

Chapter 411

The night is already very deep, and the prosperous Jiangbin city is gradually quiet.

Under the guidance of Zhao Si, long Jiu drove his car to the beach in the suburb.

Huo Tingchen is not on guard against Zhao Si. He is very cautious. However, he can feel that since Zhao Si is able to go everywhere, there is no need to wait until now to deal with him. So he signals long Jiu to follow Zhao Si's guidance.

This is a deserted beach, especially at night, it seems very quiet. Only occasionally can you hear the sound of waves beating on the rocks, full of rhythm.

When he opened the car door, the salty sea breeze blew in front of him, which made Huo Tingchen feel relaxed and happy, and his mind was especially clear.

Not far away, a luxury business car was parked on the coast. In front of the car stood two men in straight suits, with hands on their backs, looking at him seriously with vigilance in their eyes.

As the head of the killer organization, Huo Tingchen can see at a glance that these two bodyguards can be said to be one in a million experts. With the protection of such experts, the old man of the Cheng family must be sitting in the car.

When Zhao Si got out of the car, there was an expression on his stiff face. It was just like the expression of the most devout Christians when they met God.

He walked over a few steps. From his movements, Zhao Si was also a hidden master. Huo Tingchen estimated his strength. Maybe he was not even his opponent.

"Old lady, Mr. Huo is here."

Zhao Si opened the car door, first bowed deeply, then said to the people in the car in a very humble voice.

"Well, it's hard for you."

An old voice, as if with endless vicissitudes, but also has a kind of courage, can be seen is a regular command of the superior.

Zhao Si seemed to get a great reward for a polite remark from Mrs. Cheng. His face showed uncontrollable joy and his voice trembled with excitement. However, he still kept a humble attitude: "I'm serious. This is what I should do."

"When I go back, I'll let one of your family go. It's up to you to decide who to let go."

With the help of Zhao Si, Mrs. Cheng slowly gets out of the car and comes to Huo Tingchen. Mrs. Cheng squints her eyes and looks up and down at Huo Tingchen with a mask. There is a touch of joy in her plain eyes.

"Old lady, this is Mr. Huo."

Zhao Si's face turned red with excitement, but he was obviously trying to control his emotions. He still introduced Mrs. Cheng in a very humble voice.

Huo Tingchen is also looking at Mrs. Cheng. There is something strange in his eyes. When he meets Mrs. Cheng's eyes, what he first feels is a kind of oppression that he has never felt before. Even when he faces Jin Zhengting, he has never felt this kind of feeling. The arrogance that Mr. Cheng exudes is unique, because it is formed after decades of precipitation. It's an instinct.

Just when Huo Tingchen felt that he was almost choked by Mrs. Cheng, Mrs. Cheng's eyes changed again, and the awe-inspiring momentum gradually dissipated, but he seemed to have a kind feeling towards Mrs. Cheng.

This kind of feeling is really wonderful. Huo Tingchen has not felt this kind of feeling for a long time. The last time when he was very young, his grandfather took him to play in the garden.

Mrs. Cheng smiles. She is very old. When she smiles, her face is full of wrinkles, but it doesn't feel old. Instead, she thinks that the wrinkles on her face are just the experience left by time.

"Tingchen, we finally meet." Mrs. Cheng's tone was very flat, but with a very hidden excitement and deep sorrow.

Huo Tingchen kept a gentleman's smile. He nodded his head slightly to Mrs. Cheng: "Hello, Mrs. Cheng. I'm Huo Tingchen."

Mrs. Cheng did not answer him immediately, but said to Zhao Si, who was supporting her by her side: "Take them two away from here. I don't want to let others know about the conversation between Tingchen and me. If there are suspicious people nearby, you should know what to do."

Zhao Si bowed respectfully: "I understand, Mrs. Cheng. If you have any orders, just call me."

He said and waved to the two bodyguards. The two bodyguards knew each other and went in different directions. After about 100 meters, they stopped and looked around like wild animals inspecting territory.

Just as Zhao Si was about to step down, Mrs. Cheng added: "I'm old and I'm afraid of noise. Don't use a gun when I kill people."

"Yes."

Zhao Si bowed again, then made a gesture to the two bodyguards, and slowly retreated to a far position.

Seeing that they had gone far away, Cheng turned around, smiling, stretched out his hand and touched Huo Tingchen's face.

Seeing Mrs. Cheng's action, Huo Tingchen was stunned. He subconsciously wanted to avoid it, but after seeing Mrs. Cheng's eyes which could not be refused, he turned his heart and stayed in the same place, waiting for Mrs. Cheng's hand to stick to his face. Mrs. Cheng's skin is very well maintained. Even at her age, when the palm of her hand is attached to Huo Tingchen's face, he can still feel the unique tenderness and smoothness of a woman's skin.

With a kind smile on her face, Mrs. Cheng kept stroking Huo Tingchen's face. Then she suddenly raised her hand and slapped him in the face. She said sternly, "kneel down!"

Huo Tingchen felt a hot pain on his cheek, and a cold anger flashed in Feng's eyes. Even if he was the most powerful person in the Cheng family, he could not bear such humiliation.

However, his reason told him that since Mrs. Cheng chose to meet him here, she must be prepared, and the two bodyguards are already super experts. I don't know how many people like them are hiding on this dark beach. For example, now she rashly attacks Mrs. Cheng, and the consequences are probably unimaginable.

He forced himself to restrain his impending outburst and coldly said to old lady Cheng, "old lady, maybe I'm wearing a mask. You may really think of me as Cheng Mohan. I'm Huo Tingchen, not your grandson. The family rules of your Cheng family should not apply to me."

Old lady Cheng's eyes narrowed, which was the precursor of the old man's anger: "just because I know you are Huo Tingchen, I use family law to you. Why, you are not convinced?"

Huo Tingchen's gloomy smile: "old lady Cheng, when did I become a member of your Cheng family?"

"I'm not using Cheng's family method to you, but our Huo's family method!"

The corner of Mrs. Cheng's eyes trembled a few times. It was obvious that she was already angry. Huo Tingchen didn't know why she was angry, and he didn't have time to guess, because his whole attention was focused on what Mrs. Cheng said.

He didn't understand Mrs. Cheng's family law, but he faintly felt that she had a big secret, which was related to him and the Huo family.

"Mrs. Cheng, please make it clear. I don't understand. What's the relationship between you and my Huo family?"

Mrs. Cheng snorted: "you are an unfilial child. I tell you that I am your grandmother. Do you think I have the right to use family law against you?"

"Granny?"

Huo Tingchen's surprised stare big a pair of Phoenix eyes, he can't believe of looking at old lady Cheng, see her a face of calm, don't seem to lie meaning.

His brain is running at full speed. His grandmother was killed by the Jin family when he was very young. This is what he saw with his own eyes. How can he become the old lady Cheng?

"Strange? Tingchen, I'm really your grandmother. "

Mrs. Cheng's face showed a kind smile again. Her happiness and anger were hard to control.

"Can you tell me what's going on?"

Huo Tingchen's thinking is a little confused now, because the current situation is very chaotic, so that he can't get a clear idea at all.

"Ah."

Mrs. Cheng sighed and looked at the distant sea with a slightly turbid look: "before I married into the Cheng family, I was a member of the Huo family. I was your grandfather's sister."

"What?"

Huo Tingchen was even more shocked. He thought that there were only him and long Jiu left in the Huo family. Unexpectedly, old lady Cheng was also a member of the Huo family.

"But why have I never heard them mention it?"

Mrs. Cheng's face showed a grudge: "of course he won't mention me, the whole Huo family won't mention me, because I'm with your grandfather."

Huo Tingchen's face once again showed an expression of extreme surprise. Without the old lady's words, he figured out that if the Huo family, a very influential family in the society, had a brother and sister incest scandal, it would not be easy to mention.

"At that time, in order to separate me from your grandfather, the owner of the Huo family forced me to marry into the Cheng family. But at that time, I was already pregnant, so I had to hide from the Cheng family. After the child was born, I secretly sent it back to the Huo family and gave it to your grandfather to take care of. The child is your father. Do you think I'm your grandmother?"

Huo Tingchen pondered and nodded: "if I guess correctly, did you find a child to replace my father and raise him, who was the owner of the Cheng family of the previous generation?"

Mrs. Cheng nodded with satisfaction: "you are very smart. That's what I did. Originally, I planned to tell your father the truth when I had a chance. Let him call me mom. I have no regrets in my life, but I didn't expect that the Jin family destroyed our Huo family!"

Mrs. Cheng's face became ferocious: "so I deliberately forbore in the Cheng family. Finally, when the old ghost of the Cheng family died, I took over the power of the Cheng family. I'm waiting for you to grow up and take revenge on the Jin family. I'll give you the Cheng family's property again. I didn't expect that you disappointed me so much that I was defeated by the hairy kid of the Jin family several times. What do you say Should I use family law against you? "

Huo Tingchen fell to his knees and said, "grandma, I'm incompetent and can't avenge the Huo family. Please punish me!"

Mrs. Cheng suddenly laughed: "Dear grandson, as long as you still have this heart, grandma will not punish you. This time, grandma called you to tell you a secret."With her help, Huo Tingchen stood up and asked, "grandma, what secret do you want to tell me?"

"A secret about the treasure. If you get this treasure, you can deal with the Jin family as much as you like."

Huo Tingchen's eyes flashed: "is it the secret treasure of Huo family in Siberia?"

"Long Jiu must have told you that? If she's not my granddaughter, or if she's giving you false information, I can strip her of her skin. "

Old lady Cheng takes a look at long Jiu from a distance, and there is a sinister expression in her eyes.

"Long Jiu lied to me?" Huo Tingchen also looked at longjiu suspiciously.

Mrs. Cheng's face showed a cunning look: "no, she didn't cheat you. The news she got was that I deliberately let her out to cheat the Jin family. Unexpectedly, the two younger generation of the Cheng family also found out. But don't worry, the treasure is not in Siberia. They can't find it."

Huo Tingchen couldn't help asking: "grandma, where is this treasure?"

Old lady Cheng gave a faint smile: "Southeast Asia!"

Chapter 412

"At that time, only your grandfather and I knew the specific location of the treasure. At that time, Jin and Cheng were already eyeing our Huo family, so your grandfather deliberately leaked a fake treasure location, so that the two families would not kill the Huo family after they got the treasure."

Mrs. Cheng's face shows a ferocious expression. She is in a state of extreme anger, which shows her hatred for Jin and Cheng.

Huo Tingchen digested these amazing anecdotes and asked: "grandma, although we know the specific location of the treasure, we can't get the treasure without the necklace in our hands. Isn't it all in vain?"

Mrs. Cheng gave a faint smile: "silly grandson, do you think there is only one necklace in the world that can open the treasure house? When you were as like as two peas, did you have a very close housekeeper? He had a necklace just like his hand. If you could find him, you could get the treasure that belongs to our Huo family without causing him to disturb the Jin family.

Huo Tingchen thought deeply. In his impression, there was a housekeeper named Huo Zhong who often took care of himself when he was very young. His grandfather and father trusted him very much. The housekeeper of Cheng Laofu's population was probably talking about him.

