

Chapter 432

Soon, Jenny was placed on the deck, only to have Zhou Wenzhong reach out and grab her over, the muzzle of the gun quickly going to her head.

On the small boat, Biden Lu calmly watched the scene.

In the headset was the sound of Vicky's brief report, "President, one group is ready to move, two groups are ready to move, and three groups are ready to move."

Biden Lu's eyes were so cold that there was not a trace of warmth, and he lightened his thin lips, "Be careful not to hurt her."

"Yes!"

Jenny on the fishing boat had no idea what was going on and suddenly had a gun to her head and Zhou Wenzhong was so unstable that she screamed in fear, "Zhou Wenzhong! Are you crazy?"

"I'm crazy! Heh. Damn this! How dare you play tricks on me! It was an ambush, wasn't it? I'm going to, today, find out who's better!"

Jenny's face was white, his neck was locked from behind and he could barely breathe, "Don't get excited, where is the ambush? No! There's no one else here at all but the three of us..."

"You shut up!" Zhou Wenzhong was suddenly very excited and yelled at her, his eyes red, and the gun also pressed tighter against her head.

"From now on, you're not allowed to talk! Or I'll shoot you in the head, you hear me?"

Jenny gritted her teeth, afraid of angering him, and said no more.

"Biden Lu! Get your men out of here! Or I'll kill her!"

Zhou Wenzhong shouted loudly in the direction of Biden Lu.

At this point, the two boats were less than thirty meters away, the river was empty, and the sound could be heard clearly.

Biden Lu's voice came from afar, but there was surprisingly no rebuttal or denial.

"What guarantee do I have that you'll actually release them after you get the money?"

"With me being able to kill her right now!"

Zhou Wenzhong hissed in a shrill voice.

There was a moment of silence on Biden Lu's side.

Following that, he was seen whispering something, and soon there was a lot of movement in the nearby fishing boats, as well as in the water, and no one could be seen withdrawing from the area from a distance.

Those guys are quick and well-trained.

Zhou Wenzhong's face went white.

The eyes swiveled around to make sure there were no abnormalities around before saying sternly, "Come here!"

Only then did Biden Lu continue to row the boat this way, and soon, he was on the fishing boat they were on.

He was wearing a black trench coat with a shirt and trousers of the same colour, looking even more imposing, and his eyebrows were as cold as a sword sheathed at the corners of his eyes.

Just that face was incredibly pale.

It's like a piece of paper, with no blood at all.

Jenny's heart clenched as he watched.

On the opposite side, Biden Lu looked this way with a blank expression.

"Zhou Wenzhong! Let her go, and I'll give you every penny you want."

He said in a deep voice, and the air was not like a ransom, but rather a negotiation, or rather, a disguised handout.

Zhou Wenzhong is only a third-rate gangster after all. Apart from marrying Jin Hong and turning into a phoenix, the biggest thing he has done in his life is probably losing the billion dollars.

Usually scared to death of Biden Lu, this time, the heart is even more like a mess.

"Steady on, let him take off his jacket!" The command came over the headset.

Zhou Wenzhong gulped down his saliva, breathing a little faster, compared to the opposite face of a calm and composed Biden Lu, the height of the height.

"You took your jacket off!"

There was no expression on Biden Lu's face, but he really took off his jacket as he said, throwing his trench coat casually on the deck as if he didn't care.

"Make him turn around." The command continued in the headset.

So Zhou Wenzhong said again, "Turn around and look!"

Biden Lu turned around.

"Give him the computer and tell him to transfer the money!"

Zhou Wenzhong pointed to a laptop not far away, "Transfer!"

Biden Lu walked over.

He was so easy going, so relaxed that he didn't even feel a little nervous.

Even Jenny was infected by his kind of strength, and the fear and panic in his heart gradually dissipated.

I saw Biden Lu pick up the laptop, place it on a worn wooden table, and start transferring money.

