

Chapter 451

At three o'clock in the morning, it was the sleepest time for a person. It was quiet all around. Even the doctors on duty in the hospital supported their heads with their hands and dozed off.

Jin Zhengting sat by Zhao Tongxin's bed and gently stroked her hair.

Zhao Tong Xin's face has a quiet expression, soft light down, like a smile in his sleep.

Jin Zhengting's eyes are more and more gentle. In such a quiet night, he likes to watch her fall asleep.

There was a very slight sound of footsteps outside the door. Jin Zhengting's eyes flickered. He gently covered Zhao Tongxin's quilt, came to the door carefully and opened the door.

He's sure he won't be a killer, because there are Xu Yanke, Shaoyuan and Rongqi guarding outside the door. No one can escape their sight silently, indicating that the people who come here are familiar to him.

Sure enough, Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan are standing at the door, with a faint smell of wine on them. It is obvious that they have had another romantic night.

"Is Tong Xin asleep? Is she all right? "

Yang ziye inquires with concern. They are having fun in the bar. After receiving a call from Jin Zhengting, they immediately rush to the hospital.

"It's all right."

Jin Zhengting answered faintly and said to Xu Yanke at the door, "you can go ahead according to the plan. I'm going to talk about something. Tong Xin will be handed over to you."

Xu Yanke nodded solemnly: "brother, don't worry, we will take good care of Zhao Tongxin."

"Well."

Jin Zhengting then takes Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan to the lawn of the hospital.

"Zhengting, what's the matter? Who did it, Cheng mobing or Huo Tingchen?"

Lu zhanyan has a melancholy look on his face. He has guessed that Zhao Tongxin's near abortion is not an accident, but a man-made one. However, no matter who did it, the consequences will be earth shaking, because he is very clear about Jin Zhengting's behavior. If someone does something to hurt Zhao Tongxin, he has to bear all his anger.

However, the current situation is not suitable for big action. No matter which side has a serious conflict, the other side is ready to pick up the pieces at any time.

But he also knew that no one could persuade Jin Zhengting, so he showed deep concern about the future.

"According to the clues I have, it should be Cheng mobing."

There was a cold flash in Jin Zhengting's eyes, which was his expression when his anger reached a certain level.

"Zhengting, please calm down. This is not the time to get emotional. Once we have a direct conflict with Cheng mobing, we will give Huo Tingchen a chance."

Although he knew there was no effect, Lu zhanyan still offered advice.

Jin Zhengting looked up at the dark night sky: "if you can't even protect your own women, can you still be called a man?"

Lu zhanyan also said that he was stopped by Yang ziye's eyes. He thought about it and patted Jin Zhengting on the shoulder: "Zhengting, why are you sure it was Cheng mobing?"

"Because I smelled the musk on her, the reason why Tong Xin almost miscarried was that she inhaled a lot of musk, and she once sent someone to do harm to Tong Xin, only she had the motive."

Jin Zhengting coldly said that he had thought about it many times in his heart, and all the spearheads were directed at Cheng mobing.

"Not necessarily, Zhengting. We can think of it. I think Huo Tingchen can think of it too. I always feel that this is a situation, just to break our current balance."

Yang ziye is full of rational analysis. At the critical moment, his thinking is always very calm. In peace, he is just two people.

After listening to him, Jin Zhengting's heart suddenly moves. He thinks Yang ziye's words are very reasonable, but no one is suspicious except Cheng mobing.

"Tong Xin and I spent the whole night together. Apart from meeting Mo Bing, we never touched anything else. How could Huo Tingchen have done it?"

His brow wrinkled, after thinking about it, he still didn't find any doubt.

"Besides meeting Cheng mobing, have you met anyone else or anything else?"

Yang ziye believes in Jin Zhengting's memory, but he asks again to find some valuable clues.

Jin Zhengting tightened his eyebrows and suddenly remembered something. His eyebrows wrinkled deeper: "I thought of one thing. After we came out of the restaurant, we went to Tong Xin's foster mother's former residence."

"Where are you going and what are you doing?" Yang ziye seems to have grasped the key to the problem and then asks.

"It's because my subordinates called me and told me that Tong Xin's foster mother's home had been stolen. I wanted to send Tong Xin home and see for myself, but Tong Xin insisted on going with me, but I didn't smell musk there."

Jin Zhengting pondered that he felt that there was something wrong with this ring, but at that time he was just thinking about why there were thieves patronizing him, and he didn't notice something strange in the air.

"No, Zhengting, my family has done business in medicinal materials. I know that there is a kind of musk powder that is colorless and tasteless and can be dissolved in the air. Ordinary people can't smell it unless they have a very sensitive sense of smell." Lu zhanyan said, he also thought of the key point of the problem, also think the problem in Zhao Tongxin foster mother's home.

Yang ziye patted his thigh: "that's the problem. Zhengting, I think it's necessary to collect the air in the room. If there is musk, I think Huo Tingchen is responsible for 99%

"Well, I think it's the same. He's in Jiangdong now. He must hope that we can break out a conflict with Cheng mobing, buy time for him to digest Cheng's assets, and weaken the strength of us and Cheng mobing. It's really a good plan."

Lu zhanyan pondered that as long as it is clear now that Huo Tingchen is behind the scenes, the immediate problem can be solved. After all, Jin Zhengting can't have a direct conflict with the Cheng family.

"You're right. I'll send someone to collect air samples right away."

Jin Zhengting said coldly and dialed a number: "go to collect some air from Tong Xin's foster mother's home, send it to the laboratory immediately, and use the fastest time to draw a conclusion. The key is to see if there is any camera element."

"Yes, boss, we'll do it right away."

After putting down the phone, Jin Zhengting took a deep breath: "I also have this premonition. Huo Tingchen did it. I think about it carefully. Cheng mobing has not yet established herself in Jiangbin. After an unsuccessful operation, she will definitely not continue to touch my bottom line."

"Huo Tingchen must have learned that Cheng Mobing love Musk Perfume, so she used this trick to hand her to her, and to take her out of our hands."

Lu zhanyan pondered that things would become clear.

"Huo Tingchen must learn a lesson. I decided to defeat Tianhong Group first."

Jin Zhengting's eyes showed a kind of firm coldness. He had to make Huo Tingchen pay the price.

"Zhengting, you should calm down first. When Tong Xin's restaurant and I open, we can make Tianhong Group half dead."

Yang ziye can keep calm enough at this time, and only he and Lu zhanyan can hope to persuade Jin Zhengting.

Jin Zhengting bowed his head, and his facial expression was very dignified. He was obviously engaged in a strong ideological struggle.

After a long time, he said with a sigh of relief: "well, I'll leave it to Tong Xin for the time being. She will take revenge for herself."

Jin Zhengting's voice did not fall, the corner of his eyes to see a few shadows sneaked into the hospital building.

With a cold face, he took out two guns from his clothes and threw them to Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan: "you wait for me here and protect yourself." Then he turned to chase the shadows.

"Zhan Yan, can you use this?"

Yang ziye plays with the gun in his hand and asks Lu zhanyan who is also playing with the gun.

Lu zhanyan shook his head: "I won't, will you?"

Yang ziye is stunned for a moment: "I can't, I thought you can."

Lu zhanyan's face showed a trace of disdain smile: "I'm kidding. I'm a cultured person. How can I fight and kill when I'm ok? By the way, we can't play with guns. What should we do when we meet killers?"

Yang ziye's face showed a disdainful smile: "cut, you can't do without playing with guns. Are you kidding?"

"Well, what should we do?"

Yang ziye pointed to the woods not far from the hospital Square: "hide, stay here to die!"

Jin Zhengting keeps up with the shadows. He can tell from his agility that these people are all experts. He is familiar with the situation of the hospital. He skilfully avoids the monitoring of the corridor and stealthily touches Zhao Tongxin's ward.

"Well, who sent you."

Jin Zhengting asked coldly. Those people didn't find anyone behind them. Suddenly, the voice of questioning startled them. However, they didn't panic. Instead, they turned around to cover each other. Everyone had guns with silencers in their hands.

"Who are you?"

One of the leaders asked in a low voice, and raised his hand and pointed the gun to Jin Zhengting's head.

Jin Zhengting gave a cold smile: "I'm Jin Zhengting."

As soon as the killer leader's face changed, his fingers had caught the trigger, and he could not see the expression on his face with headgear, but he could see the ferocity in his eyes.

He had already moved his heart to kill, but Jin Zhengting would not give him the chance to shoot. As soon as the killer wanted to shoot, Jin Zhengting raised his hand, and a small and sharp knife flew out of his hand. The killer only saw a flash of cold before his eyes, and then felt his throat cold. Subconsciously, he touched it with his hand, and the blood had shot out.

Jin Zhengting got a good shot and dodged into the corner of the corridor. Several killers shot at the same time. The bullet cut through the air and hit him where he had just stayed.

Jin Zhengting relies on the bunker. The reason why he appears is to attract the killer's attention. Otherwise, conflicts in the ward may cause heavy casualties.

Jin Zhengting had no difficulty in dealing with these killers, but he didn't do it because he wanted to make sure who sent these killers. He didn't feel like he was just coming to kill Zhao Tongxin. This was his keen intuition."Don't worry about him, our task is that necklace!"

One of the killers said in a low voice to his accomplice that although his voice was very light, he could not escape Jin Zhengting's ears.

Jin Zhengting's face showed a little smile. Their acting skills were really not good. If they really just came to grab the necklace, they would never say it. One eye contact would be enough.

They want Jin Zhengting to hear what they say, so they are definitely not Huo Tingchen's men. Although Huo Tingchen is the only one who knows the real location of the treasure and urgently needs the necklace as the key to open the treasure, Jin Zhengting has determined that these people are sent by Cheng mobing.

At the same time, he was almost sure that the person who plotted against Zhao Tongxin was not Cheng mobing. She just used this method to throw the dirty water that Huo Tingchen had put on her back to him.

But for these killers, Jin Zhengting did not intend to let them go. As long as he had any intention to Zhao Tongxin, he would keep them.

Take out a delicate gun, his eyes flashed a trace of cold, deal with these people, it is warm-up exercise.

Only two of the killers watched him with vigilance. Others rushed to Zhao Tongxin's ward. Jin Zhengting was not worried at all.

Because he believes in Xu Yanke's ability to deal with these killers.

He not only has self-confidence to himself, but also has great trust in his capable subordinates.

Chapter 452

A few slight gunshots were made by guns equipped with silencers, and all the killers fell to the end of the corridor.

"Boss, it's over."

Shaoyuan put away his gun and said to Jin Zhengting at the other end of the corridor.

Jin Zhengting only fired two shots, and the bullet accurately passed through the eyebrows of the two killers. There was no need for these killers to stay alive, because he had judged everything.

"Well, let people clean up the scene. Don't relax your vigilance. In the next few days, at least a group of killers will come to the hospital. It won't be so easy next time." Jin Zhengting said faintly, putting the gun in his hand into his clothes.

"Rest assured boss, I have discussed with Rong Qi, we will take turns to protect Tong Xin."

Shaoyuan nodded. She knew that Jin Zhengting's judgment had always been correct. He said that there would be killers coming to kill Zhao Tongxin, so this matter could be basically determined.

"Is Tong Xin awake?" Jin Zhengting asked, what he cares most is Zhao Tongxin all the time.

Shaoyuan replied: "not yet. Just now, Rong Qi first discovered these killers. We immediately transferred our pupils to the hidden hospital bed. Now it's Xu Yanke who plays the role of her double."

"Well."

Jin Zhengting just let down his heart. This time Zhao Tongxin's calculation happened under his eyes. This incident made him feel very remorseful. He felt that he didn't protect her well, so now no matter what might endanger Zhao Tongxin, he would pay special attention to it.

"Zhengting, have all the killers been killed?"

At this time, Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan came in with guns in their hands. They carefully looked at the killer lying on the ground and asked, for fear that a living one would suddenly jump up.

"It's settled. Don't be nervous." Jin Zhengting said lightly.

Yang ziye then returned the gun to Jin Zhengting, patted his chest and said, "it's very dangerous. Fortunately, you found it in time. Otherwise, if they found us first, we would have to be here. Is it Huo Tingchen who sent us?"

"No, I think they were sent by Cheng mobing."

Jin Zhengting put away his gun and said faintly.

"The person Cheng Mo Bing sent, is our analysis wrong? From the beginning, she wanted to deal with Tong Xin, but failed once, so she sent a killer to assassinate him for the second time?"

