“Brother Mark, can you survive this catastrophe?” Xu Lei continued to ask.

God of War sighed a long time, “Now, I can only hope that a miracle will happen.”

On the highway hundreds of miles away.

The red sports car was fast as lightning, galloping crazily on the road.

The sound of the sonic boom was like the roar of a wild beast.

Along the way, the vehicles that were overtaken along the way all showed horrified expressions when they saw the drifting red lightning.

The speed of 400 kilometers per hour is absolutely unprecedented for ordinary people.

However, at the entrance of the expressway that is about to leave Noirfork, a large number of police cars are parked here.

All kinds of roadblocks were posted.

Even next to it, there are troops stationed.

All kinds of heavy weapons are also placed here.

“Master, who are we arresting?”

“Even the army has been dispatched?!”

At this time, a young policeman who had just graduated and started working was shocked and asked his master, an old criminal policeman.

The old criminal policeman lowered his voice, "It's not just the army?"

"As far as I know, there are dozens of fighters approaching here thousands of kilometers away!"

"In terms of the army, even armored vehicles and tanks have been used!"

"Believe it or not, if my predictions are correct, there must be more than a dozen missiles locked on here by the Noifork Military Region at this time!"

What?

The intern was almost frightened.

The fighter planes were dispatched, the missiles locked on, and the tanks pressed the formation.

God?

What is this for?

I don't know, I probably thought that a modern war was about to break out!

"Master, you lied to me."

"With such a battle, it is enough to fight a battle with a scale of 10,000 people."

"Kebut as far as I know, what we want to arrest this time is only one person."

"As for such a big fight?"

Chapter 4493

The intern tried hard to keep himself calm and forced a smile.

He felt that this kind of battle, even against a thousand people, would be enough to wipe them out in an instant.

However, his master shook his head heavily, his eyes full of solemnity, "This is the most terrifying."

"All the military fighter planes are dispatched, but even so, the order from the superior is to stop them for fifteen minutes at all costs."

“What does this mean?”

“This shows that in the eyes of the superiors, it is very difficult for our forces to block him for fifteen minutes.”

boom!

These words of the master, to this intern, are like five thunderbolts.

Airplanes and cannons, heavy siege, the goal is only to block the opponent for fifteen minutes.

God.

Who is the other party?

Could it be a fairy?

At the time when the interns were panicking, the roar of the engine, like a thunderstorm, resounded from far to near.

“coming!”

“All personnel prepare for the possibility of the other party breaking the card!”

“Sniper ready!”

“Special forces are ready!”

“Fire control radar locked on”

Following the order after order, thousands of soldiers on the field instantly entered a state of first-level combat readiness.

The armored vehicle, a hundred meters away, turned its barrel and slowly faced the highway ahead.

The fire control radar on the fighter plane had locked on to the red sports car.

More than a dozen police cars blocked the road on three floors and three floors outside.

Snipers and special forces are also all in place.

A big net of death has been completely opened.

Just wait for the prey to enter!

At the same time, the psychologist kept shouting through the loudspeaker to make the other party voluntarily surrender.

However, the speed of the other party did not slow down by half a minute.

Like a tiger descending a mountain, it rushed forward!

Upon seeing this, the on-site commander immediately ordered, "The target has entered the attack area."

"Every team listens to the order and goes all out!"

Boom~

With the order of the on-site commander, all the artillery was fired.

The fire that soared into the sky ignited that void!

"Hahaha"

"bingo!"

"Master, let me just say, how could there be such a powerful existence in this world?"

"The higher-ups obviously overestimated the other party!"

"Under this level of attack, even if the opponent has a body of steel, he will surely die!"

The flames soared into the sky for a long time.

It was the first time for the intern to see such a scene, and after a brief tremor, he laughed.

Fortunately, he thought that he would encounter some terrible existence before, but now it seems that he is really too worried.

After watching for a few seconds, his teacher also breathed a sigh of relief.

“It seems that the above is indeed a misjudgment, right?”

“Okay, the task is over. The first group and the second group will stay for a while to clean up the scene, and the rest will evacuate in an orderly manner.”

