Chapter 417

The old lady's words caused Su Yun to blush slightly and throw up her tongue in embarrassment.

A noble wife rounded up for her, "Yun Yun is still growing, it's good that she likes to eat."

"Oh you guys, just spoil her all!"

The group laughed together, and soon the maid came to remind everyone to eat, and only then did the old lady take everyone to the dining room.

Entering the restaurant, Jenny Jing met Biden Lu, as well as the teenager who was following him.

It was a pale youth, about eighteen or nineteen years of age, with a clear brow, polite and modest, and a thin figure, whose whole complexion assumed a morbid pallor from years of illness, sitting in a wheelchair and being pushed forward by one of the servants.

He seemed to fit in with Biden Lu quite well, sitting in his wheelchair, smiling and saying something to Biden Lu, who was also surprisingly patient, and even slightly human off to listen to him speak.

"Come here, Nightwhite, and I'll introduce you." The old lady opened her mouth.

The young man called Night White then asked the maids to push him over, the old lady pulled Jenny Jing and said, "This is your second brother Lu's wife Jenny Jing, you had been sick and didn't make it back to China with us to visit family, so I haven't seen her, it's not too late to see her now."

Nightwhite smiled and nodded, "Hello sister-in-law."

Jenny also nodded politely, "Hello."

"This is a gift I brought back from Melbourne some time ago and I'm so sorry I couldn't get back in time to see you guys, but this is to make up for it."

Saying that, Nightwhite took out a gift box from behind him and handed it to Jenny.

Jenny was a little startled.

Su Yun was out of it, "Third brother, you actually brought a gift for little sister-in-law and not for us! How eccentric!"

Night White laughed, "What's the rush? It's all there, it's in my room, just go get it yourself after dinner later."

Only then did Su Yun turn her anger into happiness, "Good, then I'll go with you after dinner."

Jenny Jing looked at Biden Lu and saw him nod imperceptibly, before he took the gift and smiled kindly, "Thank you."

Only then did the people settle down and begin to eat.

During the meeting, there were people concerned about Night White's health, and he responded with a light smile, saying that he was fine.

But Jenny could see that there was a layer of black and blue floating on his face, and even less blood on his lips, so I'm afraid that saying okay is a polite word.

What's the matter with this Night White?

She didn't have a bad impression of this person, so she became more curious, thinking that she could ask Biden Lu when she returned later in the evening.

"Sister-in-law, I'll drink a toast to you!" Su Yun suddenly made a noise, carrying a glass of red wine towards Jenny.

Jenny was a little startled, not knowing why Su Yun was making a toast in a good way, but going out of politeness, she lifted her glass up and gently clinked it with her.

"Little sister-in-law, I'm straightforward in nature, so if I'm normally offended by anything, I hope you won't bother with me." Su Yun had a point.

Jenny Jing nodded and looked at Biden Lu, thoughtful.

The old lady laughed, "Yun Yun, your little sister-in-law is different from you, she's shallow, so don't get her drunk."

Su Yun laughed, "No way, little sister-in-law and I are very close, don't you think?"

Afterwards, he even looked at Jenny with a smile on his face.

Can Jenny say no?

No way!

She also smiled shallowly, meaning to say, "The rue sky

It's so cute, and I certainly like it when you do everything without any inhibitions."

The old lady didn't hear what she said, and she really took it as a sign that they were on good terms, nodding her head in satisfaction.

"As long as you like each other, this time you and Biden come over, if there is anything that we old guys are not familiar with and don't understand, you can ask her and Night White, they have been here for a long time than you are familiar with, it's easier to do things."

Jenny and Lu Jing deep thanked him.

After finishing the wine, Su Yun Qiao smiled, "Little sister-in-law, what are you guys doing here this time?"

Jenny Jing looked indifferent, "It's nothing, just happened to be free recently and came over to have some fun."

"Well, then you'll have to take me with you wherever you go, I love to be a tour guide for people."

