

Chapter 381

"Little King, where's the beauty you promised to bring over? Why don't you see anyone?"

"Come on, all of you, we're all guaranteed to have a good time tonight."

As he said, he gave a wink to the girls outside the door, and the crowd, though reluctant, were also bent on taking their chances, and were the first to go in.

Evelin followed at the end of the crowd and spat in her heart countless times.

Where's the commercial activity?

This is blatantly asking them to be escort girls under the guise of a business event.

But luckily there were a lot of people, so she should be fine, and she'd try to minimize her presence later, and muddle through tonight anyway.

Thinking that, she cringed. Try to make yourself look creepy and small.

When I entered the box, I realized that it was already full of people, and it was incredibly large, at least a hundred square feet.

There was a slew of men and women sitting on the couch in front of them, including even a few famous actresses in the entertainment industry.

Evelin was surprised to see them.

She thought that all these people were already famous and established in the entertainment industry, and should be very impressive, so why would they still come to a drinking party like this?

And by looking at the man sitting next to them, one could tell at a glance that they were just a sidekick, just like themselves.

Who the hell are the people who showed up here tonight?

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest addition to your own collection of products, and then you'll be able to see what you're looking for.

After saying that to the group of people compensating smile, "Mr. Li, Mr. Huang, long time no see, today over here are all newcomers, please take care of them."

Saying that, he pulled the two girls over and introduced them, "This is Xiaoyu, this is Qingqing, call someone quickly."

"Hello Lee!"

"Hello, Mr. Huang!"

"Hey, good, good."

Evelin witnessed that Li holding the girl's hand and looking lustful as the other girl sat next to Huang.

She didn't turn pale, her perception of the evening's drinks refreshed once again.

Where this is a drinking game, this is simply pandering.

I'm sure this Wang is the one who does this kind of thing all the time, and these peripheral women, if they can climb up to one of the big names in the entertainment industry, they might have a chance to get ahead, so they're happy to participate.

It just didn't occur to me how Su Hong would get involved with these people.

As Evelin's mind was wandering, the man was pulled over by Wang and pressed against an obese man's side.

"Mr. Liu, this is the current hotshot, he's been in several movies before! You're going to have to take better care of me tonight."

The one who was called Liu, smilingly looked at Evelin and nodded, "No problem, I like this kind of innocent actress."

The other party said, and the fat hand touched towards her hand, Evelin only felt nausea in her stomach, and had the urge to run away.

Looking up, however, and touching Wang's warning glance, the nausea was eventually suppressed.

Well, for the sake of money, just bear with it!

Thinking this way, she motionlessly withdrew her hand, lifted her glass, and smiled, "Mr. Liu, I'll drink to you."

"Good."

Seeing that she was so proactive, that Mr. Liu was obviously very happy, so he took a glass of wine and had a toast with her.

Drinking Kang Loyo isn't afraid.

After all, you're a pretty good drinker.

If drinking would ensure that she didn't lose out, she'd rather drink more.

After making these arrangements, that king left, and never reappeared for the entire night.

Evelin drank a lot of wine, and in the beginning, that Liu was pretty disciplined, but at the back, he started to be dishonest.

Hands were always there to touch her, even trying to cup her waist.

Evelin all avoided it without moving, and that Liu was not reluctant to do so, only to look at her again with a few hints of displeasure.

"I've heard you've been in a few plays before. Can you talk to me about it?"

This Mr. Liu doesn't seem to have much to do with the entertainment industry, Evelin forced a smile and replied, "It's all just small productions, Mr. Liu, let's drink."

After saying that, he was about to take a glass of wine, but was unexpectedly stopped by Liu.

He had already seen that Evelin was a good drinker, even better than himself, so it was unrealistic to get her drunk.

So with a smile, "There's no rush, too much alcohol is not good for a girl's health, let's talk about your filming first."

Evelin squeezed out a dry smile, "Uh, yeah."

"Actually, I happen to have a modern drama on my hands, and I think your image and temperament are quite fitting for the lady of the show."

But any sane person would have been delighted after hearing that.

Then follow up by asking what the film is and if you have a chance to be in it.

Unexpectedly, Evelin only gave a faint "oh" and then said nothing.

Liu frowned at her.

It had been a whole night already, and as patient as he was, he was a little impatient by now.

Is this girl in front of you really ignorant, or is she deliberately playing dumb?

He beckoned to a nearby waiter and offhandedly whispered something to him.

The waiter left with a respectful nod.

Only then did Liu look at Evelin with a sneer.

Who cares if she really doesn't understand or if she's pretending not to, since he's got his eye on her tonight anyway, there's no escape!