The on-site command has issued an order to tear off most of the personnel.

After all, there are too many people gathered here, and if it is seen by nearby residents after a long time, it may cause panic.

However, the order to retreat had just been issued.

Sudden!

There was a low roar, like the roar of a wild beast.

In an instant, it resounded through the entire night sky!

“This is?”

After hearing the sound, the people at the scene were shocked.

The master and apprentice turned around immediately!

Under the night, they could only see a steel body leaping out of the sea of flames like a dragon leaping out of the sea.

The streamlined body reflects the bewitching flames.

With an elegant speed, a streak of red lightning was directly pulled up in the air.

Just like that, the Bugatti Veyron rushed out of the flames in a very shocking way.

If this is a movie, it must be one of the hottest doomsday escapes!

Seeing this scene, everyone went crazy.

The intern's eyes widened in shock, and he fell to the ground in fright.

"How is this possible?"

"How could that car be unscathed?"

"This is absolutely impossible!"

Chapter 4495

When the intern was limp on the ground.

The field commander has recovered from the shock.

He mobilized his strength and chased and intercepted the sports car again.

However, it is useless!

After Mark was in the conflict explosion area, the red sports car accelerated again.

Then, under everyone's unbelievable gazes, the sports car leaped up, flew nearly ten meters into the air, and jumped over all the roadblocks set up in front of it.

"attack!"

"Attack immediately!"

"Blow him up for me!"

The on-site conductors are crazy.

He didn't know what kind of car it was.

Even without any slope and springboard support, it took so long to fly into the air.

This has broken through the limits of physics and surpassed the laws of the universe.

This is totally unscientific!

But now, the task is urgent, and the other party has broken through the ban, and they don't care about researching whether it is scientific or not.

Since it can't be stopped, it can only be destroyed at any cost.

But then, something even more shocking happened.

After the order to attack was issued again, countless flames gushed out, and even air-to-ground missiles were launched.

However, what makes one's scalp tingle is that, whether it is bullets or air-to-ground missiles, their speed cannot catch up with each other at all.

You know, air-to-ground missiles look comparable to the speed of sound!

In other words, the speed of the other party's sports car at this time has surpassed the speed of sound!

"I am Cao!"

"Shall I go to your mother?"

"This is a sci-fi movie, right?"

Everyone is crazy.

The on-site conductor also collapsed on the ground in a dispirited manner.

Mission failed.

And, fiasco!

At the opponent's speed, they have already lost their target.

It is no longer possible to make any interception.

The intern just now was also stunned.

Looking at the red lightning that has turned into a spot of light and gone away, he once felt that he had glimpsed a god?

Huh~

It was cold and windy outside.

Thousands of light spots, like crazy, receded in the sight crazily.

At this time, Mark was controlling the sports car, accelerating and galloping!

Yes, their speed is still improving.

Of course, the current speed has already exceeded the theoretical limit speed of the Bugatti Veyron by several times.

But the reason why there is such a terrifying motivation is entirely Mark's masterpiece!

Sitting in the driver's seat, Mark was running Yundao Tianjue crazily.

He controls the power and pours it into this sports car.

Relying on the force generated by the compression force, the sports car is accelerated again and again.

An Qi beside her was experiencing the thrill of racing for the first time.

If it is an ordinary person, under such an acceleration, the body must have an uncomfortable reaction.

But don't forget, before An Qi's accident, she was also a warrior.

Her previous strength was even comparable to that of a grandmaster.

Therefore, she can still bear such physical burdens.

However, she was more worried about Mark's safety.

"Mark, are we safe now?"

Although An Qi couldn't see the world, she could still hear the gunfire and explosion just now.

She knew that now Mark was leading her to flee wildly.

Mark shook his head, "Not yet, the real disaster hasn't happened yet."

Mark looked solemn.

The interception just now looked critical.

But in fact, in Mark's eyes, it was nothing at all.

With his strength, even thousands of troops, hundreds of fighter planes, and thousands of tanks can't stop a peerless powerhouse who is comparable to a god!

