

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 37

Liam Lu's pupils shrank sharply.

The next second, he got up abruptly, kicked the coffee table in front of him, turned and ran towards the door.

Behind him, the doctor who had squatted on the ground to help him deal with the wound was knocked to the ground by his sudden movement, and the medicine and tools were scattered on the ground.

"Sir, your wound is still bleeding!"

The doctor shouted. He got up from the ground and wanted to chase a few steps forward, but he was stopped by the old Fu behind him.

"Don't chase it, it's useless."

Old Fu squinted his eyes and looked at the people rushing towards the beach one after another, his face showed an inexplicable smile.

"Liam Lu can be in the upper ranks of the Lu family, who can eat people without spitting out bones. He has his extraordinary ability and ability. But I dare to say that this kid will definitely stumble on women in the future."

Zoey Gu stumbled all the way to the beach.

Seeing the speedboat docked on the shore, she gritted his teeth and climbed up with his hands.

But she couldn't drive her speedboat.

Although she has lived well since she was a child, her father has shown her many big scenes. But she is naturally afraid of water, not to mention the sea, even swimming.

"Zoey Gu, stop! Are you desperate, do you plan to die again?!"

A man's angry roar suddenly sounded behind him, but the distance was too far, and Zoey Gu heard vaguely, thinking that the person chasing her was close, and the whole person became more panicked.

She wants to escape, she must!

Even if she died in the sea again, she would never live a life without sky and freedom!

She looked around in front of the console like a headless fly, listening to the footsteps coming closer behind her, gritted her teeth, raised her hand and held the steering wheel.

“Ah!” Zoey Gu screamed in horror.

Liam Lu shook suddenly, and when he looked up, he saw a white speedboat rushing out like a dragon in front of him...

“Zoey!”

Liam Lu’s heart tightened, and he suddenly lifted his leg forward. Suddenly, there was a heart-piercing pain in his leg. Large areas of untreated wounds and strenuous activities make blood flow faster, which is shocking.

He gritted his teeth and rushed to a speedboat without scruple.

“Liam!”

Shiyue chased up from behind and grabbed his arm.

“Your legs are still bleeding, and Miss Gagu is emotional. If you catch up like this, both of you will have trouble...”

“Step aside!”

Shiyue was severely thrown onto the beach by Liam Lu, and when he got up again, the tall and tall figure had already jumped onto the speedboat and rushed out in an instant...

Ahead, Zoey Gu tremblingly grasped the steering wheel, his face was white as a ghost in the night, and his whole body was wet with cold sweat.

Not only did she fail to control the steering wheel, but the whole person was shaking with the strength of the speedboat tossing back and forth, and her stomach was tumbling.

As if being driven to a dead end again, and unable to look back.

Zoey Gu’s eyes were red, and a huge despair slowly rose in his heart.

Who knows that when she turned his head unconsciously, she saw the speedboat that had followed all the way from not far away.

Her hands and feet trembled at the same time.

In the next second, the speedboat seemed to be out of control and hit the huge rock ahead.

Bang!

In the huge impact, the speedboat was instantly knocked over and tilted to one side.

Zoey Gu didn't even have time to react, and she was thrown out severely.
