

Chapter 3828

light is very dazzling, but it is only temporary, the fragrance is very light, but it has been around the nose for a long time.

Until the light dissipated and the light returned to normal, George Han's brainstem was still surrounded by that fragrance.

It was a very old fragrance, I couldn't explain it clearly, and I couldn't understand it.

But it makes people feel very happy, but also makes people very peaceful.

As the golden light dissipated, the object in the wooden box also appeared in front of George Han's eyes.

George Han frowned.

what is this?

A bottle of wine?

This is really no joke, what is in the box is really a wine bottle...

narrow at the top and wide at the bottom, although it needed two Ant-Man to lift it together before, but that is relative to their size, for George Han For example, it's like a bottle of some oral liquid.

Therefore, this wine bottle is a little pocket-sized, and it is still transparent, a bit like glass, but not glass.

Seeing George Han a little dumbfounded, Amelia Su also came over, and frowned at this moment: "Wine?" The fact is, when George Han got used to the faint ancient fragrance and tasted it again, he would Really sure, this thing is wine.

Because he could smell the scent of wine in it.

"It's really wine!" George Han was also a little dumbfounded.

What are you doing with a drink?

It's not that it can't be sent, but... this is not the treasure of the Ant-Man family. If this treasure is just a bottle of wine, then this is somewhat funny, isn't it?

Moreover, the key is to give a drink, just this small bottle, George Han really thinks... This is not just drinking an oral liquid.

"Pick it up and have a look." The queen ant smiled slightly, and seemed not at all angry at the somewhat rude surprise of the two .

The couple looked at each other, George Han hesitated a little, then reached out and picked up the bottle.

Although it is wine, the entire liquid has a golden color, like that golden water.

However, it was not the water that really caught the attention of the two, but the things in the water.

A thing about the size of a fingernail curled up in the middle of the liquid, very peaceful.

After taking a closer look, George Han couldn't help but wonder directly: "Ant?"

Yes, that curled up thing was a red and black ant.

Amelia Su also noticed this, and the whole person wanted to ask but hesitated.

"This is the ancestor of our clan. All the clan members of our ant clan are actually descendants of its old man." The queen ant said softly: "In other words, it is our first ancestor."

Hearing this, George Han hurriedly put the bottle into the wooden box: "Then how can I keep this thing?"

After he finished speaking, he had already pushed the box in front of the queen.

Regardless of whether this thing is valuable or not, it is extremely inappropriate to hold the corpse of other people's ancestors. This thing, even if George Han is very kind, it is really impossible to take it.

The queen ant didn't take the box, she raised her hand slightly, and pushed the box to George Han: "You didn't know what it was, so you hurriedly returned it to me, isn't it appropriate?"

George Han gave a wry smile: "I think I should have made it clear enough."

"It's the real body of my ancestor, right?" the ant queen asked.

George Han nodded.

"Have you ever thought that if you understand it according to your logic, what would our ant tribe become?"

"Holding the corpse of our ancestors, not only did we not have the slightest respect, but we were wanton tossing?"

"Aren't we unfaithful ? Unfilial?"

"Does it mean that Mr. Han thinks that our ant clan is so ignorant? Do I wait for the ant clan to drink blood like this without being polite?"

After a series of questions, George Han and Amelia Su were suddenly asked. A little embarrassed, he could only shake his head helplessly, and said: "The queen has misunderstood, Han definitely doesn't mean it, just..."

“Actually, Mr. Han still doesn’t know enough about some things, so let’s talk about it, and seeing is believing.” The Queen said coldly.

George Han frowned slightly, not quite understanding what the so-called seeing is believing in the Queen’s mouth.

But just when George Han was feeling strange, suddenly, the ant queen over there had already moved...

Chapter 3829

next second, waiting for George Han’s response, the ant queen has suddenly hit!

“Bang!”

George Han greeted him with a palm almost subconsciously.

The two palms face each other, and the undercurrent is surging.