"Account?" He asked calmly.

There were large drops of sweat falling from Zhou Wenzhong's forehead, "In the desktop document."

Biden Lu opened the document, copied the account, entered it, and started the transfer.

After a moment, he handed over the laptop and said quietly, "Okay, take a look."

The attitude was simply incredibly cooperative and the transaction was incredibly smooth, if not a little unusual.

Zhou Wenzhong moved a step with Jenny and looked towards the computer.

Then, a slight frown.

"You can't see clearly if you pass the computer over some more!"

"Can't you see it?" Lu Jing deepened his brow and then thoughtfully angled the screen up, "Can you see it this way?"

Zhou Wenzhong nodded his head.

He still had his gun on Kingpin's head, so he had no qualms about leaning in for a look.

Just this moment.

Biden Lu's wrist moved, and before Zhou Wenzhong could count the numbers on the screen, a burning sensation accompanied by severe pain nailed into the back of his hand.

He grunted in pain, and his hand with the gun went sore for a moment, and the pistol dropped.

In a flash of electricity, Biden Lu took the pistol, grabbed his other arm, and twisted it with a backhand, the sound of bones snapping began.

Zhou Wenzhong screamed, and that arm had dropped down like torn cotton wool.

Jenny was rolled into Biden Lu's arms.

"Biden Lu! I'll kill you!"

Zhou Wenzhong lost his hostage, his whole face twisted up, and after saying that he was going to pick up the pistol on the ground.

One foot was quicker than he was, however, and the gun was kicked farther away before his hand could reach it, and then he was on the ground.

Biden Lu's eyes were cold and harsh, like a hell god, his mouth curved in a cold and bloodthirsty curve, and his foot crushed his hand with force.

Zhou Wenzhong's miserable scream resounded throughout the night sky.

"You're the first person who's ever dared to threaten me!"

Biden Lu said, his feet pushing harder, and he could almost hear the sound of his finger bones cracking at the root.

Jenny was too frightened to look and turned her face to hide in his arms.

"Biden Lu! You're killing me! You kill me!"

Zhou Wenzhong could not endure the pain and cried out loudly.

"Heh! Dead? That's too cheap, and a life spent in prison is the only way you'll end up in jail!"

Biden Lu said, and with a flip of his ankle, he kicked him out.

Zhou Wenzhong's body was kicked far away like a broken sandbag and crashed into the wall of the cabin.

Soon, a siren sounded, and Vicky ran over with a happy face, saying, "President, the police are here!"

Biden Lu hummed, and after glancing askance at Zhou Wenzhong, who was in the corner, covering his stomach in pain and no longer able to fight back, like a dead mouse, he coldly said, "Leave it to you."

After saying that, he helped Jenny untie the ropes and then took her and prepared to leave.

Chapter 433

"Bang!"

A gunshot rang out, everyone was shocked and looked back, only to see Zhou Wenzhong staring at a bloody hole in front of his head, blood gurgling out, but he was dead.

Vicky was the quickest to react, immediately pulling out his pistol figure to block in front of Biden Lu and Jenny Jing, looking around with a guarded face.

The gunshot also alerted the other bodyguards not far away, who were all on alert.

It took a long time.

There was no more movement.

Biden Lu knitted his eyebrows slightly and said, "Don't look, it's a sniper, the person should have run away."

Summers was shocked.

It is seen that Biden Lu no longer has any expression, holding Jenny Jing, since someone has already docked the fishing boat.

After disembarking from the boat, several police cars were seen parked on the shore, with a large group of heavily armed guards behind Kepler with guns aboard the fishing boat.

A fat-headed, middle-aged man got down from the police car, and when he saw Kepler, he immediately piled on a fearful and pleasing expression to greet him.

"Season, are you guys okay? I just received the news and immediately brought my men over, but I never thought someone would have the audacity to kidnap your friend! When I catch him, I'll bring him to justice!"

