

Chapter 401

Zhao Tongxin sat at his desk for a while. With a copy of the document from the marketing department in his hand, Shaoyuan pushed the door and came in.

"Tong Xin, the opposite has already started to move. This is the news we just received." Spoon garden put the document in front of her and said anxiously.

Zhao Tong Xin picked up the document and glanced at it in a hurry. His face turned ugly: "Tianhong jewelry company will sell all the jewelry products at half price in the next month?"

This news surprised her. She thought that the opposite side was a new jewelry company after all. In order to compete with the old companies in the industry for the consumer group, she would certainly do some price cutting and so on. This has almost become a common practice in the business field. However, she really didn't expect that the opposite side would cut the price of the goods by half and keep the price for sale A whole month.

She believes that this move by Tianhong Group will certainly attract the vast majority of consumers and put their jewelry companies in a favorable position in the market competition. After all, half price sales of jewelry, a valuable commodity, means that consumers can save a lot of money, especially for ordinary people.

However, the cost of doing so is also obvious, that is, the loss is too serious, no company can accept this kind of loss business.

"Yes, it's the latest news from the marketing department, and it's absolutely guaranteed to be true."

Zhao Tong Xin's eyebrows slightly wrinkled, pondered for a long time, and then said to the spoon Garden: "I don't understand why they do this action in the end?"

Shaoyuan also showed a puzzled look: "I'm not sure. According to the truth, in order to compete with the old companies in the industry, it's a common way for new jewelry companies to open and sell at a reduced price, but it's not so outrageous as the opposite. All the goods are half price, and it lasts for one month. For the cost of jewelry, half price means they have to pay for it Even Tianhong Group can't afford to lose money for a month? "

"It's not like they're grabbing the market. It's not worth the loss."

Zhao Tongxin agrees with Shaoyuan very much. Tianhong jewelry company's practice is a big taboo in the business field. It not only offends all its peers, but also can't get any benefits. On the contrary, it will lose a lot of money. It's a bit like killing eight hundred enemies and losing one thousand.

"Unless there's a possibility that they can keep costs affordable."

Shaoyuan's eyes flashed, and she thought of the key point of the problem.

In addition to the fixed cost price of precious metal products, the cost of other jade, gem and crystal products is very flexible.

The price of raw stone purchase and transportation, as well as the finished products polished into finished products can be adjusted. For example, if a jewelry company controls a mine that produces raw jade, then the finished products of the company's jade products will be very low, thus making a lot of profits.

"Spoon, the possibility you say is very low, because our company controls the raw stone channel of almost the whole Southeast Asia. Theoretically speaking, they have no reason to get the raw stone price lower than ours."

Zhao Tong thinks about it and thinks that the worry of Shaoyuan is unnecessary. Before Jin Zhengting handed over the company to her, he was already the largest buyer of raw stones in Southeast Asia. He basically controlled all the sales channels of raw stone producing areas. Except our company, it is difficult for other jewelry companies to get cheap raw stones with good quality.

"We'll talk about this later. Tong Xin, what we have to think about now is how to deal with it. I don't know if our company can hold on to unfair competition with us in this way of almost dumping."

Spoon garden is not without worry that if the company really has no business for a month, even the most powerful company in the group can not afford such consumption.

Zhao Tongxin also thought about the seriousness of the situation. She thought carefully: "well, our company also carries out price reduction promotion activities, but with our company's strength, we can't accept the loss caused by half price sales for the time being. At most, we can only get a 70% discount. We'll stick to it for a few days, and then we'll find a way slowly."

"Well, we can only do this first, Tong Xin. Do you want to report the situation here to the boss?"

Shaoyuan thinks it is necessary to report to Jin Zhengting. Although the company is highly independent and the group will not interfere and interfere with the business situation of the company, it is also a pillar enterprise of the group. If the company goes wrong, it will easily affect the operation of the whole group.

"No, the court has a lot of things to do. I'd better not tell him. If we can't deal with these little things well, it's time to resign collectively."

Zhao Tong thought for a moment and made up her mind. She didn't want to rely on Jin Zhengting for everything. Moreover, the current situation is an opportunity for her to test her and her team's ability, so she boldly chose to deal with it alone.

Shaoyuan and Zhao Tongxin are best friends, so she quickly understood Zhao Tongxin's intention, she nodded: "good Tongxin, I think we can deal with these things."

"Well, spoon, you go and prepare. Gather the company's executives for a meeting to discuss the company's next plan. Zhao Tong heart light said, her hand is secretly clenched, this time she must rely on their own strength to solve.Spoon garden agreed, picked up the document and walked out of the office.

Zhao Tong heart sent her out, raised his wrist to see the time, muttered to himself: "are out for a long time, how can Xu Yan have no news?"

The building opposite the company.

Huo Tingchen is sitting on the sofa of the office with a glass in his hand, with a proud smile on his face.

"Boss, you are really clever. On the first day, you occupied most of the jewelry market in Jiangbin. After a month, Zhao Tongxin's company would be bankrupt." Xu Ting poured a little red wine for him and complimented him.

Huo Tingchen said with a smile: "I didn't come up with such a good idea. It's your cousin Xu Zheng's clever plan."

Xu Ting looks at Xu Zheng with a very grateful look. Her pathetic appearance almost melts Xu Zheng's heart.

"Cousin, you are so smart. Thank you for helping me."

Xu Ting's voice is very sweet, this tone makes Xu Zheng feel very comfortable.

"It's just a small lift, cousin. We suffered from Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin on the cruise ship last time. This time, I'll get back the venue for you."

Xu Zheng is very concerned about his lovely cousin, vowed to express his determination to Xu Ting.

"But cousin, I don't quite understand one thing. Although we can hit Zhao Tongxin's company by doing this, if we continue to operate for a long time, won't our company suffer huge losses?"

Xu Ting blinked her innocent eyes and asked, as the nominal president of Tianhong jewelry company, she knows something about this. The profit of jewelry is generally about 30%. The company's products are now sold at half price. That is to say, every product sold, the company has to bear 20% of the loss. She knows that even if Tianhong Group is strong, it is difficult to bear such a loss Serious losses.

She worried that before the company of Zhao Tongxin was washed out, her company could not bear such a huge loss and went bankrupt first, which was absolutely unacceptable to her.

Xu Zheng laughed: "cousin, your worry is superfluous. The reason why our company's jewelry can be sold at half price is that the company's product cost is very low. We have to thank the boss for providing us with raw materials, so we can reduce the finished products to the acceptable range of the company."

Huo Tingchen tasted a mouthful of red wine and said with a smile: "in fact, I didn't help much. I just used the trade relationship of Tianhong Group to control several raw stone producing areas in Southeast Asia."

"With the cheap raw stones provided by our boss, we can reduce the finished products by about 30%. That is to say, even if we sell them at half price, we can make at least 10% profit. So don't worry about my cousin. We can also bring down Zhao Tongxin's company if we delay."

Xu Zheng said faintly that he didn't feel particularly happy. After all, Zhao Tongxin is also his cousin. For Xu Zheng, who has serious sister control, it's hard to make such a decision. However, when he thinks of Jin Zhengting, the only soft thing is gradually becoming tough.

Zhao Tongxin can only be blamed for choosing Jin Zhengting. Xu Zheng uses this reason to convince himself.

"What are we going to do next?"

Xu Ting's eyes twinkled a few times, and she asked Xu Zheng that she knew her cousin and knew that he was very smart. She must have thought about how to do it in the future. Smart people always have a long-term vision than others.

"Next, I think we should further lower the price. I think we can lower the commodity price by another 20%. Even if we can't make money, we just need not lose money. With our company's capital, it's no problem to insist on half a year. Moreover, I've calculated in my heart that Zhao Tongxin's company can accept a 10% reduction in price at most, so our advantage is over It's all reflected. I think it won't take three months for her company to file for bankruptcy. "

Xu Zheng said while looking at Huo Tingchen, this is just his idea. The person who really has the right to decide is the man who controls Tianhong Group.

Huo Tingchen nodded slightly. He seemed very satisfied with Xu Zheng's plan. When he saw Xu Zheng looking at him, he laughed: "I think what Xu Zheng said is right, but we don't have that long to play games with Zhao Tongxin. Let's reduce 20% on the basis of half price sales."

Xu Zheng was stunned for a moment, and subconsciously said: "boss, if we sell at a 30% discount, we will offend the whole jewelry industry in Jiangbin, which is not good for the group."

Huo Tingchen, with a cold face, waved his hand to Xu Zheng to stop saying, "no, I'm not afraid to touch anyone's interests. As long as I can bring down Jin Zhengting quickly, I can afford the losses. It's not a bad thing to bring down the jewelry industry in Jiangbin. Those companies are all guided by Jin Zhengting, and it's time to reshuffle."

Xu Zheng was shocked. From Huo Tingchen's attitude, he saw his strong ambition. When they first cooperated with each other, Huo Tingchen only wanted to revenge Jin Zhengting, but now he is trying to dominate the whole riverside business.

His brain quickly turned a few times, and Huo Tingchen's cooperation, can not help but a little bit of concern, but he did not show, just light said: "well, since the boss so decided, we will do as you say." Xu Ting's eyes are full of excited look, her mood and Huo Tingchen is the same, she also wants to revenge Zhao Tong heart as soon as possible.

"Boss, as long as you provide sufficient funds, we will complete the original plan as soon as possible. I promise that Zhao Tongxin's jewelry company will go bankrupt in a month!" She is eager to express her position, hoping to get more support from Huo Tingchen.

Huo Tingchen nodded his head, suddenly raised his hand to stop Xu Ting from talking, and then his eyes fell on a middle-aged cleaner at the door of the office. Then his pupils contracted, his face showed a fierce expression, and he said with a smile: "Yan Ke, since it's coming, why don't you come in and sit down?"

Chapter 402

"What happened in the morning? Who told you to go? Don't you know it's dangerous? "

On the phone, Jin Zhengting's voice was obviously angry, and he was worried, afraid and so on. He asked in a very low voice.

What happens every day in Jiangbin City, as long as he wants to know, nothing can be hidden from him.

Jin Zhengting pays close attention to Huo Tingchen's actions. Naturally, he knows about the opening of Tianhong jewelry company this morning. Moreover, at the ribbon cutting ceremony, he sent Huo Tingchen's staff to monitor what happened at the ceremony and reported it to him.

After learning that Zhao Tongxin went to the scene of the opening ceremony and had a head-on conflict with Huo Tingchen, he immediately called Zhao Tongxin.

He didn't expect that Zhao Tongxin would go today, and only Xu Yanke was around to protect him. Although he knew that Huo Tingchen would not do any harm to Zhao Tongxin on that occasion, he still couldn't help feeling afraid of Zhao Tongxin's personal safety.

After all, Huo Tingchen is a very crazy person. His behavior can't be inferred from normal people's thinking. No one knows when he will become crazy. Therefore, Zhao Tongxin's appearance in front of him is a very risky thing.

When he called Zhao Tongxin, Jin Zhengting was not angry with her, but worried about her. He seldom lost his temper with her. This time, he was so worried that he could not suppress his usual calmness. After receiving the news, his heart was beating wildly.

Zhao Tongxin, like a child who has done something wrong, lowers her head and listens to his reprimand in silence. She can tell from his tone that he is not angry, but worried too much about himself and becomes emotional. It can make Jin always calm and excited. Only she has this ability, because she is the only one in Jin Zhengting's heart.

Now in retrospect, Zhao Tongxin felt that his behavior was really too risky. No wonder he was very strict with his tone.

"Court, I'm sorry." Knowing that he has done something wrong, Zhao Tong apologizes to him in a low voice.

Jin Zhengting tone slightly eased a little bit, light: "you're OK."

"There won't be another time, I promise." Zhao Tongxin knew that he was worried about himself, so he should have a bad attitude towards himself, so she assured him.

"Well."

Jin Zhengting gave a light reply, and his tone returned to the previous calm.

"Zhengting, I didn't mean to worry you, because I think if I don't make a point, those people who wait and see the situation in Jiangbin will probably fall to Huo Tingchen. So I think it's necessary to show us our tough stance towards Tianhong Group in front of those people."

"Let them know that any action of our team against the group will make a strong counterattack. Today's occasion is not suitable for you. You are the president of the group. Xu Ting's company does not have the qualification, and it is not enough to send others to the group. I am the most suitable person, so I decided to go temporarily. Don't be angry with me, OK?"

