

Chapter 3850

Laozi who is at the most imaginary moment must be a hungry tiger, right?"

, coupled with its character, it can do such a thing, in fact, it does not exceed George Han's expectations.

However, it is clear that George Han and Amelia Su are more concerned about what happened next.

Why is it like this.

"Mother, that thing is really weird. On the surface, it's an elixir, but in fact, his mother's pit came to my grandma's house. The core of that thing is a strange golden core."

"Although it contains a lot of real I'm angry, but after this thing enters the body... its grandmother's indigestion."

"Damn, do you know how you feel when you eat a big lump of iron? That's how it feels!" For some reason

, George Han heard this. Qian and Amelia Su have a feeling that they can't help but want to laugh. Although the two of them know that it is inappropriate to laugh at such a time, sometimes you just can't help that person saying it's funny...

At least, right now...

"And then, go on, can you be more professional?" George Han urged.

It was speechless for a moment, then continued to speak, and said: "That thing is actually indigestible, anyway, with Laozi's attitude at the time, Laozi is weak and unable to move at all, the big deal is to accompany it slowly, let alone a piece of iron, even if Even the old man of gold can slowly consume him as a bastard."

"But here is the problem..." It was a little helpless.

"How do you say?" George Han asked curiously.

"This thing is not only indigestible, but also came to devour me. How can I agree to this Nima?" It said depressedly: "Anyway, I am also a poor man, isn't it, how can I be insulted like this.

" So what?" George Han asked.

"So I fought with it. As a result..." It didn't go on.

Obviously, this guy must have eaten a turtle.

It also seems to know that George Han and Amelia Su know the result, so they said a little aggrieved: "I just didn't win, don't put on the attitude of looking at a loser to see if I'm okay."

"I... I just follow It just coexists."

Now, George Han understands a little, it seems that Amelia Su's stomach pain just now is probably caused by the battle between it and the golden core.

Because it's not pathological, George Han certainly couldn't find anything.

And the occultity of Tianzhiqiongqi itself is very strong. When George Han discovered it in Ziqing's body, he also found it through careful inspection of the power of chaos.

But what does this coexistence mean?

George Han did not understand.

"I don't have a physical body, and this thing has some energy of its own, so I took the opportunity to occupy Laozi's dantian, forming a dantian."

"Other consciousness of Laozi saw the actual thing appeared, and began to attach to it, so... Laozi Slowly and completely integrated with it."

"You can use the power of chaos to check it carefully, and you will know."

"By the way, you don't need to check carefully, just release a little and you can see it. You checked Amelia Su just now. When I was there, I couldn't find me because I was fighting it at that time, in order to avoid being embarrassed by you when I saw I, I deliberately avoided you."

George Han gave a helpless smile. It wasn't pathological, and he deliberately hid himself, and he didn't even think about it at all, so this matter was ignored from beginning to end.

Nodding his head, George Han regained his energy, and instantly penetrated into Amelia Su's abdomen lightly, and the energy also instantly started reconnaissance.

Sure enough, after checking the energy, George Han clearly found a small white spot in the center of Amelia Su's dantian. When George Han tried to completely cover this little white spot with energy, and wanted to see it completely, suddenly, at this moment, an accident happened.

The little white dot suddenly rushed towards George Han's energy.

The next second, it suddenly stopped again.

Immediately afterwards, the white light on its body began to dissipate, and it gradually took on its original shape.

And when George Han saw this shape clearly, he couldn't help being stunned.

Seeing George Han so shocked, Amelia Su suddenly became curious. Just as he was about to speak, George Han had already taken her hand and connected her with his breath, so that she could also see the guy's original shape.

For a time, even Amelia Su's eyes widened...

Chapter 3851

“What is this?” After a long time, Amelia Su finally murmured.

At this moment, in her eyes, a white egg with a faint glow was emerging.

George Han was also completely dumbfounded, how could this be? !

However, George Han quickly understood again.

This is obviously a two-way fusion of the conscious body of Heaven’s Qiongqi when it encounters a powerful entity with energy.

In other words, the two of them started symbiosis, and thus formed a new living individual.

“But it’s obvious that what I’m taking is only medicinal pills, why...why is this?” Amelia Su looked at George Han incomprehensibly.

Pills can cure diseases and lift Qi, but I have never heard of them that can give birth to life.

George Han smiled lightly: “

It’s very simple, all the alchemy used are heaven and earth treasures, and they are full of spiritual energy. In addition, this time I was negligent in management, so... Maybe the alchemy is not complete. “

Some treasures of heaven and earth move by aura, but they are hidden in the center and not fully refined. After being eaten by you, many of them still retain their original spirituality and appearance.”

“In other words, we are not on Earth .” Have you heard of Nezha’s lotus root body, the lotus root that gathers spiritual energy into a body is actually similar to this principle.”

After hearing George Han’s explanation, Amelia Su understood.

“Then it’s like this, what should I do?” Amelia Su asked.

“If it was a conscious body in the past, the energy that sucked you could be parasitic in your body, but now with an entity, it can’t be.”

“Because it will grow and get bigger, which is in the It will cause danger to you in the future. Therefore, there is only one choice.”

“What?”

George Han smiled bitterly: “I’m afraid you will have another child, no, you will have another egg.”

Amelia Su suddenly looked embarrassed: “ Ah?”

George Han smiled helplessly: “It’s almost the same as the gluttonous gluttonous gluttony now, do you want to wait until it grows so big in the future?”

“But, this is too embarrassing, right?” Amelia Su said: “It’s already strange enough to give birth to a child, and to give birth to an egg, isn’t that a joke?”

George Han laughed: “Okay, it’s not for you to give birth like that, it’s now a pigeon egg at most. It’s just the size, I can force him out with whatever I can.” After the words

were finished, George Han looked at the Qiongqi in the sky: “How about it, are you ready?”

” Respect, let alone Lao Tzu’s cultivation level is against the sky, Lao Tzu’s body is already domineering enough, f it, but I never imagined that Lao Tzu would be completely merged by the core in a pill, I am very dissatisfied.”

“But , the rice has become porridge, and I don’t seem to have a choice.”

George Han gave it a blank look: “Can you stop pretending to be here? With your current body of consciousness, there can be something with you. Fusion, you should also know how many coincidences it takes to make it up.”

“What are you still disgusting here!”

Tian Zhiqiongqi did not speak, because obviously it has nothing to refute, and the saying goes well, it is better to die than die. Lai is alive.

Its current state, in any case, is a good thing.

“I didn’t say it.” Tian Zhiqiongqi muttered: “However, I can come out, I have to discuss something with you, otherwise, George Han, don’t blame me for playing with you. “Yes .”

“If you don’t promise me, I won’t go out if I die. The big deal is that one day I will grow up and kill Amelia Su. Hmph, it’s not my wife anyway.”

Hearing this, George Han frowned: “What do you mean by threatening me? Do you know what happens to those who threaten me?”

“Hey, I’m threatening you, but don’t tell me it’s useless, because I’m not a human being, haha.

” You...” George Han was speechless: “What kind of bullsh!t do you want to put on, hurry up!”
