

Chapter 371

"Zhengting, you know I'm not greedy for your wealth when I'm with you, so I don't want you to be like this."

Zhao Tong wants to refuse. After all, it's not a small gift or two. It's the most luxurious western restaurant in Jiangbin. She won't accept it easily because of her personality. It's not because she's afraid of other people's gossip. She just thinks Jin Zhengting doesn't have to do it.

Jin Zhengting was silent for a moment, and said, "did I refuse you to pay for me?"

Zhao Tongxin was a little tongue tied, he really didn't, because when she decided to work, he agreed to her without hesitation, because at that time she said that it was his own pay for him, I hope he didn't refuse.

"No, but it's different."

She still wanted to explain, and was interrupted by Jin Zhengting: "because I didn't refuse you, so you shouldn't refuse me."

Zhao Tong bit his lower lip and said reluctantly, "OK, Zhengting, I'll listen to you this time, but I can't have next time. Promise me, OK?"

Jin Zhengting laughed and said, "well, only this time."

"You didn't have a rest last night. If you don't have so many things to do in the afternoon, take a rest."

Zhao Tongxin is clear about Jin Zhengting's character. She still accepts what he thinks of herself. Thinking that he didn't sleep last night because he coaxed her to sleep, she feels inexplicably distressed and says in a tender voice.

"Well, don't be too tired. Pay attention to rest."

Jin Zhengting faintly replied, also concerned about her body, although now in the figure has not shown, but she is a pregnant woman, more rest is right.

"Good. See you in the evening."

Zhao Tongxin's mood is very complex. Besides being moved, a faint sense of happiness surges up in her heart. Jin Zhengting can give her everything she wants, not in material, but in spirit. She cares, dotes, cares and the happiness she wants.

"I'll pick you up in the evening and hang up."

Jin Zhengting's voice is as calm as ever. After a word, he hangs up. Zhao Tongxin, holding his mobile phone, seems to be still savoring his words. His cold and handsome face and gentle eyes only appear when he looks at her gradually emerge in his mind.

On the sofa, Xu Yanke put down her mobile phone, looked at her little woman's appearance, and snorted: "Zhao Tongxin, it's working time now. As the president of the company, how can you answer the private phone at will?"

I don't know why. As soon as she saw Zhao Tongxin's little woman's expression, she was very unhappy. What's more, she knew that Jin Zhengting had just called her. Even if she knew that it was impossible for her and Jin Zhengting, she had a sour feeling.

"Xu Yanke, it seems that you are also the holding negative president of the company. You haven't played with your mobile phone all day, and you haven't done any work. Who gave you the courage to tell me what to do?"

The gentleness of Zhao Tong's heart can't be shown to Xu Yanke.

"Who said I didn't do anything, my task is to protect you, or do you think I might sit in the same office with you all day?"

Xu Yan can be anxious. Now she can accept almost everything, but she can't accept Zhao Tongxin's criticism.

Zhao Tong heart laughed: "you take 20% of the company's shares, do such a little thing, meaning to say it?" But I can't blame you. You can't help with the company. It's better to continue to do your job. "

"Who says I can't help? I haven't been in business before."

Xu Yanke subconsciously counterattacks, and then feels a little guilty. She has done business before, but she is helping Huo Tingchen in the arms business. If she is serious in business, she is not necessarily better than Zhao Tongxin. After all, she graduated from the training camp organized by the killer. Huo Tingchen didn't even give her a diploma, and her ability is in business It doesn't seem to be able to give full play to it. I haven't heard of any assassins who do business without a word.

Zhao Tong Xin smiles again: "is that right? Then you help me deal with the company's affairs. Don't tell me you're not interested. I don't think you can do it. "

She said that on purpose, because she knew that Xu Yanke would be cheated. In fact, she didn't hate to let Xu Yanke be idle like this. She thought that Xu Yanke should master some normal social skills instead of fighting and killing every day. She had been away from society for too long, and it was inevitable that she would have some eccentric personality. This kind of disease can only be improved by contacting more normal people.

However, Zhao Tongxin also knows that if she talks with the charming Xu Yanke, Xu Yanke will only scoff, because they are like natural enemies, and there is no possibility of persuading each other with words, so they can only use provocative methods.

Zhao Tongxin really means well, but it can't be expressed. The taste of these words in Xu Yanke's ears is different. She deeply feels that Zhao Tongxin despises her.

"Zhao Tongxin, don't look down on people. Tell me what I need to deal with in the company and let you see if I can only be a bodyguard for you."

Xu Yanke said angrily, her eyes full of fighting spirit, she will never lose to Zhao Tongxin, since she can do, she will only do better than her!"Xu Yanke, I have to tell you in advance that our company is the pillar industry of the group. Even a small mistake may cause irreparable losses. Are you ok?"

Zhao Tong heart deliberately some doubt of ask her, the purpose is to let her faith more firm some.

In terms of intrigue, Zhao Tongxin must not be as good as Xu Yanke. However, in terms of scheming in the workplace, the two Xu Yanke are not her rivals.

Xu Yanke was cheated. She said angrily: "Zhao Tongxin, don't look down on people. I'll prove it to you now. I'm ten times better than you!"

"Well, take a look at the information. This is the latest investment plan of the marketing department. You are responsible for re planning and adjusting the investment plan."

Zhao Tongxin gives Xu Yanke a pile of information. Xu Yanke grabs the information and sits on the sofa angrily, frowning and studying it.

Zhao Tongxin smiles and shakes his head. Xu Yanke is very smart, but her experience in the workplace is basically zero. If she is not kind-hearted and pushes a bunch of thorny problems to her, she will be scolded to death by her boss. The intrigue in the workplace is no easier than Xu Yanke's previous life environment.

Zhao Tongxin seems to underestimate Xu Yanke's talent. In less than 20 minutes, she photographed the plan on Zhao Tongxin's desk, with a proud look on her face: "I thought how difficult it was. This kind of plan is too simple for me."

"Really?"

Zhao Tongxin looks at Xu Yanke suspiciously, then turns to the plan and looks at it carefully. The expression on her face is more and more complex, and her eyes are also wider and wider. He looks up at Xu Yanke inconceivably: "is this your revised plan?"

"That's right." Xu Yan can light said, quite a kind of hidden feeling.

Zhao Tong Xin's face changed a lot of red expression, said to Xu Yan Ke: "I don't understand very thoroughly, can you explain it to me?"

"No problem."

Xu Yanke answered, opened the plan and continued: "first of all, we need to buy a huge sum of insurance for the company's most valuable group of jewelry. Then one night, I will disguise myself as a thief and steal the jewelry. In this way, the company can claim compensation from the insurance company, and the jewelry has no loss at all. That is to say, the insurance premium of the insurance company is 100% Our net profit, Zhao Tongxin, didn't you think of such an easy way to make money? "

Zhao Tongxin asked for the plan and made a big cross on the plan: "Xu Yanke, what our company is doing is legal business. Do you know that doing so is tantamount to fraud? If you really want to do something like this, once it is exposed, do you know how serious the impact will be on the reputation of the company and even the group? "

"Yes? I always do business by all means. Shouldn't I maximize my profit? "

Xu Yanke has a natural expression. It seems that her idea of doing everything in order to achieve her goal has been deeply rooted in her, and it will be difficult to change for a while.

"If this one is not passed, there can be no idea of fraud in the future."

Zhao Tongxin solemnly warns Xu Yanke with the dignity of the president of the company.

Xu Yanke curled his lips and said: "in the face of you being the president of the company, I don't care about you. Even if this plan doesn't pass, I still have the next plan."

"I've seen another plan of yours. Wait for a group with the same scale as our company to enter the jewelry industry. Before that company's jewelry is in place, grab those goods and sell them in our company?"

"That's right. It's a business without capital and huge profits. Do you think there's anything wrong with my plan?"

Zhao Tongxin closed the plan, sighed and then said to Xu Yanke, "Xu Yanke, you have finally proved yourself."

"I knew that even if I hadn't been in the jewelry business, I could improve the company's profits a lot."

"No, you are wrong. You have proved that you are not suitable for business at all. You'd better concentrate on your own work."

Before Zhao Tongxin said that, she really meant to motivate the general, but this time it was different. She was sincere.

"President Zhao."

Before Xu Yanke has time to lose his temper, he hears someone knocking on the door of the office. In front of outsiders, Xu Yanke still gives Zhao Tongxin face. She stares at Zhao Tongxin, and then sits back on the sofa playing with her mobile phone.

"Come in, please."

Zhao Tong heart politely back, and then the door opened, the security guard who called himself pony put his head in: "Mr. Zhao, there is a beauty to see you, do you see?"

"Beauty, meet me?"

Zhao Tongxin was a little puzzled. Today, she came to the company for the first time, mainly because she was familiar with the environment, so she withdrew all her appointments. How could someone suddenly come to her?

Xu Yanke also stands up from the sofa. Her duty is to protect Zhao Tongxin. Suddenly someone comes to see Zhao Tongxin by name, which arouses her vigilance.

"Where are they now?" Zhao Tong Xin asked.

Xiaoma respectfully replied: "because she didn't make an appointment, according to the company's regulations, I asked several colleagues to accompany them, and now they are downstairs."He said that it was better to ask a few colleagues to accompany her. In fact, he sent someone to watch her.

"Let her come up."

Zhao Tong thought, or decided to see who is looking for himself, Xu Yan can protect himself, safety is guaranteed, and in broad daylight, few people dare to mess in public.

"Tong Xin, don't send someone to call. I've come."

Chapter 372

Rong Qi appears at the door of the office. Her face is a little morbid pale, and her shoulder is still wrapped with a bandage. Even if she lives in the best hospital in Jiangbin, modern technology is very developed, and her injury can not be recovered in such a short time.

"Rong Qi, how did you leave the hospital? Don't run around until the injury is healed. "

Zhao Tongxin is surprised to meet her. When she sees that there are many traces of hospital on Rong Qi, she feels a little distressed and moved. After all, Rong Qi's injuries are all caused by her protection.

Rongqi nodded to Zhao Tongxin and said, "don't worry about me. I'm ok. This discharge is arranged by boss."

"The court let you out of the hospital, he did not know that your injury has not been cured?"

Zhao Tongxin's eyebrows wrinkled. Jin Zhengting is not a soft hearted person, but he is very good to his subordinates when he is dealing with his opponents. Since Rong Qi is sent by him, naturally he has his reason.

"It's urgent, so the boss asked me to leave the hospital ahead of time. Originally, the boss meant to let me go with Shaoyuan, but the wound of Shaoyuan hasn't been stitched. I need to come tomorrow."

Rong Qi explains and looks up at Xu Yanke standing beside Zhao Tongxin. The wound on her shoulder is caused by Xu Yanke, but she doesn't seem to have any hatred for Xu Yanke. She just nods her head lightly.

Xu Yanke knows Rong Qi. If she didn't block Zhao Tong's heart last time, Zhao Tong's heart has been dead for a long time now. But at that time, she didn't know her life experience and hated Zhao Tong so much that she didn't think there was anything wrong with what she did at that time.

Since Rong Qi doesn't care about the past, she can't hold it any more, so she nodded her head, which is a response, and then she went back to the sofa to play with her mobile phone.

Rong Qi came. He must have received Jin Zhengting's order to protect Zhao Tongxin, so his burden was a little smaller and he was very relaxed.

"The boss just received Cheng Mohan's invitation. A cruise ship in Jiangbin was opened, so he invited many rich people to be guests of the first cruise. The boss said that you will receive the invitation soon, so the boss asked me and Shaoyuan to protect your safety."

After Rong Qi sits down, he tells Zhao Tongxin his purpose.

Zhao Tong heart disapproved, said: "Zhengting is really, is not to go to the cruise ship to participate in the ceremony of the first voyage, why make a fuss, but also sent you and spoon, I think Xu Yan can be present enough, you still live in the hospital for a few days, the injury is important."

Rong Qi shakes her head: "Tong Xin, it's not as simple as you believe. The boss says that Cheng Mohan is likely to have a conspiracy, and the cruise ship is sailing to the high seas. If you have fewer people to protect you, you will lose out in case of any accident."

