

Chapter 381

"Tong Xin, do you want to play?"

Xu Ting appears in front of them. She first looks at Jin Zhengting with complicated eyes. A trace of resentment flashed through her eyes. Then she pretends to be enthusiastic. It seems that the person who was slapped by Zhao Tongxin last night is not her, but her face deliberately shows an imperceptible sarcasm.

"Sorry, I'm not interested." Zhao Tongxin's attitude to her is always lukewarm, and she turns a blind eye to Xu Ting's provocation.

"Mr. Jin, I'm so bored. Can you let Tong Xin play with me? It doesn't matter. Even if I lose, I won't let her lose money."

Xu Ting turns to Jin Zhengting. She deliberately accentuates the four words even if she loses. It means that Zhao Tongxin is not her opponent. It implies the means to motivate her. In front of her man, no woman admits that she can't match her rival.

As soon as Zhao Tong Xin's face changed, she didn't like such a gamble, but she wouldn't swallow her anger in front of her rival, so she looked at Jin Zhengting with questioning eyes.

It is undeniable that Jin Zhengting has a super high IQ, but he is also a man after all. He doesn't know much about the hidden arrows between many women, but he can also see that Zhao Tongxin is eager to try, so he said faintly: "it's OK, just go if you want to play, let Rong Qi follow you."

"Tong Xin, you see Mr. Jin agrees. You can play with me. If you think you can't win, it doesn't matter."

Xu Ting continued to mend a knife in the side.

Zhao Tong smiles at Jin Zhengting: "Zhenngting, I'll go and play with her."

Jin Zhengting nodded faintly: "well, go."

Then he put the Amethyst in Zhao Tongxin's hand: "it will bring you good luck."

Zhao Tong Xin gently gazed at Jin Zhengting and went to Xu Ting. Before they passed each other, she said to Xu Ting softly, "you can't win me."

Xu Ting's pupils contracted, and her expression was unnatural, but she soon returned to her normal state. She also whispered, "Zhao Tong Xin, let's wait and see."

Two people's eyes look at each other fiercely, and then walk to a gambling table, Rongqi follows Zhao

Tongxin calmly, protecting her safety at any time.

Jin Zhengting took a glass of red wine and tasted it lightly. His eyes fell on Zhao Tongxin's back. The familiar graceful figure had already entered his innermost heart.

"Mr. Jin is so free. How about we play two games?"

Xu Zheng finds Jin Zhengting. Maybe he is the only one on the boat who dares to gamble with Jin Zhengting, because Jin Zhengting has let him off several times. The smart Xu Zheng knows that Jin Zhengting will not do anything to him as long as he doesn't go too far.

However, he didn't find Jin Zhengting because of personal grudges, but he was a little unconvinced. He thought he was no worse than Jin Zhengting, but he always lost to the man in front of him, so he wanted to fight Jin Zhengting once.

Jin Zhengting's face with a faint expression, put down the wine cup and stood up, as if he could see everything. He glanced at Xu Zheng and said, "yes."

"Mr. Jin can rest assured that this game we are playing is a friendly match, not a knockout match." Xu Zheng's eyes showed a strong sense of war, and he didn't have many opportunities to face a man like Jin Zhengting. He felt that his whole blood was excited now.

"It doesn't matter. You can play whatever you want."

Jin Zhengting said lightly that he has such strong self-confidence that no one can pose a threat to him because he has absolute strength.

They went to a gambling table. When the people who had been fighting at the table saw Jin Zhengting coming, they put down their cards one after another and made room for them. They had never seen Mr. Jin's gambling game before, so they did not leave and watched from a distance.

Xu Zheng took out his credit card and handed it to the waiter: "give me ten million dollars of chips first."

It's 10 million US dollars to open your mouth, which arouses people's aspiration. People here are all successful people in the society, but they don't have the spirit of Xu Zheng. However, it's a relief to think that Xu Zheng is also a famous Playboy in Jiangbin and it's normal to take 10 million to play.

Jin Zhengting didn't have any expression on his face. He said to the waiter faintly, "prepare 50 million dollars for me."

When the waiter first came into contact with the upper class circle, he didn't know Jin Zhengting. When he saw that he was sitting there, he didn't mean to give him a credit card. He said with embarrassment, "Sir, you need to swipe your credit card."

"I'm talking about credibility."

Jin Zhengting's eyes were cold. When the waiter touched his eyes, he could not help shivering.

"What are you doing? Go and get Mr. Jin chips. Remember, Mr. Jin says you will get Mr. Jin as many chips as you want! "

Huo Tingchen appeared here with both hands on his back. He yelled at the waiter, but his eyes showed an imperceptible smile. When he saw Jin Zhengting and Xu Zheng coming to the gambling table from a distance in the cabin, he could not wait to come over, because he wanted to know Jin Zhengting's strength in this aspect. Xu Zheng was his former ally and naturally played the role of cannon fodder. Knowing Jin Zhengting's strength, he has a better grasp of the success of his plan.

The waiter bowed and walked away. After a while, he took their chips and put them on the table. Huo Tingchen stood aside and hinted at the dealer with his eyes.

After receiving the command from his eyes, he nodded his head slightly and asked Jin Zhengting, "Sir, what do you want to play?"

Jin Zhengting took a look at Xu Zheng and raised his hand: "you said."

Xu Zheng thought about it and said, "I don't know if president Jin is interested in Soha."

"Yes."

Jin Zhengting's face was calm. He said to the dealer, "you can deal."

The dealer promised and pretended to glance at Huo Tingchen unintentionally. He saw that he was arranging his tie with two fingers. He immediately understood what he meant. It was a sign in the gambling game that he wanted Jin Zhengting to lose.

Dealer shuffle, this process is actually secretly remember the position of each card, and then use the control technique, he wants others to get what card, others will get what card.

This is the basic skill of Qianmen, and it's also the most challenging skill for a Qianshu master.

The dealer only washed the cards twice, and then kept in mind the position of all the playing cards. He first sent two KS to Xu Zheng, then an A and a Q to Jin Zhengting. According to the order of the cards, Jin Zhengting should get two A's, but Huo Tingchen hinted that he wanted Jin Zhengting to lose, so he used the technique of controlling cards to replace the a originally given to Jin Zhengting with Q's, but he didn't One can see how he changed the cards.

Xu Zheng got two K's, which was quite big in the cards, but his face didn't show surprise. It can be seen that he is also an old hand in the casino, because once his expression is exposed, it is likely to scare away the opponent. The gambling game is actually a psychological war without a thousand skills.

He air out a k at the same time, Jin Zhengting Q as a card, a turned on the table.

"This gentleman is a, please speak up." The invoice clerk said quietly.

Jin Zhengting casually pushed all the chips to the center of the table and said faintly, "Soha."

The onlookers were stunned. The rule of Soha is to issue five cards. Now, after only two cards, Jin Zhengting is very confident about Soha. Even if the bottom card is a, he only has one pair of A. It's really unscientific when he doesn't get the remaining three cards.

Huo Tingchen's pupils contracted. Jin Zhengting dares to play like this, which proves that he must have the strength to win. If he is really a master of thousands of schools, his plan will not be very successful. In the exclamation of others, Huo Tingchen has begun to think about countermeasures.

Xu Zheng was stunned and only took two cards. Jin Zhengting had no reason to take such a risk. However, when he saw Jin Zhengting's faint eyes, he could not help but start to beat the drum. Why did he have such confidence? Although the Jin family is the largest family in Jiangbin, they will not spend 50 million dollars on card games.

Xu Zheng gritted his teeth and pushed the chips in front of him to the center of the table: "follow

He has no reason to be scared by Jin Zhengting in the first place. Maybe Jin Zhengting is just bluffing. Everyone who gambles has a mentality. He would rather lose than be scared to death.

The waiter nodded his head and began to deal the cards. He wanted to follow Huo Tingchen's order and ask Jin Zhengting to lose the gamble. So the last three cards were issued to Xu Zheng, two K's and two A's, because now the four cards are the biggest, because Jin Zhengting certainly can't get the same flush.

He also gave Jin Zhengting three cards, two Q's and one J's. in this way, Jin Zhengting had only two pairs of cards, and Xu Zheng was sure to win.

When Xu Zheng turns out three K's, there is a burst of exclamation in the crowd. Everyone knows the rules. When Xu Zheng turns out three K's, it means that he has either a big hand or four, and the winning face is very big, unless Jin Zhengting can get four a's.

Jin Zhengting lightly glanced at the cards in his hand, then buckled the cards on the table with his backhand and said to Xu Zheng, "you won."

Xu Zheng was stunned again. Before the two cards came out, Jin Zhengting chose to admit defeat, which was too unscientific.

But the chips in front of him proved that Jin Zhengting did admit defeat.

Just when Xu Zheng was still in a daze, Jin Zhengting had already got up to leave. Huo Tingchen came over with an imperceptible smile on his face: "president Jin's luck seems not very good today."

"50 million." There was no expression on Jin Zhengting's face, and people could not understand what he was thinking with his deep eyes.

"It doesn't matter. When it's almost over, I'll go out and play myself. I hope to play a game with Mr. Jin."

"Yes." Jin Zhengting had no interest in talking to him and left the crowd.

Huo Tingchen's smile smothered, called the dealer and asked, "what do you think of his strength?"

The dealer thought about it carefully and said, "boss, I'm sure he didn't see the technique I used just now, and I can't see what skills he can do. He can only say that his psychological quality at the gambling table is better. Maybe he saw that his bottom card is not ideal, so he wanted to scare off the opponent with Soha's method, but that gentleman didn't fall for it."Huo Tingchen nodded, which made him feel a little more at ease. Jin Zhengting would be better if he could not use all kinds of skills. In the near future, when he would use all kinds of skills to kill all sides, he would lose one of the most terrible obstacles.

He swept the gambling table on the broad deck coldly. Almost all the invited rich people were red eyed. Many people squatted on the deck and did not say a word. Obviously, they lost a lot on the gambling table.

"Jin Zhengting, it's my turn to beat you this time."

Huo Tingchen sneered and said to himself, he was suppressed by Jin Zhengting for too long, and finally found a chance to turn over, how can he not be excited?

Jin Zhengting, standing on the far deck, moved his hand slightly, and a K was sandwiched between his two fingers, which was Xu Zheng's trump card!

"The simple change card all did not discover, Huo Tingchen, this time you lost."

On Jin Zhengting's expressionless face, a faint smile finally appeared.

Chapter 382

Gu Chen is very angry now. He doesn't like playing cards, and he's not good at mahjong. So he chooses a gambling table the size of dice. At first, he still loses and wins. But later, he doesn't know what's going on. Suddenly, the situation suddenly changes, and one of them loses twenty-one in a row.

In the company, a male star who is in a competitive relationship with him is always against him. If he is big, that male star will be small, and every time that male star wins.

To the male star complacent, from time to time to cast provocative eyes on him, Gu Chen felt a burst of fire, this is not the main reason, the main or unconsciously, he has lost most of the property.

At the beginning, he just played a game of 10000 yuan, which was acceptable to his class. But later, he lost more and more, and the male stars he didn't deal with won more and more. As a result, he gradually increased the amount of his bet unconsciously. When all the money on his credit card was changed into chips, and all the chips were lost, he began to gamble fiercely But wake up, unknowingly has lost 70 million.

Tens of millions for those rich people on the ship may not be what, at most is the meat pain for a while, but for Gu Chen is a huge sum of money.

He is indeed a big star with boundless scenery, but most of the money he makes is the income of the company, and 70 million has already made him hurt.

All the credit cards Gu Chen took with him were blown out, but he still had the intention of turning the book over. Everyone who had gambled knew this feeling. The more he lost, the more he wanted to win back. The more he wanted to win back, the more he lost. Finally, he exported all his value.

These people on board are all upper class people of Jiangbin. Many of them have a good relationship with him. He wants to borrow some money and then go back to the gambling table to win back all the money he lost. By the way, he will teach the male star a lesson.

