

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 42

Standing at the gate, Zoey Gu pointed his finger at the jewelry, famous paintings, and many valuable porcelains in the large living room, and said with a smile.

“Take it all away. I am a little girl who doesn’t understand the market. You can make statistics and let your boss calculate the price and give me the money. My father and brother are not there, so it doesn’t matter how much it does to me.”

The leading worker nodded and waved his hand, and the people underneath dared to move back and forth to the car outside.

The door of the old house was open, and there was a lot of noise, almost standing outside the door, and the scene inside could be clearly seen.

From time to time, Zoey Gu’s loud reminders came out.

“Master, you guys slow down. Although these are things that Gu’s family don’t want, they used to be my stepmother’s treasure. Even if she can’t reach it, she will feel distressed when she sees it broken.”

In this way, the men moved in and out back and forth, and the things that came out of Gu’s house were pulled away by car after car.

It didn’t end until late at night.

Zoey Gu personally closed the door, looked outside the dark house, and then turned back to the living room.

After a short while, the lights were turned off, and the entire Ruo Da Gu’s family sank into the night and became completely silent.

Until the wee hours.

A woman wearing black clothes and a peaked cap slowly walked out from under the big tree opposite Gu’s house.

She walked quickly to the door while the cat was clenched, and while opening the door in the dark, she gritted her teeth and cursed.

“Zoey Gu, you little b!tch! Unexpectedly, when I was free, I would treat me this way, damn it!”

After Gu Yunshan and Chase Gu had an accident, Zoey Gu also drove into the sea.

Liam Lu knew for the first time that she was under house arrest, Zoey Gu, and almost immediately used all means.

All her people were folded into Liam Lu's hands.

I thought I could run away with money, but I didn't expect that not only was I wanted online, but the few remaining bank cards were also frozen at the same time.

If she hadn't kept a lot of cash and valuables in Gu's house, she wouldn't risk coming here.

"Little b!tch, you wait for me, but whenever I have a chance to breathe, see if I can kill you!"

Lydia Lin cursed fiercely, and the door suddenly opened.

As she was about to push the door in, a figure suddenly came out from behind her, grabbing her body.

Lydia Lin was shocked, thinking that she was discovered, and subconsciously wanted to scream.

The man had spoken lowly.

"Shut up! I'm not Zoey Gu, I just want to help you. If you really enter this door like this, you will be really broken tonight."

Zoey Gu has been lying with his clothes in the room on the first floor.

Until the latter half of the night, I felt a little bit unsupported by my eyelids, and when I was about to fall asleep, a "ding" suddenly came from the courtyard gate.

Very light, but made Zoey Gu turn over and sit up.

She got out of bed and walked quickly all the way to the corner of the window where she opened the curtains. Sure enough, she saw a figure lowering her waist and running to the storage room next to her.