

Chapter 3864

“Patriarch Pei invited me, how dare I not come?” He smiled grimly: “Besides, this is also about the possibility of the demons in the future. What about the bloody battle that will happen?”

As he finished speaking, he floated on the seat next to him.

And as soon as he took his seat, the four shadows behind him also stood firmly behind the seat.

Hearing the bloody battle, Pei Gu’s face was obviously twitched and unhappy.

Although they were all polite words, it was clear that the other party had a strong sense of threat.

“This is the Seventh Princess?” He sat down and looked at the Seventh Princess. Although there was no face, no eyes and no head in the hat, the Seventh Princess seemed extremely uncomfortable.

Without waiting for Pei Gu to speak, the seventh princess frowned, “It’s Miss Ben.”

“Haha, it’s true that there are no dogs and fathers. However, I know that the wife of the Patriarch of the Pei family died early, and the Patriarch of the Pei family is busy with political affairs. As a result, he neglects to manage his children, so that some of them are not educated, and lawlessness is really annoying.”

As soon as these words came out, don’t say that the Seventh Princess was angry on the spot, even the two servants who were present were also angry on the spot. .

Isn’t it all aimed at the Seventh Princess?

Although they were servants, they had followed the Seventh Princess for a long time, so how could anyone say that about their master.

“You old servant, you look so weird, and you dare to mock my princess here, what kind of bullshit are you?”

” Otherwise, I want you to look good.”

Although Pei Gu was also annoyed that others abused his daughter so much, he knew the identity of the other party, so he could only suppress the fire in his heart at this time, and shouted to the two followers: “You two bastards, the Lord of Death is also you can abuse at will. Yes , get out of here immediately.”

“Patriarch!” The two disagreed.

However, seeing Pei Gu’s eyes, no matter how dissatisfied the two of them are, they can only quickly bow their heads and want to retreat.

“Wait.” The Lord of Death shouted coldly, as if rude.

Pei Gu smiled lightly at this time and said, “Lord Haihan, they are just two servants who can’t speak. You dignified lord, do you want to care about these villains?”

“Patriarch Pei said it well, and , you have spoken, I will naturally obey more, well, I will not care about him, as you said, the servant...” After the words were finished, he suddenly smiled grimly.

But in the next second, the four black shadows suddenly flashed, and the two shadows were still standing in the same place, and their bodies were scattered, they looked like four people. Terrible scream.

They searched for fame, only to see that the two servants just now had two shadows on their backs, one hand stuck their necks and lifted them up, the corners of their mouths were full of blood, and they were dead in the next second.

Looking back, the four shadows behind him were already standing there completely.

The Buddha prevention was all that was done, and nothing happened.

“Dare to kill the people of my 梲杙 clan, I want you to die.” The Seventh Princess was furious, both of them were her confidants. Even if they just said something they shouldn’t have, the so-called beating a dog also depends on the owner. , who killed her in front of her seventh princess, obviously the other party didn’t take her seriously.

Pei Gu also looked slightly cold at this time, and stared directly at the Lord of Death.

“Why do you two get angry? Of course, the servant’s affairs are left to the servant to handle. Excuse me, is there anything wrong?” He smiled and replied indifferently.

The seventh princess was angry, and the person who killed her dared to be so arrogant. She wanted to raise her hand, but Pei Gu glared at her with a cold expression, signaling her not to mess around.

The Seventh Princess was very angry, but when her father was here, she didn’t dare to rashly act, so she could only endure her anger and put down her sword.

“The Seventh Princess is still very reasonable. Sometimes it’s easy to kill someone, but when you want to kill this person, it’s difficult to lift a sword that can’t be lifted.”

“Your sword, but millions of people in the land of demons. Your life is so important that you can’t lift it and let it go is the smart choice.”

“Am I right, Patriarch Pei?”

Seeing him looking at him, Pei Gu flashed a hint of coldness in his eyes, but he turned In order to smile, he said indifferently: “Lord of Death, I think, don’t talk nonsense, let’s talk about business.”

“Okay, according to Pei’s words, let’s talk about business!”

Chapter 3865

“However, should Patriarch Pei show some sincerity first?” He sneered.

