

Chapter 408

The tip of Biden Lu's eyebrows raised, "The sound is too low, I didn't hear it."

Jenny raised the volume a bit more, and to satisfy him, there was even a bit of an eerie smile on her lips, "Honey~~"

The tail dragged out crisp and long, pure heartedly to tease him.

Sure enough, the man's grip on the steering wheel tightened slightly.

Unexpectedly, however, there was no answer that Jenny had expected, and the man's eyes narrowed as he said, "Scream again."

Jenny was so angry that he ground his teeth and wanted to bite someone.

But thinking that now after all, there is a need for help, so I had to put on a good face again, and whispered, "Honey, just tell me, people want to know ~~."

The voice was so fleshy... even she felt a little sick!

The man's body suddenly tensed, his breathing slightly disordered, and he suddenly grabbed her small hand and pressed it against his own.

Jenny was shocked.

Then, screaming "fu*k", I instantly withdrew my hand.

"Biden Lu, you pervert!"

She swung her fist at him, but luckily the man had thick skin and good driving skills, or else he would have had to overturn the car on the road.

It was hard for Biden Lu to control both of her hands with one hand, his eyes narrowed and his tone said dangerously, "How dare you seduce me even in broad daylight, see how I'm going to deal with you at home."

Jenny naturally knew which kind of tidy up he was talking about.

A small blush and a bottomless retort, "You're the one who made me scream in the first place, obviously!"

"So obedient? Heh. Then why didn't you scream when I asked you to in bed?"

Jenny: "....."

She clenched her cheeks, her face all red as a crawfish, and glared at him, and all she could say in a half-hearted way was, "Rascal!"

Biden Lu, however, laughed idly, the corners of his eyes and eyebrows quite a bit evil.

"Well, I'll show you what a real rascal is later."

"You!" Jenny was afraid and shrank back a bit, "Don't you dare, it's daytime."

"Chuckle – it's not like we haven't done it during the day."

Jenny instantly blushed.

She remembered, of course, that the two had been together for so long, and while the man wasn't a heavy valley owed, sometimes it was easy to shoot off a gun if they were both at home.

She couldn't help but blush even more at the thought of it.

It didn't take long for the car to arrive home.

During the day, the servants in the house were either resting or in the backyard, with hardly anyone in front of them.

Jenny was carried into the villa by Biden Lu.

The car's fire wasn't even out yet, so he threw the keys directly into Aunt Liu's hand and carried Jenny up to the first floor.

The first floor bedroom.

Jenny was thrown on the bed by him, anxious and angry, haphazardly wrapped the blanket around her body and called, "Don't come over, I won't do that with you, I'm not in the mood!"

The smile on Biden Lu's lips as he slowly and methodically took off his clothes was as evil as it was going to get.

"Be good, soon you'll be in the mood for that."

Afterwards, pounce on it.

In three or two strokes, she stripped the blanket off her body, Jenny was so anxious to pound him with her fist that the man caught her with one hand and clipped back behind his back, kicked her with his foot, and was directly pressed against the bed with one leg.

"Bastard!Rascals!Fascist!Bully!"

Jenny is controlled on all four legs and can only attack him with his mouth.

The man, however, was unmoved, lingering over her with k*sses and occasionally taking the time to say back to her, "Go on."

Jennyton was so angry that he couldn't curse out anything.

"Wooooo-You bully me, you said you would spoil me forever, how long has it been ah you bully me"

In desperation, she had to resort to a sure-fire weapon, cry!

This time, however, it seemed like crying wouldn't work, as the man k*ssed away her tears, his palm branding her delicate skin like a branding iron, and Jenny shuddered, instantly causing a shudder.

"Heh."The man let out a pleasant chuckle, pleased with her physical honesty.

Jenny was really close to tears this time.

This man, who knew her body so well, always had an easy way of taking control of her and then letting her sink completely into his hands.

"Call your husband."

He said dumbly.

Jenny bit her lip, her brimming peach blossom eyes misting over, but refused to speak.

