

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3806

Then they churned ecstatically, and from inside they found a whole dozen bottled water, a dozen packs of compressed biscuits, and a few life jackets without blowing air.

Seeing these materials, these people were immediately ecstatic!

They first snatched a life jacket by themselves, and then immediately put them on, and began to breathe through the blowing port on the shoulder.

However, no matter how they blow, the life jackets on their bodies have not changed, like a thin layer of plastic vest attached to their bodies.

Just as everyone looked at each other, someone shouted desperately: "F*ck, the life jackets are all pierced! Air is leaking everywhere!"

The head of the man collapsed immediately: "It seems that these beasts have premeditated!"

As he said, he looked at the bottled water and compressed biscuits, and said with emotion: "This group of people still have some last conscience. They have left us some food and water, save some use, maybe we can go back alive..."

After all, he picked up a bottle of water and planned to take a sip, twisted it gently, and found that there was no damping feeling at all, and he suddenly felt in his heart.

When he took a sip carefully with his mouth, he immediately threw the water into the sea, spitting out and cursing in his mouth: "Bah, baah, f*ck! It turned out to be sea water! What the devil is this group of people!"

Others didn't believe in evil, and quickly opened all the remaining water to taste. It didn't matter if you tasted it, everyone suddenly became more desperate, because the remaining water was all brackish and salty seawater.

Several people were extremely angry, and they continued to curse. At this time, they looked down and realized that a large amount of seawater had been poured into the cabin. If this continued, the ship would no doubt sink.

As a result, they could only desperately, continuously splashing the water in the cabin out of the ship with their hands.

The leading pirate, there is no way a pirate should look like at this time. While splashing water desperately, he couldn't stop crying, and he kept choking and cursing in his mouth: "Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, this damn bastard... ..Has no damn humanitarian spirit! Don't they know that pirates are also human! Pirates also have human rights!"

A pirate on the opposite side blurted out: "Everyone is faster, otherwise the ship will really sink!"

At this time, the Xinglong was farther and farther away.

At first everyone could see the pirates splashing water frantically on the lifeboat, but as the distance got farther and farther, the lifeboat disappeared on the sea level.

At this time, the captain of the Abbas Armyy instructed his subordinates next to him: "Post the video you just shot on the Internet."

"Good captain!"

Soon, a video became popular on global video sites.

The video was released by Abbas Armyy, which recorded the entire process of Abbas Armyy's disposal of these pirates.

Less than an hour after the video was released, it attracted hundreds of millions of netizens to watch it, and received millions of likes and hundreds of thousands of comments on the Internet.

Although the practice of the Abbas Armyy is a bit cruel, and even mixed with some black humor, netizens all over the world, except for the very few Madonna protesting against the inhumane practice of the Abbas Armyy in the comment area, most of them praise their practices!

This group of people has done a lot of evil, hijacked merchant ships from all over the world all the year round, and their attitude is extremely arrogant, and they have long become public enemies of the whole people on a global scale.

However, due to some special reasons, no one has been able to pay them off in a real sense.

Among them, special political reasons account for a large part.

However, these are not problems for Abbas Army.

Because Abbas Army is a mercenary organization, international law cannot restrict them.

To put it bluntly, mercenary organizations and pirate organizations are typical extrajudicial fanatics internationally.

The contest between two extrajudicial fanatics is a thorough head-to-head!
