

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3900

“In this case, the quality of life for all of us will decline, and I hope you can understand it at that time! It doesn’t matter if you don’t understand it, just physically overcome it.”

As soon as Mrs. Wilson heard this, her eyes rolled in her eye sockets a few times, and her mind was spinning quickly, carefully considering the pros and cons.

If souna is allowed to stay here, although her mood will be affected somewhat, as Wendy said, she will have an extra helper, and she will be a helper in her prime of life.

In that case, the pressure of serving his son and grandson will naturally be reduced a lot, or even more than half.

And this is also the most cost-effective way. There is no need to rent a house for souna alone. The family is nothing more than adding a pair of chopsticks, and the cost increase is minimal.

However, if souna is not allowed to stay here, and Wendy goes out to rent a house to souna, why can’t it be two or three thousand yuan a month?

Family income is less than a few thousand yuan a month, and the actual impact on life is still very large.

Thinking of this, the old lady opened her mouth sadly: “souna, for the sake of wendy’s face, I will let you in this time, but you must be honest and responsible for me when you are at home in the future. Yes, you know?!”

As soon as souna heard this, she was incoherent with excitement. She nodded and said: "Thank you mom...Thank you mom...I...I know...I will do my duty and take care of my housework in the future!"

Christopherr sighed and didn't speak any more. He was already soft-hearted at this time, and he felt more guilty about souna's previous experience.

Wandy finally fell to the ground with a stone.

In fact, she received a call from her mother two days ago.

After souna's mother passed away, her younger brother and sister-in-law couldn't wait to kick her out, for fear that she would stay behind to fight for the ancestral property.

souna was kicked out and had nowhere to go. Besides calling her daughter for help, she couldn't think of any other way.

After all, she also knew that her mother-in-law hated herself for being into the bone, and her husband hated herself for being into the bone, and her son was seriously injured in bed.

Fortunately, Wandy had reissued her previous mobile phone card, otherwise souna would not even be able to get through the phone. In that case, she would not be able to make calls every day and call the ground.

Wandy had also complained about her mother at the beginning, and she couldn't make it through just the fact that all the deposits in the family were emptied.

However, since Charlie helped her and asked her to take charge of Shangmei etiquette company, her outlook on life, world outlook, and values have undergone tremendous changes.

She no longer admires vanity as she did before, instead she is obsessed with making money with her own hands. Moreover, she has a lot of patience and tolerance for many people and things around her.

As soon as she heard that her mother had no fixed place now, she hardly hesitated, and immediately let her mother return to Aurous Hill.

Because she felt that she could not sit back and watch her mother suffer and suffer outside anyway.

Therefore, she had already thought of two solutions.

If the father and grandmother can accept the mother, the family will still live together, and the gaps in the past will gradually dissipate over time in the future.

It doesn't matter if they can't accept their mothers, they have the ability to give their mothers a stable life.

However, now that grandma and dad can agree, in Wandy's eyes, it is the best solution.

Elaine couldn't help feeling a little sorrowful when she saw souna's tears of gratitude and tears.

She couldn't help but secretly thought in her heart: "Without my good son-in-law Charlie, my position in the Wilson family would not be as good as souna, and I don't know how much humiliation I would be humiliated by the old lady..."