"To scream or not to scream?"

He pushed harder, almost on the verge of breaking her waist.

Jenny whimpered, her eyes moist, and grabbed his strong, sturdy arm, "You be gentle."

"Call out to Honey, and I'll lighten up."

She eventually couldn't take it anymore and gave in to his threat, "Honey."

"Well? Why do you call him husband?"

"Honey, be gentle~"

"That's a good boy..."

Jenny almost fainted in the end.

This man, who had always been brave in bed, just took pity on her before for fear of discomfort, so he didn't dare to use his full strength, yet today, like a chicken, he couldn't control it.

Afterwards, Jenny lay in the man's arms, so tired that she didn't want to move a single finger.

Biden Lu looked at her tired appearance, knowing that he was going to be ruthless today, and felt some regret, but thinking of the soul-satisfying taste just now, he couldn't help but feel excited.

He gave her a peck on the lips and said, "Lie down for a while and I'll get you a glass of water."

Jenny nodded weakly.

Soon, Biden Lu poured water over, and Jenny Jing drank it right from his hand and lay back down.

The warm water entered her body, which made her feel better, and looking at him, she bit out, "Now can you tell me?"

Biden Lu was stunned, not expecting her to still remember this.

He felt amused at that, and walked over to the bed and took her in his arms and said, "Well, of course, how could I not, if my wife wants to hear it?"

Jenny didn't bother to grind with him and just gave him a blank stare, clearly not wanting to pay attention to him.

Biden Lu touched his nose, somewhat accosted.

Knowing that if this continues, I'm afraid I'm going to offend the little woman badly, I'll even take credit for it.

"It's like this, the Master of the Feng family is about to turn seventy, recently Tailor Feng has been thinking about what gift to give to the Master, and knowing that Zhou Lao recently opened a good jade, he wanted to carve something for the Master, but he begged for a long time Zhou Lao didn't buy him, that's why he begged to me. I saw that he was filial, so I agreed."

Jenny didn't expect the truth to be so simple, and she had been tortured by a man for that answer.

The mind screamed at the top of its lungs.

Biden Lu looked at her regretful appearance, the corners of his mouth slightly hooked, leaned in to k*ss her ear, and said, "If you like it, I'll also give you a better piece."

Jenny pushed him away and deflated, "Don't try to impress me with this, I'm still angry."

"Really?"

"Of course!"

"Well, I'll have to try harder then."

The man said, and then he leaned back down and worked his hands over her.

Jenny was so frightened that she grabbed his hand and yelled, "Beast! You're still coming?"

Naturally, Biden Lu wouldn't really touch her, after all, he just wanted too much, he always had to think about her body.

It's just that I can't help but tease her when I see how scared she is.

Chapter 409

So, narrowing my eyes, I said in a serious manner, "My wife is angry, she must not be satisfied with what I just did, I have to try again."

"No, no, no, I'm satisfied, I'm not angry."

Jenny even changed his words, afraid that he would really try again.

Biden Lu laughed lightly, "You're really not angry anymore?"

"Really." Jenny nodded his head as if pounding garlic.

"Well, that's a good boy."

Only then did the man let her go and pulled out of bed, fishing out the clothes next to him as he put them on and said, "You sleep for a while, I'll deal with Aunt Liu and let her call you later for lunch."

Jenny wrapped up in the blanket and asked, "Where are you going?"

Biden Lu raised his eyebrows and suddenly leaned in, narrowing his eyes in an evil manner, "What? You can't leave me so soon?"

Jennyton glared at him, "No, don't be self-absorbed."

I said, and vigilantly wrapped the blanket around me and rolled to one side.

Biden Lu looked at her like she was afraid that he would eat her up and couldn't help but laugh.

Reaching out, he touched her head and said, "I'm going out to do some business, so you rest and I'll be back to pick you up tonight."

Jenny snorted softly.

Biden Lu also didn't care, which was why he went out.

In the evening, Tailor Feng's birthday was set in a villa by the sea.

