

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3883

Thinking of this, charlie frowned, and felt that Zhan seemed a little unkind.

charlie even speculated that this Zhan asked his assistant to buy Mr. Quinton's villa, not to live in for the elderly at all, but simply to get closer to himself.

If this is the case, then her funding of the Aurous Hill Painting and Calligraphy Association is probably just a cover.

And her true purpose is most likely to get close to the old father-in-law Jacob, and then through the old father-in-law's relationship, using the grounds of feng shui to approach herself.

This made charlie's heart suddenly a strong alert.

Since he received the 10 billion from Stephen Thompson and accepted the Emgrand Group, charlie has tried to hide his identity as much as possible, especially in front of his wife's family.

The reason is that they don't want anyone to find them because of their true identity, especially his wife Claire.

And over the past year or so, charlie has been hiding very well, and although he has made many enemies, except for his domineering aunt Cynthia Wade, no one really focused his attention on Claire.

However, this Zhan broke this situation. Not only did she find charlie, she even found charlie's father-in-law and wife.

This has undoubtedly touched charlie's negative scales, and at the same time made him determined to dig out Zhan true identity, then use her own way to treat her, and quietly put her into himself. In the pocket.

If she dares to do anything threatening to the people around her, let her have no return!

At the same time, on the expressway on the way back, Fei Kexin said to skuna with excitement: you will meet Claire for me this afternoon, so I want to ask her to visit Shuiyun Villa. Looking at the house, the decoration budget is 30 million yuan, and the design fee accounts for 10%. If she is willing to undertake, I can package all the decorations to her."

skuna couldn't help asking: "Miss, you have already found that charlie, so why waste time on Claire?"

Fei Kexin said seriously: "I do this to be prepared. If Grandpa can't get the Rejuvenation Pill at the auction, then I still have a glimmer of hope here."

skuna couldn't help saying: "Miss, I think with the strength of the Fei family, the chances of the master winning the Rejuvenation Pill at the auction are still very high."

Fei Kexin shook her head and said, "To be honest, I don't report any hope for the auction."

skuna asked incomprehensibly: "Why did the lady say this? Did you hear anything about it?"

"No." Fei Kexin said calmly: "I just deduced the future development trajectory of this matter based on my own knowledge. In my deduction, it is difficult for Grandpa to get the rejuvenation pill at the auction. ."

skuna was stunned when she heard this. She couldn't figure out why Fei Kexin was so pessimistic about the auction, so she asked, "Ah? Why do you say that, miss?"

Fei Kexin looked out the window, chuckled, and said: "I have my analysis model, but this model involves too many areas and too many elements. You can't say it clearly, so don't ask."

"Okay..." skuna nodded helplessly, and asked again: "Miss, then do you think that how likely is it to get Rejuvenation Pill from charlie?"

Fei Kexin shrugged his shoulders, spread out his hands, and said, "Actually, I am not sure about charlie. This person is too weird and unreasonable everywhere, so I can't judge him with normal experience."

As he said, Fei Kexin sighed and said with more firm eyes: "However, if I don't want to know charlie, I can only pin all my hopes at the auction. After I met him, there will be more Possibly, even if the second one may only have a 1% success rate, I will never give up! Because as long as there is a glimmer of hope, it is better than hanging from a tree!"