Pei Gu frowned and was extremely annoyed, but he still opened his mouth: “Qi’er, from today onwards, you will go to the solitary confinement room. You are not allowed to come out without my order.”

“Father, why?” The seventh princess was emotional.

Pei's confinement room sounds like a confinement room, but in reality it is nothing more than a high-level cell.

It's just that in general, the confinement room is used for some management of the Pei family, so it has such an elegant name.

But detaining the daughter of the Pei family in a closed room is simply the first time for the Pei family. Even if the children of the Pei family make mistakes, the father usually keeps them in his own room and is not allowed to come out.

But this time...

"Hmph, the Seven Princesses joined forces with the dog thieves to break through the city that I should have fallen, and let me wait for the big plan to capture George Han to fail. Such a serious crime, it's okay to be locked up?" The Lord of Death did not appreciate it at all. , said in a cold voice.

Pei Gu's face suddenly turned cold, and he was also dissatisfied: "What? Does the Lord of Death really rule life and death? I will call you the Lord of Death for your face. If I don't give you face, you are just a ghost.

" Falling, Pei Gu also turned around angrily, and sat directly in the seat of his own master.

The Lord of Death was suddenly furious, and the four black shadows behind him also flashed, but in the next second, his anger dissipated, the four shadows stabilized again, and turned to smile: "Since Patriarch Pei has punished the seventh princess, and If you think you're good, then I won't say anything more."

"Then what do you want to say? What I know is that you came to negotiate with me, but I don't know, I thought you were here to threaten me." Pei Gu snorted coldly one sound.

Both sides are people with heads and faces. Naturally, one of them wants to overwhelm the other, but the pressure has been pushed to the top, so naturally there is no point in continuing.

"Okay, then let's negotiate." Hei Ying said lightly.

When the words fell, seeing Pei Gu nodding, he said directly: "I don't want to be sloppy, I'll just be straightforward."

"Three days later, we will attack the city that should be defeated, so I don't care what the daughter of Patriarch Pei wants to do with us, but three days later. , I hope that the Pei family will lead a hundred thousand troops from Fuhai City to help us fight together."

"One hundred thousand troops?" Pei Gu frowned, this is not a number.

"George Han is very powerful and has many tricks. If we don't have an absolute overwhelming advantage, we will never succeed, and if the fallen city fails, I am afraid that there will never be a chance to regain it in the future. Therefore, ten 10,000 is the lowest." Shadow said.

The Seventh Princess snorted coldly at this time: "It's been a long time, you are the people behind the city, hehe, why did I make fun of me. However, it's ridiculous, you are so dragging, why did you throw it away? Cheng didn't take it back, but asked our Pei family to help? Do you have the attitude to ask for help?"

"Seventh princess, make it clear, I'm not begging you, but just asking you to buy for your mistakes. Just place an order." The Lord of Death replied coldly.

Then, he looked at Pei Gu and snorted disdainfully: "Of course, if Patriarch Pei thinks it's not worth it, he doesn't need to send troops. However, I can also tell Patriarch Pei clearly that if this matter is not resolved, no matter whether we Whether the city can be captured or not, the Pei family's plan to expand abroad will be in vain."

"The three palaces and four palaces of the demons are almost all within our sphere of influence, plus other partners. Although the strength is strong, it may not necessarily have the advantage?"

"When the two sides fight, millions of lives will be burned in this war, maybe we can't defeat you, but the Pei family master also knows what the consequences will be. "

Pei Gu frowned, of course he understood the consequences, if two tigers fought, one would be hurt.

And even if the Pei family is the uninjured tiger, what kind of prestige is there under exhaustion? !

At that time, it didn't matter whether the power was expanded or not. The important thing was how many people in the land of the demons would be eyeing this exhausted tiger, ready to tear it apart and eat it at any time.

Therefore, Pei Gu can't afford to gamble.

"Father, it's time to fall into the city and not attack. Have you forgotten what your daughter told you earlier?" The seventh princess hurriedly looked at her father.

Glancing at his daughter and then at the Lord of Death, Pei Gu didn't speak, and was caught in a dilemma for a while...

How should he choose? !