Zhao Tong's explanation is gentle. In fact, she doesn't need to explain. With Jin Zhengting's super high intelligence, she will soon figure out her intention. She just worries too much about her safety and loses her sense for a while.

"Well, I know."

Jin Zhengting also figured it out. In fact, Zhao Tongxin was right in doing so.

"But next time before you make such a decision, you should discuss it with me." Jin Zhengting's tone relaxed completely.

"I will." Zhao Tongxin heartily promised.

"Huo Tingchen has done something to your company. Tongxin, do you need the help of the group?"

Jin Zhengting knows Huo Tingchen's every move like the palm of his hand. He thinks of the pressure Zhao Tongxin is under, but with his understanding of her, he knows that she may not accept it. Forcing her to help her will hurt her self-esteem, so he can only say it as casually.

"Zhengting, do you believe me?" Zhao Tongxin did not answer, but asked him a question.

"Of course I do." His answer is unquestionable.

"Since you believe me, I won't let you down, Zhengting. I don't need your help this time, but I promise I won't let the company down." Zhao Tongxin's voice is very gentle, but also with a very firm tone.

"Well, the business of the company is up to you, but don't forget to rest."

Jin Zhengting said faintly, and his tone softened. Just now he blamed her for her recklessness, but now he is concerned about her body.

"Well, I'll be busy." Zhao Tongxin took the mobile phone and picked up a stack of documents on the desk.

"You go ahead and hang up." Jin Zhengting said, hung up the phone, and then told Rong Lei, who had been waiting by his side: "prepare the car and go to the jewelry company."

"Yes, boss." Rong Lei promised and walked out of the president's office quickly.

Soon, Jin Zhengting's car was parked in the parking lot under the jewelry company building. Although the arrival of the boss has caused a big stir, it is not as crazy as the last time. After all, Zhao Tongxin was annoyed by the female employees' crazy pursuit of the boss last time. The direct result is that more than 20 people were fired, including two important department managers. The president of Zhao Tongxin is really gentle, but once someone touches her bottom line, he has to pay a lot Big price.

Jin Zhengting comes directly to Zhao Tongxin's office, and she is the only one in Nuo Da's office to deal with all kinds of documents.

His brow wrinkled up, it is obvious that Zhao Tongxin's security is very dissatisfied, Rong Lei knowingly turned to leave, to find his sister Rong Qi.

Zhao Tongxin felt a figure shaking in front of him. Then he looked up and saw Jin Zhengting's angular face.

"Zhengting, why are you here?" Zhao Tongxin's voice was full of surprise. She didn't expect that he would come to see her at this time. Although there was always work in hand, which made her almost have no time to rest, she knew what she thought from the bottom of her heart. She missed him.

"What about Xu Yanke?"

Jin Zhengting's face is not good-looking. It seems that there is a premonition before the outbreak. Zhao Tongxin immediately understands that he wants Xu Yanke to protect himself. Now that he is away, he is still worried about his safety.

"I let her go out to work. It doesn't matter. There are many security guards at the gate of the building. They have to make strict checks on strangers entering the building, so I'm very safe. Rong Qi is in charge of this in person. What else do you worry about?"

Zhao Tongxin explained that she didn't want him to worry about himself, although she enjoyed it.

Jin Zhengting's face looked better. He said faintly, "I've come to see you. I'm always worried."

"I'm ok, Zhengting. I won't do anything dangerous in the future. It's all my fault that worries you."

Zhao Tong lowered his head and said in a low voice that Jin Zhengting's temper had disappeared because of the little woman's appearance.

His eyes became more and more gentle, and he reached out and gently stroked her hair: "you're OK."

His eyes swept the papers on his desk, and his face showed an unhappy look: "don't be too tired when you are pregnant."

Zhao Tongxin likes the feeling of being cared by her very much. Her beautiful eyes show deep love. She answers cleverly: "OK, I will."

Jin Zhengting's face softened a little, thought about it, and said, "I'll let Rong Lei stay to help you deal with the affairs in the company."

"That how can, Rong Lei is your assistant, without his help, you will be very hard."

He waved his hand: "it's so decided. Rong Lei has been in the group for many years. He is very experienced in business and has good skills. He can help you share a lot of things, so you don't have to work too hard."

"Well, Zhengting, I'll let Rong Lei go back to the group after I've been busy for a while."

Zhao Tong thought about it and agreed. Although she has set up a small team of her own and the quality of the members is also very good, there is still a disadvantage, that is, none of these people has business experience and everything depends on exploration. If Rong Lei joins, it will be a great supplement to her team.

"Well, pay attention to the rest. There are still things for the group. I'll go first."

Jin Zhengting said faintly, and turned around to leave.

"The court." Zhao Tong bit his lower lip, and still opened his mouth to stop him.

Jin Zhengting turned around and said, "what's the matter?"

Zhao Tong gazed at him affectionately, and he also looked at her with gentle eyes. The two people just watched each other quietly and felt each other's existence with heart.

"Zhengting, I'll miss you."

After a long time, Zhao Tongxin opened his mouth in a soft voice, and a blush appeared on his pretty face. It seemed that it was the first time to talk to him.

The corner of Jin Zhengting's mouth touched him, showing a most charming smile: "well."

Zhao Tong Xin gave him a shy expression. Suddenly he thought of something and frowned. Jin Zheng Ting saw her expression and asked, "what's the matter?"

"I asked Xu Yanke to sneak into Huo Tingchen's company to inquire about the news. After several hours, she hasn't come back. I'm a little worried about whether she will be OK."

"Let Rong Lei go and have a look. If there's something wrong, let him take care of it." Without hesitation, Jin Zhengting made a decisive decision.

Opposite the building.

Huo Tingchen, with both hands on his back, was facing Xu Yanke, who had changed his face. His eyes were full of sarcastic smile: "Yanke, don't forget that I taught you how to change your face. Are there too many flaws in disguise in front of me?"

Staring at by his eyes, Xu Yanke's heart trembles violently, and even his hands tremble slightly, because no one knows Huo Tingchen's terror better than her.

"How did you find out?"

Xu Yanke pretends to be calm and asks, she wants to delay some time, so that she can observe the surrounding environment and see if she has a chance to escape here. Huo Tingchen obviously has seen through her mind, he reached out to the stairs and pointed out: "this is the only way you can escape."

Xu Yanke subconsciously looks at the direction of his finger. Long Jiu stands there with a gun in her hand. Her heart sinks down completely. It seems that it is impossible to escape.

"By the way, I forgot to answer your question. You dress up as a middle-aged woman. You imitate her very well in terms of makeup and manner. However, you ignore that the middle-aged woman's chest is a little drooping, but your chest is too tall and straight. Only a young woman can have such a promoted chest."

Huo Tingchen's eyes with a smile: "I remember teaching you a long time ago, details determine everything, a little negligence may bring you failure, it seems that after you betrayed me, the previous teaching has forgotten."

Xu Yanke's forehead already has a cold sweat. She clenches her fist secretly. It's hard to escape from the situation. Since she can't escape, she just ends up with Huo Tingchen. But facing the muzzle of long Jiu's gun, all her resistance will be in vain.

Looking at long Jiu with the breath of death, approaching himself step by step, the last thought in Xu Yanke's heart was: "Zhao Tongxin, I've been cheated by you again!"

Chapter 403

"Brother, what do you want to do with her?" Long Jiu raises his hand and aims at Xu Yanke with a gun. With a cruel smile in his eyes, he goes to her and asks Huo Tingchen.

Huo Tingchen sighed and said with regret: "Yan Ke used to be my most effective subordinate. Unfortunately, she finally chose to betray me. What I hate most in my life is the traitor, so don't let her appear in front of me again."

"I betrayed you?" Xu Yanke laughed angrily: "you have been deliberately concealing my life experience and taking me as your revenge tool for the Jin family. And at the last moment, you betrayed me, right?"

Huo Tingchen said with a smile: "Yan Ke, you are trained by me, so I know you too well. You want to delay time to see if someone comes to save you, or you say these words to attract my attention. If I guess correctly, there is a gun hidden in your coat pocket. Once I am attracted by your words, you will pull out the gun and hijack me, right?"

Xu Yanke's face changed. Huo Tingchen knew her so well that he didn't even give her the last chance.

"I like to look at people's desperate eyes, just like you do now."

The smile in long Jiu's eyes is getting stronger and stronger. She takes out the gun from Xu Yanke's pocket and throws it to Xu Ting. Then she takes out a sharp dagger from her body and uses the tip of the knife to draw on Xu Yanke's face.

"It's too cheap for you to die happily. I'm thinking about cutting off your ears or digging out your eyes first."

The blade is sliding slowly on Xu Yanke's face, she can even feel the cold breath, and then her heart is cold.

Long Jiu looks at Xu Yanke with a smile. She likes others to show this kind of fear and despair in front of the temporary, so she will have a kind of inexplicable excitement.

"Please lay down your arms."

Just when Xu Yanke is in despair, suddenly a voice comes. Everyone's eyes look in the past. At the entrance of the stairs, Rong Lei is standing there with a cool face.

He received the boss's order to come to the building to meet Xu Yanke. When he sent it, he had a premonition that Xu Yanke might have been discovered by Huo Tingchen, so he accelerated to come here just in time.

"I thought it was Jin Zhengting who came in person. It turned out that he was just a dog."

Long Jiu picks up the gun again, and her muzzle aims at Rong Lei's heart position. At this distance, she is confident that as long as she gently pulls the trigger, Jin Zhengting's most effective assistant will say goodbye to the world.

Huo Tingchen's pupil has shrunk, he sees Rong Lei face the muzzle of long Jiu's gun, still very calm, and he is alone, he thinks Rong Lei must be ready.

He raises a hand to signal long Jiu not to start, smile to Rong Lei to say: "you are not afraid to die?"

Rong Lei smile: "afraid, and especially afraid of death."

"I don't think you are afraid at all. Few people are as calm as you when they face the muzzle of a gun." Huo Tingchen praises Rong Lei, because he is envious of Jin Zhengting and has such an excellent man as Rong Lei as his assistant.

"I'm really afraid of death, but I don't think I'm afraid to die with Mr. Huo, two members of the Xu family and miss long Jiu."

Rong Lei light said, his calm let Huo Tingchen more and more doubt, he is more and more sure that this man since dare to come, must be prepared.

Huo Tingchen asked: "Oh? I don't think you have any weapons. How can you die with us? "

Rong Lei didn't answer, but slowly untied the buttons of his shirt one by one, then separated his shirt, turned to Huo Tingchen, and said to him with a kind of resolute eyes: "if you didn't stop long Jiu from shooting just now, now you are all dead, and you are the kind of dead without whole body."

Huo Tingchen's pupil suddenly shrinks, and even long Jiu can't help but take a breath. Rong Lei's shirt is covered with grenades. If long Jiu just shoots, it will cause a strong explosion. Huo Tingchen started his arms business, and naturally he can see how powerful these grenade explosions are, and even the Immortals can't escape.

"Mr. Huo, you see, can I take Miss Yanke?"

Rong Lei takes off two grenades from his shirt and puts them in his hand. He clasps the ring with his fingers and looks at Huo Tingchen indifferently. The threat is very obvious. If he and Xu Yanke are not let go, there will be only one result. Everyone will die together.

"I don't seem to have a chance to turn you down."

Huo Tingchen felt the threat of death, he subconsciously back half a step, brain in the rapid operation, see if there is a chance to turn the situation around.

In order to make Xu Yanke lose his life, this kind of exchange is impossible for him, because his life is very valuable. Even Jin Zhengting is not qualified to exchange his life with him, at least he thinks so.

Xu Ting, who is closest to Rong Lei, secretly winks at Huo Tingchen. When her life is threatened, she has no need to continue to hide that she knows Kung Fu.

Huo Tingchen's eyes lit up, he nodded his head knowingly, spread out his hands and said: "you can go." Rong Lei also breathes a sigh of relief. He doesn't care whether he will die or not, but he absolutely can't let Xu Yanke be hurt, because she is the boss's sister, so he has the obligation to protect her safety.

He gives Xu Yanke a look. Xu Yanke breaks away from the control of long Jiu and comes to Rong Lei.

"Miss Yanke, you go first."

Rong Lei doesn't look back and says that his eyes are staring at the gun in long Jiu's hand, always on guard against her possible sudden attack.

"Let's go together."

Two times with Rong Lei in a very dangerous environment, Xu Yanke's heart gives birth to a very inexplicable mood, she suddenly wants to run away with Rong Lei safely, instead of leaving him alone.

