

Chapter 3738

First, someone walked directly to a position closer to the front of the hall, and then knelt upright there with a thud.

After that, one by one, and finally, until everyone moved their nests collectively, they knelt down there neatly.

Their waists are straight, their heads are slightly drooping, and their posture is extremely low.

Seeing this scene, Young Master Ruyu smiled with satisfaction: "You can teach Ruzi." After he finished speaking, he followed a few steps, and when he came to their side, he smiled and said, "Okay, since you are interested, I will share with you. You can get along for a long time before you wait, I will help people to the end, and I will go and talk with you." After the words were finished, Young Master Ruyu lightly shook the fan, got up and walked towards the hall.

Inside the hall.

George Han helped everyone to the chairs one by one and sat down, and healed them with his own strength.

With the help of the Five Elements Divine Stone and George Han's power of yin and yang to reconcile, these injuries are not badly repaired. Mo Beitian's injuries are the most serious.

George Han first relied on his own ability to help him repair the meridians, and then used a lot of yin and yang power as his foundation. It can't be said that he can recover in a short time, but at least for now, there is no problem in terms of life safety.

However, Qin Shuang's injury is very strange...

When George Han wanted to check Qin Shuang's injury, he was stopped by Amelia Su.

"Senior Sister Qin Shuang is in a coma, but her injuries are not serious. It can only be said that it is a little strange. Tian Zhiqiong said that he has a way to save her, but he needs your help. Now is not the right time. Let's talk about stability, right?"

"The lord said, there is no reason for George Han not to listen. Moreover, if it is the situation that Amelia Su said, then it is indeed the best choice to wait for it to stabilize here before dealing with it.

He nodded and asked Liu Fang to take Qin Shuang, Mo Beitian and other relatively seriously injured people to the apse to rest first, and then let Dao Twelve and Lu Yuan and others take care of the security of the backyard, George Han then called Mo Yang. come over.

"Let's think of some ways to get a few hundred tables at night." George Han ordered, "Then negotiate with the people from Devil Cloud Ghost City and the group of people in white, and let them all rest first, and then..."

Mo Yang A smile interrupted George Han's words: "Okay, don't worry, I know how to deal with external matters. You, rest and rest, acting still requires physical strength."

George Han smiled bitterly and nodded.

When Mo Yang left again, George Han walked to Amelia Su's side in a few steps, pulled her up slightly, and walked towards the backyard. Along the way, the two came to the other garden where George Hanchu lived here. "They are all resting in the backyard, why did you bring me here?" Amelia Su laughed softly, "However, this place is small and unique." "I lived here when I first arrived here." George Han said: "I want to take you to the place I walked." At the door of the east wing, George Han stopped: "I'm here." Amelia Su smiled softly, pushed open the door and walked in. The house is elegant, but more of it is for Amelia Su a kind of memory that George Han once lived here.

George Han smiled slightly, and after closing the door, he walked gently to Amelia Su's side, looked at her, and said affectionately, "I've wronged you this time."

Amelia Su shook her head: "Shouldn't it be you who did the hard work? Save us, we will break through a city alone."

"As long as I can see you, it will not be hard." George Han smiled, opened his arms, and gently embraced Amelia Su in his arms.

Amelia Su hesitated for a while, but finally put her head on George Han's shoulder with a trace of happiness on her face.

After a while, Amelia Su said, "Isn't it enough?"

George Han shook his head: "I will never be enough in my life."

"Like a child." Amelia Su smiled helplessly: "However, if you hold on, I'm afraid we will There is a strange smell in the two sessions."

After speaking, Amelia Su smiled and pushed George Han away slightly, got up and walked behind the screen to the side, and walked out with a bucket.

"Why?" George Han asked strangely.

Amelia Su looked at her body, and then at George Han's body: "Draw water and give us a bath."

George Han nodded numbly, he was covered in blood, Amelia Su also stayed in the cell for too long, yes I should take a shower, but the next second George Han suddenly reacted and shouted excitedly: "We?"

Chapter 3739

Amelia Su nodded and smiled, but just wanted to go out, she was directly hugged by George Hanyi: "With me, What more water do I need?" When the words fell, with a move of his hand, the Five Elements Divine Stone flew directly to the bathtub behind the screen, and the power of water filled the bucket immediately.

George Han tilted slightly, hugged Amelia Su and flew directly to the tub. When he was about to carry him down, Amelia Su pointed at George Han's forehead: "What are you thinking?"

"Not together. Are you taking a shower?" George Han asked.

Amelia Su smiled: "Okay, I'll wash it for you first."

George Han was unwilling, but Amelia Su had already pushed him into the tub, so he had no choice, George Han could only look at Amelia Su and said aggrievedly: "Then I'll wash it for you."

Amelia Su smiled helplessly, unbuttoned the clothes for Kai, and pressed into the tub: "Sit down."

When the clothes were removed, Amelia Su's smile became a bit bitter, and the bloody battles continued. Although George Han relied on the technique of Taixu to return to the light as before, killing the Quartet, but there is always only one body, which has already left countless dry but shocking scars in the war.

To describe it in one sentence, it is almost impossible to see a piece of good skin.

"What's wrong?" George Han asked suspiciously, feeling that Amelia Su did not move behind him.

Tears fell from Amelia Su's eyes gently, and when she heard George Han's words, she shook her head, scooped some water in her hand and poured it gently on George Han's back to ease the frozen smile, and said gently, "Does it hurt??"

George Han shook his head: "Scared you? No

It hurts, it doesn't hurt at all, as long as you're by my side, don't mention this little injury on your body, even if your head falls off, it won't hurt. "

This is George Han's sincere words, without any coaxing.

"Fool." Amelia Su's heart warmed, and she kept scooping up water in her hands, gently wiping for George Han: "Don't be so reckless in the future, if you want to save me, you have to take care of your own body. "

I know you will come to rescue us, and we will wait for you, so... But, anyway, three thousand, it's hard for you." "

It's really nothing, but if I hadn't been in a hurry to save people, they would have been worse off." However, as soon as you mentioned this, I remembered it. What happened when they said you were amazing this time? "George Han asked.

Amelia Su gave a wry smile, and then told George Han one by one what happened after George Han left.

After listening to this, George Han turned around and lay by the bucket, frowning: "Tian Zhiqiang is this kid so arrogant? At the same time brought you and Zi Qing into the ranks of masters? "

Actually, I don't really believe it, but after cultivating according to its method for a few days, it is the truth. "Amelia Su said.

George Han frowned: "This old boy... I really didn't see that he had such skills. By the way, what about that boy?" "

Ming Yu was afraid that we would escape from the prison, and deliberately suppressed the true energy in our bodies with poison, but Mobei Tian was at stake, and only relying on Ziqing's special holy body and our joint efforts to squeeze out a little bit can barely maintain, these few days. Down, my situation is not very good, it is pinned on my meridians, presumably the situation is not too good. "Amelia Su said.

" No wonder this guy didn't say a word. "George Han nodded: "However, in any case, I can help you and Ziqing improve your cultivation base, I am still very grateful to him, otherwise, we will suffer even more losses from being attacked this time. "

"By the way, is Nian'er all right?" "Amelia Su said.

"She's fine, Ningyue is taking care of her." After George Han finished speaking, he looked at Amelia Su: "However, you have something to do."

"Me?" The

next second, George Han stood up directly from the tub and smiled: "Of course. You are poisoned, and I will help you detoxify."

Then, under Amelia Su's surprise, George Han hugged Amelia Su and flew directly to the bed...
