

Chapter 3742

When George Han glanced down, the soldiers who were happy after hearing the first half of the sentence were dumbfounded on the spot. .

Leaving an arm, George Han asked them to leave an arm!

This...

this is simply too much.

“Why, can’t you do it?” George Han smiled coldly: “Being a brother means putting a knife in both sides, and even an arm is reluctant to let go, so what can I expect from you?”

After that, George Han glanced at Young Master Ruyu: “Young Master Ruyu has been busy for a while, but, as you can see now, it’s not that someone from Han is not giving face, but...”

“I’ll come too!”

“There’s more Me.”

The voices of several people directly interrupted George Han’s words. Looking back, several of the soldiers stood up first.

With the leader in hand, gradually, more and more people stood up , each with their right hand holding a knife, ready to slash their left arm at any time.

George Han glanced at it, and there were at least half of the people who stood up before and after, not too many, but definitely not a lot.

Satisfied nodded slightly: “Everyone can start.”

The group of people who stood up looked at each other after hearing the words, and finally cheered each other, biting their teeth, turning their hearts horizontally, raising the knife to their left arm, and slashing on the spot.

“Ah, come on.”

Everyone closed their eyes and shouted coldly!

call!

Suddenly, just as the broadsword was about to touch their respective left arms, a strange wind struck. On the spot, everyone only felt that the force in their hands suddenly swayed under the strong wind, and then the broadsword in their right hand did not reach the designated position, but instead directly slashed. null.

Everyone looked up in surprise and looked in the direction where the strange wind was blowing, but only saw George Han withdrew his hand gently at this time.

“This is...” The group of people looked at each other, obviously not understanding what George Han meant.

Isn't this what he told everyone to take off their arms? Why... why did you suddenly stop it?

Seeing everyone's doubts, George Han gave a wry smile and shook his head: “As my brother, we must understand the principle of sticking a knife between the two sides, but on the other hand, as your brother, how can I let you go like this? How about this?”

“Just now, it's just a test, it's just a test of your heart. All the brothers who stood up, congratulations, the Mysterious Man Alliance welcomes you to join.”

“Also, Mo Yang.”

Mo Yang said softly: “Yes .”

“I don't know or know the first twelve people who stood up first, but at least it proves that they have great courage. You have to write down their names. There are so many brothers in the league, and you always need someone to help you . Manage.”

“Mo Yang understands.” Mo Yang ordered.

Hearing this conversation, the twelve disciples who stood up first were overjoyed on the spot. They were deeply grateful for their choice just now.

As for the others, at this time, they all envied the twelve people, and at the same time they were annoyed by their weakness on the spot.

However, they are not despairing, at least through this matter, they understand what kind of treatment will be given to George Han if they show loyalty and courage.

“As for the other people who didn't stand up and plan to take off their arms, you should all go away. I don't want to kill you, but you are not qualified to join us.” In the distance, the white-clothed attendant shook his head slightly: “George Han shouldn't, I don't say half of the people who didn't get up, but at least 30% to 40%, this is thousands of people, so why not?” The woman in white smiled slightly: “This is his genius.”

“Brilliant?” Follower Some people don't understand: “This is not considered brilliant, right? After tossing for so long, there are so many fewer people.”

“The people who left are to make the people who stay have a sense of superiority and self-confidence. Naturally, for the team's The sense of belonging will be stronger, and the loyalty will be maximized with the sense of belonging. You and I both know that loyalty is more important than everything in a unit. George Han used such a method to make the entire emerging and uneasy The troop instantly turned into a stable and loyal troop, if this method is not high, what else can be called high?” The woman in white said with a smile.

Hearing this, the entourage seemed to understand something.

At this moment, George Han pulled out his jade sword again, with a murderous look on his face, and slowly walked out of the crowd on the other side...

Chapter 3743

This wave of people is not soldiers, but...

a group of masters and some of the executives left behind.

The jade sword slid gently, making a harsh squeaking sound, which made people feel flustered.

“Who are the executives of the Fuye family?” George Han stood up and looked at him coldly.

A group of people looked at each other timidly, and in the end, a dozen people reluctantly stood up.

“Who are the executives who should be detained?” George Han asked again.

A few more people stood up.

Unlike those soldiers, this group of people is actually more afraid, and the reason is very simple. If soldiers can kill by executing orders, if they can't help themselves to explain, then their executives will not find anything at all. What a great excuse.

Looking at George Han's murderous eyes, they all knew one thing .

They may be getting cold.

“As soldiers, it's their duty not to disobey the order. It's their duty, and they can be forgiven. As for you, as managers, you can't get rid of it, right?” Sure enough, George Han glanced coldly at the two piles standing up. people.

The people on both sides lowered their heads and were silent and did not dare to answer. After all, what George Han said was the truth.

However, some people still stood up: “Master Han, yes, we are the management of the two or the Fuye family, but in the end, our management is always only low-level and middle-level, and what we really implement is we Not eligible to participate at all.”

“If there were, the list of thirty people would have already brought us here, so why should we abandon us? I know that it is indeed a sophistry to say this, but it is also the true heartfelt words of our group of people.

” As soon as it fell, many people nodded one after another: “Yes, yes.”

“We don't know much about many things in the city, and those involved in decision-making don't even think about it. We are not in a good position, so... “...”

“Master Han, we...we are innocent.”

George Han smiled coldly: “Innocent?”

After a little thought, he nodded: "There is some truth in what you said, but you always participated in it. , the soldiers can still rely on their own abilities to help me arrest the real murderer and make a contribution, what about you? What's the use?"

Hearing this, everyone was helpless. , there is simply no comparison.

"Master Han, we can charge ."

"Everyone has their own duties, what's the point of you being in charge?" George Han smiled disdainfully. Mouth: "Well, you guys are light-hearted, and I understand what you've been through." "

All of you are promoted to the first rank, and what if you commit crimes and meritorious deeds?"

After all, George Han was still asking for guilt a second ago, and they always felt that their heads were already unstable, but who would have thought that the plot turned a shocking turn when the peak turned?

Not only immortality, but also an official promotion?

"The first rank of official, Master Han, you...you didn't fool us, did you?"

"I'm all the ones to blame. It's good enough not to be executed, how could it be..."

George Han said coldly.

Yi smiled: "You have to order the killing of my brother, it is a crime, so if you want to make merit, you should fight back against my enemies in the same way. This is one of them."

"I am for revenge, and there are also many innocent civilians who have suffered from it . Chaos, I need you to help me rebuild their homeland, and that's the second."

"Aren't you guys soft-spoken? I'll give you a chance to be big, and I'll give you a chance to do more meritorious deeds, is that enough?" George Han said coldly. asked.

As soon as these words came out, a group of people were dumbfounded and looked at each other, as if it was difficult to wake up from the shock.

But the woman in white over there has already clenched her fists, and her whole body can't help shaking slightly...

The servants next to her have their eyes wide open, what does this mean? ! When was the treatment of defeated prisoners so good? !