Evelin didn't know at this point what plans were in the heart of Liu, sitting there looking at the time, it was already twelve o'clock, and there were already people leaving the box one after another.

She thought to herself that it probably wouldn't be long before this game was over!

A little relieved, after all the dreadful night on the alert, it was nice to be able to leave soon.

Just then, the waiter came over and poured two glasses of wine for the two men.

Liu lifted his wrist, looked at the time and smiled, "It's getting late, I have to get back, Miss Evelin, nice to meet you, one last drink?"

Evelin's eyes lit up at the news and raised her cup, "Good."

She didn't doubt it, and drank the glass of wine, which just tasted a little strange to her.

But she was about to leave, so she didn't think much of it, and after finishing her drink, she saw that Liu had already stood up.

"Miss Shi, are you going to stay here?"

"Uh, no, I have to go too."

Bullshit! Why are we still here when it's over?

She stood up in a hurry, and that Liu's eyes flashed and he smiled lightly, "Then let's go out together."

"Oh, good."

The two of them headed out together, and the other girls who came with Evelin didn't think much of it.

Or rather, no one noticed them at all.

Chapter 382

When they left the box, Evelin wanted to call that Wang and ask where their car was.

Before he came, he said to call him when the time came to go back if the car ride was inconvenient and he would send a car to pick it up.

But unexpectedly, she felt dizzy before her phone was dialed.

The images in front of my eyes became blurry and the sky spun like a hard place.

Evelin closed her eyes and shook her head again.

General Manager Liu walked in front, saw the situation and stopped, concerned: "Miss Evelin, what's wrong with you? Uncomfortable?"

"Uh...it's fine, I might have had a little too much to drink, I'm fine."

"I guess you've had too much to drink tonight. How about this! Where do you live? I'll take you back."

Liu said, coming to take her shoulder.

Evelin even took a step back to avoid it, barely smiling, "No need Mr. Liu, I'll just take a taxi back."

"How does that work? It's not safe for a girl to take a cab at this time of the day, so I'd better give you a ride home."

"It's really not necessary, Mr. Liu! What are you doing? Let go of me!"

Chief Liu's hand unobtrusively wrapped around her waist and lifted her up in his arms, and Evelin struggled desperately.

At this time, Liu had completely run out of patience, tearing off his Confucian and hypocritical businessman mask and revealing his true nature.

He smirked as he hugged Evelin, "Okay!At this point, what's the point of pretending?Don't think I don't know that none of you actresses are clean and haven't done anything to get to the top?Don't you worry!If you follow me tonight, you'll be the female lead in my next film!Only if you serve me well!"

He said and laughed lustfully, lowering his head to k*ss the girl's mouth.

Evelin only felt nausea in her stomach, the man brought his mouth over, and a strong smell of smoke and alcohol came over her face when she puffed, smelling like she wanted to vomit.

"Mr. Liu!Stop it!You let go of me first!"

"Let go of you?Heh.Even if I let go of you now, would you still be able to stand?"

Liu laughed a sardonic laugh, and Evelin's heart was in shock.

A numbness rose up from the abdomen, but in a few seconds, it hit the whole body.

Her limbs were sore and limp, her head was throbbing, and a heat was even more emanating from her body, forcing her to slide downward.

Damn it!

It looks like she's been drugged!

Evelin wasn't the kind of little white flower that was kept in a greenhouse, and if she didn't understand what was going on by this point, then she would have lived these past twenty years in vain.

Liu laughed proudly when he saw her looking weak and soft, the flesh on her fat face squeezed into a pile, almost making those little triangular eyes invisible.

"Don't be afraid, Miss Con, I'll love you tonight, come on baby!"

When she finished, a pair of fat, greasy hands went towards her dress.

Evelin was shocked and frightened, and took advantage of his outstretched space to bend her knee and kick him in the crotch, then she pushed him away and fought to run forward.

"Ah! You stinking cousin! How dare you kick me!"

"Liu, what's wrong?" The bodyguards in the back followed.

"What are you waiting for? The man is gone! Don't give chase yet!"

Several bodyguards looked in the direction of Evelin's escape and looked at each other.

Mr. Liu angrily knocked a hard blow on each person's head, "Are you all deaf? We don't get her today! And you're all out of here! Hear that?"

Only then did a few people react, responding in succession, "Yes!"

Then leaving Liu behind, he hurriedly chased after them.

Evelin ran as hard as she could.

It was so weak underfoot, but she knew.

That's a pretty good kick she just gave me.

If Mr. Liu catches her tonight, she'll be finished!

So you must escape.

Thinking this, she hurried to the lift and pressed the button.

Before the lift arrived, however, there was a man's angry shout from behind him, "Stop!"