"Then you and the injury of spoon really don't matter?"

Zhao Tongxin asks, showing sincerity and care from her eyes, which makes Rong Qi feel warm. She has worked under Jin Zhengting for many years. Only when she carries out the task of protecting Zhao Tongxin, she will feel very relaxed, because Zhao Tongxin doesn't have the upper shelf. She is gentle and kind to others. After a long time together, Rong Qi can't help being ignored by her I was impressed by a unique charm.

She and Shaoyuan occasionally talk about Zhao Tongxin. In Shaoyuan's words, Tongxin is the best sister, and there is no one. Rong Qi agrees with Shaoyuan's words very much.

"It's not a big problem. I warmed up with the security guards downstairs just now. Apart from the shoulder pain, other functions recovered very well. By the way, Tong Xin, the security guards in your company are too weak to protect your safety. It's better to replace them."

Rong Qi specially moves her shoulders to prove that she's OK. It's also conceivable that the security guard who blocks her downstairs must not be ideal now.

"Well, I just arrived at the company today and I'm not familiar with the situation here. How about Rong Qi, you stay in the company and be the director of the security department for me?"

Zhao Tongxin is familiar with Rong Qi's ability. She thinks this position is suitable for Rong Qi, so she sends out a sincere invitation.

Rong Qi thought about it, a little embarrassed, said: "Tong Xin, I'm glad you can invite me to join the company, I'm willing to come to the company, but the boss has to agree."

"Don't worry, I'll go to the court. You just have to stay in the company."

Zhao Tongxin happily said that she is not very familiar with the environment here, and also wants to find some friends who are familiar with her to help her in the company.

"Well, in that case, I will agree, Tong Xin."

Rong Qi is also very happy. Although she and her brother Rong Lei are both close followers of Jin Zhengting, they are mostly men in the group. She prefers to stay with Zhao Tongxin.

"Zhao Tong heart, the company's high-level transfer seems to be approved by the personnel department can take effect."

Xu Yanke fiddles with her mobile phone and says without raising her eyelids, no matter what kind of decision Zhao Tongxin makes, she wants to play the opposite role. Anyway, it's right to follow the principle of not making her too comfortable. Zhao Tongxin frowned: "now I'm the president of the company. I don't need other people's gossiping about the appointment of department heads, especially the controlling vice president who can't even do the plan."

"Well, what's so great about making a plan."

Xu Yanke doesn't speak any more. She taps her fingers on the mobile phone screen quickly. The screen shows the company's management experience and various course materials of enterprise planning. She secretly vows in her heart that she must learn to make enterprise plans and never let Zhao Tong compare.

"Tong Xin, the boss found out this time that Cheng Mohan's cruise ship is a gambling boat. He is likely to take advantage of this opportunity to take the wealth of the rich as his own, so the boss asked me to tell you that no matter what kind of gambling, you should not participate in it when you get on the ship tomorrow."

Rong Qi conveys Jin Zhengting's speculation to Zhao Tongxin.

"Why, is the court busy tonight?"

Jin Zhengting needs to ask Rong Qi to convey that he has something to do tonight. Not only can he not come to meet her, but also he may not even meet her. Thinking of this, she has a little loss in her heart, because she doesn't think about him all the time. She just wants to see him soon.

"Boss can't come tonight because of something. He told me that if you don't want to go home, you can go anywhere you want, but let Xu Yanke and I protect ourselves."

Rong Qi said, took out a delicate gun from his pocket and threw it to Xu Yanke. Xu Yanke didn't lift his head. He caught the gun as soon as he reached out, and took it into his pocket without looking.

"There are 12 bullets in the gun. The boss said that you have no weapons now, specially prepared for you."

Rong Qi tells Xu Yanke that Xu Yanke's face is touched. It seems that Jin Zhengting's elder brother is still concerned about her. Knowing that she has no weapons to defend herself, he has specially prepared for her.

"Tong Xin, where are you going tonight?"

Rong Qi asks Zhao Tong again. Zhao Tong thinks about it and says, "if it's like this, I won't go back tonight. Let's decide after work. Rong Qi, what do you mean that cruise ship is a gambling boat?"

She is very curious about the cruise ship. Jin Zhengting specially asked Rong Qi and Shaoyuan, who have not yet recovered, to protect her, which shows that this voyage is dangerous. However, Zhao Tongxin, who has experienced many storms, is no longer afraid, and has some expectations of opposing this voyage.

"The boss got the news. It is said that Cheng Mohan found a lot of experts in the casino to get on the cruise ship. The boss analyzed that Cheng Mohan might use these people to win all the assets of the rich people invited to the boat, because many of these rich people are addicted to gambling. He wants to accumulate wealth quickly in Jiangbin, which is also a shortcut, so the boss asked you not to participate in any gambling. "

"Er, Mr. Zhao, I don't think it's a problem to take part in the gambling. As long as you can take me on board, I promise the company won't lose a cent."

Out of the door came a head, the security guard named pony.

Xu Yanke stands up, stares at him coldly, and asks, "why do you eavesdrop on the conversation of the company's top management?"

Pony's face showed a scared expression, trembling said: "I didn't mean to eavesdrop, I just want to stay to see what can help Mr. Zhao, accidentally heard this young lady and Mr. Zhao's dialogue, didn't resist just to speak."

"Well, don't scare him. He means well, too."

Zhao Tongxin stops Xu Yanke from asking about the pony. She is kind-hearted, so she thinks that most people in the world are kind-hearted. She is more willing to believe in others than doubt their good intentions. With less doubt and more trust, the world will become better.

Xu Yanke ignored her and continued to say to the pony, "I know you will show me a thousand skills."

Zhao Tong is stunned for a moment. She remembers that when Xu Yanke saw the pony last time, she told herself that he was a master of thousands of schools. At that time, she didn't care. However, from Xu Yanke's serious expression, she knows what Xu Yanke has planned in her heart, and the ability of the pony is very important to Xu Yanke. Otherwise, with her arrogant character, she won't take care of it. He's an ugly little security guard.

Xiaoma took out a deck of playing cards from his pocket and put them in front of Xu Yanke. His face showed confidence that was not commensurate with his career: "vice president Xu, please check the cards."

Xu Yanke waved his hand and said, "no, you go on."

"The so-called thousand skills are nothing more than recording cards, controlling cards, stealing cards and changing cards. Which one would vice president Xu like to see me show?"

Pony is very casual to say, dexterous fingers keep playing cards, issued bursts of crisp sound, it seems very pleasant.

"Let's see you shuffle. If I remember correctly, it should be the basic skill of Qianmen."

Xu Yan can light say, one eye Mou didn't leave the hand of pony.

"Yes, let's do a fancy shuffle for vice president Xu."

Pony said, playing cards up a pull, playing cards seem to have magic, in his hands into a long dragon, just like the God of gambling movie.

After several times of continuous pulling, the pony stopped and laughed at Xu Yan: "do you think my basic skills are OK?" "Well, yes, I think you have memorized the positions of 54 cards in the process of shuffling."

Pony's face once again showed a confident smile: "vice president Xu, what card do you want, I can give it to you immediately."

"Four aces."

Xu Yanke stretched out four fingers and shook them in front of Xiaomian.

The pony didn't speak. He twirled the cards in his hand at will, and then took out four cards from inside and put them in front of Xu Yanke. Xu Yanke opened them at will, and they were really four a's.

Zhao Tongxin and Rong Qi were stunned, and the scenes that only appeared in the movies appeared in front of them. Just now they had been looking at the pony, and they couldn't see how he did it.

Xu Yanke's eyes brightened: "the skills of recording and controlling cards are good. Go back and prepare. I'll take you on board tomorrow."

Chapter 373

Pony left with a jerk. I can see that he was very happy. I don't know whether it was because he got an opportunity to express himself or because he embodied his value.

"As I told you, he is a master of thousands of schools. If we don't make use of such a master, isn't it a bit too wasteful?"

Xu Yanke said to Zhao Tongxin, her eyes are turning, thinking about something at a high speed.

Zhao Tong Xin didn't quite understand her meaning and asked, "what do you mean?"

"Didn't Rong Qi say that Cheng Mohan's cruise ship might be a gambling boat. His purpose is to invite the rich to get on the boat, and then use the gambling game to squeeze them out. I just carefully observed the little security guard's technique, and I found that his skills have reached the level of perfection. Since Cheng Mohan can use the rich to win their money, why can't we use them? What's the money for Lao Qian to win Cheng Mohan? "

Xu Yan can be white Zhao pupil heart, it seems to be worried about her intelligence quotient, but after all, Zhao Tongxin still has the final say in the company, so he explained his plan with patience.

Zhao Tong thought and objected: "how can that be? Gambling itself is illegal, and it's really immoral for us to win other people's money with a thousand tricks. "

"Hey, you have to make it clear that the destination of the ship this time is the high seas. According to the provisions of international law, no country can interfere in all acts on the high seas. Only the country where the ship is registered has the right to manage it. I think Cheng Mohan has made such a plan. The ship must be registered in a foreign country, so there is no such illegal act as you said."

Xu Yan doesn't have a good explanation. She doesn't like Zhao Tongxin. One of the important reasons is that Zhao Tongxin is too kind. How can a kind person make a big deal?

"Have you ever thought about how many people will go bankrupt and how many families will break up if we win other people's money by despicable means?"

Zhao Tongxin argues that since he has a child, he will become soft hearted. The first thing he thinks about is others, but he doesn't care what a considerable income it will be.

"You don't want to do that. Since you come out to gamble, you have to consider losing. They don't care. What do you care for them?"

Xu Yanke thinks this is a chance to get rich, so he is determined not to retreat.

Two people look at each other's luck, that is, no one can control each other's thoughts.

"Should the boss decide this?"

Rong Qi pondered for a while, and suddenly said that this matter is not a small matter, it may involve all aspects. Although Jin Zhengting has high prestige in the rich circle of Jiangbin, there are many people who are dissatisfied with him. If it is carried out according to Xu Yanke's plan, once there is an emergency that is difficult to control, the consequences will be more serious.

"You are so stupid. Why bother boss to decide these little things? We can wait for Cheng Mohan to win all the rich people's money, and then we can win Cheng Mohan's money."

Spoon garden appears at the door and playfully greets Zhao Tongxin. The lovely girl's visual sense makes people unable to see that she is the mother of two children, and her injury has not yet healed.

"That's a good idea. I think it can."

Xu Yanke doesn't care whether she was hostile to Shaoyuan in the past. She thinks Shaoyuan's proposal is very good, so she immediately accepts it.

Zhao Tongxin still insists on his opinion: "spoon, even if we win Cheng Mohan's money, it's inevitable that many people will go bankrupt, which I don't want to see."

has the final say, if we shoot two hawks with one arrow, we will win the money for the use of the course. We can give most of the money back to the rich, earn a little bit and win the favor of the rich. Is that not killing two birds with one stone?

Although Shaoyuan is usually careless, her brain is still very fast at the critical moment, thinking of all aspects.

Zhao Tong thought, eyebrows also gradually spread: "well, spoon, listen to you."

"Tong Xin, for the sake of giving you such a good idea, your company will take me in."

Shaoyuan looked at Zhao Tongxin pitifully and said, but he was wronged. This lovely appearance made Zhao Tongxin laugh: "spoon, you can come to work at any time as long as you like. With your ability, is it a bit condescending to be the director of the sales department?"

"Duty is the second and the most important thing is the salary. If you marry the boss, you certainly don't know how hard our civilian life is. My children's milk powder money is almost out."

Shaoyuan's aggrieved appearance makes Zhao Tong smile. Even the eyes of Xu Yanke and Rong Qi, who are usually expressionless, show a smile.

Zhao Tongxin knows that Shaoyuan is not short of money, but wants to help her. She is also grateful.

Looking at the three women, her eyes lit up: "I found that we can all form a team. With the communication ability of spoon, it must be no problem to be the head of sales department. Rong Qi is usually so strict, and the security department gives you the most reassuring." She takes another look at Xu Yanke. Xu Yanke also looks at her angrily. Zhao Tongxin will not praise herself. Although she doesn't need Zhao Tongxin's praise, she must be very upset if she is exposed by Zhao Tongxin in front of outsiders.

