

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3973

When Claire heard this, he couldn't help pursing his lips and chuckling.

She also knows that there are many very feminine men in the fashion circle, and this situation has become more and more common in recent years, so she doesn't think there is anything abnormal.

However, it is really rare for a man to give himself a feminine English name.

At this time, the male salesman named Vivian was looking for the old inventory that had not been sold for many years.

Some, even the inventory of the store opened seven or eight years ago, have not been sold until now.

Soon, he put all these stocks into three big boxes, and took these three boxes out one after another with difficulty.

He placed these three big boxes neatly in front of charlie, with a respectful attitude, and said with a smile: "Sir, take a look, there are more than 996,000 goods here, you don't need it. These are enough for one million."

charlie smiled and nodded, and said with a smile: "I didn't expect you to give me a discount of several thousand yuan, how am I embarrassed?"

The salesman thought that charlie was saying something ironic, and said embarrassingly: "Sir, if you think that these goods are too much, you can actually remove a part of it, or I will take away about 200,000 yuan for you. What do you think? Sample?"

charlie hurriedly waved his hand: "Don't! Don't take it!"

As he said, he flipped through the goods and found that many of the packages of the goods were covered with thick dust, and he smiled and said, "I am here to shop for antiques today. There are so many good things, I'm sure Don't miss it. Wrap them all up for me. In addition, bring the bags I want and I will pay the bill together."

The salesman said quickly: "I'm really sorry. I just took these things. The Birkin 30 can't hold it anymore. Wait a minute, I'll get it for you!"

After finishing speaking, he hurried back to the warehouse and came across an orange square carton. Then, in front of charlie and Claire, he opened the carton carefully, then took out a handbag from the dust bag and handed it over. In charlie's hands, he said diligently: "Sir, take a look. This is the most popular gray this year. It is the most sought-after color in this series. If you really bought that box of accessories together, this bag is Yours."

charlie nodded and asked Claire, "Wife, is this okay?"

Claire was still a little unsure, and asked charlie, "Husband, what you just said...is it true?"

charlie knew that Claire was asking about what he said could make money from distribution, so he smiled seriously: "My wife, don't worry, I am sure about this matter."

After that, he asked Claire again: "Wife, are you satisfied with this bag?"

Claire nodded lightly, and said, "The bag is pretty good..."

charlie nodded, interrupted her, and said, "It's enough if the bag is pretty good. You don't have to worry about other things."

After that, he immediately said to the salesman: "Come, let me check out together!"

The sales were a little overwhelmed with excitement, and the hands were shaking a little for a moment.

He really didn't expect that he would meet a super big family today.

In the past, the wealthy people used to spend a lot of money when buying things, but they were all very savvy.

When letting them distribute the goods, they will try to keep the distribution quota down as much as possible.

And they also have some requirements for the goods they are distributing, all they want are those with fairly good liquidity.

No one is willing to buy these old and used goods at the bottom of the press box.