Jenny touched his nose and whispered, "He's dead!"

"Huh?" The man was a little surprised, then, hung a bitter face showing a difficult expression.

"This, this, Kisho, I know you're angry, very angry, but this murder is also... I know he's a suspect and he deserves to die, but..."

"Which eye did you see me kill?" Kepler's face was expressionless, "The suspect's accomplices are fighting and killing each other, Chief Jesse! With this happening in your territory, I hope you can give me an explanation as soon as possible!"

Jesse froze.

And a partner?

Wasn't there just one suspect he got a tip from?

He was about to open his mouth to ask a question, but Kepler had stopped paying attention to him and greeted Biden Lu taking Jenny Jing with him, heading towards the Humvee parked on the other side.

Director Jesse still wanted to call out to him, Vicky has stopped from behind, smiling and laughing: "This sir, what do you have to ask me! I was present when the suspect was just killed, and I can go back with you to take a statement!"

Jenny Jing followed Biden Lu into the car.

The car drove smoothly down the wide road, with two Hummers in front of it and two following behind, protecting the one they were in in the middle.

The car was spacious and quiet, and apart from Jenny and Biden Lu, there was only one driver.

That driver Jenny had never seen before, it should not be a temporary arrangement from Kepler, he had a firm face and was concentrating on driving the car in front.

The people sitting in the car in front and behind should be bodyguards, Jenny intuited that these people were somewhat different from the ones she usually saw, but exactly what was different, she couldn't say.

There was a faint feeling of unease.

Biden Lu hadn't spoken since he got into the car, and he knitted his brows as if he was thinking about something.

Jenny was afraid of disturbing him, so he remained silent, silently rubbing the bruises on his wrists that had been tied out by the rope.

"Does it hurt?"

A low male voice sounded, and Biden Lu suddenly took hold of her wrist.

Jenny was stunned to see him take his hand over to inspect it, and after a slight hesitation, he chose to nod honestly.

The woman's white wrists were bruised with two deep ligature marks.

Lu Jing-Shen is good-looking.

The frown on his brow tightened slightly, "Where else on your body are you uncomfortable?"

When he'd just rescued her, he'd only roughly observed her to make sure there was no obvious trauma, but wasn't sure if she'd been knocked or bumped anywhere.

Besides, she is still pregnant, a few days ago, the fetal image is unstable, although after a few days of recuperation has stabilized, but after all, such a big excitement, may not be all right.

Jenny shook her head, "I'm fine, Zhou Wenzhong didn't do anything to me other than scaring me, except for the fact that I was just in the cabin and hit my head on the door panel, which hurt a little."

Biden Lu's face was slightly pale.

"Where's the injury?"

Jenny pointed to a spot on his head.

Biden Lu then helped her over so that she bowed her head slightly, her long slender fingers gently searching through her hair.

"Hiss-"

Jenny suddenly hissed softly, "That's it, don't press, it hurts..."

"We'll be right back at the hospital." His tone was somewhat serious.

Jenny nodded, paused, and then said evenly, "It should just be a small bump and swelling, it'll be fine in a while, it's no big deal, don't worry."

Biden Lu, however, didn't listen to her and gently touched the small pouch that was swollen on her head, his eyes cold, before releasing her.

"Just now on the boat, afraid?" He asked.

Jenny nodded, followed by a slight pause and a shake of the head, "I was afraid before, but I'm not afraid after seeing you here."

Biden Lu hooked his lips, the girl's dependence on him made his original bad mood with a hint of pleasure, reaching out to take her into his arms, arm hand tight.

Jenny was held by Biden Lu like this, not knowing what he meant, didn't move, the sound of the man's steady and strong heartbeat came from his ears, like a drum beat on the heart, bit by bit....

Her heart, which had been tense until now, seemed to have completely loosened up.

She remembered his injuries and asked, "How are your injuries?"

Biden Lu shook his head.

