

Chapter 3854

A figure walked in slowly from the outside, the footsteps were very light, and there was almost no sound.

The figure stopped for a moment, and then knelt down silently.

Suddenly, a few meters in front of the figure, a pair of blood-red eyes slowly appeared at this time.

“Are you all ready?” The voice was unusually ethereal, but there was a hint of gloom in the ethereal.

The figure’s posture is lower, and the head is buried deeply: “According to the Holy Master’s instructions, the troops have been deployed and prepared properly.”

“The Falling City is an important military city where my power map spreads, and it is also the main economic center of our alliance. , if you lose it, you are simply unforgivable.”

“According to my temper, all of you will die.”

“However, I will give you a chance to atone for your sins. This time, the attack should fall to the city, I hope only Victory, no defeat, understand?”

The figure nodded

: “Ming Yu must complete the mission.”

Hearing this, Yin Xie’s red eyes were lightly silent, and his tone seemed to improve slightly.

“George Han, I also had a brief fight with him. This person’s cultivation is unpredictable, and his practice is very evil. In fact, it is not that I can’t understand when you are in trouble. The most important thing is that this sub-chengfu It’s very deep, and his mind is very fast. Anyone who wants to deal with him will be even more difficult.”

Ming Yu lowered his body slightly: “Actually, I knew enough about him before, so in order to deal with him These, at least a few lines of defense have been set up in advance, and I have tried every possible way, but I still missed one thing. And this matter, my subordinates also want to ask you, the Holy Master. “

“Mingyu, you are very smart. I believe that even if you meet George Han, I dare not say that you can crush the opponent intellectually, but you will never be crushed by George Han. And if there are things that you ca n’t , then It is indeed a little strange. Let me ask, I am a little curious.”

“Actually, apart from the sudden help of George Han’s mysterious forces, the most important point is George Han’s own strangeness. Mingyu is definitely not It’s just an excuse, but the fact is, if it wasn’t for George Han’s sudden full-blooded resurrection, I believe that even if Daluo Immortal came, he would definitely not be able to save him.”

“Full-blooded resurrection?” asked with red eyes.

“We surrounded it in the city for three full days. During this period, we mainly focused on various attrition and procrastination. The purpose was to take advantage of our huge number of people, so that George Han would become exhausted and exhausted.”

“In fact . . . , our plan is very good, two battles plus countless wheel battles, George Han has obviously entered a state of fatigue.”

Bloody red eyes gave a slight grace, such a battle and tactics, let alone Han

George Han, even if it is a true god I am afraid it is difficult to resist.

This one is really no problem.

“But the problem is that he, George Han, had already entered a situation where the fuel was running out, but when we were about to start, he suddenly became unusually brave. At that time, his subordinates thought he was just pretending and holding on. It’s just a flashback, so I didn’t think too much and ordered my subordinates to be patient, but...but I didn’t expect...” The blood-red eyes asked softly: “You mean, he is not pretending, but is really full of energy?”

“I didn’t believe it at first, because I judged George Han’s expression before, he was strong on the outside and weak on the inside. Obviously, he was really lacking, but the fact is that after the war, I had to believe that it was the case.”

“A lot of Soldiers were severely counter-killed in this process, and the consequences of this were not only the loss of the number of soldiers, but more importantly
 , the dispersal of the military spirit.”

“Actually, I don’t really blame them. After all, in that situation, in the face of an enemy who can’t be killed or injured at all, who wouldn’t have a mental breakdown.” The blood-red eyes were silent: “One person is here. It’s really strange that it can quickly act like a normal person under serious energy consumption. I will send someone to check what is going on, you don’t need to worry.”

“This subordinate understands.”

“Okay, you go ahead first. Come on. In addition, I specially prepared something for you to ensure that you need what you need during the war. Remember, it is time to fight in the city, only success and not failure.”

“Yes.” As the words fell, Ming Yu quickly back down.

In the dark space, the red eyes did not disappear for a long time, but instead narrowed their eyes slightly, like a hungry wolf staring at its prey: “Resurrection full of blood? Interesting!”

At this time, George Han on the other end..

Chapter 3855

After a fight with Amelia Su, George Han started a new journey of alchemy.

In order to avoid embarrassing things from happening again, George Han found a reason and an excuse and hid in the forest.

With the lessons learned last time, George Han did not dare to leave Shuanglong Cauldron even half a step this time, and has been carefully and patiently guarding the medicine refining.

After about a day and a night, George Han carefully opened the lid of the tripod this time, and sure enough, accompanied by a faint fragrance, George Han knew that hard work paid off, and things were done.

When the smoke dissipated, the full pills lay quietly in the cauldron, accompanied by a slight flicker of silver light.

“f, it’s perfect.”

George Han smiled, anti-Buddha was like a monkey going down the mountain, and he collected all the medicinal pills in one go. After that, he collected the tripod and returned to the wooden house.

The previous mistakes and embarrassment can finally be completely let go.

After distributing these pills to everyone, George Han’s hat of humiliation could be removed.

Glancing at Ningyue, George Han called her outside the house.

“Recent training may be a little harder for you. I will provide the medicinal pills every day.” George Han said.

“Will it be too helpful?” Ningyue asked: “The old members are not a big problem, but after all, the people you called in are just the beginning. Also, do you really believe them?”

“If you don’t believe it, you have to believe it . , how can the other party just let it go in such a big city? They will always make a comeback, and the longer the calm time, the more fierce the day that comes.

The old disciples of the Mysterious Man Alliance suffered heavy losses. If faced with a large-scale war, it would obviously be very difficult. We always need the help of these people. “

So...”

Ningyue nodded: “I understand.” No matter if you lose or win, you have to make a bet. It would be a pity if you admit defeat without even betting. Don’t worry, I know what to do. “

In addition, you can count the number of old disciples. Except for those who have important jobs, all come to me to gather. Tonight, I will wait for them in the woods.” “George Han said.

Ningyue frowned: “Can I ask more? “

“What do you want to ask me to do?” “George Han asked.

Ningyue nodded.

“I know the other party’s storm must be very strong

, but how strong, who can know. Although we can rely on the city wall to defend, but don’t forget, the other party will obviously expect this. “

And, most importantly, even the soldiers who should be in the city are loyal to us now, and they are their soldiers to the end, they know the bottom line.” In turn, who they will bring to attack us this time, I don’t know, the enemy is dark and we are clearly the situation. “

At this point, we have to understand, and what has to be done to deal with this advantage of theirs. “

“So what do you think?” “Ningyue asked.

“When the army is under pressure, the most fearful thing is to be trapped by others. This not only traps people and food, but also traps their spirits.” “George Han said.

Ningyue nodded: “Exactly. So you mean, let a group of old members ...”

George Han smiled coldly: “A sharp knife suddenly came on a rhino’s skin, what do you think it would be like? Having said this, George Han smiled evilly: “

Want to surround me, is it that simple? That’s it, it’s midnight tonight, on time. “

When the words fell, George Han turned and walked towards the woods.

Looking at George Han’s handsome and indifferent back, Ningyue was stunned for a moment, then suddenly smiled, she understood that the man in front of her must already have his overall plan.

Follow him and never have to worry about what to do next, because he always plans ahead.

It’s just, how do the old members become sharp knives? She was curious.