At this time, impulse completely suppressed reason. Most of the people on the ship were similar to him. That's why Huo Tingchen set up this game. People's desire is endless.

But Gu Chen is still resisting this kind of impulse. He grows up from an ordinary college student to a big star now. Only he knows the hardships. However, at the most difficult moment, he never asks others for help. Gu Chen is a man of backbone.

So he can only sigh gently, avoid the male star's eyes of victory, and turn his head to leave.

Jin Ying, who has been very quiet, suddenly takes out a credit card and sends it to him: "Gu Chen, I still have some money here."

Gu Chen was a little moved, but he didn't answer, just said faintly: "Xiaoying, thank you, but still don't use it, I'm not in the mood to play."

Gu Chen knows Jin Ying's feelings for him, but he can't accept it, because Zhao Tong's heart is always in his heart.

It is clear that both of them are on the boat, and they are only in one place. It is doomed that there will be no more intersection between him and her.

So Jin Ying's love offensive, he chose to escape, so that he did not want to have anything with her.

Jin Ying's face showed a hint of disappointment. She also sighed and said, "well, since you don't want to play, you just lost 70 million, didn't you?"

"Almost." Gu Chen's voice is a bit depressed, he feels that he should not play this gambling game at all.

"Well, you can be my eye, and I'll help you win back what you lost."

"Xiaoying, we'd better not. Let's go."

Gu Chen didn't say it clearly, but his meaning was very obvious. He was a complete person and lost all the time. Jin Ying, a blind person, was not the same. He knew that she wanted to make a copy of herself, but he didn't want Jin Ying to do it.

"It doesn't matter. Just tell me the number of dice before entering the cup." Jin Ying said stubbornly.

"Well, first, if we can't win, we won't play." Gu Chen knew that she was a miss of Jin's family. Although she was silent at ordinary times, especially after her eyes were injured, she was still a little bit of Miss Qianjin's temper. So he no longer reluctantly called the waiter, gave Jin Ying's credit card to him and changed some chips.

"Now the dice are three, double four six, 14 o'clock big."

Gu Chen looks at the color son that is about to shake, doing live broadcast beside Jin Ying.

Jin Ying nodded. She couldn't see her eyes. She just turned her head to the side, put her ears a little closer, and then listened to the voice.

The waiter of the color shaker put the color shaker on the table, took the top of the color shaker with one hand, copied it quickly, and the three dices on the table entered the color shaker. With this hand alone, we can see that he is a master of color shaker.

With his shaking, Seko made a clear voice in the cup. Jin Ying's ears moved twice, and her mouth slightly raised. She looked confident.

The waiter put the cup back on the table and said, "gentlemen, please bet."

"One, three, four, eight o'clock."

Jin Ying said softly, but her tone was very firm. Gu Chen looked at her suspiciously, but she still took out a fifty thousand chip and bet it on Xiaoshang. And Gu Chen has been not too deal with the male star saw him bet small, snorted from the nose, throw out a hundred thousand chips, he bet naturally is big.

Those who have been on the gambling table see Gu Chen bet small, without exception, bet big, because they can see Gu Chen lose twenty-one, and this boy bet the same, it is really money revenge.

When the waiter saw that everyone had finished betting, he reached out and opened the color cup. He saw three dices, one by one, one by three and one by four.

"One, three, four, eight o'clock."

The waiter light exposure points, another waiter will bet big chips in front of Gu Chen, because this bureau, he is the only one bet small people.

"How does Xiaoying know the size of the dice? Is it a coincidence? No, she has just reported the number of points, and it's not bad at all. How can it be a coincidence? "

Gu Chen thought in his heart. Jin Ying seemed to guess his doubts and explained to him in a low voice: "after my eyes were blind, I was very pessimistic at first, but suddenly one day I found that my ears became very sensitive. I could hear some voices that others couldn't hear. Just now when you were playing, I was listening. I found that I could hear the dice in the color cup So I can tell the number of chromatics

"So amazing?"

Gu Chen a little don't believe, with the ear can hear points to, this is a lot of so-called God of gambling people can't do things.

"Of course, the premise is that you have to tell me the number of points before the chromon, so that I can imagine how the chromon rotates and calculate the number of points after the chromon is shaken."

Gu Chen depressed mood immediately excited up, the original Jin Ying has this skill, so he lost those money will soon be able to win back.

A dozen in a row, Jin Ying all guessed the number of points, the chips in front of them piled higher and higher, Gu Chen lost money not only came back, but also made a lot of profits.

The worst thing is that the male star who is against Gu Chen has lost all his original chips. Now the chips mortgaged by his own house and car are lying quietly in front of Gu Chen. It can be said that he has lost all his money.

The two bartenders looked at each other. One of them touched his nose, and the other understood. Huo Tingchen's order to them was to let one person win other people's money as much as possible, and kill them at the same time.

Through kill means to shake out four, five, six points. In this way, whether it's big or small, it will be eaten by the dealer in the end.

The waiter who shakes the dice takes a deep breath. He can control the number of dices he shakes with the strength of his wrist. This time, he uses dark energy. When he puts down the dice cup, the three dices are exactly four, five and six.

"Four, five, six leopards will be killed. Don't bet this game."

Jin Ying whispered in Gu Chen's ear, taking this opportunity to feel his breath.

They all looked at Gu Chen. They would follow him where he wanted to bet. Sometimes the gambling game also needed luck. These people didn't know the inside story. They simply thought that Gu Chen's good luck was coming. Following suit was the basic characteristic of Chinese people.

"I won't bet this game."

Gu Chen light said, will throw a 50000 yuan chip to the waiter: "this is I give you to eat red."

Then he put away his chips and helped Jin Ying to leave the gambling table.

The waiter frowned and said, "boss, I found a master here. What should I do?"

Huo Tingchen was sitting in the luxurious cabin with a glass of red wine in his hand. Through the closed-circuit surveillance system, he could see the picture clearly. He put down his glass and said faintly: "don't care. That little star has no origin and won't have any influence on our plan. Jin Zhengting's blind sister is rather difficult."

"Boss, the blind woman should have a good hearing. She can listen to the dice in the excellent cup, but don't worry. I don't think she has received any formal training. If she wants to gamble on dice later, I'm sure I can deal with her."

Huo Tingchen smile, face with a cruel expression: "let them win enough, then deal with them."

"Yes, boss."

Another table.

Xu Yanke stares at Rong Lei fiercely. Rong Lei intentionally or unintentionally evades her murderous eyes.

Two people in playing mahjong in the push tube, is also the most simple of all play, win or lose the fastest one.

The waiter gave Xu Yanke the dice and said, "Miss, you can throw the dice."

Xu Yan can pick up the dice and coldly say to Rong Lei: "tell me, what's the bet this time?"

Rong Lei thought carefully: "if I win, can the misunderstanding between Miss Yan Ke and me be written off?"

"Yes, if you lose, I'll pay you double." Xu Yanke said, throwing out the dice in his hand, and then cutting two mahjong cards from the position shown by the number of points.

Rong Lei also cut the card and said to Xu Yanke, "Miss Yanke, I hope you keep your word."

"Well, I'll talk about it if I win." Xu Yanke is very confident in her technique. When she was under Huo Tingchen, she specially trained in this technique. She believes that it is very easy for her to win Rong Lei.

Having a look at her own cards, Xu Yanke buckles the cards upside down on the table and rubs them gently. She doesn't know if she's hiding them in her sleeve. Then she exchanges them out with lightning speed.

"Let's play." Xu Yan can win the ticket in hand, coldly said to Rong Lei.

Rong Lei's calm face pushed his two mahjong cards down on the table: "I won, Miss Yanke, a pair of nine."

"Cut, what you win, we are the most and, I am also two nine."

Xu Yanke opened the card, his face suddenly changed, he had changed the card, now it is a nine tube, one tube.

"Miss Yan Ke, your eight tube is in the sleeve, and the nine tube you replaced is with me."

Rong Lei light says, take out a mahjong card from sleeve, nine tube.

Chapter 383

"This game doesn't count. You cheat!"

Xu Yanke glares at Rong Lei. She's a little angry now. She can't think that Rong Lei can easily change his card under her eyes, and she doesn't notice it at all.

Rong Lei Leng for a moment: "Miss Yan Ke, you just seem to have cheated?"

"I'm a woman." Xu Yan can white Rong Lei one eye, say with the tone that talks to idiot.

Rong Lei was stunned again: "Miss Yan Ke, women can't cheat, can they?"

"Hey, do you understand that women have privileges? What a piece of wood."

Xu Yan can not be angry, she threw the card on the table: "this game does not count, we do not have the ability to use tactics, gambling on luck, dare not?"

Rong Lei calmly nodded: "good, or the original bet."

"No, the original bet is too small. If we want to bet, we'll bet a little more." Xu Yanke's eyes turned, obviously he had another idea.

"Miss Yanke, what do you want to bet on?"

"I'll bet your life. If you lose, your life will be mine."

Rong Lei thought, "what if you lose?"

"I'll give you back my life." Xu Yanke said naturally.

"Miss Yan Ke, whether you win or lose, you don't have any loss. Is that a bit unfair?"

Rong Lei's reaction is very fast. He can't be so easily fooled.

"Fair? You insulted me twice. Why didn't you say it was unfair to me at that time?" Xu Yanke grits his teeth and says that when he thinks of the two intimate contacts with Rong Lei, he can't help but feel ashamed, angry and resentful.

Rong Lei's face is a bit unnatural: "Miss Yan Ke, I have explained many times, I really didn't mean to."

"I don't care whether you mean it or not. Anyway, it's an unchangeable fact. You have to bet with me. If I win, either you will let me kill you or you will compensate me for my mental loss."

Rong Lei asked tentatively, "how much?"

Xu Yanke stretched out his hand and shook it in front of him.

"Fifty million?"

Rong Lei was surprised, but the lion opened his mouth. Unexpectedly, Xu Yan looked at him disdainfully and shook his head at the same time.

"50 million to send me? Five hundred million! "

Rong Lei almost fell down from the chair he was sitting on. He sat down with difficulty and asked: "Miss Yan Ke, how much do you say?"

"Five hundred million yuan for mental loss, not a cent less!"

Rong Lei sighed: "you kill me."

Although he is Jin Zhengting's confidant, he is not a real rich man after all. If he is allowed to spend 500 million yuan, it is no different from his life.

"I'll make a bet with you. If I win, you owe me 500 million. Of course, my bet is not small."

Xu Yanke said, took out the red crystal which symbolized love from the bag and put it on the table: "if you win, this red crystal is yours."

Rong Lei has always been with Jin Zhengting, and the group's pillar industry is jewelry, so he can see the value of red crystal at a glance. Although heart-shaped natural red crystal is rare, the price will not exceed 300000.

"Miss Yan Ke, it seems that this red crystal is not enough for gambling?"

Xu Yanke snorted from his nose: "you will not understand how important this crystal is to me. You must bet with me, or we will not die."

This is also a kind of threat. Rong Lei and Xu Yanke have dealt with each other a lot. Naturally, they know how difficult Huo Tingchen's most effective subordinates are. If they are targeted by her, they will have to be more careful in the future. Instead of being careful every day, they might as well end up in this gambling game.

"Well, Miss Yanke, I promise to gamble with you."

Rong Lei is also a decisive person, a little balance will have a decision.

Xu Yanke's eyes show a proud smile. Rong Lei catches her expression. Suddenly, his heart moves. Looking at her appearance, he seems to have been cheated.

Xu Yanke raised his hand and saw the pony holding a lot of chips and nodding to Xu Yanke: "vice president Xu, I have successfully completed the task you gave me. This is 12 million. Please have a look."

"Well, put it down. You can bet with him. You have to win!"

Xu Yanke's face sank and her cold eyes swept over the pony, which scared him to shrink his neck. She didn't talk nonsense either. She got up to make room for the pony and sat down to watch the game.

The pony first smiles to Rong Lei, then sits down and says to him, "big brother, what do we play?"