After she finished speaking, she even winked at Jenny, as if the two of them really had a good relationship.

Jenny Jing felt that his cheek might be able to be refined a bit more, and look at how well Miss Su had refined it.

A meal was finished in such a happy and harmonious situation, after the meal, Biden Lu and Xi Mo Cheng also do not know where they went, Su Yun pestered the night white went to see the gifts, Jenny Jing alone was a little bored, so he walked to the courtyard to walk to consume food.

"Little sister-in-law." Su Yun suddenly caught up with her from behind and grabbed her by the arm, "Are you taking a walk? I'll keep you company."

Jenny felt speechless at Su Yun's hard-nosed approach.

"Aren't you going to go find your brother and the others?"

"What do you want with them? I'm not going to go when all they talk about is guy stuff and it doesn't make any sense to listen. I saw you getting a little bored walking alone, and I just happened to want to walk, so I came to keep you company."

At this time, it was as if Su Yun was really a straightforward, silly big sister, but Jenny knew she wasn't, and silly big sisters couldn't do that kind of thing to plant evidence.

"Well~ But I'm tired of walking, I want to go sit over there." Jenny pointed to a pavilion not far away.

"Yes, yes, yes! Then let's go over there and sit and talk."

Jenny: "....."

Su Yun dragged her to the gazebo to sit without a word.

The Johnsons are people who will enjoy themselves, and although they are abroad, they have built a large Chinese style house.

The scenery on this side of the pavilion is very good, next to a crescent-shaped pond, which is filled with a variety of water lilies, lotus flowers, although not open at this time, but there is still a faint aroma of grass and trees dense up.

Jenny sat in the gazebo full of helplessness, only hoping that Biden Lu would come to her when he was done with his work, so that she could get rid of the person in front of her.

"Little sister-in-law, look there's actually a lotus flower there hey." Su Yun suddenly pointed to a spot in the pool and called out.

Jenny raised an eyebrow, it's almost August and there are still lotus flowers?

That's a lie!

She looked up in disbelief, but saw that there was indeed a cloud of something white in the pool, and it was hard to see exactly what it was in the night.

"I'm afraid that some kind of junk flew up there."

"How is that possible? What do you think this is, a tourist attraction? And rubbish! I'm telling you, but this place is cleaned up and cleaned up every day, and that must be a lotus flower."

After saying that, Su Yun compared to that distance, "Little sister-in-law, you pull me, I want to pick that flower up."

Jenny's eyebrows jumped.

Subconsciously, she felt that Su Yun was cheating by doing this.

The mind instantly mapped out all sorts of palace house dramas and how the mistress had set up the original mate to get to the top.

Chapter 418

For example, Xiao San went to pick flowers, but suddenly fell into the water, framed is the original pairing pushed her into the water, and around only two of them, the original pairing no explanation.

She looked around, but it was really just the two of them, and no one else was around.

She took a step back.

"Uh, don't take it off! How pretty the flowers are in bloom, what a shame to pick them like that."

"Pfft-" Su Yun laughed out loud, "No way little sister-in-law, it's just a flower, it's worth it to be so sad?"

Afterwards, seeing that she wouldn't pull herself up, she no longer reluctantly held onto the railing herself and probed to make enough.

Jenny touched his nose at the sight, finding that he seemed to be a bit villainous.

"Picked it! Look, it's really a lotus, it's the first time I've seen one this month."

Su Yun smilingly showed the lotus in her hand to Jenny Jing, who nodded, "It's quite rare."

"Little sister-in-law, for you." Su Yun thrust the lotus into her hand.

For some reason, looking at the lotus flowers and smelling the scent of the flowers, Jenny somehow felt a little dizzy.

Is it a drinking problem?

And no, she only had a glass or two at dinner, she's not a good drinker, but she's not that bad!

"What's wrong with you, little sister-in-law? It doesn't look right." Su Yun's voice came out of a trance.

"Nothing." Jenny waved his hand, "Might be a little tired."