Yang ziye asks in surprise, while Lu zhanyan frowns deeply. He can't draw a conclusion now. Judging from the existing conditions, he doesn't know whether Huo Tingchen or Cheng mobing is the enemy to deal with.

"I think it should be confirmed that these people are really sent by Cheng mobing, because Huo Tingchen just wants to blame Cheng mobing, so no matter whether Tong Xin has something to do, he should be very quiet, and there will be no other action. I think Cheng mobing has guessed Huo Tingchen's meaning, so she deliberately sent killers to her, and her purpose is to throw Huo Tingchen on her. It's just throwing the dirty water back.

Jin Zhengting is full of rational analysis. From many details, he can make correct judgment.

Yang ziye looks at Lu zhanyan with a confused face, because Jin Zhengting's analysis is too complicated to suit his IQ.

Lu zhanyan nodded thoughtfully: "Zhengting, you're right. I think this is the closest inference to the truth. But now we have to be clear about whether to deal with Huo Tingchen or Cheng mobing first. The three parties have been entangled for a long time. With such development, it's more and more difficult to break the balance, and once it's broken, it will be me It's impossible for any of us to control it. "

Jin Zhengting smile: "I have decided, ready to listen to your opinions."

"Oh? Now that you've made up your mind, we have to study what to do next. This is not a place to talk. We'd better go to your office or home to talk about it. "

As soon as Lu zhanyan's eyes brighten, he knows that Jin Zhengting will spare no effort once he decides to do something. It seems that Jin Zhengting is determined to break the existing balance.

The current balance seems calm, but Lu zhanyan knows very well that the three parties seem to be bound by an invisible shackle. No party can act without scruples, resulting in the current assets shrinking by different degrees, and the three groups can still maintain. However, after a long time, no party can really bear the loss.

"Well, let's go to my house and talk about it."

Jin Zhengting took a look at the ward with closed door, called the spoon garden, and said, "I can't accompany Tong Xin tonight. When she wakes up, tell her to have a rest. I'll take over the business of the company."

"No problem, boss. Just give it to us." Shaoyuan shows a rare serious expression, because she knows how important Zhao Tongxin is in the boss's heart.

"Well, be careful. I'll see Tong Xin tomorrow." Jin Zhengting gives another explanation and leaves the hospital with Zhan Yan and Yang ziye.

"Shaoyuan elder sister, boss said that there will be killers. You'd better sleep for a while tonight."

After cleaning up the scene, Rong Qi told Shaoyuan that both she and Shaoyuan are good assistants to Jin Zhengting, so their relationship is quite good."Forget it, don't sleep tonight. It's easy to relax at night. Let's take care of it and let Xu Yanke sleep. It's enough to have her alone during the day."

After thinking about it, Shaoyuan still denies Rong Qi's opinion. She thinks that Xu Yanke is the most dangerous, so she must be energetic. So she decides to let Xu Yanke sleep first, and let them be responsible for the safety of the night.

"No, I'm in good spirits. Don't rest at night."

As soon as the door opens, Xu Yanke comes out of the ward and says faintly that she doesn't appreciate Shaoyuan's suggestion at all. In fact, she really can't sleep. In addition to facing the killer's tension in the future, what's more important is to worry about Rong Lei's safety. Since the killer has targeted Zhao Tongxin, with her understanding of Huo Tingchen, there's no reason to let Rong Lei go.

"Forget it, you'd better have a good rest. You'll change us in the daytime tomorrow."

Shaoyuan is very dissatisfied with Xu Yan's ungrateful attitude, but it still looks at the boss's face. He patiently tells her.

"I have something else to do. Zhao Tongxin has given it to you. I won't be responsible for anything."

Xu Yanke leaves the ward without saying a word. It's not that she really doesn't want to take care of Zhao Tongxin's safety, but that she knows that there will be no more killers tonight, because she knows Huo Tingchen's means very well, and will not send a second batch of killers after a failure.

Her heart now only Rong Lei, want to fly to Rong Lei's ward immediately, he is not in, also don't know if he has time to drink porridge.

"Well, how can you do that?" Shaoyuan really can't hold down her anger. She doesn't know about the relationship between Xu Yanke and Rong Lei. She thinks it's because of her loose personality. In addition to her previous discord with Zhao Tongxin, she doesn't want to protect Zhao Tongxin's safety now, so Shaoyuan shouts at her back discontentedly.

Rongqi pulled her: "Shaoyuan sister, don't do this."

Shaoyuan was very angry: "Hey, don't you see her attitude? It's clear that she doesn't want to stay here to protect Tong Xin, and doesn't want to see when it's time. The boss also said that there will be a second batch of killers to deal with Tong Xin soon. Now she's gone, what should Tong Xin do?"

Rong Qi is very calm: "we'd better protect Tong Xin. Xu Yanke used to be Huo Tingchen's subordinate. She knows him better than us. I think she's leaving now because she knows Huo Tingchen won't make any more moves."

"Well, I just can't stand her like this."

Shaoyuan is also a tough hearted person. She can definitely think of Xu Yanke leaving at this time. There must be something in her heart that she can't let go of, so she doesn't care much about her behavior, but she still doesn't forgive others.

"We still have a lot of things to cooperate with in the future, so we'd better not make trouble. Sister Shaoyuan, let's go and have a look at Tong Xin."

Rong Qi plays a lubricant role in this small team full of contradictions.

Shaoyuan nodded and went back to the ward with Rongqi to take care of Zhao Tongxin.

Xu Yanke comes to Rong Lei's ward, where the guards are also very strict. This is Jin Zhengting's task. There are at least two powerful bodyguards outside the ward at any time. Once a suspicious target is found, they have the right to shoot directly without warning.

When the two bodyguards saw that Xu Yanke was coming, they exchanged a look with each other. One of them hurriedly came forward and said, "sister-in-law, you are here."

This is Xu Yanke's account. Since these bodyguards call Rong Lei the eldest, she naturally thinks that she is their sister-in-law. This is also the announcement of her relationship with Rong Lei to everyone.

"Well, did Rong Lei sleep?"

Xu Yanke's eyebrows are slightly wrinkled and asked in a low voice. It seems that she is not in a very beautiful mood. The two bodyguards are very puzzled. According to the old habit, whenever Xu Yanke hears that they call her sister-in-law, she will smile. I don't know what happened today.

"Not yet. The boss asked us to send him some books, but he should still be reading."

The bodyguard took a look at the sickroom with weak light and answered carefully.

These days, they have found out Xu Yanke's temper. When she is in a bad mood, anyone is likely to become a tool for her to vent her anger, and the means are extremely cruel. Everyone has a deep understanding of this. So when they see Xu Yanke, everyone is very careful, for fear of offending the strange second miss of the Jin family.

As soon as Xu Yanke heard this, his eyebrows immediately stood up: "what? Why don't you remind him to stay up so late? "

Although her tone was very angry, her voice was still not very loud.

The bodyguard's face changed: "sister-in-law, the boss has been sleeping all day, he said he can't sleep."

Voice did not fall, his head was a note of dejected palm, clear voice reverberated in the corridor for a long time.

The beaten bodyguard covered his head and looked at Xu Yanke wrongly and asked, "sister-in-law, why?"

Xu Yanke looked at him and said in a low voice, "why? I don't know if it's late now. How can you make such a loud noise that Rong Lei has a rest? "The bodyguard wanted to cry, but he could only lower his voice to explain: "sister-in-law, didn't you tell me that the boss is reading a book and hasn't had a rest yet?"

Just finished, the belly and a heavy punch, bodyguard was Xu Yan can beat bent down, even tears are flowing out: "sister-in-law, this is why ah?"

Xu Yanke snorted from Qiong's nose: "if he doesn't sleep well, can't you remind him to pay attention to it? Just now he wanted to beat you. You didn't pay attention to you for the sake of your loyalty to your duty. You also stressed that this is a provocation to me?"

"You won, sister-in-law."

The bodyguard stood up and said wrongly. He also wiped the tears of grievance. He talked with Xu Yanke like this. He had to bear her punches and kicks at any time, almost in a strange state.

Another bodyguard bowed his head and laughed so that his stomach was cramped. Fortunately, he didn't answer Xu Yanke's question. He was very glad that he made the right choice.

But before he had time to laugh, he was heavily kicked by Xu Yanke. The schadenfreude bodyguard immediately bent like a cooked shrimp.

Xu Yanke took a look at him and said coldly, "don't think you are more handsome than him, I won't beat you. Compared with Rong Lei, you are too far behind!"

Chapter 453

Xu Yanke cleans up the two unfortunate bodyguards, and pushes in directly without knocking. Rong Lei is leaning on the bed with a book on economics in his hand. With the help of the weak desk light in front of the bed, he looks attentively.

He has been following Jin Zhengting all these years. Compared with others, he has too little time. Although he can learn a lot from Jin Zhengting, he still wants to learn more.

These days, he was injured in the hospital, so he had plenty of time, so the bodyguard found him many books that he didn't have time to read before to study, almost to the point of forgetting to eat and sleep.

Because he is now thinking about the future. Since he was with Xu Yanke, his enthusiasm for her has been lukewarm, because he feels that his identity does not match her very well. Anyway, Xu Yanke is the second miss of the Jin family, and he is only the assistant of Jin Zhengting. Maybe only when he reaches a certain height can he feel at ease I'm with Xu Yanke.

For Xu Yanke, Rong Lei doesn't have much affection for her. However, her care for her during this period of time still makes him feel moved in his heart, or their feelings won't have the passion of love at first sight or the tacit understanding of staying together forever. However, they have a very suitable person when they are both in need. In fact, this is also true A kind of fate.

I used to be an opponent, so I don't think Xu Yan is a good woman. But after this period of time, he can also find the advantages of Xu Yanke that he has never noticed before. Sometimes when I think about it alone, if I can go to the end with her, I feel pretty good.

But he really wanted to be with the second miss of the Jin family. He felt that he had to have certain strength. So in the last two days, whenever he had time, he would read several books to improve himself.

When he was immersed in books, he really got to the state of forgetting things, so he didn't even find Xu Yanke walking into the ward.

Xu Yanke was originally angry, because Rong Lei didn't care about his body. A person who had just experienced life and death, but now is seriously injured, how can he stay up late to read? Although reading is a good hobby, it also needs time.

But when she saw Rong Lei's attentive manner, the anger in her heart somehow disappeared, because a serious man is the most attractive time.

Rong Lei is not as handsome as Jin Zhengting, nor as imposing as Jin Zhengting, but he has his own calmness and toughness. From his reading expression, we can see that he is a very serious man. Such a man usually takes his feelings seriously, so when a woman finds a serious man like Rong Lei, she will neither regret nor suffer losses.

His eyes are very bright, perhaps not brilliant wisdom, but there is another kind of smart and clear.

Xu Yan can't help but be stunned. She doesn't even know whether she likes or doesn't like Rong Lei's feelings. She once doubted that she only met a person like Rong Lei when she was empty. When she found the killer sneaking into the hospital, her first reaction was Rong Lei's safety. Maybe it was just a short time for two people to be together, but she didn't have any Let go of each other's feelings completely, that's why there is such an illusion.

Looking at his serious reading, Xu Yanke found for the first time that he was looking at a man with an appreciative eye, and found an unprecedented obsession. It was a feeling that even when she was with Jin Zhengting.

Gently walked over, standing in front of Rong Lei, just looking at him, silently, quietly, clearly know that staying up late is not a good thing for the wounded like him, but still can't help but not disturb him.

After a long time, Rong Lei turns over the last page of the book, closes the book thoughtfully, suddenly raises his head and looks at Xu Yanke's gentle eyes.

Her eyes were as clear as ever. Her eyes were as gentle as water, and there was a kind of strange brilliance flashing. Her pretty face had a faint smile, delicate facial features and long hair, which set off the graceful posture of the long skirt, which made his heart palpitate unprepared.

"Miss Yan Ke, I'm sorry. I'm too serious. When did you come?"

Rong Lei says hello in a hurry, and her heart is also very uneasy. These days she takes care of herself meticulously, but the means are also quite ferocious. Once she does something that is not conducive to the recovery of her body, Xu Yan doesn't mind giving him a good lesson. Under normal circumstances, the means of education include twisting her ears, scratching her hair, pointing her nose and so on.

So when Xu Yanke stands in front of him, Rong Lei's first reaction is to admit his mistake, although he doesn't know if he is really wrong.

"What books do you read, so serious?"

