

Chapter 4025

The gloomy voice of the Great Elder sounded slowly in this dark night.

Who can achieve their position, which one is not a human being?

At that time, Bill Jones was forced to deny that his daughter's eyes were not taken by the Chu family due to the situation.

Even in the past few years, it has been honest. Absolutely obey any decision made by Truman's top management.

Even if the members of the Jones family were kicked out of the Presbyterian Church, Bill Jones didn't complain.

But because of this, is Chu Yuan completely at ease with the Jones family?

The answer, of course, is no!

In the past few years, Chu Yuan has been looking for an opportunity to clear the Jones family out of the three Chumen families.

However, due to the lack of excuses, and Tang Yun has been interceding with the Jones family from it.

This time, the people of the Jones family even secretly released a repeat offender, and they are still the remnants of the Dragon Temple.

This one alone is enough to exterminate its clan!

"This old fox!" Bill Jones clenched his palm.

He thought that he had hidden deep enough.

But he never thought that he would never be able to play Chu Yuan.

At this time, Bill Jones' heart was undoubtedly half-cold.

However, he was unwilling to give up.

Even if the vitality is slim, he has to fight for it!

Therefore, before the elder Tang Xian could react, Bill Jones took the lead.

A set of exquisite swordsmanship slashed towards Tang Xian angrily.

Among the powerful Truman, although Bill Jones has a mediocre talent in martial arts, he is also a real titled powerhouse.

This sudden blow, even Tang Xian, did not dare to underestimate it, and jumped to avoid it immediately.

But even so, Tang Xian's left arm was still scratched by the sword energy.

Although the wound is not deep, but there is blood!

“Mike, let’s go!”

Bill Jones shouted anxiously.

“Father!”

Mike Jones’ old eyes were red.

He turned his head and glanced at his old father, gritted his teeth, and got into the car.

With tears in his eyes, he ordered the driver to drive immediately!

“asshole!”

“Heaven has a way, you don’t go, hell has no door, you have to break through.”

“In this case, this elder, as you wish!”

“Trumen Protector, all listen to the order!”

“Kill the Jones family members on the spot.”

“Especially those cars, be sure to stop them!”

“Don’t live!”

The stinging pain in the arm finally completely angered the Truman Great Elder.

He never imagined that, in a mortal situation, Bill Jones, who was always weak, would dare to attack him first and even hurt him.

Unforgivable!

Following Tang Xian’s order, the nine black-clothed guardians rushed into the crowd like a ghost.

Several of them were chasing in the direction of Mike Jones.

“If you want to stop me, don’t even think about it!”

Bill Jones shouted and jumped up one by one.

Dao Daoguang is like training, slashing towards these black-clothed guardians fiercely.

The person who was close couldn’t dodge in time, and an arm was cut off.

The remaining two were also shaken back by Bill Jones’ power.

The chasing momentum was interrupted in an instant.

“Give me death!”

After the blow worked, Bill Jones didn’t have any left.

Holding the mad knife, he pounced again, ready to kill them directly.

However, just as Bill Jones slashed down, a long sword flew out.

Keng!

Swords meet.

In an instant, Mars radiates in all directions!

Bill Jones' mouth burst and hemorrhaged, and he stepped out of the ground for a few steps.

After stabilizing his figure, Bill Jones suddenly raised his head and found that the Great Elder Tang Xian had already stood in front of him.

"Don't you feel ashamed to bully a few masters?"

"Your opponent is me!"

The elder sneered.

Not in a hurry to deal with Bill Jones, just standing there with a sword.

The contemptuous eyes were full of playfulness.

He likes to slowly appreciate the gradual despair of others.

With Bill Jones being blocked, the three black-clothed guardians could no longer stop them, and they ran on the ground for dozens of meters, and finally turned over and jumped to the front of those cars!