Zhao Tong heart light said: "a company's operation can not completely rely on normal means, so Xu Yanke is very suitable to do this holding vice president, if the company encounter things can not be solved by normal means, then only you come out."

Xu Yanke snorted: "it's natural, but don't be complacent. I'm not trying to help you. After all, the company has 20% of my shares, so I won't have to deal with money!"

"You help me? As long as you don't make trouble for the company, I'll burn high incense. "

Zhao Tongxin's good temper, once on Xu Yanke, disappeared without a trace, is a pair of natural enemies.

"Well, since everyone has the intention to do a good job in the company, don't fight each other."

Spoon garden mouth advised way, and asked: "Tong Xin, where do you decide to go in the evening?"

Zhao Tong thought about it and said, "let's go shopping. The company is in the jewelry industry. Let's get to know the market."

"Tong Xin, you're pregnant now. Isn't it suitable to go shopping?" Shaoyuan is a little worried about Zhao Tongxin's health. If something goes wrong, Jin Zhengting's temper will make none of them feel better. Moreover, Zhao Tongxin is her good sister, and she doesn't want to see any accident happen to Zhao Tongxin.

"It's nothing. It's only two months. If you pay attention, it's nothing. Besides, you still have to protect me. I believe you."

Zhao Tongxin trusts Shaoyuan and Rongqi very much. He has reserved trust in Xu Yanke.

"Well, it will be arranged according to general manager Zhao's idea."

Shaoyuan made a joke, and Zhao Tongxin laughed. She thought, what's the matter with Jin Zhengting tonight? It's reasonable that he will tell himself if he has something. There's only one reason why he won't tell her, that is, he's afraid of her.

"How can something happen to the court?"

Zhao Tong Xin shakes his head, thinking a little self mockingly, what kind of man Jin Zhengting is, she knows best, no one can threaten him.

Jiangbin is a small but well decorated cafe.

Jin Zhengting sat in front of the table indifferently, did not move or speak.

Cheng moping fiddle with the cup, light said: "I like you, it's true."

Jin Zhengting didn't lift his head. He looked at the coffee in front of him with deep eyes.

"I know you don't trust me because I'm from the Cheng family, but there are many things in my family that you don't understand. You know, at noon, I can ignore the so-called agreement and directly order my men to shoot you, but I didn't do that."

Cheng Mo Bing said it in a soft voice, like to Jin Zheng ting and to himself.

Jin Zhengting still did not speak, just raised his head, some cold and arrogant eyes light looked at Cheng mobing.

"I don't know why. From the first sight I saw you, I recognized you as my man. I might as well tell you frankly that I have many men, but none of them can make me feel as excited as when I met you."

Cheng mobing's eyes show sincerity. What she says is the truth. Lying in front of a man like Jin Zhengting is like looking for his own death, because no one can hide his eyes that seem to know everything.

"Do you know why I promised to see you?"

Finally, Jin Zhengting spoke faintly.

"Do you want to know something about the Cheng family through me, or let me tell you my brother's plan?"

Cheng mobing asks tentatively. She doesn't know why she called him and told him that she fell in love with him after seeing him. She hopes that he can come and talk to her. She didn't expect that he would gladly go to the appointment. She can't think of any other reason except to inquire about information.

"I just want to tell you, give up on me." Jin Zhengting said faintly that if he raised his hand, he would pay the bill.

Cheng mobing stopped him and said anxiously, "give me a reason. I can tell you more frankly. As long as you promise to associate with me, I don't care about the fact that you are married. Now, no, we can start this relationship right away."

"My heart is so small that I can only accommodate one person." Jin Zhengting said lightly.

"Don't you think that after we are together, many things can be solved easily, and the benefits will be very considerable, even the enmity between the Jin and Cheng families can be written off? For the sake of a common woman, you would refuse me. Is she really that good? "

Cheng mobing is not willing to question. In her opinion, her offer is good enough. Jin Zhengting can't refuse it, but he really refuses it without any hesitation.

"She's very good. I might as well tell you frankly that what she can bring me is something the world can't give."

Jin Zhengting stood up. He was no longer interested in this conversation."Don't you want to know my brother's plan for tomorrow?"

Jin Zhengting gave a faint smile: "I didn't come here today to get any valuable clues. I didn't regard you as the third miss of the Cheng family. I just want to tell you, don't waste your feelings on me. I only love one person."

Cheng Mo Bing biting her lips, looking at Jin Zhengting's back, she suddenly asked: "will you go tomorrow?"

Jin Zhengting didn't look back. He said faintly, "yes, with my wife." Then the back of the great bank disappeared outside the door.

Cheng Mo Bing took a deep breath, with a reluctant look on her face, clenched her hands into fists, and murmured to herself, "it seems that I fell in love with a cold man, but it doesn't matter. As long as I want to get, no one can escape. Jin Zheng Ting, you are mine, and you can't run away if you want to!"

Chapter 374

Rong Lei has been waiting in the car for a long time. From the coffee shop to the parking lot, you can see men in casual clothes everywhere, with sharp eyes.

These people are Rong Lei's subordinates, and they are all bodyguards to protect Jin Zhengting. When Rong Lei learned that he was coming to see Cheng mobing, he had already set up defense measures in this area ahead of time. After contacting Cheng mobing once, Rong Lei felt that although she looked weak, she had a huge influence. Based on the hostile relationship between Jin family and Cheng family, he was very happy We have to guard against it.

"Boss, are you ok?"

Rong Lei was relieved when he saw Jin Zhengting get on the bus. He didn't understand why Jin Zhengting came to see Cheng mobing, but since it was the boss's decision, he had to abide by it.

"It's OK. Let's go back."

Jin Zhengting waves and Rong Lei starts the car.

"Boss, why do you have to come to see that woman? She is not a simple role, but also our hostile force. It's too dangerous."

Rong Lei also said with some lingering fear that if Cheng mobing is really going to be bad for Jin Zhengting, in terms of the environment he just lived in, his response measures are really not many.

"We are now in a delicate balance with Huo Tingchen. Neither side has eaten up the strength of the opponent, so there will be no big conflict for the time being. In this situation, a little strength may break the balance. Once the balance is broken, you should think about the consequences."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that Rong Lei certainly knew that both sides were in a state of trial, because no one was sure of winning, so at least the situation seemed very calm. But once this calm was broken, there would be a storm in Jiangbin city. In addition to the winning side, other people involved in the storm would be wiped out.

Jin Zhengting continued to explain: "therefore, I must see clearly the attitude of Chu Cheng mobing towards us. It is very important for us whether she is an enemy or a friend. You have investigated her background, and you should know that her strength is enough to be a force to break the balance at some critical moments."

"But boss, she is a member of the Cheng family. I don't think she knows that Cheng Mohan is disguised by Huo Tingchen. I think she can only be our enemy unless we tell her the truth, but I don't think she will believe what we say."

Rong Lei tries to analyze the current situation. In his opinion, Cheng mobing will only become a hostile force.

"No, I said a few words to her. Maybe the Cheng family is not as flawless as we imagined. The purpose of meeting her this time is achieved."

Jin Zhengting's deep eyes are full of essence. In just a few minutes, he noticed from a few words of Cheng mobing that there are many unknown things in the Cheng family, and he didn't care about them at all. The key point is that he found the contradictions within the Cheng family.

No one observes more carefully than him. Just now, when Cheng mobing accidentally mentioned the Cheng family, he keenly caught the hatred in her eyes.

That's right. It's a kind of extreme hatred. It can be seen that the internal contradictions of the Cheng family are irreconcilable, which becomes an opportunity for him to defeat the Cheng family. The easiest way to break through the stronghold is to disintegrate from the inside.

As for Cheng mobing's confession to him, Jin Zhengting didn't care at all. He didn't know whether Cheng mobing was sincere to him or had other purposes, but he didn't think much about it because he didn't care.

Jin Zhengting won't use other people's feelings to do things that are good for him, because it's not a man's way of dealing with him, and he won't have anything to do with Cheng mobing, because he told Cheng mobing the truth, his heart is very small, he can only accommodate one person, and that person, only Zhao Tong's heart.

"Boss, I have informed all the rich people who have a good relationship with us that they will arrive at your office at 8pm on time."

Rong Lei will finish the task given to him by Jin Zhengting very soon, which is a manifestation of his ability.

"Well, tell ziye and zhanyan to come to my office in the evening."

"Yes, boss."

"Spoon garden and Rongqi notice to you, although Huo Tingchen's plan is good, but can't hide my eyes, I now only worry about, is tomorrow on board, Tong Xin's safety."

Jin Zhengting frowned slightly. He quickly understood Huo Tingchen's cruise plan, but he didn't stop it in advance, because he already had a countermeasure in his mind.

"Boss, you can tell Miss Tong Xin not to get on the boat, so Huo Tingchen will not threaten her."

Rong Lei puts forward his own suggestions, he thinks as long as Zhao Tongxin is not allowed to participate in it.

"No, Tong Xin has to get on the boat. If she doesn't go, it will immediately arouse Huo Tingchen's vigilance. We have to pretend that we don't know anything to hide from him. What's more, Huo Tingchen will definitely make use of the time we get on the boat to do a lot of small moves, or take Tong Xin with me to be safe."

Jin Zhengting said faintly, showing his concern for Zhao Tongxin in his eyes.

"Boss is considerate."

Rong Lei admires that he only thinks that it is dangerous to have Huo Tingchen, but he ignores what kind of man his boss is. Jin Zhengting's side is the safest place in the world. The most prosperous commercial street in Jiangbin city.

It's 6 p.m. now, most of the people are off work, and it's also the time when the commercial street begins to be lively.

This is the favorite place for white-collar workers. They stroll in groups and become one of the few pastimes after work. Looking at the variety of commodities in various shopping malls, which often exceed the six digit price, white-collar workers secretly decide to buy one or two favorite commodities from here one day.

At one end of the commercial street, the crowd suddenly broke out in a commotion. People's eyes were all focused on the four people who just got off the bus.

There are many fashionable beauties in the commercial street, but four super star beauties appear in the commercial street at the same time, which is a rare spectacle.

Zhao Tong Xin walked in the front. When she felt people's warm eyes, her face was a little red. Her pink cheeks were a little red, but it was even more lovely. Her eyes were full of women's unique brilliance, and her actions were full of gentle charm, which made people feel her tranquility and kindness.

Although Xu Yanke is very similar to Zhao Tongxin in appearance, there is always a kind of cold light in her eyes. The eyes that come to her feel numb after a little contact with her eyes, which makes people dare not look down on her. At first glance, she is a typical cold and proud beauty.

The spoon garden at the back follows them carelessly, with a smile on her face and curved eyebrows. People feel happy when they see her smile. It's obvious that she belongs to the kind of lovely beauty.

Rong Qi, who is at the end, is the least concerned by people. It is undeniable that she is also very beautiful, but a sportswear has reduced her score a lot, and the size of her chest seems to be much smaller than the other three. However, some people like her athletic beauty, so she attracts a lot of attention.

"This commercial street is the largest jewelry market in Jiangbin, where the company accounts for more than 50% of the market, that is to say, one of every two stores belongs to the company."

Spoon garden into the role soon, she introduced the business street to Zhao Tongxin, it seems that her sales director has a preliminary grasp of the market dynamics.

"Well, spoon, let's go and have a look."

Zhao Tongxin also wants to know about the market situation. Without saying hello to others in the company, he took his newly formed team to make an on-the-spot investigation, which can be regarded as a micro tour.

Rong Qi's time to enter the role is not slow. She doesn't like to talk much and doesn't care too much about other people's eyes. Now she is very focused and is always within two meters of Zhao Tongxin. If there is any suspicious situation, she can quickly protect Zhao Tongxin.

Zhao Tongxin will be security work to Rong Qi to do, is a very correct decision.

Only Xu Yanke hasn't put herself into her work yet. Zhao Tongxin and her friends come here for work. Only she seems to really come to play. She looks absent-minded.