However, after the destruction of the Huo family, huozhong's whereabouts are unknown. According to the Jin family's style, he may have been uprooted.

Huo Tingchen is a bit absent-minded. If Huo Zhong is no longer there, the key to the treasure house is only the necklace in Jin Zhengting's hand. It's like a fool's dream to seize the necklace from him.

Seeing his dejected expression, Cheng Laofu raised her hand with a clear slap in the face. She pointed to Huo Tingchen and said angrily, "as the head of the Huo family, how can you be so unpromising? Even if you can't find Huo Zhong, you have to take the necklace back from the rough boy of Jin family! How can you win if you are afraid before you start fighting? "

Huo Tingchen bit his teeth and lowered his head. Fierce light came out of his eyes. He said word by word: "grandma, don't worry, I won't lose to him again!"

Mrs. Cheng nodded with satisfaction: "well, it's like a little bit. I know that the Jin family is very difficult to deal with, but this is not the reason why you are afraid. You should never forget the blood feud for the Huo family!"

"Yes, I will never forget the hatred of the Huo family!"

Huo Tingchen's eyes are full of hatred. His heart is filled with hatred again, and his expression is ferocious.

"I've taken a lot of risks in coming to Jiangbin this time. If the senior management knows about this, I'm afraid the Cheng family will suffer a serious blow. At that time, I can't help you behind my back, so now I can't help you. But you can rest assured that as long as I can help you, grandma will try her best to help you."

Mrs. Cheng looked at Huo Tingchen lovingly and said with a smile.

Huo Tingchen took a deep breath and suddenly thought of something. He looked around and saw that there was no one left or right. Then he whispered, "grandma, be careful about Cheng mobing. She is ready to use me to deal with you. If Zhao Si didn't stop me in time, grandma and I would be dead."

Old lady Cheng's eyes narrowed, and she said faintly: "I have known for a long time that she has ideas about the position of the Cheng family's owner. Don't worry, she is not qualified to fight me. Good grandson, there is one more thing I want to ask you. Do you have anything to do with your sister long Jiu?"

Huo Tingchen was stunned for a moment. He didn't know how to answer this question. After all, his grandparents were brothers and sisters. He nodded vaguely: "she loves me very much."

"Well, we should be together. Don't let me repeat the tragedy of your grandfather again. You can come to Jiangdong in two days and play a play with me to show Cheng mobing, so that she can believe you more. Because her company is running smoothly, it's hard for me to control her. Just take this opportunity to merge her company, so that you can have more confidence to break hands with the kid of Jin family Wrist, all right, let's go. "

With that, Mrs. Cheng took a look at Zhao Si, who was still far away.

Zhao Si, like a pair of eyes, ran directly to help old lady Cheng. There were some mottled marks on his clothes, and the air was filled with a little bloody smell with his arrival.

"All the stalkers have been done?"

Cheng asked lightly. In her opinion, killing someone is nothing to be surprised about.

"Yes, old lady. I've done two of them. According to your order, I used a knife."

Zhao Si's face was still expressionless. He habitually lowered his head in front of Mrs. Cheng, and said humbly.

"Do you know who they are?"

Mrs. Cheng nodded and continued to ask.

"Yes, one is Cheng mobing's assistant, the other is Jin Zhengting's employee." Zhao Si immediately replied that no one knows what method he used to collect some trivial and ordinary information with great accuracy.

"Well, these two people are staring at you. Be careful. If you need any help, just go to Zhao Si. Don't forget what I told you."

Mrs. Cheng took another loving look at Huo Tingchen and got into the car with Zhao Si's help. Two bodyguards also got into the car. After Zhao Si bowed piously to say goodbye, the car slowly drove away from the beach. "Zhao Si, you do one thing for me."

When Mrs. Cheng's car disappears on the road, Huo Tingchen turns to Zhao Si.

"The old lady told me that Mr. Huo can come to me for anything, and I will try my best to help you finish it."

Maybe it's because Mrs. Cheng's attitude towards Huo Tingchen is very caring, so Zhao Si's attitude towards him is much better. She is no longer cold, but has a flattering meaning.

This feeling made Huo Tingchen very useful. He lit a cigarette, took a deep breath, and then slowly said, "help me find a person named Huo Zhong."

"Yes, Mr. Huo."

Zhao Si agreed. He didn't ask anything, but he had a confident expression on his face. It seemed that as long as he was looking for someone, he would find it.

Huo Tingchen is very interested in him. Although Zhao Si is a little annoying to him, he needs Zhao Si's ability.

"Zhao Si, if I tell Mrs. Cheng to let go of all your family, would you like to follow me?"

Huo Tingchen made a direct offer to him. Every detail from the meeting with Mrs. Cheng is in his mind. Xu Zheng has a saying that is correct. He is too good at catching other people's weaknesses.

Zhao Si's face changed when he was stunned. His lips murmured and wriggled for a long time before he said in a slightly out of tune voice, "Mr. Huo, as long as you can let the old lady let go of my family, I'm willing to follow you all my life!"

"As long as you help me find Huo Zhong, I'll talk to my husband."

Huo Tingchen breathes out a mouthful of white smoke comfortably, and his future is finally clear. With Mrs. Cheng in charge, he feels that his confidence begins to explode, and Jin Zhengting will not pay attention to it any more, because the chips in his hand are enough to crush the whole Jin family.

Jin family villa.

Zhao Tongxin is still packing her clothes. This is her first trip with Jin Zhengting. She can't help but feel a little excited.

Jin Zhengting's clothes were all specially made for her overnight. Each of them fully considered the climate and environment of Southeast Asia and the actual situation of her pregnancy.

He considered every detail very carefully. For example, the fabric of the clothes is the softest and has good heat dissipation. There is a special layer of heat insulation material on the outside. After wearing it, it will be very comfortable even in the most humid and hot climate of the jungle.

Each piece of clothing is smoked with a special fragrance that is harmless to human body, emitting a faint fragrance, which can not only make people relaxed and happy, but also effectively drive away mosquitoes.

The most intimate thing is that in the abdomen of the clothes, there is a very soft but very strong composite material, which she knew was specially designed to protect the fetus in her stomach.

"Can I design it?"

Jin Zhengting didn't know when he came to her back, encircled her waist from behind, and said faintly in her ear.

His breath came from her ears. It was itchy. The numbness quickly flowed to her whole body, making her body soft and leaning against his broad arms.

"Zhenqting, did you design all these clothes?"

Zhao Tong Xin's heart is filled with a burst of sweetness. He can show his attention and concern for her everywhere. She likes this kind of feeling.

"I haven't designed clothes for a long time. I'm a little unfamiliar."

Jin Zhengting's face is still not too much expression, just look at her eyes more and more gentle.

"Zhenqting, I like your design."

Zhao Tongxin is moved to say that Jin Zhengting's position does not require him to design it by himself. Naturally, someone will do it well. It's just because these clothes are for her to wear, and he will not be relieved to give them to anyone.

"It doesn't matter whether you like it or not. The most important thing is that this kind of clothes will be very useful in Southeast Asia. I've asked someone to prepare other necessary things for you. It's getting late. Have a rest early."

Jin Zhengting takes Zhao Tongxin by the hand and walks to the bedroom.

"We've been together for a long time, and we haven't traveled together. You can compensate me this time."

Zhao Tong Xin felt the temperature coming from his palm and said softly.

"You are not fit to travel because of your health."

Jin Zhengting's answer was very simple. In essence, he did not want Zhao Tongxin to go to Southeast Asia, but he did not want to disappoint her, so he agreed to her request.

"Are you angry with me? I know you are for my good. I am too stubborn and unreasonable, but I really want to be responsible for the company. I know that the company is the pillar of the group. I don't want the company to become the weakness of the group under my management."

Zhao Tong said in a low voice, how could she not know Jin Zhengting's idea?

She felt that she was taking advantage of his indulgence, so she had a faint sense of guilt for him.

Jin Zhengting turned around, hugged her into his arms and said faintly, "I understand. I'm just worried about your body. I've been to Southeast Asia many times. Living there for a period of time is not as easy as living at home." "I'll take good care of myself, and I don't have you with me. I think you can take good care of me."

Zhao Tong's eyes are full of happiness, because no matter how willful her little temper is, Jin Zhengting will always accommodate her and protect her as before, and will never change, which is enough for her.

"Well, I will."

Jin Zhengting never easily expresses his feelings and makes promises to others, but Zhao Tongxin is not his other person. He can give her everything. He likes to spoil her.

"Zhengting, sleep with me, OK?"

His arms are the warmest harbor of Zhao Tong's heart. In his arms, she always goes to sleep with that kind of comfortable feeling, and it will be a very sweet dream.

Jin Zhengting gently kisses her forehead and holds her up. He looks down at her with a pair of deep eyes and says, "OK."

Zhao Tong buried his head in his arms. He was the only one in the world who would never refuse her.

Chapter 413

In the early morning, Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin got up, washed up and took Jin Zhengting's private helicopter to Jiangbin hospital.

They will visit Rong Lei before departure, and then go to the group and the jewelry company to explain their more important work. During their departure, the group will be handed over to Yang ziyue and Lu zhanyan, and Zhao Tongxin's jewelry company will be handed over to Rong Qi. Finally, they will go to the airport to meet Chen dongshaoyuan and his wife and take a private plane to Southeast Asia mountain area.

The hospital is their first stop, and Jin Zhengting is most concerned about Rong Lei.

When they arrived at the hospital, Rong Lei was not out of danger. Through the glass of the ICU ward, we could see that he was still in a coma on the bed, and his body was filled with various medical tubes to support his life. However, his breathing was stable, his ECG was normal, and his vitality was very strong. As long as he was treated properly, his life would not be in danger.

Xu Yanke is sitting on the bench outside the intensive care unit. Her face is very haggard and her beautiful eyes are full of blood. It is obvious that she has been guarding Rong Lei all night.

"We are going to Southeast Asia for a period of time. When we are away, Rong Lei will give it to you. When he wakes up, remember to inform us that Shaoyuan will go with us. Only Rong Qi is in charge of the company. When Rong Lei gets better, you and Rong Qi will be responsible for the daily business of the company."

As Xu Yanke's boss, Zhao Tongxin skillfully arranged her work during her absence.

"Well, now that you are pregnant, why do you have to go in person? Are you out of your mind? "

Xu Yanke, who didn't close his eyes all night, is a little grumpy and says to Zhao Tongxin.

Zhao Tongxin didn't care about her bad mood. She gave a faint smile: "I'll take it as your concern for me. Your main task is to take care of Rong Lei. The company's affairs can be released for the time being."

She said, but also a deep look at Xu Yanke, Xu Yanke was her face some unnatural, hum a said: "don't be amorous, I won't care about you, and you're not when I won't be lazy, rest assured, Rong Lei I will take good care of."

"Well, I believe that."

