Chapter 4102

"Pass my order and activate the Gritsberg Great Array!"

In the Xu family manor, Xu Lei, who had already received the information, finally activated the last amulet that Mark gave her.

With Xu Lei's order.

That night, beams of light soared into the sky from around the Xu Family Manor.

Countless beams of light are connected to each other, and finally build a wall of energy light, covering the entire Xu Family Manor.

"Patriarch, can you... can you do it?"

"Can this thing really stop Truman's attack?"

In the Xu family manor, people were panicking.

Many clansmen doubted the reliability of the so-called Gritsberg Great Array, and did not think that with these few lights and shadows, they would be able to stop the encirclement and suppression of the number one forces in the world.

But Xu Lei's eyes were firm, and there was an inexplicable confidence in her beautiful eyes.

"Will do."

"Brother Mark's formation to protect me will definitely block all dangers in the world!"

Xu Lei spoke in a deep voice and was convinced.

Outside the Xu family manor.

A one-armed old man was leading a dozen strong Trumen to surround the Xu family.

Yes, for a secular force like the Xu family, with more than a dozen Trumen powerhouses, it is enough to completely flatten it, and there is no way to fight back.

After all, Nuo's big Xu family doesn't even have a master master.

And the one-armed old man, in his heyday, was an unparalleled powerhouse with half a foot in the title.

However, when Mark attacked Chumen, his arm was cut off by Mark and he was seriously injured, so his cultivation base stagnated.

In this life, I will never be able to step into the realm of titles again!

But even so, the current strength of the one-armed old man is enough to walk sideways in Gritsberg.

It can be said that a small Xu family can be crushed by him alone.

However, just as the one-armed old man was about to rush into the Xu Family Manor, suddenly, a beam of light shot up into the sky.

The huge light curtain covered the entire Xu Family Manor in an instant.

"Elder Dolly, you... look at it!!"

"This... what the hell is this?"

Outside the manor, the Trumen strong man was shocked and speechless.

The broken-arm old man named Dolly frowned.

"It's just a blindfold."

"Don't worry about it, everyone continue to rush in."

After a few glances, Dolly made a judgment in an instant.

Let everyone not have to worry, just rush in directly.

However, following Dolly's instructions, several Trumen strongmen rushed several times, but they were all blocked by the light curtain.

What's more, he was directly spit out blood by the light wall.

"Elder Dolly, no way!"

"This light curtain is so weird."

"We can't rush in!"

The Chumen strong man suddenly panicked, the unknown is always scary.

Just like the light curtain covering Zhenxu's manor in front of them, for them, it is undoubtedly unseen and unheard of.

"What are you panicking about?"

"Get out of the way!"

"let me."

"How dare you make an axe in front of this elder?"

"I don't believe it. This elder was half-titled back then. Could it be that he couldn't break the small formation of the secular family?"

Dolly does not believe in evil.

He gritted his teeth and drank, and then a long knife appeared in his hand.

"Break me!"

Dolly let out a roar, and the infinite energy exploded on his palm.

A vertical and horizontal sword light slashed towards the protective formation in front of him like this!

"Can you hold on?"

The Xu family members, who were hiding in the manor, saw this scene, and their palms were no doubt sweating.

Even Xu Lei held her breath unconsciously.

boom!

Finally, in the next second, there was a bang.

The entire formation, as if smashed into the lake surface of a boulder, fluctuated violently.

But this fluctuation only lasted for a moment.

Immediately afterwards, everyone saw that the old man with the broken arm, like a kite with a broken string, vomited blood, and was directly sent a hundred meters away.

The Xu family has been shocked.

Chapter 4103

They didn't expect that the formation left by Mark was really so strong?

Xu Lei's dangling heart also relaxed.

A happy smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

She knew that the things his brother Mark left her during his lifetime were the most powerful.

"Elder Dolly, are you alright!"

The people from Truman went over to help the one-armed old man.

Dolly pouted, spat out the blood from his mouth, and scolded.

"damn it!"

"This should be something like a defensive formation."

"It must have been left by Brian Chuduring his lifetime!"

"As expected of the supreme powerhouse at the top of the list, the Yu Wei left behind after his death is actually so difficult to deal with?"

Dolly cursed angrily.

With this formation, Dolly quickly realized that they couldn't rush into the Xu family manor in a short time.

"Since they can't be killed, then consume them!"

"Send my order to cut off water and electricity for them, seal off all major exits, and prohibit anyone from the Xu family from entering or leaving."