There is a saying in the world of martial arts, any one of the top three in the heaven list has the power to break through all armies!

If Mark was willing, one attack would be enough to send the group of people back to the west.

Chapter 4497

This truth is not only known by Mark, but also by the World Martial Arts League.

However, they still let those people do their bidding.

why?

It's nothing more than delaying time!

Pave the way for the real killing move!

Yes, the real killing game has yet to come.

Mark must leave Yanxia as soon as possible and enter India.

Although Yanxia is Mark's motherland.

But in the current Yanxia martial arts world, thieves are in power.

Ye Qingtian and Juggernaut have long been expelled from the core decision-making circle.

The power of national martial arts has completely fallen into the hands of Feng Hou's master and apprentice.

In this case, if Mark stays in the hot summer, it will inevitably lead to overwhelming pursuit.

But India can!

The Indian Buddha Palace was already scared of being killed by Mark. Although they obeyed the resolution of the Wumeng, they certainly would not work so hard like Chen Jiuzhou.

What's more, Yueyao also has huge power in India.

As long as he crosses the border of Yanxia, Mark's situation will undoubtedly be much better!

On the other side, Feng Hou, Zeus and others were still chasing after him.

At this time, the news of the interception failure also reached Fenghou's ears!

"A group of waste, can't stop it for a minute?"

"What do I need you for?"

Feng Hou was very angry.

"Use the Beidou satellite system to comprehensively monitor Mark's actions, and at the same time analyze his possible destinations and movements!"

Continue to issue orders after the wind.

Soon, the news from multiple parties was quickly summarized!

“After returning to the wind, Mark is heading south frantically after breaking through the interception!”

“According to the route to the south, we suspect that the other party’s goal is the Himalayas, Nepal, India and other places!”

After hearing the words, a decision was made soon.

“Contact the Southwest Military Region immediately and ask them to send strategic bombers carrying nuclear bombs to stand by on the border of the Southwest border!”

“As long as anyone finds Mark’s trace, he will drop a nuclear bomb immediately, no need to ask for instructions!”

Feng Hou’s words are majestic and unquestionable.

Zeus beside him smiled disdainfully, “Queen of the Wind, why bother?”

“At our speed, it’s only a matter of time before we catch up to Brian Chu!”

“During this time, he couldn’t reach the southwestern border at all, so he was wiped out by the four of us.”

Feng Hou shook his head, “Master gave us an order to kill us. It’s better to be safe and make more preparations. It’s better to be safe.”

Regarding Mark’s existence, Feng Hou and the others actually didn’t have much fear.

But their master was very jealous of Mark and asked them to gather all their strength to kill Mark.

As the highest martial arts leader in Yan Xia, Fenghou is also fighting at home, so Fenghou will undoubtedly take on more responsibilities for this mission.

In order to ensure the smooth completion of the master's task, Fenghou is naturally extremely cautious!

Before making the move, Feng Hou even met with the Lord Yan Xia. Let the Yanxia military fully cooperate with their actions in the Temple of Valkyrie.

Naturally, Lord Yanxia could not refuse Fenghou's request.

After all, there are many troubles in the secular world on weekdays, and they have asked the Temple of Valkyrie to solve them.

Even if it is to return the favor of the Martial God Temple, the secular world will naturally fully cooperate!

call!

The wind was fierce.

Mark controlled the sports car and smashed the wind into pieces.

At this time, Mark had broken through the border of Noirfork and entered Tiannan Province.

Except for the interception in the land of Noirfork, Mark and the others have never encountered any obstacles.

Drive straight in all the way.

At this speed, in another hour or two, they will be able to completely rush out of the Yanxia Kingdom.

The cold wind roared outside, but inside the car was unusually quiet.

An Qi clenched her little hands tightly, she didn't know whether it was because of fear or worry, her palms were covered in cold sweat.

Along the way, he didn't dare to say a word, for fear of disturbing Mark.

Mark turned his head to look at the girl, and stretched out his hand to hold An Qi's palm.

"An Qi, it's okay. I will definitely bring you there safely." Mark comforted with a smile.