Unexpectedly, Xu Yanke didn't lose his temper. Instead, he sat by his bed and asked in a gentle voice that he didn't often show.

Rong Lei was stunned at first, and then quickly responded: "some economic books, I think I can open a company by myself in the future, now I want to learn the experience of shopping malls."

He whispered, peeping at Xu Yanke's reaction, looking like a child who has done something wrong. "You want to start a company in the future? Don't work for my brother? "

Xu Yanke blinked his bright eyes and asked. Naturally, he changed the name of Jin Zhengting, because he had admitted that he was his sister, so he could no longer call his brother by his name.

Rong Lei can tell from her address to Jin Zhengting that the boss must have admitted her identity and began to be happy that Xu Yan might return to Jin's home. Then his eyes dimmed. In this way, the identity gap between the two people has been determined. No matter how hard he tries, he is unlikely to be in line with Xu Yan.

"I've thought about it. Boss is very good to me, but I can't work for boss all my life. When boss doesn't need me, I'll start a small company."

Rong Lei's face didn't show that kind of loss and calm reply, but the dim look in his eyes has been keenly captured by Xu Yanke.

"Do you want me to tell him, let you leave the group now, and let's start a company together."

Xu Yanke says faintly that according to her previous personality, she will speak out her own ideas and Rong Lei without any scruples, but now it's different. Her expression is very euphemistic. She doesn't mention the identity of the two people, but expresses her attitude to Rong Lei.

Maybe when you meet the man you like, women will make some changes more or less.

"Boss still needs me now, so I still have to be with him for a period of time. When everything is settled, it's not too late for me to leave the group."

Rong Lei denies that the current situation is very complicated, with Huo Tingchen eyeing and Cheng mobing having bad intentions. The group is in crisis more than ever. He will not abandon Jin Zhengting for his own sake. This is not his style.

Xu Yanke's eyes flashed a look of approval. A man like Rong Lei is the real man, because he will not abandon his friends, so naturally he will not abandon his own woman.

"I see. I hope that after everything is over, I can start a small company with you and watch the company grow up. Would you like to?"

Xu Yanke looks at Rong Lei deeply and asks softly.

"Miss Yan Ke, I don't know if I should say something." Rong Lei frowned and thought, then tried to open his mouth.

Xu Yanke silently nodded her head, motioned to Rong Lei to say what was in her heart. She could vaguely guess what Rong Lei was going to say, but she still wanted to hear what was coming out of his mouth.

Rong Lei took a deep breath, as if determined, and said, "Miss Yanke, I appreciate your care for me these days. It's just that our status gap is too big. I don't think we are suitable for each other now."

With this sentence, Rong Lei seems relaxed, but he still looks at Xu Yanke's reaction with a very careful look.

Xu Yanke's beautiful eyes flashed a trace of resentment, but she pursed her lips tightly and said faintly: "do you just want to say this to me? Is there nothing else to say?"

"I don't know how to say it. I think we started too suddenly, and we didn't have any psychological preparation for each other. Miss Yanke, do you really like me, or do you just need me?"

Rong Lei looks at Xu Yanke, this time when he asks this sentence, there is no dodge in his eyes.

There are some things he must make clear so that he can make a correct judgment, because he hopes that Xu Yanke will deny his ideas from his heart.

Xu Yanke stares at him for a long time without saying a word. Just when Rong Lei feels a little at a loss, she stands up and looks at him resentfully: "these questions you ask are also what I want to ask you. Come to me when you think about them clearly."

With this sentence, Xu Yanke walked out of the ward without looking back. Before she was ready to close the door, she stopped a little and said without looking back.

"Your physical condition is not suitable for staying up late. You should go to bed early in the future."

Then gently close the door of the ward.

Watching her back disappear, Rong Lei's heart seems to have been hit by something. There is a tingling feeling. He knows that his words hurt Xu Yanke, but also himself.

Rong Lei sat for a while, but in his mind, he always thought of the pictures with Xu Yanke these days. She was gentle, considerate, unruly, overbearing and eccentric.

He suddenly found that, when he was very casual, Xu Yanke had already entered her heart. He wanted to stop her and tell her that he really liked her, but she had left.

Rong Lei thinks about it, a little upset, some injuries, the consequences are difficult to make up, especially a man who likes the doubt, too much damage to her.

He sighed, thought about it, or decided to wait until his body better, face to face and Xu Yan can explain.

Outside the ward.

Two bodyguards see Xu Yan can come out, quickly asked in a low voice: "sister-in-law, is the boss asleep?"

They are good learners now. If you want Xu Yan not to lose his temper on them, you should first care about Rong Lei's condition. Xu Yanke's eyes seem to be moist. She clenched her lips and didn't speak. She just looked up coldly at the bodyguard who asked her. A murderous air came from the shop.

The bodyguard didn't come, so he shivered: "sister-in-law, what's the matter with you?"

Xu Yanke's fist had a very close contact with the chin of the bodyguard. Her fist was really heavy.

The bodyguard bounced up passively for 30 cm, then fell back and heavily on the ground. There was only a small star flashing in front of him.

"Don't call me sister-in-law in the future. I'm the second lady of the Jin family."

Xu Yanke's voice is very loud, not only to the bodyguard, but also to Rong Lei in the ward. With a word, she walked away without looking back.

Another bodyguard looks at the fellow who is still twitching on the ground and swallows a mouthful of saliva. Xu Yanke's temper is really strange. They can't adapt to the rhythm of the action without saying a word.

Chapter 454

Jin family villa.

Although it was late at night, the living room of the villa was still brightly lit. Several servants put the freshly ground coffee on the table and left respectfully.

"Zhengting, please talk about your plan. You'd better finish it in three or two sentences. I'm really a little sleepy."

Yang ziye takes a sip of a cup of coffee, looks at Jin Zhengting with sleepy eyes, and says that the only people who can speak to Jin Zhengting like this are him and Lu zhanyan.

"Don't rush the court. It's business. You can't pick up girls in a bar in a few words."

Lu zhanyan patted him on the shoulder and said with a smile in his eyes that he knew that Jin Zhengting had been standing still since he came back from Southeast Asia. This was not his forbearance, but his brewing. Today's event made Jin Zhengting feel the crisis, so he decided to take action.

It's not Huo Tingchen or Cheng mobing's threat to Jin Zhengting himself, but Zhao Tongxin's threat. This may be the most serious thing that can happen to Jin Zhengting in the world.

"In fact, what ziye said is right. You can make it clear in three or two sentences." Jin Zhengting said lightly and sipped his coffee gently.

Lu zhanyan asked suspiciously, "Zhengting, what is your plan, and who are you going to deal with first?"

"Cheng Mo Bing."

Jin Zhengting's eyes flashed a cold expression: "I will deal with her first, because before the decisive battle with Huo Tingchen, we must win Cheng mobing, otherwise she will certainly come out to stir up the situation."

"It's reasonable. From another point of view, Cheng mobing is easier to deal with than Huo Tingchen. At most, Huo Tingchen's existence is to contain Huo Tingchen. Now Huo Tingchen has almost digested the Cheng family's assets and has surpassed Cheng mobing in strength. Her role of containment has been greatly reduced."

Lu zhanyan agreed with Jin Zhengting's preferred goal.

"This is just one aspect. The reason why I choose Cheng mobing is that Xu Zheng and she are on the same front. In Jiangbin, no one knows Huo Tingchen and me better than Xu Zheng, and I have seen his ambition clearly. For us, the person who is the biggest threat at this stage is Xu Zheng, so we have to take Cheng mobing and eliminate this potential person The threat. "

Jin Zhengting has been acutely aware that Xu Zhengcai is one of the real opponents. Even in a certain aspect, he is more difficult to deal with than Huo Tingchen, because Huo Tingchen is against himself in the light, while Xu Zheng has been lurking in the dark. Only from his forbearance in these years, Xu Zheng has been listed as one of the most dangerous opponents by Jin Zhengting, because of this People who are tolerant are people who can achieve something.

Jin Zhengting has always been very keen in judging potential threats.

"Zhengting, do you think Xu Zheng is a little too high? With the strength of the Xu family, although he can be regarded as a rich family in Jiangbin, he is still a lot worse than the three of us. Moreover, although Xu Zheng is a little smart, he wants to pose a threat to us. Is he still a lot worse?"

Since Jin Zhengting said last time that Xu Zheng is the person who gives advice behind Cheng mobing, he also pays attention to Xu Zheng. However, he can't figure out why Jin Zhengting cares about Xu Zheng so much, because in his opinion, Xu Zheng stands on Cheng mobing's side just to make the Xu family develop better. Besides being a little smart, Xu Zheng knows some tricks to help Besides, he doesn't see any threat to Xu Zheng. Or subconsciously, Lu zhanyan has classified Xu Zheng as a playboy, which is similar to Yang ziye.

"Hey, zhanyan, you'd better not look down on Playboy. Don't forget that there is a smart and powerful Playboy around you. Don't you think that if I'm against you, it will be a terrible threat to you?"

According to Lu zhanyan, Yang ziye first disagreed. In his opinion, Xu Zheng and he are at the same level. Moreover, Xu Zheng has characteristics and ambitions that he does not have.

Yang ziye is soberly aware of the terrible existence of an ambitious and intelligent man.

"Zi ye, compared with you, Xu Zheng is more terrible. As for you, he is more terrible in a beautiful woman's bed."

Lu zhanyan said half jokingly that he knew Yang ziye and knew that he was a man with high intelligence and emotional intelligence, but he didn't think that Yang ziye could make the same achievements as Jin Zhengting, because people who want to do great things should first learn self-discipline, which is obviously something that neither Yang ziye nor Xu Zheng can do, otherwise they would not have the name of playboy.

"Zhan Yan, you look down on Xu Zheng. I'm almost sure that Xu Zheng and Zi ye are totally different. Zi Ye's attitude towards life is completely different, but Xu Zheng's is different. He's pretending and covering up his ambition. He looks like a playboy to paralyze people who have doubts about him. So Zhan Yan, you've been fooled by Xu Zheng."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he had fully seen the essence of Xu Zheng.

Lu zhanyan still didn't agree: "Zhengting, do you think Xu Zheng is an ambitious and resourceful person? Is there any evidence? If you just think Xu Zheng is such a person, I also insist on my own judgment.""Of course, if you think about it, Xu Zheng didn't invest a cent. Now he and Xu Ting have taken control of Tianhong jewelry company. Is this something that a playboy can do?"

"Maybe it's just that Huo Tingchen wants to find a person who is against us to manage his company. With Huo Tingchen's character, such a person will make him feel at ease."

Lu zhanyan argued that, in fact, Huo Tingchen did think the same way.

"Yes, it's Huo Tingchen's idea, and it's also in Xu Zheng's calculation. He calculated that Huo Tingchen would make use of Xu Ting and himself, so he deliberately let Huo Tingchen make use of it. However, he secretly communicated with Cheng mobing and was deliberately used by Cheng mobing. He wandered between Huo Tingchen and Cheng mobing and got considerable profits. Do you think you can do this A step? "

Jin Zhengting said to Lu zhanyan faintly. Lu zhanyan thought about what he said carefully, and his brows gradually wrinkled. Xu Zheng's idea that he was willing to be used by others just to make profits from it made his heart suddenly surprised, because Xu Zheng, who sacrificed some of his own interests to achieve his goal, was the most terrible and difficult to deal with.

"I guess you've figured out that Xu Zheng's strength is not strong at present. We can deal with him easily. If we let him develop, I'm afraid it will become a serious problem for us."

Jin Zhengting patted Lu zhanyan on the shoulder and explained lightly the purpose of dealing with Xu Zheng.

Lu zhanyan nodded: "well, I see. Zhengting, I will fully support your plan. Let's start with Cheng mobing and Xu Zheng."

Before the implementation of the plan, we must unify their internal thoughts. Lu zhanyan is very careful. He knows that the ultimate enemy will be Huo Tingchen. However, he is too concerned about Huo Tingchen's influence and ignores Xu Zheng. Jin Zhengting must let him know Xu Zheng's threat, otherwise he may suffer losses because of Xu Zheng.

"Zhenhging, what is your plan?"

Seeing that Jin Zhengting has convinced Lu zhanyan, Yang ziye can't help but ask. He is very concerned about Jin Zhengting's plan now, because he is working with Zhao Tongxin ambitiously, hoping to make some achievements in the catering industry. At this time, he most hopes that Jin Zhengting will focus on the catering industry. Since Yang ziye discovered Xu Zheng's ambition, he has inspired his ambition as a man He is also a well-known rich Playboy in Jiangbin. He hopes to compete with Xu Zheng.