She feels very upset now. Zhao Tongxin has a good relationship with Shaoyuan and Rong Qi. Because of Zhao Tongxin's identity, they naturally regard her as the core of the team, which makes Xu Yanke feel neglected.

She never felt that Zhao Tongxin was better than her, but because of her identity, she had to accept this fact. However, her belief in making the company bigger was hit hard, so she was inevitably affected emotionally.

Zhao Tong Xin sees that she has emotions, but she doesn't care. Xu Yan is no longer on her hostile list.

All the way, the rate of looking back on the street is 100%. But after shopping for a long time, their hands are still empty and they don't buy anything.

It's not because the price is too expensive. Although the goods on this commercial street are priced at 10000 yuan, it's possible to buy the whole street with Zhao Tongxin's capital. What's more, half of the businesses here are subordinate stores of the company.

They are just adhering to the Chinese women's usual shopping style, only to see but not to buy.

The four beauties strolled around for a long time. Finally, under the leadership of Zhao Tongxin, they walked into a crystal shop together, because Zhao Tongxin liked the name of this small but wonderfully decorated shop, super magic crystal house.

Before entering the door, Shaoyuan pulled Zhao Tongxin's clothes and whispered: "Tongxin, this is not a subordinate store of the company."

"I know. What's the matter, spoon?"

Zhao Tongxin has an understanding of the company's subordinate stores. She doesn't understand why Shaoyuan reminds her of this.

"The jewelry on the commercial street is no less than ten thousand yuan. If it's not a company store, it's not free!"

Spoon garden bitter face, pathetic said.

Zhao Tong Xin looked at the spoon garden and said, "spoon, don't you want to take advantage of the company?"

Shaoyuan nodded: "that's necessary. It's better to give something for nothing than to spend money on it, right? Besides, I can't afford such expensive jewelry."

"Spoon, that's your fault. Don't tell me when Chen Dong went bankrupt after such a big thing happened?"

Zhao Tong Xin gave her a big white eye, and then said seriously. "No, his business is doing well. Don't curse us, Tong Xin."

Spoon garden is not clear, so she didn't react at the moment. Sometimes she reacted quickly, but sometimes she was very nervous.

Zhao Tong Xin said with a smile: "Chen Dong is not bankrupt. How can you not even have this money? Spoon, although we are our own people, I have to make it clear to you that we are not allowed to have any idea about the company."

"Well, well, no wonder some people say that once people do business, they will become stingy. Tong Xin, I think you are going to become an Iron Rooster."

One side of Xu Yanke interjected: "I don't care about anything else. Anyway, the company has 20% of my shares. If anyone dares to take advantage of a cent of the company, I will make her look good."

Driven by interests, Zhao Tongxin and Xu Yanke, the natural enemies, stood on the same front for the first time in history.

Chapter 375

There are few guests in the super magic crystal room. In such a prosperous commercial street, this shop is located in a remote corner, which is not impressive at all. Compared with other jewelry stores, it is much smaller in scale. It only has an area of about 20 square meters by visual inspection, and there are no sales and shopping guides in the shop. A woman in her thirties and dressed in ordinary clothes should be the boss and shopping guide. It's too late.

Although the decoration of the shop is creative, mysterious and tasteful, it has no advantage compared with other jewelry stores.

A door, Rongqi very natural walk in the front, carefully observe the crystal room environment, after confirming that there is no danger, just sign Zhao Tong heart in.

Shaoyuan is closely following Zhao Tongxin, and even Xu Yanke's face shows vigilance. Their protection of Zhao Tongxin has reached a very high level.

They all know that although Huo Tingchen's power has dissipated recently, a more powerful Cheng family has come, so they can't relax. Zhao Tongxin is pregnant and can't make any mistakes.

"Hello, ladies. Please help yourself."

The female boss may have seen four beauties come in together because she hasn't had customers for a long time. She looks surprised, especially after seeing the four beauties' clothes.

People who do business in the commercial street have good eyesight. The four beauties are all famous brands. Zhao Tongxin's bag is a limited edition of Lv. At first sight, she is born in a rich family. The female boss naturally regards them as big customers.

"Hello."

Zhao Tong heart gently said hello to the boss, her gentle smile, even the female boss looked a little silly, because she is really beautiful, from the inside out temperament, like a fairy, noble and elegant.

"Hello, miss. What kind of crystal do you want? The crystals in our shop are all natural and hand polished. I'm sure you'll like them."

The female boss introduces the products of the store attentively. Zhao Tongxin looks at the past with her introduction. It seems that there is nothing special, except some crystal pendants and accessories. She has no interest in these crystal accessories, and the three people around her can't lift their spirits. Every beautiful woman has seen countless scenes, and this kind of crystal is too common for them.

"Boss, do you have any special crystals in this shop? These are too common. "

Spoon garden fiddles with a string of crystal pendant, some disappointed to ask, the name of this shop is very special, think there will be let her surprise crystal, did not expect are some very common goods, disappointment is also a normal reaction.

The female boss observes her words and looks, and keenly catches the disappointment of Shaoyuan. It seems that these four guests are not ordinary people. These ordinary things are hard to get into their eyes, so their eyes brighten. It's time to sell the best crystals in the shop, and only people with their status can afford them.

"Miss, there are some pure natural crystals in the shop, but the price may be more expensive. Would you like to have a look?"

The female boss kept a polite smile and timely promoted the treasures of the store.

Zhao Tong Xin also very casually looked at a few crystal jewelry, heard the female boss's words, light said: "boss, all the money can solve the problem, in my here is not a problem."

"Well, since Miss said so, I'll get it for you."

The woman boss's face suddenly burst into laughter and trotted all the way into the inner room.

"When does Tong Xin become so domineering? How can I feel more and more like boss?" Shaoyuan blinked and joked.

Zhao Tong heart gently played a spoon Garden: "no, today our team just established, I want to buy some valuable gifts for you, if I don't say so, the boss is impossible to take out the best things."

"Zhao Tong heart, your mind is more and more deep."

Xu Yanke said coldly beside her that for her, the smarter Zhao Tongxin is, the worse it is for her. This is something she can't accept.

"There's nothing wrong with deep thinking. It's better than some smart people?"

Zhao Tongxin immediately made a counterattack, and will be smart four words bite very heavy.

"Who do you think is smart?"

Xu Yanke quit at that time. I don't know why. In the recent war with Zhao Tongxin, she was always in a disadvantage, which made her very unhappy.

Zhao Tong Xin gave her a white eye and said, "I'll tell you who's speaking. I'll jump out and scold myself, but I don't think I'm smart."

"You

Xu Yanke is better than Zhao Tongxin in strength, but in eloquence, she is really not her opponent. Zhao Tongxin can't say a few words.

At this time, the female boss came back with a box in her arms. Xu Yanke snorted and turned her head not to look at Zhao Tongxin.

"Ladies, this is the best crystal in our shop. The reason why the shop is called super magic crystal house is because of these crystals."The female boss made some small proud introductions. It can be seen that she was very proud of having these crystals. When she opened the box, the four beauties could not help but be stunned.

Seven crystals of various colors are shining with the light of flowing water, almost transparent color, mellow texture, and colorful brilliance, which makes them really feel a wonderful and mysterious feeling in the magic world.

Women love beautiful things. Although the four beauties have different personalities, women's nature is unified.

"There is a legend in my hometown that each piece of natural crystal of different colors represents different meanings. If someone has a crystal of this color, he will get the meaning of the crystal."

The female boss said piously, picked up a piece of red crystal showing a natural heart shape and put it in the palm of her hand. The light red crystal is flashing warm light, which makes people feel warm when they see it.

"Ladies, this is a natural heart-shaped red crystal. Its moral is love. People who own this crystal will soon get their ideal love. It's very accurate."

Without waiting for others to speak, Xu Yanke grabbed the red crystal in the boss's hand and kept looking at it in the palm of her hand. Her expression was very focused. It seemed that the crystal really had that kind of unspeakable magic, which attracted all her spirit.

Xu Yanke is also an expert in jewelry appreciation. When she first came into contact with crystal, she felt that this crystal is really natural. After a careful look, there are no bubbles in the crystal, no traces of pigmentation, and no traces of manual polishing on the sideline. As the female boss said, this is a natural heart-shaped red crystal.

Not to mention the luster and color of the crystal, it can be sold at a high price only by its shape, but these are not the reasons why Xu Yanke really wants to own the crystal. Just as the boss said, she is eager to get her own love.

A woman is a very emotional animal. Even if she knows clearly that what the boss says may be a lie to sell goods, she would rather believe it. When she is eager to get it, people are not rational.

In her life, Jin Zhengting is the only one she really likes, but now it's impossible. There's a blank in her heart. When a person's feelings are frustrated, she always wants to find a new feeling to fill the blank. So is Xu Yanke.

The boss didn't pay attention to Xu Yanke. She has been in business for many years. When she peeks at it, she can know that this red crystal can be sold. So she tries her best to sell other crystals: "this is a piece of natural Yuanbao type yellow crystal, which represents wealth. If you get it, you will bring wealth."

Spoon garden's eyes were wide open. She took this crystal from the boss's hand, looked at it carefully, and murmured, "can it really bring me fortune?"

"Crystal has magic power, so it can bring money to miss."

Female boss like to coax children said, a little bit of rational people know she is cheating, but every girl has a fairy tale heart, even if the fairy tale is just a most beautiful dream, also do not want to wake up from the dream.

The female boss took out a five pointed star shaped amethyst: "this is a piece of amethyst, its moral is health, with it, will be healthy and long life."

This time, it's Rong Qi who holds out her hand. As a sports beauty, naturally, she is more important than her health. Her character is very calm, so she doesn't like Xu Yanke and Shaoyuan, but her eyes also show a faint fascination.

When the boss introduced her, Zhao Tong didn't move. She said she wanted to give three people a gift, so they had to choose it first. Although she also liked the crystals introduced by the boss very much.

"Miss, these three have chosen their favorite crystal. Which one do you like best? I forgot to tell you that the three crystals are not unique. Each of them has a similar one. In addition to the three, there is another one that is unique. "

The boss said, and took out a piece of green crystal from the box, which looks like a cloud: "this is a lucky crystal. Its magic function is to bring good luck to people, but we should be sincere, sincere is smart."

Zhao Tong Xin looked at the remaining four crystals, nodded his head and said faintly: "boss, I want all the seven."

The female boss's eyes flashed a trace of ecstasy, but tried to restrain the joy, quietly said: "Miss, each crystal is worth 300000, are you sure you want it?"

Zhao Tongxin took out a credit card from his bag and handed it to his boss: "can I swipe the card here?"

"Yes, just a moment."

The boss took the card and went to brush it. The business opened, which was enough for her to eat for several years.

"Tong Xin, you are too greedy. You want every one of them."

As the wife of Jin Zhengting and the president of the group's most powerful jewelry company, Shaoyuan said to Zhao Tongxin enviously while playing with her own wealth crystal. The money for buying crystal is really nothing to Zhao Tongxin.

"I'm not greedy. Which woman doesn't want these?" Zhao Tongxin's eyes also show a naive look. Since she was with Jin Zhengting, she hasn't had such a fairy tale like dream for a long time. Maybe in the world where fairy tales are carefree and dreams come true, it's her most yearning nature.

"I don't think you need to buy anything. You've got money, wealth, health and luck."

"I want to give all these to Zhengting, as long as he is good, it's enough."

Zhao Tongxin will belong to her crystal carefully into the bag, eyes gently said, no matter when, she first thought of, is that let her dream of the man.

"Miss, I've decided that since you have bought seven crystals, I'm going to give you that lucky crystal."

The boss swipes the card to return the credit card to Zhao Tongxin, sincerely said.

Xu Yanke opened his eyes and murmured to himself: "lucky crystal works so soon?"

Chapter 376

"Boss, I want all the crystals I saw last time."

Just as Zhao Tongxin and the three beauties were about to leave, a familiar voice came from the door. Xu Yanke's face changed when he heard the voice, and a look of displeasure flashed in his eyes.