"Come out and kill one!"

"Let me see how long their Xu family can hide in there!"

Dolly changed his tactics and waited for work, ready to drag the Xu family to death.

After realizing this, the Xu family members showed despair.

"Master, what should I do?"

"They are trying to kill us!"

"The incident happened suddenly, and we didn't prepare too much water and food at all."

"Even if we don't get killed, we will starve to death sooner or later!"

The people of the Xu family panicked.

"Don't worry, I have prepared all the supplies in advance."

"Even if Truman seals us up, with the supplies I've saved, it will be enough to survive this winter."

Xu Lei's words calmed the Xu family's panicked hearts a lot.

However, someone still asked Xu Lei a key question.

"Patriarch, what about after winter?"

"What shall we do?"

After this question was asked, Xu Lei was also silent.

yes.

Even if it can survive this winter.

But what about later?

No matter how they struggled, it was only a battle of beasts.

In addition to being able to survive for a while, but still can not change the final outcome.

No one will save them.

The Martial God Temple has been destroyed.

On the Noirfork side, it should be difficult to protect itself.

After all, Xu Lei and the others were prisoners in cages, and they had already cut off any hope.

"I'm sorry everyone."

"I can only guarantee that you will survive this winter."

"As for the future, it's up to fate."

Xu Lei said in a low voice.

Her mood was also extremely heavy and depressed.

In fact, she had expected this ending.

Why didn't she return to Noirfork with Ye Yuyan?

Because she knew that she would not go back, and the result was still the same.

What if I go back to Noirfork?

What if the Wrilfill Great Array is stronger?

It can stop Truman for a day or two.

But what about one year, two years?

One day, the great formation will be broken.

At that time, it will still be the fish on the chopping board, which will be slaughtered by Truman.

It's a dead end!

It's an unintelligible dead end.

It can be said that on the day Mark fell, this dead end was already doomed.

Because there is no one who can resist Truman, and save them from life and death.

Silence, long silence.

Everyone present lowered their heads unconsciously.

How would a person feel if he knew he was going to die after this winter?

Powerlessness, despair, and crying?

"No, Miss Xu, we still have hope!"

Suddenly, Xue Renyang shouted.

Xu Lei was stunned, not knowing what Xue Renyang meant by this.

And Xue Renyang didn't speak, just trembled and handed the phone to Xu Lei.

"Miss Xu, it's... it's a dragon... the dragon master."

"A post from the Dragon Lord."

"Dragon...Dragon Lord, he is not dead."

"The Dragon Lord is coming back."

"He once again issued a call to the four seas."

"Dragon... The Dragon Lord has returned with his glory."

"We don't have to wait for this winter to end, maybe we can be saved."

Xue Renyang burst into tears with excitement.

Xu Lei looked at the post carefully, and looked at every word carefully. This woman, who has always been strong, also burst into tears in an instant.

It can stop Truman for a day or two.

Chapter 4105

“It’s him!”

“It’s my little brother!”

“It must be him.”

“My brother Mark is not dead.”

“My little brother is really not dead...”

Xu Lei’s body trembled uncontrollably.

Like a piece of ice that has been frozen for thousands of years, the moment he learned that Mark was still alive, he turned into a thousand tender feelings.

Perhaps many people doubt whether this letter was sent by Mark.

However, Xu Lei was convinced.

Because, she could read it, this was the tone of her brother Mark, and the style of that man.

“Hahaha..”

“Miss Xu, we have hope.”

“When the Dragon Lord counterattacks the hot summer, it will be time for us to escape.”

Xue Renyang was also very excited.

For them now, the message that Mark is still alive is undoubtedly the only light in the long night.

As long as Mark is here, then everything is hopeful and everything will be worth looking forward to!

And when the members of the Dragon Temple gathered from all over the world, Yue Yao, who was in charge of the Heavenly Master Dao in India, undoubtedly got the message.

However, Yueyao did not send anyone to Yanxia to support her.

She wanted to leave a way out for Mark.

Once Mark fails again this time, Yan Xia will not allow him, and their heavenly teachers will allow him!

Therefore, Yueyao did not intend to participate in this war.

But as Mark's last reliance, he stayed in India.

However, when she learned that Mark re-released the Dragon Temple, and the four seas urgently summoned the powerhouses of the Dragon Temple to gather in the hot summer, Yueyao was still nervous all day and night, unable to sleep.

She never believed in Buddhism, but she began to chant sutras.