"The plan is very simple. Now Xu Zheng focuses all his energy on the jewelry industry, which is a good opportunity for us, because Tong Xin's previous plan is very good. She first extricated herself from the jewelry industry which has been saturated in the market, and arranged a big surprise for Xu Zheng. As long as we follow Tong Xin's plan, it won't take long for Xu Zheng to go on It won't hold Jin Zhengting lit a cigarette and said faintly. There was a flash of approval in his eyes. In his heart, he felt that Zhao Tongxin's plan was quite good. Thinking that Zhao Tongxin was still in the hospital, his eyebrows wrinkled slightly, full of worries about her body.

"Tong Xin's plan is really good, but it can only control Xu Zheng's aggressive situation. What does it have to do with Cheng mobing?"

Lu zhanyan didn't understand Jin Zhengting's intention, so he asked, and Yang ziyue didn't know. So Jin Zhengting said that if he wanted to follow Zhao Tongxin's plan, it was a good thing for him to vigorously develop the catering industry, but he didn't understand what it had to do with dealing with Cheng mobing.

"At present, the industrial chain of Jiangbin is diversified, but there are several industries with the most representative characteristics."

Jin Zhengting took a deep breath and said lightly: "in the luxury industry, jewelry industry is the most developed industry in Jiangbin, so in the past few years, my group vigorously developed the jewelry industry, but at the same time, I also know that one day, the market will be saturated, so I have started to change production in the past few years."

"I know that the biggest industry of Zhengting now should be the real estate industry. It's just that your jewelry company is too famous in Jiangbin. People who don't know think that jewelry company is still your pillar industry."

Lu zhanyan looked at Jin Zhengting with admiration and said that only a few people knew that Jin Zhengting had been ready to give up the jewelry industry for a long time. In fact, he began to change production quietly a few years ago.

"My group has now controlled the real estate market in Jiangbin. What I can guarantee is that the current real estate industry is as solid as gold. It is impossible for any foreign enterprise to intervene."

Although Jin Zhengting's tone was very indifferent, he was still domineering when he said this sentence from his mouth.

"My family controls the entertainment and service industries, and it's impossible for Cheng mobing to enter Jiangbin."

Lu zhanyan understood Jin Zhengting's meaning. Judging from the current market situation, Cheng mobing wants to gain a foothold in Jiangbin. The only profitable industry left is jewelry and catering. Maybe as a bystander, Cheng mobing has seen the saturated situation of the jewelry industry, so there is only one industry left, namely catering.

"No wonder you are so supportive of Tong Xin's transfer to the catering industry. It turns out that you are blocking Cheng mobing's road." Yang ziye also understood and gave a thumbs up to Jin Zhengting. "It's just blocking Cheng mobing's investment in Jiangbin. What are you going to do with her?" Although Lu zhanyan also admired Jin Zhengting's foresight, he still asked what he was most concerned about, that is, how to solve Cheng mobing's threat.

Jin Zhengting raised her mouth slightly and showed a very confident smile: "now she has only one way to go in the jewelry industry. Besides, in order to fully occupy the jewelry market, Xu Zheng will try her best to persuade her to invest in the jewelry industry. Moreover, under the pressure from Huo Tingchen, she can't help but not invest. After all, an opportunity to swallow the assets of Tianhong Group is just around the corner. I miss her As long as she invests in Xu Zheng's jewelry company, we can start the second part of Tong Xin's plan. The cheap raw stones in Southeast Asia will become the most powerful weapon to crush them. "

Chapter 455

Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan look at each other. They already understand why Jin Zhengting trusts Zhao Tongxin, who has no experience in shopping malls, because every step of Zhao Tongxin's plan is almost the same as what Jin Zhengting thinks.

"Zhengting, we know what to do, but now Tong Xin is admitted to the hospital. I don't know if she can recover in a week. When the restaurant chain opens, she can't be present to preside over the ribbon cutting ceremony. That would be too bad."

Yang ziye frowned and said that this is the first time he seriously wants to do business. Naturally, he hopes that all aspects are perfect.

"Tong Xin's body is very important. If you really don't have time to attend the ribbon cutting ceremony, there's no way."

Jin Zhengting won't risk Zhao Tongxin's participation for the opening ceremony of a company. Nothing is more important than her.

"I can't wait. I really hope Tong Xin can get better soon. It seems that my cooperation with her is related to the overall situation."

Yang ziye is very excited. He also hopes to succeed, at least not worse than Xu Zheng.

"Zhengting, since you have worked out the plan, we'll do it according to you. If you need any help, just open your mouth. You didn't have a rest from last night to now. You'd better hurry up and have a sleep. Don't let these little things bring you down. You are our leader, no matter you deal with Huo Tingchen and Cheng mobing."

Lu zhanyan said with concern that Jin Zhengting could not fall down at this time, because they had formed a habit since childhood, that is, taking Jin Zhengting as the leader.

"Well, I'll have a rest in a moment. I won't see you off."

Jin Zhengting stood up and said that they also stood up to leave. The conversation between the three giants of Jiangbin came to an end, which also determined Cheng mobing's fate.

Xu family.

Xu Zheng is playing with the wine cup in his hand, and the air is full of the aftertaste of passion.

"My seven men have completely lost contact. It seems that they have completed the task."

Cheng mobing, who is only wearing a thin Nightgown like cicada wings, comes over and says faintly that the lives of those subordinates are just numbers in her eyes. She will not care about their lives at all. As long as she can complete the task she has set, it is enough.

"Are you sure Jin Zhengting will be cheated?" Xu Zheng asked, tapping the bottom of the glass gently

"No matter how clever he is, he won't think that we sent them, will he? I was too dispassionate just now. I thought about it carefully. With Jin Zhengting's intelligence, I would not arbitrarily think that I was the one who sent Zhao Tongxin to the hospital. In addition, I sent my staff to capture Zhao Tongxin's necklace. If I were him, I would find that Huo Tingchen had done all kinds of things, so we are safe now."

Cheng mobing calmly analyzes the current situation. She has just experienced a close contact with Xu Zheng, and her face is still flushed, which looks very attractive.

Xu Zheng is indifferent. It is not that he has lost interest in Cheng mobing, but that he has a bad feeling in his mind.

Seeing his abnormality, Cheng Mo Bing sat beside him, stroked his handsome face with his hand, and asked softly, "is it because I haven't enjoyed myself just now, so I'm not happy now?"

Xu Zheng impatiently shook off her hand and said, "you are too impatient. Jin Zhengting must think that we didn't do it, but we did something superfluous, that is, we sent someone to the hospital. He would think that those people were not sent by Huo Tingchen, but us. This is likely to become an inducement for him to do it to us."

Cheng Mo Bing disagreed: "I don't think so. Even if he knows that people are sent by us, he thinks it's our remedial measures at most. How can it be the fuse for him to deal with us?"

"Because we already know that Zhao Tongxin has been admitted to the hospital, he will think that we have threatened Zhao Tongxin's safety, and he will never be indifferent to her indulgence. I think he has figured out how to deal with us now."

Xu Zheng leans on the sofa dejectedly, and his spirit seems to have begun to relax. With Jin Zhengting's strength in Jiangbin, it's really not difficult to deal with him and Cheng mobing who has not yet established a firm foothold.

"Xu Zheng, I think you are a little worried. Even if he wants to deal with us, what can he do? Is he not afraid that Huo Tingchen will watch the play secretly, and then make a sudden move at the right time? Even if he can deal with us, he will certainly lose his strength at that time. He has no spare power to fight Huo Tingchen. I think he will consider this factor. "

Cheng mobing's analysis is very reasonable. She thinks that Jin Zhengting doesn't want to break the existing balance, and none of the three parties wants to break it on their own initiative, because once this delicate balance no longer exists, no one can predict what the situation will be like, let alone control it. No matter Jin Zhengting, Huo Tingchen or she, they all want to control the situation in their own hands In my hand.

"You are wrong. You don't know what kind of man Jin Zhengting is. At the beginning, he spared no effort to fight with Huo Tingchen for Zhao Tongxin. Now he feels that we have threatened Zhao Tongxin's safety, so he will spare no effort to deal with us. As for Huo Tingchen's containment, he can completely ignore it 。 "Xu Zheng's expression is very serious. It doesn't look like alarmist. Cheng mobing's pupil suddenly shrinks. She has never loved anyone, so she doesn't know what kind of performance a man will have when he is threatened with his beloved woman. "

"What do you think we should do if he is really desperate to attack us?"

She is still used to asking Xu Zheng because there are many people who are familiar with Jiang Bin's situation and Jin Zhengting. However, only he and Huo Tingchen dare to fight Jin Zhengting openly and secretly like Xu Zheng. Under the current situation, she naturally will not unite with Huo Tingchen, so she can only place her hope on Xu Zheng.

Xu Zheng thought about it and said, "we have only one way to go. If you want to develop in Jiangbin, you have to invest in Tianhong Jewelry Group. You have lent my cousin a sum of money, and Huo Tingchen has agreed to mortgage 50% of the shares. Then you can inform Huo Tingchen in a formal way that you are willing to buy another company at the same price 50% of the shares. "

"You want me to buy Tianhong jewelry company? With our current relationship with Huo Tingchen, do you think he may be sold to us? "

Cheng mobing thinks it's incredible. Huo Tingchen regards her as one of the people who must deal with her. She will certainly deal with Huo Tingchen. When Jin Zhengting's oppression is not so strong, they can't cooperate. It's hard to imagine that Huo Tingchen will sell her jewelry companies that have devoted countless efforts under such a background, because she also knows some inside information to help her Huo Tingchen invested almost all of his working capital in the jewelry company in order to seize the dominant position in the jewelry industry. Now he has finally achieved success, but he has to give up everything he got. She thinks Xu Zheng is just daydreaming.

Xu Zheng coldly smile: "rest assured, as long as you put forward to buy, he will sell you, not only jewelry companies, even if you buy Tianhong Group, he will not blink his eyes and promise you."

"Why are you so sure?" Cheng mobing is also an expert in shopping malls. She can't see any possibility of Xu Zheng's words.

"Because now his jewelry company is a hot potato, so he can't help it."

At this time, Xu Zheng's face showed a very sinister expression, and his originally handsome face even became a little ferocious.

Cheng mobing's eyes changed. She asked tentatively, "what do you mean by that?"

"You don't pretend to be confused. We are all smart people. Naturally we know what I mean."

Xu Zheng sneered and said, "has the jewelry market in Jiangbin reached saturation? I think you should know better than me, right?"

Cheng mobing's face began to change, and then showed a clear look: "I understand, the original all this is you behind the trick ah."

Xu Zheng laughs: "do you think I'll be so stupid that I don't know when the market is saturated? I just didn't say it. In fact, you've seen it for a long time. Didn't you say it? "

Cheng Mo Bing also charming smile: "Xu Ting is your cousin, if I tell you, I'm really afraid you will leak to her, so I hide you, from your performance, it seems that you don't know the market situation, it seems that you are really good at acting."

Xu Zheng drank all the wine in his glass and said with a smile, "I just want Huo Tingchen to think that I don't know about it. I think he wants me to take over Tianhong jewelry company now. I have already guessed his purpose. He wants me to pull you into the water together, which can not only hit Jin Zhengting, but also make you lose a lot of money. But he is sitting on one side collecting fish Weng Zhili.

"It seems that I really look down on you. It turns out that everything is in your sight."

Cheng Mo Bing sincerely admires Xu Zheng. People who can see this step have a good eye. What's more, Xu Zheng can do everything he wants. I have to say that he is really a rare talent.

"I just want to make use of his psychology to let you buy Tianhong jewelry company at a low price, so that you can have a foothold in Jiangbin, because after this period of operation, Tianhong jewelry company has basically monopolized the jewelry market in Jiangbin."

Xu Zheng put down his wine glass and looked at Cheng mobing. His face showed a smile that only winners have.

"But as you know, the jewelry market in Jiangbin is nearly saturated. Even if I can buy it, what's the use? It's just a heavy burden on me."

Cheng mobing knows that Xu Zheng must have his plan, but she doesn't understand why he wants to buy a jewelry company that people with a clear eye know has no future.

Xu Zheng smiles again: "Cheng mobing, you don't really think that if the market is saturated, you can't make money, do you?"

Cheng mobing's eyes lit up: "what's your good idea?"