As soon as Xu Ting came in, she saw Zhao Tongxin and Xu Yanke. There was disgust in her eyes, but it just flashed away. Then she changed her warm expression on her face and took the initiative to come and say hello: "Tong Xin, it's a coincidence. I didn't expect you to be here."

"Well, I've just bought something and I'm going to leave." Zhao Tong's answer is lukewarm.

Xu Ting didn't feel embarrassed. She turned her head to look at Xu Yanke and pretended to be surprised and said, "Tong Xin, who is this? It looks like you. It's not the substitute you're looking for, but it's also necessary. If there are bad people who want to do harm to you, it's not good for the child to lose. You must pay more attention to it. Don't be like last time. It's not good for the child to be killed again 。 ”

Xu Ting's words are very vicious. She not only attacks Xu Yanke, but also curses Zhao Tongxin. She also turns out that Zhao Tongxin's child was killed last time. Her purpose is to make Zhao Tongxin feel bad.

"Xu Ting, if you feel that there is no love in life, I can help you."

Xu Yanke and Xu Ting's relationship has been the same, absolutely impossible to swallow, she step forward, staring at Xu Ting coldly said.

"Don't scare people like that. I'm afraid."

Xu Ting stepped back and pretended to be very scared. She said to Zhao Tongxin, "Tongxin, how can your double be so fierce? It scared the hell out of me

"Xu Yanke, calm down."

Zhao Tong's heart is expressionless. He reaches for Xu Yanke to step back. Xu Yanke stares at her. He didn't want to listen to her, but seeing the chill in her eyes, he takes a step back.

From her eyes, she seemed to see the shadow of Jin Zhengting, an irresistible momentum.

"Xu Ting, why are you here?"

There is no other difference in Zhao Tongxin's voice. He is as calm as usual.

"The day before yesterday, I came here to go shopping and found this crystal house by chance. Then my boss introduced me some magic crystals. At that time, I didn't think it was special. But yesterday, someone wanted to open a company with me. I thought I needed Topaz to bring me some fortune. So I came to buy it. I didn't expect to meet you. The world is too small."

Xu Ting knows Zhao Tongxin's character. She is always very gentle, so she dares to poke her pain in public. However, Xu Ting finds that her self-cultivation seems to be much better than before, and she doesn't see any mood fluctuation from her face.

"I just bought two pieces of the topaz you said. It seems to be the last two."

Zhao Tong heart light said, from the bag to take out the piece of the symbol of wealth of topaz, in front of Xu Ting shook.

"Ah? Tong Xin, I really like this crystal. Why don't you sell it to me? "

Xu Ting is not a superstitious person, but this crystal seems to be really magical. After she has a look at it, she will never forget it. Huo Tingchen, who has become Cheng Mohan, has sent someone to contact her and asked her if she can cooperate to open a jewelry company, and has definitely told her that the purpose is for Zhao Tongxin. For this reason alone, she can't refuse He accepted the invitation.

Today, all day long, she was wondering whether the piece of topaz really had a mysterious magic power. She got a lot of fortune after just looking at it. So she came to buy the topaz. Unexpectedly, she met Zhao Tongxin and Xu Yanke. It was really hard for her to get along with each other, and it seemed that Zhao Tongxin and Xu Yanke got along well, which made her very unhappy.

After learning that topaz has been bought by Zhao Tongxin, her heart is even more upset. Why is that woman faster than herself no matter what she does? Why does that woman have to grab what she likes?

Xu Ting hates Zhao Tong heart so much that her teeth itch. She wants to kick her stomach, but she still holds back. When there are too many people, she has to make a charming little woman image to hide herself. Besides, Zhao Tong heart has three female experts around her. With her ability, even if she can attack successfully, she can't escape the siege of the other three women.

But for that piece of topaz, she still wants to fight for it as much as possible.

Zhao Tong Xin looked at her one eye, light said: "anyway, you are also my cousin, since you like, I will give you one."

She said slowly to Xu Ting, hand to her direction, spoon garden and Rongqi look at each other, slowly follow Zhao Tongxin behind, if Xu Ting to Zhao Tongxin action, they can stop in the first time.

Xu Yanke is thinking that Xu Ting's best move is to attack Zhao Tongxin, which can not only hurt Zhao Tongxin, but also make Xu Ting bear people's anger. It's killing two birds with one stone, but she is also slowly on guard against Xu Ting's actions. Xu Ting can hurt Zhao Tongxin, but if she wants to hurt Zhao Tongxin's children, she won't ignore it.

After all, Zhao Tongxin's belly is the flesh and blood of the Jin family. She is the second miss of the Jin family. Although she has not been officially recognized by the family, it is only a matter of time. She has already regarded the Jin family as her own home. Even if she does not deal with Zhao Tongxin, she must not let outsiders hurt the Jin family. Xu Ting won't do it. With her IQ, she quickly calculates the advantages and disadvantages. At this time, she is attracted to Zhao Tong, which is like absorbing Jin Zhengting's anger. She won't do this kind of thing.

And look at the appearance of Zhao Tong Xin, it seems to be in soft, did not see that she has sent the topaz over?

Zhao Tong Xin's hand stretched out to come over, suddenly become slap, raise a hand is a record loud slap in the face.

Xu Ting's Kung Fu is very good, but she didn't expect that Zhao Tongxin would slap her face. She subconsciously wanted to block it, but from the corner of her eye, she caught a glimpse that Xu Yanke was staring at her, and Zhao Tong followed Shaoyuan and Rongqi. If she did, she would expose her real strength, so she could only close her eyes and face Zhao Tongxin's slap.

With a slap, the slap was clear and loud, and full of strength. Xu Ting's face was crooked to one side, and her cheek immediately became red and swollen, and five fingerprints were clearly visible.

"Zhao Tongxin, why do you beat me?"

Xu Ting covers her face. No matter how good her Kung Fu is, it's also a solid face beating. The burning pain inevitably spreads to her brain. She is about to explode, but she has to bear it. The only thing she can do is to question in a pitiful tone.

"As I said just now, anyway, you are also my cousin. I can't let others beat you. I have to do it myself, and you should be glad that you are my cousin. Otherwise, the consequence is not that it's so easy to get a slap in the face."

Zhao Tong Xin's face is very calm, no sign of anger can be seen, but her eyes are very cold, this kind of eyes is almost never before, so we can see that she is really angry.

The child was killed by Huo Tingchen, is in her heart forever pain, no matter who use this matter to ridicule her, she must let that person pay a heavy price!

"Zhao Tong Xin, you are too much. I just want to remind you. I didn't expect you to be so mean!"

Xu Ting's defense is very weak. People with a little intelligence can recognize the meaning of her words. Zhao Tongxin only slaps her in the face, which is very light. However, Xu Ting habitually regards herself as a victim. Some of her personality disguises a lot, which naturally becomes a habit.

For the first time, Xu Yanke feels that Zhao Tongxin has done a very right thing. Looking at Xu Ting's shriveled appearance, she feels too much fun.

"Remember, next time you mention something I don't want to hear in front of me, it's not a slap in the face."

Zhao Tongxin takes the lead to walk out of the crystal house. Shaoyuan and Rongqi follow her step by step. When Xu Yanke passes by Xu Ting, with a mocking smile in his eyes, he snorts from his nose and says in a low voice: "Xu Ting, I don't know how to express my present mood except that I deserve it."

"Don't think it's more beautiful for you to follow Zhao Tongxin as a dog. Sooner or later, I'll dig out your eyes!"

Xu Ting whispers to Xu Yanke that if she was about to be angry just now, she is now completely angry. She can bear to be slapped by Zhao Tongxin. After all, she is Jin Zhengting's wife, and now she can't have a direct conflict with her. However, Xu Yanke is nothing. She even jumps out to ridicule her. It's intolerable.

"Well, I'll wait for you, but it's not necessarily who is digging whose eyes." Xu Yanke went out after saying this.

Xu Ting covered her red and swollen face and stood in the same place, her eyes shining with uncertain light. After a long time, she came out of the crystal house, found a corner where there was no one, took out her mobile phone and dialed Huo Tingchen: "Mr. Huo, I'm Xu Ting."

"What's the matter with Miss Xu?" It's Huo Tingchen's voice.

"I met Zhao Tongxin just now. Jin Zhengting protects her very closely. I don't think you should send someone to arrest her tonight. You'd better wait until Jin Zhengting gets on the boat."

"There will be no chance after tonight. You should know Jin Zhengting very well. He will certainly take Zhao Tongxin with him. At that time, we won't be able to succeed."

"Well, let's change our plan. You can lend me those thousand experts. I'll be Zhao Tongxin's opponent tomorrow. I promise to win her company back."

"That's a good idea. If you hold her down, I can concentrate on dealing with Jin Zhengting."

"Remember what you promised me. Even if you bring down the Jin family, you can't hurt Zhengting."

"Miss Xu, don't worry. Since I have promised you, I will do it according to our agreement. I will give you a complete Jin Zhengting at that time."

"Well, I believe Mr. Huo once. I hope our cooperation will be very pleasant."

Xu Ting put down the phone, frowned and thought about it, and said to herself, "Zhao Tongxin, tomorrow I'll let you know my strength. We'll see. I'll give you back this slap!"

In another section far away from Jiangbin, Huo Tingchen put down his mobile phone and showed a cruel smile on his face. Long Jiu asked: "brother, the plan seems to be very smooth. Jin Zhengting didn't seem to notice our plan." "Yes, I hope everything will go smoothly. After tomorrow, most of the rich people in Jiangbin will go bankrupt, and we can quickly accumulate wealth and defeat Jin Zhengting in the shortest time. I will kill him myself!"

With a smile in his eyes, long Jiu asked, "didn't you just promise Xu Ting to give him a complete Jin Zhengting?"

Huo Tingchen's eyes showed a sinister light: "yes, I promised her that I would give the complete Jin Zhengting to her, but I didn't say whether I was alive or dead. I am a person with great credit, so I will give her the complete Jin Zhengting's body."

Chapter 377

8 p.m. in the president's office.

The top 15 rich people in Jiangbin city have gathered here, and they have come here secretly under the arrangement of Rong Lei. Few people know their whereabouts.

If it's someone else's arrangement, they won't give face, but this is what Jin Zhengting means. They can only accept that although these people are one of the 20 most wealthy people in Jiangbin, they are nothing compared with Jin Zhengting.

So when Jin Zhengting walked into the office, these rich people all stood up to greet him.

Jin Zhengting gives them a light nod, which is a response. Then he quickly steps to the master's seat and sits down. Rong Lei stands behind him with both hands on his back.

"Ladies and gentlemen, you are here today to discuss tomorrow's business."

Jin Zhengting is not polite to these people, and his opening remarks are simple and clear.

These rich people looked at each other, and they all received the invitation issued in the name of Tianhong Group, asking them to board the Jiangbin cruise ship tomorrow and take part in the cruise ship's first voyage.

The rich know in their hearts that the influence of the Cheng family is ready to move in Jiangbin city. The purpose of inviting them this time is to test their attitude towards Tianhong Group. If they refuse, they will draw a clear line with the Cheng family. One day they will meet, and they will be the enemy.

has the final say that the Jin family is the real leader in the riverside. So when they received the invitation, they did not directly agree, but looked at the reaction of Jin Zheng Ting, because the rich people's minds had a small calculating abacus, while Cheng's power was not inferior to that of Jin family, but it was also limited to Jiangdong city and Jiangbin City, and everything was still Jin Zhengting's final say.

Maybe one day, there will be a fierce fight between the Cheng family and the Jin family. These rich people are still on the sidelines, trying not to show obvious tendentiousness in the delicate balance between them.

However, since Jin Zhengting has accepted the invitation, they naturally have no reason not to go. Otherwise, both sides will be offended and life will be very difficult.

One of them pondered for a moment and said, "Mr. Jin, you didn't want to deal with the Cheng family. You accepted the invitation first, so we made a decision with you. Is there anything wrong with that?"

"You're wrong. I didn't mean that."

Jin Zhengting raised his hand to signal the rich to sit down. His dark eyes swept over everyone present and said faintly, "I got a message that there is a conspiracy in this invitation."

"Conspiracy?"