Suddenly, the two breaths collided with me.

Compared with the previous one, the power of the queen ant at this time has obviously increased by at least half a grade. Therefore, even against the inner-breathing madman like ShangGeorge Han, they are evenly matched for a while.

However, a madman is a madman after all, and evenly matched is temporary.

When this temporary period passed, George Han’s overwhelming attack was directly suppressed.

Although George Han had obviously used a lot of strength, the queen ant still took a few steps back after making a loud noise, and then barely stopped.

George Han was puzzled. Seeing is beneficial, but the question is what did you see? !

The queen ant looked at George Han, smiled coldly, and then suddenly moved her hand and picked up the small bottle in the wooden box.

Then, she decisively pulled out the wooden plug on it, put it in front of her nose and smelled it, and then she quickly covered it.

Without waiting for George Han to have any questions, she has already moved her palm again and bombarded George Han directly.

“Bang!”

One palm came, extremely crisp.

George Han’s brows couldn’t help but wrinkle, come back? !

Although he was puzzled, there was no other choice at this time, and George Han confronted him again.

Moreover, because of the understanding of her current strength last time, George Han was afraid of hurting her, but in fact he had collected a lot of strength early.

However, as soon as the two came into contact, a strange force directly greeted George Han.

Even if he was as strong as George Han, he suddenly took a few steps back under the power of his palm, and he was suddenly shocked.

“This...”

In just a few seconds, the power of the two palms was very different, especially the last palm, as if the energy of the queen ant had been greatly improved in an instant.

“How is it?” The queen sneered: “Now, can you see clearly?”

George Han frowned. He understood that not everyone can have their current cultivation, let alone their own. The mysterious magic method of the ant, the queen ant can suddenly improve a lot in a very short period of time, it is definitely not something she has.

Instead, the bottle of “strange wine” in her hand.

During the interval between the two palms, she seemed to have only one such superfluous movement, and it was only possible that this superfluous movement was the real reason for the difference in the power of her two palms.

So...

George Han began to understand that the so-called seeing of the ant queen is beneficial.

“This...wine...” The queen saw that George Han finally clicked on the question at this time, and her tone eased a lot: “Yes, it’s the wine’s problem.”

“Actually, the ancestor’s body is not just like a corpse. Simple, it is the real golden body of my ancestors, or relics.”

“It collects the essence of the ancestors during his lifetime, and obtains the spiritual energy of the ancestors during his lifetime. It can be said that its own energy is extremely huge.

” Wine, of course, is also extraordinary wine.”

“Smell it, your spirit will be multiplied, and your skill will greatly increase. As for drinking it.” Speaking of this, the queen did not continue, but she couldn’t help but be very proud of her face.

“Sorry, I don’t know the effect of drinking a drink. Because most of the time, we only need to smell it.”

“Because as long as we smell it, our skills will be improved in an instant. Every time it is critical or in danger In time, it can save us in the fire and water.”

“For many years, every time the ant tribe encounters strong enemies and dangers, we rely on this safety to get through. Therefore, we don’t know the effect of drinking it. It doesn’t take that step at all.”

Hearing these words, she had something to be proud of, and something she should have been proud of.

“Is this the scene of Versailles?” Amelia Su asked quietly beside George Han.

The corners of George Han’s mouth twitched slightly, a little embarrassed. You said no, it really is...

He George Han was also caught in Versailles.

“Now, do you still think he is a corpse?” The ant queen looked at George Han.

George Han was stunned, and then his head shook like a rattle. He didn’t want to be scolded, let alone Versailles.

“Then this thing is so amazing, and it helps you so much, then you...” George Han asked tentatively, not daring to finish the question.

“Take it.” The queen ant handed the box to George Han: “Compared to it, you help us more, it is to improve us temporarily, and you are to improve us in a real way, besides, this thing, right For us, the improvement is limited, but for the masters, the improvement may be infinite.”

“Try it?” After she finished speaking, she opened the plug..