"It's very simple. As long as we completely control the jewelry market, the price of the goods will be determined by us. Some time ago, I asked Xu Ting to sell the goods at a very low price. Do you know the fundamental reason?"

Xu Zheng looks at Cheng mobing with a cruel smile on his face. Cheng mobing doesn't know why, "don't you want to saturate the market so that Huo Tingchen can let go?" "There are reasons for this, but this is not the most important reason. The key point is that all the products I asked Xu Ting to sell are relatively low-grade products. I still have high-grade products in my hands, and I still have some useless ones. It seems that in order to accumulate capital quickly, now is the time to use them."

Xu Zheng lit a cigarette, and his eyes became deep in the smoke.

"Oh? What else have you left? " Cheng mobing is very interested in asking, because Xu Zheng can always give her a little surprise.

Xu Zheng took a deep breath of the cigarette, light spit out a smoke ring, his face showed a comfortable expression, and then slowly said: "my last move, gambling stone."

Chapter 456

"Gambling stone?" Cheng mobing was stunned at first, and then she soon understood all Xu Zheng's plans.

Xu Zheng has long known that Huo Tingchen is secretly monitoring him. He first used Huo Tingchen to monitor him, deliberately said the cooperation with her, and tied her to his chariot.

Then, he used his influence on Xu Ting to completely disrupt the jewelry market of Jiangbin, making the whole market tend to a morbid saturation. Xu Zheng has already calculated too much. Huo Tingchen, seeing this situation, will definitely give up the jewelry company, and will use the jewelry company to pit him and Cheng mobing. Of course, all this is within Xu Zheng's calculation, and he just wants to use it. Huo Tingchen's calculation is to win the jewelry company at a low price.

And his real purpose is to make use of Tianhong jewelry company to make it the basic base for Cheng mobing to gain a foothold in Jiangbin. At the same time, Xu Zheng can also transform the company's products from low-end to high-end. In this way, even if the low-end market is saturated, there is still room for the high-end market to develop.

The more important reason is that Xu Zheng can use the jewelry company to make legal gambling, so that he can quickly accumulate wealth, so that he will not be easily defeated in the face of Jin Zhengting or Huo Tingchen.

Because the so-called gambling stone is to gamble with Pu Yu. If you are lucky, you can get rich overnight. If you are not lucky, it is not uncommon to lose your fortune.

Since Xu Zheng wants to start a gambling game, he is sure. As the two people spend more and more time together, Cheng mobing knows more and more about Xu Zheng. She knows that the man in front of her seldom does anything she is not sure about.

Xu Zheng's face brimmed with a confident smile: "yes, I have already contacted. A piece of jadeite with excellent quality and extremely rare volume will be transported to Jiangbin. At that time, I will hold a gambling stone conference. Every player who gambles on stones can participate as long as he pays 10 million yuan, but if he wants to find that piece of jadeite, he has to find it himself from 500 stones."

"I see. You've already planned this. Why didn't you tell me until today?"

Instead of immersing himself in Xu Zheng's plan for collecting money for a long time, Cheng mobing asked a very necessary question.

Xu Zheng shrugged his lips: "the reason is that you have never trusted me. If you don't have no way out, you won't choose to believe me, so I think you'd better wait until this time and I'll tell you again."

Cheng Mo Bing feigns anger to wave powder fist to beat several times in his chest: "you are really bad, not only pit Huo Tingchen, also put Jin Zhengting together."

Xu Zheng said with a smile: "in a word, I have made a plan. If everything goes well, our company will make a profit of at least 5 billion yuan. In addition, we will monopolize the whole jewelry market. In that case, we will make incalculable profits in the future."

"Well, I'll trust you once. After dawn, I'll contact Xu Ting and buy another 50% of the company's shares. The rest will be up to you."

Xu Zheng nodded and suddenly became serious again: "there is another thing to pay attention to, that is, Zhao Tongxin's action in the catering industry. I always think her action is aimed at you."

"Oh?"

When Cheng mobing heard what he said, her expression became dignified. Since she knew Xu Zheng, he had not made a wrong judgment once, so she thought it was better to believe what he said.

"If you think about it, except for the jewelry industry, real estate, stock market, service industry, hotel and Jiangbin industries that Jin Zhengting voluntarily gave up, none of them can be intervened by you. Only the catering industry is controlled by Yang Group, but the current Chairman Yang ziye is not an independent person, so he let Zhao Tongxin switch to the catering industry. First, it is because of the advantages of the jewelry industry Run is really small, and basically an unsustainable industry. Second, it's also to prevent you from investing in Jiangbin's catering industry. "

Xu Zheng touched his chin and said that he had guessed Jin Zhengting's intention.

"Since he doesn't want to give me this opportunity, I want to get it. Even if Zhao Tongxin takes the lead, it doesn't matter. When we win Tianhong jewelry company, I will find a way to invest in a catering enterprise."

Think of the day and Zhao Tong heart for the most luxurious restaurant Jiangbin lost scene, Cheng mobing's hand can not help but grip.

"Now we don't have to compete with Zhao Tongxin for the catering market. We'd better concentrate on winning the jewelry market first, and then accumulate wealth through gambling stones. At that time, Jin Zhengting and Huo Tingchen dare not act rashly against us."

Xu Zheng takes a deep breath of his cigarette and says with burning eyes that his ambition has never been released, which makes his whole person excited. His eyes toward Cheng mobing are also gradually hot.

Cheng mobing is very understanding to come over, the suspender of pajamas seems to slip down unintentionally, showing a white and tender fragrant shoulder, her eyes gradually blurred, like Xu Zheng conveying a mature woman's signal.

Xu Zheng greedy eyes in her attractive body upstream for a while, can no longer bear, turn over to her pressure in the body, began wantonly vent.

Early in the morning.

Zhao Tong's heart wakes up faintly. She only feels that she is weak all over. Fortunately, the unbearable pain last night has disappeared. She opens her eyes vaguely and sees the spoon garden sitting at the head of the bed dozing off. Although Rong Qi's eyes are wide open, she is also tired. Zhao Tong Xin's heart a burst of warm move, because see their appearance know to guard her all night here.

Only Xu Yanke stood by the window and looked out of the window. She didn't move. She didn't know what she was thinking. She just felt that she was not in a good mood because of the melancholy in her eyes.

With the dry hair in her throat, she remembered that she was holding a water cup. She struggled several times and couldn't get up. Maybe it was because of the collapse last night. Zhao Tongxin can't even use her strength to sit up now.

Fortunately, at this time, Rong Qi just looked at her side and saw that she woke up. Her calm face also showed joy. She came over a few steps and held Zhao Tongxin. She asked with concern, "Tong Xin, do you feel uncomfortable when you wake up?"

It's said that Zhao Tong's heart wakes up and the dozing spoon garden wakes up. It's her good sister in the end. Spoon garden timely poured a glass of water to Zhao Tong's mouth: "when Zhao Tong's heart wakes up, it means it's OK. Come on, drink some water first."

Zhao Tong looked at the spoon garden gratefully and drank a few water to moisten his throat. His body's strength also recovered, but his voice was inevitably weak: "spoon, why are you all here, Zhengting?"

"Oh, boss had something urgent last night, so he went back first. He asked me to tell you that no matter what, you should put it away first. It's important to keep fit."

Shaoyuan said with a smile, Zhao Tong heart sleeps all night, she also followed worried all night, finally wake up, the big stone in her heart also finally landed.

"Have you been here all night? Let's go and have a rest. "

Zhao Tong Xin looked at the spoon garden. Their eyes were full of blood. He knew that they were very tired, so he wanted to let them have a rest.

"I can't take a rest. Just let Rong Qi have a rest first. Tong Xin, you don't know, it's not an accident that you nearly miscarried this time. Huo Tingchen designed to frame you, and a group of killers came late. It seems that they want to do harm to you. The boss told us that we must protect your safety."

Spoon garden was frank and told what happened last night briefly.

Zhao Tongxin's face is more and more ugly, not because of her physical discomfort, but because of her hatred for Huo Tingchen.

The previous child was killed by Huo Tingchen. Now he wants to kill another child. Even Zhao Tongxin's gentle character can't stand it any more.

Shaoyuan saw that her face became pale, but her cheeks were red. She thought that she had a fever.

She quickly reached out and touched her forehead, and found that her temperature was normal before she breathed: "Tong Xin, what's the matter with you? Is it OK?"

Zhao Tongxin tries to restrain her anger. Now she is pregnant, and she can't be too angry. She will be bad for the fetus. So even if her hatred for Huo Tingchen reaches the point of no more, she still tries to calm down her emotions.

Maybe she lost her first child, so she cherished the baby in her belly.

"Spoon, I'm fine."

It took Zhao Tong a long time to suppress the hatred in his heart, but his voice still trembled. As soon as he heard it, Shaoyuan knew that she had a strong emotional fluctuation. It was because he mentioned Huo Tingchen.

"Tong Xin, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to talk about your sadness."

Spoon garden a face of regret apology, she knew that once the child's premature death to Zhao Tongxin's blow is how big, but he happened to mention this matter, the heart is full of guilt for her.

Zhao Tong heart faint smile: "spoon, you say this is what words, we are good friends, I still don't understand your character, it's OK, I just feel a little uncomfortable, now it's OK."

"Is it really all right?"

Shaoyuan asked seriously, and looked at Zhao Tong Xin with her big round eyes from time to time, for fear that she would cheat herself. Zhao Tong Xin couldn't help laughing at her cute appearance and patted her on the forehead: "of course, it's true. When did I cheat you, smelly spoon?"

Shaoyuan also laughed, and then seriously said: "Tong Xin, you're OK. If you're pregnant, you shouldn't be angry. It's bad for your baby. When I was pregnant, I was angry with Chen Dong of our family. Now I always feel that my children are more stupid than other people's children."

Zhao Tong Xin was amused by her again: "I think the children and their mother are too similar."

Spoon garden immediately nodded: "Tong Xin, your analysis is very reasonable." But when I thought about it, my face immediately changed: "OK, Tong Xin, are you saying I'm stupid?"

Two people are making trouble. There is a light sound of footsteps outside the door. Rongqi and Shaoyuan are alert immediately. Jin Zhengting hasn't sent his hand down, and there are no bodyguards outside. They exchange a look. Their hands have reached into the pocket of their coat, holding the gun with the insurance opened inside.

Xu Yanke, who had been standing in front of the window and had no expression on his face, suddenly sneered: "don't be so nervous. Huo Tingchen wants to send someone to assassinate Zhao Tongxin. If so, he won't do it now. It's my brother." The door of the ward was opened before the words were heard. On the contrary, Shaoyuan and Rongqi were at ease, because if they were killers, they would choose to break the door as fast as possible. Although it was more overbearing to open the door with the key without knocking, it was Jin Zhengting's consistent business style.

Sure enough, the door opened, and Jin Zhengting stood outside, still tall and upright, still proud and cold, but with unspeakable tenderness in his eyes.

Ignoring other people in the room, he came to Zhao Tongxin's bed in a few steps, reached out and stroked her hair, which was the most common action he used for her. Then he sat beside the bed, stroked her hair and asked, "are you better?"

He asked her when the tone, let Zhao Tong heart heart seems to have melted.

Chapter 457

"Much better. Don't worry. I'll be fine soon."

Zhao Tong said quietly that through his gentle touch, he felt his temperature and his care and love for her.

Shaoyuan and Rongqi get up and leave with a tacit understanding. They inspect whether there are suspicious people nearby. Although Jin Zhengting's skill is enough to deal with any unexpected situation, it's their duty.

Xu Yanke took a look at you and me, and left the ward. At this time, no one wants to stay here as a light bulb.

"I just talked to the doctor. You have to stay in the hospital for at least a week."

Jin Zhengting said in an indisputable tone that he knew that Zhao Tongxin was thinking about the company's switch to the catering industry, because she and Yang ziye planned to open the chain restaurant in a week.

"How can I? When the restaurant opens, I have to attend the ribbon cutting ceremony."

Zhao Tongxin is a little anxious to say that the company's transfer of production is all her plans, which is also the first thing she does for Jin Zhengting. Therefore, if she is not allowed to participate, she will not rest at ease.

"It's just a company opening. Our children are more important."

Jin Zhengting was very clear in his heart that the significance of opening a chain restaurant was her responsibility to herself, so he didn't command her with a mandatory tone, but let her know what was the most important.