Because of two misunderstandings, she usually looks at Rong Lei very unpleasant, but today he appeared in time to save his own life, and in order to leave safely, he risked his life to die, which made her feel moved for no reason. From her point of view, Rong Lei's back seemed to grow up in a moment.

"No, Miss Yanke, you go first. They dare not do anything to me. As long as you are safe, I am sure to leave."

Rong Lei says to Xu Yanke that when she is a little distracted, Xu Ting moves forward quietly. She takes a breath secretly. As long as she gets closer, Rong Lei will be within her attack range. Usually, she disguises very well. Everyone who knows her thinks that she is a petite woman and does no harm at all. This is what she can use, Ready to suddenly subdue Rong Lei.

Xu Ting could not have taken such a risk, could let Rong Lei and Xu Yan go, but she and Xu Yan are immortal enemies, so they will never miss the chance to kill her.

When Xu Yanke was about to speak, she saw Xu Ting take a step forward, and her eyes flickered abnormally. She suddenly remembered that on the cruise ship, Xu Ting had a concave tabletop. At that time, she didn't care too much about it. Now when she thinks about it, she feels that Xu Ting is also a dangerous existence, almost subconsciously shouting: "be careful, Xu Ting!"

Rong Lei is worthy of being Jin Zhengting's most effective assistant. At the moment when Xu Yanke makes a sound, he has a reaction and moves his hand holding the grenade backward. At this time, Xu Ting just kicks out. Her goal is Rong Lei's hand holding the grenade.

Thanks to Xu Yanke's warning, Rong Lei will avoid Xu Ting's sneak attack. At this time, Huo Tingchen and Long Jiu are acting at the same time. Their targets are all Rong Lei.

Huo Tingchen's speed is very fast, and Rong Lei focuses almost all his attention on Xu Ting, so he can't hide Huo Tingchen's fist at all.

A burst of broken ribs sound, Huo Tingchen a fist knot solid hit in Rong Lei's rib, Rong Lei whole person all inverted fly out.

His body had just touched the ground, and he had to endure the pain from his ribs. A light knife light flashed over his eyes, which was like the first sunshine in the morning.

Long Jiu's dagger cuts directly at his throat. When he's bound with grenades, he tries to kill him, so that he doesn't have the chance to pull the grenade.

Rong Lei's ribs were broken several times, and his body was on the ground again. Now he couldn't move. He couldn't escape the fatal blow of long Jiu. He even felt the cool touch when the blade cut the skin on his neck.

Long Jiu has a cruel smile in her eyes. She likes to kill people in this way and the pleasure of cutting other people's arteries with a dagger.

But she has forgotten the existence of Xu Yanke. Just when her dagger has cut Rong Lei's skin, she can almost cut off his neck artery. Suddenly there is a deep pain in her wrist. Xu Yanke flies up and kicks her wrist. Then long Jiu hears the sound of his wrist bone breaking.

With a flash of cold light, dragon nine's dagger flew out and nailed to the ceiling, still shaking.

With a successful attack, Xu Yanke gives up chasing long Jiu, turns around and pulls Rong Lei up. He asks with concern: "are you ok?"

"I can't die."

Rong Lei is in a cold sweat. He still sticks to his teeth and doesn't fall down.

"Be careful!"

He suddenly pushed Xu Yanke away and put his body in front of her.

0.1 seconds ago, Xu Ting held the gun, with a ferocious expression on her face, aimed at Xu Yanke, and then pulled the trigger viciously: "Xu Yanke, you go to die!"

Bang, the revolving bullet passes through Rong Lei's left chest, and the powerful impact force bumps his body into Xu Yanke's arms.

Blood splashed out, dripping on the snow-white carpet, just like blossoming plum blossom with life.

Xu Yanke looks at Rong Lei in her arms. She doesn't expect that the man she hates will block the fatal bullet with her body at the critical moment.

"Miss Yanke, are you ok?" Rong Lei's face pale, signs of life in a little dissipation, but the first time to care about Xu Yanke.

"Why are you so stupid?"

Xu Yanke's heart seems to be pinched hard by a pair of invisible hands, and her tears fall involuntarily. She has killed people, and has seen countless deaths, but far less than Rong Lei's impact on her. It was a deep impact on her soul, hitting the deepest soft part of her heart.

"This grenade, take it and leave."

Rong Lei put a grenade in her hand with the last trace of strength, and then quietly closed his eyes.

Huo Tingchen's face shows a cautious look. He sees the tyranny in Xu Yanke's eyes. Xu Yanke has always been afraid of herself, and has never seen her show such eyes when facing herself.

"Huo Tingchen, I want to kill you very much, but Rong Lei still has a weak breath. Let you go for the time being today, and we'll settle our account later!"

Xu Yanke coldly said a word to Huo Tingchen, holding a grenade in one hand, picked up the unconscious Rong Lei, slowly retreated to the elevator entrance, pressed the button, and the elevator door closed quickly.

"Brother, why let them go?" Long Jiu covers the injured wrist and asks fiercely.

Huo Tingchen sighed: "because I don't want to die."

Chapter 404

"You must support me! We'll be at the hospital soon! "

While driving, Xu Yanke speaks loudly to Rong Lei, who is lying unconscious in the co driver's seat. She knows that if he falls asleep, he is unlikely to wake up again.

Rong Lei's current situation is not optimistic. His face is very pale due to excessive blood loss, and his breathing is getting weaker and weaker. Although the wound on his left chest has been treated simply by Xu Yanke, there is still blood gurgling out, and his consciousness is also very vague. Xu Yanke speaks loudly beside him without any reaction.

According to Xu Yanke's experience, his left chest is a penetrating wound. It can be said that the bullet has penetrated Rong Lei's heart. He is not dead now. Maybe it's just because he has strong vitality. Even if he is sent to the hospital, it's hard to save him from such a serious gunshot wound.

But after Xu Yanke drags him to escape, he finds Zhao Tongxin's car for the first time. Then he steps on the accelerator to the bottom and gallops towards the hospital.

Xu Yanke has long been used to the smell of death. When she was still under Huo Tingchen, she was ordered to kill many people. This is the first time that she felt that death was so terrible.

The deepest part of her heart constantly prayed that Rong Lei would not die, because he was in front of her and stopped the bullet that should have threatened her with his body. Now she is full of gratitude to Rong Lei.

Xu Yanke grew up in Huo Tingchen's killer organization. In that dark environment, in order to survive, everyone is selfish and deeply influenced by the people around her. Her character gradually becomes selfish and cold.

Today's behavior of Rong Lei deeply shocked her soul. Now Xu Yanke can't completely understand why he can stand in front of her without fear when facing death, but no one has ever treated her like this.

She only knows that if Rong Lei dies like this, she will feel guilty all her life.

Now the situation is urgent, and she can't bear to think too much. She temporarily suppresses her inner feelings and holds the steering wheel tightly with both hands. She drives the car attentively and keeps super high speed in the rolling traffic.

Rong Lei's mobile phone rings. It's Jin Zhengting. Rong Lei has been out for a long time without any news, so he calls to inquire.

Regardless of the blood in his hands, Xu Yanke grabs Rong Lei's mobile phone and presses the answer button. Jin Zhengting must know about this.

"What's the matter?" When the phone is connected, Jin Zhengting asks in his usual cold and arrogant tone. It is obvious that he is dissatisfied with Rong Lei's lack of news for a long time. According to Rong Lei's usual efficiency, this situation will not happen.

"Zhenɡting, I'm Xu Yanke. Rong Lei is seriously injured. I'm on my way to the hospital!"

Xu Yanke's voice is very anxious. Fortunately, she maintains a certain soberness. She needs Jin Zhengting to help her contact the best doctor in Jiangbin, so she reluctantly explains the current situation.

Jin Zhengting's voice stopped for a moment, then became cold: "Rong Lei is to meet you, how can he get hurt?"

"There's no time to explain now!" Xu Yan didn't know where he had the courage. For the first time, he spoke loudly to Jin Zhengting: "I'm on my way to the hospital now. Can you contact the best surgeon in Jiangbin? He has a gunshot wound and needs immediate surgery! "

Jin Zhengting didn't care about Xu Yanke's attitude. He recognized the seriousness of the situation from her tone. After two quick turns of his brain, he immediately made a decision: "take him to Jiangbin hospital immediately. I will contact Ke Jingteng. When you get to the hospital, he should have been waiting for you in front of the operating table."

"Well, that's it first."

Xu Yanke throws her mobile phone aside. She has only one goal in her eyes, which is Jiangbin hospital. The speed instantly rises to 200. The traffic lights in her eyes have completely turned into air. The red light at the intersection in front of her is on. However, she steps on the accelerator, honks a few short horns and rushes to the hospital. The normal traffic flow is to avoid the red luxury cars rushing out suddenly. However, there were several rear end accidents in a row.

A traffic policeman on duty at a crossroads saw a red luxury car crashing on the road in defiance of traffic rules. He put his motorcycle across the road and asked the driver of the red luxury car to stop.

He never dreamed that the red luxury car not only did not stop, but also accelerated again after running the red light and crossing the intersection. After speeding nearly 200 percent, it directly hit his motorcycle as a roadblock and disappeared in the kilometer like a red lightning.

If the traffic police didn't see that the red luxury car didn't have any signs of braking, and they instinctively took a few steps backward, then the consequence might be that they even crashed into pieces with people and motorcycles.

He wiped a cold sweat and picked up the walkie talkie. He just wanted to call his colleagues on duty at the next intersection to stop the luxury car that almost sent him to the west, but something flashed in his mind.

He subconsciously put down his walkie talkie and thought about it carefully. There was more cold sweat on his forehead. Although the speed of the red luxury car was very fast, he vaguely saw the license plate of the car, so he immediately remembered that the luxury car belonged to Mrs. Jin Zhengting.

These traffic policemen on the street are familiar with the license plates of the wealthy families in Jiangbin, because theoretically speaking, they don't need to abide by the traffic rules when they travel. Once there was a traffic policeman who didn't have a long eye and stopped Yang ziye's car. As a result, the traffic policeman was laid off the next day. The traffic policeman congratulated himself. Fortunately, he didn't call his colleagues. Otherwise, he and his colleagues could not escape the fate of being fired. In the whole city of Jiangbin, Jin Zhengting has even heard the name of deaf people, and everyone knows that he is very fond of his wife. If anyone offends his wife, he will die very ugly.

Even if he's lucky that he hasn't been knocked to death, how dare he pursue the responsibility of the young wife of the Jin family?

Xu Yanke bumps into the traffic police's motorcycle and doesn't mean to stop at all. She continues to skillfully control the car and gallop on the kilometer. Her driving skill is very good, otherwise Jin Zhengting won't trust to give her the task of picking up Zhao Tongxin.

Normally, it takes about an hour to drive from the company to the hospital, but it only took Xu Yanke 15 minutes, and the car with the deformed headlights has stopped at the door of the hospital.

After receiving Jin Zhengting's call, the hospital has medical staff waiting for them at the door. There is no Ke Jingteng in it. You don't have to guess that he has been waiting in the operating room, ready to operate on Rong Lei.

With the help of Xu Yanke, the medical staff carries Rong Lei, who has fallen into a deep coma, onto the operating car. A doctor checks his wound. Xu Yanke sees a desperate expression in the doctor's eyes.

From a doctor's professional point of view, the bullet through Rong Lei's left chest has almost smashed the organs in his left chest through high-speed rotation, and the most important heart will never be spared. Therefore, even if he is still breathing, even if Ke Jingteng, the best surgeon in Jiangbin, does the operation himself, it is difficult to pull him back from the gate of death.

In other words, Rong Lei's persistence to the hospital is regarded as a miracle in the medical history in the eyes of that doctor.

His eyes infuriated Xu Yanke. She grabbed the doctor's collar and said in a cold voice: "don't let me see your hopeless eyes again. If he has any accident, I will dig out your eyes!"

It is undeniable that Xu Yan is a beautiful woman, but her face is covered with Rong Lei's blood, and her face is ferocious when she talks. Even doctors who are used to seeing death can't help shivering and murmuring: "Miss, don't be excited, we will try our best."

"I'm not asking you to do your best, but to save him! Or I'll let you bury him with me! "

Xu Yanke roars to the doctor like crazy, and his legs tremble when she catches the doctor by the collar. He has never seen a beautiful woman's anger so terrible.

Maybe what she said was not to scare them, but to do it. It's strange that not only the doctor, but also all the medical staff present felt this way.