The rich are not fools. After listening to Jin Zhengting, they can't help but take a breath of air-conditioning. Everyone knows how much energy Jin Zhengting has in Jiangbin. There's nothing to hide from him.

"Mr. Jin, what's the plot of Tianhong Group? Do they want to sail to the high seas and kill us all?"

When a rich man said the worst he could think of, everyone whispered and discussed the possibility.

"No, all of you here are big figures in Jiangbin city. With all kinds of backgrounds, no matter how bold Tianhong Group is, it dare not do such drastic things."

Jin Zhengting, who is already familiar with the inside story, denied the rich man's idea. He said faintly, and the conversation changed: "however, Tianhong Group will have a way to make your life worse than death."

"Mr. Jin, let's be frank. What's the plot of Tianhong Group?"

A quick tempered rich man took the lead in asking that if he did this in normal times, he would worry that he might offend Jin Zhengting, but now it's a time of crisis, and he can't care so much.

Jin Zhengting didn't get angry and didn't even have an expression on his face: "I learned that Tianhong Group will transport at least 20 thousand experts to the ship. It is said that when the cruise ship sails to the high seas tomorrow, they will organize a so-called charity gambling game. In the gambling game, you will lose all your property, and all your lost property will flow into the name of Tianhong Group."

"It's mean. I hate people cheating on the table."

A rich man began to denounce, and many people agreed with him. These people are old hands who have been in casinos all the year round. No wonder Huo Tingchen made such a plan. No matter what kind of gambling, it will attract a large number of gamblers.

When Jin Zhengting frowned, these rich people immediately stopped condemning him. There was a complete silence in the office, because they saw that Mr. Jin was unhappy. Once Mr. Jin got angry, it was uncertain whether they could get out of the office alive.

"I call you here to remind you that no matter what the gambling game will be tomorrow, don't lose your mind. Remember to stop in time."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that in fact, this is not the main purpose for him to call these rich people over. His real purpose is to tell them that Tianhong Group has coveted your property. It is clear at a glance who is the enemy and who is the friend. It's time for you to choose the side and stand in the line. If you are not a fool, you will not stand on the side of seeking all your property by despicable means .

Of course, these rich people understand the implication of Jin Zhengting, but they choose to be silent. Even if they know the plot of Tianhong Group, they do not explicitly support Jin Zhengting. These people are old foxes in business. They don't have forever friends or enemies. They only have permanent interests. Before the Jin and Cheng families are divided, they will not show their position. In other words, their position is only to support the strong.

Jin Zhengting expected this result. He waved his hand: "I've told you what happened. You should be more careful tomorrow."

This is a concluding remark. The rich stood up, said goodbye to Jin Zhengting and left one after another.

"Boss, these old foxes are so hateful. We've achieved this level, and we don't have the heart to be grateful!"

Waiting for the rich to leave, Rong Lei said indignantly.

"It's OK. I never expected these people to help me. Last time when the stock market was in turmoil, I didn't see any of these people stand up, so I had psychological preparation."

Jin Zhengting said calmly, as if he was not angry at all.

"Boss, why should we remind them to let Huo Tingchen win all their property?"

Jin Zhengting's mouth moved slightly, with a faint smile: "there is a very delicate balance between us and Huo Tingchen, because he and I know that no one is sure to win, but the combined wealth of these rich people is very considerable. If Huo Tingchen gets it, the tacit balance will be broken, and then he will give us a hand, and we will be very happy It's passive. "

Rong Lei suddenly realized: "so anyway, we can't let Huo Tingchen's plot succeed. I understand, boss."

"That's not necessarily true. I've heard that these rich people have become addicted to gambling in varying degrees after they are developed. As long as Huo Tingchen uses some small tricks, these people may soon fall into the trap."

Jin Zhengting taps his fingers on the desk and gets lost in meditation. He is thinking about countermeasures. Rong Lei doesn't speak any more. The boss doesn't like to be disturbed when he is thinking about things.

"Zhengting, what are you thinking?"

When Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan come in, Yang ziye is still careless and shouts as soon as he enters the office.

"Here you are."

Jin Zhengting recalled his thoughts and said to them.

"Zhengting, is there anything important you want us to do?"

Lu zhanyan knew that Jin Zhengting had asked them to come here so late. It should be a bit tricky.

"Well, you should know Huo Tingchen's plot."

Jin Zhengting lights a cigarette and takes a deep breath. He tells them that since they have analyzed the fact that Cheng Mohan is Huo Tingchen's disguise, Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan have also strengthened their surveillance of Huo Tingchen. Naturally, they can't hide this from them.

"I know that you called more than a dozen tycoons from consortia to come here tonight. They must have told them about Huo Tingchen's plot. How about that? Have they expressed their support for you?"

Lu zhanyan guessed Jin Zhengting's intention when he thought about it for a while, and he could probably guess the reaction of the rich, but he still had a glimmer of hope. If he got the support of these consortia, it would be much easier to deal with Huo Tingchen.

"No, they are the same, so we can't count on them any more." Jin Zhengting said lightly.

"As far as I can infer, these people will fall into Huo Tingchen's trap sooner or later. Zhengting, you have to prepare early."

Lu zhanyan is still very far sighted and has a clear mind. He soon predicted the adverse situation that will happen.

"I will. If that happens, I will do it myself. If Huo Tingchen wants to get the wealth of those consortia, he must agree with me."

Jin Zhengting flicked the ash. His slender fingers were very dexterous and his nails were neatly trimmed.

Yang ziye's eyes lit up for a moment. He was not interested in the intrigue in the mall. But when he heard that Jin Zhengting wanted to do it himself, he immediately became interested: "Zhengting, I haven't seen you playing poker and mahjong for nearly 20 years. How about performing for me today? It's like warming up for tomorrow's gambling."

"I never need to warm up. If you want to see it, go to the boat tomorrow." Jin Zhengting resolutely refused Yang ziye's request.

"Well, Zhengting, I wanted to go to the boat, but my great uncle will come to see me tomorrow, so I can't go. Don't be angry with me."

Yang ziye said bitterly, as if it were true.

Lu zhanyan glanced at him and said to Jin Zhengting, "this boy originally wanted to investigate. As a result, he heard that Huo Tingchen and long Jiudu would be there. He was so scared that he didn't dare to go. Last time he was in the Hilton Hotel, he was so scared that he didn't dare to come out of the bathroom."

Jin Zhengting looks at Yang ziye with a smile in his eyes. Yang ziye shakes his head like a rattle and denies: "no, absolutely not. Zhengting, don't listen to his nonsense. I really have something to do tomorrow, so I can't go with you. Take care of yourself. Besides, last time I was not alone in the bathroom, I also went to speak."

"Zi ye, you should make it clear that I'm different from you in nature. I'm really upset." "Whatever the reason, you're hiding in the bathroom."

Jin Zhengting suddenly asked Yang ziye, "ziye, how did you come here?"

Yang ziye was stunned for a moment: "I came here by car. What's the matter?"

"How are you going to get back?"

"Of course, I'll go back by car."

Jin Zhengting light said: "don't take a car, take a wheelchair."

Yang ziyue's face immediately changed. He drooped his head and said weakly, "OK, can't I accompany you on board tomorrow?"

Chapter 378

In the early morning, the sea breeze at the port is blowing slowly, and a red sun is rising slowly from the horizon in the East. Under the warm sunshine, the cruise ship Jiangbin with white coating exudes soft and warm colors.

Huo Tingchen stood on the rooftop of the cruise ship with a glass of fragrant and rich red wine. He had a panoramic view of everything on the deck and had a feeling of overlooking the world.

Long Jiu stands beside him quietly, and his charming eyes keep swimming on him. Huo Tingchen is wearing Cheng Mohan's mask now, but long Jiu can feel his unique feminine temperament from under the mask. Maybe not all women like this temperament, but she just likes his unique feminine temperament.

"Are all those people on board?"

Huo Tingchen tasted a mouthful of red wine with excited light in his eyes. The plan went smoothly unexpectedly. Even his old rival Jin Zhengting didn't seem to notice anything, so he gladly accepted his invitation.

"Except for Jin Zhengting, all the other invited idiots have been on board."

Long Jiu looked at the pier, which was much busier than usual, and countless luxury cars stayed here. He also said excitedly.

"When Jin Zhengting's people get on board, they will inform the captain to take the cruise ship to the high seas as fast as possible. Remember, it must be fast."

"OK, brother, as long as these people get on the boat, they will be at our disposal. We might as well sink the boat directly and save a lot of trouble."

Long Jiu likes to make death. She doesn't think much of Huo Tingchen's gentle plan.

"No, we can't do that. It's really easy for the rich people in the consortia to get rid of them. But don't ignore the background behind these people. Behind each consortia, there are quite influential people supporting us. Although our strength is stronger than before, it's not enough to compete with these forces, so we'd better try to reduce the trouble as much as possible, So this time I just want the money.

Huo Tingchen has always been very cautious. Even if this is the best chance to get rid of the riverside rich headed by Jin Zhengting, he still chooses to avoid pulling up the meaningless hatred value.

"Brother, I still can't understand that if we win the property of these rich people, they won't have resentment against us. These rich people are not idiots. We will soon understand that we are doing little things behind our backs."

Long Jiu seems to have found a loophole in the plan and proposed it to Huo Tingchen.

Huo Tingchen laughed: "you are still too young. Who told you that I would win them from the beginning? I will wait until they kill each other, and finally come out to clean up the mess. Not only will I not arouse the suspicion of those rich people, but I may be very grateful to see me avenging them at the gambling game. "

Long Jiu thought about it, his eyes lit up: "brother, your plan is perfect."

Huo Tingchen thought for a moment and said, "I'm only worried that Jin Zhengting's obnoxious guy will come out to stir up the game, but it doesn't matter. I decided to divide this gambling game into two games, one for the men who accept the invitation, and the other for the women. At that time, I'll only be responsible for dealing with Jin Zhengting, and the woman's side will be handed over to Xu Ting to deal with it. Your current identity is more sensitive, what do you want So don't get involved. If others see you still alive, it may cause unnecessary trouble. "

"It's just the wives or juniors of those rich people, and the biggest enemy is the inexperienced Zhao Tongxin. So you can rest assured, but why do you want Xu Ting to do it? To be honest, I don't trust that woman."

Huo Tingchen waved his hand: "you can trust her, because the most terrible thing for a woman is her jealousy. Because of jealousy, she has regarded Zhao Tongxin as an invincible enemy. We just want to use her to help us. I think she will be very beautiful."

A pair of his Phoenix eyes swept the highway of the port. A limited edition Maybach series sports car came at a gallop. Huo Tingchen's pupils contracted for a moment, and his mouth rose, showing a cruel smile: "Jin Zhengting, I've been waiting for you for a long time."

As soon as the car stops and the car door opens, Jin Zhengting's figure appears on the wharf. The sea breeze blows up his hair, which is slightly disordered, but it makes people feel a kind of indescribable elegance.

A black suit perfectly shows his tall and straight figure. Jin Zhengting has no expression on his face. His angular face, cold face and dark eyes immediately become the focus of the whole port.

The invited rich people are getting on the ship one after another. Many people who got on the ship first have gathered on the deck of the cruise ship, including some wealthy families and young women. Their eyes have been completely attracted by Jin Zhengting, and their eyes have gradually taken on the shape of love.

The unmarried girls, when they saw Jin Zhengting, couldn't help speeding up. From such a long distance, they seemed to have felt Jin Zhengting's heroism. Their handsome appearance made their hearts drunk. Everyone couldn't help imagining that if he could become his husband, they would never be married again. There will be some regrets.

The wives of those rich people are all young women who are gorgeous. They have been attracted by Jin Zhengting for a long time. Their strong figure and vigorous pace perfectly present the temperament of a man who is at the best age in life. Such a handsome and rich man is their dream lover. Their eyes always stay on him. I didn't leave for a second, and my husband didn't hear me for several times. Now they don't even want to see the bad old man around them. Compared with Jin Zhengting, her husband who has turned into a Mediterranean hairstyle is too annoying.

Jin Zhengting didn't get on the boat immediately after he got off the bus. He paced along the edge of the dock. Rong Lei was not far away from him and scanned the surrounding environment with alert eyes.

