

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4034

But he never dreamed that the opportunity would come so suddenly.

So, in ecstasy, he walked out from the last row and ran all the way to Travis Lane's position in front.

However, when he just ran a few steps, he suddenly stumbled to the ground, and immediately, he was already kneeling on the ground.

Just when everyone thought that he must have been too excited, so when he fell with garlic under his feet, he knelt on the ground, covered his face and cried.

He cried very sadly. While crying, he shouted helplessly like a child: "I waited until I was qualified to fill the seat, but...but...but I can't afford it!!!"

With this cry, he shouted out the heartfelt voice of at least half of the people at the scene.

The first rejuvenation pill has already fetched a price of 2 billion US dollars, which is not what they can afford.

What's more, after everyone has seen the magical effect of Huichundan, the price of Huichundan will definitely rise in the future. Those of them who have not officially entered the top two hundred, and those who are ranked lower in the first two hundred miles, even if they have money at hand. All the cash is taken out to participate in the subsequent auction, and it is impossible to win.

Therefore, this person can go from joy to sorrow so quickly, and go through the whole process from heaven to hell in an instant.

This made him feel so sad that he couldn't help himself.

Jasmine was helpless, so she could only ask him routinely, "No. 201, are you willing to fill the qualification for No. 055? If you don't want to fill the seat, I can only invite No. 202."

The man still buried his head and cried, choked up: "I give up and leave the opportunity to others..."

At the end of the crowd, No. 202 stood up with red eyes, holding back tears, and said in a trembling voice, "I...I also give up..."

No. 203 hesitated for a moment, then raised his hand and said, "I also give up..."

All the people who filled the position in the back expressed their positions one by one, indicating that they gave up the qualification to fill the position.

It's not that they don't want to, it's that they really don't want to let themselves have that unrealistic fantasy.

Sitting in the back and watching Huichundan being photographed away must feel more comfortable than sitting in the front.

Moreover, when they came to fill the seats, they never thought that Huichundan would be so expensive.

At this price, it is really far beyond their ability.

The auction does not allow installment payments, and it is impossible for them to buy the later rejuvenation pills.

Jasmine also understood their feelings and said helplessly: "In this case, the qualification for No. 055 is temporarily vacant, and our auction will continue."

After that, Jasmine looked at the rich black man on stage and said, "No. 047, please return to your seat, our auction will continue."

The rich black man who has been suffering from Parkinson's disease for many years and recovered in an instant just now couldn't help but asked with a pleading expression: "Miss, can I continue to participate in the auction of Huichundan in the future? If I succeed in the auction, I am willing to pay more. Five hundred million dollars!"

The people in the audience went from envious to angry in an instant.

They didn't expect that this guy was not satisfied with the cheap price, and even brazenly wanted to continue participating in the auction.

Some people just want to yell at them.

But when they thought of Travis Lane who was kicked out just now, they could only shut their mouths angrily.

At this time, Jasmine looked at the black rich man and said seriously: "Sorry 047, I have already explained the relevant requirements very clearly, please respect our rules."

Seeing this, the black rich man had to sigh unwillingly and walked back to his seat.

Everyone saw him walking like a fly, and the envy and jealousy in their hearts had reached their peak.

Jian had already made a plan in his heart at this time. Even if the last rejuvenation pill was 100 billion US dollars, he would take it without hesitation!