An elderly head nurse has a normal face. She swallowed a mouthful of saliva hard before whispering to Xu Yanke: "Miss, please let go of Dr. Wang first. We need to take the patient to the operating room as soon as possible. The patient's vital signs are very weak. The more time is wasted, the more unfavorable it is for us to rescue him."

After listening to the head nurse's words, Xu Yanke regained some sense. She released her hand and glared at the doctor: "what are you doing in a daze? Send him to the operating room as soon as possible!"

"Oh, OK, come on, push the patient to the first operating room."

Scared silly doctor also back to the soul, hurriedly greet the nurse, will Rong Lei into the operating room.

The light in front of the operating room lights up, indicating that the operation has started. Xu Yanke sits on the bench at the door, holding his head with his hands in chagrin.

She's worried about Rong Lei, and she's wondering why she cares so much about his life and death.

Xu Yanke has never cared about others, and will not worry about anyone. Now he is so nervous that he almost loses his sense, because no one has ever paid for himself like Rong Lei.

She suddenly felt that it was really good for someone to be willing to pay for herself. Growing up in a cold environment, her heart gradually became cold. Although Rong Lei's behavior had nothing to do with her personal feelings, it was like a ray of sunshine, melting the ice in her heart.

Once upon a time, Xu Yanke longed for someone willing to pay for himself. This is a normal girl's dream.

She has been lack of care and love, subconsciously more eager to get these, others have a little good to her, will let her very moved, not to mention Rong Lei is using his life to protect her?

Maybe it's just a touch.

Rong Lei was injured because of her, which awakened the kindness that had been sleeping for a long time in her heart. Therefore, her heart is now filled with extreme guilt. If it wasn't for her intrusion into Huo Tingchen group, she would not have been seen through, and Rong Lei would not have been able to take care of herself, so she would not have been injured.

These complex emotions intertwined together, so that Xu Yanke's heart like what blocked the same repression, and she can do, only silently pray, hope Rong Lei will be OK, even if she knows, Rong Lei is very difficult to survive this pass.

The light in the operating room is still on. Xu Yan doesn't know how long, maybe only a few minutes later, she feels like 10000 years.

It was the first time in her life that she felt like this, the joy of being protected, and the debt to others. Xu Yanke is experiencing the most important change in her life. Maybe from the moment Rong Lei stood in front of her, the ruthless Xu Yanke had completely dissipated along with the trajectory of the bullet.

In other words, Rong Lei washed her soul with her own actions, making her outlook on life and values get a qualitative sublimation.

However, the heavy price paid for this is a result that she can't accept at all.

Chapter 405

There was a sound of footwork in the corridor. She turned her head a little numb. Jin Zhengting with a cold face and Zhao Tongxin with a worried look came, followed by Shaoyuan and Rongqi.

One of the most anxious is Rong Qi. Her eyes are red. As soon as she comes, she catches Xu Yanke and asks, "how's my brother?"

Xu Yanke gets up stiff and shakes her head silently. Although there is only one door, she doesn't know the situation inside. There, Rong Lei and death are fighting.

Jin Zhengting came over and motioned to Rong Qi not to be impatient. Then he said coldly, "how long has Rong Lei been in?"

From his expression, we can see his worry about Rong Lei and his anger.

"I don't know how long he's been in there." Xu Yanke answered mechanically.

"What's going on?" Jin Zhengting's eyes were cold.

Xu Yanke sighed and said the story briefly. Jin Zhengting felt even colder in his eyes and said coldly, "Tong Xin asked you to inquire about the news. Don't you know how dangerous Tianhong Group is? Do you have to break in alone? Don't you understand these things? "

He is really angry. The two most effective assistants who used to follow him are Rong Lei and Qin San. Now Qin San is dead, and Rong Lei's life is uncertain. How can he not be angry?

Qin San died directly in Xu Yanke's hands. Considering that she was under Huo Tingchen's hands at that time, and that she didn't know her life experience at that time, after all, she was his own sister, so Jin Zhengting couldn't put down this matter in his heart and didn't blame her too much.

This time, Rong Lei didn't need to be hurt. It was because Xu Yanke was not careful that he had caused serious consequences. So Jin Zhengting could say that he couldn't bear it for her.

Xu Yanke lowers her head and doesn't dare to look into his eyes. Jin Zhengting is right. Zhao Tongxin asks her to monitor Huo Tingchen's actions. She didn't have to go deep into the Tianhong Group, but she thinks that her technique of face changing is superb, and it won't be dangerous to go there.

She underestimated Huo Tingchen's control over details, so that she exposed herself. Without Rong Lei's help, she could not stand here now.

"Zhengting, don't blame Xu Yanke. I asked her to spy on Huo Tingchen. I'm mainly responsible for this."

Seeing Jin Zhengting really angry, Zhao Tongxin comes forward and says softly that she doesn't want to see Jin Zhengting and Xu Yanke turn against each other. Anyway, Xu Yanke is also his sister.

"You just entered this circle, you can understand that you don't understand the danger, but she's been in the circle for so long, and she's so careless. Now Rong Lei's life and death are uncertain. Do you still think she should be forgiven?"

Jin Zhengting's tone was still severe, but his eyes softened a lot. In a rage, only Zhao Tongxin had the ability to calm him down.

"Now is not the time to investigate the responsibility. We'd better wait here for Rong Lei's operation result."

Zhao Tong heart gently looked at Jin Zhengting, quietly pulled the corner of Xu Yanke's clothes: "the air here is very stuffy, you accompany me out to breathe."

Jin Zhengting's face also eased down. He immediately saw Zhao Tongxin's protection for Xu Yanke. She was afraid that her anger would hurt Xu Yanke.

Zhao Tongxin and Xu Yanke are not harmonious all the time. Jin Zhengting is very clear about their relationship. The reason why she tries her best to help Xu Yanke is that she knows that Xu Yan is her own sister. It's better for them to be harmonious.

Jin Zhengting thought of this and looked more gently at Zhao Tongxin. In order to avoid estrangement between herself and her sister, she let go of her personal grudge with Xu Yanke. In essence, it was for her own sake, which proved her love for him and her special kindness.

"Well, go for a walk. I'll wait for the news here."

Jin Zhengting says lightly that without his command, Shaoyuan and Rong Qi are at the door of the operating room. Rong Lei is Jin Zhengting's most important assistant. No one is sure if Huo Tingchen will send someone to plot against him, so it's better to be on guard.

Knowing that Jin Zhengting understood her meaning, Zhao Tongxin gave him a smile of thanks and walked out of the hospital hall with Xu Yanke.

The afternoon sun is very good, mild sunshine on the body, people feel warm.

Zhao Tongxin and Xu Yanke sit down in the pavilion near the hospital building. Xu Yanke coldly says, "why do you want to rescue me? It's my fault. No matter what punishment the court gives me, I just accept it. You don't need to be a hypocritical person!"

She is very angry now, mainly because she is aggrieved. Even if she does something wrong, Jin Zhengting feels that she is far less important than Rong Lei, which she can't accept.

In the past, as a lover, she couldn't accept that her position in his heart was lower than others. Now, as his sister, although she didn't ask as much as in the past, she didn't want an outsider to be more important than her in Jin Zhengting's heart. His attitude just now proved that although he accepted her identity, he didn't really treat her as his sister, so she was very hurt.

And Rong Lei's current situation also makes her upset, so even if she feels that Zhao Tongxin is defending her, she won't appreciate it, because no matter how it changes, she doesn't like Zhao Tongxin at all. Zhao Tongxin calmly looked at her, not because of her bad attitude and displeasure, light said: "you are wrong, I am not for you, but for the court."

"Cut, childish!"

Xu Yan can disdain the voice, she also know why Zhao Tongxin do so, but still can't help but show his disdain for her this practice.

This is obviously a good chance to hit her. Zhao Tongxin not only gives up, but also protects her. In her opinion, it's a stupid thing.

"You must think I'm stupid, but I want to tell you, you're wrong again."

Zhao Tong blinked his beautiful eyes, as if he could understand every thought of Xu Yanke.

"I was wrong? What's wrong with me?" Xu Yanke asked subconsciously.

Zhao Tong Xin's eyes become very far away: "Xu Yanke, you have never really loved a person, so you will not understand that feeling."

Xu Yan can impatiently said: "you want to say what you say, do not want to say even, don't always say I don't know, OK?"

"To love a person, we should love everything about him, his cold temper, his aloof temperament, and his family."

Zhao Tongxin's voice is very gentle. When he talks about Jin Zhengting, he feels warmer than the warm afternoon sun.

Xu Yan didn't speak. In fact, she didn't understand the feeling of love in Zhao Tong's heart, because she really never loved with her heart.

"You are the sister of Zhengting, and his sister is my sister. Although I don't like you, I can't change this fact, so I will treat you just like other family members in Zhengting."

Zhao Tong heart light said, gentle eyes looking at Xu Yanke, Xu Yanke first found her eyes are so pure and holy.

"We are a family. I don't want to see a family conflict and hate each other, because this is not the family I want, so I will try my best to maintain the relationship between you."

Xu Yanke lowered his head to think about it, and said thoughtfully: "I seem to understand what you mean. Is this love and love?"

Zhao Tong Xin nodded and said: "it can be said that, because I give all my love to Zhengting. The people who are important to him are also the people I care about."

"Important?"

Xu Yanke laughed at himself: "if I am important to him, I will not be angry. I am also very dangerous in Huo Tingchen's company. He didn't even say a word about me, did he?"

"Xu Yanke, you have to make it clear that when Zhengting came to the company, he didn't see you. He immediately asked me where you were. When he learned that you were monitoring Huo Tingchen and he didn't come back, he immediately asked Rong Lei to meet you. Do you think he didn't care about you? Don't forget, Rong Lei is his best assistant. "

"Really?" Xu Yanke raised his head in disbelief, and his eyes flashed with strange brilliance.

Zhao Tongxin nodded: "of course, it's true. I think if Rong Lei didn't show up in time, you would have been in danger. The court is angry with you because Rong Lei is very important to him. You should know how many years they have cooperated with each other. Their relationship is not as simple as the relationship between the boss and subordinates. When Rong Lei has an accident, his tension is normal. "

"why do you say this to me?" Xu Yanke frowned and thought for a while, then suddenly asked.

Zhao Tongxin said: "because I don't want you to misunderstand the court does not care about you, he is just not very good at expression."

"Well, I know. I won't think that again." Xu Yanke didn't even think of himself, so he was easily convinced by Zhao Tongxin. Maybe this is the most special part of Zhao Tongxin. There is a kind of affinity, or a unique charm. People can't help believing her.

She is a trustworthy person, because she has a kind heart.

"I can see that you are very nervous, Rong Lei."

Zhao Tongxin looks at Xu Yanke and says that this is the main purpose for her to call Xu Yanke out for conversation, because she can see from Xu Yanke's expression that Xu Yanke is very remorseful and guilty, which is not a normal emotion, so she wants to help Xu Yanke solve this knot.

She really doesn't like Xu Yanke, but as she said, after all, Xu Yan is Jin Zhengting's sister. As his wife, she feels that she has the responsibility to help Xu Yanke, which has nothing to do with her personal grudges.

"In your words, you won't understand what I think."

Xu Yanke coldly said that she is not used to expressing her inner thoughts to others, which is an innate resistance.

"I know that Rong Lei was hurt in order to save you. Maybe no one has ever treated you before. Should you be moved by his behavior? Then you think it's because of your own reasons that he got hurt, so your heart is full of guilt, right? "

Zhao Tongxin's eyes are deep. She cleverly thinks of Xu Yanke's life experience and guesses the key.

Xu Yan Ke was stunned: "how do you know what I think?"

"Every TV play is like this. When bad people get better, they will experience this process. If you have nothing to do, watch more TV plays." Zhao Tong heart light answer.

Xu Yan can subconsciously nod, suddenly understand, stare at Zhao Tong heart: "you say I'm a bad man is a few meanings?"

"It's not interesting. Do you think you used to be a good man?" Zhao Tong Xin stares back impolitely and makes a counterattack at the same time.

"Zhao Tongxin, don't think that if you help me, I will appreciate you. You and I will never be friends!"

Xu Yanke raised her voice, which attracted the patients who were exposed to the sun in the afternoon. They had never seen the scene of two beautiful women quarreling, one by one like a curious baby.

"What are you looking at? Put your head back on the ground

Xu Yanke's hands akimbo, staring at a pair of beautiful eyes, fierce momentum of the crowd are scared away.

"And say you're not a bad person?" Zhao Tongxin said sarcastically.

