

Chapter 3730

“Is the formation?”

As George Han guessed, it's incredible that you can't imagine it.

“Fuck.”

With a low scolding, George Han understood that it was very likely that he had really been tricked by the formation.

As soon as the Heavenly Eye Technique moved, the Heavenly Eye was opened directly, and George Han gritted his teeth for a while.

There are strange auras appearing all around, which also means that this is really a trapped formation.

To a certain extent, these masters in front of them are just illusions in the formation. As long as the formation is not broken, they will naturally never go out.

But these are not the real reasons for George Han's anger, but if there is some kind of formation here, then this house with golden light restriction is unlikely to be the place where Amelia Su is imprisoned.

“Mingyu, you three-eight.” George Han was so anxious, Mingyu's three-eight was not trying to escape at all, or it was not what she called to escape.

She deliberately led herself here to be trapped, and then took this opportunity to take Amelia Su and others out of here alone.

Damn it!

George Han clenched his fist tightly, he should have thought long ago, how could Mingyu be so kind?

And almost as George Han expected, at this time, in the other side of the prison, the door of the prison was opened, and the light entered the prison, and the people in the prison could not help feeling stinging eyes because of this, and they were in a trance. When he opened his eyes, he saw that Ming Yu had walked in quickly with a group of people.

Looking around, everyone in the cells was lying on the ground dying, looking tired and pale.

Ming Yu glared coldly at the little commander guarding the cell, with a hint of questioning and dissatisfaction in his eyes.

The little commander hurriedly said: “Elder Shenlong, the conscience of heaven and earth, the subordinates are all according to your instructions, the three meals a day are served on time and according to the amount, and it is absolutely good meat and rice, but

... but the subordinates do not know, why ...why are they so haggard.”

Ming Yu heard the words and didn't say more, and took a few steps into the cell, but after only a few steps, she suddenly stopped in front of Ziqing's cell door.

He frowned slightly, grabbed his hand slightly, smiled suddenly, looked at Zi Qing who was lying slightly in the prison, and said, "You can still use true energy under poison, but I underestimate you."

In the cell on the other side, Amelia Su got used to the light. Seeing that the person who came was Mingyu, and seeing that Mingyu said these words to Ziqing, she immediately stood up and shouted: "Mingyu, if you want to kill, have a good time, stop talking nonsense."

"Rain?"

Upon hearing the name, Mo Yang and others who knew her were startled, and those who could forcefully stand up immediately stood up and stood in front of the iron prison, hoping that they were not mistaken.

"Mingyu, how could it be you?"

"You are the leader of this group?"

"Don't you understand

? When I was arrested in Firestone City, I was obviously betrayed by her." Amelia Su said coldly.

When they heard Amelia Su's words, a group of people were obviously extremely angry, and they pointed at Mingyu angrily.

"It turns out that you were the one who betrayed Amelia Su!"

"You *, we treat you as a friend in vain. Even after Amelia Su's accident, we are worried about your safety together. I didn't expect that you actually..."

"The little commander was angry and wanted to fight back, but was stopped by Ming Yu: "Take them away."

Zhu Yanshuo nodded and nodded at the soldiers under him. A group of soldiers acted immediately, opened the prison door, and brought out all the people inside.

Even Mo Beitian, who was dying, was directly carried on his back by the soldiers at this time.

Glancing at the angry crowd, Ming Yu said lightly: "Save your scolding strength and take a few more breaths on the road." After the words were finished, Ming Yu turned around and walked out of the prison.

"Humph? On the way? Why, George Han is here, you can't call, and you want to run with us?" Dao Twelve said coldly: "Unfortunately, I just don't know if you have the opportunity to take us away."

In the past few days, everyone had already heard the deafening sound of explosions outside, and they also clearly understood that George Han must have come.

This strengthened everyone's heart to save the devil Beitian, but it also became more worried about George Han as time went on.

The good thing is that Ming Yu is here, and he has to take them away, which at least allows them to rest assured of an established fact.

Not only is George Han all right, but it is very likely that he has already won.

“He won, but...” Ming Yu stopped slightly, half turned around and smiled coldly: “He should be finishing his circle, you pray that he will save you? Dreaming!” After the words were finished, Ming Yu was about to get up, but heard that At the gate of the prison, there was a soft drink: “Who said that?”

Chapter 3731

When these words came out, the scene was obviously dead and silent.

In the next second, at the door of Tian Prison, a figure walked in slowly.

Everyone held their breaths, but when the figure really completely appeared in front of them, the point where human beings were incompatible with joy and sorrow was infinitely magnified.

The gang of Mysterious Men was actually going crazy. They cheered, screamed, and even jumped free from the shackles of the soldiers.

Ming Yu and a group of people were also completely shocked. In surprise, they took a few steps back, and their faces were full of anti-Buddha expressions like seeing a ghost.

Only Amelia Su looked at George Han and smiled lightly.

Perhaps the appearance of George Han at this moment is crazy and unbelievable to anyone, but for Amelia Su

, there are too many scenes like this to be counted.

However, of course she wouldn't get tired of such dramas, she just knew that George Han would definitely come, definitely.

“No, no, no, this is impossible. He should be in the trapped god's formation now. It is the secret formation of the twenty-eight stars. Once inside, there is no possibility of getting out.” Zhu Yanshuo went crazy. Shaking his head, he couldn't accept the fact in front of him.

Even if he has the skills of George Han, even if he is not a human being, he can break through the formation and come out.

But...

but it is absolutely impossible to break out of the formation in such a short time.

Ming Yu also frowned and said nothing. If she was still tense in all the previous situations, then now...

she really can't calm down.

“Impossible?” Looking at Zhu Yanshuo, George Han smiled disdainfully: “What’s impossible? You want to trap me, George Han, just by breaking the formation ? You must be too confident, right?” Is it the ancient magic formation that the Holy Master discovered from the ten thousand years of magic calendar, George Han, just broke the formation? You are too arrogant.” Zhu Yanshuo said with dissatisfaction.

George Han smiled disdainfully: “Even if you say the hype, in my eyes, it’s nothing but trash that I just broke. Isn’t that true?” In a word, Zhu Yanshuo screamed in anger, but he couldn’t refute it at all. .

Ming Yu gritted his teeth slightly: “George Han, you really belong. I thought about that moment, I could only sleep you for a while, but I really didn’t expect that that moment was so short.”

“There are many things you can’t think of.” George Han sneered: “For example, how did I find this place?”

Ming Yu didn’t say anything, but it was obvious that George Han’s words touched her pain point. She looked at George Han coldly, waiting with her answer.

“Because, I still believe in you.” George Han smiled.

“With your ingenuity, you absolutely know that if you want to make a statement the most believable, then it must be a mixture of truth and falsehood. Am I right?”

“Amelia Su and others seem to be false in the East, but in fact they are Really, so naturally, it is a lie that you flee west, the truth is, you are fleeing east out of the city, am I right again?”

Ming Yu heard this and had to nod her head in convincing, she was smart, George Han is really not stupid.

She thought that even if George Han broke through, she would no longer believe that Amelia Su and the others would be in the east, so she would deliberately go to the west to find them. In this way, they would have a longer time to escape after they left the city.

George Han is a smart person, and the trick of being smart but being mistaken by smart should be more effective for him.

But didn’t expect...

“It’s terrifying to be your opponent.” Ming Yu sighed helplessly when she finished, and the next second, she moved directly behind Amelia Su, and stuck her neck: “However, you also Don’t be too proud, even if I die, someone will be buried with me today!”