"No problem, had it specially bandaged when it came out, nothing wrong with it."

Jenny didn't believe it, but he saw that the bandage on his chest was indeed oozing with a trace of blood.

Her eyes reddened instantly.

"And you said it was fine, but it's bleeding in plain sight."

Biden Lu looked like she was about to cry and laughed lightly.

"So you behave and don't let me worry so I can go back to my bandage and rest."

Jenny nodded his head heavily in a row.

After nodding, he looked at him again with some guilt.

"I'm sorry oh, I keep getting you in trouble."

Biden Lu didn't say anything.

Only half-heartedly did she raise her hand to stroke her hair, and her dark eyes looked like waves inside them, deep and dark and inexplicable.

"It's not your fault, I didn't protect you."

Jenny Jing even shook his head, "It's none of your business, it's because I accidentally overheard Zhou Wenzhong's secret, that's why he did this, next time I will definitely pay careful attention and won't let this kind of thing happen again."

Her hurried explanation caused Biden Lu's breathing to tighten a bit, and the waves that rolled in those eyes were even more intense, somewhat distressed and helpless.

"It's not as simple as you make it out to be."

Jenny didn't know what he meant, in her opinion, it was clearly that she had accidentally overheard Zhou Wenzhong and his wife's conversation.

Then the other party failed to silence the first time, instead she told the truth to Biden Lu, and later annoyed revenge only.

Chapter 434

Biden Lu didn't want to explain too much to her, he only touched her head and said in a deep voice, "In short, no matter where you go from now on, you must bring a bodyguard."

Jenny's brows furrowed.

But this time she didn't resist or refuse, only whispered, "I'll have her follow me when Mo Nan arrives, inch by inch, and never go out alone again."

Only then did Biden Lu nodded his head.

"Jenny!"

Biden Lu suddenly called her, his tone somewhat muffled, like a light sigh.

Jenny tailed up and mmed.

"If one day you find out that I'm hiding something from you, if you notice that you're going to go through a lot of dangers and accidents when we're together, it's hard to be one hundred percent safe even if I protect you with all my might, will you be afraid of that and blame me for leaving me?"

Jenny was slightly stunned.

She didn't know what Biden Lu referred to as concealment and what those dangers and accidents were.

But if it was something like today's, she could have avoided it altogether if only she had been more vigilant and smarter, and said she was just too careless!

She shook her head, "What do I blame you for? It's my choice to like you, and it's only natural that I should take on the bad after enjoying the good, so why should I leave you?"

Her words caused Lu Jing to breathe tightly, his eyes steeply deepening.

Bowing her head, long fingers lifted her chin and said, "Say what you just said again."

Jenny blinked, a little confused.

"It is natural to enjoy the good and bear the bad..."

Before he could finish, he was interrupted by Biden Lu, "No, the previous sentence!"

"It's my choice to like you..."

As soon as Jenny opened her mouth, she suddenly reacted with a small blush.

The light in front of her suddenly dimmed, and it was Biden Lu who lowered his head and k*ssed her lips.

He k*ssed her deeply, not quite eagerly, but deeply, probing every corner of her mouth, hooking her and rolling her, his palm caressing her face as if he were holding the world's most beloved treasure, and the slightest release would leave him.

Until this moment, Jenny only hindsight to feel the panic and fear in the bottom of the man's heart, he held her, obviously very steady and hard, but Jenny seems to have felt the trembling of his heart.

What was he afraid of?

The man's breath suddenly heated up, like a storm, one second it was calm, the next it was going to wreak havoc on the world.

With a darkness that destroys everything, k*ssing her hard and deep while rubbing her body into himself as if he could then rub her into his chest and never lose her.

Jenny was k*ssed with a lack of oxygen, her brain was blank, and after a long time, until the root of her tongue had gone numb, Biden Lu let her go, biting her earlobe and whispering, "Jenny, I love you!"