"I'm a bad person. What can you do to me? Bite me? "

Xu Yanke shows her usual ferocious look, but her mood is much better now. She knows that all this is in Zhao Tongxin's calculation.

Chapter 406

"Well, since someone is in a good mood, it's time for us to go back."

Zhao Tong Xin saw the depression on Xu Yanke's face subsided a lot and got up to leave.

"Hey, we used to be mortal enemies. Why are we so nice to me now?" Xu Yanke stops her and asks.

Zhao Tong Xin smiles: "it's not that I want to be nice to you, it's because you are a relative of Zhengting. As I said, you won't understand my feelings for Zhengting. I hope everything about him is happy."

Xu Yanke showed a smile like nothing: "I think I will understand it soon."

As she spoke, there was a heart-shaped red crystal in her hand, flowing soft light in the sun, and her eyes became soft.

At this time, Xu Yanke's heart seems to have a little more inexplicable feelings. She suddenly believes that Rong Lei will be OK, because she has the impulse to give this red crystal to him.

Maybe it's just because Rong Lei is the first person to be nice to her, but that's enough.

Red crystal, a symbol of love.

They came to the door of the operating room. The light of the operating room was still on. Jin Zhengting was standing at the door. His tall and straight figure pulled out a great figure under the light of the corridor.

"No news yet?"

Zhao Tong Xin took his arm and asked softly. She knew that at this time, he needed her comfort. Although it was just a simple and subtle action, it was enough.

"Well, not yet. It should be a long time, but I believe Rong Lei will be fine."

Jin Zhengting's eyebrows are deeply locked. He is worried about Rong Lei's current situation, but he is also optimistic about his injury. Jin Zhengting believes that he will survive.

At this time, the doctor who was roared by Xu Yanke just passed by the operating room. Seeing Jin Zhengting, he immediately nodded and said, "Mr. Jin, are you here?"

Jin Zhengting faintly said, "Rong Lei, you sent him to the operating room?"

"Yes, you told me to wait at the door with the rescue team. Mr. Rong Lei was also sent to the operating room by me."

The doctor flatters that there is a merit inviting element in it.

Jin Zhengting frowned slightly at the doctor's performance. He didn't like this kind of spineless man, and asked with disdain: "how was his condition at that time?"

The doctor didn't know why Jin always changed his face. He thought he was worried about Rong Lei's safety. However, thinking of the serious wound on Rong Lei's left chest, he sighed with a crocodile sigh: "Mr. Jin, you should be prepared. When Mr. Rong Lei was sent here, his left chest was punctured. I checked his wound on the way to the operating room, and it was 5.76mm You are a military family. You should know the power of this kind of bullet and the position of the left chest is the heart. I'm afraid that even if Dr. Ke Jingteng personally performed the operation, it would be difficult for you to return to heaven. "

As soon as he spoke, Xu Yanke's fists and his nose had a very close contact one by one. The doctor obviously didn't practice it. He was directly hit by her and flew far away. He hit the wall heavily and fell on the hard floor. The injured nose gave the floor a kiss again.

The doctor's throat made a special sound, his eyes turned white and dry, and he fainted. He may not know that his nose has become the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

Jin Zhengting doesn't feel strange about Xu Yanke's sudden move. He takes a light look at the angry Xu Yanke and says, "you're right. I hate people with crow beaks, too."

After hearing the news, he rushed to the hospital and saw the boss's sister beat a doctor unconscious. He didn't feel anything abnormal. Two men in black dragged the doctor away, and another man in black soon cleaned up the blood on the floor.

Boss doesn't like dirty environment, they show high cleaning efficiency.

I don't know how long it took for everyone to wait, but Rong Qi and Xu Yan were the hardest.

Jin Zhengting always keeps calm, but his forehead is covered with sweat. Zhao Tongxin always accompanies him, forcefully holds his arm, and tells him that she is by his side.

Finally, the light in the operating room went out, Ke Jingteng came out from inside with a tired face, and he could see that he had done his best for the operation.

"Jingteng, how is he?"

Jin Zhengting asked faintly, but there was a trace of anxiety in his eyes. Rong Lei is very important to him, not only because Rong Lei is his most effective subordinate, but also because of their deep friendship.

Ke Jingteng took a deep breath for three times before calming down. He took a look at Jin Zhengting and said with relief: "according to common sense, even immortals can't save him. It's impossible to recover from such a serious gunshot wound. Your assistant's heart is different from ordinary people. Others grow on the left, but his is on the right, so that's the reason The bullet only injured his lung lobes and did not endanger his heart. After surgical treatment, he is now basically out of danger, but still has to be observed in the ICU ward for 24 hours. "When people heard Ke Jingteng say this, they were relieved, especially Xu Yanke and Rong Qi. They hesitated and were too nervous just now, and now they both feel soft.

"Jingteng, this time you specially took the time to help my man with the operation. I have written down the favor."

Jin Zhengting didn't have the habit of thanking others. He just patted Ke Jingteng on the shoulder and said faintly.

Maybe Jin Zhengting's strength was too great. Ke Jingteng grinned with pain, followed by an obvious shock, and gave him a white look: "Zhengting, I've been standing in front of the operating table for more than three hours, and now I'm about to collapse. I can't bear your strength. Please invite me to dinner another day. I need to rest now."

"Well, certainly."

Ke Jingteng waved to him and dragged his tired body away. He knew the importance of Rong Lei to Jin Zhengting, so in the more than three hours of operation time, he never relaxed. So after the operation, he was quite tired, so he just wanted to have a rest and slow down his nervous tension for a long time.

"If Rong Lei is OK, Zhengting, you've been out of the group for a long time. Now Huo Tingchen has started to take action against us. You'd better go back to the company to deal with things quickly. It's good to have Rong Qi here."

Zhao Tong Xin put down her heart. She nestled in Jin Zhengting's arms and said softly.

Jin Zhengting looked at her watch and said to her in a gentle voice, "well, I'll go back first, and you'll go back to the company first. I'm still here with me so long after I'm pregnant. I'll have a good rest after I go back. I'll pick you up in the evening."

Zhao Tong Xin shook his head: "Zhengting, I may not go home tonight. Huo Tingchen handed over the newly opened jewelry company to Xu Ting and Xu Zheng. They made a plan to reduce the price today. I may be very busy tonight. You know, I don't have much experience in shopping malls. I haven't thought of a way to deal with it yet."

Jin Zhengting's eyebrows wrinkled: "didn't you promise me that you would not let yourself tired?"

"Don't worry, I won't let myself be very tired. It's my duty. I don't want people in the company to see their president lazy. It will be hard for them to lead at that time."

Zhao Tong Xin gave him a reassuring smile, said gently to him, but his eyes were firm.

"Well, well, don't stay up late at night. I'll make an appointment with ziye and zhanyan later. I'll call you when I'm busy in the evening."

Jin Zhengting knew Zhao Tongxin's insistence, so he didn't force her. He just told her to pay attention to her body. He also called Shaoyuan: "look at Zhao Tongxin, don't let her be too tired."

Baoyuan patted her chest and assured her: "boss, you can rest assured. I have accumulated rich experience when I was pregnant, and I promise to take good care of my pupils."

"Well, I'll go first."

Jin Zhengting said, domineering over Zhao Tongxin, in her forehead deep kiss down, in full view of the public forced to show a wave of love, to Zhao Tongxin show a charming smile, and then left the hospital.

Huo Tingchen is a serious trouble after all. Jin Zhengting must concentrate all his energy to deal with his aggressive situation.

Zhao Tongxin's pretty face was flushed. Although she was used to Jin Zhengting's show of love in public, she was a little embarrassed in the face of these acquaintances. The little woman's coquettish manner made her more moving.

"Tong Xin, the relationship between you and boss is very good. After so many years of marriage, how do you keep your love fresh? Don't hide your experience. Teach me, too. "

Shaoyuan touches Zhao Tong's heart and blinks her round eyes. She pretends to ask seriously. It seems that she is in a good mood to learn that Rong Lei is out of danger.

"Spoon, I have no secret of how to keep the freshness of love. However, I have a lot of experience on how to write market reports and plans. Don't worry. You don't have to go home tonight. I will tell you everything when you work overtime in the company."

Zhao Tong Xin said with a straight face, but the tone of ridicule was also very obvious.

Shaoyuan's face changed immediately. She looked at Zhao Tongxin pitifully and said, "Tongxin, how does our company say that we can work overtime? My children are waiting for me to take care of them. "

"I think not only your children, but also your Chen Dong, spoon?"

Seeing the appearance of the spoon garden, Zhao Tongxin finally couldn't help laughing. He gently pushed the spoon garden and said with a smile.

Spoon garden white her one eye: "Tong Xin, I am so heavy color light friend's person?"

Zhao Tong Xin looked at her, and then nodded seriously: "spoon, according to my understanding of you, you are."

Without waiting for Shaoyuan to answer, she said to Xu Yanke and Rong Qi, "this is up to you. Huo Tingchen may send someone to come. You should be careful. The court has sent someone to protect them. They are under your command."

"It's OK to have Xu Yanke here. I'll still work in the company. I'm more needed there."

Rong Qi looks at Xu Yanke and says faintly that her brother is OK and she is relieved. Now she is more worried about the situation of the company. As a member of the company's core leadership team, she knows that the company is in a very unfavorable situation and needs her help at this time."Well, Xu Yanke, I'll leave it to you." Zhao Tong thought, or agreed to Rong Qi's request.

Xu Yanke confidently said: "no problem, I can't help the company. Things here are OK."

Her attitude to Zhao Tongxin is much better, not blindly contradicting.

"Well, let's go back. It's getting late. Hurry up and call a meeting of the company's executives."

Zhao Tong heart pulled a spoon Garden: "good spoon, for your children's milk powder money, it is time for you to work hard."

"This is the second. I'd like to know how you can see the nature of my preference for friends?" Spoon garden blinked innocent big eyes, murmured in a low voice.

Zhao Tong heart smile didn't speak, Xu Yan can in the side took a: "look."

Spoon garden surprised to cover mouth: "God, am I really born with a charming face?"

Chapter 407

"Dear colleagues, today's turnover is 80% lower than yesterday's. do you have any views on this matter?"

Jewelry company president's office, executive roundtable meeting is in progress, Zhao Tong heart holding a market research department just sent a report, said to the company executives present.

The serious decline in turnover is what she expected, which is the direct result of the unfair competition of Tianhong jewelry company.

After all, the newly established jewelry company has lowered the price of its products to 50% of the market price, which is a killing figure. No jewelry company in Jiangbin can bear the impact of this price. In a short day, dozens of small jewelry companies went bankrupt.

This is not the most serious problem. After the bankruptcy of these small companies, Tianhong jewelry company bought them at a very low price. In the long run, it is only a matter of time before they monopolize the jewelry market in Jiangbin.

"President, can we follow the example of Tianhong jewelry company and try to buy those bankrupt small jewelry companies at a low price? If we buy the companies that Tianhong jewelry company wanted to buy, at least we can break their monopoly on the jewelry market?"

One executive thought for a moment and raised his hand to speak.

As soon as his voice fell, someone immediately said, "it's too unrealistic, not to mention whether our company has sufficient funds to acquire. Even if we succeed in the acquisition, it's impossible to sell products at a price lower than 50% of the market price like Tianhong jewelry company. Moreover, according to reliable information, they will reduce the price to 30% of the normal price in the next few days. By then, we will be able to make a decision The more we buy, the more we lose. "

"Yes, now it's not the problem of preventing them from expanding their scale, but the problem of unfair competition with super low prices. If our company sells products at the same price as them, it's impossible for us to hold on for a few days."

Some senior executives agree that the problem facing them now is that the company can't afford to sell at ultra-low prices, so it can't prevent Tianhong jewelry company from monopolizing the market acquisition. The more Tianhong jewelry company purchases, the larger the scale, and the more serious the low price dumping on the market. This seems to be an unsolved cycle.

"There is only one way to solve the current crisis of the company, that is to reduce the finished products. I think the reason why Tianhong jewelry company can sell its products at a price more than 50% lower than the market price is that they must have an extremely cheap source of raw materials. As long as we can do this, Tianhong jewelry company has no advantage over us with its reputation in the industry It can be said that we can even take the initiative in the market. "

A senior executive with a long-term vision made a speech, which was recognized by the public. However, the problem lies in how to find super cheap raw materials.

These people have been immersed in the jewelry industry for many years, and they have never heard of a source of raw materials 50% lower than the normal price, so the meeting once again fell into deadlock.

