

A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 4372

Looking at Angel who was still asleep, Mark felt a twinge of pain in his heart.

An Qi, a silly girl, was ultimately implicated by him.

Not only did he suffer inhuman treatment, but his family and father were also slaughtered.

In this world, Mark owed too many people.

Angie is definitely one of them.

Therefore, when he was evacuating from Trumen Mountain, Mark deliberately took An Qi with him, hoping that Yue Yao could treat her.

But now it seems that Yueyao's medical skills are still unable to wake An Qi up.

"Mark, I'm sorry."

"An Qi's injury is too serious."

"Through these years, her life has been saved. At that time, the actions of the Chu family hurt An Qi's source of life."

"Unless the gods come to the world, I'm afraid that in this life, she will always lie on the bed and become a living dead."

Yue-Yao also feels pity.

Although she was not familiar with Angel, after hearing Angel's story, Yue-Yao was undoubtedly very touched.

In this world, there are really too few people who can sacrifice themselves for love.

Back then, Yueyao had a blood feud, so she suppressed her feelings for Mark.

Later, Tang Yun had fetters in her heart, between sect and love, she chose the former.

Love, after all, is a luxury.

There are many passionate people in this world.

But how many people can really do it, for the sake of love, regardless of their own lives?

Angie is!

She can practice martial arts for Mark.

You can also give up the family inheritance for Mark.

Even for Mark, regardless of life and death, you can travel across the ocean to see him.

Although she is just a little girl, although she looks weak and immature, she has done things that many people do not have the courage to do.

Boom!

The moment Yue Yao said those words, the bluestone on the bottom of Mark's feet suddenly exploded.

This is a situation of energy overflow that only occurs when the inner emotions fluctuate greatly.

Although, Mark was very calm.

But it can also be seen from this, how turbulent and treacherous his heart is?

He ignored Yue-yao, but walked towards An Qi.

He stretched out his hand to gently stroke An Qi's pretty face, "An Qi, I will save you, for sure!"

Mark's brows and eyes are firm.

Then, he picked up An Qi and walked outside.

"Mark, what are you going to do?"

"The situation outside is severe now, you'd better not show your face easily." Yue-Yao chased after her, worried.

"I'll go back to Noifork and treat An Qi." Mark said in a deep voice.

"No."

"Mark, you don't know what happened during your healing period?"

"The world of martial arts has almost changed."

"Furthermore, the Martial Security Council ordered you to disband the Dragon Temple. It is obvious that the world's martial arts world regards you as a serious problem."

Chapter 4373

"If you show up rashly at this time, I'm worried that someone will harm you."

Yue-Yao was full of worries.

Although during this time, they have been shutting down.

But Yue-Yao is still very concerned about the international situation.

Especially the martial arts situation in Yanxia, it can be said that it is extremely severe.

The martial arts forces in Noirfork and Jiangbei have all suffered a major reshuffle.

Obviously, some people are trying to eradicate Mark's influence in the hot summer.

In this case, Mark appeared in Noirfork rashly, and Yue Yao was really worried that Mark would fall into the trap of himself.

Moreover, now that Mark is recovering from a serious injury, it is really not suitable for taking risks.

But Mark didn't care about these.

He has walked all the way, at which stage, isn't the road ahead full of enemies?

However, what if it is full of thorns?

Mark never flinched!

What's more, now Truman is down.

In this world, who else could make Mark fearful?

In the end, Mark took An Qi and left here and went straight to Yanxia.

Noirfork, Fenghai City, Qingyang Town, the old house of the Chu family.

Before Mark arrived, the black dog in the old house seemed to have smelled Mark's breath.

After the Yunding Mountain battle ended that day, the black dog naturally returned to the Chu family's old house.

As for Xiaoyan, he returned to Trumen Mountain and fell into a deep sleep again.

"Wow woof!"

The black dog kept roaring.

It threw away the underwear it had stolen from Widow Wang's house in the east of the village, turned around and rushed out the door.

After seeing Mark, he jumped up and threw himself into Mark's arms.

"Damn dog, get out of here."

Mark was still holding the girl in his arms, laughed and cursed, turned around, avoided the enthusiasm of the black dog, and walked straight into the old house.

Grandma Tai had obviously sensed Mark's arrival, and immediately came out full of joy.