At the same time, Mark led several Dragon God powerhouses, galloping thousands of miles to the land of the hot summer Shenzhou.

However, Gaia and the others were too slow to keep up with Mark's speed.

Therefore, Mark, who was in a hurry, decided to divide his troops into two paths.

Run at full speed and rush ahead.

And Gaia and the others came later.

Whoosh whoosh!

In the distant Pacific waters, the waves are monstrous.

As if God had a premonition that a war was coming, the waters of the eastern Pacific Ocean have been rainy and rainy these past few days.

Rolling black clouds shrouded the sea.

The originally blue water was now a deep black.

It was as if the sea beneath his feet was not the sea at all, but the nine secluded abyss where there were endless ghosts.

Above the abyss, a thin figure galloped through the air.

Looking at it from a distance, it seems like a green light runs through the world.

The strong wind brought by it created layers of white waves on the sea surface.

Like a dragon, walking on the sea!

Yes, this figure is none other than Mark, who is galloping for thousands of miles.

He had already walked this road back to Vietnam a few years ago.

At that time, he was like a lost dog and returned home.

Now, he is full of anger, and the king is back!

Soon, the long coastline of the hot summer had already appeared in Mark's sight.

In about an hour, Mark will be able to return to that piece of land, the land of his homeland that gave birth to him.

boom!

However, at this moment, a storm of energy escaping from a distant place.

On the sea, there were huge waves.

Even if he was as strong as Mark, he could feel the wave of air slicing across his body like a skating blade.

Mark stopped immediately!

He frowned and turned his head to look in the direction where the power came from.

It turned out to be the Winter Capital of Japan!

“Um?”

After realizing the source of the explosion, Mark’s brows undoubtedly wrinkled deeper.

“The fluctuation just now, separated by thousands of miles, is still so obvious.”

“Such power is comparable to a small nuclear explosion.”

“Even if the titled grandmaster fights, there will never be such energy fluctuations.”

“Could it be that it’s a powerhouse in the realm of the gods?”

Mark immediately thought of Luna.

Curious, Mark stood there and looked in the direction of the Japanese Winter Capital.

Although they were far apart, Mark couldn’t see anything at all.

However, he could clearly feel that a wave of energy fluctuations kept overflowing in the direction of the Winter Capital.

This is the scene that only appears when the strong fight.

Moreover, looking at the concentration of energy, it is very likely that two supreme powerhouses comparable to the realm of the gods are fighting!

“what happened?”

“Who is Yue’er fighting?”

“Isn’t Chu Yuan in the hot summer, did he go to Japan?”

Mark couldn’t help but worry.

When he was in seclusion in India before, Yue’er guarded him for half a year, and then left without saying goodbye.

At that time, Mark guessed that something should have happened in Japan.

However, Mark didn’t think much of it at the time.

After all, the Moon God is a powerhouse in the divine realm.

In this world, there can be anything that the Moon God cannot solve.

But now, the powerful energy fluctuations that erupted in the direction of the Winter Capital had to make Mark a little worried about the current situation of the Moon God.

He even suspected that the Chumen soldiers were divided into two groups, one to attack Yanxia, and the other to go straight to the Japanese martial arts.

Back then, the Moon God protected Mark with death.

Chu Yuan has a great possibility to solve the threat of the Moon God first, and then unscrupulously swept through the hot summer and flatten Noifork.

“In Yan Xia, there is no supreme power, only a few titles from the Martial God Temple.”

“Trumen wants to destroy Yan Xia, Xuan Ming and the two elders are enough to push them horizontally.”

“Chu Yuan really doesn’t need to do it himself.”

“The only one who can move Chu Yuan in shock is indeed Yue’er.”

Thinking of this, Mark suddenly changed his plan to go straight to Noirfork.

He first looked at the territory of Yanxia, but he didn’t feel any sign of war.

Obviously, Yanxia Martial Arts is still temporarily calm.

But in the winter capital, the energy is constantly spilling, and it can be seen that the battle has reached the point where it is inexhaustible.

“How to do?”

“To Noirfork, or to Dongjing?”

For a time, Mark was also riding a tiger, not knowing how to choose.

On the Noirfork side, Mark’s relatives and friends are all there, and it is his hometown.

In terms of personal feelings, Mark’s primary protection must be the Yanxia Noirfork.

However, Yue’er has a deep friendship with Mark, and has repeatedly risked her life and death for herself.

Now that he is obviously in danger, how can Mark bear to ignore it.