"Well, Mr. Zhao, can I say something?"

A weak voice came from an unremarkable corner. When people looked in the past, they saw that the little security guard who had been guarding at the gate of the company building a few days ago and met everyone with a smile, but now he is a little horse who has rocketed up to the management level of the company.

A lot of people look at Xiaoma with disdain. They don't agree with Xiaoma's joining the management. They are just gatekeepers. They get their present position just because they flatter president Zhao. They always look like a wimp. Few of these senior executives look up to him.

Some people with dark stomach secretly speculate whether Zhao Tongxin and he have any legitimate concern. The look at the pony is even more strange. What's good about this boy? He is not as good as himself. Why does Zhao always favor such a stupid boy instead of himself?

Zhao Tongxin kept encouraging smile, raised his hand and said: "Xiaoma, this is the regular meeting of the company's management. Everyone has the right to express their opinions. As long as it is good for the company, I will listen to it modestly."

Encouraged by Zhao Tongxin, Xiaoma showed a moving look. He stood up submissively, and the suit that didn't fit him greatly reduced his image. Many people's eyes changed from disdain to ridicule.

Xiao Ma cleared his throat and said carefully: "Mr. Zhao, when I was studying arts with my master, I went to Southeast Asia and stayed there for several years. I am very familiar with the environment there. I know that there are several mountains that produce jade and emerald raw stones. Moreover, the local people don't regard these raw stones as wealth. They even use these raw stones as raw materials for building toilets, if we can find them It doesn't cost much to produce raw stone in a mine to get high-quality raw stone. I think the company we are competing with can get raw materials from those places, right

As an elite member of the jewelry industry, all of you know that Southeast Asia is rich in jade and emerald raw stones, and the company controls several well-known raw stone minerals, but you have never heard of anyone who regards raw stones as ordinary building materials. Almost all of you have expressed strong doubts about Xiao Ma's words and think that he is making an uproar It's just a favor. Only Zhao Tongxin and Shaoyuan look at each other. They all think that the pony is not lying. Rong Qi is not good at this, so she won't express any opinions.

Zhao Tongxin raised his hand to signal everyone to be quiet, and then asked the Pony: "do you remember the specific location of those places of origin?"

The pony scratched his head and thought for a long time before he said, "I used to be taken by my master. Now my master is gone. I can't say exactly where he is, but I want to throw me back into the mountains. I can find it."

"Well, all colleagues, today's meeting will be held here first. When you go back, you can sum it up well and give me a feasibility report tomorrow. Let's finish the meeting."

After getting the important information from Xiaoma, Zhao Tongxin announced the end of the meeting. She keenly felt that the authenticity of Xiaoma's statement about the origin of the original stone was very great, and she didn't know much about the company's management. She couldn't discuss such an important matter in public, because she knew that Huo Tingchen was all pervasive, so it was better to only know within the team for the time being.

People think that Zhao Tongxin doesn't care about what the pony says. This is what a normal person should react to. With Yuyuan stone base toilet, only those whose brains have been pinched by the door believe it.

Xiaoma follows those senior executives and walks out of the meeting room slowly. However, he accidentally sees Shaoyuan winking at him and telling him not to leave.

He is very smart to understand the eyes of the spoon garden, and so on the last executive to attend the meeting out of the president's office, he quickly closed the door, and locked up.

At this time, Rong Qi stood up and carefully checked every part of the office, even the flowerpot and carpet, to ensure that there was no eavesdropping and monitoring equipment in the whole office.

After getting the affirmative answer, Rong Qi nods to Zhao Tongxin, and then moves a chair to sit at the door, listening to whether someone is eavesdropping outside.

"Pony, tell me more about what you just said." When everything was ready, Shaoyuan let the pony sit down and said to him.

Xiao Ma has a good impression of Shaoyuan. Although he yelled at him when he first met him, he also knew that it was an emergency. Later, on the cruise ship and during this period of time, he found that Shaoyuan was an approachable person. Of course, it was not as good as his general manager Zhao.

"I am an orphan. I have no parents since I was a child. I was adopted by an old man who didn't want to tell me his name. He is a very powerful master of thousands of schools. He took me wandering around when I remember things and taught me some skills by the way. We have been floating outside for many years, visited many places and suffered a lot."

Pony immersed in his memories, eyes closed, seems to enjoy the experience of wandering the world with master.

The spoon garden patted the table: "boy, say the point!"

Xiaoma then came back to reality from the memory. He scratched his head awkwardly: "sorry, manager spoon, I thought a little too much just now. It was when I was 15 years old. The master took me to Southeast Asia. You should know that there are many casinos there. The master took me to see the world and get some money from the casinos by the way, but we don't have a visa, so we can't go through the customs So we have to smuggle out from the border. "

Shaoyuan's face showed a look of impatience. Maybe she was used to being with Chen Dong, and she didn't like the man who was a mother in law. But Zhao Tongxin motioned her not to interrupt, and poured a glass of water to the pony.

The pony was flattered and took a drink before he continued: "at that time, when we crossed the border, we lost our way and had nothing to eat. It was very late. The master took me around the mountain for midnight and finally found a small mountain stronghold. We went to the mountain stronghold for a night. The next day, when we were ready to leave, the master found the stronghold They all use emerald stones as building materials. After inquiring, they know that there are such stones all over the nearby mountains. They don't know it's a gem, they just think it's a better looking stone. "

Zhao Tong thought and asked, "if we go to the border again, can you still find that place?"

With a proud smile: "Mr. Zhao, actually I didn't forget that place at all. It's just that there were many people just now. I'm not sure if there were spies sent by the company that competed with us, so I didn't dare to say."

Shaoyuan chuckled and punched the Pony: "I can't see it, but you are very smart!"

Xiaoma grinned: "the business of general manager Zhao is my business. If it's me, I don't want others to know such a secret."

"Pony, with your help this time, the company will not be defeated by its rivals."

Zhao Tong Xin looked at the pony with a grateful look, and then said to Shaoyuan, "this matter matters a lot. It seems that we have to go to the border of Southeast Asia in person."

Shaoyuan was surprised: "Tong Xin, now that you are pregnant, how can you cross the unmanned border in the alpine jungle? If something happens, how can I explain it to the boss? There is absolutely no discussion. "

"Yes, Mr. Zhao, just stay in the company. Just send a few people to follow me. The aborigines there are very unfriendly to foreigners. Conflicts may break out at any time. It's too dangerous for you to go." Xiaoma is also helping. He just doesn't want Zhao Tongxin to be in danger.

"No, I don't trust anyone about the raw materials. I have to go and have a look in person. Not many of Chen Dong's people have nothing to do now. Let them go with us. If they can find the original stone, they can also help guard it. It's better to cooperate with us."

Zhao Tong Xin thinks that Chen Dong has nothing to do recently, which can help him find a way to make money. After all, Shaoyuan is one of his best friends.

"Tong Xin, thank you, but I can't be the master. Only with the boss's consent can I promise you to go."

Shaoyuan is very grateful to Zhao Tongxin for her consideration, but Jin Zhengting has to make up his mind about this matter, because if there is a contingency, no one can afford his anger.

Chapter 408

Night, Tianhong jewelry company, President's office.

"It took us only one day to win half of the Jiangbin jewelry market. You two have done a very good job. Here, I would like to thank you."

Huo Tingchen raised a glass of red wine and said with a smile to Xu Zheng and Xu Ting sitting opposite him that he was in a good mood, because even he didn't expect that Xu Zheng's strategy worked so fast, and the effect looked particularly ideal.

He thought that when he touched on Jin Zhengting's core industry, there must be some overt and covert fighting, and even subconsciously prepared himself for being at a disadvantage. What he didn't expect was that Jin Zhengting didn't seem to make any moves, and he had a completely laissez faire attitude towards him.

Although he feels that things will not be as simple as they seem, he is still happy. After fighting with Jin Zhengting for so long, it seems that he has never been so dominant as today.

Huo Tingchen can't help but look at Xu Zheng differently. If he hadn't told himself that there are extremely cheap raw stones in the mountainous areas of Southeast Asia, he would not have kept the price of jewelry so low. Compared with Jin Zhengting's jewelry company, he would still be in a disadvantage.

Xu Zheng sipped a sip of red wine, then put down his glass and said faintly, "Mr. Huo, I just had an idea. If it wasn't for your strong strength, it would be impossible to control several original stone producing areas in the mountains of Southeast Asia in a few days. Therefore, it is Mr. Huo's credit to achieve so much."

Xu Ting looks at her cousin with a smile, secretly proud of her decision. She just takes a fancy to the advantages of Xu zhengduomou, so she wants to draw him over to help her. At present, the attack on Zhao Tongxin is very effective.

From the wide window of her office, Zhao Tongxin's office is still on. It can be seen that she must be worried about her jewelry company's serious impact on her market.

As long as Zhao Tong feels pain, it's the happiest thing for her.

"Xu Zheng, what do you think we should do next?"

Huo Tingchen's Phoenix eyes, with an imperceptible smile, humbly asks Xu Zheng for advice. He doesn't mind lowering his posture to deal with Jin Zhengting. He needs Xu Zheng.

"I think so."

Xu Zheng said thoughtfully: "today, at least a dozen small jewelry companies feel our strong strength, know that it is impossible to compete with us, and declare bankruptcy decisively. I think those are smart people. If they keep dragging on, the longer the loss, the greater. I think with the first group of people as an example, more companies will choose to close down or change production tomorrow, Then our chance will come. "

Huo Tingchen showed a strong interest in Xu Zheng's words: "Oh? What opportunities do we have? "

Xu Zheng smiles. He knows that Huo Tingchen can't see it. This is just a test of his eyesight, but he doesn't mind. Huo Tingchen wants to use him to deal with Jin Zhengting. If he doesn't show any strength, Huo Tingchen will not trust him to give the jewelry company to him and Xu ting.

Xu Zheng doesn't mind Huo Tingchen using him, because he also takes Jin Zhengting as his goal.

"Mr. Huo, isn't the group very well funded? We can buy those small companies at a lower price after they declare bankruptcy, and then become the branch of our company. This is conducive to the spread of the company's industry. Once the scale of the network is formed, it will be very difficult for Jin Zhengting to deal with the company again. "

Huo Tingchen nodded with a smile and continued to ask, "you don't just think about this, do you? Xu Zheng, I've always been very optimistic about you. I didn't blame you when I failed in the arms trade last time, because I know that an occasional mistake is not enough to cover up your wisdom. "

The meaning of his words is very deep. First, he affirmed Xu Zheng's smart mind. Second, he reminded Xu Zheng that he was working for Huo Tingchen, so don't try to hide him. Finally, he warned Xu Zheng that it would be easy if he wanted to move him.

Xu Zheng's eyes flashed a little strange, and soon recovered calm. He said with a smile: "Mr. Huo, of course I have a longer-term plan, but before I say it, I want to listen to Mr. Huo's plan."

Huo Tingchen put down his glass, looked at Xu Zheng for a while, then laughed: "you and I all know that the jewelry industry is Jin Zhengting's pillar industry, and now his jewelry business is managed by Zhao Tongxin. She is a smart woman, but she is not so good at business, so I decided to concentrate on seizing the jewelry market After all, she is easier to deal with than Jin Zhengting. "

"Mr. Huo's choice of this breakthrough is really right. Jin Zhengting's business empire is like a piece of steel plate. It's hard to start from other industries. Zhao Tongxin is the only weakness of Jin Zhengting group."

Xu Zheng agreed that if he had to choose, he would be the same as Huo Tingchen.

"At that time, my consideration was to seize the jewelry market in Jiangbin, squeeze Jin Zhengting's business space, and attract his attention to this industry. At that time, I can use the jewelry industry to restrain him. With you and Cheng mobing, it is difficult for him to shift his attention to other places. Then I can get out of the business and use the capital of Tianhong Group to enter the jewelry market Real estate in junjiangbin city. "Huo Tingchen's eyes are shining with excitement. This is the blueprint he has planned for a long time. Once he wanted to do this, but he didn't have the capital to compete with Jin Zhengting. However, when he changed into Cheng Mohan, the president of Tianhong Group, his grand wish will be realized.

"I know that Huo always thinks so, because Jin Zhengting's second largest industry in Jiangbin is real estate. If he is defeated in these two industries at the same time, Jin Zhengting will not have a chance to turn over. Mr Huo, am I right?"

Xu Zheng's eyes with an inexplicable smile, light looking at Huo Tingchen said.