Zhao Tongxin smiles again. Xu Yanke always thinks that her smile is a little unkind. He looks at Jin Zhengting, who is cold and arrogant. He finds that his eyes also have a smile that is not easy to detect. It seems that two people misunderstood something. As soon as she wants to explain, Zhao Tongxin gives her a Topaz: "Topaz represents health. I'll give it to you. I hope Rong Lei will come early I'm going to get better on Sunday

"Hey, it's him who got hurt, not me. Why do you give it to me?" Xu Yan is a little confused.

Jin Zhengting light said: "give him and give you no difference."

"You are not mistaken, I and Rong Lei really nothing!"

Xu Yan can explain in a hurry, but his face is already flushed.

Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tong smile at each other and almost say in one voice: "don't explain to me."

Two people walk away hand in hand, Xu Yanke holding the topaz, biting his lips and saying to himself: "why don't you listen to my explanation, I really have nothing to do with him."

But if you think about it carefully, it seems a good thing to be with a man who is willing to give his life.

"Bah, bah, bah, what are you thinking! How can miss Ben look up to Rong Lei? " Xu Yan can secretly scold himself, but the blush on his face is more intense.

Emotional things are really wonderful. Inadvertently, Rong Lei seems to really go into Xu Yanke's heart. Even she doesn't know why. Maybe it's just because he saved her, because no one has ever cared about her, and no one has been nice to her, so she is full of gratitude to him. Only very soon, she feels that in addition to gratitude, she seems to have a little more other feeling. She is very grateful Want to find a reason, but always can't think out, vaguely feel like it is from the two people were kidnapped by Huo Tingchen that night.

"There's no reason at all."

Xu Yanke thought for a long time with her head in her arms, but she didn't come up with a reason. It's just that she doesn't know how to like someone, so she really doesn't need a reason.

Looking at Rong Lei in a coma through the glass, Xu Yanke gritted his teeth and said, "get better quickly. Don't think you don't have to pay back gambling debts in the hospital!"

Two people out of the hospital, on the helicopter, Zhao Tongxin nestled in Jin Zhengting's arms, quietly said: "I think Xu Yanke and Rong Lei if really can be together, also very good."

"I know Rong Lei. He is a trustworthy man, but I don't know that Xu Yan doesn't really have feelings for Rong Lei. We'd better not interfere in their affairs and let it be."

Jin Zhengting stroked her hair and said calmly that he was not an expert on emotion, but he knew that emotion could not be forced, so he was more willing to give them an independent space for their own development. As for the degree of development, it depends on the will of heaven.

"I think we should help Xu Yanke. She has been in a dark environment for a long time, so it's hard to avoid deviation in her inner world. Maybe a relationship can change her? I think Rong Lei is very suitable for Xu Yanke. He is very careful, and he is his own person. He has no prejudice against Xu Yanke. When he comes back this time, I'll talk to Rong Lei about it and see what he thinks. "Zhao Tong Xin's eyes are full of gentle brilliance. She has Jin Zhengting beside her, so she thinks she is very happy, so she also hopes everyone is happy.

Jin Zhengting smiles and hugs her more tightly: "I think you'd better resign from the position of president of the company and be a matchmaker."

"Anyway, Xu Yanke is also our sister. We should think about the future for her."

Zhao Tongxin looks at Jin Zhengting with inquiring eyes. She is waiting for his answer.

"I know you want her to go back to Jin's, but it's not the right time."

Jin Zhengting light answer, he has a deeper consideration.

"When will it be? Xu Yanke's life experience has been exposed for some time. If we don't let her go home again, I'm afraid she will be sad. "

Zhao Tong's heart is really too kind. Even if she was once a deadly enemy, she doesn't want to see her family sad.

"At least until Xiao Ying forgives her."

Jin Zhengting frowned slightly and said that, as he said, Jin Ying's eyes were stabbed by Xu Yanke. She accepted Xu Yanke, but she did not forgive her.

Both of them are his sisters. Emotionally, he has deeper feelings for Jin Ying. In this case, Jin Ying plays the role of an innocent victim. Considering Jin Ying's feelings, he feels that the time to let Xu Yanke go home is not very mature.

Although Jin Zhengting is indifferent to Jin Ying on the outside, from the inside, he still cares about his sister. He once put her in a mental hospital because Jin yingtact met him. No one can hurt Zhao Tong's heart.

Zhao Tong thought about it and thought that he was considerate, so he nodded: "I'll talk to Xiao Ying when this matter comes back."

"Well, I know you do it for the good of the Jin family, but don't worry about everything. Your health matters."

Jin Zhengting said to Zhao Tongxin in an almost commanding tone, but she didn't think he was overbearing, because in his tone, she heard a strong concern.

"Well, when these things are settled, I'll give myself a holiday and give birth to the baby with peace of mind."

Zhao Tong Xin answers cleverly, leans his head on his shoulder and closes his eyes comfortably.

The helicopter soon came to their respective companies, and they handled their own affairs separately. The helicopter took them to Jiangbin airport.

Chen Dong and Shaoyuan had been waiting there for a long time. After meeting and exchanging greetings, Chen Dong said, "Zhengting, I want to thank you for this."

Jin Zhengting knew that he was talking about the cooperation between the two sides. He said faintly: "don't thank me. This matter is Tong Xin's responsibility and has nothing to do with me."

"Thank you. I'm not polite to you."

Chen Dong sincerely said that he naturally knew that if Jin Zhengting didn't agree, the cooperation would not be successful. What's more, he got Jin Zhengting's hint on the cruise ship last time, which saved him from Huo Tingchen's calculation. No matter how proud he is, this thank you still has to be said.

Those who start up in the underworld are more loyal than ordinary people.

Jin Zhengting light smile: "you are too polite, spoon garden has helped Tong Xin many times, should I also thank you?"

Chen Dong quickly waved his hand: "it's too heavy. I can't afford it."

Spoon garden came over and patted Chen Dong on the shoulder, and said with a small mouth: "husband, why do you and boss have Tong Xin so outspoken? Tong Xin is my best friend, and she should help me, right, Tong Xin?"

Zhao Tong Xin nodded with a smile and said quietly, "Chen Dong, you're welcome. I just did a small favor for you. You don't have to thank me. There are still many opportunities for us to cooperate in the future. Can't you just thank me once for cooperation?"

Chen Dong's face was touched by the look, he solemnly nodded: "well, since you and Tong Xin have said so, then I will not say anything, something is not so polite."

He is a smart man, so he knows the value of this cooperation very well. If this trip to Southeast Asia can successfully find the original stone mines, then all his subordinates will have a real industry.

Although he started as a gangster, he didn't want to wash white after a long time. Obviously, there was a good opportunity in front of him. So when Shaoyuan came home to talk about it with him, he agreed without hesitation.

"Spoon, have you arranged for the children?"

Zhao Tongxin is very concerned about the situation of Shaoyuan's family. This time, she took Chen Dong to Southeast Asia for her own sake, so she must care about it.

"I've found a reliable nanny. She's going to take care of the children these days. I've arranged everything. Don't worry."

Shaoyuan was moved to say that she likes to be with Zhao Tongxin, because she can feel her warm kindness at any time.

"I'll send someone to protect the children."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he said that sending someone to protect him must be using Jin's bodyguards to ensure that Chen Dong and Shaoyuan have no worries.

"Zhengting, my subordinates are pretty good, not necessarily worse than yours." Chen Dong made a joke. He knew that Huo Tingchen would know about this cooperation with Jin Zhengting sooner or later. With his character, he would deal with him by any means.

now his only weakness is spoon Park and children. So before the trip, a lot of people have been mobilized to protect their children's safety.

Jin Zhengting's best efforts to protect his family are releasing his sincerity of cooperation.

"Be prepared."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he would not allow anyone to threaten his friends.

Shaoyuan punched him on the back: "husband, you just listen to the boss, just your indecent subordinates. I can fight 50 by myself. How can I compare with the boss's bodyguards?"

Chen Dong grinned in pain and said in a low voice, "wife, in front of Mr. Jin, would you like to save some face for me?"

Spoon garden a stare: "face is important or children's safety is important?"

"wife has the final say."

Chapter 414

"Cousin, Jin Zhengting shows up at the airport with Zhao Tongxin. I don't know where they are going."

Xu Zheng is still in a dream, Xu Ting's phone call came, he some rudely pushed the woman around, some confused asked: "where did they go?"

"They were flying in Jin's private plane, so it's not clear where they went, but I heard from my friends at the airport that they were going to Southeast Asia."

"What?"

Xu Zheng suddenly sober, he a spirit sat up from the bed: "reliable information?"

"The news is absolutely reliable. Now Jin Zhengting has entrusted the group affairs to Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan. Zhao Tongxin has also handed over the jewelry company to Rong Qi. The plane took off for about half an hour. I don't know whether I should tell Huo Tingchen before I called my cousin."

Xu Zheng frowned and pondered for a moment, and said, "don't tell Huo Tingchen the news for the time being. By the way, who else is with him except Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin?"

"Chen Dong and Shaoyuan, as well as a young man I don't know, seem to be the new security director of Zhao Tongxin company."

"Well, I see. Wait till I hear from you."

Xu Zheng hung up Xu Ting and dialed Cheng mobing's mobile phone: "Hello, Miss Cheng, this is Xu Zheng."

Cheng Mo Bing's voice was a bit lazy and charming when she just woke up: "Mr. Xu, what can I do for you so early?"

"I just got the news that Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin took several people to Southeast Asia. Maybe they also went to look for cheap raw stones. If they found a mine, our plan would be in vain."

Xu Zheng is very anxious. Their carefully designed plan may become useless. He doesn't want to miss the chance to win Jin Zhengting.

"Mr. Xu, if there's nothing else, I want to sleep for a while. Women need to keep enough sleep to have good skin."

Cheng mobing doesn't seem to care about Xu Zheng's worries. He yawns lazily.

As soon as Xu Zheng heard this, he was worried: "when things come to this point, are you still in the mood to sleep?"

"Take it easy. Do you think I don't know what they're doing? To tell you the truth, the flight attendants on the Jin family's private plane are all my people. I think it's very difficult for them to fly to Southeast Asia, but it's a pity that Jin Zhengting, originally I was very interested in conquering him, but it seems that they probably don't have this opportunity. "

Xu Zheng's heart filled with a strong jealousy: "you in front of me, mention other men, is there something wrong?"

"Is Mr. Xu jealous? I'm so sorry. "

Cheng Mo Bing burst of smile: "Mr. Xu is also a playboy of Jiangbin, you will not naive think that after I sleep with you that night, I really have feelings for you?"

"What do you mean?"

Xu Zheng's face became very ugly. That day he was drinking in a bar. Cheng mobing took the initiative to find him. When he saw her, he was attracted by her unique wild charm.

That night, Cheng mobing told him all his plans, asked him to help her deal with Huo Tingchen, promised that when she used Huo Tingchen to bring down the Cheng family, she would kill Huo Tingchen and give him 20% of the Cheng family's assets.

Although he has great interests, he also bears great risks. Originally, he didn't want to get involved in the dispute between Jin and Cheng. Unfortunately, he resisted Cheng mobing's economic conditions, but still failed to resist her extreme charm. Finally, under the dual effects of alcohol and beauty, he fell in love with her.