"Well, then, I'll help you get some rest."

Su Yun reached out to come help her, but Jenny refused, "No, I'll walk by myself."

She always felt that Su Yun didn't have good intentions.

Her mind was so wary that she didn't want to get too close to the woman.

Jenny stumbled forward alone, and behind her, Su Yun stood in the gazebo, her lips curled in a coldness.

"Zhou Wenzhong, I've helped you this time, you should remember my favor."

She took the phone and stared at the back of the one that had gone away, "The man just left, there's no one around, you can do it now."

Jenny didn't know what was wrong with her, she was so dizzy that her feet felt like cotton and her head was light.

She subconsciously felt that something was wrong, she was clearly fine before, ever since Su Yun slipped that lotus flower to her, she started to feel dizzy, there was something wrong with that flower....

That scheming little b*tch!

She cursed inwardly, the first thought in her head was still to hurry and get to where there were people or who knew what that woman wanted to do to her.

Just then, there was a sudden sound of footsteps behind him.

Jenny's heart strings were tight, and he was busy walking forward quickly, his feet soft, with little strength, but still hard enough to remind himself to walk faster, faster again.

The people behind seemed to notice her quickening her stride and ran after her.

With a few steps in sight, she could catch up with her, and a warm voice suddenly came from ahead, "Second sister-in-law?"

Jenny opened her blinded eyes and looked up to see that it was Night White.

"Night White." Jenny was busy extending his hand with a slight tremor.

With a few quick pushes of the wheelchair, Nightwhite quickly reached her and took hold of her.

Seeing that she didn't look well, she even asked with concern, "What's wrong with you?"

"Nothing." Jenny shook her head, "Just a little dizzy."

The night white eyes were deep.

"Is it the alcohol that's getting to you? It's okay, I'll have someone take you to the guest room now."

Jenny still shook her head, "Where's Biden Lu?"

"The second brother seems to be in the front room."

"I'll go get him."

Jenny said, about to walk forward.

She didn't trust anyone right now, she only believed in Biden Lu.

Nightwhite saw her stumble on her feet and looked back towards the gazebo, frowning slightly.

"Second sister-in-law, I'll take you there."

Night White said, and ordered the maid who was helping him push his wheelchair behind him to come forward to help Jenny, and instead pushed the wheelchair himself towards the front hall.

Biden Lu was talking to Jin Qingshan in the front hall, and when he turned around, he saw a maid helping Jenny Jing over, his brow tightened.

The maid helped Jenny to sit beside him, and once she felt the man's scent, Jenny's taut heartstrings only slightly relaxed, leaning her entire upper body against him.

"What's wrong?"

Nightwhite smiled, "Probably had a few glasses of wine at dinner, but now the wine is up."

When he said that, Jin Qingshan, who was sitting next to him, also opened his mouth: "That wine is from '86, the most sufficient is the aftertaste, I guess just now Jenny didn't feel how strong it was, so I thought it wasn't very powerful, and drank a few more cups, and now you'll know."

Biden Lu frowned slightly.

Bowing her head, her chin touched her forehead, feeling the temperature a little hot, and whispered, "Really drunk?"

Jenny's consciousness had long been blurred, and when she heard Biden Lu's voice, she didn't have the strength to explain, so she could only nod her head vaguely.

"Why don't you go to the guest room and get some rest! I'll have some sobering soup made." Ken Castle Peak suggested.

"No, I want to go back to the hotel." Jenny spoke in a low voice.

Biden Lu spoiled her in his arms, "Good, then I'll take you back now."

After saying that, he put down the cup of tea in his hands and then picked Jenny up in a cross-armed hug, "We'll leave first."

Seeing him leave just like that, Jin Qingshan was a bit surprised, "Aren't you guys staying for the night?"

"No." Biden Lu was polite and with a hint of distance, "Jenny is not used to staying in other people's homes, so in case she is uncomfortable she booked a hotel, so I won't bother you."