Rong Lei carefully observed the pony, frowned faintly and said faintly: "it's better to push the bobbin."

"All right."

Pony said with a smile, two hands have begun to shuffle quickly, see his action, Rong Lei more sure that he is a master.

Jin Zhengting has performed a thousand skills in front of him once or twice before. It can be said that he has reached the level of perfection. Rong Lei has always taken Jin Zhengting as an example, so he also used his spare time to find several experts to learn this technology. He is very talented in this aspect, so even Xu Yanke can't see his technique. But he doesn't have the bottom in his heart now, because although Xiaoma looks ugly, the light in his eyes can tell that he is definitely not an ordinary person.

Rong Lei knows that when the pony shuffles, he has already started to play thousands of cards. He has made every card a mark that only he can understand. In other words, no matter how he shuffles, he knows the position of all the cards.

When the pony finished washing the cards, he gave Rong Lei a smile: "brother, do you want to wash it again?"

"No, you've washed it thoroughly."

Rong Lei puns, the pony understood his meaning, a little embarrassed smile: "the original big brother is also an expert, since this is the case, by the big brother began to throw dice."

Xu Yanke frowns. What the pony does is undoubtedly to give Rong Lei an opportunity. You should know that although he has done a good job, the dice is more important, because the order of grabbing the cards is decided by the dice. If you disturb the order of grabbing the cards, it is useless to do a good job.

So playing mahjong master, the control of the dice is also essential skills.

Of course, she hopes that Xiaoma can win, because she needs money more than ever now. Since she learned about her life experience and separated from Huo Tingchen's organization, she has gained unprecedented freedom. Even now that she has been recognized by Jin Zhengting, she does not want to go back to Jin's family empty handed. At least she needs to have her own career.

So no matter what means, as long as she can make money, she can use it. But first of all, she focuses on Rong Lei. Besides his wealth, it's mainly because of his two offenses.

Rong Lei picked up the dice and pinched it in his hand. Suddenly he asked, "what time do you want?"

The pony smile: "I want four."

Rong Lei stands up and respectfully greets Jin Zhengting.

"Well."

Jin Zhengting faintly replied and looked at the Pony: "are you from Tongxin company?"

Although Xiaoma is a small security guard of the company, he also knows Jin Zhengting's existence. That's the group president at the top of the company. It's a great honor for him to be able to talk to him.

"Mr. Jin, I'm the company's security guard. Everyone calls me Xiaoma."

Pony a little at a loss to answer, Jin Zhengting on the body of the kind of oppression, let him not adapt.

"Well, there will be a chance for you to perform today."

Jin Zhengting said faintly, turned his head to Xu Yanke and said: "although you are unintentional, you have helped me once. I will return the favor to you."

Xu Yan didn't know how to answer. When she was speaking, Jin Zhengting didn't give her a chance. He said to Rong Lei faintly, "I don't know what your grudges are. I won't interfere in your affairs."

"Boss, it's nothing, just a little misunderstanding."

Rong Lei is embarrassed to say that he always feels that Jin Zhengting misunderstands the relationship between him and Xu Yanke, and he doesn't know how to explain it.

"Let's go and have a look at Tong Xin. She and Xu Ting are going to win or lose."

Zhao Tongxin has never played cards, but Xu Ting is an expert in this field. She is a socialite who often goes in and out of romantic places and knows something about the gambling table.

They are playing mahjong now, and there are two rich wives at the same table. They look at Zhao Tongxin unfriendly, because Zhao Tongxin is more beautiful than them and Jin Zhengting's wife. No matter what point, they can't forgive, so in the card game, they all try their best, even if they split their cards, they don't give her any cards. They can also see that there is a deep hostility between Xu Ting and Zhao Tongxin, so they feed Xu Ting desperately, hoping that Xu Ting can win Zhao Tongxin, and their hearts can breathe out.

But the problem is that no matter how they aim at Zhao Tongxin, it seems that luck is always on her side. Even if they can't get the cards, even if Zhao Tongxin's playing skills are unfamiliar, they can touch themselves every time, which makes them even more unhappy.

Xu Ting see the situation is not right, pretending enthusiasm to Zhao Tong Xin said: "Tong Xin, you have a good fortune today, I don't think they have much chips, how about we play the last one, play a little bigger?"

Zhao Tong heart in the hands of playing with the symbol of luck Amethyst, smile, meet Xu Ting's eyes, light said: "can."

Jin Zhengting said that this Amethyst will bring her good luck, so she has inexplicable confidence, because she will always believe what he said.

Chapter 384

"Since it's a big game, it's a little bit less chips. Well, if I lose, I'll give you 20% of my company's shares. If I win, I only need 15% of your company's shares. How about that?"

Xu Ting looks at Zhao Tongxin and says that she is sure to win, because although Zhao Tongxin has won many times in a row, from her playing cards, she is not good at gambling.

Xu Ting now finally dares to face Zhao Tongxin. She is backed by Huo Tingchen. Now Huo Tingchen controls Tianhong Group. Last night Huo Tingchen called her and told her all the plans. She was not interested in other things. But Huo Tingchen asked her to be the president of the jewelry company, which made her accept almost without hesitation.

She doesn't care what Huo Tingchen's purpose is in investing in the jewelry industry, but she knows that when she becomes the president of the company, she will have to fight Zhao Tongxin in the business, and she will trample Zhao Tongxin under her feet.

Xu Ting feels that she has firmly grasped Huo Tingchen's thigh. In order to get Jin Zhengting, she has to step on Zhao Tongxin anyway!

After many years of forbearance, she can finally go to the front desk now. She has a feeling of sudden openness, so she confronts Zhao Tongxin everywhere. Unless Jin Zhengting is present, after all, she wants to leave a good impression on Jin Zhengting.

The two rich ladies at the same table took a breath. They were used to the life of a rich family and naturally did not lack private money. However, the price offered by Xu Ting was too big. Although the Xu family was not as good as Jin Zhengting group, it was also a big family in Jiangbin. 20% of all the companies in Xu Ting's family had to have at least 5 billion yuan. The 15% shares of the jewelry company managed by Zhao Tongxin had a similar market value They can't afford such a huge gamble.

Seeing their worries, Xu Ting said to them with a smile, "this is my bet with Tong Xin. It has nothing to do with you. Just play with us."

She could see that they were not happy with Zhao Tongxin, so they had to stay, at least as temporary allies.

After hearing Xu Ting's bet, Zhao Tongxin can't help hesitating. She is the manager of the jewelry company, but the company is Jin Zhengting's industry. She can share 20% of Xu Yanke's shares with Xu Yanke. Even if she still doesn't like Xu Yanke, Xu Yanke is Jin Zhengting's sister, so it can be said.

But if she wants to take out 15% of the company's shares to make a bet, she has not the courage. Although Zhao Tongxin has changed a lot, she is still a little woman who has not been deeply involved in the world.

"What's the matter, Tong Xin? Don't you dare to gamble? Forget it. You won't have any glory anyway. People will say I bullied you when they know. Ah, after all, I'm from a civilian family. I don't have any upper class courage."

Xu Ting looks at Zhao Tong Xin's hesitation, so she opens her mouth and says, with unspeakable irony in her tone. She is using the method of provocation. As long as Zhao Tong Xin is deceived, she can get 15% of the shares of the jewelry company, which will be very helpful for her future plans. Zhao Tong Xin's face shows an unhappy look. How can she not recognize that Xu Ting is mocking her? But it's a matter of great importance. Even if you are wronged now, you can't be impulsive.

"What's the matter? Now that she has made a bet, let's play with her. "

As soon as the figure flashed, Jin Zhengting had already sat beside her and looked at her with encouraging eyes. Rong Lei and Xu Yanke were standing far away. At this time, Xu Yanke had no time to settle accounts with Rong Lei, and his cold eyes were staring at Xu Ting.

He doesn't like Zhao Tongxin, but he hates Xu Ting more.

See Jin Zhengting, Zhao Tong heart suddenly become very quiet, she asked in a low voice: "really no problem?"

Jin Zhengting gave a faint smile, and almost knocked down the two women at the same table. Few people had seen Mr. Jin's smile. It was so charming.

He said faintly: "business and gambling are the same, if you think there is a chance, you must bet, otherwise you can only stay where you are."

"But what if you lose?"

Zhao Tong Xin has no confidence in gambling. She has never been in touch with these things before. When she was at school, she occasionally played mahjong with her roommate when she was bored. It's just a few yuan to win or lose. Let her take out several billion yuan as a bet. Zhao Tong Xin has no bottom in her heart. This kind of scene has never been seen before.

"It's just billions, as long as you're happy."

Jin Zhengting spoke lightly. He heard what Xu Ting said, so he didn't want Zhao Tongxin to be ridiculed by her. Although billions of dollars is a huge sum of money, it's not worth mentioning compared with her mood.

He is willing to pay all for her, as long as she can be happy, any price is worth it.

The two women who were stunned by Jin Zhengting all showed a look of envy. Mr. Jin is worthy of being the perfect man in all women's hearts. He can show the atmosphere of a successful man and show his tender care for Zhao Tong.

If they are good at Zhao Tongxin, they will be happy. So when they look at Zhao Tongxin, their eyes are full of envy. To tell you the truth, they are even more jealous of Zhao Tongxin. But Mr. Jin is present, and they always show their admiration for Zhao Tongxin. At this time, they have to show their jealous expression, which is really death. Women in rich families still have this look. After all, there are too many right and wrong in rich families, and there may be hidden weapons at any time. These women have been honed for a long time.

Xu Ting's face is uncontrollably cold. She feels that her heart is blocked by something, painful and uncomfortable. Whenever she sees Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tong showing their love, she will have this feeling.

She secretly clenches her teeth and stares at Zhao Tongxin with poor eyes. The position beside Jin Zhengting should belong to her. It's Zhao Tongxin who takes away her own position and takes away Zhengting's heart. This is something she can't bear!

Jealousy is overwhelming. If Jin Zhengting wasn't here, she would be attracted to Zhao Tong. Even now Jin Zhengting is here, she can't restrain her impulse.

At this time, Jin Zhengting turned to look at Xu Ting, and saw her slightly ferocious face. There was a chill at the bottom of her eyes, which was enough to freeze everything. There was a look of disgust, and his voice was gradually cold: "Xu Ting, pay attention to the gambling game, don't think about some impossible things."

His sentence has a lot of meaning, suggesting that Xu Ting should not have any illusions about him, but also warning her not to mess around. Jin Zhengting has already felt her hostility to Zhao Tongxin. All the people who are hostile to Zhao Tongxin are his enemies. No matter who they are, he will not be polite.

"Mr. Jin, I didn't think about anything. I just wanted to see Tong Xin. She's so beautiful today."

Knowing that Jin Zhengting has seen through her mind, Xu Ting still forcibly defends. She blinks her eyes, as if she has been wronged and innocent.

Pretending to be innocent is one of her skills. Getting used to this mode has become her instinct. She can see Jin Zhengting's disgust for her. Her poor expression is not all out, but with a real feeling, so she really looks pathetic.

Jin Zhengting no longer ignores her, but turns to Zhao Tongxin. His cold eyes become tender in that moment. When he is with Zhao Tongxin, the cold doesn't belong to him.

The opposite Xu Ting saw this scene, her teeth were about to be crushed, she pretended to be poor and innocent, but Jin Zhengting didn't even look at Zhao Tongxin, but her eyes were full of tenderness, which made her already unbalanced psychology explode completely. Originally she hated Zhao Tongxin, but she never hated her like now. Xu Ting vowed that no matter what means she used, no matter what she paid What kind of price, will put Zhao Tongxin to death!

"Zhengting, do you think I will win?"

Zhao Tong Xin also gently stares at Jin Zhengting and asks him in a low voice. As long as he can give her confidence, she believes that she will win.

"The lucky crystal is in your hands, so you will win."