He agreed to the intention of cooperation between the two sides, not because he valued Cheng's assets, but because he couldn't help falling in love with Cheng mobing.

He tried to pursue Cheng mobing, but only got her ambiguous answer, that is, to help her get rid of Zhao Tongxin first. It can be seen that she also has deep hostility towards Zhao Tongxin. Although Zhao Tongxin is his cousin, there are Xu Ting before and Cheng mobing after. After some struggle, Xu Zheng decided to give up Zhao Tongxin for two women.

That's why Xu Zheng deliberately designs Zhao Tongxin and her jewelry company. Now she finds out that Cheng mobing is just playing tricks.

This woman knows all the means to deal with men, and the technique is quite mature. Even a smart man like Xu Zheng has been submitted to her feet, which shows that she is very good at making use of her own advantages.

"Mr. Xu, I might as well tell you frankly that I'm just making use of you. Now you have lost the value of using you. So, I think our cooperative relationship ends here."

Xu Zheng's face was even more ugly. His teeth rattled: "Cheng mobing, aren't you afraid that I will tell Huo Tingchen everything?"

Cheng Mo Bing had another smile: "Xu Zheng, don't you know that Huo Tingchen left Jiangbin last night? It's estimated that he should have arrived at Cheng's villa by now. Now it's too late for you to repent. If I were you, I would never say such words, because soon you'll find that I'm the one in charge of the overall situation. Once I get angry, I'll be happy I don't mind kicking you and your Xu family outXu Zheng's eyes are constantly shaking. He is extremely angry because he hates being used by others, especially a woman.

"Mr. Xu, you've done me a big favor. In a word, as long as you're honest, I promise I won't hurt you and move the Xu family. OK, I'll sleep for a while. Bye."

Cheng mobing said a word, and then Xu Zheng heard a busy sound.

"Asshole!"

Xu Zheng angrily fell the mobile phone on the wall, and the global limited edition mobile phone broke to pieces immediately.

"Cheng mobing, I'll make you pay for it!" He bit his teeth viciously, and his eyes became cold gradually.

Pony is the first time to fly, so everything seems so fresh, keep looking out through the window, the warm sunshine in the early morning will dye the white clouds with a layer of golden halo, it looks so beautiful.

Jin Zhengting took a look at the restless pony and said to Zhao Tongxin: "is he the security guard who knows a thousand skills?"

Zhao Tongxin nodded: "it used to be, but now it's the director of the company's security department."

Jin Zhengting looked at the pony carefully, showing a satisfied expression on his proud face: "Tong Xin, you have made progress. I can conclude that you have not read him wrong."

"I just think he's suitable for security work." In fact, Zhao Tongxin doesn't think there's anything special about Xiaoma. It's just that he is very loyal to the company, so he will be promoted out of the ordinary. After all, the security work needs a person who she can rest assured of.

"No, a master with thousands of skills will be very careful. I can see that he is a master, so he is very sensitive to subtle things. Security work needs this kind of carefulness."

From a very professional point of view, Jin Zhengting has always been very accurate in judging people.

At this time, the horse's eyes swept the cabin. The plane was Jin's private plane, so only five of them were on board, and there were three or four flight attendants, ready to serve them at any time.

Pony's eyebrows suddenly wrinkled. He quickly untied his seat belt and came to Jin Zhengting. He whispered, "boss, Mr. Zhao, something's wrong."

"What's the matter?" Zhao Tong asked subconsciously.

The pony hissed, and then lowered his voice: "Mr. Zhao, look at these flight attendants, their expressions are very dignified, as if something happened."

Zhao Tong Xin looked over and found that the faces of the flight attendants were stiff and heavy, but she didn't care. She said with a smile, "you're too sensitive. You can't see anything from your face."

"No, Mr. Zhao, look at their belts. They are bulging in the middle. I think they must have weapons on them." Pony said cautiously.

"How can it be? The security check at the airport is very strict. You said they had weapons hidden around their waists. Do you think someone might take them on the plane? "

Zhao Tong Xin doesn't believe what he said. She thinks he is just too sensitive. These flight attendants have to go through strict checks before boarding. She doesn't believe that anyone can escape the layers of security checks.

"Tong Xin, he's right. These people have guns in their waists."

Jin Zhengting took a look, his eyes were shining with a strange light, he said faintly: "each of them has a gun, but this gun is very special, other guns are made of steel, this gun is made of high-strength plastic, and very delicate, if you take it apart, you can easily pass the security inspection."

When Jin Zhengting spoke, Zhao Tongxin believed most of them. She nervously looked at Jin Zhengting. Fortunately, he was still around, which gave her an inexplicable sense of security.

"Don't worry. Their guns haven't been assembled yet. I think they will be assembled only when the shift is changed. Moreover, this kind of plastic bullet gun has a defect, that is, it has no clip, and can only load one bullet at most. There are four of them, and the target may be the four of us."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he didn't feel nervous at all, because he was confident that he would subdue these female flight attendants before they could start.

"Boss, it's reasonable that they can't take bullets to the plane."

Although he had never been on a plane, he still knew some basic knowledge. He noticed that these flight attendants had strange facial expressions and seemed to have weapons hidden around their waists. This was also out of instinct. Compared with Jin Zhengting, he was far from knowledgeable.

Jin Zhengting said faintly: "normal female flight attendants, their belts are not button type, you see their belts are button type, and there is a big metal button, the bullet is hidden behind the button, because it can not be scanned."

Pony suddenly nodded: "I understand, but boss, we have no weapons, how to deal with them?"

Jin Zhengting looked at the pony with deep eyes: "are you really unarmed?"

Pony unconsciously scratched his head and said: "nothing can hide the boss's eyes."

Jin Zhengting took Zhao Tongxin into his arms, blocked her sight with his hand, and said faintly: "close your eyes, your security supervisor will deal with them." See Zhao Tong Xin eyes closed up, he said to the Pony: "it's time to show your ability."

"Good boss."

The pony agreed and took out a brand new deck of playing cards from his pocket.

"Zhengting, do you think pony can really deal with those killers?"

Chen Dong, who is sitting in the back row, has a sharp eye. He has already seen that there is something wrong with these flight attendants and asks Jin Zhengting in a low voice.

"If he can't even deal with these killers, how can I trust to give Tong Xin's safety to him, but you don't have to worry too much. I believe in my eyesight. He's not an ordinary role."

Jin Zhengting seems to be very confident about colt, because he has never lost sight of people, and this time is no exception.

Chen Dong didn't say anything more. Jin Zhengting always gives people a sense of trust. As long as he says something, it must be correct, because countless facts have proved his correctness.

"Husband, you'd better stay at ease. Boss can't be wrong."

Shaoyuan said next to him, stretching a little, then leaning his head on Chen Dong's shoulder, and after a while, he snored evenly.

Chapter 415

"Miss killers, don't cover up any more. I've already seen through your identities!"

The pony intercepted the flight attendants who were about to enter the luxury cabin, put on a look that he thought was very powerful, and said with burning eyes.

What he doesn't know is that his modeling is almost the same as the animation modeling of a girl's transfiguration department, just short of a very classic line: on behalf of the moon to destroy you.

Several flight attendants quietly assembled special disposable guns earlier, and they were about to fight Jin Zhengting and his party, but they didn't expect to kill a pony on the way.

After all, the person they are dealing with is Jin Zhengting. It's inevitable that they will be a little nervous. In addition, the pony's sudden rampage in front of them really scared them.

However, these people are professional killers. They are quick to deal with emergencies. One of them winked at his companions, raised his gun and aimed at the pony. The others ignored him and went straight to Jin Zhengting's cabin.

They receive Cheng mobing's order to let Jin Zhengting go, but they must get rid of Zhao Tongxin, otherwise they don't have to go back.

Of course, these people know that Cheng mobing is a cruel woman. The cost of not completing the task is more terrible than death.

So they use one person to control the pony, and the others continue to deal with Zhao Tongxin. As long as they kill her, they can hijack the pilot, force the plane to make a forced landing, and then run away.

They couldn't let go of the colt who stopped them from completing their task. The female killer's index finger was on the trigger. Although there was only one bullet in the gun, she felt that the colt could not be faster than the bullet at a close distance of less than two meters.

The pony is certainly not as fast as the bullet, but he snatched before she shot. With a slight lift of her right hand, the female killer didn't see what was flying out of his hand. Then she felt a sharp pain in her hand and couldn't even hold the gun.

Subconsciously, looking down, a red heart was deeply embedded in the palm of her hand. The wound was very deep and hurt the ligaments on her hand. Now she can't shoot with this hand.

"You are not my opponent. Master taught me to forgive others. As long as you give up resistance, I guarantee your safety."

Pony a face domineering to lose combat effectiveness of female killer said, two fingers in the middle of a playing card slightly shaking.

The female killer did not speak, as if thinking about what the pony said. She suddenly rolled on the ground and grabbed the gun with her uninjured hand.

Just when she showed a ferocious expression on her face and was ready to shoot the pony, her whole body strength seemed to disappear in an instant. She was stunned and widened her eyes. She saw that the pony had turned to chase other killers. The playing card in his hand was missing, and the card, after cutting the throat of the female killer, was nailed to the cabin door.

"I've warned you. You forced me to do it."

This is the last sentence she heard, and then the female killer with a face of unwilling, looked back down, never stood up.

Those killers have rushed to the door of the luxury cabin and looked at each other with vigilance. They know what they are going to deal with. Jin Zhengting and Chen Dong need not say. They are famous in Jiangbin City, not only because they are rich people.

Because they are all top experts, even spoon garden is not an easy role to deal with. To kill Zhao Tongxin, the existence of these three people is an almost insurmountable obstacle, so they have to be cautious.

They simply have no weapons, and they have guns on them, which is a great advantage. No one in the world is not afraid of bullets.

One of the killers aimed his gun at the cabin door and kicked it open. The other two killers rushed into the cabin door at a very fast speed, and the gun immediately locked the target.

They didn't see Zhao Tongxin. They just felt that Jin Zhengting's cold face appeared in their pupils. They subconsciously wanted to pull the trigger, but it was too late.

Jin Zhengting can't tolerate anyone's disadvantageous to Zhao Tong's heart. His fist, with anger, struck the two killers' wrists like lightning.

He seldom does it in person. Even in the current situation, he doesn't need to do it. With Chen Dong and Shaoyuan, he can control the situation. It can be seen that he is really angry.

A crisp sound of wrist fracture sounded, and the faces of the two female killers were twisted because of unbearable pain. Their wrists were also twisted at a very strange angle. Jin Zhengting's blow had broken their wrist bones, which showed how powerful his explosive power was.

Then they screamed out of their mouths. They fell on the ground and rolled to relieve the pain.

Jin Zhengting is not a man who cherishes beauty, but he is also a gentleman. In general, he doesn't attack women. He can only blame them for their actions. So he doesn't mind treating them in the most cruel way.