Huo Tingchen always felt that his smile was unnatural, as if he was mocking himself, which made him feel a kind of offense in his heart, and his tone was a little cold: "why, don't you think my plan is perfect?"

"Mr. Huo, your plan is really good, but you've missed three points."

This is the second time that Xu Zheng cooperates with Huo Tingchen. He has a certain understanding of his temper. He knows that Huo Tingchen will lose his basic reason when he is crazy, but he is very calm at ordinary times. That's why he uses this attitude to communicate with Huo Tingchen.

"Oh? Tell me, what three points have I missed? "

As Xu Zheng expected, Huo Tingchen's face showed a cautious expression. Every step of his action is related to the revenge plan, so he is not willing to make any mistakes. Every negligence can be fatal, let alone three points?

He doesn't think that Xu Zheng is alarmist, so he is given the opportunity to speak. Otherwise, under normal circumstances, if someone looks at him with sarcastic eyes in person, he doesn't mind digging out that person's eyes.

"First of all, Mr. Huo neglected Jin Zhengting's two allies, Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan. Although their strength is not as good as Jin Zhengting, they are also a big family of Jiangbin. They have objective capital in their hands. When you and Jin Zhengting are fighting hard, they are likely to break the balance. At that time, Mr. Huo will lose miserably."

Huo Tingchen's face changed. He was really negligent. Jin Zhengting had two best friends beside him. He took a look at Xu Zheng and motioned him to go on.

"Secondly, you seem to have forgotten Jin's military background. He can always use his background to achieve what he wants. Although Mr. Huo is nominally the head of the Cheng family, he is just a puppet. All your actions are subject to the orders of the Cheng family. By comparison, Mr. Huo is at an absolute disadvantage."

Huo Tingchen nodded involuntarily. He did have this concern. Although he controlled Tianhong Group, he was far from covering the sky with only one hand. Even the housekeeper of Cheng family, Zhao Si, could tell what to do. He couldn't bear it, but he couldn't.

"Finally, there is a big defect in your plan, that is, it takes too long. Real estate is indeed an industry that can completely destroy Jin Zhengting. However, Mr. Huo seems to have overlooked the cycle required for real estate. If you first obtain the competitive advantage of the jewelry industry, and then go into real estate, it will almost give Jin Zhengting three to five years' breathing space The rest time. When he recovers, we are likely to be the ones who have bad luck. "

After Xu Zheng's words, Huo Tingchen's pupils suddenly contracted, which he had never thought of. After Xu Zheng's words, his heart suddenly trembled, and each of the three points he ignored might destroy all his hopes.

"Xu Zheng, your analysis is very good. I wonder if you have a countermeasure?"

Huo Tingchen's mood is very complex, but his face is still calm. He can't let anyone see his guilty heart.

"I think Mr. Huo should adjust your plan properly. Now that we have established ourselves in the jewelry market in Jiangbin, we should first strengthen our defense line instead of rushing to face Jin Zhengting."

Xu Zheng confidently said that today's he is totally different from usual, even his eyes are shining with wisdom.

"But cousin, we finally forced Zhao Tongxin to the end of the road. Can we just let her go?"

Xu Ting listen to Xu Zheng said, it seems to have to stop at this point, she also ignored the usual disguise, anxious to interrupt.

Xu Zheng takes a complicated look at Xu Ting. He knows what she's thinking. If possible, he would prefer two cousins to get along with each other peacefully. However, it's very difficult to see the situation, so after some choices, he finally makes a choice.

He waved to Xu Ting to be calm and continued: "no, I don't want to stop, but we need to consolidate our position first, because we seem to have the advantage, but as long as Jin Zhengting launches a counterattack, we will lose quickly. Don't forget that he is deeply rooted in Jiangbin and has a deep background."

"Xu Zheng, do you mean that we should give up competing for other markets for the time being and just control the jewelry industry?" Huo Tingchen's eyes flashed. He was a man of high intelligence. He understood what Xu Zheng meant.

Xu Zheng was rather cold, Jin replied: "yes, as long as we firmly control the jewelry industry, no matter what the situation is in the future, we will have a foothold in Jiangbin.""And then?" Huo Tingchen's face flashed a trace of imperceptible insidious, quietly continued to ask.

"It depends on how brave Huo is." Xu Zheng looked at Huo Tingchen and said faintly.

Huo Tingchen's pupils contracted again: "what do you mean?"

"If Mr. Huo is brave enough, he will go to Jiangbin and take control of the Cheng family. Otherwise, all our ideas will be unrealistic."

Huo Tingchen is silent. Xu Zheng is right. If he wants to concentrate, he must clear the obstacle of the Cheng family, but he is not ready to take risks.

Chapter 409

"Mr. Huo, if we can't get control of the Cheng family, we can't deal with Jin Zhengting. In the end, we will lose to him, so now it's time for you to make a decision."

Xu Zheng said expressionless, looking at Huo Tingchen's reaction from time to time.

Huo Tingchen has a complicated look on his face. He seems to be engaged in a fierce ideological struggle in his heart. After all, this is a risky decision. He can't help but be cautious.

After a long time, Huo Tingchen seems to have made up his mind and clapped his hand heavily on the table: "OK, then follow your plan. I will leave here to Jiangdong city recently."

Xu Zheng took a drink from his glass, shrugged and said, "as for Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan, they rely on each other with Jin Zhengting, and it's hard to break them one by one. Mr. Huo needs to plan well. There's nothing I can do about this."

"Why, you won't help me?" Huo Tingchen asked coldly.

"No, you misunderstand me. It's not that I don't want to help you, but how to use other people's weaknesses is Mr. Huo's strength. How to use their weaknesses, I think Mr. Huo is more professional than me."

Huo Tingchen looked at Xu Zheng for a long time. At last, with a smile, he stood up and said, "OK, thank you for your opinion. I'll come here first today. I have something else to do. I'll go first."

"No, Mr. Huo."

Looking at Huo Tingchen's back disappearing outside the door, Xu Ting asked Xu Zheng: "cousin, how do I feel that you are different today?"

Xu Zheng laughed: "cousin, can't you see that Huo Tingchen is just using us? If I don't show some real skills, he won't trust us. "

Xu Ting's eyes turned a few times: "cousin, what do you mean?"

"Cousin, do you really just want Huo Tingchen to help you deal with Zhao Tongxin Xu Zheng looks at Xu Ting with a smile on his face.

Xu Ting's face slightly changed, and immediately made a coquettish appearance: "cousin, how can you say that people do, before it was really this purpose, I contacted Huo Tingchen, at that time only he had the strength, but since I met a person, I found that she was more suitable to cooperate with me than Huo Tingchen."

Xu Zheng gently touched Xu Ting's head: "is that the third miss of Cheng family, Cheng mobing?"

Xu Ting knew he could guess, but she pretended to be surprised: "cousin, how do you know?"

Xu Zheng said with a smile: "because she not only looked for you, but also for me. Do you really think I am smart enough to see everything clearly? What I said just now was all taught by Cheng mobing."

Xu Ting's eyes kept flashing, and then asked in the tone of a little girl who was not familiar with the world: "what's the purpose of her doing this? Isn't she already cooperating with Huo Tingchen? "

Xu Zheng thought about it and said, "I think she used Huo Tingchen to deal with the old lady of the Cheng family. That's why she came up with this trick. She knew that if she put it forward, Huo Tingchen would doubt it. That's why she wanted to say it out of my mouth. In this way, Huo Tingchen would not suspect that she was behind the back."

"It makes sense, but cousin, why do you agree to cooperate with Cheng mobing instead of Huo Tingchen?"

Xu Ting has guessed the reason why Xu Zheng made the choice, or pretended to know nothing, in order to hide her intelligence.

Xu Zheng didn't doubt her at all. He explained, "it's inevitable. Do you think Huo Tingchen will let the Xu family go after he defeated the Jin family? He is a very ambitious man. Maybe after he defeated Jin Zhengting, all the big families in Jiangbin can't escape from him. Instead of choosing to cooperate with a person who threatens himself at any time, it's better to choose a safe person to cooperate. As long as it's in our interests and we get what we want. "

"Well, cousin, you're smart."

Xu Ting sweet smile, complimenting Xu Zheng, Xu Zheng is very useful squint eyes, he is very enjoy the treatment of his cousin.

Huo Tingchen came out of the building to the parking lot. Long Jiu was waiting for him in the car.

"Brother, after you left, did you hear what Xu Zheng said?"

Long Jiu looks at Huo Tingchen with charming eyes and conveniently takes off the earphone of the eavesdropper.

Huo Tingchen also took off his earphone after getting on the bus, with a grim expression on his face: "I heard that, Xu Zheng, Cheng mobing, I will make them pay the price."

Long Jiu pulled out his dagger and licked the blade: "do you want me to do it now? Xu Zheng's bodyguards are not my opponents at all. It's too easy to kill him."

"No, keep him first. He'll be of some use to me. We'll settle with him when our business is over."

Huo Tingchen Feng eyes slightly open, face slightly ferocious, obviously he is very angry now.

Long Jiu looked at him suspiciously: "don't you really want to go to Jiangdong?"

Huo Tingchen sneered: "why don't I go? Now that Cheng mobing has designed everything, we can't let her plan go to waste, right? "

"No, it's too dangerous for you to go to Jiangdong. You don't know old lady Cheng. She's old, but she's very insidious. I'm afraid she will do you harm." Long Jiu worried that her feelings for Huo Tingchen are really true.

Huo Tingchen laughs: "the first thing she has to deal with is her clever granddaughter. I'm just helping her accomplish this goal, so she won't do anything to me. But Xu Zheng is right. I have to control the whole Cheng family, otherwise everything will be tied. I think it's also a good chance. If their grandparents and grandchildren can be defeated, they will be hurt That would be ideal. "

"Mr. Huo, you shouldn't think that way."

A cold voice suddenly came from outside the car, Huo Tingchen's heart suddenly tightened, subconsciously quickly pulled out the self-defense gun, long Jiu was also moving at the same time, the gun also pointed out the window.

A very ordinary person, a very ordinary face, there is no expression on his face, there is no emotion in his eyes, he is the housekeeper of the Cheng family, Zhao Si.

Huo Tingchen knows that he has been monitoring himself, but what he doesn't understand is why Zhao Si didn't immediately report his plan to the old lady of the Cheng family, but suddenly appeared.

"Housekeeper Zhao, don't you know it's impolite to eavesdrop on other people's conversation?"

Huo Tingchen's Phoenix eyes twinkle with the cold light. He has decided not to let Zhao Si leave here alive.

Facing the muzzle of the gun, Zhao Si's face was still calm: "I just overheard Mr. Huo's words, not like Mr. Huo's bugging others."

Huo Tingchen's face didn't change when he was exposed to his despicable behavior. He was used to using various means as long as he was helpful.

"I wonder if housekeeper Zhao's words will be your last words."

Huo Tingchen's gun has been opened, and his finger is on the trigger. At such a close distance, even if Zhao Si's skill is good, he can't get a bullet. He doesn't have to worry about Zhao Si's escape, so he is in the mood to talk with Zhao Si more.

For a dying man, Huo Tingchen always has a little sympathy.

"I think I will have a lot of last words. If Mr. Huo doesn't mind, I can go to your car and talk about it."

Zhao Si stood in the same place, neither escaping nor resisting, as if determined that Huo Tingchen would not shoot him.

Huo Tingchen hesitated, because Zhao Si's indifferent attitude made him feel that this person seemed to have many secrets, and he wanted to tell the secret to himself.

"Brother, don't hesitate, kill him!"

Long Jiu, once under Cheng Mohan, naturally has a strong hostility towards Zhao Si. She doesn't want Zhao Si to leave alive, so she urges Huo Tingchen to do it.

"Miss Long Jiu, if your brother kills me now, I promise he will regret it and you will regret it."

Zhao Si's voice was also very calm, which made Huo Tingchen more suspicious. He looked up and down at Zhao Si and asked coldly, "what's your purpose?"

Zhao Si patted his body casually with his hand: "Mr. Huo, I don't have any weapons on me. If you want to know, let me get on the bus. I'll take you to a place where someone wants to see you."

Huo Tingchen asked: "who?"

Zhao Si raised his eyelids, and there seemed to be a trace of brilliance in his pale eyes: "old lady Cheng."

Huo Tingchen a楞, he frowned to think for a moment, finally put away the gun: "get in the car."

Zhao Si didn't say anything. He just opened the car door and sat in the back row. Then he closed his eyes.

