

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4039

Todd's price of seven billion did not intimidate competitors.

Just then, another rich man raised his hand: "Seventy-two!"

The Chinese rich man who had called 5.8 billion and 6.8 billion before was already pale.

Although his bid is very generous, in fact, he is not really cheap.

The limit he can bear is about eight billion. The reason why he increased the price twice is to scare off other competitors before his own limit is touched.

But if this is an auction for ordinary commodities, his method may be effective. Now, it is not the commodity that is auctioned on the stage, but the lifespan!

A terminally ill patient, taking pictures of this quarter of Huichundan, has a great chance of being completely cured. Although it may not be a few years younger, as long as the terminally ill body can be cured, it will be enough to prolong life for several years, or even decades. .

After all, some of them are only fifty or sixty years old. After suffering from a terminal illness, they can only live a few more years with money, but if the terminal illness is completely cured, with their financial resources, it is not difficult to live to the age of eighty or ninety.

Therefore, what is on the stage is not a rejuvenation pill at all, but a life span that everyone can use!

In this case, no matter what kind of psychological tactics you play, everyone has one idea, even if all the liquidity is studded, you must take a picture of Huichundan!

However, among the crowd, there are still a few people with relatively calm expressions who have never participated in the bidding.

These few people did not have the strength to compete for the rejuvenation pill, but they had been holding back their energy and going to bid for the last one.

Among them, Jian and Bernard Arnault, who was assigned 2 billion by Charlie, were also included.

In addition, there are several bidders whose declared assets are not high.

When they declared assets and cooperated with capital verification, they all selectively took out part of their assets, so their declared worths were only about 100 billion US dollars. However, these people are actually very powerful top hidden wealth.

Among them, a middle-aged man whose face was somewhat similar to middle-aged Zheng Shaoqiu, even a little more handsome than middle-aged Zheng Shaoqiu. He had no intention of raising his hand, and his eyes were always staring at the Huichundan on the stage, with a cold expression on his face.

At this moment, an entourage next to him whispered: "Eldest young master, according to the current trend, the last rejuvenation pill will really cost hundreds of billions!"

The middle-aged man nodded lightly, and said without changing his face: "No matter how much the price is, we must do whatever it takes to win this rejuvenation pill!"

At this time, the on-site bidding continues.

The price has been called all the way to 8.8 billion.

After reaching this price, the voice of bidding has been significantly reduced.

Although all the people who came were rich, it was indeed rare to see someone who could give out 8.8 billion US dollars.

The older Chinese brother had bowed his head deeply and gave up the struggle with tears in his eyes.

At this time, Todd gritted his teeth and pushed the price up to nine billion.

Immediately afterwards, another person also began to be cautious, adding 100 million US dollars to his base.

And the one who offered 9 billion seemed to be ready for a tug-of-war, so he added 100 million to the 9.1 billion.
