Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 38

Zoey Gu closed his eyes subconsciously just before his body leaped into the air.

In her life, she had to suffer all the hardships and wanted to have a life, and her relatives died.

When she wanted to die, she was saved again.

When she wanted to live, destiny stretched out his black hand to her again.

thump!

Her body plunged into the sea.

Zoey Gu struggled to turn his head, and saw the speedboat in the distance rushing over like crazy, with a tall black figure above him, calling her name heartbreakingly.

"Zoey…"

Is it a phantom? How come every time I die, the same man flashes through my mind in the end.

Liam Lu.

Gu…

The icy cold water raged in from all directions, engulfing her body, and dragging her into the huge whirlpool without mercy.

Suffocation, pain, despair, and death drowned Zoey Gu little by little.

Consciousness slowly separated from the body, and a light seemed to shine in front of him.

Immediately afterwards, with a "plop", a long figure jumped into the water without hesitation, and swam in her direction by pushing away the huge current.

Behind him, the sea was strangely red.

Zoey Gu struggled helplessly, trying to open his eyes to see the person's face clearly.

But her body still doesn't live down, and her eyelids are getting heavier.

The moment she lost consciousness, a pair of powerful hands clasped her waist firmly, pulling her up with all her strength.

In the next second, something soft covered Zoey Gu's lips severely…

Wow…

I don't know how long it took, there was a sound on the sea, and the man dragging the woman finally appeared.

Seeing them, Shiyue jumped up instantly on the deck.

"Hurry, hurry! Liam and the others are there, hurry over!"

After the words fell, the people who were originally active in the surroundings wearing wetsuits swam towards Liam Lu all the way quickly. Together with the people waiting on the deck, they were sent to the yacht at the fastest speed.

The blood on the deck came from Liam Lu.

And Zoey Gu, who was holding in his arms, was quietly leaning against him with a pale face, lifeless, as if dead.

"Zoey Gu, hold on to me!"

She was put on the deck.

Liam Lu knelt in front of her, covered in blood, with his hands interlaced in front of her, pressing repeatedly, twice, back and forth not daring to relax.

She still didn't react at all.

Liam Lu strained his face, raised his hand to jam her face, lowered his head to cover her lips, and tried to pour a trace of breath into her.

"Zoey Gu, I order you to wake up!"

The man's face was like Shura, his eyes were red, and his wet hair was awkwardly attached to his face, effectively blocking the clear fear in his eyes.

He massaged her while doing artificial respiration over and over again, and his voice slowly became hoarse.

"Zoey, you are obedient, open your eyes obediently."

"You have suffered so much and suffered so much wrongdoing. Do you want to do nothing and just leave like this? I tell you, I won't agree!"

Liam Lu stopped his movements, looked at Zoey Gu who had no reaction in front of him, slowly reddened his eyes, and stretched out his hand to hug her.

"Zoey, don't punish me in this way."

"I know you are sad, and I know you hate me, hate me for never trusting you, hate me for missing the best time to save your father and brother. So I beg you, don't let me save you either. Zoey. …"

Liam Lu choked out and tightened fiercely with the strength of the person in his arms.

In the next second, he felt the body in his arms trembled slightly.