Both parties are very important to Mark. Mark couldn’t help but fall into a tangle.

After a while, Mark gritted his teeth.

“Let’s go to Noirfork first!”

“The strength of Yanxia’s martial arts is empty. Even if Chu Yuan does not go, the remaining strength of Chumen is enough to sweep Yanxia.”

“On the Japanese side, Yue’er is the power of the gods. Even if you can’t beat Chu Yuan, you should be fine to save your life.”

After weighing, Mark chose Noirfork.

After all, according to the information that Mark got before he came, the Chumen army was mainly attacking Yanxia, and there was even more information that Chu Yuan appeared in Yanxia.

The hot summer martial arts has long been in a hurry!

Although Noirfork was sheltered by the Wrill Great Array, Mark also let the scalper and the title of India go there.

But the Wrill Great Array can only last for a while.

Now Mark is afraid, the Wrill Great Array has been broken.

As for the scalpners, they are all a group of old fried dough sticks. When they are in danger, they can run faster than anyone else. It is obviously unrealistic to expect the scalpners to play a big role.

“Yue’er, hold on.”

“When I settle down Noirfork, I will go to Dongjing to help you!”

Mark looked at the direction of the Winter Capital, prayed in his heart, and then continued on to the hot summer.

However, at this time, Mark, how could he know that today’s Japan is at the end of the road!

Just as Mark guessed, the Trumen army came to East Asia, and it was indeed divided into two groups.

However, Mark did not know that the main forces of the Trumen were actually sent to Japan.

After all, in today’s world, there are only two recognized powerhouses in the divine realm.

One is in Truman, and the other is in Japan.

Therefore, the main obstacle to Truman's unification of the world is the moon god of Japan.

A few days ago, Chu Yuan had already ordered that Chu Tianqi, the head of the Chu family and the young master of the Chumen, lead all the elite forces of the Chumen to attack Japan!

As for those who attacked Yanshan, among the Chumen, they were not considered elites at all.

On the day the Martial God Temple was destroyed, the martial arts forces all over Japan were also swept away.

The remaining Japanese warriors, together with the sword god Mochizuki River, were defeated and retreated to the Three Gods Pavilion in Dongjing.

Led by the Moon God, and the Chumen army led by Chu Tianqi, launched the final battle of life and death!

Chapter 4107

Japan, Winter Beijing.

Skytree soars into the sky.

Like a sharp sword, straight into the sky.

At this time, the sun was setting, and the fiery red sun wheel shrouded the world.

At the top of the Skytree, a thin figure stood with his hands behind his back.

His eyebrows are sharp, and his handsome face has a sharpness like a sword.

And on his shoulder, there is a flying pet like a young eagle.

That flying pet had four wings on its back, red eyes and two pupils.

Like a small fire-breathing dragon.

The little guy stood on the shoulders of the man obediently, accompanied its owner, and looked down at the world under his feet.

“Back then, that Chu Tianfan, at the top of the Skytree, became famous in a battle with the Great God of Japan’s Snow Light.”

“It’s a pity that so many years have passed.”

“You’ve turned into a pinch of dust.”

“And I, really began to stand on top of this world!”

“Chu Tianfan, history has proved it.”

“You are just a passerby after all.”

“And I, Chu Tianqi, is the real master of this world!”

The man sneered.

A roaring sound resounded.

In the words, there are all the pride and arrogance that can’t be concealed.

When he said this, Chu Tianqi’s eyes were actually blooming with green and golden flowers.

If Bill Jones was still alive, he would have recognized it at a glance. This pupil was handed down from generation to generation by their Jones family, the blue-eyed and golden-flowered pupil.

Chu Tianqi stood on the Skytree for a long time.

He seemed to be feeling the breath of the dead man.

Many years ago, that person was just an unknown son-in-law in the land of Noirfork.

However, in the First World War in Japan, Susa Mingzun of Sanshen Pavilion was first killed, and Xue Zhao was defeated.

In that battle, the name of Brian Chubegan to resound all over the world, causing a sensation in the entire martial arts.

Later, Chu Tianqi also heard that Mark used his strength to conquer the supreme god of Japan, Yue Du!

According to legend, on the day Mark defeated Xue Zhao, the Japanese and Moon God fell over him and offered to kiss Mark.

Of course, these are all legends from Japanese folklore.

The official Japanese martial arts organization has repeatedly denied it, and has repeatedly claimed that Yuedu Tianshen and Brian Chu have a mortal feud, and it is too late to kill him.