Jin Qingshan wanted to say more at the news, but the old lady was more open-minded.

See waved his hand, "It's fine, it's fine, as long as you're comfortable, it's the same wherever you live, just remember to talk to me if you need anything."

Biden Lu nodded his head, which was the only way to carry Jenny Jing outside.

Knowing that the man had agreed to go back to the hotel, Jenny only then settled down completely and found a comfortable position in his arms, indulging his consciousness to be completely undisciplined.

When Biden Lu carried her out the door, he saw Zhou Wenzhong running this way with a pale face, running into them and taking a step.

Biden Lu had never placed any eyes on this uncle of the Jin family, so he didn't greet him and walked out.

But Zhou Wenzhong suddenly spoke out, "Mrs. Lu is drunk, right? The cold air is the worst thing to do when you've had too much to drink, or you can just stay here for the night."

He was running and panting, and he didn't forget to care about Jenny's body, which surprised Biden Lu a bit.

Eyes swept over the mud staining the other man's feet.

"No, she likes to go back to the hotel and sleep."

When he finished, he turned and strode away, ignoring him no longer.

The driver had already driven the car to the door, and Biden Lu held Jenny in the car, and sat in it himself, fearing that she would be uncomfortable, and picked her up and put her in his lap, cradling her in his arms.

The car drove out in front, just at this time, his phone suddenly "ding" rang.

He took the phone out of his pocket and scratched it open.

Chapter 419

It was from Night White, with only one small line on it.

The corners of Biden Lu's mouth were coldly hooked up, his eyes cold as ice.

Jenny had been half asleep the whole time, dreaming later that Su Yun had slipped the lotus flowers to her and smiled wryly at her.

Later on, she dreamed of a man in black chasing her, and she ran as fast as she could and was tackled to the ground by the man.

The man took out a knife and smiled cruelly at her, "You know too much, go to hell!"

Jenny woke up with a start.

When I opened my eyes, the first thing that caught my eye was the intricate and beautiful ceiling overhead, then the gorgeous bedroom.

Only a small orange lamp was on in the room, Biden Lu was leaning on the bed, holding a laptop and processing something, seeing her open her eyes, she said in a soft voice, "Awake?"

Jenny was relieved and climbed up, wiping the cold sweat from his forehead.

Biden Lu's eyes flickered slightly.

He dropped his notebook, got out of bed, went outside and poured a glass of water and brought it in to her.

Jenny took it and drank it, the warm water dribbling down his throat and into his stomach, banishing some of his inner fears.

"I almost got killed today." She said suddenly.

There was dark light flowing in Biden Lu's eyes, "What's going on?"

Jenny Jing pursed her lips and drank water again, moistening her throat, before saying, "When I went to change clothes, I accidentally heard that Zhou Wenzhong and the eldest daughter of the Jin family, Jin Hong, talking, as if Zhou Wenzhong had lost one billion yuan in gambling, and that one billion yuan was the company's money, and was discussing how to solve the problem."

Jenny knew very well that tonight's events must have something to do with them.

Why else would she hear their conversation only up front and then something happened behind her.

That Su Yun wasn't a good person, the reason she was dizzy was because of the lotus flower, and that lotus flower was handed to her by Su Yun, they must have colluded together.

She knows how many pounds and tens of kilograms she has, but it's okay to deal with others, and to deal with those like the Jin family, who have deep roots in F. If she doesn't tell Biden Lu, she might not even know how to die someday.

"Probably because they found out I overheard their conversation, so they tried to kill someone."

She paused and said, "That Su Yun is not a good person either, she gave me a lotus flower, I got drunk by smelling the fragrance on that flower, I didn't drink much at all before that."

Biden Lu didn't say anything, his eyes staring at her with deep eyes.

Jenny noticed the look in his eyes and his heart thudded.

"You don't believe me?" Her heart sank slightly.

Biden Lu's lips hooked slightly, touching the top of her soft hair.