But seeing another girl in Mark's arms, the grandma stared at her immediately, "You brat, what do you think of grandma?"

"One girl after another is sent here."

"It turned out to be another one this time?"

"Is it true that all the good-looking girls in the world have been given away by you brat?"

Grandma Tai was a little angry, but also smiled helplessly.

I just feel that my grandson is a little too carefree.

First Tang Yun, then the Moon God of Japan, and now another one.

Also, each type is different.

This time it was obviously a little lolita.

"Grandma, stop talking nonsense."

"This is the daughter of the Jones family, Angie."

"It was murdered by our Chu family, and he fell into a coma."

"You must find a way to save her."

In Mark's heart, Grandma can do almost anything.

No matter how serious the injury was, as long as she didn't die, Grandma would almost have a solution.

He just hoped that this time would be no exception.

"You bastard, you only come to me when you need your grandma."

"Wait and see how I deal with you."

"Send people in first."

After the battle with Truman was over, Mark still didn't come to report his safety.

Grandma was always worried.

Seeing Mark now, it is natural to complain a few words.

After blaming her for a while, Grandma asked Mark to send An Qi into the room and began to check on An Qi's injuries.

Chapter 4374

"Grandma, how are you?" After waiting for several hours, Grandma came out of the room.

Mark stepped forward and asked anxiously.

Grandma shook her head, "If I hurt my origin, I can't recover from it. This girl may die soon."

"Chu Zhengliang and those two bastards are really devoid of conscience."

Grandma Tai sighed, but she couldn't help cursing angrily.

Their Chu family has a family style that has been clear from generation to generation.

Be upright and upright.

Even killing people is done above board, and they never do shameful and despicable things.

However, grandma did not expect that the Chu family passed down to this generation, and actually raised Chu Zhengliang and Chu Qitian, two beasts that are not as good as pigs and dogs.

Digging out the eyes to take out the pupils, such a despicable and cruel thing, can you actually do it?

Moreover, what they attacked was the little princess of the Jones family.

Every time this matter was mentioned, grandma would no doubt be furious.

"no, I can not."

"An Qi is so young, how could she just die like this."

"Grandma, think of a way, think of a way to save her life."

When Mark heard this, his heart was undoubtedly cold.

His face was pale and he kept shaking his head.

He couldn't accept Grandma's answer.

For a long time, Grandma was omnipotent in Mark's heart.

He was seriously injured several times, and it was the grandma who pulled him back from the gate of hell.

Grandma Tai also put in a lot of effort to defeat Chu Yuan and step down from the Chu Clan.

How could his great grandmother, who was like a fairy, be unable to cure a little girl?

Mark is still begging hard.

Grandma Tai also looked sad.

"Silly boy, don't you want to save her as a grandma?"

"The Jones family has a deep relationship with my Chu family, and they have assisted me and my Chu family for nearly a thousand years."

"Just looking at this origin, if there is a way, I will do my best to save it."

"But no matter what, my old woman's ability is limited after all."

"There is no way to recover."

"Even if I try my best, I can only extend her life for one year."

"A year later, I'm afraid it will be"

Grandma sighed.

Mark was filled with sadness and guilt.

He stepped forward and looked at An Qi who was lying unconscious on the bed again.

That immature pretty face, that slender eyelashes, that indescribably beautiful pretty face.

Chapter 4375

It was really hard for him to accept that such a kind and lovely girl had only one year to live.

"Grandma, really, is there nothing you can do?"

There are crystals streaming down from the corners of Mark's eyes.

With trembling lips, he asked Grandma Xiang again.

"At least for now, there is no way. But" Grandma Tai paused.

Mark suddenly turned his head, "But what?"

"However, if you can break through the fifth level of Yundao Tianjue within one year, you will enter the divine realm."

"Then, An Qi still has a chance."

Mark's eyes lit up when he heard the words, "Is this true?"

Grandma Tai nodded, "Yun Dao Tian Jue was created by the ancestors of Yunyang back then. It can be described as the art of studying heaven and man."

"And if you reach the fifth level, you can say that you have extraordinary power."

"Beyond the mundane, you will become a god!"

"At that time, the power of Yundao Tianjue will have a qualitative leap."

"Not only can it make your strength skyrocket, but also have the power of creation."

"By using this power, you may be able to restore Angel's damaged origin."

Grandma spoke slowly.