Zhao Tongxin's hand can't help but put it on her stomach. He didn't follow what he said. Last night, she almost didn't keep her baby in her stomach. Thinking of this, Zhao Tongxin feels a moment of fear. She has lost a child, so she can't lose it again anyway.

But she thought about it, looked up at Jin Zhengting, and said firmly, "I promise you, as long as the doctor says I haven't recovered, I will rest here. If the doctor says I can leave the hospital, then I have to attend the opening ceremony of the company."

With a faint smile, Jin Zhengting stretched out her hand and outlined the outline of her soft cheek: "OK, I promise you, but this week in hospital, don't take care of work. You have to have a good rest here. Do you understand?"

Zhao Tongxin nodded cleverly: "Zhengting, don't worry. I won't let you worry. I will keep you healthy."

"Well."

Jin Zhengting's eyes are very gentle. He said faintly: "recently, let Xu Yanke, Shaoyuan and Rongqi all protect your safety here. Don't worry about the company's affairs. I've asked ziye to go to your company. Just give him some usual affairs."

"Zhengting, did Huo Tingchen do it? Did he want to do it to our children?"

Zhao Tong bit her lips and asked, she doesn't want to live in the unknown fear.

Jin Zhengting nodded: "last night I had someone collect some air in your adoptive mother's home, and the results of laboratory tests overnight showed that there was a large amount of musk in the air of your adoptive mother's home. I thought that only Huo Tingchen could calculate everything so accurately. I think he should have done it."

He doesn't think it's necessary to keep Zhao Tongxin's secret, because with her intelligence, needless to say, she can quickly detect the clues.

"Zhengting, will you go to Huo Tingchen for this matter? Don't do that. I admit I hate Huo Tingchen very much, but now is an extraordinary period. We can't have a direct conflict with Huo Tingchen. We have to deal with Cheng mobing first. When she is defeated by you, we can fight Huo Tingchen head-on."

Zhao Tongxin said seriously. Jin Zhengting was stunned. He didn't expect that Zhao Tongxin would say such rational words. He soon knew that it was because Zhao Tongxin was afraid that he would lose his head for a while and would work hard with Huo Tingchen regardless of the consequences.

Although Zhao Tongxin has less experience in business, she can still understand the current situation.

The three parties are maintaining a strange tacit understanding. No one will take the lead, or she may die miserably. She loves Jin Zhengting, so she doesn't want any situation in Jin Zhengting.

Jin Zhengting took her hand lightly and said, "Tong Xin, I'll take revenge for you, but you have to give me some time. Now is not the best time. If you make a rash move, it will not only affect the group, but also you and me. I hope you can understand me."

Zhao Tong Xin gently looked at his man and gave him a calm smile: "Zhengting, you and I are a family. You said it. Don't be so polite. I understand what you said. I don't need to explain it to me. No matter what kind of decision you make, I will support you. I know what you think of me. My Zhengting won't let me be wronged, right Right? "

Jin Zhengting took her into his arms and patted her on the back: "don't worry, it won't be long. Huo Tingchen will pay for what he has done."

"Zhengting, I just want you to be good."

Zhao Tong Xin tightly grasped his arm, said calmly, but the tone was very firm, no one can change her mind to him.

"OK, I'll be fine. There are still some things for me to deal with in the group. I'll go first and see you when I have time." Jin Zhengting looked at his watch and apologized to Zhao Tongxin that he should be with her at this time, but now a big plan has been brewing, and the group really can't leave him.

Zhao Tongxin is very clever. She nodded and said: "Zhengting, career is important. I have three sisters in my team with me. It's OK. Go and be busy. I'll wait for you."

"Huo Tingchen may send someone to come, Tong Xin, you should be careful."

Jin Zhengting was surprised to see that Zhao Tongxin still had the necklace he gave her on his neck. He suddenly thought that Huo Tingchen's ultimate goal was to get the necklace. After all, the necklace was the only key to open the treasure, so he reminded Zhao Tongxin to be careful.

"Don't worry, Zhengting. I have great confidence in my team."

Zhao Tongxin answers with a smile. She thinks that if Xu Yanke, Shaoyuan and Rong Qi are all around her, no one can hurt her, because she believes in their strength.

"In a word, it's better to be careful. In case, I decided to let Xu Yan be your stand in. If you need to go out, it's better to let her go out first."

Jin Zhengting finished and gave Zhao Tongxin a gentle kiss on his forehead: "I'll go first and take care of myself."

"Well."

Zhao Tong is sending him away. He thinks that what Jin Zhengting said is really unpredictable. At the beginning, when they met, he took her as Xu Yanke's stand in. Now it's just the opposite. Xu Yanke has become her stand in again. But anyway, it's not just her fate. It's not only her and Jin Zhengting, but also with Xu Yanke and Shaoyuan, and Rong Qi, and many of his friends and relatives.

She felt that these predestined relationships were hard won, so she warned herself to cherish them, especially Jin Zhengting. In addition to cherishing them, she had to spend her whole life guarding them.

Distant gaze, that strong promoted figure, the heart surged with a touch of happiness.

"Well, what do you think?"

Just when Zhao Tong was ecstatic, Xu Yanke's cold voice came into her ears. From Xu Yanke's voice, Zhao Tongxin felt that she was in a very bad mood.

"What's the matter?"

Zhao Tongxin has never thought of giving Xu Yanke a good face. When she speaks very impulsively, Zhao Tongxin usually strikes back with the same tone.

"I'm in a bad mood. I want to talk to you."

Xu Yanke suddenly a little pinched up, she took the initiative to talk to himself, this in Zhao Tongxin's impression, is really the first time.

"Come on, I'm listening. If there's anything I can do for you, I won't refuse."

Zhao Tongxin is such a character. No matter how bad Xu Yanke's attitude towards her is, her attitude softens and Zhao Tongxin's heart softens. Moreover, with her understanding of Xu Yanke, if she doesn't encounter something really annoying, she won't speak to herself.

"I ask you, do you think Rong Lei and I really like each other, or do we just feel lonely and meet a more appropriate person at a more appropriate time?"

Xu Yanke is very straightforward. In front of Zhao Tongxin, she doesn't want to beat around the bush. Sometimes her words are very direct. Only when she is with Zhao Tongxin can she say them.

"What's wrong with you and Rong Lei?"

Every woman has a heart of gossip, even Zhao Tongxin is no exception.

Xu Yanke's face turned red, but soon returned to normal, with a cold face and said, "don't ask what you shouldn't ask, just answer my question."

Seeing Xu Yanke's serious expression, Zhao Tongxin no longer joked. He thought about it seriously and asked, "this question is not easy to answer. You should answer my questions carefully before I make a judgment."

Xu Yanke thought about it and said, "OK, you can ask."

Said habitually poured a glass of water to put in Zhao Tong Xin's bedside, these days Zhao Rong Lei's time, she also does like this.

This action let Zhao Tong heart is very surprised at first, but see her very natural look of time, in the heart already had a conclusion.

"Do you have any special feelings when you are alone with Rong Lei?"

Zhao Tongxin asked first, as if she had become a love expert. In fact, Jin Zhengting was the only one she really loved. However, compared with Xu Yanke, who had never really loved anyone, she has much more experience.

After thinking for a long time, Xu Yanke hesitated and said, "there is no special feeling. When I am with him, I always feel relaxed. When I am with others, I don't feel relaxed."

"Relax?"

Zhao Tong's heart is not clear, so he asks again.

"Well."

Xu Yanke nodded and said, "when I'm with others, I'm always on guard. Sometimes I know that it won't pose any threat to me, but I can't help putting on such a posture. Only when I'm with Rong Lei, can the whole person become relaxed." "So."

Zhao Tong Xin nodded seriously, a thoughtful expression, Xu Yan can see her this expression, blinking big eyes and asked: "what's the matter?"

"It can only be said that you have no trust in Rong Lei. The environment in which you grow up causes you to have a reserved personality towards anyone. Only when you face him can you be unprepared. It shows that you trust him very much."

"Well, I asked you whether I like him or not, not whether you trust him or not."

Xu Yan can not be angry, she thinks Zhao Tong heart is a little bit wrong.

"If you don't like a person, how can you trust him without reservation? Just like me to Zhengting, I'm willing to tell him everything, because I know he will never do anything to hurt me. Maybe you have the same feelings for Rong Lei? "

Zhao Tongxin seriously answers that this is related to Xu Yanke's future. They are natural enemies, but as Jin Zhengting's wife, she still hopes that Xu Yanke can find a good home.

Zhao Tongxin has basically determined that Xu Yanke's feelings for Rong Lei are true, but I don't know whether it's because Rong Lei saved her or because she is too empty.

Chapter 458

"Cut, I don't like that man."

Xu Yanke curled his little mouth, no longer interested in discussing this issue with Zhao Tongxin, and left as soon as he turned around.

Zhao Tong Xin looked at her far away back, but shook his head.

Xu Yanke still can't fully integrate into the normal social life. Although her attitude towards Zhao Tongxin has changed a little, it's still a little too difficult for her to share her thoughts with Zhao Tongxin.

Zhao Tongxin really wants to help her, but now he is recovering from a serious illness and has no energy at all. He can only talk about it with her after he gets better.

"Tong Xin."

Xu Yan can leave not for a while, spoon garden broke in, look at her in a hurry, like what happened.

Zhao Tong Xin beat spirit strongly, ask: "spoon, how?"

Spoon garden with a red invitation, said: "Xu Ting just sent you an invitation, invite you to participate in half a month later to hold the gambling stone meeting."

"Gambling Stone Club?"

Zhao Tong looked at the spoon garden for the first time.

As one of the chief executive assistants of Jin Zhengting group, Shaoyuan naturally understood what kind of activity gambling stone would be, so patiently explained to Zhao Tongxin: "the so-called gambling Stone Club is actually a legal gambling activity in the jewelry industry. The jewelry company that undertakes this activity will take out a rare gem stone and mix it with many ordinary stones, If the participants pay a certain fee to the company, they can have a chance to choose the original stone. If they are lucky, they can choose the rare gem, and the original stone will be issued. Of course, few people will get it, and most of the money they paid will be wasted. "

"It's no different from gambling."

Zhao Tong doesn't know what's good about such gambling activities. She is kind-hearted and has no interest in such boring things.

"How can there be no difference? It's a big difference."

Shaoyuan doesn't agree with her saying: "there are only two possibilities to bet on the size of the stone, and the original stone is different. In some large-scale stone gambling meetings, the organizers will prepare thousands of original stones, and it's almost like looking for a needle in a haystack to choose the most valuable one."

"Isn't there many people going to the gambling club?"

Zhao Tong heart curious asked, she is not interested in gambling stone itself, but want to judge the purpose of Xu Ting to her invitation.

"How could it not? Tong Xin, you are still too young. You don't know that almost all the people who have some assets in Jiangbin will go to every gambling meeting. "

Shaoyuan knew that Zhao Tongxin had never participated in such an activity, so she described people's craziness to gambling Stone Club.

"Why? Knowing that there is only one stone in the world, why take a chance? "

Zhao Tongxin doesn't understand what these people do. She thinks that since the probability of getting rare stones is so low, why do people have to spend money to gamble on luck? This is incredible in her cognition.

"Tong Xin, you are too simple. Under normal circumstances, the value of each rare stone is billions. If you are lucky enough to choose, you will really make a lot of money." Of course.

"Spoon, you also said that it's just in case. There's no such thing as getting something for nothing in the world. I think the gambling meeting held by Xu Ting is mostly a conspiracy produced by taking advantage of people's speculative psychology."

Zhao Tong said faintly that she never thought gambling could change a person's fate, and she couldn't understand why so many people lost their money to gamble on an illusory opportunity.

"Tong Xin, you think everyone is like you. If they are as kind as you are, the world would be clean."

Shaoyuan shakes her head helplessly. During this period of time, sometimes Zhao Tongxin shows skillful and tough skills in business, and sometimes she shows the same simple and lovely in life as before. She doesn't know which is the familiar Zhao Tongxin.

Looking at the spoon garden, Zhao Tong Xin, although he has not recovered his physical strength, still reluctantly raised his hand and gently beat her: "spoon, what are you looking at?"

"Tong Xin, I can't see through you any more. I feel that you have changed a lot, and I feel that you haven't changed anything. In a word, it's just a strange feeling."

The relationship between Shaoyuan and Zhao Tongxin has always been very good, and she is a very straightforward character, so there is nothing that can't be said with Zhao Tongxin.