Jin Zhengting only took him with him this time, so the task of protecting the boss fell on him alone, so he had to be more cautious than usual.

"Has Tong Xin arrived yet?" Jin Zhengting stops and asks Rong Lei.

Rong Lei looked at his watch and said, "boss, just now Rong Qi called. Miss Tong Xin, they have already started. They will arrive in a few minutes."

"Well."

Jin Zhengting answers faintly. He glances at Huo Tingchen. They are so far away that they are in the limit of their eyesight, but they can still feel each other's sharp eyes.

They watched each other silently. After a long time, Huo Tingchen raised his glass to Jin Zhengting and made a gesture to celebrate the victory.

Seeing his action, Jin Zhengting just gave a cold glance, but the momentum of not angry and self-confident was a deep expression of his strength.

Huo Tingchen doesn't care. He thinks Jin Zhengting is hostile to him because he is now the head of the Cheng family. Jin and Cheng families have always been feuds, but they have been relatively calm in the last 30 years. Now he has broken this calm as the head of the Cheng family, and will soon be able to stir up disputes between the two families. In Huo Tingchen's view, this is a very happy thing.

No matter what method he uses, he will take revenge on the Jin family.

Unfortunately, he didn't know that Jin Zhengting had a thorough insight into his seemingly perfect plan just because of a few minor flaws.

"Boss, Huo Tingchen is so complacent. It seems that he has made a thorough arrangement. He should be careful after he gets on the ship. I'm afraid he will jump over the wall in a hurry."

Rong Lei's brow wrinkled up, he is now worried about the ship, Huo Tingchen will make what crazy move.

"Don't worry, as long as we don't expose the fact that he pretends to be Cheng Mohan, even if we win him in the end, he will bear it."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he knew Huo Tingchen and knew that he would make unexpected moves only when he was desperate.

Huo Tingchen has never been a real gambler. Although he has won several key life gambles, he is not a risk-taking person in essence, especially when there is a way out.

It can be said that Huo Tingchen's feminine temperament determines that he will not give up everything in order to achieve a certain purpose like a real man.

This is not only his strength, but also his biggest weakness. Jin Zhengting is the best at grasping other people's weaknesses.

This is why Jin Zhengting always has the upper hand in several battles. Huo Tingchen is selfish and has only himself in his heart, so his first choice is to avoid making trouble for himself. Jin Zhengting is different. He has to consider for many people, and the most important thing is to protect Zhao Tongxin. The more important she is in his heart, the stronger his strength will be Big.

This is the essential difference between the two people, and it also determines the trend of their confrontation.

"Boss, Miss Tong Xin is here."

Rong Lei sees Zhao Tongxin's car from a distance and reminds Jin Zhengting.

Two red luxury cars are parked next to the Ferrari sports car. Zhao Tongxin gets out of the car. At the first sight, he sees Jin Zhengting not far away, walking towards him.

Shaoyuan and Rongqi get out of the car, but they don't follow Zhao Tongxin. Ronglei is also quietly away from Jin Zhengting. They need independent space.

"The court."

Zhao Tong Xin showed a gentle smile, came to Jin Zhengting's side, with a touch of affection in his voice.

"Well."

Jin Zhengting answered simply and naturally took Zhao Tongxin's hand: "let's go."

"Good."

Zhao Tong Xin let him hold his hand, do bird like, the temperature from his palm, let her feel very comfortable.

"By the way, Zhengting went shopping yesterday and bought some nice crystals. I want to give them to you. I don't know if you like them or not."

Zhao Tong can't help holding Jin Zhengting's arm and whispering.

The corner of Jin Zhengting's mouth raised slightly, showing a faint smile, and her eyes became more and more gentle: "I like what you give me."

Two people show the picture of love, immediately let the women on the deck fried the pot.

"That woman is president Jin's wife? It's very common. I don't think she's more beautiful than me. "

A married young woman said with disdain. When she said this, she might be more empty than her bald husband's kidney, and her tone was full of jealousy.

"I really envy that woman. If only I could walk on the beach with president Jin's strong arm like this, it would be the most romantic thing in the world." I don't know which financial group's daughter said with her chin, her eyes full of envy.

"Look at Mr. Jin's wife. If you look at your dead face again, it took tens of millions of dollars for plastic surgery, but you haven't seen any beauty. That's enough!"

A rich man looked at Zhao Tong's heart for a long time, and then looked at his wife, who was a man-made beauty.

"Do you mean to talk about me? If you look at Mr. Jin's figure and your stomach, no wonder it didn't work in three minutes last night! "

The woman immediately retorted.

The rich man's face immediately turned into a pig liver color. He grabbed the woman and didn't know where she had gone. Many people heard this. It was a shame.

Chapter 379

At eight o'clock in the morning, with a long whistle, the cruise ship Jiangbin slowly left the port and sailed toward the deep blue sea.

Jin Zhengting stands on the deck facing the sea breeze. His deep eyes seem to be integrated with the endless ocean. There are women passing by him from time to time. It seems that he has a casual glance.

Zhao Tong Xin quietly nestles up beside him. When he is with him, he feels the familiar smell on his body, and his mood becomes calm.

However, when she saw that there were always women deliberately approaching him, her quiet face was not calm. After seeing Jin Zhengting, every woman would look at her face to face, with all kinds of envy and jealousy in her eyes. Zhao Tongxin also responded to each other with cold eyes, and deliberately moved the two people's hands tightly together. This was a propaganda Show her sovereignty.

All the people in Jiangbin know that Zhao Tongxin is Jin Zhengting's legal wife, so these women dare not do too much. Although they are unwilling, they will not show it clearly. After all, because this incident angered president Jin, it will be very difficult for them to live in the future.

Shaoyuan sees Chen Dong in the crowd on the deck. As he is, she will be invited. So she tells Rong Qi that she takes Chen Dong to a corner where there is no one. She whispers something.

Chen Dong nodded to show that she understood her words, motioned her to return to Zhao Tongxin's side, and then called his men, quietly charged.

Rong Lei and Rong Qi are standing not far away. They only exchange one look, and then they are on guard. Huo Tingchen's people are on the ship, and they haven't relaxed their vigilance since they got on the ship.

"Wow! This is the vast sea, Mr. Xu. I grew up in the mountains and have never seen it before. " was a little pony that could be brought to the boat like a curious baby. What looked fresh and looked out loud and loud. The appearance of this woodlouse made the rich men of the sea breeze blowing away from the deck, and their eyes were slowly taunting.

Xu Yanke also felt that she had no face. She frowned and gave him a warning in a low voice: "Hey, don't make any noise. Be careful I'll throw you into the sea again!"

The pony immediately covered his mouth with his hand and said pitifully, "Mr. Xu, I really haven't seen him before, so I can't help but make a loud voice. I'll pay attention to it later. Don't throw me into the sea. I'm a draught duck. I can drown in the bath pool."

Xu Yanke gave him a big white eye: "waste, I can warn you, when the game starts, if you lose to me, I will not pick your skin!"

Mention gambling, pony's look immediately changed, he is very serious patted chest guarantee: "vice president Xu, please rest assured, other I dare not say, as far as Qianshu is concerned, I and master learn more than ten years, on the ship this kind of goods, no one is my opponent!"

His self-confident appearance, as well as his bright eyes, really showed a master's style.

But Xu Yanke didn't buy it. She said coldly, "I don't care if there is an opponent. You zip up your pants first!"

Pony looked down at his pants, his face immediately turned into a confused pigliver color, he hurriedly zipped up his pants, embarrassed to explain in a low voice: "vice president Xu, when you called me, it was only six o'clock in the morning, and I was in a daze wearing clothes, so I forgot to pull the zipper."

"Enough. Shut up and wait for me here."

Xu Yanke impatiently dropped a sentence and turned to leave, because she saw a girl with bandages in her eyes standing quietly beside a man in the crowd. The figure she was familiar with was Jin Ying.

"Xiaoying, why are you here?" Xu Yanke goes to Jin Ying and asks softly.

Jin Ying listened and recognized Xu Yanke's voice. Her face was calm without any expression. She just said faintly, "Gu Chen has received the invitation. I'm here to accompany him."

Gu Chen supported Jin Ying's arm with gentlemanly demeanor, nodded to Xu Yanke politely, and said with a smile: "our two companies are now in the cooperation stage. Xiao Ying is my assistant. Of course, we should bring her to this occasion."

"Why don't you go and say hello to the court?"

Xu Yanke looks at Jin Zhengting in the distance of the deck and asks Jin Ying strangely.

Jin Ying answered with a light and almost emotionless tone: "no, I'll be here with Gu Chen. Do you have anything else to do?"

Her meaning is obvious, but she doesn't want to talk to Xu Yanke any more. Jin Ying just doesn't hate her any more, but it doesn't mean to forgive her completely.

"Xiaoying, don't do that."

Xu Yan doesn't know how to say it. She's full of guilt for Jin Ying. After all, it's her who hurt her. Now she doesn't know how to express her apology.

"Gu Chen, I'm tired. Can you help me to have a rest?"

Jin Ying doesn't talk to Xu Yanke any more. She says to Gu Chen lightly. From her tone, she seems to have no feelings for Gu Chen, who was infatuated with the most.

"OK, Xiaoying, help me." Gu Chen apologetically nods to Xu Yanke, and holds Jin Ying into the cabin.

Xu Yanke watched their backs disappear in the cabin and sighed softly. Sometimes he made a mistake that he could not make up for in his life.

When she came back to Zhao Tongxin, she didn't forget her job. There was only one reason why Jin Zhengting asked her to follow Zhao Tongxin. She had the ability to protect Zhao Tongxin.

"Miss Yanke, are you ok?"

Rong Lei, who also plays the role of bodyguard, sees that she is in a low mood and asks in a low voice.

"Get out of here, our business is not finished. Don't pretend to be intimate with me!"

Xu Yan didn't stare at him angrily, and Rong Lei turned his head to the other side.

On one side, Rong Qi asked Rong Lei, "brother, what's the matter with you and Xu Yan? She looks very angry. "

Rong Lei's face turned red immediately. His eyes were a little erratic and he said, "it's just a little misunderstanding. Don't be distracted. Our task is to protect boss and miss Tong Xin and keep on guard."

Rong Qi looks at him suspiciously, but she doesn't continue to ask. She doesn't have much interest in things unrelated to her work, so she continues to keep sharp eyes on guard.

"No matter what happens today, try to stay by my side."

Jin Zhengting, who has been staring at the sea, takes back his eyes and says to Zhao Tongxin faintly. His tone is flat, but with unquestionable and disobeying dignity.

"Well, I won't give you any trouble."

Zhao Tongxin cleverly replied that she didn't know why Jin Zhengting asked herself to follow him, but as long as he said it, she would do it. From his attitude and Rong Lei's strict vigilance, she could vaguely guess that there was a certain danger in this voyage, but as long as she was beside him, she felt that it was the safest place in the world.

"It's going to be OK. We haven't been out together. It's a trip." Jin Zhengting's deep eyes fixed on her and said faintly.

"When you're not busy, we'll travel together, just the two of us." Zhao Tong heart gently said, the fundus of the eye reveals the look of yearning.

"Well, I promise you." Jin Zhengting gives her a smile. He will give her what she wants.

"Tong Xin, it turns out that you've been here for a long time."

As soon as Jin Zhengting's voice fell, he heard a discordant voice. In front of him, Huo Tingchen was the only one who dared to call her name in a very intimate tone.

Now Huo Tingchen is wearing Cheng Mohan's mask, and his voice is very similar. Everyone is not very familiar with Cheng Mohan, so no one on board can recognize him.

He Shi ran went to Zhao Tong Xin, deliberately with Cheng Mo Han's tone said: "Tong Xin, I thought you would not come."

Zhao Tongxin doesn't find that Cheng Mohan in front of her is disguised by Huo Tingchen, but she detects something strange, because when she makes eye contact with Huo Tingchen, she feels very tired.

"Mr. Cheng, I'm here with Zhengting."