Jin Zhengting reaches out his hand and holds Zhao Tongxin's hand. The warm touch from his hand makes Zhao Tongxin in a trance. He is his lucky crystal. With him by her side, she will become very firm and don't worry about anything.

"Well, Xu Ting, I'll play with you once."

Zhao Tong Xin looks up and says to Xu Ting faintly that now she is full of confidence, because Jin Zhengting has said that she will win.

"Well, let's start."

Xu Ting still pretends to be very close to Zhao Tong Xin, but her voice is a bit gnashing her teeth.

"Hey, do you think Zhao Tongxin's mahjong skills will really win?" Xu Yanke asks Rong Lei in a low voice.

Rong Lei a face calm answer: "rest assured, as long as there is boss around, Miss Tong Xin will win."

Xu Yan Ke gave him a white look: "where does your groundless self-confidence come from?"

Although she said that, she was also very down-to-earth. As long as Jin Zhengting was there, it seemed that there was no scene he could not control. This man was born with such a strong aura that people could not help believing that he could do anything.

Rong Lei said with a smile: "you don't know boss. Let's put it this way. The expert named Xiaoma just now is very powerful, isn't he? If you meet a boss in a gambling game, you only need the boss to move his fingers to solve it. "

"Is Zhengting really so powerful?" Xu Yanke's eyes widened in surprise. She knows a lot of skills. She knows that Xiaoma is one of the ten thousand masters. It's hard for her to imagine how strong Jin Zhengting will be if it is as Rong Lei said.

"Miss Yan Ke, you can't doubt the boss's ability. In this world, there is nothing boss is not good at, but he doesn't like to show it."

As Jin Zhengting's assistant for many years, Rong Lei certainly knows how powerful this man is.

Chapter 385

Jin family villa.

Mrs. Jin is sitting in the living room, and her father and Jin Fu are sitting at the bottom of the table. She has the highest seniority in the Jin family, so she naturally has to sit in the main position.

Today, Mrs. Jin's dress is very formal, and she is much more energetic than usual. Even every hair is carefully combed, because she wants to meet a person, Cheng mobing, the third miss of the Cheng family.

The old people have a better face, especially in front of their opponent's granddaughter. They have to show more momentum than usual.

Cheng Mo Bing, dressed in a formal suit, sits opposite the old lady, with a quiet smile on her face. She is generous and decent, and looks very cultured.

"I haven't seen you for 30 years. How's your grandmother?" Mrs. Jin said faintly. Her voice was full of air. She didn't look like an 80 year old man at all.

"Grandma's health is not bad. She often mentions you. When I come here, grandma specially asks me to greet you and let you pay attention to your health."

Cheng Mo Bing very appropriate answer.

"When you go back to tell your grandmother that I'm such a tough old woman that she doesn't have to worry. She will definitely die in front of me."

Mrs. Jin's voice was not big, but the smell of gunpowder in her tone had come out.

Jin's father and Jin's mother looked at each other without interrupting. Although old lady Jin was a little older, she was not confused at all. Naturally, she had a point in saying that.

Cheng Mo Bing didn't care at all. She said with a smile, "I think so, too. At the first sight of you, I think grandma's life is certainly not as long as you."

Mrs. Jin's eyes flashed a little light, and her face unconsciously showed a smile: "it's still you who can speak, but don't show off these little skills in front of my old lady. Don't flatter me. Just say what you have to say. What's the matter with our Jin family this time."

"How can it be flattery, I said the truth."

Cheng mobing didn't answer Mrs. Jin directly, and then said, "you don't have to worry about the trivial matters of the family, but my grandmother works hard for the family. How can she compare with you?"

Mrs. Jin said with a smile, "you are very thoughtful. OK, I see what you mean. So you came to Jin's house for this matter?"

Cheng Mo Bing laughs: "Jin's group is very large. Although Jiangbin is one of the best cities, it is still too small for Jin's family business. If you want to further develop, it is better to radiate to the surrounding cities."

"I see." Mrs. Jin has a look of approval in her eyes. Few people can get her approval. It can be seen that Cheng mobing has been recognized by Mrs. Jin.

From the beginning of the conversation, Cheng Mo Bing didn't mention a word about the family affairs of the Cheng family, but he skillfully conveyed the information to Mrs. Jin, and tactfully stated the purpose of his visit.

She seems to be chatting with Mrs. Jin, but every sentence has a deep meaning. When she casually talks about her grandmother's body, Cheng mobing says that her grandmother is still in charge of the Cheng family's affairs. That's why she says her grandmother works hard.

Then she expressed her purpose of coming to the Jin family by suggesting that the Jin family should do business in the surrounding cities. She wanted to use the power of the Jin family to overthrow her grandmother's rule over the Cheng family.

"How much do you know about the past of the Jin and Cheng families?"

Smart people don't need to play riddles. Mrs. Jin then asked directly.

Cheng Mo Bing also does not conceal, answer casually: "all."

"Oh? I look down on you. If you tell me everything you know, I'll see if you cheat me. " Old lady Jin's pupils contracted. She found that Cheng mobing was not a simple person.

"It started 30 years ago. At that time, the Jin family, Cheng family and Huo family didn't have the same relationship as they do now. At that time, the three families had a good relationship. They cooperated in the arms business together. Since then, the three families have accumulated rapidly rising capital. Madam, am I right?"

Cheng Mo Bing finished and looked at Mrs. Jin with a smile.

There was no expression on Mrs. Jin's face, but she nodded her head faintly: "what you said is quite right. Thirty years ago, it was really like yours, but few people knew about the past."

"That's because after the rise of the Jin and Cheng families, they no longer engaged in such shady business and began to change their jobs. At that time, uncle Jin and my father were both in the military, so they were even less likely to get involved in those businesses. It can be said that this is a stain on the family. Naturally, they don't want others to know about it, and no one dares to mention the past things about the status of the two families in their respective cities, That's why it's gradually forgotten. "

Cheng Mo Bing's analysis is very reasonable, just like her own experience.

"It's a good analysis. It's true." Mrs. Jin did not deny it.

"Everything has to start with the Huo family. At that time, the Huo family didn't change production as we did. The Huo family paid more attention to the huge profits brought by the arms business. The business grew bigger and bigger, and their attitude became more and more arrogant and tough. At last, it was hard for the senior management to tolerate it." Cheng Mo Bing finished, with inquiring eyes looking at old lady Jin, seems to ask her to verify whether what he said is correct.

Old lady Jin still has no expression, but Jin's father's face is a little unnatural. He has experienced this incident and thought of some embarrassing things.

"Go on." Old lady Jin took a look at her father, which confirmed Cheng mobing's words.

"At that time, my uncle and my father had just joined the military and were in urgent need of promotion, so the two families joined hands to destroy the Huo family."

Cheng mobing takes a deep look at Jin Fu, whose face is more unnatural. Jin Fu's forehead is sweating.

This is the last thing Jin's father wants to talk about. Just as Cheng mobing said, in order to get a promotion, they broke the alliance of the three families. Together with Cheng's then family leader, they uprooted the power of the Huo family and were successfully promoted to the position of lieutenant general. It can also be said that both families regarded the Huo family as stepping stones to climb up.

Jin's father, who has always been upright, is not willing to do so, but the interests involved are too great, and the high-level officials often put pressure on him.

"You are right. At that time, we had no choice but to move the Huo family."

Jin's father is no longer silent. He feels that some things can't be hidden any more. He will feel more comfortable when he says them.

"I know my uncle didn't want to do that, but I couldn't help it."

Cheng Mo Bing smiles and understands Jin Fu. Jin Fu nods his head slightly. He is very satisfied with Cheng Mo Bing's words, which gives him a lot of points for her impression.

Cheng mobing continued: "at that time, when the three companies were doing arms business, they had a common secret warehouse in Siberia. There was an unimaginable wealth in the warehouse. In order to show their sincerity for cooperation, they decided to hold the key of the warehouse in turn. Unfortunately, when the Huo family was destroyed, it was the Huo family that held the key."

"So when destroying the Huo family, in order to fight for the key, Jin Cheng and his family broke out a fierce conflict."

Mrs. Jin said faintly that she didn't feel any shame about it at all. After all, it was an unimaginable wealth, and anyone in the world could not help fighting for it.

"Finally, under the direct intervention of the high level, the two sides reached an agreement that neither side could enter into the other side's sphere of influence. This situation lasted for 30 years."

Jin Fu added that as the owner of the Jin family at that time, he signed the agreement on behalf of the Jin family.

"That's not the point. Go on."

Mrs. Jin took a look at Cheng Mo Bing and said faintly that she knew that Cheng Mo Bing knew more than that.

"After my grandfather died, my father inherited the position of master of the Cheng family. But from that time on, my grandmother showed a strong desire for power. She used various means to overthrow her father and control the power of the Cheng family. She secretly supported the forces against the Jin family in an attempt to weaken the Jin family and even uproot the Jin family. At first, I didn't understand grandma's cooking, I didn't understand it until I found out a big secret one day

At this point, Cheng mobing stops. She looks at Mrs. Jin, meaning to let Mrs. Jin speak.

Mrs. Jin nodded: "your grandmother is a member of the Huo family, so she uses her identity to be the head of the Cheng family, and at the same time uses the Cheng family to deal with the Jin family."

Cheng Mo Bing smiles: "so you already know."

"Of course, your grandmother and I had a lot to do with each other 30 years ago, and we still know her details. Although we know her plot, because of the agreement, the Jin family can't interfere in the family affairs of the Cheng family."

Mrs. Jin sighed and continued: "these years have been calm. I thought things had passed like this. After all, we are all at this age, and we still have many days to live. I didn't expect that she could not help it in the end."

"I can't figure out why my grandmother sent my brother to Jiangbin at this time."

"That's because she knows that the key to the secret warehouse falls into the hands of the Jin family. Of course, she can't sit still. With that wealth, she can destroy the two families and avenge the Huo family."

"I don't understand. Grandma is so old. What can we do after revenge?"

Jin Fu pondered for a while and said, "because the Huo family still has blood to stay, your grandmother is planning for his future."

Cheng Mo Bing's face showed a clear look: "uncle, is the blood left by the Huo family Huo Tingchen?"

"Yes, that's him. When we destroyed the Huo family, we decided to leave some blood for the Huo family, so we deliberately let him go. Unexpectedly, your grandmother found him."

Cheng Mo Bing nodded: "no wonder grandma holds all the power in her hand. She wants to destroy the Cheng family and Jin family, and then leave all the power to the only descendant of the Huo family."

"Girl, you don't need to ask about these things. Why do you choose to cooperate with the Jin family?"

Mrs. Jin asked faintly. Now she can't see why Cheng Mo Bing made such a decision. "Because I like the court."

Cheng Mo Bing whispered a word, the cheek emerges a piece of crimson.

Chapter 386

"Oh? Have you met? "

Mrs. Jin's eyes narrowed and looked at Cheng Mo Bing attentively. Her old but not turbid eyes seemed to be able to see through her mind.

Cheng Mo Bing nodded shyly: "yes, we met yesterday."

"I see. Zhengting is a talented person. It's a woman's normal reaction to like him. It's no surprise, but don't you know he's married?"

Mrs. Jin raised her voice, as if questioning Cheng mobing.

Cheng Mo Bing's face is more red: "I don't mind that he has other women, because I really like him, so I don't mind competing with his wife."

Jin's father and mother's face were frozen. Jin's father was just about to speak. Old lady Jin gave him a look. Jin's father understood and kept silent.

"You seem to have a lot of confidence in yourself."

Old lady Jin looked up and down at Cheng Mo Bing and said faintly.

"Old lady, I admit that Zhengting's wife is an excellent woman, but after all, she is a civilian. Even if her real identity is the lost daughter of the Xu family, it is difficult to really help Zhengting's career with the status of the Xu family?"

Cheng Mo Bing asks without any trace that a family like Jin family strives to be equal to each other in marriage, at least in career. Obviously, Zhao Tong Xin does not have such conditions.

"And you?"

