

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3837

Helena was stunned for an instant when she heard her grandma's question.

Before the shyness of her heart could make her blush, she was immediately crushed by the sadness.

Originally, Helena instinctively wanted to deny it.

But somehow, there was a feeling of unpleasantness in her heart, so she sighed softly, and said quietly, "What can I think of him? After I became the throne, my identity became extremely sensitive, where to go and to meet? I can no longer decide who, what to say, and what to do. I want to go to China to see him in my dreams, but now I can't bypass the diplomatic channel to go to China. He will not come to Northern Europe again in a short time. I'm afraid I won't even see him in the future..."

Speaking of this, Helena's eyes were already filled with tears, even overflowing from the corners of her eyes.

She turned her head hurriedly, wiped away her tears, and then said again: "Grandma, to be honest, the biggest reason I want to be a queen is to save my mother, and secondly, I want to get revenge on Olivia. Now my mother is safe. Nothing happened, Olivia was also punished, and now the position of the queen no longer makes any sense to me..."

The old queen said repeatedly: "Don't think about it! The royal family now has no direct blood relatives to the throne! It's impossible for you to abdicate!"

Helena looked at the old queen and asked subconsciously: "Grandma, do you want to be a queen again?"

The old queen immediately waved her hand and said: "No! I don't want to! Besides, there is no such thing in the whole world. She obviously abdicated and re-enforced the throne. If that is the case, the royal family's face will not be required..."

Helena sighed and said sadly: "Then when will there be a suitable heir to the throne?"

The old queen said embarrassingly: "It depends on you... We, the Nordic royal family, weren't prosperous. You don't even have a heir to the first throne. If you abdicate, then I can only go to the royal family of other countries to borrow. An heir is here..."

As he said, the old queen said with a serious face: "Helena, if you want to get rid of the throne soon, the best way is to have a child quickly, and then make him the crown prince. When he comes of age, you can do it. Abdicated."

"I..." Helena looked like an angry little daughter-in-law, and said bitterly: "If Charlie wants to, I'm willing to give him a son. Then he will raise him in the palace and he will inherit it when he grows up. Datong!"

The old empress's expression was startled, she immediately covered her forehead and sighed with a sigh: "You...you are crazy...if you are unmarried and give birth first, how can the royal family explain to the people of the whole country?"

Helena seriously said: "What's the problem with this? As long as Charlie is really willing, when I am preg*nant, I will personally tell the people clearly. I will tell everyone frankly that I am willing to give bir*th to the man I love. Child, this is my freedom, and no one has the right to interfere."

Speaking of this, she sighed sadly: "The only thing I'm afraid of about this is Charlie's refusal to agree. If he agrees, even if I will be ridiculed by the whole world, I don't care at all."

"It's all right..." The old queen sighed while pressing her temple, "I think it's still more realistic. Starting next year, I will find you a marriage partner of the same age in the royal families of all countries."

"No." Helena categorically refused without thinking: "I won't get married unless I marry Charlie."