Mark's originally sluggish spirit was undoubtedly lifted after hearing this.

Like a person who walks in the night, seeing the glimmer of light in front of him, hope is rekindled.

"Okay, then within a year, I will enter the divine realm!"

Mark said in a deep voice, with firm eyebrows and eyes.

Yes, Mark's current state is just the peak state of a titled master.

There is still one step away from the divine realm.

"God Realm God Realm, God-Man Realm."

"Do you really think that if you defeat Chu Yuan, you can easily reach the God Realm?"

"What you think is too simple after all."

"You can defeat the God Realm only by relying on the powerful martial arts left by your ancestors and the Yundaotian Jue technique."

"Otherwise, how could you be Chu Yuan's enemy?"

The grandma shook her head, speaking faintly, thinking slowly in this courtyard.

"Since your ancestor Chu Yunyang, the world's martial arts have lasted for nearly a thousand years, but there are only five people who have truly achieved the state of God."

"Of these five, which one is not the most talented and flamboyant generation?"

"In their era, their brilliance, it can be said, far surpassed yours."

"As for the current world, there are only two people who are strong in the divine realm that you have come into contact with."

"One is the girl I brought last time. However, that girl is at most half a god-level powerhouse. Although, her soul is the reincarnation of a god-level person. However, her body is too weak to display her true spirit power at all. The power of the environment."

"The other one is your grandfather, Chu Yuan. But in fact, he is not your grandfather, he is just a sealed strange demon who came back from the corpse."

Chapter 4376

"It can be said that in today's world, there is no one who can rely on his own strength to step into the realm of the gods."

"Even if they are, you will only have a harder time."

"After all, what you practice is the full version of Yundao Tianjue."

"This exercise is far more powerful than ordinary exercises. But at the same time, it is more difficult and obscure to comprehend."

"From the inheritance of your Yunyang ancestor to the present, apart from your ancestor, no one else has been able to use this technique to enter the realm of the gods."

"It's like your grandma and I, who have been trapped in the fourth level of Yundao Tianjue for nearly a hundred years."

"I guess, even if I die, I'm afraid it will be difficult to break through."

What?

"Grandma, have you been trapped in the fourth layer for a hundred years?" Mark was undoubtedly deeply shocked when he heard this.

His great-grandmother has always been a legend in the family.

Although a person with a foreign surname married into the Chu family, he insisted on relying on his powerful martial arts talent to convince the entire Chu family, and finally became the head of the Chu family, mastering countless secrets and resources of the Chu family.

But Mark didn't expect that such a powerful person like Grandma would be trapped in the fourth layer for a hundred years.

If you think about it this way, it has been several years since Mark stepped into the fourth level of Yundao Tianjue, and he hasn't improved any more.

Thinking of this, Mark's mood undoubtedly became heavy again.

The bottleneck that Grandma Tai has not been able to break through for a hundred years, can he break through it in one year?

Seeing Mark's aura instantly languishing, Grandma smiled and touched Mark's head, "Stupid guy, it's up to people."

"Grandma doesn't want to hit you, but just wants you to understand the situation."

"Don't have too much hope for this matter, and of course, don't give up directly."

"In a word, do your best and know the destiny."

"Maybe, you can really use it for a year to reach a height that your grandma hasn't been able to reach in a hundred years."

"After all, you are the one chosen by the ancestors."

Grandma comforted Mark.

Although she said so, she obviously didn't hold much hope in her heart.

After all, one year is too short.

"Yes, grandma, I see."

"No matter what, as long as there is a glimmer of hope, I will try."

"This girl, life is too hard."

"I don't want to let her disappear like this before she has seen the beauty of this world."

"After arranging the funeral, I will immediately retreat and practice to hit the divine realm."

Mark looked at An Qi in front of him, and clenched his palms tightly.

Grandma Tai nodded, "Well, it's good to give it a try. Anyway, no matter whether you succeed or fail in the end, it won't do you any harm. These years, you've been busy with revenge, and you should calm down and practice hard."

"Okay, let's not talk about it, I will let An Qi wake up first."

"You will assist me in a while. I need your true energy."

Although Grandma Tai couldn't make An Qi heal.

However, in the last year of her life, she could still wake up from a coma and spend it awake.

Chapter 4377

"Okay, you can go out and rest."

"Leave the rest to me."

