

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4067

At this moment, Jian felt extremely painful.

He didn't expect that in his eyes, the eldest son, who valued affection, family affection, and everything only on his own, would have long thought that his life was too long.

Now that he has not traveled thousands of miles to Aurous Hill to seek longevity, this will definitely make the eldest son angry.

Therefore, at this time, he suddenly tore his face and revealed his true form.

Although Fei Jian Center is extremely unwilling, he is also very clear that since the eldest son has successfully usurped the throne and has almost all board members vote in favor, it proves that he must have completely controlled the situation in the United States. Enough grasp, so that they are powerless to resist.

The fact that so many board members support him also shows on another level that he has lost trust in the minds of board members.

Don't say that this old bone of my own is now dead and unable to struggle. Even if I still have strength, there is absolutely no hope of turning over the situation in this situation.

After all, he is now tens of thousands of kilometers away from the United States, and his confidants have been eliminated by his eldest son. In this case, even if he can go back, what will he use to compete with him?

So, he suppressed the anger in his heart and said, "Okay! Since you have already arranged for me, after I die, bury me in the motherland. I want to sleep with my parents forever."

The other party said apologetically: "I'm sorry, Dad, the cemetery here in the United States has been found for you. I have selected the most expensive cemetery in the United States. The neighbors around your cemetery are basically all previous presidents of the United States and their neighbors. Top chaebol, you will sleep here forever, I believe you will be very satisfied."

Jian asked in a trembling voice, "I only have this request, you can't agree?"

The other party sighed helplessly: "Dad, if you are not buried in the United States or beside me in a hundred years, others will definitely gossip about me behind my back."

After a pause, the other party said again: "Besides, your descendants are all in the United States. In the future, on the first day of the first day, fifteenth day, Qingming Festival, and festival days, I can't let me toss with so many descendants and go back to my country to worship you, right? You? Buried in the United States, those of us who are children, can also be a little more convenient."

Jian was silent for a moment, then laughed miserably: "Okay...Okay...It's really good...I, Jian, have the son of a tiger and wolf like you, I'm really lucky for three lives! I'm lucky for three lives!"

The other end of the phone took no notice of Jian's sarcasm, and said lightly, "Dad, as the old saying goes, a tiger father has no dog. I can't be today without your words and deeds."

After that, the other party said: "Dad, I just took over the board of directors, there are too many things, there are still many of your old departments to deal with one by one, so I won't talk to you more, you take good care of your health in China, if you have something to do, Just let Ke Xin call me and let her and Master jay take care of you over there, I am naturally 10,000 assured."

As he said that, he said coldly and said coldly, "But Dad, I have something I want to make clear to you in advance. I have already greeted you at the customs, and there are people I arranged to guard at the ports. If you If you and the others don't come back without authorization, then I won't embarrass the family after you leave, but if you and the others dare to come back secretly, don't blame me for being reckless!"

Jian knew that he had no power to return to the sky at the moment. In order not to implicate his granddaughter Fei Kexin's family, he immediately said: "Okay! I promise you! After I die, let Kexin take my body with me. go back!"

"Okay!" The other party also smiled cheerfully: "If that's the case, then let's say it's a deal. I ordered the recall of your and Kexin's plane an hour ago. During this time, you will have a good rest in China. Let Kexin contact me in a hundred years, and I will send a plane to pick you up!"

Having said that, I hung up the phone for convenience.

After being sluggish in place for a few seconds, Jian handed the mobile phone to the staff and said sullenly: "I'm sorry, I abstain..."

As soon as he finished speaking, Bernard Elnor, who had been waiting anxiously, suddenly cheered excitedly and shouted: "Huichundan is mine! Huichundan is mine!"

At this time, Jian's facial features suddenly twisted into a ball in pain, and a mouthful of blood spurted out uncontrollably.
