

Chapter 3814

Half of the words, in addition to surprise, the ant queen is full of surprises.

“Yes, with the help of Han Shenyi, we... not only have we miraculously regained a new life, but more importantly, our group of people has actually rejuvenated strangely.” Qi You Qi lowered his head, although his tone was unusual. Respect, but this can't hide the joy and excitement in his heart.

In fact, not only him, but everyone present was so excited.

The queen ant looked at George Han with surprise and surprise in her eyes, but George Han just smiled indifferently.

Amelia Su also looked at George Han in disbelief, with a sense of pride and pride on her face.

“Why are you making such a fuss? Isn't this a routine operation?” George Han shook his head helplessly: “Didn't you find any differences between them?” As soon as he finished speaking, George Han looked at Amelia Su

. and the ant queen.

The two looked at each other strangely, what was the difference?

Everything is different, they are even a few decades younger, which is already the biggest change.

What could change beyond it?

Seeing that the two were puzzled, George Han gave a bitter smile: “Didn't the ant queen find anything in the fight just now?”

Upon hearing this, the ant queen was obviously stunned, yes, seeing Qi and Qi and others rejuvenated Afterwards, she was still immersed in this surprise, and she forgot about it at all.

In the city of fire, the ant soldiers have always moved forward bravely, not afraid of life and death. This is the advantage of the ant soldiers.

But on the contrary, there are often fatal shortcomings hidden under the advantages.

Although they are brave, they are quantifiable things after all, so the energy of individual soldiers is not outstanding.

If faced with a more formidable enemy, all they can rely on is their numerical superiority and spiritual detachment.

But if you face a super expert like the queen ant, the gap is obviously huge.

But just now, there were only five ant soldiers, but they were comparable to their own.

This alone, in fact, is enough to surprise anyone.

“Yeah, how could they suddenly... suddenly be so powerful?” the queen asked.

Speaking of this, George Han finally couldn't help but be proud: “This matter is a long story, I...”

Before it was over, the ant queen had already subconsciously interrupted George Han's words: "Even if it is more Long, we are also willing to listen."

Amelia Su also nodded at this time.

George Han touched his head embarrassedly, and scratched his head a little embarrassedly: "Hey, in fact, it was my mistake, but this mistake made them a blessing in disguise

"Missed?" Amelia Su asked. solution. George Han smiled: "Before speaking, you should also consider the feelings of the people you are talking about. I have been thirsty for a long time. Should you give me something to drink?"

Startled, the queen ant smiled helplessly: "I'll get it for you."

"Then do you want to give you a seat?" Amelia Su smiled.

"No matter how good the seat is, it's not comfortable to hold my wife." George Han smiled and said, "No need."

Amelia Su smiled. At this moment, the ant came out with her water and handed it to George Han. In front: "Can we talk now?"

Taking the water, George Han took a sip. It was weird, but it had a unique taste that belonged to it. A mistake, and they are blessed because of this mistake."

"Me?"

George Han smiled helplessly: "Amelia Su, although you told me that Ant-Man and our body structure are different, so the medical method should be different, I thought. "

But at that time, I didn't want to use my own medical skills to save people. I won't be so sloppy. Although there are indeed medical books on Xianling Island, I am not a formal member. Disciple, after all, there is a gap between you and that rubbish medicine god."

"What I want to use is actually the Five Elements God Stone." George Han said: "It has a magical effect, especially, this time I saved the little dragon ants. At that time, I accidentally harvested the flint stone, which has completely made the five elements into a genus, reaching the peak of the attribute."

"The five elements of the god stone are treated indiscriminately, so in fact, there is not much difference between people and Ant-Man, but the problem is..."

Chapter 3815

After drinking a saliva , and glanced at the ant queen and Amelia Su, George Han felt a little ashamed: "I don't know if I am too happy at noon, I overlooked one point, the individual differences between us in Ant-Man are really huge."

"We are almost many times their size."

Amelia Su nodded: "So you mean..."

"In order to test the effect, I haven't thought about it too much, so I haven't restrained the power of the Five Elements Divine Stone. At the same time, because it is a group of ant-men who heal and save people, I use the method of falling from the sky and try my best to use all the energy in the best way. Get in from their heavenly cover." The queen suddenly understood: "No wonder you have to fall from the sky, it turns out... it's because of this."

Amelia Su also suddenly realized that this method of curing diseases was extremely strange, at least that was what she thought at the time.

But now hearing George Han's explanation, it suddenly made people stunned.

"This method is also what I saw in the medical books in Xianling Island. It uses qi as a cure. This is a strange method." George Han looked at Amelia Su and continued: "But the problem is that I have everything to the extreme. But they ignored that Ant-Man's body was too small."

"So, as soon as the breath entered their bodies, at the beginning, of course, they benefited from the therapy and looked very good."

"Then why did they look good after they looked good, they quickly turned around again. What about dead?"

"It looks like they are dead, but in fact they are just suspended animation due to too much energy that cannot be digested." George Han said, "It's like teaching gong."

"Super masters often give us When teaching gong, in order to maximize the transfer of true energy, it is often the same as entering true energy from Tianling Gai, and at the same time adjusting our scriptures.

The pulse envoy can really hit the dantian smoothly. "

Actually, I treat them with the same effect, but unfortunately, I have not opened up their meridians. This also created a large number of really blocked in their bodies, bursting their meridians, causing them to instantly lose body control and fall into a coma. "

However, along with my continuous treatment, these meridians can really open up their meridians slowly, which is similar to the magic of transmission." Therefore, when their bodies are completely under control, not only did they recover from their previous illnesses, but they even improved their cultivation by leaps and bounds because of a large amount of true energy. " In the end, George Han is proud. Being able to help people is of course something to be proud of, but if you can not only help people, but also help in such a way, what can you be more proud of?

In a happy event It

The ant queen's face has never stopped smiling since the beginning. Seeing that George Han finished speaking, she excitedly said: "Haha, although I still don't hear it clearly, but no matter what, I see the result. "

"What are you five still doing? Why don't you kneel down and thank your benefactor? Let me tell you, this is the grace of re-creation, not worse than the kindness of parents. "

George Han shook his head: "No need, many of them are older than me, and asking them to kneel for me, wouldn't that make me lose my life?" I still want to save my life for a few more years with my wife. "

But the grace of re-creation is indeed..." said the queen ant.

Amelia Su smiled and said, "The queen ant should stop praising him. Some people's tails have already been raised to the sky. Go around a circle, is the warp higher? "The queen ant

laughed: "Okay, then don't kneel. However, I have to say one thing, it is really a blessing from God that my City of Fire and Earth can suddenly get this blessing. "

" This is called keeping the clouds open and seeing the sun. "Amelia Su said.

"Well said, what a good one who keeps the clouds open and sees the sun. My city of fire has been struggling to survive for many years. Today, it's really the clouds that open and see the sun." The couple said, "Can you two come with me?"

George Han and Amelia Su didn't know what the queen was going to do, but they nodded.

The queen ant immediately led the two of them out of the palace and headed outside.

As soon as she left the palace, the queen ant summoned her entourage, and then said a few words in his ear. At the same time, there was a mysterious sly smile on her face.

"Go."

"Yes." The attendant also smiled and immediately retreated...