Mrs. Jin's face was calm, but her eyes flickered, as if thinking about something.

"I may not get the heart of Zhengting, but I also have my own advantages. If I marry Zhengting, it's the marriage of Jin family and Cheng family. In my career, I also have the ability to help Zhengting deal with my grandmother. No one is more familiar with the situation of Cheng family than me. Moreover, the marriage of Jin family and Cheng family will cause severe repercussions in the upper class, and those who are still waiting and waiting for Jin family All of them will fall to the Jin family without exception. At that time, I think the strength of the Jin family will go up to a higher level. "

Cheng mobing analyzes what benefits the Jin family will get if she and Jin Zhengting are together. A family like the Jin family pays more attention to family interests.

Cheng mobing is a smart woman. She knows that if she wants to get Jin Zhengting, she can't fight for it from the positive side. She needs to take circuitous measures, and old lady Jin is the key person she needs to persuade. This is her real purpose of coming to the Jin family.

The elder of the family, like Mrs. Jin, paid more attention to the interests of the family, so her strategy was very correct.

"This matter matters a lot. You should know that Zhao Tongxin is pregnant with Zhengting's flesh and blood, and Zhengting likes her very much, so it's not as simple as you think."

Mrs. Jin's attitude is very ambiguous. She just tells Cheng that her idea is not easy to realize, but her attitude is a little ambiguous.

Cheng mobing lowered his head, flashing a sharp light in his eyes. When he raised his head again, he changed into a kind of light tenderness: "old lady, I understand. I have something to deal with today, so I'll leave first. I'll see you again when I have time."

"Go ahead."

Mrs. Jin waved and watched Cheng Mo Bing leave.

Jin's father watched Cheng's figure disappear in Jin's villa, and then he said, "mother, are you really moved by what Cheng said?"

Mrs. Jin sneered: "Cheng mobing can't be underestimated. I think her mind is much deeper than that of her grandmother. This may be her strategy, because if she wants to overthrow the grandmother who controls the power of the Cheng family, she must rely on the strength of our Jin family."

Jin's father doesn't understand. The old lady's attitude just now seems very ambiguous. He is more worried about Zhao Tongxin, because as the most senior member of the Jin family, she has the right to ask about Jin Zhengting's marriage, and Jin Zhengting must listen to it.

"Mother, you don't really want to take advantage of this opportunity, do you?"

"This is the best chance to bring down the Cheng family. Unfortunately, my precious grandson will not agree. If it was three years ago, I would not hesitate to order him to give up Zhao Tongxin. Ah, my heart is getting softer and softer as I get older."

As Mrs. Jin said, she stood up. Her father helped her and gave her a look.

Jin's mother said knowingly: "Mom, I think Tong Xin is a good child. Although she came from a civilian family, we Jin's family can't be too powerful, can't we, mom?"

Mrs. Jin said with a smile: "OK, you two should not sing the oboe. I'd better listen to the court. I'm an old woman who has no energy to worry about these things. Let the young people solve them by themselves. But I'll tell you the ugly thing. If Zhao Tongxin loses to Cheng mobing, you are not allowed to interfere."

To tell the truth, although the old lady admits Zhao Tongxin, she still doesn't like her very much, because she is too gentle. The Jin family needs a strong woman, so Cheng mobing, who shows his ambition and means faintly, is even more interested in the old lady.

However, she didn't want to embarrass her precious grandson, so she decided to let go. As for whether Zhao Tongxin can keep Jin Zhengting, it depends on her own ability. Jin Fu looked happy: "mother, I'll arrange what you're going to do this afternoon."

Mrs. Jin thought, "call three people. I want to play mahjong."

Cruise ship Jiangbin.

Zhao Tong holds a mahjong card in his heart and hesitates to play it.

Her three opponents have already listened to the cards, and she has to eat at least one card to listen to the cards. At this time, she should be careful. When she thinks that this game is worth billions of cards, she can't help but get nervous and sweat in her hands.

"Tong Xin, it's your turn. Hurry up."

Xu Ting, who is only one card short of a match, opens her mouth to urge Zhao Tong Xin. She tries her best to suppress her emotions. She is very gentle in front of Jin Zhengting, but her tone is still a little worried.

Zhao Tong Xin hesitated to take a look at Jin Zhengting. With a calm smile, he stretched out his hand and knocked two pieces of loose cards.

Zhao Tongxin was surprised. When Jin Zhengting knocked on the two cards, the speed of the card surface changed a little. The card she was holding was the last card of the card.

She knew that Jin Zhengting was also an expert, but she didn't see it with her own eyes. Now she can really see how powerful Jin Zhengting is. The skill of changing cards out of thin air is enough to kill all thousands of experts.

Jin Zhengting smiles and signals Zhao Tong to continue.

"It's time to make peace." Zhao Tongxin put the card on the table and made a clear sound. Xu Ting was surprised. She absolutely couldn't believe that Zhao Tongxin won again.

Before the beginning of the game, she had already said hello to the attendant next to her in code language. The attendant was also one of the thousand hands invited by Huo Tingchen. Under his control, she got all the cards she wanted, and Xu Ting knew that Zhao Tongxin would play that card through the attendant's code language, and that card was exactly what she needed.

She looked at the waiter in doubt. As a result, the waiter was also at a loss. There was no mistake in his card control technology, and she didn't know how Zhao Tongxin mixed the cards.

Zhao Tong Xin will be in front of the card down, said to Xu Ting: "thank you for your shares, Xu Ting."

Xu Ting's eyes stare at the card in front of Zhao Tongxin. Yes, it's the card. Her thinking can't work. She didn't expect that Zhao Tongxin won with the help of experts.

Jin Zhengting smiles, takes Zhao Tongxin's hand and says faintly, "OK, let's go and blow the sea breeze."

"Well." Zhao Tong Xin cleverly nodded his head, let him hold his hand, and left the gambling table smartly. When he left, he looked back at Xu Ting, showing only the smile of the winner.

This is a bright slap in the face. Xu Ting can't control her mood any more. She bites her teeth and punches on the table. The table is dented by her life.

Zhao Tongxin, who has gone far, doesn't see this scene, but Xu Yanke, who is at the end of the walk, keenly hears the sound. She sweeps the corner of her eyes and sees the ferocious Xu Ting. Her blue veins stand out on her hands and her eyes flicker. It turns out that Xu Ting is also a master, but she has been pretending to be a delicate one.

"Miss Xu Ting, why are you so angry?"

Huo Tingchen didn't know when, carrying his hands behind Xu Ting, with a smile in his eyes and an elegant voice.

Xu Ting took a deep breath, whispered but dissatisfied, and said: "Mr. Huo, although your plan is good, it seems that you have wrongly estimated Zhao Tongxin's ability. In front of you so-called thousand door experts, you can let her change the card!"

"Oh?"

Huo Tingchen's eyes twinkled: "do you mean Zhao Tongxin also knows a thousand skills?"

"Of course, your people have all the cards in their hands, so they let her change the cards."

Xu Ting is not angry and says that she is abnormal today. She will never show the other side of her character at ordinary times, but she can't control it any more today. Maybe she is seriously stimulated by Zhao Tongxin.

"Is it?"

Huo Tingchen's face also became ugly. He had tried Jin Zhengting just now, but he didn't find any sign that he could master thousands of skills. He thought that without Jin Zhengting's terrible obstacle, the plan would be very smooth. He didn't expect that Zhao Tongxin was a hidden master, even the thousands of Masters he had placed on the ship.

Is the current thousand door master so worthless?

Huo Tingchen's brow wrinkled, at this time, his report came from his headset: "boss, it's almost over, now most people have lost, gambling nearly hundreds of billions."

His eyes lit for a while, the plan is still relatively smooth, now has completed the first step, the rest of the things he will personally come forward.

"Everybody go to the conference room. I have something to say."

Huo Tingchen passed the order through the headset, and then said to Xu Ting with a smile: "Miss Xu, don't be angry. After a few hours, everything in Jiangbin will be ours."

Chapter 387

Zhao Tongxin leans his head on Jin Zhengting's shoulder, looks up at the blue sky and overlooks the boundless sea. He can't tell where is the end of the world and where is the corner of the sea. There is only a blue world, flawless, transparent, pure and quiet.

It's a color enough to melt the heart.

Looking back at Jin Zhengting, his eyes are far away and deep, and he is looking at himself faintly. The tenderness of his eyes is wider than the sea. In his pupils, her beautiful face is reflected. In that world, she is his only one.

"What are you thinking?" Jin Zhengting saw her intoxicated expression and asked faintly.

"I'm thinking that if one day we are old, we can also be like now. I'll nestle up to your shoulder, watch the tide rise and fall together on the sea, and then talk about the past together. It's like a fairy tale."

Zhao Tong Xin nestles up to his shoulder, squints his eyes, and looks comfortable.

Jin Zhengting gently stroked Zhao Tong's hair, which was blown by the sea breeze. He gazed at her with the most sincere eyes in the world and said faintly, "for us, this is not a fairy tale."

"There are few that can stand the test of time."

Zhao Tong said, maybe sentimentality is a woman's nature, always inadvertently revealed.

"Fifty years later, you and I will be the same as we are now." Jin Zhengting smiles and says faintly that his words are promises. He seldom makes promises. Once he makes a promise, he will do it.

"Well, Zhengting, I believe you."

Jin Zhengting's promise, let her feel very at ease, she can feel his feelings for her, sincere and eternal, just like this eternal sea, calm, calm, but always there, not like fireworks, gorgeous blooming moment will dissipate in the sky, short warm warmth is beautiful, life-long company, is really lucky blessing.

"Zhengting, will we be together forever?"

Zhao Tong Xin blinked her beautiful eyes and asked with burning eyes. She knew what kind of answer he would give her, but she just wanted to hear him tell herself.

"Yes, it will." Jin Zhengting's calm reply can be seen from his firm eyes that this sentence is beyond doubt.

Zhao Tong's sweet smile, closed his eyes, sea breeze gently stroked his face, unspeakable comfort, nestled in his arms, really can forget all things, because she does not care about anything, only care about the light warmth he gives.

For her, this is enough, because that's all she wants. She likes this kind of warmth. Although it's short, it's also an eternal memory.

"Boss, Tianhong Group is on the move." Rong Lei doesn't want to disturb their affection, but he knows the priorities.

Jin Zhengting nodded: "well, I know. It's time for us to start."

"Zhengting, what can I do for you?"

"Yes."

"You said, as long as I can do it, I will help you."

Jin Zhengting smile: "give me gas."

The cabin Hall of the cruise ship Jiangbin.

Most of the people sit there dejected and sigh with regret from time to time, but it's too late. At least most of the invited rich people can't be called rich, because their assets have been taken as collateral, and the chips are in other people's hands.

Huo Tingchen's first step plan is a success. The wealth of the richest people in Jiangbin is highly concentrated in the hands of a few people, which saves a lot of trouble. As long as we win all the assets of these people, we will seize the economic lifeline of Jiangbin city.

He has made sufficient preparations for this plan. Around the table where the gambling will begin, he has installed many pinhole cameras, which can clean and shoot the cards in his hand no matter from any angle.

All the thousand door masters are ready to be in place to serve as the dealer of this gambling game, so that they can get all the cards they want.

Now the table is full of people. They are all winners. If they don't win so many games, they will be cautious about Huo Tingchen's invitation. But since they won, they believe that they are lucky. No matter who they play against, the final winner will be themselves.

Huo Tingchen took advantage of these people's psychology, so he specially ordered his subordinates to let these people win, because if a person wins more than one person, he will have a very confident psychology. This is the easiest time to take the bait.

Jin Zhengting has already sat down. Zhao Tongxin is beside him. Rong Lei and Rong Qi are protecting them. Shaoyuan is on the alert from afar. Xu Yanke takes the pony to another gambling table. She won't let go of the business that makes money without capital.