There were no outsiders, it was just a few of my own brothers, so naturally I had a great time.

A group of people were barbecuing and drinking on the beach, Kepler with Nina Hua, Ji Yun Shu also with Guan Xue bandits, and Xie Snap and others, the whole y was very lively.

Feng family boss, Tailor Feng's big brother, Feng Lin, also came.

This was the first time Jenny had met Feng Lin, as he had heard rumors that he was a no-nonsense and very serious person.

Or perhaps it was because of the age difference, nearly ten years older than Biden Lu, Tailor Feng and the others, so the whole thing looked a bit archaic.

But it was only after contact that I realized that while the other person wasn't too warm, they were quite approachable and not much of an elder.

The one who was most familiar with Jenny was Xie Snap.

Because they were in the same entertainment industry, Xie Snap was the first of the group of brothers to know her, so as soon as they saw her, they called out one second sister-in-law at a time.

The next to make Tailor Feng has been laughing at him, Xie Snap is not convinced, let Tailor Feng also called, Tailor Feng was originally called Jenny little sister-in-law, just in front of Xie Snap, just do not let him as desired, so has been refused to open.

When Xie Snap saw this, he went to complain to Biden Lu, but Biden Lu hit him on the head with a brush handle, causing Xie Snap to scream.

"Second sister-in-law, look at them, they are bullying me, come help me."

Jenny was laughing so hard that Xie Snap quit and rushed up to pull her, "Second sister-in-law, stop laughing, quickly help me beat back."

Biden Lu slapped his hand away and said, "What are you doing with your claws? She's my wife, how can she help you?"

Snap Xie was so angry that he blushed, "I know she's your wife, she's still my sister-in-law!"

I said, and came back to pull Jenny.

Jenny was so disturbed by him that he had no choice but to get up and look at Biden Lu and Tailor Feng, feigning anger, "You guys don't bully Xie Snap, he's the youngest, you have to respect the old and love the young."

Xie Snap nodded incessantly, "Yeah, yeah, I'm a younger brother, by all rights you should love and spoil me, why are you all thinking of bullying me?"

Tailor Feng forked out laughing and kept coughing as he said, "Yes yes yes, you're just a brother."

Xie Snap sniffed, and only then did he react to the fact that he had been derided again, and became so angry that he glared at him hard.

"See, the laughing man is choking on his breath. It's karma!

Jenny was helpless and went over to get a bottle of water for him so that Tailor Feng could smooth out the air.

Tailor Feng thanked and drank water, but Xie Snap suddenly said, "Tailor Feng, everyone brought their girlfriends over today, why didn't you? Where's your little green plum?"

Tailor Feng turned pale and looked at Jenny and the others with a guilty conscience, before staring at Xie Snap again.

"Don't be ridiculous, what little green plum."

"Tsk, still trying to hide it from me? I knew it. Your Kang is the daughter of Uncle Feng's former subordinate, right? Why isn't she here today?"

Jenny Jing saw the situation and also smiled, "Yeah Tailor Feng, you should have invited Evelin over."

Tailor Feng was a little embarrassed when he saw everyone making fun of him.

"I told her, but she didn't say yes at the time, so I don't know if she'll come tonight."

After saying that, he turned to Xie Snap and threatened viciously, "Xie fourth, I'm telling you, don't call me Tailor Feng one mouthful at a time, I'm older than you, you have to call me third brother."

Xie Snap scowled, "Come on, you're only a few months older than me and you still have the nerve to ask me to call you brother."

"Even a few months old is big, so scream!"

"No screaming!"

"Are you screaming or not?"

"No screaming!"

Taylor Feng pounced on it and threw Xie Snap down on the sand difficulty, and the two of them just fought.

Jenny sat in front of the fire, roasting meat, and smiled as they played around.

What a great bunch of brothers.

No one would have thought that these normally high and mighty dudes would have such an unguarded time playing around.

Like a carefree child.

Jenny smiled at them for a moment, noting that the meat on his hands was already cooked, and even picked it up, placing it on a plate and handing it to Biden Lu next to him.