But is it really just a rumor?

Chu Tianqi was full of doubts.

He remembered that when Mark killed Chumen two years ago, Luna sacrificed his life to protect Mark.

This alone is enough to prove that the relationship between Mark and Luna is very close!

“Chu Tianfan, to be honest, I was jealous of you back then.”

“I’m jealous of your strength, jealous of your reputation, and even more jealous that you let so many women fight for you like moths to a flame!”

“I still can’t figure out what kind of charm you have.”

“The supreme god of a hostile country, the supreme god of a powerful god, is fascinated by you.”

“Even my fiancée betrayed me, sending guns from thousands of miles to be your woman!”

Chu Tianqi’s face gradually turned cold.

Thinking of the past, his blue pupils even turned blood red because of resentment.

Hate!

anger!

envy!

When he thought of the man back then, Chu Tianqi became no longer calm.

The whole person is like a ferocious beast. Perhaps, as long as he kills, the resentment in his heart will be quelled.

“Chu Tianfan, I will not lose to you!”

“I will prove to grandpa, teacher, Chumen, and people all over the world that I, Chu Tianqi, are no weaker than you, Chu Tianfan!”

“You can be number one all day long, and so can I!”

“You can destroy Japan, so can I!”

“If you kill Susa Ming-zun, then I will kill Yukisho the Great God of Japan.”

“If you can conquer Yuedu, I, Chu Tianqi, can do the same!”

Chu Tianqi smiled wantonly.

In the gloomy eyes, murderous intent is raging.

Sen Ran’s words made the winter capital of Japan in early autumn feel like a cold winter!

Not long after Chu Tianqi’s words fell, in the distance, several figures came from the sky.

Walking in the air, this is the ability of the titled grandmaster.

Yes, these old men who came here at this time are all Chumen elders who followed Chu Tianqi to attack Japan this time.

“Young Master, we have been looking for you for a long time.”

“I didn’t expect you to be here.”

Seeing Chu Tianqi, these old men all bowed and saluted.

Then, they began to report their work to Chu Tianqi.

“Reporting to the young master, except for the Winter Capital, the rest of Japan’s capitals, roads, and prefectures have all been cleaned up, and they have been completely cut off.”

“Kenjingu, Japan’s highest martial arts authority, has also been trampled down!”

“But the Lord of the Sword God Palace, Mochizuki River cunningly escaped.”

“Now leading the remnants of the Japanese martial arts to hide in the Three Gods Pavilion in the Winter Capital.”

“I’m here to ask the young master for instructions. I don’t know when the young master plans to attack the Sanshen Pavilion and completely destroy the Japanese martial arts.”

“It’s better to return to the hot summer as soon as possible to meet with the old sect master.”

Several old men asked respectfully.

A few years ago, Chu Tianqi was only a junior of the Chu family, a playboy of the Chu family.

But since Brian Chu attacked the Chumen, Chu Tianqi’s position in the Chumen has grown by leaps and bounds.

Now he has been firmly seated in the top three positions of Chumen.

The right to speak is second only to his teacher Tang Yun and his grandfather, Chu Yuan.

Facing the elders’ inquiries, Chu Tianqi smiled: “You don’t need to prepare, you can do it now.”

Chu Tianqi smiled slowly.

Then, he walked out of the Skytree and slammed into the void under his feet.

boom!

It was like a 10,000-ton boulder smashed into the sea.

Over the winter capital, a terrifying sonic boom suddenly exploded.

Like a nuclear explosion.

The terrifying shock wave swept all over the place.

Within a radius of 1000 meters, countless buildings swayed violently, and the entire Winter Capital felt like a small earthquake had occurred.

The whole city was horrified.

Thinking that an earthquake occurred, they all fled to avoid it.

It was at this time that Chu Qitian's majestic voice spread all over the city.

"Japanese Snow Photo, Tenjin Yueyue, are you still not showing up for a fight?"

"If you don't come out again, don't blame me, Chu Tianfan, for stepping down the capital city!"

"Let your blood flow into a river outside the Sanshen Pavilion!"

....

"Blood in a river..."

The rolling sound echoed, like thunder swept through

The citizens of the entire Winter City heard it all.

Countless people looked up in amazement, and looked in horror at the tiny figure on the top of the Skytree.

Who would have thought that the voice like Hong Zhong Da Lu just now came from such a small body.

Inside the Three Gods Pavilion!

Wangyuehe and the others were full of grief.