"Ladies and gentlemen, many guests didn't have a good time just now, so I specially opened a new gambling game. The rules are very simple. As long as I win all the money of my opponents, I can enter the next round. Finally, I will come out in person. If I win, I will take out 20% of the shares of Tianhong Group as a reward."

Huo Tingchen announced in a loud voice that he had to make the awards very generous, so that he would not worry about these people not taking the bait. Sure enough, those who are ready to start a new gamble will be red eyed immediately when they hear that the final winner will get 20% of the shares of Tianhong Group.

Tianhong Group is a financial group in Jiangdong City, but these people all know the scale of Tianhong Group and what 20% of the shares mean. Everyone here knows very well that it is at least hundreds of billions of assets. For these hundreds of billions of assets, they have to gamble desperately.

"Well, everyone, you can start. Have a good time."

Huo Tingchen said, sitting in a chair, some of his staff respectfully brought a glass of red wine. He shook the red wine and looked at the gambling game coldly. Of course, he was most concerned about Jin Zhengting's table.

Xu Zheng and Xu Ting are at the table with Jin Zhengting. Because of the number of people, and because no one dares to gamble with Jin Zhengting, no one comes here.

Jin Zhengting light said: "Tong Xin, you also together."

"Me? No, I won't Zhao Tong thought and didn't want to refuse. Although she knew some rules about playing cards, she didn't play them once.

She knew how big the stake was, so she didn't want to drag Jin Zhengting down.

Jin Zhengting laughed: "it doesn't matter. We can afford to lose."

He is deliberately training Zhao Tongxin, because as the president of a large company, his psychological quality must be good, and he often sees some big scenes.

"All right."

Zhao Tong hesitated for a while. Seeing Jin Zhengting's unquestionable eyes, he agreed.

"Here comes Tong Xin."

Xu Zheng said a light greeting. Zhao Tongxin is his cousin, but emotionally, he still doesn't accept it. The intersection of the two people is not much. Most of them are face matters, especially when she stands in Jin Zhengting's position, which makes Xu Zheng more difficult to accept.

Xu Ting quietly snorted, and then put on a pair of warm smile: "our cousins are on the stage, it's too busy."

Jin Zhengting's face cooled down and said to the dealer, "let's go."

It seems that the dealer shuffled two cards at random, but in fact, he has marked the cards. It can be said that if no one in the four knows how to do everything, he can win who he wants to win.

He got Huo Tingchen's order, the key is to ensure that Xu Ting will win, so when licensing, deliberately sent the two largest a to Xu Ting.

Huo Tingchen also explained, don't let Xu Zheng lose too miserably, so he sent two K to Xu Zheng.

As for Jin Zhengting, Huo Tingchen's explanation is to shoot to kill. The dealer naturally sent the smallest two to him. Zhao Tongxin is Huo Tingchen's key monitoring object, but there is no clear explanation. The dealer randomly sent her two Q cards, and then always paid attention to her hand movements.

"Boss, their cards are Q and 2."

The people in the monitoring room, through the pinhole camera, clearly see the cards of Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin, and report to him in the headset.

"I know. Tell the dealer not to cheat. I need to know if Zhao Tongxin really knows a thousand tricks."

Huo Tingchen mistakenly estimated Zhao Tongxin's ability, which is also a small trap set by Jin Zhengting.

Xu Ting got the card, a little proud said: "the original my card face is the biggest, then first ten million."

Xu Zheng surprised to see her, Xu Ting's family is also a rich family, but in Jiangbin is not ranked, did not expect that her mouth is 10 million, Xu Zheng on cousin's change is also suspicious.

However, she was her own cousin after all, so she thought about it and said, "since my cousin wants to play, I'll follow her."

Jin Zhengting didn't speak. He just threw a 10 million dollar chip to show that he was following the card.

Zhao Tong Xin hesitates. She doesn't know whether she should follow her. Jin Zhengting turns to her and smiles: "your lucky crystal is still there, so you will win."

Zhao Tong moved in his heart and nodded: "I'll follow you, too."

The dealer continued to deal. This time, according to the boss's suggestion, he didn't cheat on the deal.

Jin Zhengting got a 3, Zhao Tongxin got a j, and Xu Zheng and Xu Ting got 9 and 10 cards respectively.

The dealer raised his hand to Zhao Tongxin: "Miss, your card is the biggest. Please speak up."

Zhao Tongxin takes a deep breath secretly, and then makes a move that makes Xu Zheng and Xu Ting very surprised. She pushes all the chips to the center of the table: "I have a billion chips here, all of them are put on."

Jin Zhengting mouth slightly up: "the first on Soha, very confident performance."

Zhao Tong Xin gave him a smile of trust, and his eyes were full of affection: "because my lucky crystal is always by my side, so I will win this game."

Jin Zhengting nodded his head, his eyes flashed a strange light, he said faintly: "I'm with you."

Xu Zheng thought about it and said, "there's no reason to be scared in the first place. Since my pupils are so bold, I can't be too cowardly. I'll follow you." Xu Ting looked at the opposite Zhao Tongxin and Jin Zhengting showing their love. She couldn't help it even in front of Jin Zhengting. She snorted and said, "I'll follow you, and I'll add another billion!"

"Boss, what do we do? Do we want to help Miss Xu Ting?"

The dealer saw that the bet was getting bigger and bigger, and asked Huo Tingchen in a very low voice.

Huo Tingchen sipped a sip of red wine, shook his head lightly, and showed a cold expression in his eyes: "no, let them continue."

The Xu family is also one of his targets for annexation. If Xu Zheng loses, he won't have to do it.

In Huo Tingchen's dictionary, there is never the concept of friend. As long as it is beneficial to him, he can sell anyone.

Chapter 388

Three playing cards were placed in front of Jin Zhengting. He didn't even look at them. With a touch of his palm on the table, the three cards had reached his hand. His action was swift and elegant.

Huo Tingchen's face changed. Judging from Jin Zhengting's actions, he seems to be an expert. Moreover, the camera behind him can't see the cards in his hand, which probably means that he has found his own layout.

Jin Zhengting didn't have any expression on his face. He threw all three cards back on the table, three three cards, three, four, K.

Huo Tingchen's face calmed down. He knew that Jin Zhengting's bottom card was a pair of two. It seemed that he was too cautious. When he was on the deck, he saw the gambling of Jin Zhengting and Xu Zheng. It seemed that Jin Zhengting really didn't know how to do everything, so even if he was acutely aware of his plan, he had no influence at all.

Huo Tingchen's attention is focused on Zhao Tongxin. According to Xu Ting's experience, Zhao Tongxin is likely to be a hidden master. Of course, there are masters around her, so Huo Tingchen is very concerned about her actions.

Zhao Tong did not even look at the heart, put out three cards, two Q, a, from the card surface, three q is the biggest.

Huo Tingchen knows that Xu Zheng and Xu Ting have lost. Zhao Tongxin has an a in his hand and Jin Zhengting has a K in his hand, which means that Xu Zheng and Xu Ting can't get four bigger ones than Zhao Tongxin.

Sure enough, the cards in front of Xu Zheng are very scattered, and there is only a pair of K cards. Xu Ting is a little better. She has an a card on her face, and three a cards are not small, but she still can't win Zhao Tongxin.

"Everybody, please show your cards." The waiter made a please sign.

Just looking at the cards, Xu Zheng knew that he couldn't win. He buckled the cards and said, "don't look. I admit defeat."

It's worth billions of dollars. With his ability, it's hard for him to bet a billion dollars. He still can't stand Jin Zhengting. Because he wasted a billion dollars in fighting with him, he can't help feeling a little annoyed. He can only hope for Xu Ting.

Jin Zhengting also turned the cards over and said faintly, "I don't need to look at my cards, Tong Xin, let's shine the cards."

Zhao Tong Xin nodded his head and turned the bottom card q over. Four Q's and one a's are already big cards.

After seeing her card, Xu Ting looks like a defeated chicken and buckles the card. She is not willing, but she has to pretend to be happy for Zhao Tong Xin. She pretends to be magnanimous and says, "Tong Xin, Congratulations, you've won three billion."

Zhao Tong heart lukewarm answer: "seems to be four billion is right, you just want to add one billion?"

Xu Ting's mouth trembled a few times, and Zhao Tong Xin gambled two, lost all her, almost lost home, if not Huo Tingchen behind her, it is estimated that now already had the impulse to jump into the sea from the deck to feed sharks.

The most important thing is that Zhao Tongxin, who is always gentle, can mend the knife for her. This really makes Xu Ting angry. But with so many people, she can't show it. She has to swallow it by herself.

"Zhengting, I said that you are my lucky crystal. That's right. With you, my luck is always so good."

Zhao Tong Xin gently looks at Jin Zhengting, feeling a little happy. After all, he won three billion yuan in less than five minutes, which is the annual revenue of the company.

Of course, Jin Zhengting's billion is not included. His money is hers, and it doesn't make any difference.

"We've lost all our chips. We won't disturb Jin and Tong."

Xu Zheng left with Xu Ting dejected. When he left, he took a look at Jin Zhengting. Seeing his indifferent expression, he suddenly felt that Zhao Tongxin's good luck had something to do with Jin Zhengting. Is he a master of all skills?

However, he can only speculate in this way, because it is impossible for him to check whether Jin Zhengting has made a fortune. Even though he has always been biased against Jin Zhengting, he dare not make such a move. He has been planted in Jin Zhengting's hands several times. If it were not for Zhao Tongxin's face, he would have been sunk to the bottom of the sea.

Thinking that Zhao Tongxin has saved him several times, and that he is also aiming at Jin Zhengting everywhere, Xu Zheng feels that he is a bit shameful. He takes a complex look at Zhao Tongxin and pulls Xu Ting away. Xu Ting also takes a look at Zhao Tongxin, but his eyes are much more simple than Xu Zheng's, pure resentment.

Huo Tingchen got up and walked over, clapping as he walked: "Tong Xin's luck is really good. With such luck, maybe he can win 20% of the shares of our company."

His current identity is Cheng Mohan, so we should use Cheng Mohan's identity to speak, and we should not change our attitude towards Zhao Tongxin too fast, otherwise it may cause other people's suspicion.

Although Jin Zhengting had seen him through, he didn't seem to publicize it, so he tried to hide it from others.

Zhao Tongxin's attitude to him seems lukewarm. She was misunderstood by Jin Zhengting once before, so she won't make a second mistake. She just said faintly: "thank you for the praise of Mr. Cheng. It's not important for me to win or lose, but some people use gambling to revenge me, and I won't be slaughtered." Zhao Tongxin is also very smart. From Huo Tingchen's arrangement of Xu Zheng and Xu Ting together, she knows that it was his intention to end their personal grievances at the gambling table. She doesn't know why Huo Tingchen arranged this way, but she is very dissatisfied with this.

And when Huo Tingchen and her face to face, she has a very strange feeling. It seems that the person in front of her is just wearing a coat of Cheng Mohan, and she is not familiar with her inside.

Maybe people will change. Zhao Tongxin finds a reason on her own. She can't think as well as Jin Zhengting, so this is the best explanation.

Zhao Tongxin is very smart, but not complicated. Her mind is still very simple. There are few simple girls like her in the world.

Huo Tingchen recognized her implication and laughed: "Tong Xin, you misunderstood. It's just a simple coincidence. Well, you and Mr. Jin continue to play. I'm going to have activities."

As he spoke, there was a look of cunning in his eyes. He just asked the thousands of experts around him, and even these experts didn't see what tactics Zhao Tongxin used to change the cards, so he was more sure that Zhao Tongxin was a hidden expert.

At the beginning, he had collected all the information about Zhao Tongxin, and there was no information to show that she had received this training, but seeing is believing, and there may be some mistakes in the information.

If Zhao Tongxin is just lucky, he will never believe it. There is no such lucky person in the world.

But now is not the time to think about how to deal with Zhao Tongxin, because he needs to clean out some irrelevant people, so he has to do it himself. When the last four people are left, we can think of a way. All the people are on his ship, and he has deployed for a long time. He believes that no one can escape from him.