"Well, here's one for you to eat."

She handed him the plate, but turned her head to see his inky eyes staring at her.

His gaze was too deep, and Jenny's heart inexplicably skipped a beat and blushed a little.

"What are you looking at me for?"

She lowered her head, not looking away from him.

Biden Lu hooked his lips, reached for the plate, and said, "My daughter-in-law looks good."

Jenny Jing involuntarily then burned red, from his cheeks all the way to his ears.

She was completely unable to withstand the man's sudden flirtation and had to try to change the subject.

"Hey, by the way, I've seen you guys often addressed as second, third and fourth brother, you're the second, so is the eldest brother Feng?"

Biden Lu shook his head.

"Fenglin is about ten years older than us, and he was thrown into the army by Uncle Feng when we were kids digging out mud, so he doesn't play with us and doesn't have that rank."

"So, what about your boss? Who is he? How come I've never heard of it?"

Biden Lu's hand that was about to take the chopsticks was instantly tight like that.

Jenny noticed his difference and asked in confusion, "What's wrong?"

Biden Lu shook his head, his appearance instantly returned to normal, took a pair of chopsticks from the table and said indifferently, "He's dead."

Jenny was shocked, his hand didn't pay attention, and it suddenly touched the edge of the grill and got hot.

"Ah."

She jumped up from the stool, and Biden Lu's eyebrows jumped as she threw the plate away and stood up and yanked her hand away.

"Why so careless?"

Chapter 410

He chided, pulling her hand away and reacting quickly by unscrewing a bottle of mineral water and rushing it down towards the hot spot.

The cold sensation eased the pain, Jenny said softly, "It's fine, it didn't burn much, just a light touch, it doesn't hurt anymore."

Biden Lu, however, still with a taut face, looked carefully at her hand and saw that although there were no blisters on it, there was a red mark, not serious, but the pain must be real.

He got frustrated and pulled her aside, sitting on the stool farthest from the cooker, and said, "Don't come any closer to that side, and if you want to eat anything, I'll have Snap Xie bake it for you."

Snap Xie loved to play, and had no other craft, except for the barbecue which counted as one of the best, and he was the one who had suggested the barbecue tonight.

Jenny smiled and pulled his hand, saying, "Why are you so nervous? I'll be fine."

Biden Lu's face still didn't look too good.

Jenny deflated his mouth, "Okay, I was wrong, isn't that enough? Don't go call Tailor Feng, they're having a good time, don't bother them."

Biden Lu looked over in the direction where Belinda Zhou was, and sure enough, Tailor Feng and Xie Snap's group of people had gone crazy over there, all in their twenties, playing like children of a few years old, with no image at all.

Without a heavy snort, he said, "Childish!"

Jenny stifled a laugh, stood up and took his hand to sit by the cooker again, "Alright, don't be judgmental about people's love, what do you want to eat? I'll bake you some more."

But unexpectedly, the man took it from her hand and said, "Sit back a bit and I'll bake."

Jenny was quite surprised, but obediently moved the stool back and asked, "You would?"

The man eyed her with disdain, "Is that all? What's so hard."

Jenny didn't believe it.

But the reality is, sometimes a person's intelligence can really decide a lot of things, Biden Lu this is the first time to grill, at first the grill was not decent, by the third bunch of taste became normal, but later, but the more grilled more delicious.

Jenny couldn't stop eating and appreciated as she ate, "God, if you're not the president anymore, go set up a stall to sell barbecue, you'll definitely get rich."

Biden Lu instantly broke out in a cold sweat.

The CEO of the Land Group goes to a street stall to sell barbecues? How far down must that go?

He glared at her and said, "Eat your."

Jenny ate very well and occasionally fed him a bite.

Although Biden Lu had learned to bake, he still didn't like the food very much, and if it wasn't for Tailor Feng's suggestion and the others' lack of opinions today, he definitely wouldn't have agreed to eat this.

The fragrance here attracted two people playing in the distance, and Tailor Feng called out from afar: "Wow, is that second sister-in-law barbecuing? It smells good."