An Qi grabbed Mark forcefully, and said softly, "Yes."

However, as soon as An Qi's voice fell.

The smile on Mark's face disappeared instantly.

The whole person immediately became dignified.

"Already, are you here?"

Mark turned his head and glanced through the window.

That whisper sounded like a soliloquy.

Afterwards, Mark controlled the car, and the speed gradually slowed down.

Until finally, it stopped firmly on the ground.

"Mark, what's the matter? Have you arrived yet?"

An Qi noticed the change in speed, and immediately became tense.

Mark comforted her, "An Qi, don't worry. Hold on to me in a while."

After the car stopped, Mark took An Qi out of the car.

The moment they got off the car, several white awns, like meteors across the sky, directly and steadily hit the car Mark was in just now.

boom!

Amidst the huge explosion, the red Bugatti Veyron instantly turned into dazzling flames and disappeared.

Immediately afterwards, several sounds of breaking through the air came from a distance.

After a few blinks, those figures, like teleportation, pierced through the void, and directly blocked Mark.

One of them, wearing a black robe, with a withered face, looks like a demon from the abyss, holding a sickle, straddling the sky and the earth.

Facing Mark, his majestic shout resounded throughout the world.

Chapter 4499

“I am, Death God Asura!”

Beside him, a man was wearing a golden armor, his golden pupils were blooming, and he was holding a long spear, as if a god was alive.

“I am the God King Odin!”

The spear pierced into the ground, like a mountain rising from the ground. There are spider webs of cracks all over the place.

The other person has a huge physique.

With a height of more than two meters, standing there is like a hill. The hairs on his bare arms stood on end, and his mighty and majestic aura surged surgingly.

“I am the giant Ymir!”

The last person is a woman.

A fluttering purple dress, phoenix crown and Xiapei, just like a queen coming to this world.

The elegant and pretty face has the charm of fascinating all living beings.

This person is not inevitable.

Naturally, it is the actual supreme leader of Yanxia Martial Arts, Fenghou Mu Zihua.

The top four gods are gathered here.

For the first time, they appeared together in front of Mark.

“You guys are probably on the list of gods, the four powerhouses, right?”

Mark looked up at them.

Although they are tens of meters apart, the terrifying power emanating from the four of them, like four suns, lies across here.

Whether it's power or oppression.

Each of these four people is stronger than what Chen Jiuzhou brought him!

Moreover, much stronger!

It is estimated that even Chu Yuan will not be their opponent.

Before, Mark thought that the so-called four giants on the list of gods were just a joke blown up by the martial arts world.

Now it seems that their strength is indeed terrifying!

Mark couldn't help being surprised.

He couldn't figure out why there was no news from such a terrifying four people before. After Chu Yuan's death, they all appeared together like bamboo shoots after a rain?

"Since you know our majesty."

"Brian Chu, why don't you hurry up and lead him to death?!"

The voice of Asura, the god of death, was as piercing as a rock being crushed.

The majestic murderous aura stirred up dust all over the sky.

Mark smiled, "Of course I can lead to death. However, before I die, I want to ask you one thing. What do you have to do with Chu Yuan of Truman?"

"Also, my cousin Chu Qitian was taken away by you?"

"And your so-called Longmen Project, it should be a conspiracy."

"In other words, if my predictions are correct, there should be someone behind them."

"I don't know how many people, can you show mercy and answer my few puzzles, so that I can understand better."

Mark held An Qi's hand, raised his head and asked Chu Yuan, with a warm smile in his eyes.

Who would have believed that Mark could still smile so easily in the face of the pursuit of the world's strongest four giants?

However, Feng Hou and others obviously did not have Mark's leisurely mood.

Faced with Mark's words, Feng Hou frowned.

"You talk too much nonsense!"

"Why do people who are about to die know so much?"

Fenghou didn't seem to want to waste more time with Mark.

She saw her eyebrows and eyes turned cold, and the long sword in her hand was cut down instantly.

"It's over, Brian Chu!"

"If you want to blame, blame you for being too sober."