Zhao Tong Xin inadvertently looked at him, just to see his eyes flashing, her face changed instantly, because this kind of eyes she will never forget, only Huo Tingchen has such a fierce eyes.

Zhao Tong Xin rubs his eyes hard and looks at his back carefully. It seems to be his own illusion. No matter how he moves or looks, it's Cheng Mohan she's familiar with.

Has been looking at Huo Tingchen coldly, Jin Zhengting with alert look in his eyes, took her hand, and asked faintly: "is it OK?"

"It's OK. I just felt a little strange, as if I saw Huo Tingchen."

Zhao Tong subconsciously whispered that she was very frank with Jin Zhengting, so she naturally expressed her feelings.

Jin Zhengting's eyes changed a little, and soon returned to normal. He took Zhao Tongxin into his arms and said gently: "don't think about it. Huo Tingchen is dead. Don't let hatred fill your heart. It's bad for your health."

The main reason why he didn't tell Zhao Tongxin the truth was that he was worried that her body would not be able to bear her hatred. Now that she was pregnant, she couldn't be moved.

As for not telling the rich the truth, it is because of their wait-and-see attitude. Since they are not loyal to themselves, they have no obligation to tell them.

Zhao Tong Xin nestled his head in his arms and nodded his head cleverly: "maybe it's my illusion. It won't happen in the future. I'll take care of myself."

"Well."

Jin Zhengting stroked her hair very gently. No matter what the situation, his action always calmed her down.

"Someone's watching."

Zhao Tongxin enjoyed his caress very much, but she saw a lot of envious and jealous eyes in the corner of her eyes, and a blush appeared on her face. She was not used to showing her love in public and wanted to get up from Jin Zhengting's warm arms.

Jin Zhengting held her more tightly with a flat tone, but with a strong dignity: "what are you afraid of? We are legal husband and wife."

He said, two sharp eyes to sweep around, those who secretly look to this side of the eyes immediately scattered, those jealous Zhao Tong heart woman, is to lower the head to the floor.

"Zhengting, don't be so overbearing."

Zhao Tong Xin's heart is sweet and full of a faint sense of happiness. She knows that he will always protect her, but she doesn't want him to persuade him in his ear because he has too many enemies.

Jin Zhengting understood her meaning and showed a domineering smile: "it doesn't matter. I have domineering capital."

Xu Ting looks at you and me from a distance. Her breath is getting heavier and her chest is undulating. She is not reconciled, but she has been completely defeated by Zhao Tongxin. The jealousy in her heart turns into strong hatred.

"Zhao Tongxin, you win this time, but the days are still long. You wait for me. Sooner or later, I will kill you myself!"

Xu Ting is biting her teeth and swearing in her heart that she only hopes to take over the jewelry company promised by Huo Tingchen soon. At that time, with her own intelligence, she must bring Zhao Tongxin down.

"Cousin, what's the matter with you, you look so bad?"

Xu Zheng, who has always been in a bad mood, is concerned about Xu Ting's pale face. "It's OK, cousin. We can't lose to those two people. Even if we lose this time, we'll get it back next time."

Xu Ting suddenly finds that she can take advantage of Xu Zheng. On the surface, he is a playboy, but on the bottom, he is very smart. If he can help himself, it will be easier to defeat Zhao Tongxin, so he pretends to be pitiful and wrongly says to Xu Zheng.

Xu Zheng couldn't see her wronged appearance. He quickly comforted her: "OK, cousin, I'll promise you whatever you say, OK?"

"I'm going to open a jewelry company to compete with Zhao Tongxin, but I can't do business. Cousin, please help me. I just can't stand Zhao Tongxin's arrogance. I have to prove that I'm better than her."

Xu Ting looks at Xu Zheng with innocent eyes. She knows that as long as she puts on such a look, Xu Zheng will promise her.

Xu Zheng frowned and thought about it. Finally, as Xu Ting expected, he nodded and agreed: "OK, I promise you, as long as my cousin is happy."

He agreed, Xu Ting this just smile, eyes flashing not easy to detect the evil light.

Chapter 389

"Boss, the bottom cards of the three companies are a, Q and Q respectively."

Huo Tingchen kept a smile on his face, but he was listening attentively to the report of the monitoring room staff in the headset.

He pinched the tie, this casual action is to imply that the dealer through kill, the dealer nodded slightly, in the licensing, deliberately will belong to the other three good cards split, and then with the eyes of Huo Tingchen no problem.

Huo Tingchen laughs confidently. The gambling capital of this deck of cards has reached tens of billions. The three rich people who are at the same table with him have already put all their wealth on it. When he sees that the time is ripe, he lets the invited experts do tricks when dealing cards.

"Sorry, guys, I won."

Huo Tingchen issued the cards, which is suohari's biggest flush. He looked at the three people at the same table with a slight irony and said faintly: "sorry, everyone, you have no chips and no estate to mortgage, so please leave."

Three people's expression is dull, let Huo Tingchen's men will have been paralyzed from the chair up, and then like a dead dog to drag out.

In Huo Tingchen's eyes, these former rich people have no use value, of course, they will not be polite to them.

this is his third move, and he won more than 300 billion yuan in gambling money, which is a huge amount of capital. With this money, even if he does not choose to fight Jin Zhengting, he can completely defeat Jin Zhengting in business.

However, it will take time. Huo Tingchen can't wait to see Jin Zhengting's extreme loss after his bankruptcy.

At this time, the situation on other gambling tables was quite clear. In the end, except for himself, there were only three groups left. Of course, Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin were together. The other two groups he didn't expect were Xu Yanke and a man he had never seen before, and Jin Ying.

Xu Yanke has received training in this aspect, which is expected by him. However, Jin Ying's victory surprised him a little, but it doesn't matter. Anyway, everything here has been arranged, and the final winner will be him.

The four groups gathered together. Huo Tingchen kept a gentleman's smile: "Congratulations, everyone. Now it's our turn to play."

Jin Ying came over with Gu Chen's help and said faintly, "I won't take part in this game. I can't be my brother's opponent. Are you right, Mr. Cheng?"

Huo Tingchen sneered: "Miss Jin, according to the rules, those who win money must participate, otherwise they want to leave after winning. Even if I agree, those who lose money will not agree."

Jin Ying light smile: "then when we lose, these chips back to you, we just take our can."

Huo Tingchen's eyes brightened. He didn't expect Jin Ying to cooperate like this, which saved him a lot of trouble. In fact, he didn't know that Jin Ying did it because he believed Jin Zhengting would win. As his sister, of course, she knew what kind of strength her brother had.

Xu Yanke is reluctant to give up the tens of billions she has already got. But Jin Ying says so. As a sister, she can't gamble with Jin Zhengting. It's just a pity that Xiaoma, a master, has no room for further development. However, as soon as she turns her head, she thinks that whether Jin Zhengting wins or Zhao Tongxin wins, she has made money. That's all Unexpectedly, she still has 20% shares in the company, which is a major shareholder.

After figuring out the relationship, Xu Yanke also said generously, "if Xiaoying doesn't participate, I'll quit, but I won't take out the capital before entering the hall."

Huo Tingchen said with a smile: "don't worry about this. Miss Xu, just take out the money you win after you enter the hall. The remaining capital is your personal property. I have no right to interfere."

Xu Yanke was relieved. When he got on the boat, he only gave Xiaoma 100000 yuan of chips. Xiaoma didn't disappoint her. In just one morning, he won five million yuan for her, which is a big profit.

"It's a bit monotonous for three people to gamble. Let me invite a friend to play with us. I don't think Jin and Tong mind?"

Jin Zhengting took Zhao Tongxin's hand and said, "it doesn't matter."

Since he said so, Zhao Tongxin naturally has no opinion. In public, Jin Zhengting's opinion is authority.

"Well, let's invite Miss Xu Ting to play together. Just now Tong Xin won all her money. Now she's in a bad mood. Let's give her a chance to turn over the book."

Huo Tingchen's eyes glance at Xu Ting. This is his strategy. He worries that Xu Ting likes Jin Zhengting too much, and there will be many things to fear in the future. So he simply pushes her to the front desk and forces her into his own camp. Jin Zhengting must hate her when she sees her standing on her side. After her hope is broken, Xu Ting can only work for him, and she will bring her back The hatred transfers to Zhao Tong Xin's body, this is a move and vicious and clever strategy.

Xu Ting doesn't think so much now. She just wants to win Zhao Tongxin, so she doesn't speak and stands on Huo Tingchen's side directly.

In this way, the situation is very clear. Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin face Huo Tingchen and Xu Ting. Jin Zhengting sees Xu Ting standing on Huo Tingchen's side. Although there is no expression on his face, there is a flash of disgust at the bottom of his eyes. He has no feeling for Xu Ting. Xu Ting has been against Zhao Tongxin openly and secretly for many times. He is looking in his eyes. He has a disgust for her. Now she has come together with Huo Tingchen openly and boldly. Jin Zhengting has already regarded her as a teacher He was the enemy.

Xu Ting still doesn't know that her fantasy will never come true, and she is not Huo Tingchen's rival at all by her scheming. She has been calculated by him and regarded him as her own backer. She is really a poor woman, but there must be something hateful about the poor man. She can only say that she is responsible for everything.

"Boss, it's time to start."

The voice of the people in the control room comes from the headset. Huo Tingchen knows that they are ready, and the two most skilled experts also come to the gambling table in the center of the hall. They will serve Huo Tingchen.

"Well, two, please."

Huo Tingchen's eyes with a trace of excitement, his plan to the final stage, toward the gambling table, he pretended to inadvertently raise his hand to comb his hair, fingertips quietly pointed to Zhao Tongxin, this is his hint to the two dealers, tell them to pay attention to Zhao Tongxin.

In fact, Jin Zhengting didn't mean to let Zhao Tongxin attract Huo Tingchen's attention. He did help Zhao Tongxin change the cards twice, but he just wanted her to win. Unexpectedly, Huo Tingchen was always cautious and focused all his attention on Zhao Tong's mind. As for Jin Zhengting, he didn't pay any attention at all. President Jin, who dominates the business world, must have good psychological quality Yes, but I know nothing about Qianshu. In this kind of gambling, Qianshu is the key to success.

Huo Tingchen naturally thought that this was a beautiful mistake, but also a serious mistake, serious enough to destroy all his plans.

Four people sit down, Zhao Tongxin and Jin Zhengting naturally sit together, Xu Ting has no choice but to sit aside with Huo Tingchen.

No matter who have lost all their belongings, or who have managed to keep a little capital for themselves, they are all gathered together. Even if they are dead, they have to watch such a wonderful gamble before they die.

The so-called wonderful, not that four people are experts, but the bet is too large, at least hundreds of billions, is unprecedented gambling.

The dealer will issue two cards to four people respectively. According to the agreement in advance, he will issue the best cards to Huo Tingchen.

Huo Tingchen, who got two A's, didn't have any expression on his face. He didn't know a thousand skills, but he also knew that no matter what cards he had in his hand, he had to be calm on the gambling table, so that his opponent could not know his cards.

Even if he felt that he was winning, he was still very cautious, which had been deep into the bone marrow for a long time.

Now he just needs to wait for the news in the monitoring room to tell him what the cards are for the two people opposite him. Although the dealer can control the cards, he can't make any small moves to tell him, because he can't escape Jin Zhengting's eyes.

But Jin Zhengting let him down, only his palm attached to the table of cards, with lightning speed, once again put the card on the table, he has seen his cards.

Zhao Tong Xin very carefully stacked the two cards together, only showed a little.

"Boss, Jin Zhengting's card can't be seen. Zhao Tongxin's card is an a card."

Because Jin Zhengting's speed is too fast, the people in the monitoring room don't see his card at all. Although Zhao Tongxin only shows one corner of his card, he can still see the top corner of A.

Jin Zhengting is very careful. It seems that he has guessed that he has set up the monitoring equipment. Huo Tingchen thinks so, but he doesn't care. He can guarantee that he can win by relying on the dealer's ability to give him the cards he wants.

