was using a ladder to go upstairs. However, George Han didn't care and nodded, "Let's talk."

"My four brothers also hope that they can have a chance to return to Bafang World someday. Burial. I wonder if Mr. Han is willing to do such a favor?" Fengguai chuckled.

The earth monster was also a little embarrassed: "Compared to other people, there are more or less corresponding rewards. Not only do we not have it, but we are also an enemy of you. We also know that this request is too much. If you are not willing to agree, I won't blame you when I wait for my brother."

George Han gave a wry smile and sighed helplessly: "It's a little busy, but it's just a little effort, I promise."

"But we don't get any reward, you really Ken?" the water monster asked.

George Han smiled: "George Han can do what he says."

The four monsters heard the sound, looked at each other, and finally nodded, and the fire monster moved. A long black letter came out of his hand and flew directly to George Han.

After taking the long letter, George Han held it in his hand and did not open it.

"This contains the life information of the four of me, who are my surnames, and where do I live. If you are willing to help, you can send all my bones." The fire monster said.

George Han nodded and put the long letter in his storage ring. Looking at the Four Heavenly Kings, he said, "Don't worry, everyone, George Han will definitely do it." The four looked at each other again. With a smile, he gave George Han a small salute: "My four brothers thank you here. It's not early, the jungle will be destroyed, so I won't bother you much. Maybe there will be no deadline in the future. We can only say something, please cherish it."

The words fell, and after the four of them raised their salute, Qi Qi flew towards the sky.

At almost the same time, the entire jungle began to tremble wildly and collapsed.

Patting the head of Evil Taotie, George Han smiled slightly: "It's time for us to go home." After the words were finished, George Han accelerated and flew towards the bamboo house with Evil Taotie...

Chapter 3651

all the way.

George Han is in a good mood.

Although the goal of helping Tian Zhiqiongqi unravel the so-called “seal of words” has not been achieved, however. After lying down, George Han could be said to be stealing the treasure from the dragon’s mouth.

There are countless dangers, but also countless treasures in danger.

so. George Han is happy.

He can clearly feel it. Since the completion of the two celestial arts, the cultivation base in his body has at least doubled compared to before, but at least half of it is random.

Moreover, Youhuang and Fen Ji’s two big one-defense and one-offense ultimate moves are extremely fierce. It seems that George Han’s overall strength can be described as a qualitative leap without exaggeration.

Of course, there is also the perverted Taixu that can really save his life twice, as well as the spiritual power of the Seventh Spirit Monkey and its powerful body.

Be nice. That is really anti-Buddha found a treasure nest that an old dragon hid for an unknown number of years.

Can George Han be unhappy?

Since this shipment started. Before the corners of his mouth were closed, he could already see the joy in this guy’s heart at this time.

But this is also normal. Who can maintain a peaceful mind and not be happy after having so many big babies at one time?

Even a fairy. That can’t be done either.

“It’s been hard work for you this time. When you go back, I’ll get you something delicious.” He patted the evil glutton on the head. George Han smiled.

“Roar!”

The glutton of evil also rubbed his head against George Han’s waist and gently rubbed it back and forth. seems to be responding.

George Han smiled lightly. The speed of the foot moves faster toward the front.

However. After flying forward for a while, he suddenly frowned.

“Is it going to rain?”

Far ahead, there was a layer of darkness in the sky. It seems like a dark cloud before a thunderstorm.

But George Han’s side was scorching sun, and it was fine.

“The book of the Eight Wildernesses is like the real thing. What kind of drama is it playing partly sunny and partly rainy.” He shook his head speechlessly.

This kind of weather is naturally common in the normal world, but George Han didn't think that the Eight Desolate Books of Heaven would actually have such a good way to toss them.

“Roar!” Taotie of Evil roared in a low voice.

George Han smiled: “What? Are you worried about something going wrong?”

Yes, those dark clouds do look a bit like the world after the war. However, this possibility is almost impossible for George Han.

Where is this. This is the world of heaven. How could there be other people besides them?

“Don't worry. It must be the shit that the ghost book did. It's a weird person. It's normal to play some tricks sometimes. After you know more about this stuff, you won't think so.” Patting Evil Qiongqi on the shoulder, George Han didn't care.

The gluttonous glutton of evil let out a soft cry, and seemed to have no more words.

One person and one beast returned in the direction of the bamboo house.

The speed is not fast, but it is definitely not low.

After all, I am in a good mood. Although I am eager to go home, I am also relaxed and content after the big victory.

But it is clear that this happiness obviously does not last long.

When one person and one beast are getting closer to their destination, this kind of happiness begins to say goodbye to them completely.

It was too far away to see clearly before, but as time passed and the distance approached, things in the distance became more and more clear.

George Han's smile was almost completely frozen on his face. He looked forward with shock and fear on his face. Obviously, at such a close distance, he could be sure that those black clouds in mid-air were not black clouds. It's...

black smoke!

That was the smoke of gunpowder after the explosion after the war broke out.

Gritting his teeth fiercely, George Han shouted angrily: “Oh, something happened!” In the next second, his whole body was full of energy, and he rushed forward with the gluttonous gluttony that would kill him.
