

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3872

Although Elaine said that it was useless to mock his vice president of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, he actually knew very clearly in his heart how much weight this vice president had.

The senior officials of this kind of cultural association have a very special aura of cultural people, and the city leaders have to show some face.

However, Elaine had been tyrannical in front of Jacob all his life. How could Jacob overshadow him at this time, so he deliberately mocked him.

Jacob was originally very upset at Elaine's mockery, and was about to refute it. When she heard that she said she was not good enough and said that she was indiscriminately filling her count, she immediately pierced the humbleness and sensitivity deep in his heart.

Today, in front of Hank, Jacob felt this way.

He also clearly realized that he really didn't have any real skills, and he finally got mixed up with the executive vice president of the Painting and Calligraphy Association. After all, he was still a parallel importer.

However, being so ridiculed by Elaine still stung his self-esteem deeply. He immediately retorted: "Do you think I, the vice president, is a dry meal? In this position, you can not only broaden your horizons, but also strengthen your connections. !"

After speaking, he said again: "Yes, I met an overseas Chinese today, and he is still a rich man! The family members donated tens of millions of calligraphy and paintings to our Calligraphy and Painting Association, and they are also willing to sponsor 50 million. Give us a local art exhibition in Aurous Hill! With this kind of network, maybe it will be of great use in the future!"

Elaine curled his lips and said: "What kind of bragging? According to you, people donated 100 million to your calligraphy and painting society? I don't believe who can do nothing, donate money to your calligraphy and painting association!"

Jacob blurted out: "You know what a shit! There are more rich people in this world, and many rich people donate money and sponsorship everywhere. What is it to donate some money in the cultural field?"

With that said, Jacob looked inviting credit, and said: "Yes, because I met this overseas Chinese, I also brought Charlie and Churan a business each! If I don't participate in the Calligraphy and Painting Association, I can have Is this an opportunity?"

Elaine frowned and asked, "Promote business for Charlie? What kind of business?"

Charlie also looked surprised: "Yes, Dad, I don't do business either."

Jacob hurriedly said to Charlie: "Good son-in-law, don't you always show Feng Shui? The overseas Chinese I met today just bought a villa in Aurous Hill, and chatted during dinner. She just said she wanted to invite someone. A feng shui master went over to have a look. When I heard this, I must help our own family. After all, the fat water does not flow into the outsiders' fields, so I recommended you to her."

After that, Jacob said again: "You usually show feng shui to those wealthy people, how can you not get one or two million? This time this overseas Chinese also seems to have a lot of money, and then you will directly quote her two or three million. I guess she must have agreed without hesitation."

As soon as Elaine heard this, her brows were instantly overjoyed, and she said to Charlie: "My son-in-law, this business is a good deal. You don't have to go to other places. As long as you walk around in Aurous Hill, you can make millions!"

Charlie chuckled, and didn't know how to pick it up for a while.

Although he kept telling his family that he wanted to go out to show his customers Feng Shui, he had never received a similar order at all. It was an excuse for him to go to other places.

Originally, he thought that his excuse was reasonable and perfect, but he didn't expect that the old man Jacob introduced himself to a client.

He doesn't care about the millions, but the key is that he can't refuse it. Otherwise, it will be obviously unreasonable to use the excuse of showing Feng Shui in the future.

So he had no choice but to nod his head and said, "Good dad, give me her contact information, and I will contact her tomorrow."

Jacob handed over a business card and said, "Here, this is Miss Zhan. You will call her tomorrow and he will know my name."