“Sword God, what should I do?”

“Are we still hiding?”

“If we don’t go out again, then Chu Tianqi is afraid that he will kill civilians to vent his hatred!”

Inside the Sanshen Pavilion, several Japanese warriors spoke anxiously.

Wang Yuehe was injured and his breath was sluggish. The pale old face couldn’t think of any way at all.

“Is Luna not out yet?”

“Your Highness Moon God, if you don’t come out again, our country is really going to end!”

In desperation, Wangyuehe had to kneel outside the Moon God’s palace, waiting and begging bitterly.

As early as a few days ago, Luna had already had a battle with Chu Tianqi on the sea area.

That battle was undecided.

After returning, Luna went into seclusion.

Wangyuehe and the others suspected that Luna was injured in the battle and went to retreat to heal his wounds.

But it’s been so long, people are calling at the door of the house, and you still haven’t come out?

Do you have to wait until all your people are dead before you can come out?

Just when Wangyuehe and the others were desperate, in the Three Gods Pavilion, a woman from the dust, a white dress and three thousand blue silk, walked out slowly.

On the delicate face, there is a majesty that has been in a high position for a long time.

“Is it Your Highness Xue Zhao?”

When Wangyuehe and the others saw the people who came, they stepped forward and knelt down one after another.

“Well, get up.”

“Luna, she is still in retreat.”

“Exit, it will take time.” Xue Zhao replied.

“His Royal Highness Xuezhao, it’s too late. The Chumen have already killed the Winter Capital! Just now, Chu Tianqi said that the Winter Capital will be bloodshed.” Wangyuehe and the others were anxious.

Xue Zhao nodded: “Well, I have heard those words just now.”

“There, leave it to me.”

“You are here to protect the Moon God.”

Chapter 4109

On the top of the Skytree, Chu Tianqi stood there.

The thin body, like a long spear, stands proudly in the sky.

Behind him, the four-winged flying pet vibrated its wings and hovered in the air.

Under the Skytree, countless citizens looked up at them.

But Chu Tianqi had run out of patience.

“Aren’t you coming out yet?”

“I see how long you can endure it?”

Chu Tianqi waited here for a long time, but he did not wait for the strong Japanese to come to fight.

Chu Tianqi shook his head, he waved his palm and slashed at the city of Dongjing below.

Whoosh!

Strong as a knife.

Thousands of qi blades are like swords, slashing towards the ground below.

Under the powerhouses of Chu Qitian's level, the lives under their feet are undoubtedly nothing but grass, and they are left to Chu Qitian to harvest.

However, just as Chu Qitian's attack was about to fall, a white light lit up from the end of the Tianhe River.

That white light, with unprecedented power, instantly collided with Chu Tianqi's attack.

boom!

In the deafening sound, the two attacks were almost annihilated at the same time.

"who?"

"alert!"

The Chumen powerhouses stationed nearby were undoubtedly shocked, and they became vigilant, put on a fighting stance, and were ready to fight at any time.

Only Chu Tianqi, not only did not have any panic.

There was an inexplicable smile on the corner of his mouth.

It seems that the general who fought with a knife finally waited for his enemy!

huh~

A gust of cold wind blew slowly on the top of the Skytree.

In the next moment, everyone only saw a graceful figure coming out of the dust, stepping on the cloud, coming.

Soon, he came to Chu Tianqi.

“It’s Your Highness Xuezhao!”

“His Royal Highness is coming down...”

Under the Skytree, someone recognized the snow photos.

Suddenly excited, shouting loudly, kneeling.

“Xuezhao, you finally appeared.”

“I thought you were going to hide all the time regardless of the lives of your Japanese people?”

Looking at the holy woman in front of him, Chu Tianqi smiled faintly.

After saying this, Chu Tianqi looked back again and couldn’t help being surprised.

“Oh, save yourself?”

“What about the supreme god of your country, the Moon God?”

“Isn’t it possible that after the last war, the god of faith in your Japanese country was frightened and fled from Japan, right?”

Chu Tianqi smiled playfully.

The words were full of mockery.

In the face of ridicule, Xue Zhao did not show any emotion.

She has been sitting in the Sanshen Pavilion for so many years, and she has experienced strong winds and waves.

Chu Tianqi’s few words could not shake his heart at all.

She just raised her head and looked at the young sect master of Truman in front of her.

“Chu Tianfan, is that your brother?”

“Shut up!” Chu Tianqi, who was originally indifferent, became furious the moment he heard the name.