The killer at the door only saw two companions rush in, and then saw Jin Zhengting rush towards them at almost the ultimate speed of human beings. Then the two companions trembled and fell down. She was flustered. There was only one bullet in the gun. She didn't know who to deal with, because except Jin Zhengting, Chen Dong and Shaoyuan all appeared behind him, and they all stared at her with the same cold eyes.

The killer felt like an antelope on the grassland. She was watched by three lions at the same time. Her eyes showed a very frightened expression and she was about to run away.

This private plane is very big, but after all, the space is limited. She doesn't know where to escape to be safe, but she knows that if she doesn't escape, the consequences will be miserable.

But as soon as she turned around, there was a flash in front of her eyes and a card in her throat. The last scene she saw was a little sympathy in the eyes of the pony and a playing card for her two companions in her hand.

Jin Zhengting ignores the two female killers who are not dead but have lost their ability to act. He goes straight to Zhao Tongxin, picks her up and walks to another engine room.

In his arms, Zhao Tongxin can always feel a sense of security. Maybe when she is with him, she will encounter more dangers, but she doesn't care because she knows that he has the ability to protect her under any circumstances.

"It's up to you. Ask the person behind the scenes."

When passing by Chen Dong and Shaoyuan, Jin Zhengting coldly drops a sentence and walks out of the luxury cabin with Zhao Tongxin in his arms.

The two killers struggled and quietly took out a pill from their pocket with the other good hand, which they had to prepare for every task. Once it fell into each other's hands, they would swallow it without hesitation and end their lives.

But before the pills were put into their mouth, two playing cards flew in front of them. With the roar of cutting through the air, they cut off their wrists.

"Boy, it's very powerful. How about teaching my sister when I have time?"

Shaoyuan kicked away the pills that fell on the ground, blinked round eyes and said to the little horse, his eyes were full of worship and envy.

Pony arrogantly raised his head, a school of master style: "this move is not who want to learn can learn, it depends on talent."

Spoon garden full of expectation asked: "do you think sister has talent?"

The pony looked at Shaoyuan and shook his head regretfully: "although Shaoyuan looked at me sincerely, it's a pity that you didn't have it."

Spoon garden board from pretty face: "do you have talent?"

"Talent?"

The pony snorted with disdain: "the master told me that I'm not only gifted. He said that I'm a genius of thousands of schools."

"Oh, the original genius to wear pants do not zip it?"

Spoon garden's small eyes to the pony that doesn't fit on the pants, light said.

Pony looked down. Maybe it was because his pants were too tight. He ran quickly just now, so the zipper of his pants broke. It was just a tense situation, and he didn't notice it.

Pony's face immediately red like a ripe tomato, hurriedly zipped up, and then turned his head out of the window, a pair of I look at the scenery, don't talk to me.

With a smile in his eyes, Chen Dong whispered: "wife, your Kung Fu has improved again. I can't even see when you zipped his pants with a coin."

Shaoyuan's face showed an embarrassed look and coughed: "cough, although I really want to revenge on this boy who doesn't know the height of heaven and earth, I don't have any confidence in my throwing skills. I'm afraid that I will hurt that boy's little Ding Ding, so I really didn't do that boy's pants zipper."

"Oh, so it is." Chen Dong's smile grew stronger.

Spoon garden quickly reaction, she severely pinched Chen Dong's arm: "the coin is you hit out, you are deliberately tease me, right?"

Her hand strength is very big, Chen Dong's arm a burst of numb pain, but he is a face of happiness, said with a smile: "of course, who let him say that about my wife, don't give that boy some color to see, how can I be worthy of you."

Spoon garden's eyes show happy expression, suddenly grabbed Chen Dong's ear, instantly changed face, Chen Dong very inexplicable, bared his teeth and asked: "wife, what is this for?"

Spoon garden a stare: "say! Where did that coin come from? Well, Chen Dong, you dare to hide your private money behind my back. How can I repair you? "

Looking at Chen Dong torn by the spoon garden, he silently crossed his chest and prayed devoutly:
"Amitabha, may Allah bless you."

He took off the coin embedded in the fabric from the top of the zipper of his pants and nodded slightly:
"I can't see that Mr. Chen is also a master in hiding."

While resisting the attack of Shaoyuan, Chen Dong calmly smiles at the Pony: "I'm not an expert. If you have a tiger like my wife around you, you will be forced to become an expert if you are not an expert."

Xiaoma felt that he could not refute it at all, because what Chen Dong said was really reasonable.

Chapter 416

"It's over. It's OK."

After changing the cabin, Jin Zhengting hugged Zhao Tong and comforted him in a soft voice. On his face, he could not see the angry expression just now, but was gentle enough to melt his heart.

Zhao Tong heart in his arms, gently closed his eyes, a quiet face said: "as long as you are around, I am not afraid of anything."

"There will be danger with me."

Jin Zhengting's eyes flashed an imperceptible cold. Some things have come to the time when they have to be solved. He doesn't want to be threatened by someone all the time.

For himself, he doesn't care that someone can threaten his safety, because no one can do it, but Zhao Tongxin can't. She is a gentle and kind girl without any self-protection ability. Now that she is pregnant, she is more vulnerable. He doesn't want her to live in danger every day, so he decides that after the end of this trip to Southeast Asia, he will be happy We need to end up with those who are against them.

"I always believe that you will protect me."

Zhao Tongxin reached out and stroked his angular face gently. She couldn't see it with her eyes closed, but she could still feel his face, because he had been deeply reflected in the deepest part of her heart and would never be forgotten.

She has a kind of paranoid confidence in him, or that she has given him all her heart and all her love without reservation.

Jin Zhengting held her hand. Her skin was as smooth and tender as water. From his fingertips, it flowed into his heart bit by bit.

"I will, forever."

His answer is very short, only five words, but it represents his lifelong commitment to Zhao Tongxin.

"I hope that in the near future, when I am good enough to guard you, you can give me a wedding."

After they were together, they experienced a lot of things, had sour memories, more sweet past, every bit of every day is deeply engraved in her heart, she wants to enter the marriage church with him, that is the most ideal ending.

Jin Zhengting smile: "do not need that, because at any time can."

"No, you are the best man in the world. I'm afraid I will lose you one day, so I can't marry you until I have the ability to protect us."

Zhao Tongxin's voice with infinite tenderness, her heart is looking forward to that day can come early.

Jin Zhengting grabbed her waist and pushed her into his arms. Looking at her beautiful face, he said in the most gentle tone, "you won't lose it, because I won't allow it."

He took out a necklace, which was worth 200 million yuan.

"There's a big secret hidden in this necklace, but it doesn't matter. I'll tell you later. Now I want to give it to you."

Jin Zhengting picked up the necklace. The diamond with clear edges and corners was shining with dazzling brilliance in the sunlight shining through the window.

Zhao Tong opened his eyes and looked at him in surprise. He asked: "Zhengting, why did you give me this necklace all of a sudden?"

Jin Zhengting calmly replied: "because the secret in this necklace is related to the lifeblood of the Jin family. I think no one is qualified to own it except you."

"But I don't have much ability. What if I'm robbed?"

Zhao Tongxin knows that there must be a secret in the necklace, but she doesn't know that it matters so much. She knows that Jin Zhengting's giving the necklace to her represents his trust in her.

"There are many experts in your team. I believe they won't let others succeed easily." Jin Zhengting said and gently put the necklace on her snow-white neck.

"Zhengting, I know your trust in me, so I don't need to prove it with these things."

Jin Zhengting can't tolerate her refusal now, but Zhao Tongxin still says that she feels that the two people's feelings have reached a level that doesn't need to be proved, and his move is of little significance.

Jin Zhengting gave a faint smile. His smile was lonely and cold, but it was so soft in the sunshine.

"Do you think I sent you a necklace to prove my trust in you?"

Zhao Tong asked: "isn't it?"

"Of course not."

Jin Zhengting stares at her with deep eyes. His eyes are full of appreciation. In his eyes, Zhao Tongxin is like a unique work of art in the world. No matter when he appreciates it, he will have different sensory experience, and this work of art only belongs to him.

"I give you this necklace, because only your beauty can be worthy of it, because it's beautiful when you wear it."

Jin Zhengting never praises others, but he is not stingy with Zhao Tongxin.

Yes, she wears this necklace. It's really beautiful. Under the shadow of every diamond on the necklace, she is transcendent and refined. She looks more holy and elegant, just like a fairy in a fairyland. "Thank you."

Zhao Tong Xin heard his sincere praise, and felt his hot eyes, some shy lowered his head.

No girl can resist the charm of diamonds. Zhao Tongxin likes this necklace very much, but it's not because of the value and value of the necklace itself, but because she can realize the innocence of his feelings for her.

Jin Zhengting said that the necklace itself contains a secret about the fate of the Jin family, but he gave it to himself as if nothing had happened, and the reason is so simple, because it's beautiful to wear it.

In his mind, everything can not compare with her, all the things that can set off her, he will not hesitate to send to her, this is his feelings for her, simple without any impurities.

Jin Zhengting's face sank: "don't say thank you."

Zhao Tong heart gentle smile, said his apology, she knows, two people together, never need honorific, because each other are not each other's others.

She can't help kissing his broad mind with her beautiful side face. She likes to listen to his strong and powerful heartbeat so quietly. This kind of feeling is very peaceful and happy.

Cabin door was suddenly opened, pony rashly rushed in, saw two people nestle together, decisively covered his eyes, mouth eloquent chant: "boss, Mr. Zhao, you continue, I blocked my eyes, nothing to see."

Zhao Tong gets up shyly and teases some scattered hair, but Jin Zhengting doesn't care. When they are together, are they afraid of being seen?

"What's the matter?"

Jin Zhengting asked faintly, he is not a person who likes to lose his temper, so he generously forgives him for pony's rash behavior.

The pony dares to take his hand off his eyes. His face is a little red and he says, "the two killers have already said that they are sent by Cheng mobing, and the target is general manager Zhao."

There was a cold flash in Jin Zhengting's eyes: "well, I know."

Touching his eyes, pony's back was cold, and his voice became smaller uncontrollably: "boss, sister Shaoyuan asked me to ask you what to do with the two killers."

"You tell her she knows what I can't stand the most."

Jin Zhengting's tone also began to become cold, obviously his mood is gradually bad, because he can't tolerate any behavior against Zhao Tongxin.

"Yes, boss."

Jin Zhengting's momentum is too strong. Pony feels that he can't hold on any longer. He quickly agrees to turn around and leave. He doesn't want to stay here for a second.

"Wait a minute."

Zhao Tongxin suddenly stops the pony, and the pony stops immediately. He is more in awe of Jin Zhengting, and his attitude towards Zhao Tongxin is different. It is absolute loyalty and sincere obedience.

"Zhengting, spare them."

Zhao Tong Xin takes Jin Zhengting's hand and pleads for the two female killers in a low voice. She has already heard Jin Zhengting's meaning on one side, that is to let Shaoyuan kill them, needless to say, because they want to kill themselves.

After she was pregnant, Zhao Tongxin's thoughts were more maternal. She hated to fight and kill. When she heard that Jin Zhengting wanted to attack two killers who were unable to act, she felt compassion.