Grandma's words sounded slowly.

In the room, Mark, who had fed Angie with Qi for three days, got up tired and walked out of the room.

The moment Mark got up, he felt that his eyes were going black.

Obviously, the consumption of these three days is not insignificant to Mark.

However, in order to make An Qi wake up, what is the effort?

"The rest will be troublesome to grandma."

Mark whispered something, and then walked out of the room.

Outside, the breeze is pleasant and the sun is just right.

Mark, who was exhausted, felt the cool breeze, looked at the warm sunshine, and the black dog on the street being chased and beaten by the widow at the entrance of the village.

For a moment, Mark only felt that time was quiet.

However, the shame in his heart made him not happy at all.

He turned around and continued to look at An Qi who was still receiving treatment in the room.

"An Qi suffered bad luck because of me."

"She is still so young, she hasn't seen all the rivers, lakes, rivers and seas, and she hasn't had enough of the lakes and mountains."

"There shouldn't be only one year left in her life."

"No matter what, I want to break through the divine realm and help An Qi renew her life."

"It's just right, now that Trumen is gone, and my wish is fulfilled, the rest of the time, I will go to Mount Foluo and concentrate on practicing."

"However, before leaving, Noirfork should arrange it properly."

In the courtyard, Mark began to plan what he was going to do next.

In the past, Mark practiced in order to go to the Chu family to seek justice.

Now, Chu Yuan is dead, and the Chu family has changed owners.

The long-cherished wish of many years has come to an end.

Afterwards, Mark let go of his burden, and finally he was able to live for himself.

However, as my great-grandmother said, hitting the divine realm is definitely not something that happens overnight, and I am afraid that I will leave the martial arts world for a long time.

Before that, Mark really needs to properly arrange for those brothers who followed Mark in the past.

After having a plan in mind, Mark rushed directly to Wrillfill without delay, let alone resting.

cloud state.

A number of luxury cars were parked in front of a manor.

A middle-aged man got out of the car and stopped in front of the manor.

"Mr. Zhao, this is Li's Manor."

"Ericson Li, just live inside." The subordinates reported respectfully.

Zhao Hongtu nodded.

Then, he led the people forward.

"Please inform me that Zhao Hongtu from Yuantu Group is here to visit Ericson Li."

At this time, it was evening.

Li's Manor, the door is closed.

Chapter 4378

Zhao Hongtu said with a smile to the security guard behind the door.

"Sorry, my second master is unwell, so I refuse all visitors."

"Several, please go back."

The security guard replied coldly, directly rejecting their request.

Zhao Hongtu wasn't angry either, he just waved his hand.

Behind him, two burly men stepped forward immediately, kicking each of them.

There was only a bang.

The iron gate made of steel was twisted and broken in an instant.

The iron gate weighing hundreds of kilograms crashed to the ground.

The dust brought up is all over the sky!

"You you you"

The two security guards behind the door were so frightened that they fell limply to the ground, and backed away in horror with their hands on the ground.

"Two, offended."

Zhao Hongtu clasped his hands together and bowed slightly to the two security guards.

He looks polite, like a well-bred gentleman.

Just like that, Zhao Hongtu walked straight into the main hall of the Li family, regardless of the obstruction.

"Second Master, show up."

"What should come, will always come."

"You can't escape."

"If it doesn't appear again, it will not only be the gate of the manor that will be broken next."

After entering the hall, Zhao Hongtu's deep and deep voice resounded instantly, resounding throughout the manor.

one minute two minutes

Five minutes passed.

However, the person Zhao Hongtu was waiting for still did not appear.

"Mr. Zhao, do you still have to wait?" the subordinate asked.

Zhao Hongtu's eyebrows and eyes were cold, just when he was about to give the order to do something.

A chunky middle-aged man walked slowly with the support of a child.

"Second Master Li, you are finally willing to show up."

"I thought you were going to hide here for the rest of your life?" Seeing Ericson Li, Zhao Hongtu laughed.

He stepped forward, intending to take Ericson Li from the child and help him onto the sofa.

"Don't bother Mr. Zhao."

"It's enough for Xiaolin to help me."

Ericson Li replied indifferently, and sat down on the sofa.

"Tell me, what do you want to do here?" Ericson Li asked coldly.

