

Chapter 3704

When looking up, Ming Yu slowly walked out.

With a slight movement of his hand, the two water circles landed directly on the body of Venerable Bigfoot, and just like this, the flame on Venerable Bigfoot began to go out.

However, even if the fire was extinguished, Venerable Bigfoot was still in a bad state.

When he was dying, black air and blue smoke came out of his mouth, and almost no skin on his body was intact.

“God...Elder Shenlong, no...don’t mess with it.”

“This Han...Han, George Han...he...he...he is a little abnormal.”

Hearing this, the Black Mountain Demon Girl and others hurriedly He poured real energy into his back again and again, hoping to protect his heart so that he could hold on until he finished speaking.

They are all masters, and their energy is strong and pure. After being injected into the body of the Venerable Bigfoot, the condition of the Venerable Bigfoot immediately improved a lot.

“Venerable Bigfoot, what do you want to say?”

Venerable Bigfoot heaved a sigh of relief, looked at Ming Yu, and said, “Elder, I just faced off against George Han. I don’t know why. I can clearly feel that George Han’s infuriating energy has reached a state of bursting.”

“Venerable Bigfoot, what nonsense are you talking about, how could George Han be bursting with infuriating energy?”

“That’s right, George Han already has it. After being consumed by us for so long, it is impossible for him to be in such a state.”

“Even if he himself is stronger than what we imagined and understood, it is impossible to be stronger than the true god, right? Even the true god is like this by us Serious consumption, it is absolutely impossible to have such a state.”

That’s right, even if it is a true god, facing such a huge long-term consumption, it is already very remarkable to have half of the energy left.

What kind of virtue can he Han

George Han have ?

Therefore, in the face of Venerable Bigfoot’s words, the three masters headed by the Monster Girl of Montenegro refuted it on the spot.

“It’s hard for me to believe it, but everyone, we have been fighting side by side for so long, you know how I am, the Venerable Bigfoot. I never talk big words, you must believe me, Han The three thousand fellows are strange...it’s really strange.”

After speaking, the Black Mountain Demon Girl and others fell silent.

What the Venerable Bigfoot said is indeed true.

Everyone fought side by side and had a lot of contacts. Naturally, they all knew each other's personalities quite well, and the person of Bigfoot, although he was indeed a little arrogant.

But in general, what he said was trustworthy.

However, if it is really according to what he said, then what kind of monster is this George Han now, and now air?

Ming Yu frowned slightly, she was not Ye Shijun's generation, she was impulsive and irritable, would she believe what Venerable Bigfoot said?

Believing, but not entirely believing.

But at this point, none of this matters.

There is a saying that riding a tiger is hard.

Coincidentally, that's how it is now. Therefore, even if what Venerable Bigfoot said was completely credible, and Mingyu completely believed it, so what?

Admit it? Boost the enemy's morale and destroy your own prestige?

of course not.

The only sensible choice is to bite the bullet and go on.

Thinking of this, Ming Yu took a cold look at Venerable Bigfoot, and then criticized him bluntly:

"Sister Bigfoot, you must have been burned into confusion, not to mention that George Han is not a true god, even if he is, it is also impossible for him to still retain a full state under this kind of consumption.

"But you say he is full."

"It's not terrible to lose, there are people outside people, and there are mountains outside the mountains. But if you don't want to admit defeat and find some absurd reasons for yourself, it's a shame."

Hearing this, Venerable Bigfoot was obviously taken aback, and then he hurriedly braced his body and wanted to apologize to himself. However, at this moment,

Ming Yu waved his hand: "Take it down and find a better doctor to show him a good look."

"Yes."

Retire, although Venerable Bigfoot still stubbornly insists that what he said is true at the end, under Ming Yu's words, these are just his incompetent sophistry.

"You want to fight me?" George Han smiled coldly and looked at Mingyu: "Although I don't like hitting women very much, the old hatred between you and me should also be counted.

" Finish)

Chapter 3705

Ming Yu smiled softly: "George Han, you are less arrogant, I know you are more powerful than any of us imagined. , However, everyone always has a limit."

"It's a bit unexpected that you can still fight now, but I also believe that your weakness just pretended, the purpose is to create an illusion and give us A scene of your full blood resurrection."

"If you use it well, just relying on your current momentum and the myths you have left behind can achieve the goal of defeating the enemy without fighting. I have to say something. , you are really smart and decisive." "But it is a pity that I am very human, not to mention stupid, how can you hide from my eyes when you are so careful?"

Sure enough, the group of people who were still extremely afraid of George Han just now stabilized their minds, and some people were brainwashed on the spot and started clamoring again.

"*, George Han, you bastard, you actually dare to play these little tricks, I almost fell for you, I really thought you were a goddamn man, and it's useless to fight. Now It seems, bah."

"*, George Han, you insidious villain, you actually played such a shameless thing on the battlefield, goddamn, I will cut you into eight pieces to solve the problem. The hatred in my heart."

"That's right, kill him." The crowd was excited, completely changing the previous lifeless state.

George Han smiled slightly, looked at Ming Yu, and said: "You can rise to this position in such a short period of time, it seems that it is not as simple as just doing some treachery, you are really an expert in grasping people's hearts. ."

Ming Yu smiled and didn't answer, but her eyes already explained everything.

turn the tide,

Sticking to his heart is the basic talent a commander should possess.

"Okay, you have your method to inspire your army, and I also have my method to overcome their psychology." After the words were finished, George Han's body suddenly moved.

The magic is in full swing!

With a move of the hand, a thunder dragon appeared in the cloud, with a shake of the shoulder, the sky fire, and the moon appeared.

The ground fire re-ignited, and the beasts appeared!

"Kill!"

With the movement of his hand and the mention of the jade sword, George Han came straight at him like a demon.

Ming Yu waved both hands, and almost at the same time, the soldiers beside him also suddenly attacked under the leadership of the master.

In an instant, the thunder hit the ground.

Only Ming Yu, who stood up first, slowly stepped back into the crowd at this time.

She was the first to stand up, but that didn't mean she was the first to rush up.

With her current strength, does she have the confidence to deal with George Han?

Judging from the improvement in her practice now

, yes!

But from his incomprehension to George Han, no.

It's a five-to-five situation.

But Ming Yu would not choose this.

Given the current situation, why would she take such a risk with herself? The reason why she was the first to stand up is also very simple, as George Han said, she is more just to re-inspire.

She needs to tell everyone that everything is an illusion and that George Han is just a paper tiger, so they will charge forward.

As long as they charge, it doesn't really matter whether George Han is infuriated like the Venerable Bigfoot said.

The reason is very simple. As long as the morale is still there, even if George Han is full of infuriating energy, the current formation in the second battlefield can still re-attack George Han.

At that time, with Mingyu's current strength, she can still complete the harvest.

So, that's the point.

Boom!!!

The two armies clashed again, and at the same time as the explosions exploded, a new round of clashes began again.

George Han is still the same George Han. Even if the enemy is outnumbered, he is still alive and dead. He takes the head directly between entering and exiting. He does not see any weakness at all. Instead, he is like a flock of ferocious tigers, invincible.

However, the elites who should fall into the city are also not bad. At this time, under the "charge leadership" of Ming Yu, they fought hard.

George Han is really frightening, but they also believe what their elder Shenlong told them, George Han won't last long.

For a time, the originally peaceful midnight was ignited by the flames of war again, and the flames illuminated the night sky!

However, in this extremely bright night sky, there is a point of light that is different from other light spots hidden in it...