If the killers were men, she might let Jin Zhengting deal with them, but the two killers were women, so she couldn't help but intercede for them.

Jin Zhengting frowned: "Tong Xin, you'd better not sympathize with them. They are here to kill you. If you let them go this time, maybe there will be a second time."

"It's OK. They have lost their ability to act. I don't think they will threaten me any more. Besides, there are spoons around me. How can Xu Yanke and Rong Qi deal with me so easily?"

Zhao Tongxin gently said to Jin Zhengting and winked at the pony. The pony nodded knowingly and ran away. Compared with Jin Zhengting, he obeyed Zhao Tongxin's orders more. After all, he was the core member of Zhao Tongxin's team.

In his mind, the image of Zhao Tongxin once again tall up, Zhao's kindness so that he was very moved, he vowed to follow this life as holy as the virgin Zhao.

Zhao Tong Xin couldn't hide Jin Zhengting's eyes from the little action in his eyes. He thought for a moment, and suddenly he had a faint smile: "Tong Xin, you are still too kind. There are many things in the world that can't be solved by kindness."

Zhao Tong Xin also gently smile: "more kind is better than more hatred, isn't it? What's more, it's not too late for you to solve the problems that kindness can't solve. "

Jin Zhengting's eyes gradually softened. He gazed at Zhao Tongxin. His deep eyes were full of praise.

"Tong Xin, I appreciate your kindness."

Zhao Tong Xin took his arm, light said: "as long as you like, for you, I am willing to make any change."

This is her rare use of straightforward language to express their feelings for him, very natural to say, it seems to have been a matter of course. In these years together, the souls of two people have already fused together. Sometimes, they no longer need the so-called reserve.

Jin Zhengting's face showed a touch of joy, he stroked her hair: "no need to change, I like you now."

The pony runs back to the luxury cabin, where Chen Dong and Shaoyuan are waiting for him. The two living female killers don't need to be looked after any more. By Chen Dong and Shaoyuan's means, they can make them open their mouths. Naturally, many ways have been used. Now the two female killers are black and blue, and even the most basic consciousness has been lost.

"What does boss say?" Spoon garden see pony back, some eager to ask.

"Can't it be that sister Shaoyuan is a murderer?"

This is what the pony thought in his heart. Naturally, he didn't dare to say it. Having just seen the fierce fighting power of Shaoyuan, he decided that it would be better to avoid provoking her.

"Boss didn't say anything, Mr. Zhao said he let them go."

The little horse cleared his throat and said that he was a little eunuch who sent a message to the Empress Dowager.

Shaoyuan immediately smiles and makes a face at Chen Dong: "husband, I'll tell you, Tong Xin will let them go. She and I are good sisters. I know her character too well."

Chen Dong smiles: "well, wife, you win. The company's five million deposit is yours."

Chapter 417

After several hours of flight, the plane slowly landed at a temporary airport on the Southeast Asian border.

One day ago, it was still a piece of wasteland here. After learning that the boss and his wife of the group were coming here, the branch office of the group gathered a large number of local workers and built the airport overnight. Although it was a little rough, it was barely able to land the plane.

Jin Zhengting's influence is not only in Jiangbin City, but also in such remote areas, which shows his strong economic strength.

Many people came to the airport to welcome him. Jin Zhengting owns several raw stone mines in Southeast Asia and has invested in many projects here. Therefore, after receiving the news that president Jin and his wife have personally visited Southeast Asia, senior executives and local officials here, as well as people who are interested in cooperating with the group, came one after another.

When the cabin door is opened, Chen Dong and Xiao Ma first step out of the plane. Their eyes scan everyone present, looking for possible threats. Then Jin Zhengting gets off the plane, and Shaoyuan follows Zhao Tongxin closely to protect her.

The local branch of the group has prepared a strong security team for a long time. Nearly 100 well-trained security personnel separate Jin Zhengting and others from the airport.

Jin Zhengting, with Zhao Tong's heart in his light face and a cold, serious but gentlemanly expression, said hello to the people who came to pick up the plane. Surrounded by several security personnel, he walked slowly out of the airport.

There are few people here who can talk to Jin Zhengting, and the staff here are very complicated, so try not to stay at the airport. The security staff have rich experience.

"Be careful, there may be ambush."

Jin Zhengting carefully said in Zhao Tongxin's ear that he knew this area very well. It was surrounded by mountains and dense with forests. His intuition told him that the news of the assassination failure had been sent to Cheng mobing. She must have arranged other killers here.

Although he has only been in contact with that woman a few times, he has a keen sense that Cheng mobing is an extremely intelligent person. She will never make a move if she is not sure. Once she makes a move, she will not make it only once. It is very simple to employ several killers here with the influence of the Cheng family.

"Zhengting, my lucky crystal is here. It will be OK."

Zhao Tongxin said with ease that he is her lucky crystal. As long as he is around, she will get good luck. This is her superstition to him.

Jin Zhengting gave a faint smile and walked half a step forward. He covered her with half of his body and showed his concern for her from every detail.

A flash crossed his eyes. He aimed at the light source. It was the reflection of the necklace that was given to Zhao Tongxin. But the reflection immediately alerted him, because although the diamond was very dazzling in the sun, it would never reflect dazzling light. Only when it met the light source, it would appear such refraction.

What can produce this kind of light source in sunlight is usually glass products that can aggregate sunlight, such as sniper gun sight.

Jin Zhengting pretends not to see it. He feels that the killer hidden in the dark is aiming at him. He is not sure of a successful shot, so he has not fired yet.

Jin Zhengting quietly estimates that the killer has locked Zhao Tongxin, so the reflection of the sight will be reflected on the diamond necklace. Now the killer starts to calculate the wind direction, adjust the breathing, put his finger on the trigger, and adjust the sight with the rhythm of breathing.

"Be careful!"

Jin Zhengting suddenly gave a low drink and suddenly hugged Zhao Tongxin. They fell to one side together. When they fell to the ground, Jin Zhengting adjusted his angle. He landed first and then caught Zhao Tongxin steadily.

At the same time, a very slight gunshot rang out, a security personnel walking behind them fell to the ground, and the blood on the ground quickly spread.

The airport was very noisy. At first, people didn't hear the gunshot, but they saw someone fall to the ground, and then a pool of blood soon flowed out. After that, people didn't calm down immediately. They immediately made a mess, shouting and crying, and the scene was very chaotic.

"Zhengting, take Tong Xin quickly."

Chen Dong shouts out loud. There are already two guns thrown by security personnel nearby. He reaches for them and gives them to Shaoyuan

"wife, follow me."

Spoon garden skilled pull bolt, gave him a big white eye: "husband, you look down on me? You think I'm really a vegetarian. "

Although she said so, her face also inadvertently showed happiness and gratitude, because at the moment of crisis, Chen Dong's first thought was not her own safety, but all her thoughts were on her.

Although Shaoyuan is usually careless and doesn't seem to care much about anything, in fact, she still enjoys Chen Dong's care for herself.

The two showed a tacit understanding between husband and wife, covering the location of the killer in turn, while slowly approaching Jin Zhengting.

"Are you all right, Tong Xin?"

Jin Zhengting takes advantage of the scattered crowd and the security personnel in front of him to help Zhao Tongxin up carefully. He asks with concern that there is nothing more important than Zhao Tongxin. "I'm fine, Zhengting. Be careful."

Zhao Tongxin knew that Jin Zhengting had pushed her away at the risk of being hit by a bullet. He was so moved that he didn't even panic when he was suddenly attacked.

As long as there is a man in the world willing to give his life, there will be nothing terrible, probably all women think so.

"Boss, we are not sure where the killer is hiding. It's too dangerous to get out of the airport like this."

The spoon garden looked around. There was only a thick jungle around, so there was no hiding place for the killer.

"Shaoyuan is right. We'd better mingle in the crowd and walk out slowly, and disperse all the security personnel. Even if they can protect the pupils, they will also direct the target for the killer."

Chen Dongping was influenced by the spoon garden when he was young, but when things really happened, he immediately recovered his cool and sharp.

"Well, I'll leave with Tong Xin. You'll also disperse. I suspect there are killers in the crowd. Be careful. Their target is not Tong Xin alone."

Jin Zhengting took the gun handed over by the security personnel, pushed the bullet into the gun chamber, and then said to the bodyguards around him: "you spread out separately. If you find any suspicious people, control them immediately."

"Yes, boss."

The bodyguards immediately took action and scattered their weapons. They also knew that following Jin Zhengting was a trick. So after receiving the order, they ran faster than rabbits.

"Follow me and try to find a place where there are as many people as possible, and find tall people to block it."

Jin Zhengting carefully told her to hold Zhao Tongxin in her arms and use her body to block the scattered crowd, so as to avoid the flustered people touching her body. After all, now that she is pregnant, it is easy for her to have accidents when she is collided.

With a gun in his hand, his sharp eyes swept around the crowd. He found a man not far away. Although he was also moving with the crowd, there was no fear in his eyes. Instead, he put his hand into his clothes and his eyes kept looking for something in the crowd.

Jin Zhengting sneered and deliberately approached the man. When the man found Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin in the crowd, his eyes lit up immediately, but there was no expression on his face. He just approached them slowly.

When it was very close to them, the man suddenly stretched out his hand from his clothes, holding a gun with a muffler in his hand.

There was a gunshot, and everyone around him ran away screaming. The man was shot in the middle of his brow and fell to the ground.

He was far less quick than Jin Zhengting. Just as he pulled out his gun, Jin Zhengting had already raised his hand to pull the trigger.

After killing the killer, Jin Zhengting covers Zhao Tongxin's eyes with his hand. He doesn't want to let her see the bloody scene. Then he takes a look at the killer, and finds that the killer's arm is wrapped with a white cloth strip, which is very thin. If he doesn't look carefully, it's easy to ignore it, but he doesn't escape Jin Zhengting's eyes. He quickly concludes that it's a killer. It's a sign that people recognize each other.

He quickly took off the killer's cloth and tied it to his arm. He took Zhao Tongxin and went on walking. Zhao Tongxin was nestled in his arms. It was strange that she had never seen this chaotic scene before. After smelling the familiar smell on him, she suddenly felt very safe. No one could hurt her.

Because in her mind, Jin Zhengting is absolutely omnipotent.

They soon met another man with a white cloth on his arm. The man first took a look at Jin Zhengting's arm, then nodded his head, squeezed through the crowd and said, "the boss has said that no one should live except Jin Zhengting, especially Zhao Tongxin. How did you catch her?"

Obviously, the killer didn't do enough homework. He only knew Zhao Tongxin, but he didn't know Jin Zhengting. Because Jin Zhengting had a white cloth on his hand, he naturally regarded him as his own.

Jin Zhengting didn't speak either. Raising his hand was a shot, which directly resulted in this stupid killer like a pig.

All of a sudden, a pregnant woman appeared in front of her. Looking at her body for at least seven or eight months, her hands protected her stomach. She was pushed to the ground by the crowd who ran away crazily. Finally, she could not bear to be pushed down.

