

Chapter 3736

George Han smiled slightly, and shook his head at Moyang and Ruyu Young Master: "What should fall, the two of you."

"Just collect some interest."

"By the way, disintegrate the enemy. There is a saying that it is good, and it is not good for the enemy. It's self-interest." When the words fell, George Han directly raised the jade sword and walked slowly towards the elites and the masters who were surrounded by the center.

Seeing George Han carrying the sword over, the sword was icy and cold, and many people kept shrinking in fear on the spot, shouting at the same time not to kill me, not to kill me.

George Han laughed coldly, and dropped the sword in his hand, and the three soldiers closest to him died on the spot with big eyes of fear.

So clean and neat, the soldiers suddenly became even more fearful.

George Han raised his brows slightly, glanced at everyone, and said, "Aren't you very arrogant before? Didn't you all kill me with your face? Come on, I'm standing here now.

", No one dared to make a sound, and many people didn't even dare to breathe, and they lowered their heads to avoid George Han's eyes.

"What? Don't make a sound?" George Han sneered and raised the jade sword in his hand again: "If you don't make a sound, I will assume that you all want to take my head."

"Of course, someone from Han. If you want to kill me, of course I will fight back."

Hearing this, everyone was horrified, and some people couldn't bear it any longer, and immediately knelt on the ground with a thud: "Master Han, Master Han, Show mercy under the sword, stay under the sword love. "

Yeah, yeah, show mercy, I... we don't want to die, let alone be your enemy." "

That's right, it's just that we, as soldiers, really have our own way. I beg Lord Han to let us go?" " As soon as the words fell, more and more people knelt down one by one. Even if they didn't want to repeat these begging words, most of them knelt on all fours with a pious attitude.

Master Ruyu also followed a few steps . He came over, smiled softly at George Han, and said, "Young Master Han, Zhu Yanshuo looks benevolent, but he is actually a beast, and they are the ones who do a lot of crimes. The soldiers are just following orders, and they are really innocent. It's better..."

“Yes Ah, after all, they are all other people’s tools, doesn’t this lose the value of use and leave them here waiting to die? I think they are pretty poor . “Mo Yang also came over and agreed.

George Han’s face was frosty, but his heart was actually smiling. It was obvious that Young Master Ruyu and Mo Yang were trying to protect themselves after they understood what they meant.

George Hanyi He shouted softly: “There is some truth to what they said, but, after all, they killed my brother and killed my subordinates, if this revenge is not repaid, how will Han establish the world, and why should he treat his brother? “

“The two armies are fighting, and some casualties are inevitable, so why is it necessary for Mr. Han?”

“Young Master Ruyu said.

Mo Yang also nodded: “Yes, the commander behind the scenes is the real executioner. “

I think it’s not like this. Although they are at fault, it is not their fault, so the death penalty is exempted, giving them a chance to share their guilt.” “Young Master Ruyu said.

” What do you mean by this? Han

George Han pretended to be confused.

“They were ordered to kill many of Mr. Han’s subordinates that day. Later, let them follow your order to capture the real murderer behind the scenes. , son, how about you? “Young Master Ruyu said with a smile.

“Some of Han’s subordinates are Han’s brothers. If they don’t die, they want to take advantage of me?” George Han said, “Besides, I am not satisfied with their performance on the battlefield.

” The so-called littering with raging bears is because they are wrong with a hypocrite like Zhu Yanshuo, if they are with you, I think they will be different.” Young Master Ruyu said with a smile.

George Han frowned, looking preoccupied, as if he was unwilling to agree to this.

After a long time, he suddenly frowned and said, “The question is, are they willing?”

Chapter 3737

George Han just turned around, almost before Yu Gongzi answered, but the soldiers behind him were already boiling.

“As long as Lord Han doesn’t kill us, let alone follow you, we are willing to be a cow and a horse.”

“That’s right, Lord Han, you are brave and invincible, and it is our blessing to follow you. ... It’s too late for us to be happy, isn’t it, brothers.”

“Yes, yes.”

The woman in white from the far side started to shout, but she couldn’t help but chuckle.

“What is George Han doing there?” the servant asked without understanding.

“The three kings of drama are acting for us.” The female leader said softly.

“Acting? What kind of play?”

“A play that buys people’s hearts.” The female leader laughed: “A slap and a candy, don’t you understand?” The servant shook his head: “I don’t quite understand.”

“The play has just begun . , you will understand after a while.” The servant

nodded and said nothing.

On the other side, George Han looked at the soldiers and nodded their heads in agreement, smiled at each other with Mo Yang and Young Master Ruyu, and then quickly pretended to be a little embarrassed, looked at Young Master Ruyu, and said: : “You mean I should agree?”

Young Master Ruyu and Mo Yang both nodded.

“Then I’ll agree...” George Han turned his eyes to Amelia Su after saying that.

Amelia Su is smart enough, and she has a deep tacit understanding with George Han.

In a word, the hope that many soldiers who should have just seen turned into full despair. After all, if Amelia Su did not agree, then the only possibility that could keep them alive would be completely annihilated.

“Mrs. Alliance Lord, why is this?” Young Master Ruyu asked in confusion.

“It’s not that I don’t want to give them a way to live,

but the fact is that in the alliance established by George Han, if people can come in casually, then it will be fine in the future?

” I swear, I will treat my subordinates like brothers, so all along, the brothers who follow us always have medicine pills, equipment, and even strange beasts and pets. If we let them in, don’t we have to give them something?”

”” The wife of the alliance leader has been thinking too much, and I believe that even without these things, they would be willing to join in.” Young Master Ruyu said with a smile.

Amelia Su shook her head: “Give things, give magic weapons, this is the rule of the Mysterious Man Alliance. If you enter the alliance, you will be your own family, so of course you will be divided, and there is no so-called indiscriminate.” In the distance . , the servant of the woman in white was a little confused: “Which song is this singing? This slap Han

George Han was beaten, why did n’t Tang Amelia Su give it?” Give it, but smear the sugar more densely.”

“What’s next?”

“Cause!” The white-clothed leader smiled lightly.

“The slave doesn’t know, why is the temptation.”

“If your dog eats a bone easily, how can it be obedient?” Then, she waved her hand: “Go find a place to rest for a while, this play will only be played at night. There will be a performance.” The leader in white started walking towards the other courtyard.

The servant did not keep up in time, but kept looking back at the scene.

At this time, George Han couldn’t help but nodded: “My wife does have some truth in what she said. After this battle, a lot of my people died, not to mention, and now I have to charge them for equipment or something. Take time, I really can’t stand it for a while.”

“You take care of them first, and I’ll think about it.”

After that, George Han felt a headache and rubbed his temples, and hesitantly supported Su Amelia Su. down and walked into the hall.

As soon as George Han left, a group of people rescued from Tian Prison also followed, leaving only Young Master Ruyu and Mo Yang at the scene.

Young Master Ruyu sighed deeply, looking extremely helpless.

Mo Yang smiled bitterly and patted him on the shoulder: “The benefits of the Mysterious Man Alliance are good, so there have always been many followers, but the selection of 3,000 people is extremely strict, so your requirements...”

With a sigh, Mo Yang also immediately followed to the palace.

Young Master Ruyu nodded and glanced at the group of eye-catching soldiers kneeling behind him. In the end, he couldn’t help: “I tried my best, but you have also heard...”

“This defeated general is about to become a brother of happiness. , the span is really too big, the key is yours... hey!”

As soon as the words fell, a few smart soldiers immediately understood, and all of a sudden, a strange thing happened in the whole army...
