

Chapter 3856

In fact, it is not only Ningyue who is curious but also a group of old members who have been named.

Some people even think that the alchemy master has ruined the alchemy in the middle of the night, and asked them to wipe their butts.

However, when Zi Shi arrived and everyone gathered at the designated place, George Han had already stood there waiting for a long time.

“Leader!”

Everyone had ideas in their hearts, but at this time they were still respectful.

“It’s all here?” George Han said indifferently.

“A total of forty-four people, all of them are here. Some of the wounded are still recovering from their injuries, and Commander Ning didn’t let them participate.”

“Are you afraid of death?” George Han looked back at everyone.

Although everyone shook their heads in unison, they obviously didn’t know why George Han asked such a question.

“Wealth and honor are all at risk, but I also know that everyone has different views on life and death. If someone is afraid, they can withdraw. Han will never force it, and he will never look down on anyone because of it. You are me. Brothers will always be my brothers.” George Han laughed softly.

His face was full of smiles, which made his words not only did not have the slightest sense of oppression, but made people feel unusually relaxed.

“Alliance leader, people are in the rivers and lakes, life and death are fate, this is common sense, and we already understood this before we joined you. Now, as we have joined the alliance for so long, we have seen this even more thoroughly. There is nothing to be afraid of death, only worth it or not.”

“Yes, following an alliance leader like you is worth doing, so why should you be afraid of death?”

“Leader, you shouldn’t actually ask such a question. We’ve been with you for so long, don’t you know who we are ? Just tell me what task you have, and we promise to complete it if it’s a big deal. George Han was very satisfied when he saw a group of people looking at death one by one: “I said that wealth is at risk. Since you are all willing to take risks, then go for wealth first.” The words ended, and George Han held one in his hand, and one in his hand. The long cloth flew out directly.

When it fell in front of them, the long cloth had already been unfolded, and a dense pile of medicinal herbs was almost covered.

“This is...” A group of people were taken aback for a while, obviously startled by such a quantity of medicinal pills.

“Forty people, the average share here is about seven per person, and you all eat them.” George Han said.

“Seven per person?” Someone asked in a hurry.

“Is there a problem?” George Han asked strangely.

“Leader, it’s not a question of whether there are any problems. This is seven per person. Although our alliance is rich, we can’t stand you like this...” The next loser, he didn’t dare to say it.

“Hehe, look at what you are doing.” George Han glanced at him angrily: “Just a little pill can scare you into this, then you can still get it?”

“Seven per person, eat, now Just give it to me, and I will tell you that for the next three days, each of you can’t eat anything, just give me the medicinal pill here, and I will be full, understand?”

“Ah?!” A group of people are collectively stunned.

Some people still feel that these seven are nothing. After all, the atmosphere of the alliance leader is not a problem at all, but the problem is to manage enough... This thing is enough.

It’s like using money as paper to wipe your butt, and you’re still in a state of diarrhea...

What ‘s in stock is what’s in stock, but it’s really not like this can be done? !

“What’s wrong? Don’t want to?” George Han looked at a group of completely dumbfounded disciples.

“Leader, are you really eating?” Someone asked with some embarrassment.

“Yeah, Alliance Leader, this is too wasteful, isn’t it?”

“If it weren’t for the fact that your mouths are so big, I still want to stuff more for you, eat them quickly, don’t look like you have never seen the world. After you eat, we have to move on to the next step.” George Han glared at everyone present.

A group of people saw that it was already like this, and it was hard to say anything more at this time. They picked up the pills on the ground and ate them desperately.

They have never thought about eating Dan as a meal, and they have never had such a luxury.

But what they may never have imagined is that these are just the beginning, and the real good show will slowly unfold in the back...

Chapter 3857

Seven pills, each pill is about the size of a fist, just eating these, many people are already full on the spot .

However, at this moment, George Han got up again.

As soon as his hand moved, fifty divine soldiers were thrown directly from his hand to the ground.

Each sword is three-pointed into the ground and can stand on the ground without covering the appearance of the sword itself.

“It’s not an excellent weapon, but at least it’s much better than what I gave you before. They’re all swords, and they look the same. Let one choose one.”

Looking at the golden sword, a group of The disciples were completely confused and dumbfounded.

What George Han gave them in the past has been calculated, but compared with the current one, there is still too much gap.

Even, this is the best magic weapon some people have seen in their life.

“Give it to us?”

“No way, just some magic weapons, how can

there be the level of the golden magic weapon, shit, if you are qualified to take it, then you have to be a master of one side.”

“That’s not true, The Zijin Divine Armament is a super Divine Armament that was born out of nowhere. Those who can obtain it are probably also two types of superheroes, Lu and Ao. The Divine Armament that is one level less is naturally a must-have product for top masters from all walks of life. How can we... how can people like us be qualified?”

“Although we have been mixed with the leader of the alliance, our group is not what it used to be, but compared with those super masters, we are obviously not enough to see, let’s take this kind of god. Soldiers... don’t seem to be too worthy of it?”

group of people were shocked and envious, but they were also full of self-knowledge after the envy.

There was only George Han, but at this moment there was a sneer: “They are all my George Han brothers, what’s worthy of it ?

” Said: “Alliance leader, although our cultivation base has increased greatly due to your light, but after all... After all, if you want to really meet the masters, you are still in the stage of being a sham.

You will give us such a good weapon, this is not... this is not true. Some of it is too wasteful.” “A good horse with a good saddle, we are... nothing.” A group of people nodded. George Han sneered:

“Since you know that a good horse has a good saddle, then you won’t try to become a good horse with a good saddle? Are all pills for nothing? ” , don’t want to have any room for improvement?

If this is the case, don’t choose the magic soldiers, go back.” After the words were finished, George Han turned his face away and ignored them lazily. It's not that they lack ambition, it's just because they are suddenly so favored, it is inevitable that they can't accept it for a while .

People have a feeling of inferiority, and it is normal to have difficulty accepting something that should be in a completely unfamiliar stage. However, seeing that George Han was already angry, this time the group of people no longer had any concerns, and their hearts were swayed. Anyway, this is to take treasures, and it is not for anyone to die. Besides, they are not afraid of death, they are still afraid of a ball? In just a moment, one person held all of them in his hands, and then stood in a line obediently, waiting for George Han to calm down. George Han is actually very satisfied with their performance. After all, this can prove that they are not particularly greedy people, and they have the reputation of self-knowledge, which is a good thing.

Seeing that they had their weapons in hand, George Han turned around and glanced at everyone pretending not to be so angry: "You don't have to be too cautious, you have taken good things and taken good pills, and you will naturally pay. More than others."

Everyone nodded in unison.

"Okay, people rely on clothes and horses rely on saddles. Now I have helped you both externally and internally, but if you want to play, you need a perfect set of mental methods and exercises as a connection, so from now on, I will I will teach you these two things."

"If you want to save your life on the battlefield, you have to learn to be beaten more in private. In other words, your real journey of the devil has begun." After the words were finished, George Han smiled. The evil of Chinese: "How nice it was just now, how happy it was to eat, then you will have to pay it back with double the pain."

Looking at George Han's eyes, a group of disciples was behind Feeling cold, although I don't know what George Han wants to do, just his eyes have already made everyone understand...

terrifying things are coming...