Feng Hou shook his head, and with a few words, it was as if Mark had been sentenced to death.

Yes, when everyone in the world is drunk, only you are awake.

Your very existence is a sin.

Mark hindered their plan, which naturally led to today's fatal disaster.

Following Fenghou's sword, the other three giants beside him also made moves.

Asura swung the sickle, and the black light swept across the entire world in an instant.

God King Odin also stabbed out his spear, the cold light almost pierced the void, and the sharp edge pointed directly at Mark's eyebrows!

The giant Ymir let out a long roar, and the mountains shook and the ground shook. He swung the heavy hammer, and the majestic weight almost overturned the entire sky.

Just like that, in the blink of an eye, all the four giants of the God List made their moves.

The terrifying power made the mountains and rivers tremble.

The ground under your feet is cracked inch by inch!

This is the power of the strong on the list of gods.

With every gesture, mountains and ground will be torn apart.

Faced with such a desperate situation, Mark naturally dare not underestimate it.

The dragon god body was activated instantly, and at the same time, thunder patterns appeared between Mark's eyebrows.

one, two

There are six dragon patterns, covering the center of Mark's eyebrows.

For nine days, thunder and thunder poured into Mark's body with infinite power.

Under the tempering of the thunder, Mark's body was like copper cast iron, with golden lightning flashing.

After a few months, Mark's physical defense was at its maximum at this moment.

However, passive defense is far inferior to active offense.

Mark used his fingers as a sword after being inspired by the two body protection techniques.

With no one in his arms in one hand, he danced wildly with a sword in the other.

“As soon as the heavens and the earth wash the sky, the moon is like a hook, so it’s hard to find!”

“The first sword of Yunyan Sword Art, Fengliu!”

“The second sword, Bing Xin!”

“The third sword, Azure Dragon!”

“The fifth sword, Wushuang!”

Mark didn’t hold back at all, and slashed out with all his strength in the Yunyan sword art.

Infinite sword power, cut all the world!

Under the long river, on the edge of the border.

Mark, with the power of one person, alone against the four giants of the god list!

In the ultimate battle, the turmoil is turbulent, and the Milky Way is boiling!

Chapter 4501

Mark’s sword is so vast that it almost covers the sky.

However, even so, there was no fluctuation on the faces of Fenghou and the others.

Perhaps, in their eyes, no matter how Mark makes moves, it is just a fight between trapped beasts and a dying struggle.

For them, the moment the four of them appeared, Mark had no way out.

Death is his only destination at this time!

Just like that, Mark slashed with several swords.

The infinite offensive collided fiercely with the attacks of the four giants on the list of gods.

However, at the moment when the two waves of attacks collided, a stream of golden light also rushed over following the sword qi.

“Do you want to sneak attack while taking advantage of the chaos?”

“You can only rely on this clumsy trick to seek this chance of survival.”

The sound of the explosion ahead was like opening up the world.

The dust brought up is all over the sky!

But despite such a chaotic situation, Fenghou and the others could still see Mark's intentions at a glance.

But this little action just made them feel that Mark was childish and ridiculous.

“Little guy, the talent is good, but the combat experience is too little.”

“Do you really think that among the four giants on the God List, you, the younger generation, will be able to sneak attack successfully?”

Ashura also laughed.

They shook their heads and said, then turned sideways to avoid Mark's sneak attack.

Mark's palm finally landed in the empty space.

His body slid across the gap between the four of them after the wind.

Just when Feng Hou was waiting for someone to raise his hand, ready to slap Mark to death.

But they were surprised to find that Mark didn't look back at all after another blow was missed.

Power surged into his legs, he stepped on the ground, and leaped, his whole body seemed to be fleeing for his life, and he fled for a thousand meters like crazy.

Seeing this situation, Feng Hou and the others suddenly changed their expressions!

“not good!”

“Tricked by this brat!”

“His purpose is not to sneak attack, but to run.”

Asura was furious.

After the wind, his face was also extremely ugly.

The four giants all have a kind of anger at being played by others.

“However, do you really think that you can escape?”