"Spoon, I can solemnly tell you that I haven't changed at all, and I won't change in the future. I've always been Zhao Tongxin, who you are familiar with. Although sometimes I have to be resourceful, it's the survival rule in the business field. Since we live under that rule, we have to abide by this rule, but I won't violate my principle of being a man just because I abide by the rule So you understand? "

"Well, I know, Tong Xin, I believe you haven't changed, but are we a little off topic? What's in front of us now is Xu Ting's gambling meeting. You need to take care of your body now. I think you'd better refuse her. We've changed production now. We don't care about the jewelry industry at all. "Shaoyuan frowned and said that she had a premonition that there must be a secret hidden in Xu Ting's stone gambling meeting, but she thought it's better not to let Zhao Tongxin worry about it. After all, it doesn't conflict with the company's interests and there's no need to get involved in unnecessary troubles.

"No, spoon, I have to take part. Xu Ting has always been aggressive to us. If I don't take part, her arrogance will be even more arrogant, which is not good for the future development of the company."

Zhao Tongxin said to Shaoyuan, no matter what plot Xu Ting has, she will not let her plan succeed.

"In fact, I think so too. Xu Ting probably wants to copy Huo Tingchen's gambling boat plan, gather the rich with a reason, and then set up their money to expand their strength through something that seems to be very profitable, and then deal with us."

Shaoyuan agrees with Zhao Tongxin's tough attitude, and she doesn't want to be suppressed by Xu Ting everywhere. After a long time, she will form a habit, that is, Xu Ting and her company keep oppressing, and they keep giving in, which is a blow to the trust of their small team.

However, thinking of Zhao Tongxin's physical condition, Shaoyuan still frowned and shook his head: "Tong Xin, I don't want it. You are still very weak now. If you are allowed to participate in those activities, the boss will not be happy."

Zhao Tong smile: "spoon, you forget, I just need to stay in hospital for a week, Xu Ting's gambling stone will not start until two weeks later, at that time I have been well."

Shaoyuan's eyes lit up: "that's right. You will be discharged in a week or so. When the time comes, the three of us will accompany you. There's no problem in terms of safety, but we need a professional stone gambler. Otherwise, it's hard to defeat Xu Ting's plot. But the problem is that most of the first-class stone gamblers have gone to Tianhong Jewelry Group, and now they are in the company. There aren't many good gamblers. That's a problem. "

Zhao Tong thought about it and suddenly laughed: "Spoon, have you forgotten? When I was in Southeast Asia a few days ago, didn't you say that I had a natural keen intuition about the original stone? What do you think when I come to play a guest role as the stone appraiser?"

"Yes, I almost forgot about it. Tong Xin, your talent is very useful. It's said that Xu Ting will spend money on gambling stones this time. The original stone of rare jadeite is estimated at more than 5 billion yuan. If we can get this stone, I think Xu Ting will be half angry."

Reminded by Zhao Tongxin, Shaoyuan also remembers her previous trip to Southeast Asia. Zhao Tongxin shows an unusual sensitivity to the original stone. She thinks that it's all gambling anyway. Instead of finding an unreliable stone appraiser, she might as well let Zhao Tongxin have a try.

"Spoon, you can send someone to inquire about the news of gambling Stone Club. After I leave hospital, I will discuss with Xu Yanke and Rong Qi. I need to have a rest this week."

Zhao Tongxin said, gently stroking her abdomen with her hand. She felt a sense of survival. Her eyes were more loving and full of maternal brilliance. At this time, she just wanted to raise her body and let her child be born smoothly.

Shaoyuan nodded: "Tong Xin, no one will disturb you this week. We'll take care of the company's affairs. You can take good care of yourself."

"Spoon, I'm tired. I want to have a rest."

Zhao Tongxin felt a burst of fatigue, and said to Shaoyuan with a little apology that she, the president, had a holiday, and other members of the team had to work hard for her safety, which made her feel a little sorry.

Spoon garden showed a knowing smile: "have a good rest, I'll be outside the door, if you have something to call me."

With that, Shaoyuan covered the quilt for her and left the room lightly.

Jiangdong, Cheng family.

Huo Tingchen sits on the sofa and shakes his glass gently. He likes to drink a glass of red wine in the morning, because he thinks it can make his mind clear quickly. He needs to keep awake all the time.

Zhao Si stood in front of him with his hands on his back. There was no expression on his face, and his eyes were empty. People could not see what he was thinking.

"Whose idea is gambling stone?"

Huo Tingchen raised his head, looked at Zhao Si with a very strange look, and asked.

"According to the information from his subordinates, it should be Xu Zheng's idea, and Cheng mobing plays a key role in it."

Zhao Si's light answer.

"Sure enough, it's Xu Zheng who plays tricks behind his back. I still look down on this man. All along, I just think he is a capable man without any ambition. I didn't expect that his ambition is quite ambitious. I like such a man, but unfortunately, he has made me feel threatened."

Huo Tingchen put down his glass, and there was an imperceptible cold expression in his eyes, which showed that he had killed Xu Zheng. Anyone who might threaten him, Huo Tingchen didn't mind letting that person disappear completely from the world. Of course, Jin Zhengting was not included, because he didn't have the strength to let Jin Zhengting disappear.

"Young master, I don't understand. You know that it's a conspiracy for Xu Zheng to hold this gambling meeting, but why don't you stop it and let Xu Ting fully support him?" Zhao Si asked faintly. He didn't show much concern. The reason why he asked this question was just a routine inquiry, because he knew that Huo Tingchen needed him to ask.

Huo Tingchen is a very conceited person. If he has a good plan, he likes to be asked about it, which will give him a sense of achievement.

Sure enough, Huo Tingchen smiles and replies, "because Xu Zheng's plan for the gambling stone meeting is a complete copy of my plan for gambling boats some time ago, but this time he has done it more covertly. I think he has already felt the threat from Jin Zhengting and me, so he can't wait to accumulate capital. Since he wants to make money from the gambling stone meeting, why don't you let him earn enough? "

Zhao Si's pupil contracted: "young master, do you mean that we are going to fish for a long time?"

"Yes, Cheng mobing will be annexed by us sooner or later, so no matter what Xu Zheng does now, he is actually serving us to some extent. Why can't we support them?"

Chapter 459

Huo Tingchen stood up and went to the window. His gloomy eyes swept the sunshine outside: "Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing feel strong pressure now, so their alliance will only become closer and closer.

It's impossible to alienate them, but I'm not worried about it."

He held out his hand, a ray of sunshine fell on the palm of his hand, giving him a warm feeling, with a comfortable expression on his face. He continued: "I have the strength to grasp the situation, so let them make the final struggle. In a word, they will not escape my palm."

Zhao Si thought about it and asked, "have you decided to fight Cheng Mo Bing?"

"Yes, this time is not suitable for a positive conflict with Jin Zhengting. Even if I have mastered all the assets of the Cheng family, I can only say that I am on a par with him and have not completely destroyed his strength. Instead of wasting it like this, I'd better swallow up Cheng mobing's assets first, which can be regarded as a relief of worries."

Huo Tingchen's cold reply, like a judge who dominates everything, is sentencing the fate of Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing. In order to avenge Jin Zhengting, he has been waiting for 20 years. Now he doesn't want to wait any longer and decides to put it into action.

Because he has never had the strength, twenty years of hatred will pour out to the flood, to the Jin family by the river, and he can't control this strong agitation again.

However, Huo Tingchen kept calm and didn't get carried away by hatred. He clearly realized that with his current strength, it's hard to fundamentally threaten Jin Zhengting. Although he has completely controlled the Cheng family's capital in his own hands after these busy days, he also knows that this is Jiangdong. If he wants to fight the Jin family far away in Jiangbin, he still needs to fight The overwhelming strength is OK, because Jin Zhengting won't let his capital transfer to Jiangbin without hindrance.

Therefore, he chose to remove Cheng mobing's threat first. The two sides have reached a preliminary alliance in name, but the reality is that they have different ideas. Cheng mobing won't let Huo Tingchen get Cheng's assets, because in her subconscious mind, everything of Cheng's is hers, and Huo Tingchen can't give up Cheng's assets to compete with Jin Zhengting, which requires Cheng's huge assets As a result, the contradiction between the two sides has reached an irreconcilable point.

No matter from which angle, Huo Tingchen has to fight Cheng mobing. He doesn't worry that Jin Zhengting will suddenly intervene in the fight between them, because he calculates that Jin Zhengting will also fight Cheng mobing, leaving aside other factors, just because Cheng mobing wants to poison Zhao Tong's heart, Jin Zhengting can't bear it.

"What are you going to do?"

Zhao Si was very cautious and never expressed his own opinions. He only supplemented the loopholes in other people's plans.

"Since Cheng mobing wants to make use of gambling stones to accumulate wealth, let her do it, but we also need to send people to participate and get the rare stone. Even if she can get billions of income at gambling stones, the value of the stone is almost the same, which is equivalent to serving us once."

Huo Tingchen said with a smile, his eyes more gloomy.

Zhao Si shook his head and objected: "but according to the news from his subordinates, there will be thousands of stones at this gambling meeting. How can you guarantee that you will get the most precious one? Xu Ting also said on the phone that the price of choosing a stone is set at one million. The probability is too low. I feel that if you spend a lot of money on gambling stones, some of the gains will not be worth the losses . "

Huo Tingchen smile: "rest assured, I will be able to get the stone, and only one chance is enough."

Zhao Si Leng for a moment, said: "young master, although we have enough time to find experienced gambling experts, we can't guarantee 100% success. Moreover, it's very difficult to choose one from thousands of people."

Huo Tingchen laughs: "Zhao Si, it's not a problem at all. Don't we already have a gambler who has never failed?"

In the laughter, Huo Tingchen's Phoenix eyes looked at Zhao Si deeply, with a strange expression on his face, as if he could see through Zhao Si's thoughts.

Zhao Si's eyes and Huo Tingchen a contact, unconsciously turned to other directions: "young master, I don't know Cheng family has such talent, who are you talking about?"

"You should know that the person I'm talking about is you, Zhao Si."

Huo Tingchen said word by word, with a smile on his face, but his eyes gradually became cold.

Zhao Si's pupil contracted for a while, and there was no other expression on his face: "young master, are you kidding? How can I understand gambling stones? I'm just a housekeeper who can do some Kung Fu."

"Don't deny it in front of me. If I don't find out your details, how can I speak to you so frankly?"

Huo Tingchen looked at Zhao Si and continued with a smile: "it's undeniable that the psychological quality of the experts in your thousand schools is good. It's because you have to face the danger of being torn down at any time, so you can practice the ability of Taishan collapsing in front of you without changing your face?"

Zhao Si's face changed: "you already know?"

"Of course, I always know that you are not an ordinary person, but you seem to be very ordinary. So I asked long Jiu to secretly investigate your background. Last night, she found out your true identity, so she told me all night. The result really scared me. I didn't expect that there was a king of gamblers sweeping the Southeast Asian gambling world under my command. I really felt infinite It's a pleasure. "Huo Tingchen actually bowed slightly to Zhao Si, expressing his honor gently.

Zhao Si's expressionless face is still calm, but now there is a glimmer of fine light in his godless eyes: "young master, I'm still me, your housekeeper Zhao Si. The name of the king of gamblers is just the name given by friends in the past. It's just floating clouds."

Huo Tingchen lowered his head and flashed a shrewd look at his eyes: "no, you are the elder. This is what I should do. It's just that being my housekeeper has wronged you. If you don't dislike me, you can manage any of Cheng's industries, as long as you can stay with me."

Zhao Si said with a smile: "young master, it's very strange for you to say this. At the beginning, you saved my family from Mrs. Cheng's hands. My life is yours, and I'm satisfied to be a housekeeper under you. This is my gratitude to you, so I will certainly give it back to you."

"You really can't go?"

Huo Tingchen is very surprised to ask, quietly into the pocket holding the gun hand gradually relaxed down, he will never let Zhao Si leave, either for his use, or let Zhao Si completely disappear, because he has known what kind of character Zhao si used to be, he can't let Zhao Si leave here, otherwise for him, Zhao Si is also a very terrible threat.

"I haven't planned to leave all the time. The reason why I hide my identity is to draw a clear line with the past. There is no gambling king in the world, only Zhao Si, the manager of the Cheng family.

Zhao Si's face is light and cloudless. The infinite scenery in the past seems to have gone away from him. Now he just lives every day.

"Well, I know that every word said by the king of gamblers will be fulfilled, so I believe you. Let me put it bluntly. This time, you must make a move."