Evelin's pupils suddenly dilated, and when she turned back, she saw a group of bodyguards coming after her.

There were a number of other guests in the hotel who were curious to see what was going on, but no one had any intention of making a move to help.

Evelin's heart was cold and looked back at the lift, only to see that it was still on the first floor.

At this rate, she's going to be caught before she gets to the lift.

What to do?

She was so flustered that she saw those people getting closer and closer, and without thinking too much about it, she turned around and hurried to the other side.

I don't know how long she ran, but she slammed into a hard chest.

"Sir, please help me! Someone is out to get me!"

She didn't even have time to look up to see who the other woman was, grabbed her clothes, and rasped out.

There was an appalled voice from overhead, "Is that you?"

Evelin was stunned.

When I looked up, I saw Tailor Feng's exquisite, god-awful face with a dude's smirk bantering on it.

"Yo, what's this for? You have to pick a place if you're going to throw yourself in the arms, what's it like with all these people watching?"

She said, and gave her an ambiguous glare, reaching out to take the collar of her suit she was tugging out of her hand.

Evelin didn't expect to run into him here.

Although the words that came out of the other's mouth made one want to slap him, yet at this time, it was better to run into her than someone else.

At least, a voice in her heart told her that even if Tailor Feng was bad, he was only bad-mouthed and wouldn't take advantage of her.

Thinking this way, she suppressed the urge to talk back, grabbed his clothes again, and said urgently, "Tailor Feng, help me."

Only then did Tailor Feng realize that something was wrong with the girl.

I saw that her cheeks were red, her forehead was still covered with a layer of dense sweat, her breathing was rapid, and her whole body was unbelievably soft.

Looking up again, I saw several men in black at the end of the corridor coming this way in pursuit.

"That's her! There's the person, grab her now!"

He paused with a heavy brow.

Taking the girl into his arms, he lightly opened his thin lips, "Su Leng!"

"Er Shao!"

A burly man stepped out from behind him.

Tailor Feng didn't command any words, just a glance made the other party read his meaning.

Su Leng turned towards those bodyguards.

Along with Tailor Feng, there were several CEOs of listed groups, who were a bit confused at this point.

One by one, Joe couldn't figure out what was going on and asked curiously, "Second young man, what's going on?"

Tailor Feng quirked an eyebrow.

The mind sputters, who do I ask if you ask me?

This woman must be the cause of all the trouble!

He looked at the woman in his arms in disgust, but found that she had lost consciousness, and was now soft in his arms, sweating all over, a small face so red that it was unrecognizable.

His heart thudded.

Tailor Feng is a person who is used to staying in places of style, seeing her like this, without having to look into it, he also roughly understood what was going on.

A demon's handsome face became even colder, and his eyes were icy cold.

Damn it!The sc*m!How dare you drug her!

Chapter 383

The group of bodyguards were chasing after them, but they were stopped halfway, not knowing what was going on, and behind them, Liu followed suit.

"Huh?What are you stopping here for?Where are the people?"

The group of bodyguards only looked towards the girl in Tailor Feng's arms across the street, and Liu was stunned as he followed his gaze.

Who's that guy?Why do you look so familiar?

Although Tailor Feng was always high-profile, not many people could actually get in touch with him, and people knew about him on tidbits of news.

Besides, it was nighttime and the hotel corridors were colorfully lit and dimly lit.

Plus, Liu had been drinking a lot and had been kicked by Evelin, and his eyes were even more clouded with wine anger.

At this point, I only saw a familiar-looking young man take Evelin in his arms, and thought it was which one of the rich family's son and daughter that I had seen before, and then laughed maliciously, "Yo, where did I dang run off to, so I found a patron."

He laughed sardonically as he walked forward, "Brother, I'm Ye Sheng's CEO, Liu Yutian, this woman took my money and tried to run away, and just kicked me!

I see you are also a person of status, more is better than less, today as to make a friend, change my brother to introduce a more beautiful woman to you."

Saying that, he wanted to go forward and pull Evelin over.

However, before taking two steps, he was stopped by Su Leng.

Liu Bingtian looked at Su Leng and frowned.

"Who are you?What are you stopping me for?"

Su Leng didn't speak, just looked at him coldly.

Liu Bingtian saw the situation, did not take him seriously, but the other party stopped like this, he is not good to go over, must be this person is the young man across the street's bodyguard.

Heh.Carrying only one bodyguard indicates average status, and he usually goes out with three or four bodyguards.

Since the status is average, there's no need to be too polite.

Liu Bingtian thought this and snapped at the bodyguards around him, "What are you guys waiting for?Bring that woman over here now!"