Zhao Tong's heart, hand and eyes are fast. He breaks away from Jin Zhengting's arms and goes forward to hold the pregnant woman. If the pregnant woman falls to the ground, the consequences will be unimaginable.

"Thank you, miss."

Pregnant woman Chong Zhao Tong heart showed a grateful smile, even thanks at the same time, in the hands of a sharp dagger.

"Bang", the pregnant woman's dagger has not been raised, the person is soft to fall down, Zhao Tongxin obviously did not think that this pregnant woman is also a killer, staring at the pregnant woman's body in a daze.

Jin Zhengting put away his gun, held her in his arms again, and said coldly: "don't sympathize with anyone in a chaotic environment, and be more calm and cautious than usual."

A pregnant woman will not hold her stomach in both hands. In this environment, she will protect her stomach with one hand and support the crowd with the other. Only in this way can she effectively protect her body. This does not require experience. It is an instinctive reaction of every woman who is going to be a mother. This pregnant woman is obviously not a qualified actor, so Jin Zhengting saw through her disguise at a glance.

"Zhengting, am I stupid?"

Aware of his mistakes, Zhao Tong asked with guilt.

Jin Zhengting observed the surrounding environment with his spare light, with a faint smile on his face: "maybe that's why I fell in love with you."

Two people's hands together, with the flow of people together out of the airport.

Chen Dong and Shaoyuan are waiting for them outside. They are relieved to see that they are safe.

"Zhengting, all the potential killers have been killed. It's safe here for the time being."

Chen Dong wiped the blood on his face. All the blood was the result of his battle.

Jin Zhengting put down his gun and showed a confident look in his deep eyes: "this trip to Southeast Asia started with such a big scene. It seems that Cheng mobing doesn't want us to come here, but since we are here, she can't control it."

Chapter 418

"What a bunch of rubbish!"

Just received the notice from his subordinates, two assassinations against Zhao Tongxin are declared failure, Cheng mobing angrily smashes the wine glass in his hand.

Her plan has always been perfect. She has never failed once, but she has failed continuously in Jin Zhengting's place, which makes Miss Cheng Jiasan, who is usually very self-restraint, can't help venting her negative emotions.

Sitting opposite her, Xu Zheng sneered: "I have told you that if Jin Zhengting was so easy to deal with, Huo Tingchen would have succeeded long ago. You are too confident in your ability."

Cheng Mo Bing took a deep breath, and a faint smile appeared on her beautiful face: "now I know I'm wrong. I should have listened to your advice from the beginning. After all, you know him better than I do."

"Why, Miss Cheng San changed her mind. Didn't you tell me to stay away from you?" Xu Zheng's face showed a sarcastic expression, and his words also brought out emotion.

Cheng Mo Bing smiles with a smile: "it's OK to correct my mistakes. Is Mr. Xu still angry with me?"

"To tell you the truth, I'm not angry with you. Everyone is just acting on occasion. If I really fell in love with you, I wouldn't sit here and watch you lose your temper."

Xu Zheng light finish saying, shallow sipped a wine, the face showed the expression of enjoyment.

"Oh? Mr. Xu doesn't like me. Why pursue me? And when you heard that I was going to terminate the cooperation, you were very angry. "

Cheng mobing flicks her hair casually. A woman like her has a good grasp of every detail of her actions. She knows what kind of man to face and what kind of action to use to arouse the man's interest.

Xu Zheng's eyes brightened for a moment, but he soon regained calm: "it's undeniable that I really like Miss Cheng San, but what I like is only your body. The reason why I lose my temper is because you mentioned Jin Zhengting in front of me. You should know that I don't like him from all over the world, so Miss Cheng San should not make a fuss in front of me. I'm sorry You'll think you're being amorous. "

"Is it?"

Cheng Mo Bing's charming smile, she can speak with bright eyes looking at Xu Zheng: "in addition to my body, Mr. Xu does not want to get something else?"

"To tell you the truth, I really thought that if I can catch you, I will get an unimaginable asset. At that time, the Xu family is likely to replace the Jin family and become the first family of Jiangbin. But since I found that you are not controlled by others, I have given up this idea."

Xu Zheng said faintly that there was no psychological activity on his face.

"I see. You're good at your wishful thinking, but you've used the wrong person. But I'd like to know why Mr. Xu, who has always been known as a playboy, has recently shown his strong ambition."

Cheng moping returns to normal, sits down with a charming face, blinks a pair of bright eyes and looks at Xu Zheng, as if he can see through his heart from his face.

Xu Zheng sneered: "in the past, Jiangbin was Jin Zhengting's world. Even if I wanted to overthrow him, it was impossible. The only one who could fight against him was Huo Tingchen. Unfortunately, his strength was limited. When he faced Jin Zhengting's full attack, he seemed so fragile."

"Then Mr. Xu has to be a man with his tail between his legs, right?"

Cheng Mo Bing said with a little sarcasm that she always thinks that Xu Zheng is just a small role, and only when he has a use value can he win over. Moreover, his use value seems to be small, so her attitude towards him will not be very good.

Xu Zheng didn't agree with her sarcasm. Instead, he nodded and agreed: "you're right. In that case, I have to learn to be patient, but now it's different. The situation in Jiangbin is getting more and more chaotic. Huo Tingchen not only didn't break down, but inherited Cheng Mohan's Tianhong Group. With the strength greatly increased, he finally has the strength to compete with Jin Zhengting, and you are the best He also suddenly joined the chaos. Although you didn't make clear which side you supported, your ultimate goal must be to swallow both sides together. "

Cheng mobing's pupils contract. She feels that she underestimates Xu Zheng because he not only has keen insight, but also seems to have a good ability to grasp opportunities.

"So you're going to fish in troubled waters in the chaos on the riverside? Mr. Xu, it's impolite to say that your Xu family doesn't have the capital at all. Even if the three of us fight against each other, you can't clean up the mess. "

Cheng Mo Bing said faintly, carefully observing Xu Zheng's reaction with the remaining light from the corner of his eye.

Xu Zheng said with a smile: "you are right. Our Xu family does not have this ability, but you should have heard a saying, it's called empty handed white wolf. You and Huo Tingchen can use me, because when you use me, I also use you."

Cheng mobing's eyes turned a few times and said with a sneer: "you are between Huo Tingchen and me. You can benefit from it and constantly strengthen your strength. When you have the chance, you can clear all the obstacles in front of you and become the man of the day who dominates the riverside. Mr. Xu is really calculating, but I don't understand that this should be your biggest secret. Why What do you want to tell me? "Xu Zheng put down his glass, tapped his fingers on the table, and answered faintly: "because I found that no matter how strong I am, I can't swallow the whole Jiangbin city. You are right. The Xu family doesn't have such a big appetite, and the background of the Xu family is far less profound than that of the Jin family. Even if my plan succeeds, it's hard to maintain it, Because many people will be eyeing the Xu family. "

"You mean to cooperate with me? Aren't you afraid I'll use you again? "

Cheng mobing is playing with the wine cup in his hand, but he looks at Xu Zheng deeply.

Xu Zheng also gave her a deep look: "we just use each other. In other words, it's a win-win situation. I get what I want, and you can get what belongs to you."

"Why should I believe you, Mr. Xu? I don't think you have any special features or advantages, so I can't cooperate with you."

Cheng mobing refuses his request, but she doesn't give orders. It can be seen that she is just bargaining with Xu Zheng for a higher reward.

"My advantage is that I have ambition and ability, and you need my help in the face of two powerful enemies."

Xu Zheng said with a sneer, his expression with an indescribable confidence, as if Cheng Mobing would agree to him.

"Oh? Will Mr. Xu be too confident? Although my plan is equivalent to declaring war with Jin Zhengting, don't forget that Huo Tingchen and I are in a state of cooperation. How can we have two enemies at the same time? I'm not a child. I won't make this mistake again when I was three years old. "

With a smile in her eyes, Cheng Mo Bing doesn't believe Xu Zheng's words, because her every action is carefully planned, and she believes that she will never make mistakes.

"You may not know that Huo Tingchen is very suspicious. He almost never believes anyone except himself. If I guess correctly, he has installed an eavesdropping device in the office of the president of Tianhong jewelry company. When you asked me to design Huo Tingchen, I happened to slip my tongue and tell my cousin Xu Ting what happened between us, Now Huo Tingchen may have known about your overall plan, so I say that you have two enemies now, and it seems that there is nothing wrong with it? "

Xu Zheng looks at Cheng Mobing with a smile. On his face, he almost writes the five big words that I intentionally wrote.

Cheng Mobing's pupils suddenly contracted, and suddenly sat up from the sofa, staring at Xu Zheng with cold eyes: "you are mean!"

It is undeniable that Xu Zheng's move is really brilliant. If he tells Huo Tingchen directly, with Huo Tingchen's suspicious character, it will be difficult to believe what he said. However, if he is overheard by Huo Tingchen on purpose, it is very likely that Huo Tingchen will completely believe it. In that case, Huo Tingchen will treat her as the biggest enemy before Jin Zhengting, and she will be killed at that time. Will face Jin Zhengting and Huo Tingchen's attack, with her present strength, absolutely difficult to cope with.

The purpose of Xu Zheng's doing this is to tie her firmly to his chariot. He has no choice but to cooperate with him.

He laughed: "Miss Cheng San, I've heard about your reputation for a long time. Don't you always resort to any means to achieve your goal? I'm just treating people in their own way. Can you refuse to cooperate with me now?"

Cheng Mo Bing looked at him coldly for a long time, then suddenly smile, sat back on the sofa, clapped his hands and said, "Xu Zheng, I really misunderstood you. You are my ideal partner. I decided to agree to your request."

Xu Zheng shrugged comfortably: "in advance, I didn't force you to do anything. It's entirely voluntary."

"Of course, I like a man like you. He is insidious and ambitious. It's best to cooperate with you."

Cheng Mo Bing smiles more and more charming, constantly teasing Xu Zheng with his eyes.

"If we work together to defeat Jin Zhengting and Huo Tingchen, I don't care about Jiangdong, but everything in Jiangbin is mine. I'll make it clear in advance, so as not to make us unhappy about the territory in the future."

Xu Zheng light said, will drink the wine in the cup.

Cheng mobing's eyes flashed an imperceptible venom, but his face still kept a charming smile: "it's natural, Jiangbin is Xu's, there's no doubt that no one will take away what belongs to you."

Xu Zheng put his glass on the table and said with a sneer, "since Huo Tingchen already knows your plan, his return to Jiangdong this time is likely to be a game, so no matter what happens, you should not believe it, because those are all played out to cheat you."

"Well, I see. You must have other plans, don't you? As your partner, do I have the right to know? "

Cheng Mo Bing asked with a smile.

Xu Zheng sighed: "Miss Cheng San, the wine glass is transparent. Even when I look up, I can see your venomous eyes, so I'm not going to tell you, unless you let me vent my anger, you should know."