"No other meaning. I just heard that the second master has followed Mr. Chu for many years and is deeply trusted by Mr. Chu. Mr. Chu took a lot of treasures from Chumen Mountain this time. Presumably the second master must know where these treasures are stored Where are you?" Zhao Hongtu picked up the teapot on the coffee table and poured a cup of tea for Ericson Li with a smile.

When Ericson Li heard this, he was furious!

Instantly hit the case!

"Zhao Hongtu, don't you think you are too greedy?"

"You have occupied the Yunding Mountain Villa, suppressed the Helen Qiu Group to the brink of bankruptcy, messed up Noirfork, and killed my brother."

Chapter 4379

"These are not enough for you, but you still covet the treasures of Truman?"

"I know how, so what if I don't know."

"The Tru Clan was forced by the Dragon God Palace, and Chu Yuan was killed by Mr. Chu. The treasure of the Tru Clan should belong to the Dragon God Palace."

"If you want to take it, then defeat Mr. Chu and break through my Dragon Temple?"

Li clenched his palms tightly, furious.

During this time, he endured again and again.

These people occupied Yunding Mountain, Ericson Li endured it.

They teamed up with some families in Noifork to suppress Helen Qiu Group, annexed the group's properties, and froze the group's assets. Ericson Li also endured it.

However, Ericson Li never imagined that now these bastards have extended their hands to the martial arts world and to Truman Treasure.

It's really unsatisfactory!

"Hahaha"

"Second Master, don't get excited."

"Mr. Chu is our Yan Xia title, and he made great efforts in the Truman War. He is a hero of our country."

"We are all compatriots and love each other. If you say these words, won't you be alienated?"

"We are just worried that those treasures will be robbed by people from other countries."

"You also know that everyone is innocent, but pregnant is guilty."

"Is it always safer to leave it to the state for safekeeping?" Zhao Hongtu reassured.

"nation?"

"You Yuantu Group is just a private company. What do you use to represent the country?" Ericson Li asked coldly.

Regarding the Yuantu Group, Ericson Li had undoubtedly investigated it long ago.

It is the largest city in Yanxia, a wealthy family in Zhonghai City.

A few months ago, shortly after Mark led the Dragon Temple to withdraw from Chumen Mountain, brothers Zhao Hongyuan and Zhao Hongtu suddenly settled in Noirfork.

Zhao Hongtu shook his head and smiled, "Second Master, you are still naive."

"In today's world, do you really think there are self-made people?"

"Our Yuantu Group, although nominally a private enterprise, is owned by our Zhao family."

"But don't think about it. No matter how capable our Zhao family is, we shouldn't be able to mobilize so many masters."

When Ericson Li heard this, his old eyes froze instantly, "You mean, the Martial God Palace sent you here!"

Zhao Hongtu didn't speak, just lowered his head and drank tea with a smile.

Li clenched his palms tightly, "I should have thought of that earlier!"

"Without the support of the Martial God Palace, who would dare to provoke Mr. Chu in this scorching summer? Who would dare to touch Noirfork?"

"However, if you act like this, aren't you afraid that I will sue Mr. Chu, and you are not afraid of the Dragon God Temple's revenge?"

Ericson Li asked sharply.

But Zhao Hongtu shook his head, "Second Master Li, if you really want to treat Mr. Chu well, I would advise you not to sue Mr. Chu."

"You should know that the Dragon Temple has been listed as an illegal organization in the world, and Mr. Chu is the focus of attention of martial arts in various countries."

"Right now, the eyes of the whole world are staring at the Dragon Temple and Mr. Chu."

"However, if Mr. Fan Chu acts a little out of line, what do you think will be the consequences?"

"You don't want to let your Mr. Chu follow in the footsteps of Chu Yuan."

Ericson Li was silent for a while, and sat on the spot without saying a word for a long time.

Chapter 4380

He was right.

Mark has a strong personality and has offended many people all the time.

If it was before, Ericson Li has nothing to worry about.

After all, Mark is powerful and doesn't need to be afraid of anyone.

But now, in the few months since Mark left, the global martial arts situation has changed dramatically.

When Ericson Li's eyes were uncertain, Zhao Hongtu walked over, reached out and patted Ericson Li's shoulder, and said with a smile, "Second Master Li, times have changed."

"The current martial arts world is no longer the time for you, Mr. Chu, to cover the sky with one hand."

