

Chapter 377

He had to admit that he was indeed depressed since he didn't receive any response from Alissa. Gary thought, "Alissa, I want to stay with you till we grow old. I want to stay with you forever. Alissa, can you be my girlfriend?" Gary suddenly discovered that as to Alissa, the girl which he had only met two or three times, the seed of love in his heart had sprouted. Frank watched all the videos but found no more useful information. He turned off his computer. Gary looked down at his phone and suddenly noticed a piece of updated news. He read, "The mysterious real estate tycoon Keven Williams is married and already has a daughter." He read the rest of the news and saw the back of the family of three. The daughter's head was leaning in the mother's arms. Gary could only see the girl's slender back. "Wow!" Gary was stunned. "I've just met Mr. Williams. He has now got married? I have never seen him with a woman. He has already had a daughter? A little weird! He had always been very mysterious. And now even his marriage is a mystery. It is said that he is single... Then what about this unknown daughter?" Gary found it quite interesting about this news. Frank quickly took out his phone and opened it to take a look! At the sight of that back, he instantly recognized who it was. "It's Jodie!" he said in surprise. Who was this madam that she was leaning against? Why did this figure look a little familiar? Frank watched quietly. "What?" Gary instantly stood up. He looked at Frank in surprise and asked, "Frank, are you sure? Is this girl Judith?" "Yes!" Frank nodded firmly. He would never mistake others for her! The girl was Judith! "Why are they a family?" Gary was confused. Frank also found it strange. He fixed his eyes on the three figures in the picture. Gary thought for a moment and said, "This family is so weird. Not only the woman is not Judith's biological mother, but the man is not her biological father either. Why did they become a family?" Gary gently stroked his chin and suddenly looked at Frank in shock. He asked in confusion, "Frank, are we mistaken? Is Judith truly the daughter of the Chaney family?" Frank suddenly frowned and glared at him. He said angrily, "Gary, you did the DNA test yourself. Moreover, I won't make a mistake in recognizing her. There are too many things on her that are the same as Jodie's. Others can be wrong, but I won't mistake the wound on Jodie's knee. I handled it myself! It was a little black and blue at the beginning. Now that it has been a long time, the wound is still there! And it is exactly the same. It can't be wrong. She is Jodie!" "Let's go, Frank. Let's go to Judith's." Gary grabbed the car keys. "Now?" Frank looked at him with hesitation. "Of course! I'm so curious about this matter! And now it's just the right time to have dinner." As Gary spoke, he was about to walk out!