“Then Brian Chuis just an abandoned son, what qualifications does he have to be my elder brother?”

Chu Tianqi said angrily.

But Xue Zhao shook his head: “In terms of personality alone, you are far behind him.”

“He’s the best man I’ve ever met in the world today.”

“fu you!” Chu Tianqi couldn’t hold back, and smashed his majestic palm directly at Xue Zhao.

Xue Zhao dodged sideways, still shaking his head and continuing to speak.

“What, do you think I’m wrong?”

“I have seen your brother, and I stood with him on the top of the Skytree.”

“He makes me feel like a monarch who reigns over the world.”

“And you, to me, are just a spoiled dude.”

“If it weren’t for your family to pave the way, and without the support of your parents, would your achievements today be half of what your brother did back then?”

Xue Zhao spoke slowly.

The cold words echoed slowly in this world.

Over the years, Xue Zhao has rarely made public appearances, and has always been in the Three Gods Pavilion.

Unless the country is in danger of extinction, she basically ignores the mundane world.

Back then, when Brian Chu was bringing disaster to Japan, she came forward to fight.

In that battle, that man named Brian Chu left a deep impression on her heart.

From that day on, Xue Zhao knew that the man named Brian Chu would one day shock the world!

In fact, everything was as he expected.

Mark defeated Tang Yun, suppressed Chumen, and reached the top of the list in one fell swoop.

Even their highest god in Japan, Yueyue, was smitten by Mark.

"It's just that your brother is not as lucky as you are."

"You are protected by a powerful family behind you, and you are supported by the strongest sect in the world."

"You have a grandfather in the realm of the gods, and a group of parents and relatives who pamper you."

"And your brother, only himself."

Xue Zhao's cold voice, on the top of the Skytree, slowly thought.

Chu Tianqi became more and more furious.

"shut up!"

"Shut the fu up!"

"Then Brian Chu is mean and despicable, what does he compare to me?"

"He died at the hands of my grandfather, he was lucky."

"If he is still alive now, I, Chu Tianqi, will definitely put my hand on him, and smash that Brian Chu to ashes!"

"I will prove to the world that I, Chu Tianqi, are the best descendants of the Chu family!"

Chu Tianqi's angry voice echoed, and his tone was full of viciousness and jealousy.

Xue Zhao looked at it, but smiled softly.

"You'll never be as good as him."

"It is you who step into the realm of the gods, even if you are the best in the world."

"But your brother's charisma will be unmatched in your entire life."

"Your brother Brian Chuis really a very attractive man."

Looking at the man in front of him who was three-pointed to Chu Tianfan, Xue Zhao's eyes seemed to travel through time and space, and his memory returned to that night a few years ago.

It was a battle that she would remember her entire life, and it was the most hearty battle she had ever fought in her life.

Before this, Xue Zhao never thought that one day, he would be defeated by a young man in his early twenties!

Moreover, over the years, Xue Zhao has seen too much greed and intrigue.

But only that man named Brian Chuis so pure and sincere!

It is estimated that no one would have thought that when Brian Chuswept the Japanese country and fought a country alone, just to fulfill his promise to a woman.

The woman who made Brian Chufight the sky and the earth back then is now the supreme god of Japan, Yue Du!

Many people are puzzled. Japan has a feud with Yan Xia, but the highest god of Japan, Yueyue, has repeatedly helped Mark.

Only Xue Zhao could understand why.

Because in the darkest moment of Luna, it was the man named Brian Chuwho gave her all the light and beauty.

A man who can break into the heart of a strong person in the realm of the gods, how can this cruel and murderous playboy in front of him be comparable?

These few words from Xue Zhao finally angered Chu Tianqi completely.

His eyes became red and cruel.

The momentum all over his body has skyrocketed at a terrifying speed.

“You said I’m not as good as that abandoned child?”

“Today, this young master will let you see, is it my Chu Tianqi majesty, or that abandoned son is better!”

“You said that back then you were defeated by the abandoned son here.”

“Today, I, Chu Tianqi, can also defeat you.”

“And, I’ll let you die here!”

boom!

The moment the words fell, Chu Tianqi’s might suddenly exploded.

The golden light surged, and the sound of the dragon’s roar resounded throughout the world.

Chutian Qilong God protects the body, golden light lingers.

The infinite power is only like a god descending into the world. ,

With endless anger, he rushed forward and pointed his edge directly at the Xue Zhaotian God.

Xue Zhao did not retreat.