"The God Ranking has been opened, even if it is number one in the Heaven Ranking, it is nothing more than a speck of dust in front of the strong in the God Ranking."

"So, Second Master Li, I'll give you one night to think about it carefully. Should you hand over those treasures or not."

"We are all compatriots, and I just persuaded them with good words."

"In a few days, if foreign powers also come to ask for it, then they won't be as gentle as me."

"By the way, I heard that Second Master Li had a car accident a few days ago and injured his leg. He should be fine now, right?"

"In the future, we still need to pay more attention."

"Otherwise, it won't be just one leg that will be injured next time."

Zhao Hongtu smiled meaningfully.

Then, walk away.

Only Ericson Li was left behind, sitting on the spot with a sallow face.

"Godfather, are you alright?" the boy Chu Lin beside him asked in a low voice.

Ericson Liqiang smiled happily, "Xiao Lin, godfather is fine. You go upstairs first, godfather wants to be quiet for a while."

Chu Lin nodded obediently, and then went upstairs.

In the hall, only Ericson Li was left.

"Second Master, are you okay?"

"Those bastards just now didn't hurt you, did they?"

At this time, Jinbao and Yinbao brothers ran in anxiously.

Obviously, the two of them got the news of Zhao Hongtu's intrusion, so they hurried over, fearing that something would happen to Ericson Li.

"It's okay, at least for now, they dare not touch me."

"They just want the treasure that Mr. Chu brought from the Trumen." Ericson Li whispered.

When Jin Bao and Yin Bao heard this, they were furious!

"It's not enough for these bastards to steal Mr. Chu's property, but they even covet the treasure of the Chu family!"

"Second Master, we can't bear it any longer!"

"It's time to contact Mr. Chu."

"Let Mr. Chu bring people back to Noirfork, and kill all these bastards!"

Jin Bao roared angrily.

Yinbao also persuaded him from the sidelines.

They can no longer control the current situation in Noirfork.

Only, please ask Mr. Chu to come forward!

Chapter 4381

But Ericson Li did shake his head, "Mr. Chu is still seriously injured, and I don't know where he is now."

"How do we connect?"

"Besides, what Zhao Hongtu said is not bad. At this time, I ask Mr. Chu to come forward to solve it. I'm afraid it will harm him."

"They should be eager to find an excuse to attack Mr. Chu."

Ericson Li's tone was extremely heavy.

In the past, he thought that Mark beheaded Chu Yuan and the Dragon Temple destroyed Tru Clan. In the future, the martial arts world around the world would respect Mr. Chu.

Those of them who follow Mr. Chu no longer need to be afraid of any force, any strong man.

However, the development of the situation was completely different from what Ericson Li expected.

Without Trumen, another Wu'an Society appeared.

After Chu Yuan died, now, there is Chen Jiuzhou again.

Sometimes, Ericson Li was thinking.

Why is there so much malice towards Mr. Chu in this world?

Could it be that the vastness of this world cannot accommodate a Brian Chu or a Dragon God Palace?

Just when Ericson Li was in a heavy mood, another thin figure quietly appeared outside the gate of the manor.

Facing the moonlight, he stepped on the steps and walked into the Li family's house.

"Who?"

Perhaps because they heard footsteps, Jin Bao and Yin Bao became alert instantly.

He actually took out a pistol from his pocket and pointed it at the figure outside the door.

"Why, it's only been a few years, have you forgotten what I taught you back then?"

"To be a human being, you still need to be a calm person, a kind person, and a person who always smiles."

Faint laughter came quietly from outside the hall.

Although, I haven't seen the face of the other party clearly.

However, the moment they heard these words, Jin Bao and Yin Bao brothers trembled at the same time.

"Mr. Chuchu?"

Sure enough, the trembling voices of the two fell.

In the hall, a thin figure walked in.

The dim light illuminated Mark's delicate face.

"Is it really Mr. Chu?"

After Ericson Li saw who was coming, he was no longer calm.

Rushed up to meet him.

He was so excited that he completely forgot about his leg injury.

So, before taking a few steps, he lay on the ground directly.

However, even if he was lying on his stomach, it was still difficult to hide Ericson Li's excitement and joy.

After all, for Ericson Li, Mark is his harbor, his backing stone, and his protective umbrella.

As long as Mark is there, no matter how big the storm is, Ericson Li will feel surprisingly at ease.