Cheng mobing came to him and looked at him with a smile. Then he knelt down and untied his pants. His head moved back and forth between his legs. Xu Zheng closed his eyes comfortably and his face was full of the pleasure of conquest.

Cheng mobing moves and stares at Xu Zheng with the coldest eyes. She swears in her heart that she will not let go of the man who forces her.

But now, she has been completely in the hands of Xu Zheng, so she can only choose forbearance like Xu Zheng in the past, which is a necessary quality to become a final winner.

Xu Zheng's ambition finally revealed itself in the chaos of Jiangbin.

Chapter 419

Night, the most luxurious resort in the area.

After president Jin was assassinated as soon as he got off the plane, the senior management of the local branch paid more attention to the security work of president Jin and his party.

This villa style resort is still brightly lit even in the middle of the night. Bodyguards with weapons can be seen everywhere in the courtyard. Once suspicious people are found, they can take control immediately.

The original plan had to be delayed because of the assassination. In the case of uncertainty about whether the killer was completely eliminated, Jin Zhengting and his party temporarily stayed in the villa hotel. Instead of following the original plan, they went to the mountains on the same day to find the original stone producing area.

The air is full of the smell of primitive jungle. The humid and muggy climate looks fresh and pleasant at night. Unknown insects chirp from time to time, making the atmosphere quiet and peaceful.

Zhao Tong Xin leans lazily on the balcony on the second floor, flicks the bangs which are blown by the night wind, and looks at the silhouette of the distant mountain with a pair of beautiful eyes. His eyes are gradually blurred.

Chapter 420

"Zhengting, I think I can help you, too."

Chen Dong didn't know when to come over. He took the hand of Shaoyuan and said to Jin Zhengting with a smile.

"Husband, with the strength of our family, can you help me?"

Although Shaoyuan is sarcastic, his eyes are full of honey. He didn't need to be involved in the dispute. The reason why he opened his mouth is because of her. It shows how deep Chen Dong's feelings for her are. You should know that once he is involved in the fight between the two super groups, he is likely to be broken to pieces.

Chen Dong laughed and said: "although our strength can't compare with Zhengting, it's OK to help. At least with our friends, Zhengting won't feel like a person."

Shaoyuan is the most important factor for him to take the initiative to stand on the United Front with Jin Zhengting. She is one of Jin Zhengting's most effective assistants, and Zhao Tongxin is his best friend. If they have anything to do, Shaoyuan will not stand by.

Of course, he has a deeper consideration, that is, the order of Jiangbin.

In the past, Jin Zhengting was a figure at the top of the pyramid in Jiangbin city. With him as the core, the major aristocratic consortia formed a huge interest group, and Chen Dong was naturally among them.

No one has ever said it, but we all tacitly abide by this order, so although conflicts and interest disputes still exist, they will not go too far. It can also be said that everyone coexists in a relatively peaceful way, and the leader of this order is Jin Zhengting, who uses his powerful strength to deter others and his charming personality to make everyone submit.

But now Huo Tingchen's sudden growth is gradually breaking this order. After seeing Huo Tingchen's rapid rise as another pole at the top of the riverside, those ambitious people have moved to change their current status. Although they still submit to Jin Zhengting on the surface, they are ready to move in private.

Once the original order is broken, it will inevitably lead to a round of extremely chaotic situation. At that time, several families close to Jin Zhengting will become the key targets of Huo Tingchen and his followers.

As one of the closest groups to Jin Zhengting, Chen Dong at that time was bound to suffer a serious blow. He had a long-term vision and had seen this for a long time. Therefore, in order to maintain his current position, he must firmly stand on Jin Zhengting's side.

"Thank you, Chen Dong."

Jin Zhengting never thanks humanity, not only because of his personality, but also because of his position, no one can afford his thanks.

So as his wife, Zhao Tongxin expressed his gratitude to Chen Dong.

"Tong Xin, what's the relationship between us? Are you too outsider to say that?"

Shaoyuan pretends to be discontented and says to Zhao Tongxin, winking her big round eyes playfully.

Zhao Tong Xin smiles and jokes: "spoon, I didn't meet you either. I'm thanking Chen Dong, but I'm not saying it to you. You're too much in charge of Chen's family, aren't you?"

Shaoyuan raised his chin with pride: "that's a must. I'll take care of everything in my family. To tell you the truth, Tong Xin, even his usual pocket money has to be given to him by me. How is it, powerful?"

Chen Dong's expression immediately became a little unnatural. He gave a dry cough and said, "cough, wife, it's raining so hard. Why don't we go back to our room and have a chat."

Spoon garden's eyes a stare: "how, your wife manages financial power to let you feel humiliated?"

Chen Dongli denied: "no, absolutely not. This is what a wife should do."

Zhao Tong Xin was amused by the performance of the couple. Even Jin Zhengting's cold face also had a warm smile.

In fact, with Chen Dong's strength and background, he can't be so afraid of Shaoyuan. The reason why he sees Shaoyuan is just like a mouse meets a cat is just another way of expressing his love for Shaoyuan.

Of course, the cat in Shaoyuan may turn into a roaring Tigress at any time, which is also one of the reasons that can not be ignored.

"Zhengting, if I treat you like Shaoyuan did to Chen Dong, will you still like me?"

Women love fantasy. Zhao Tongxin knows that she won't become a spoon garden, but she can't help asking, because she wants to know how Jin Zhengting answers this question.

Jin Zhengting smile, holding her shoulder, fingertips gently sliding on her back a few times, light said: "no matter what you look like, I like you, because I like Zhao Tongxin this person."

Zhao Tong Xin nodded shyly and buried his head in his warm arms.

Chen Dong and Shaoyuan look at each other and leave hand in hand. They can understand their feelings, and they also need to find a corner where there is no one to talk about.

Jin Zhengting gently embraces Zhao Tong's heart, feeling the most sincere love in the world in the flying rain and the calming wind.

Jiangbin hospital, ICU.Xu Yanke has been in front of Rong Lei's hospital bed for a day or two. During this time, she didn't eat, didn't sleep, and didn't even drink a mouthful of water. Her beautiful eyes blinked and didn't blink at Rong Lei who was still in a coma.

The night is already very deep. The light in the ward is dim, and the ECG is rhythmic. Xu Yanke sits next to Rong Lei, and a strong sense of sleepiness suddenly strikes. He leans on his head with his hand, and sleeps for a while.

Finally, she can't hold on. She leans forward, presses on Rong Lei, and then falls asleep.

Rong Lei frowns in a coma, and his consciousness gradually wakes up. Over the years, when he's around Jin Zhengting, he seldom wants to be like this. He has a soft feeling of relaxation, so even though he knows he's in a coma and tries to wake himself up, he can't resist that kind of comfort. Another voice keeps telling himself to have a rest.

Then he suddenly felt a sharp pain in the chest wound, and the soft comfort immediately disappeared. He suddenly opened his eyes and saw Xu Yanke lying on his body, with his arm on his chest. The wound was cracked by her, and the red blood flowed out through the gauze wound.

Rong Lei is not as weak as other people who wake up from a coma after serious injury. He tries to move his arm. Although his strength is weak, it's not the feeling that he can't use it at all.

He just wanted to wake up Xu Yanke, and found that her breathing was very even, and she snored softly, which proved that she slept soundly.

Rong Lei hesitates for a moment, or let Xu Yanke lie on his body, because he can see that she is very tired now, needless to say that it is because of taking care of herself that she has become like this.

The pain of the wound is tolerable, but naturally it won't be very comfortable, so Rong Lei tries to divert his attention.

He swept around the room and found nothing to divert his attention. His eyes finally fell on Xu Yanke's face.

She is very familiar with this face. At the beginning of her and boss, he has seen it many times, and Zhao Tongxin looks very similar to her.

It is undeniable that Xu Yanke's face is also beautiful, but his keen discovery is the uneasiness and pain that Xu Yanke reveals in his sleep.

See her show eyebrow deep wrinkle, two Qianqian jade hands tightly grasp the sheet, prove that she now even if did not have a nightmare, inner insecurity also fully reflected.

A burst of warm and humid chest, Rong Lei efforts to look down, two tears from her closed eyes flow out, in his chest broken into a line.

She cried, Xu Yanke never shed a tear in front of others, but she also has a fragile time, perhaps only in the dead of night, she will show her true feelings.

For no reason, Rong Lei feels heartache.

He protects her and blocks bullets for her with his body, not because he has special feelings for Xu Yanke, but because she is the boss's sister and has this obligation. Moreover, because of Xu Yanke's past behaviors, he even has a kind of resistance and a little vigilance against her from the heart.

Can see Xu Yan can this pair of poor appearance, his heart inexplicably trembled for a while, think of her poor life experience, Rong Lei to her prejudice can't help but fade a lot.

He thinks that if he is in her living environment, he may become more ruthless. People who can still keep a little conscience in Huo Tingchen's organization will not be really bad.

He can also recall that when she was about to fall into a coma, she dragged herself into the car and was eager to prove that she was not a very indifferent person to life.

If a person understands it with heart, he can always find some advantages from another person, even if she used to be a so-called bad person.

Xu Yanke's long eyelashes are trembling slightly, which shows that she is very upset and painful. She can't help it. Rong Lei reaches out his hand and caresses her hair carefully.

Maybe his action is gentle and soothing, maybe she needs someone to comfort her in her sleep. The pain on Xu Yanke's face soon calms down, and turns to show a quiet expression. The small and lovely corners of her mouth are slightly raised, just like a child with a sweet smile in her sleep.

Rong Lei is a bit stunned. He is a very normal man. Like all normal men, he will not resist beauties, not to mention super beauties like Xu Yanke.

Almost unconsciously, he stretched out his fingers and slid along Xu Yanke's soft facial contour. Her tight, tender and smooth skin had a good touch, which was transmitted to his heart through his fingertips.

When fingertips pick up her chin, Rong Lei suddenly wakes up. What is he doing? Xu Yan is boss's sister!

But the touch left on his fingertips and her unique body fragrance, which was constantly penetrated into his nose with the air, made him so difficult to extricate himself.

After several struggles in his heart, his reason finally gained the upper hand and beat his head hard to drive away the ambiguous atmosphere just now.

After all, Rong Lei wakes up from the coma of serious injury and goes through a strong ideological struggle, so he soon feels a burst of unprecedented fatigue. He looks at Xu Yanke who lies on his body and falls asleep peacefully. Finally, he can't resist the feeling of fatigue. His eyelids gradually become heavy and finally close. It was morning when Xu Yanke woke up. She was really tired, but she occasionally had some terrible dreams when she went to bed. Her past experiences and Huo Tingchen's various behaviors towards her were the pain in her heart, but she could never mention it to others, and could only bear it silently.

Her hand suddenly touched a hard thing. She scratched it vaguely, hard, as if with an indescribable softness. She held it in her hand and touched it again. It felt like a weapon like an electric rod, but the length was slightly longer and thicker than the electric rod, and the hand seemed to be pretty good.

Subconsciously, she turned her head and looked at the things in her hand carefully. Then the whole ICU room immediately rang with her loud cry: "Rong Lei, you are shameless! Get the hell out of here