She has nowhere to go.

Behind her are hundreds of millions of Japanese citizens.

Luna is still in retreat.

In the current Japanese country, only she can stop this Trumen's slaughter.

Holding a seven-foot green front, she charged towards Chu Tianqi.

Dao Dao Jianmang is like a horse training, slashing forward fiercely.

Chapter 4111

rumbling...

The deafening sound kept ringing.

Wang Yuehe and others, who were hiding in the Three Gods, looked up at the peak match at the end of the Tianhe River. Because of their worries, their palms clenched unconsciously.

"Sword God, do you think His Highness Xue Zhao can win?"

The sky is long, and the stars are dim.

Under the winter capital, everyone only saw that there were two streams of light between the sky and the earth, like dragons and tigers fighting each other frantically.

The power of the explosion even shattered the clouds in the sky.

Even the starlight has dimmed a lot!

At this time, the heartstrings of the Japanese warriors were undoubtedly tense, and their hesitant hearts urgently needed a reply that was sure to win.

But Wangyuehe shook his head: "It's hard to say."

"His Royal Highness Xue Zhao was in the top 20 when he was on the list of heaven."

"Although in the past few years, under the guidance of His Highness Moon God, His Highness Xue Zhao's strength has also grown by leaps and bounds."

"If you hold on to your death, you will be able to enter the top ten on the list."

“Although Chu Tianqi is a rising star, he has come from behind and his strength is unfathomable.”

“Before, I was able to pick up Luna’s tricks.”

“So, the outcome of this battle is really hard to say.”

Wang Yuehe’s brows furrowed unconsciously, and his heart was full of worry.

He had experienced Chu Tianqi’s ability, and even saw Chu Tianqi and the Moon God fighting on the top of the sea with his own eyes.

However, in these few battles, Wang Yuehe had not seen the true strength of Chu Tianqi.

Even in the battle with the Moon God, Chu Tianqi only made a few moves, and then used despicable means to sneak attack and injured the Moon God.

Therefore, no one can say what Chu Tianqi’s true strength is.

Bang!

At the top of the Skytree, there was another fierce confrontation.

Xue Zhao slashed down with a sword energy.

Chu Tianqi smashed it out with a punch and broke it up.

But at the same time that Chu Tianqi punched, Xue Zhao jumped up, turned around and kicked Chu Tianqi’s chest!

He directly kicked Chu Tianqi to the top of the cloud.

“pretty!”

Mochizuki River and others in the distance. Overjoyed.

“As expected of His Highness Xue Zhao.”

“First, the swordsmanship attracted Chu Tianqi’s attention, and then he jumped up unexpectedly and caught him off guard!”

“Fake a sword, the latter move is the real murderous intent.”

Wang Yuehe and the others were amazed, and their hearts fell to the ground in admiration for Xue Zhao.

I thought, this is the real peerless powerhouse.

Not only the swordsmanship is superb, but also the combat experience and means are beyond the reach of people.

On the other hand, Chu Tianqi is only a rising star, and he has experienced only a handful of title-level battles. In terms of combat experience, he is naturally far inferior to Xue Zhao.

“Little Lord!”

“Are you all right?”

“Let me come to help you!”

Seeing that Chu Tianqi was at a loss, the elders of Chumen were shocked and ran over to check the injury.

“Get out of here!”

Chu Tianqi angrily shouted back the crowd.

“This is my battle with Yuzuru!”

“Don’t let anyone fuing interfere.”

“Intermediate, die!”

The loss just now undoubtedly made Chu Tianqi angry. ,

After he scolded, he stepped on the ground and charged towards Xue Zhao again.

He can’t believe it!

What Brian Chucan do, he can’t do?

Whoever Brian Chucan defeat, he can also defeat!

Under the anger, Chu Qitian’s power rose sharply.

Truman's Three Absolutes!

"The Heavenly Wolf!"

.....

Under the blessing of the Dragon God Body, Chu Tianqi directly used the superior martial arts of Chumen, the three best of Chumen!

Xue Zhao did not give in at all, holding a long sword and slashing one after another.

The cyan sword glow crisscrossed, looking at it from a distance, like a lotus flower, blooming in the air.

Just like that, Chu Tianqi and Xue Zhao once again started the most ferocious confrontation.

.....

That night, at the top of the Skytree, the sound of the collision of gold and stone was endless.

That night, the sky above the winter capital city was as bright as day.

That night, the citizens of the entire Winter Capital were unable to sleep.