The bodyguards didn't dare to disobey him and said yes, they were going to move forward.

It was at this moment that Tailor Feng finally spoke.

"You said you're Ye Sheng's CEO?"

Liu and Tim looked at him and nodded his head in a toe-curling manner, "Yes!What's going on?"

He just assumed that the young man across the street was afraid of hearing his name, so he wanted to go soft.

After all, although Ye Sheng was not a top-notch international group, it was still very influential in Kyoto.

Most importantly, Ye Sheng had Feng's backing, that could be equivalent to, having an iron backing.

Even if they dared to offend him, they wouldn't dare to offend the Feng family!

But unexpectedly, the young man across the street not only wasn't afraid, but sneered.

He didn't ask any more questions, just pulled out his phone and called out.

"I'll give you three days to make Ye Sheng disappear from Kyoto!"

What?

To make Ye Sheng disappear from Kyoto?

He heard me right!

Liu Yutian laughed as if he had heard a funny joke.

"Young man!Who do you think you are?To make Ye Sheng disappear from Kyoto?Do you know how big Ye Sheng is?Do you know who's behind Ye Sheng?Just the audacity to say such a thing is laughable."

Liu Yutian had no idea what he had offended today and how much trouble he had sown for himself.

However, just because he didn't know, didn't mean that the CEOs who were following Tailor Feng didn't know.

As soon as they heard that phone call from Tailor Feng, all of their faces changed.

Everyone knows, the second son of the Feng family, is a man of the world, but he's also a man of the world.

dude, but always says one thing and is most protective.

With the short two words he had just spoken when he met this girl, everyone could tell that they knew each other.

Since they knew each other and Tailor Feng had helped her, they would naturally help to the end.

And yet Liu Yutian at this time also to the muzzle of the gun, is not asking for trouble?

Most importantly, it's just stupid to ask for trouble and not even be able to understand the situation.

Thinking like this, everyone then looked at the opposite Liu Yutian's gaze and couldn't help but have a few more hints of sympathy.

Liu Yutian, who hadn't reacted at this point, smiled proudly, "Young man! I think you should give her back to me! Seeing that you're not bad looking, there shouldn't be any shortage of women, so it's not like you're going to steal from my brother, right?"

Tailor Feng chuckled lightly, his eyes filled with coldness.

"With you, robbing me? You deserve it too!"

As soon as his voice fell, Liu Yu Tian's face changed.

sneered, "Hmph, give you face you're shameless aren't you? Well, then don't blame me for being rude!"

He commanded his handful of bodyguards, "You guys go over there and grab the guy for me!"

The bodyguards could only respond, yet before their feet could move, they could only feel the shadow of a man in front of them, and Su Leng had already made his move.

He was quick, and in the five-colored light, it was barely clear how he did it, all four bodyguards had been put down.

Liu Yu Tian stayed where he was.

"You, you, you..."

Before he could say anything, Su Leng leapt forward and heard a scream as Liu Yutian's wrist was directly twisted and dislocated, and his fat body was slammed down on the ground with an over-the-shoulder fall.

Tailor Feng hitched the girl in his arms across the room.

"Su Leng, find out what's going on tonight! Don't ever let me see this man again!"

"Yes!"

Tailor Feng hugged Evelin and left.

The CEOs around them all looked at each other, following or not following.

Eventually, it was one of them who said, "I think we'd better go! Er Shao probably doesn't have time to talk about business right now."

"You're right, so we'll talk about today another time."

"Good."

The CEOs have also left.

Liu Yutian, who was lying on the ground, was still screaming ouch ouch ouch as he cursed at the top of his lungs.

"You're all losers! Four guys can't beat one guy, so get on it! How dare you hit me, I won't let you go!"

However, those bodyguards were paid to do the job, not professional, by Su Leng's quick as a ghost to repair, knowing that today they encountered a tough fight, who still dare to come forward?

To get yourself hurt or even killed for a few thousand dollars a month, a fool would do it!

And Liu Yutian didn't treat them well, normally treating them like dogs, who would protect him without a life at this point?

Su Leng saw that he still dared to shout and sneered, pressing closer.

Liu Yutian gave a shiver.

"You said that the backing behind Ye Sheng is Feng's, do you know who that person is that you just yelled at loudly?"

Liu and Tim held his twisted and broken hand, his face painfully white, and naively asked, "Who?"

"His name is Tailor Feng!"

Liu and Tim: "...and..."

Tailor Feng held the girl in his arms and got into the car.

Evelin had completely lost her strength at this time, and her consciousness was a bit blurred, but the good thing was that the amount of drugs put into that wine wasn't much, so even though her body was so hot and dry, she could still manage to control it.
