

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3867

Soon, Chairman Pei and Jacob drove their own cars and returned to the Calligraphy and Painting Association with their front and back feet.

At this time, Fei Kexin had been waiting here for a long time.

As soon as President Pei came back, the secretary took him and Jacob to the meeting room and said to Fei Kexin who was waiting here: "Miss , these two are President Pei and Vice President of our Calligraphy and Painting Association!"

After that, she introduced to the two of them: "Chairman Pei and Vice-Chairman, this is the French Chinese I mentioned on the phone, Zhan , Miss Zhan."

For the sake of insurance, Fei Kexin did not use his true identity.

But for her, she has a completely legal and true identity in several countries, and the identity of this French-Chinese Zhan is just one of her many identities.

Fei Kexin glanced at Jacob more, and finally heaved a sigh of relief. As long as he contacted Jacob, he would definitely have a chance to inquire about his son-in-law Charlie.

So, she stood up very politely and said with a smile: "The two presidents have looked up to the name for a long time, and finally saw them."

President Pei did not expect that this overseas Chinese turned out to be a young and beautiful girl. After being slightly astonished, he quickly smiled and said: "Miss Zhan is so polite. I heard that an overseas Chinese wanted to donate calligraphy and painting, but he did not expect it to be for the young. Madam, was Miss Zhan from Aurous Hill before?"

Fei Kexin smiled slightly, and shook his head: "Our ancestors were from Aurous Hill. Although recent generations have settled overseas, the elderly in the family still have deep feelings for Aurous Hill. It's just that the elderly are too old and it is not convenient to come here. Entrust me to give me a small contribution to the Aurous Hill calligraphy and painting community."

With that said, she greeted skuna next to her and said, "skuna, take the calligraphy and painting that the old man prepared."

skuna hurriedly stepped forward and brought a wooden box made of golden nanmu. The wooden box was opened on the conference table and contained eight scrolls.

These eight characters were bought by the Fei family from an American collector last night and sent to Aurous Hill overnight.

The purpose is to match the background of the story fabricated by Fei Kexin, so as to take the opportunity to get online with Jacob.

However, neither President Pei nor Jacob knew that Fei Kexin played such a big show, just to find a chance to get close to the door-to-door son-in-law of Jacob's house, Charlie.

Afterwards, Fei Kexin made a gesture of inviting Chairman Pei and Jacob, and said respectfully: "The two presidents, these eight characters are the eight works of Lincoln that the elderly at home asked me to bring back. Please have a look."

Chairman Pei was naturally very excited. He quickly took out a pair of white gloves from his pocket, stepped forward and picked up one of the characters carefully, spread it out on the table gently, and praised it while watching: "This is indeed Lincoln. The authentic work of Lincoln, and looking at the handwriting, is a work left over from Lincoln's most prosperous golden period. It is very well preserved and very precious!"

Fei Kexin nodded and said with a smile: "These eight Lincoln's works are a series specially made by Lincoln. Eight articles were written in eight characters to praise Aurous Hill's four seasons and style throughout the year. And the eight characters are perfectly preserved, it is indeed very rare!"

President Pei said excitedly: "These eight characters are called Aurous Hill Batan! They are of great significance to the local history and customs of Aurous Hill! When I first came into contact with calligraphy, I had heard of these eight characters. But I only heard that they went overseas before, but I didn't expect that they would be fortunate enough to see them in Aurous Hill today!"

After that, he said to Jacob: , come and see! This can be said to be the most famous one in our Aurous Hill local calligraphy house. These eight characters also best represent our Aurous Hill's cultural history! You! Look at this pen, it is vigorous and powerful, the subtleties are so round and full of flavor, it's incredible!"

How could Jacob understand the calligraphy, he only knew that this thing really looked neat, but it was too early to say that he could understand the essence of it.

As a result, he could only scream in admiration again and again: "Sure enough, it is a good word! It is everyone's work at a glance, it's amazing!"

Jacob's words made Fei Kexin firmly believe that this old man is a big parallel importer.