Jenny was shaken.

Biden Lu is not a person who is good at speaking love words, he is paralyzed, he is cold, he is arrogant as a snowy mountain flower that can only be looked up to.

And yet such a man was moved to say such words to her at this moment.

Jenny was inexplicably feeling a bit mixed up.

She dropped her eyelids slightly to hide the emotions under her eyes and whispered, "Don't worry, I'll protect myself as well and won't be a drag on you."

Biden Lu laughed lightly, "I'm willing for you to be my drag."

Jenny shuddered, paused, suddenly thought of something and asked softly, "What if you find out that I lied to you about something? Do you still love me?"

"Will!"

He suddenly laughed lightly, his hot breath spilling over her neck, and said in a mute, dangerous tone, "The worst that can happen is that I'll lock you in bed, and if you lie once, I'll do it once, until you tell the whole truth!"

The man's harsh words caused Jenny's face to instantly redden, pushing him away and saying angrily, "Prude!"

"Heh! So what lied to me, then?"

Jenny didn't have the good grace to throw his face to the side, "No!"

"Well?" Biden Lu cupped her face, his tone full of warning.

Jenny's eyelashes trembled a little before she said seriously, "No really, I'm just asking casually."

Biden Lu stared into her eyes for half a moment before nodding and releasing the shackles on her.

Forty minutes later, the car returned to the hospital.

Biden Lu didn't go to Jin's house, and there was no imposition there.

It's just that the guy named Chief Jesse got Jenny's phone number from somewhere and called twice, saying that he was going to bother Jenny to cooperate with the statement.

After all, there were some statements that Vicky could make on behalf of her, but Jenny was the first party, and there were some situations that only she knew about that she had to cooperate with.

Without wanting to make things difficult for him, Biden Lu agreed to let him send someone over the next day to make a statement, and Chief Jesse thanked him a thousand times before he hung up the phone.

After returning to the hospital, Jenny went to take a shower first.

After taking a shower, I saw Dr. Amy coming over at some point.

Amy doesn't spend a lot of time in the country, but she spends a lot of time over here.

As soon as he saw her, he immediately beamed with joy, "Miss King, you know what?When I first met you, I could tell you had a big year ahead of you, but it's not a big deal.

After this!Everything went well after that, and at the time I told Lu and the others that they didn't believe it, and you see, sure enough this came true, didn't it!"

Jenny couldn't help but look at Biden Lu who was sitting next to him, "When did Dr. Amy change her profession to fortune telling?"

Biden Lu looked at him with a faint glance, "When he was young, he had worshipped an old prodigy on a domestic mountain as his master."

"Pfft-" Jenny couldn't help but laugh on the spot, "Really?Dr. Amy, you can't tell!So you're still a high priest."

Amy darkened her face and snapped at Biden Lu, "How many years ago was it, and you're still bringing it up, why don't you tell me about when you were a kid and you ran into someone's girl's shower room for a night?"

Jenny was stunned, then laughed even more, full of incredulity, "No way?Why did you run to the bathhouse?"

Biden Lu's face had darkened, but Amy wasn't afraid to explain, "What else could it be?When he was young and illiterate, someone tricked him that the women's bathhouse was a men's bathhouse, so he went in for a chant, and then he went in and found out that it wasn't right, and hid in the changing room, and was too shy to come out, which is why he stayed all night."

Jennyton laughed uproariously, "How old were you then?"

"Ten years old!"

"A teenager?Impossible, how could it be then..."

Jenny said, and then he couldn't go on, his face a little stiff.

How could a teenager, not to mention male and female characters, who should be able to read normal reading material, be lured into a women's bath because of this?

She turned her head to look at Biden Lu, whose face was somewhat embarrassed, his expression as black as the bottom of a pot, and said coldly, "Cut the crap! Check her body first!"

Amy derring-doed, "Good grin!"

I said, and came up to examine Jenny's body.