Zhao Tongxin calmly said to Huo Tingchen that she intended to keep a distance from him, because she had made Jin Zhengting unhappy once, so she would not make the same mistake again. As she said, she leaned to Jin Zhengting's side and used this action to wake him up. Jin Zhengting was the only one in her heart.

Huo Tingchen's acting skill is very good. After catching Zhao Tongxin's subtle action, his face showed a look of disappointment. He reluctantly squeezed out a smile: "Tongxin, I know you are dedicated to general manager Jin, so I won't let you be embarrassed. Have a good time this time."

Jin Zhengting stretched out his hand and took Zhao Tongxin into his arms. He stared at Huo Tingchen with deep eyes and said faintly, "I'll accompany her. She will be very happy."

Huo Tingchen sneered: "Jin always seems to be confident."

"Well, always." Jin Zhengting gave a simple answer.

"I really want to know what Jin will look like when he loses this confidence one day." Huo Tingchen's eyes were cold, and his voice was cold.

"You will be disappointed because there is no such day." Jin Zhengting's answer was very domineering.

Huo Tingchen sneered again: "things are changeable. What Mr. Jin said should not be so absolute. No one can tell tomorrow, can't he?"

Jin Zhengting nodded his head slightly: "yes, just like no one knows what kind of person Cheng Mohan is."

Huo Tingchen's heart moved. He heard the clue from Jin Zhengting's words. Looking at Jin Zhengting, he saw that his eyes seemed to know everything. Then he felt guilty for no reason. Did he find anything?

"I don't understand Mr. Jin." Huo Tingchen said casually with a smile.

"You know, I just don't want to say it, but you can rest assured that I won't say it before it's time."

Jin Zhengting's face with a smile, light looking at Huo Tingchen.

Huo Tingchen's pupils contracted for a while. Jin Zhengting was clearly suggesting that he had already known his true identity, but he didn't want to expose him now. His heart sank, and he found that Jin Zhengting knew more than he expected, which meant that the purpose of the plan had been completely exposed.

Jin Zhengting didn't expose him, just for the safety of other people on the ship, that is, he didn't want him to jump out of the wall when there was no way out. Now Huo Tingchen really didn't have the courage to do extreme actions.

In other words, Jin Zhengting had already taken the initiative before the game started, but Huo Tingchen secretly gritted his teeth. Since the game has started, there is no reason to stop.

Thinking of this, he gave an unnatural smile and said, "Mr. Jin, I'm going to hold a very interesting game later. I don't know if you are interested in participating in it?"

"The purpose of you letting everyone on board is to play this game. Since it's the game you think of, I have no reason not to play it. No matter what game you want to play, I will accompany you to the end."

Chapter 380

"Ladies and gentlemen, on behalf of Tianhong Group, I would like to express my thanks to all the guests who have been invited to take part in the first voyage of the Jiangbin cruise ship in their busy schedule."

The invited guests gathered on the deck, and Huo Tingchen began his routine speech.

People and acquaintances looked at each other. They did not know whether there should be applause at this time, so they turned their heads and looked at Jin Zhengting.

Jin Zhengting was holding Zhao Tongxin's slender waist. There was no expression on his face, and there was no emotion in his eyes. His meaning could not be more obvious, that is, to show an attitude that the two people are antagonistic. It depends on how these people choose.

There was a rare round of applause from the crowd. Those who applauded were all consortia hostile to Jin Zhengting. Huo Tingchen was supporting Cheng Mohan before he became him, so he would not stand in the same line with Jin Zhengting.

"Zhenqting, look at those people. They don't pay attention to us. When the game starts, give them some color first."

Yang ziye, with two big black circles under his eyes, doesn't know when to come over and whisper. Seeing his appearance of not waking up, he knows that he must have gone out to have sex again last night.

Lu zhanyan, who is also not in a good mental state, came up and said: "Zhenqting, last night ziye insisted that I go out to drink with him. He said that I was afraid that I would never drink again. I didn't have to sleep all night, and I didn't want to help in the gambling. Now I really doubt whether ziye and Tianhong Group are in the same group. It's not helping the opponent weaken their own people Is that right? "

Seeing that Zhao Tongxin is beside Jin Zhengting, Lu zhanyan cleverly doesn't say Huo Tingchen's name. He knows why Jin Zhengting doesn't tell Zhao Tongxin the truth because she is pregnant now and doesn't want her to be affected emotionally.

Jin Zhengting has thought of every detail. His care for Zhao Tongxin can be said to be 360 degrees.

Jin Zhengting gave a faint smile: "I think ziye is the smartest one among us. He knows that we will win this game, so he deliberately makes himself like this."

"So you want to be lazy?"

Lu zhanyan immediately reacts and stares at Yang ziye. Yang ziye makes an innocent excuse: "Hey, zhanyan, it's your fault. I don't want to be lazy. You don't know that from small to large, all the gambling is won by the court, so it's not my turn at all."

"Then why do you want to join me?"

"Hey, zhanyan, you can't even win me. You're also giving benefits to others when you go on the stage. I'm helping you, OK?"

Lu Zhanyan was speechless for a while, but it's right to think about it. His style has always been very elegant, and he seldom participates in card games. He knows nothing about gambling, so he has no place to help.

"Zhengting, can you do the same?"

Zhao Tongxin blinked his eyes and asked. After seeing the performance of Xiao Ma yesterday, he really believed that there were such superb skills in the world as those in the movies. However, he never heard Jin Zhengting mention them. He could not help wondering how powerful Jin Zhengting was.

Jin Zhengting gave her an enigmatic smile: "when I was young, I played with them. I came into contact with them occasionally, so I learned a little."

"Are you very good?"

Zhao Tongxin's eyes are full of reverence. Now she doesn't know how many things Jin Zhengting can do. It seems that there is nothing he can't do, and no matter what, he does very well.

Jin Zhengting's face with absolute self-confidence, domineering eyes swept all the people on the deck, light said: "it's not very strong, better than all the people here."

"How much is one point?"

Zhao Tongxin asked. She thought she knew Jin Zhengting well, but today she found that he still had many hidden abilities, so she wanted to know all about him.

"One point means that if he moves his finger, all the people here will lose." Yang ziyue has seen what Jin Zhengting's "a little bit" means. He is not human!!

He nearly got through that month on the dole.

Jin Zhengting takes a look at Yang ziyue's sour expression. He doesn't speak. He acquiesces to his words.

Zhao Tongxin pursed a smile and looked at Jin Zhengting with a proud little star in his eyes. Because he is her man, there is nothing that makes a woman more proud than his excellent man. This is a sense of belonging.

"Everyone, the journey is very long. In order not to make you bored, I temporarily decided to play a game with you."

Although there are not many people who support him, he doesn't feel embarrassed. After all, Jin Zhengting is in a strong position now. However, he believes that in the near future, most of these people will support themselves, because he can see from their eyes that they are just a group of grass on the wall, and they will naturally fall to that side when the wind is strong.

So he can't wait to start his own plan. Even if Jin Zhengting finds out the fact that he is pretending to be Cheng Mohan, he also has his own worries. As long as he is wrongly exposed, his plan can go smoothly. He may encounter resistance from Jin Zhengting, but he is still confident, because he selects all the masters on board. Yes, it's a very luxurious lineup all over the country. He believes that no one on board is more skillful than them. People's reaction is still not very enthusiastic. The rich people who were called by Jin Zhengting last night know the details. Others are worried about Jin Zhengting, so few people show interest.

Huo Tingchen didn't like it and continued: "Tianhong Group is going to hold a very interesting gamble on the Jiangbin ship. You can look for opponents freely, but I know there are some misunderstandings among many of you here, so I hope that through this small gamble, we can sit together and play two games, write off the past grudges, as for how much to play. Please feel free to take part, because this is the high seas and there is no law to restrict you. Of course, ladies and gentlemen can also take part."

This is Huo Tingchen's plan. He has hinted that the people present can use the gambling game to attack the opponent, or even win the opponent's life and fortune.

Moreover, he also clearly told us that this is the high seas, and we can act at will. As the highest class in Jiangbin, these people are not law blind. We all know why they sailed to the high seas.

Huo Tingchen is to create an opportunity for them, can be bloodless to put the opponent to death.

Soon, some of the staff on the deck began to be busy. In a short time, they set up a temporary open-air casino. There were all kinds of ways, such as baccarat, Pai Jiu, mahjong, tractor and so on.

"Well, please help yourself."

Huo Tingchen said, carrying both hands into the cabin, he is very clear about the character of these people, as the most successful group of people in the business, each has a gambler's heart, because the business itself is a more complex casino.

We wait and see for a while, finally someone can't help it, he pointed to an old opponent in the business field and said: "dare you play with me?"

His opponents also hold the same idea, eyelids turned: "in business, you and I share equally, but at the gambling table, you may not be my opponent."

With the first one, there will be a second one. People soon find their old rivals, sit at the table one after another and start gambling.

Huo Tingchen has a very good grasp of these people's psychology. If he leaves at the beginning, no one may be willing to take part in it. But if this move makes them kill each other, it makes people a little out of control. These people have been fighting in business for many years. Who has few enemies?

If we can defeat the enemy completely without going through business, it's also a good thing. Even if someone has something to keep, we should at least make the opponent unhappy.

At first, everyone was still angry, but with the deepening of the gambling, the amount of the bet became larger and larger, and the winner wanted to close at first, but after looking at the high chips piled up in front of him, his greed became stronger and stronger, and his mind of winning all the chips of his opponent could no longer be restrained, while the loser's eyes became more and more red, and his mind only had the idea of turning over the book, and then constantly put their own value into it.

Women also began to look for their opponents, but their purpose is very simple, who is more beautiful than themselves, or who is thinner than themselves, or even whose bag is more expensive than their own. Women have too many reasons to find opponents, so they enter the role faster than men.

"Zhengting, it seems to have begun."

Lu zhanyan frowned and said that Huo Tingchen's plan has run smoothly, and it is difficult to curb it according to the situation.

Jin Zhengting looks calm, light said: "the enemy does not move, I do not move."

Before Huo Tingchen did, he would not. Although everyone was looking for his opponent, no one dared to find Jin Zhengting.

Xu Yanke in the crowd pulled the Cape of the pony and said, "Hey, it's time for you to behave."

The pony looked around and said in embarrassment, "vice president Xu, is it a bit bad for me to gamble with a group of women?"

Xu Yan Ke stares at the two legs of the pony and says faintly: "if I kick you hard, are you willing to gamble with women?"

Looking at Xu Yanke's fierce eyes, the pony unconsciously clamped his legs. He shook his head like a rattle: "no, no, can't I go?"

Xu Yanke gave him a chip: "it's 50000 yuan. In an hour, if these chips don't turn into five million yuan, your end will be the same as it!"

With these words, she picked up a hard coconut from the fruit plate, made a fist in her hand, hit the coconut with one fist, and then the coconut shell bloomed like fireworks.

The pony couldn't help shivering and said, "vice president Xu, I'll try my best."

"Get out of here!"

Xu Yan can coldly said, pony hand holding chips, disappeared in the crowd.

When he went away, Xu Yanke came to Rong Lei with a cold face and said with a snort, "should we solve our grudge?"

Rong Lei waved his hand and refused: "Miss Yan Ke, my duty is to protect the boss, so I can't gamble with you."

Jin Zhengting turned around and said faintly, "go ahead, there are some things that need to be solved."

Rong Lei thought about it and said to Xu Yanke, "well, Miss Yanke, I promise to gamble with you. No matter whether you win or lose, let him go of the past. What do you think?" "I'll talk about it if I win!"

Xu Yanke gives him a white look and sits down at a table. Rong Lei takes a deep breath and follows him.

"Zhengting, why let Xu Yanke gamble with Rong Lei? You just have to solve the problem between them."

Zhao Tong Xin a little don't understand of ask.

Jin Zhengting looked at her gently and said faintly, "it's better to solve their own problems, so we don't interfere."

Zhao Tongxin nodded his head and put a Round Amethyst in Jin Zhengting's hand: "Zhengting, this is a lucky crystal. It will bring you good luck."

Jin Zhengting smiles: "you are my lucky crystal. As long as you are by my side, I will be lucky all the time."