"How could I not trust you when you trusted me so much in the most dangerous times?"

At that time, when Nightwhite brought her to him, he sensed something was wrong.

She looked like that, and while it did look like a drunken reaction, something wasn't right with Nightwhite's expression.

It wasn't until he got into the car and saw the text message from Night Simeon that he decided that there was indeed something fishy going on.

Night Simeon texted, "Through the wall, killing people."

Jenny Jing was relieved to see that he didn't disbelieve him, and patted his heart afterwards, "I was really scared to death just now, luckily I met Yubai, or else I would have really fallen."

A cold mane crossed Biden Lu's eyes.

"Oh, yeah, they also mentioned Kepler, saying that if Kepler hadn't kicked him out in the first place, he wouldn't have become like this. I think I need to remind Nina Hua that even though I don't like that bastard Kepler, he's now after all Nina Hua's kid's father, so it's best if nothing happens to him."

She said, when she actually picked up her phone and started texting Nina Hua.

Biden Lu looked at her serious look and suddenly said, "Do you know who Su Yun is?"

Jenny blurted out without even thinking about it, "Didn't you say the old lady's granddaughter?"

The words came out and you just paused to react.

Looking up, incredulous, he looked at Biden Lu.

"The old lady only has one daughter, Jin Hong, her granddaughter, who is naturally Jin Hong's own daughter, so it's naturally no surprise that they would have to join forces against you to hide their secret."

Jenny pursed her lips.

"Why do I feel like I'm just a troublemaker? You can hear people's secrets everywhere you go."

Biden Lu was amused by her and touched her head and said, "Okay, don't think nonsense, I'll take care of this, you rest for a while, I'll go out and make a call."

Jenny nodded.

As she watched Biden Lu head out to the terrace, she still felt a little uneasy.

She didn't reply to the WeChat she sent to Nina Hua just now, and was thinking to see if I should call her over, when I suddenly received a text message from Tailor Feng.

"Sister-in-law, let me ask you a question, what is usually a woman's favorite gift to receive?"

Jenny was stunned.

Did Tailor Feng ask her for advice on gift giving?

It's not right!

Didn't he say he's an old prodigal lover and a prodigal son? Since when do you need to consult anyone else on this?

Jenny felt surprised and thought better of replying to him.

"It depends on the person, everyone has different preferences, but jewellery pretty clothes bags shoes, that's what almost every woman likes."

Tailor Feng sent a bitter expression over.

"And what if the other side doesn't like any of this?"

Jenny raised an eyebrow.

Slender fingers flicked rapidly across the screen.

"That might just not like you as a person."

Tailor Feng: "....."

When Biden Lu finished making the call and entered the house, he just happened to see Jenny Jing sitting there holding her phone not knowing who she was chatting with.

"Who?" He walked over.

"Tailor Feng." Jenny raised her head and raised the phone in her hand, "He seems to be in love, which girl is he after, I guess it's Evelin."

Biden Lu raised his eyebrows, sat down next to her, looked at the conversation between the two on his phone and said, "He is passing through a million flowers and leaves, and still needs a girlfriend?"

Jenny Jing laughed, "He said he's been eating too much dog food lately and can't take it anymore, he wants to develop a fixation on his own, I think he's different to Evelin than he is to other girls, so maybe it will really work out?"

"Heh!" Biden Lu chuckled lightly and looked at the time.

11:30 p.m..

Thinking about it, he suddenly snatched Jenny's phone away from her, then grabbed her and suddenly k*ssed her on the lips.

Jenny only felt a flash of light, and then saw a picture of the two of them k*ssing left on his phone.

"Send this to him." Biden Lu said.

Jenny felt three black lines fall from his forehead.

"That's...not good!" She was embarrassed, "Tailor Feng will break down when he sees it."

"All it takes is for him to collapse."

Jenny: "....."

Biden Lu said, seeing that Jenny Jing didn't move, he picked up his own phone and sent the photo over.