Xu Ting knows these inside stories, so she thinks it doesn't matter. As long as she can win Zhao Tongxin, the only target in her eyes is Zhao Tongxin.

"As soon as I sit down, it's my turn to talk. It seems that I'm lucky. Let's start with 100 million."

Huo Tingchen said with a smile, lost a chip.

"Is 100 million too little?"

Jin Zhengting's face was calm and asked faintly.

"Oh? How much does Mr. Jin want to follow? " Huo Tingchen immediately became interested. He found that a person who wanted to die could not be stopped. Jin Zhengting meant that he wanted to die. In this case, there was no reason why he could not.

"Soha."

There was no emotion in Jin Zhengting's voice, but there was an uproar around him. It seemed that Jin always wanted to win or lose, but the capital of the bet shocked everyone. Soha means that the gambling capital has exceeded 300 billion.

"Ha ha ha, Mr. Jin is really cheerful, so I'll talk to you."

Huo Tingchen resisted his inner excitement and immediately said that he guessed that Jin Zhengting wanted to use psychological tactics to scare them away, but everything was under his control, so he would not be afraid at all.

"I'm with you."

Xu Ting took a look at Zhao Tong Xin and stared at her. She was afraid that Zhao Tong Xin would not follow her now. That would be too boring. "The court said Soha, I will be like him naturally."

Zhao Tong takes a deep look at Jin Zhengting. She likes the feeling of fighting with him, rather than seeking his protection.

"Well, now that we've got Soha, we're ready to play."

Huo Tingchen said, again with his eyes to signal the dealer, one of them left the original position, a little closer to Zhao Tongxin, Zhao Tongxin every action, can not escape his eyes, as long as she out of thousands, he can immediately seize, so that there is no gambling, cheating when caught on the spot, there is no qualification to gamble on the table.

"Go on."

When everything is ready, Huo Tingchen said, this one seems to win.

Chapter 390

The dealer's hand quickly dealt the cards to the four people, and at the same time hinted Huo Tingchen with his eyes. He gave all the four K cards to Huo Tingchen, and gave the smaller cards to the other three people.

Huo Tingchen looked at the three K's in front of him, with a winner's smile on his face: "sorry, Mr. Jin, it seems that today's luck is still on my side."

"Not necessarily. I won't win if I get four KaraokeS."

Jin Zhengting stared at him with burning eyes, and there was no other expression on his face.

Huo Tingchen sneered: "Mr Jin, is your card bigger than mine?"

Jin Zhengting's enigmatic response: "what do you think?"

Huo Tingchen was surprised to see Jin Zhengting's expression for no reason. He knew Jin Zhengting was better than himself. Seeing Jin Zhengting's confident attitude, he faintly felt that things were not so good. Subconsciously, he looked at the dealer, and the dealer responded to him blankly. Because he had known Zhao Tongxin's card through the headset, he only issued four K cards to Huo Tingchen, because four K cards were wrong K is already the biggest card, and Jin Zhengting is only given some loose cards.

After getting the approval of the dealer, Huo Tingchen's nervous mood was a little calmed. He paid a lot of money for these experts, and he was very confident in their means.

"Mr. Jin, let's play cards. I'll give you four KS."

Huo Tingchen will hand cards on the table, staring at Jin Zhengting, coldly said.

Jin Zhengting smiles and turns over the reversed card in his hand: "flush."

They all exclaimed. They looked at Jin Zhengting's card and saw that it was red heart flush, 45678.

Not only Huo Tingchen was shocked, but also the dealer was shocked. He absolutely didn't send the flush to Jin Zhengting. Since he didn't make any mistakes here, there was only one explanation. Jin Zhengting had made a thousand mistakes, but he kept staring at Jin Zhengting and didn't see what tactics Jin Zhengting used to change the cards. This is the most terrible.

There is a law in Qianmen, that is, you can see it when others give you a thousand, but you can't see it when others give you a thousand. That means that the strength of that person is above you. No matter how many times you gamble, the person who wins in the end must be that person.

At this time, Huo Tingchen also found out what a serious mistake he had made. He underestimated a man who should not be underestimated. The direct result was that all plans failed. He worked hard to set up his own game, but he made a wedding dress for his biggest opponent. He also wanted to give up 20% of the shares of Tianhong Group he just controlled. He could not accept any of them.

With anger in his eyes, he looked coldly at the dealer, hoping that he could find the evidence of Jin Zhengting's success. However, the dealer's dull head proved that the only hope had been lost.

None of the four K's won, not to mention the three J's in Xu Ting's hand, but she didn't feel particularly disappointed, because after all, Jin Zhengting won. If these two people choose one, her personal feelings tend to Jin Zhengting.

As long as I'm bigger than Zhao Tongxin's card face, I can get comfort from my jealousy. I peeked at Zhao Tongxin's card face, 5678 four small cards. Just now I heard from the earphone that her bottom card is A. It seems that although I can't win Jin Zhengting, I can't beat Zhao Tongxin. That's enough.

Huo Tingchen clenched his teeth. Now it's a public place. He can't show his extreme emotion. With a dry smile, he eased his impulse to kill people. Then he said with a smile: "Mr. Jin's luck is really good. He won hundreds of billions in a twinkling of an eye. No wonder Mr. Jin is not at a disadvantage."

"Cheng always thinks I won. You are wrong. The real winner is Tong Xin." Jin Zhengting said faintly, gazing at Zhao Tong's heart with deep eyes.

"Oh?"

Huo Tingchen's pupils contract. He looks at the dealer who is monitoring Zhao Tongxin. The invoice clerk gives him a firm look, saying that Zhao Tongxin never gives a thousand.

Zhao Tong Xin gives Jin Zhengting a faint smile. She turns out the bottom card and turns it out to be 9, just making up a flush bigger than Jin Zhengting's.

"It's impossible. You play a thousand. Your card is clear."

Huo Tingchen was angry and impatient. He bellowed half a sentence subconsciously, but he immediately thought that he couldn't say it. In this way, he told others that he could see others' cards. Just now, he won many people by this method. Once these people knew that he was cheating, they would completely destroy his reputation in Jiangbin and offend a large number of people. That is to say, he would take the wait-and-see people to the bank Jin Zhengting pushed the rhythm.

Xu Ting's smile also froze, three consecutive games, she lost to Zhao Tong Xin, simply can't bear, but she saw Huo Tingchen didn't move, naturally also can't say anything, can only stare at Zhao Tong Xin bite.

"Do you want to say why Tong Xin's card is not a?"

Jin Zhengting's eyes with a mocking smile, light continued to say: "do you think we installed a hidden pinhole camera behind us, I can't find it?"

"I admit I've got cameras, but you're cheating too!"

Huo Tingchen suddenly got up. He was a little angry now. When the plan came to the last step, it was about to succeed. In the end, it was destroyed. Moreover, it was Jin Zhengting, his mortal enemy, who destroyed his plan! Zhao Tong Xin smiles: "Mr. Cheng, please calm down. I didn't cheat. What your camera sees is not my card, but this one."

She said, with a black toothpick in her hand: "I have a habit. Every time I look at cards, I like to put a black toothpick in the middle of the card. People who don't know think I'm holding an a when they see it."

This is the plan she and Jin Zhengting discussed. Just when Huo Tingchen won others, Jin Zhengting told her about the camera and taught her how to deal with it.

Huo Tingchen's eyes seemed to be able to emit fire. He stared at Jin Zhengting. After a long time, he withdrew his eyes and sneered: "Mr. Jin's good method, I really admire you."

"It took a lot of effort for Cheng to set up such a big formation."

Jin Zhengting light answer, two people's eyes collided with each other, fierce on deep.

"You win this time, but it doesn't matter. We have another one." Huo Tingchen said in a low voice.

Jin Zhengting looked indifferent and answered in a low voice: "I'm also looking forward to Mr. Huo's sending me money. Besides, it's not good to wear your mask and be found to be a fake."

"Thanks for Mr. Jin's reminding. If someone knows my secret, I don't mind sinking the ship. No matter how great Mr. Jin's ability is, he won't be able to save a few of them."

Huo Tingchen's eyes twinkle with fierce light. He is threatening Jin Zhengting. If his secret is made public, people here will not be safe.

Jin Zhengting showed a confident smile: "no one can threaten me, you are no exception, but today I don't want to tear you down, because this game is very interesting, I want to continue to play."

"Good. I'll see you next time."

"Well, I hope you don't lose too much next time."

Jin Zhengting finished, gave Huo Tingchen a faint smile, and then turned her head to Zhao Tongxin. Today she is the biggest winner.

"Tong Xin, your assets have surpassed my president."

Jin Zhengting, who has always been serious, also made fun of him. He was in a good mood and directly defeated Huo Tingchen's plot. Although he was unintentional, Zhao Tongxin did help him attract a lot of Huo Tingchen's attention, which made him easily succeed.

"Zhengting, is all this money mine?"

Zhao Tong Xin suddenly asked a, Jin Zheng Ting smiles to nod a head: "yes."

"Can I give the money back to those who lost the bet?"

Zhao Tong Xin carefully asked, she needs Jin Zhengting to give her advice.

Jin Zhengting gently stroked her hair: "the money is yours. How to deal with it has nothing to do with me. Just make a decision."

Zhao Tong Xin nodded his head, encouraged his courage, and said in a low voice to the people who were talking about it: "everyone, please be quiet."

Now Zhao Tongxin, who is worth more than hundreds of billions, talks, and the crowd immediately quiets down. These people are all masters at steering the boat. Zhao Tongxin can be said to be the richest man on the ship. They listen to her habitually, and they don't feel anything wrong at all.

"I know that many of you here have already gone bankrupt, and the president of our group, Mr. Jin Zhengting, doesn't want to see his former business partners so poor, so he decided to return the lost assets to you."

Zhao Tongxin's voice is not big, but it has penetrating power. It hits everyone's heart. Almost everyone present is loveless. Even some of them have made plans to commit suicide. Zhao Tongxin's words are like a long drought and rain, which makes everyone hope for survival.

Zhao Tongxin's eyes were full of gratitude. Some of them had been in tears for a long time. Although they didn't know that they had fallen into the good bureau arranged by Huo Tingchen, their assets were recovered, which was enough to make these people feel grateful.

"Zhao Tongxin, this is the late stage of Notre Dame's disease. Hundreds of billions of assets will be sent back if they are sent back. Are you stupid?"

Xu Yan can not be angry muttered a, but the little horse is full of stars looking at Zhao Tongxin, that appearance is really infatuated.

"Hello! What are you looking at? "

Xu Yan can see that Zhao Tong's heart is in the limelight again, and his mind is unbalanced. He puts his hand up and pats on the pony's head.

Xiaoma, with his head in his arms and a bitter face, said to Xu Yanke, "vice president Xu, why hit me again?"

Xu Yanke glared at him: "don't you think Zhao Tongxin is stupid?"

The pony tilted his head to think about it and said seriously: "I think Zhao is always a good man. I've decided to follow Mr. Zhao all my life!"

"Go to hell with you!"

"Ah

Yang ziye, holding a beautiful woman in his arms, said to Lu zhanyan, who is watching gracefully around him: "zhanyan, Tong Xin, in this way, the CEOs of Jiangbin's consortia who are still waiting to support will surely fall to the side of the court."

Lu zhanyan nodded approvingly: "well, it's undeniable that Tong Xin has done a beautiful job. After spending a long time with the court, he has learned a lot." "Well, I hope Tong Xin is still as pure as she used to be. I always think girls are just as attractive as she is. If there is such a girl around me, I will take her as important as my life."

Yang ziye's heartfelt emotion.

The beauty in his arms was not happy and gave him a big white eye: "Yo, Mr. Yang, why do you still hold me? Why don't you go to the innocent girl you love?"

Yang ziye said with a serious face: "you are wrong. Seeing a beautiful woman like you, I will die."