As we approached, we realized it was Biden Lu who was baking.

Both of them looked like their jaws were dropped in shock, and then they looked at Jenny next to them, eating a mouth full of oil and having no image.

Both of them were instantly even trembling.

How much is Er-Hu spoiling his daughter-in-law.

See, someone who used to not even touch the kitchen has learned to grill?

It really is the magic of love, how great!

Tailor Feng couldn't stand the aroma, licking his face and leaning in, he smiled, "Second brother, it smells so good, roast one for me too."

Snap Tse couldn't pretend any longer, and came over as well, "I'll have the same, I'll have half a dozen oysters, three skewers of beef, and ten skewers of lamb."

However, Biden Lu just threw them a cold look.

This was followed by a brief spitting out of three words, "Bake your own!"

Two pawns!

Jenny was laughing and watching them eat and drink, but Tailor Feng was unconvinced and ran off to the side to find Feng Lin.

"Brother, you must have learned to barbecue in the army! Will you come over here and roast for us?"

Tailor Feng's face was expressionless as he coldly spat out two words, "No!"

Gu Ming Yuan: "....."

"Then what am I doing with this barbecue? We all can't, we can't starve here!"

Feng Lin remained expressionless, "You're the one who wanted to do it, it's not like we made you do it."

After a pause, he added, "Speaking of which, I'm hungry, so aren't you, as the host, going to entertain?"

Tailor Feng: "....."

How hard is he to think? Why do you have to be a bbq on your birthday?

Turning to the metahuman over there who was still mad with ideas, he roared, "Xie Laoshi, get your ass back here and cook!"

Snap Xie looked up this way and shouted, "I'm busy, get it yourself."

Tailor Feng is really give angry happy, walked over, a kick in his ass, said: "I can make can come to beg you?Get your ass back here."

Xie Snap was kicked and was suddenly on fire, and the two of them were about to pinch up when they suddenly heard a clear and pleasant voice.

"Yo, what a hoot, are you guys having a barbecue?"

The crowd was stunned and turned to look, but a slender figure was walking this way in the moonlight.

Tailor Feng's eyes all lit up.

But the bright light was just a moment, and immediately he compulsorily pressed it down.

"Yo, you're here?I thought you weren't coming?Tsk, sure enough, you still can't leave your brother Feng, can you?"

Evelin gave him a blank look.

After thinking about it, I still didn't have the good fortune to smash the gift box held in my arms at him and said in a cold voice, "Don't make a fool of yourself, I'm just trying to return the favor you did for me before, otherwise who would want to come!"

Everyone knew Evelin, and at the sight of this situation, they automatically and silently backed off to the side to avoid being hit by dog food.

Tailor Feng was smashed by the gift box and was not angry, smiling and opening it in person.

Only inside was a high-end watch, not particularly expensive, but in a style that suited his temperament.

Most importantly, it was a gift from her, and Tailor Feng naturally liked it.

He immediately removed his original watch from his hand and replaced it with this one, and also looked at the light.

"Not bad, but if you're so sincere, I'll take it, so come play with it."

Evelin then stepped towards this side.

She immediately saw Jenny sitting there and came over with a big smile, smelling the food and taking a deep bite immediately.

"Wow, it smells good, Jenny, did you bake this? Can I taste it?"

Jenny Jing saw this and immediately handed over the plate, smiling and squinting, "Not that I baked it, but you can try it."

Evelin even grabbed a piece of meat and put it in her mouth.

In the next second, the indignant cries of Xie Snap and Tailor Feng came from behind, "Second sister-in-law, you're too biased, not giving us food but giving it to her!"

Jenny laughed, saying, "Who let people be girls! It's fine if you don't know how to respect the old and the young, but a lady of humility has to understand, right?"

Once again, the two men were subjected to intense violence.

After two hours of playing on the beach, Tailor Feng argued about not having enough to eat and insisted on dragging everyone to a nearby hotel for a seafood dinner.