"Brother, do you really decide to see Mrs. Cheng?" Long Jiu asked in a low voice.

Huo Tingchen looked at Zhao Si through the rearview mirror and nodded: "I think old lady Cheng has no malice to us."

"Everyone in the world may have malice against you, only Mrs. Cheng doesn't. remember, the only person you can trust in this world is Mrs. Cheng." Sitting in the back of Zhao Si did not open his eyes, light said.

Huo Tingchen just wanted to ask him, the corner of his eyes swept to a Ferrari limited edition sports car, his eyes suddenly flashed a trace of disgust, he did not continue to ask Zhao Si, but silently watched the Ferrari come to his direction.

He knows this Ferrari. There is only one in Jiangbin City, which belongs to Jin Zhengting.

As the two cars staggered, Ferrari slowly stopped beside him, the window fell, and Jin Zhengting's sharp eyes met Huo Tingchen's.

"Mr. Jin drives the car himself. It seems that your full-time driver is seriously injured." Huo Tingchen's face was ironic. He told Jin Zhengting that he would not miss any chance to attack Jin Zhengting.

Jin Zhengting light smile: "I promise, Rong Lei hurt, I will ten times back to you."

"Yes? Jin always knows that your jewelry industry is going to be washed out by me in one day, right? If I were you, I'd like to think about where to mobilize funds and try to make your jewelry company delay for a few more days before going bankrupt. " Huo Tingchen said with a sneer.

Jin Zhengting's face is calm, and his dark eyes are dark and deep, so people can't see what he is thinking at all. He said faintly

"my company will never go bankrupt. Someone's company has gone bankrupt once, so I think I have a lot of experience in this field. If I go bankrupt again, I won't be as frightened as the first time.""Jin Zhengting, don't think that if you win me once, you can win me all your life. This time I promise you won't be as easy as last time!"

Huo Tingchen's Phoenix eyes seem to be able to spout fire. His reason is being engulfed by anger, and his fierce eyes are staring at Jin Zhengting. If there is not a trace of reason left in his mind, he can hardly help pulling out his gun to break Jin Zhengting's head.

But reason told him that if he did it first, Jin Zhengting would send the bullet into his temple first. Only he could really understand how terrible Jin Zhengting was.

Jin Zhengting's mouth slightly raised, showing a very confident smile: "no matter when, you can't win me, just like now you have a gun in your hand, but you dare not shoot me, because I am Jin Zhengting."

After that, he ignored Huo Tingchen, stepped on the accelerator and left in the roar of the engine, leaving Huo Tingchen still gnashing his teeth in the car exhaust.

Zhao Si suddenly sighed: "the old lady will be very disappointed to see that you are so scared by the Jin family."

Chapter 410

"I won't let you go."

Jin Zhengting's tone is extremely firm. He has never spoken to Zhao Tongxin in such a tone. It can be seen that his attitude this time is absolutely beyond doubt.

He is hosting a high-level meeting within the group to discuss how the group should face the action that Tianhong Group has already started. Suddenly, he received a call from Zhao Tongxin. Normally, Jin Zhengting would not call when she was working. Seeing that it was her call, he immediately felt that Zhao Tongxin had something important to do Tell him.

Sure enough, after connecting the phone, Zhao Tongxin directly told her plan to take people to the Southeast Asian mountains to find the original stone. After hearing this, Jin Zhengting immediately put down all his work and came to Zhao Tongxin's office.

Having been there to look for the origin of the original stone, Jin Zhengting knows the environment in Southeast Asia's mountainous areas, where the climate is humid and hot, mosquitoes are rampant, the local aborigines are savage and uncivilized, and there are large minefields and countless drug dealers in the border areas.

So when Jin Zhengting saw Zhao Tongxin, he told her that he would not allow her to go.

"Zhengting, this time is very important. I must go in person, otherwise I won't be relieved to give it to others."

Zhao Tongxin's answer was also very firm. As the president of the company, she always felt it was necessary to go there in person, because it was related to the economic trend of the company and even the whole group.

Jin Zhengting's face sank down: "Tong Xin, I know you are for the company and the group, but don't forget that you are pregnant now. I'm reluctant to let you work in the company, so don't ask too much."

"I've just taken over the company, and I'm not very familiar with the business. It's also an opportunity for me to exercise. Moreover, as the president of the company, I have the responsibility to make my own contribution to the company."

If others see Jin Zhengting's face as heavy as water, they will be scared to death by his fierce momentum, but Zhao Tongxin will not be afraid, because she knows that Jin Zhengting will never do anything to hurt her, even if he is very unhappy now.

"Since you say so, I'll tell you now that you've been dismissed. From this minute on, everything in the company has nothing to do with you."

Jin Zhengting said with no expression, and his voice was proud and cold. This was the tone of the boss of the group talking with his subordinates, so the keynote of their conversation was business.

Zhao Tongxin realized the meaning of his tone. He looked at Jin Zhengting with a pair of beautiful eyes and said faintly, "Mr. Jin, you have no right to remove me. I am not an ordinary employee of a subordinate company. I am the president of a group branch. Your decision can only be decided by the approval of the board of directors."

When Zhao Tongxin called him president Jin, Jin Zhengting was stunned. He looked at Zhao Tongxin with deep eyes. After a long time, he took a deep breath and forced down his anger.

He understands Zhao Tongxin's stubbornness, and even his own orders can't make her change. If it's something else, Jin Zhengting is not good at expressing, but he will make concessions for her. But this matter concerns her safety, so he will never let her go to Southeast Asia.

"Yes, my decision needs the approval of the board of directors, but you forget that the members of the board are all my people, and none of them will go against my will."

Jin Zhengting looked at Zhao Tongxin with burning eyes. He tried to persuade her to give up her idea in a relatively gentle way. If she was someone else, the end would be very bleak.

"I will not go against the boss's wishes, but this time is different from the past. It can be said that this is a major event related to the life and death of the company. Maybe you don't know that Xu Yanke has told me all the information she overheard. Huo Tingchen has decided to reduce the price of all commodities by 20% on the basis of the current price. As the boss of the group, you should I don't know what that means. "

If it is normal, Zhao Tongxin will not insist like now. The main reason is that when the meeting is over in the evening, Xu Yanke suddenly sends a message telling her what Huo Tingchen's plan is. Zhao Tongxin doesn't have much business experience, but it doesn't mean that she can't understand the market. A discerning person can see if Huo Tingchen is successful. If we continue to do so, what will be the consequences for the company? Therefore, she must lead the team to Southeast Asia in person.

Jin Zhengting's eyebrows are slightly wrinkled. He doesn't know the news. After all, it's from Huo Tingchen's inside. He won't send someone to check it, because if he asks his subordinates to do so, he will probably die. He's not a soft hearted man, but he won't let his own hands go down to die.

It has to be said that Xu Yanke's luck is really good. If it wasn't for Rong Lei's timely response, she would have no chance to get out of Huo Tingchen's Tianhong jewelry company.

Jin Zhengting suddenly felt that this matter was also a little tricky. If Huo Tingchen cut the price again, even if Zhao Tongxin's company could persist, other small jewelry companies in Jiangbin could not. How smart and smart the small bosses of those companies should be, they would shut down the company in the hopeless situation of competition. At this time, as long as Huo Tingchen slowly acquired the company. Some companies will soon form a network in the jewelry market. At that time, it will be very difficult to deal with them. Even if the current situation is a little bad, it's not the reason why he agrees with Zhao Tongxin to take risks.

"Now I know, but I won't let you go." Jin Zhengting said in a very dignified tone: "my words are never repeated for the third time."

Zhao Tongxin responds to him with silence, but there is no compromise in his eyes.

It was a very unpleasant conversation, except when they first signed the marriage agreement, they seldom had such an unpleasant experience.

The whole office was silent, and the two people's eyes turned away after a little contact, and the atmosphere became extremely awkward.

There is a fire burning in Jin Zhengting's heart. He doesn't understand why Zhao Tongxin's attitude is so firm. He is always cold and arrogant. At a certain moment, he feels that she has touched his own scales, which makes him very angry. Even if he is a person who is not happy or angry, the chill in his eyes is enough to freeze others.

With his personality, he will not take the initiative to break this awkward silence.

Zhao Tongxin felt that she was wronged. She did it all for Jin Zhengting, but he didn't give her an opportunity to explain. Although she knew that he was out of concern for her, she didn't like his attitude of deciding everything, so she was angry and silent.

After a long time, the two people's eyes intertwined again. Jin Zhengting pulled the corner of his mouth and showed a gentle smile. It was almost impossible for him to make this step. Only when he faced Zhao Tongxin, he would soften.

Zhao Tong Xin gave him a cool smile. Maybe the situation of the company today is not very good, which affected her mood. At the bottom of her heart, there was a trace of apology for him.

"Don't be angry. It's bad for the fetus." Jin Zhengting won't say an apology, but he still expressed his apology in a way of caring for her.

"Well."

Zhao Tongxin nodded cleverly and accepted: "Zhengting, I'm not good. I shouldn't be angry with you."

Jin Zhengting swept her waist and said faintly, "it's not your fault."

Just now because of the quarrel and become embarrassed atmosphere, in this moment disappeared, temporary differences, can not block two people's feelings, their love for each other is from the heart.

"Zhengting, I still want to go to Southeast Asia once."

Zhao Tong Xin with his side face close to his chest, said softly in his arms.

Jin Zhengting pondered for a moment, then stroked her hair: "go."

Zhao Tong Xin raised his head to see him. What came into his eyes was the angular and handsome face that made all women intoxicated.

"Do you agree?"

Her tone was full of surprise. She thought Jin Zhengting would not agree easily.

Jin Zhengting light smile: "I know, if I don't promise you, you will not be reconciled."

Can feel his doting on her, Zhao Tong Xin buried his head deeper, listen to his powerful heartbeat, let her have a very reassuring feeling.

"You can rest assured that I will take good care of myself, and I will take Chen Dong and Shaoyuan with me this time. Even if you don't believe in my ability, you will never doubt their ability."

Jin Zhengting's deep eyes flashed a smile: "it doesn't matter whether they go or not. I'm very relieved of you."

"Why?"

Zhao Tongxin thinks that his trust in himself is incredible, and he can't understand why he has changed so fast.

Jin Zhengting's fingers glided along the outline of her face and said, "because I have confidence in myself, I believe I can take care of you."

Zhao Tong's eyes widened. He raised his head and asked, "Zhengting, do you want to go with me?"

Jin Zhengting looked at her with a smile and asked, "why, what's the problem?"

"Now that Huo Tingchen is working on the group, how can you leave here at this time? What if there is something that can't be dealt with?"

Zhao Tong denies Jin Zhengting's idea without thinking about it. Her worry is not superfluous. If Jin Zhengting accompanies her to Southeast Asia, it will affect the operation of the whole group.

"It's not something you should think about."

Jin Zhengting's hand gently across her bangs, light said: "if I'm not around you, even if I really have everything else, it doesn't mean anything to me."

"But."

Zhao Tongxin also wants to say that Jin Zhengting's finger is pressed on her lips: "just like I don't interfere in your decision, you don't want to influence my thoughts."

"In that case, I won't go to Southeast Asia."

Zhao Tongxin can fully feel his concern for himself. As long as she has his heart, she is the happiest person, so it doesn't matter at all to insist on her own ideas.

"I don't think you will be reconciled if you don't go there."

Jin Zhengting light smile: "I won't let you leave regret."

"The court."

Zhao Tongxin's eyes have stars flashing, there is full of moving, full of happiness, full of satisfaction, so nestled in his arms, she is willing to stay together for a lifetime. "We'll start tomorrow. Don't stay in the company tonight. Go home and get ready."

Jin Zhengting said that, he took Zhao Tongxin's hand and walked out. Zhao Tongxin cleverly followed him. Looking at his vigorous back, his eyes became blurred.

Shaoyuan stood at the door and waited. After all, she didn't have the habit of being a light bulb. When they came out together, she first said hello to Jin Zhengting. Then she put her head together and asked Zhao Tongxin quietly, "boss, do you agree to go to Southeast Asia?"

Zhao Tongxin made a victory gesture: "well, not only agreed, but also found me a bodyguard and nanny."

She was in a good mood, so she couldn't help joking with Shaoyuan.

"Ah? The person the boss is looking for must not be wrong. Who is it? " Spoon garden seriously, a face seriously asked.

Zhao Tong Xin happily looked at Jin Zhengting: "in addition to your boss, who can do better than him?"