Huo Tingchen looks happy. He is very confident that he can win Zhao Si. If he is a person who does not attach importance to friendship, he can leave when Mrs. Cheng controls his family. He chooses to commit himself to Mrs. Cheng, which just shows that Zhao Si is a person who attaches great importance to emotion.

For people like Zhao Si, there is no simpler way than to use emotion to win over.

"I haven't gambled for a long time. When I took my apprentice to Southeast Asia, I played there for a while, but it was more than ten years ago, so I'm not 100% sure that I will succeed. But since the young master spoke, I will try my best to help you."

Although Zhao Si's mouth said to try his best, his confident eyes showed that he was very confident in himself.

"Well, I don't think there will be any problem as long as you come out."

Huo Tingchen's heart finally relaxed. With Zhao Si's help, the success rate of this plan will be greatly increased, because he already knows Zhao Si's identity from long Jiu. He believes that Zhao Si's ability will not disappoint him.

After all, Zhao si used to be the king of gamblers in the world for more than 20 years. He used to be the king of thousands in Southeast Asia, but he suddenly disappeared more than ten years ago. No one thought that he had become a housekeeper in the Cheng family.

"Young master, I have a question. When did you begin to doubt my identity?"

Zhao Si light smile for a while, did not deny Huo Tingchen's words, just asked a question.

"When I planned to deal with Jin Zhengting, it was you who told me that there was a very cheap raw ore deposit in Southeast Asia. At that time, I doubted your identity. If you were just a housekeeper of the Cheng family, you would not know these things at home."

Huo Tingchen didn't lie, because he has won Zhao Si's loyalty. It's not good to lie again. When necessary, Huo Tingchen will tell the truth selectively.

"I'm afraid that's not enough?"

Zhao Si asked with a smile. There was a look of appreciation in his eyes, because Huo Tingchen was really thoughtful.

"Of course, it's not enough. What I doubt most is your bearing. Although a housekeeper is in contact with people from the upper class, he has never been as calm or even arrogant as you. I think only those who have been in the limelight can have your temperament. What's more, although you are very insipid everywhere, you are still very proud But I always keep a cool head at the critical moment. Based on this, I can conclude that you are not an ordinary person. That's why I asked long jiuduo to pay attention to your information. You should know my current situation, so I have to keep some for anyone. I don't think you will mind. "

Huo Tingchen light said, a pair of Phoenix eyes but never left Zhao Si, to see Zhao Si's reaction.

Zhao Si is indifferent. He has long been familiar with these things for many years. On the contrary, he thinks that there is nothing wrong with Huo Tingchen's doing so. If Huo Tingchen has given him great trust from the beginning, he will feel that Huo Tingchen is not a person who does great things.

After this period of time together, not to mention Huo Tingchen saved his family, Huo Tingchen left a very good impression on him. Huo Tingchen has all the qualities that a hero should have. He is calm, Careful, good at observing the situation and seizing the opportunity. What's more, he is ruthless and will do anything to achieve his goal. So he is very optimistic about Huo Tingchen's future, even if Huo Tingchen's opponent is Jin Zhengting, he still insists on his own view.

It's undeniable that Jin Zhengting is higher than Huo Tingchen in his aura, but Jin Zhengting is too emotional, especially for Zhao Tongxin. In women's eyes, Jin Zhengting is a wonderful man, but in Zhao Si's eyes, this is Jin Zhengting's biggest weakness.

A man standing at the top should not have any feelings, which is his understanding.

Chapter 460

"If I knew at that time that you were the famous gambling king in Southeast Asia, I should have taken you with me in the boat gambling plan, and Jin Zhengting would not have taken the lead."

Seeing that Zhao Si had no obvious change in his attitude towards him, Huo Tingchen secretly breathed a sigh of relief and shook his head regretfully when he thought of the gambling boat plan which was on the verge of success some time ago.

Zhao Si's face with a faint expression, he looks very ordinary, so when there is no expression, people will soon forget his face.

"I know something about the last time. It seems that Jin Zhengting is also an expert. He is also a versatile person. He is top-notch in everything he does."

Huo Tingchen's pupils suddenly contracted. He didn't like to hear anyone make a positive comment on Jin Zhengting, which shows that his hatred for Jin Zhengting has reached a point of no more.

But in the face of Zhao Si, who will be very useful to him in the future, he still tried his best to forbear and reluctantly showed a smile.

"You're right. He's really a tough man to deal with. No matter what my plans are, he seems to be able to face them calmly."

"It doesn't matter. I used to be a versatile person. In addition to a thousand skills, other people often ignore my other advantages. I can see that the young master's hatred for Jin Zhengting has reached an unbearable level. Therefore, as a reward for your kindness, I will help you deal with Jin Zhengting."

Zhao Si said faintly, but there was a terrible light in his eyes. Even when Huo Tingchen saw his eyes, he couldn't help feeling empty. His momentum was too huge.

Huo Tingchen, after all, has seen countless big scenes, and has seen countless superiors, so he quickly adapted to Zhao Si's atmosphere. He knows that a man like Zhao Si has no desire for what ordinary people pursue, because he is a person who has reached the peak in a certain field.

But that's why he wants to help Huo Tingchen deal with Jin Zhengting. Every man at the top needs an opponent who can match his own strength. Obviously, Jin Zhengting is very interested in Zhao Si.

Huo Tingchen was very happy. What he most wanted to hear was this sentence, because he knew what kind of character Zhao Si was. With his help, he would be more confident in dealing with Jin Zhengting.

"What do you think we should do now?"

In some specific times, Huo Tingchen does not mind to consult others with an open mind, because it is related to his revenge plan.

Zhao Si thought about it and said, "there are two things that young master needs to do now."

Huo Tingchen motioned him to continue, and he was listening attentively. He knew that Zhao Si's plan should not be bad.

"The first thing is to get the necklace that opens the treasure as soon as possible. With this necklace, the young master will be in an invincible position. Even if Jin Zhengting wants to fight against you in the future, he should carefully weigh whether he has the strength."

Zhao Si said faintly that his emotionless eyes were shining with wisdom. When everyone talked about him in those years, they would naturally think of his superb skills. However, few people know that it takes a very smart mind to learn hundreds of skills. Zhao Si's mind can be used not only in gambling, but also in gambling. It can be used in business battles. Obviously, he has a lot of experience in this field.

"But even if I get the necklace, I don't have the right way to open it, and I can't get the treasure. It doesn't mean any threat to Jin Zhengting."

Huo Tingchen frowned and said that he did not understand why Zhao Si asked him to take a necklace that was meaningless now.

Zhao Si said with a faint smile: "Jin Zhengting doesn't think so. He doesn't know who can open the treasure in the world now, so as long as you try your best to grab it and get the necklace, he will have some scruples. Maybe he will think that you have found a way to open the treasure, so he is bound to adjust his strategy, and then it will be up to him. The attack turns to the defense. "

Huo Tingchen's eyes lit up, he has understood Zhao Si's meaning: "at that time, it will give us the opportunity to transfer capital from Jiangdong to Jiangbin."

Zhao Si nodded: "yes, you should try your best to lead the war from Jiangdong to Jiangbin, because this is your foundation, and Jiangbin is Jin Zhengting's foundation. As long as we put the battlefield in Jiangbin, no matter what the result, it will have a great impact on Jin Zhengting. At that time, you can use his advantages a little bit, and you can do it in the future. It's a fatal blow to him. "

Huo Tingchen's heart was excited by Zhao Si's words. He thought about Zhao Si's words carefully, and thought it was very reasonable, and it was a blow to Jin Zhengting.

"Well, it's up to you. In the future, the focus of the group's development will shift to Jiangbin. What's the second thing?"

Zhao Si thought again: "we must quickly annex Cheng mobing's assets within a month, whether it's merger or cooperation. In short, we can't let Cheng mobing become your threat."

Huo Tingchen didn't understand his meaning again, and asked: "Cheng mobing is really a powerful opponent, but now the three sides are in a balanced framework. Even if the two sides cause conflicts, the one who has nothing to do doesn't want to get involved. Why should they be so anxious?" "Because I have a premonition that Jin Zhengting will make a move within a month. Although he has been in a state of concession and even given up his jewelry business for many years, these phenomena do not mean that he has no power to fight back. He is hiding his talents and is just waiting for an opportunity. If an opportunity arises, he will fight back with thunder, and it will definitely let you know I was caught off guard. "

Zhao Si seriously said that his expression is not alarmist.

Huo Tingchen pondered: "are you worried too much? I don't see any opportunities for Jin Zhengting. Even if he changes production to the catering industry, he should just feel that the jewelry market is saturated and there is no profit. Moreover, Cheng mobing can't be regarded as a threat. What's more, waiting for her is the big quagmire of the jewelry industry's weakness. It's very difficult for her to get out, let alone talk with us It's right. "

Zhao Si chuckled: "young master, you are too naive. Do you think Cheng mobing and Xu Zheng really don't know about the saturation of jewelry market?"

"Isn't it? Today, Cheng mobing has offered to buy all the shares of Tianhong jewelry company. If she knows the current market situation, how can she buy all the shares at a high price? "

Huo Tingchen took it for granted, because he felt that if Cheng mobing knew that there was no profit at all in the jewelry market, he would not be able to buy the shares at a price higher than the market price. At that time, he agreed without thinking about it. He finally got out of the quagmire without any loss, and he could not help but breathe a sigh of relief. Of course, in order to monitor the situation Every move of Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing, he still keeps Xu Ting in Tianhong jewelry company, and because of her relationship with Xu Zheng, she can continue to be the president of the company.

"Young master, it can be said that you have won the whole set of Cheng mobing." Zhao Si said lightly, but with a trace of regret in his tone.

"Oh?"

Huo Tingchen raised his eyebrows. He was waiting for Zhao Si's explanation. He didn't think what he had done was wrong, so he didn't think much of Zhao Si's words.

"As far as I know about Cheng mobing, she doesn't have such a long-term vision. I think it's the man named Xu Zheng who controls everything behind him. He deliberately makes the jewelry market chaotic, and there is no profit in it. After a long time, he becomes a drag on the group."

Zhao Si pondered over the answer, his thinking is turning very fast, which even Huo Tingchen laments, but does not mean Huo Tingchen will agree with his point of view.

"It doesn't prove that my choice is wrong, does it?"

Zhao Si said: "you think about it, Cheng Mo, what is the biggest difficulty?"

Huo Tingchen thought about it and said, "if she wants to annex Jin Zhengting's assets, she naturally has to have a foothold in Jiangbin before she can compete with Jin Zhengting."

His face changed before his voice fell, because he found the key to the problem and understood why Zhao Si said his decision was wrong.

Looking at Huo Tingchen's uncertain face, Zhao Si said faintly: "I think the young master has understood that Xu Zheng has deliberately made a plan to disrupt the jewelry market by taking advantage of the psychology that you don't want to be trapped in the mire of the jewelry industry and are eager to get out of it. With your mind, you will soon find this problem, so you will definitely give up the jewelry industry, while Jin Zhengting has inherited it. Under the pressure from both sides, naturally, they will not compete with each other in the jewelry industry. If you both give up the jewelry industry, then the control will naturally fall to him and Cheng mobing."

"Then they can make use of the jewelry industry to gain a foothold in Jiangbin. At the same time, it will take a very short time to calm down the storm of gem price reduction, and then they can get on the right track and start monopolizing the jewelry industry again. At that time, Jin Zhengting and I had already quit, so it was very difficult to enter again."

Huo Tingchen's voice is very low. This is a sign before he gets angry. Xu Zheng even calculated him when he didn't realize it, which makes him have an impulse to kill now.

Because Xu Zheng not only used his assets to drive Jin Zhengting out of the jewelry industry he had been running for many years, but also used the chaos he had caused to force him back. Without any investment, Xu Zheng monopolized the jewelry market in Jiangbin.

He was biting his teeth. The chill in his eyes could freeze anyone in the world. He patted his hands and said coldly, "Xu Zheng, your calculation is really good. I really admire you."

Zhao Si said with a faint smile: "you don't have to be angry. It's a sign that they want to die. If you still control Tianhong jewelry company, Jin Zhengting doesn't dare to act rashly. But once Cheng mobing completely controls the jewelry market, Jin Zhengting will feel the threat from her. The so-called sleeping side will not allow others to sleep soundly. I think Jin Zhengting will soon die Will make a strong fight back to this, at that time, I'm afraid Cheng mobing can't last a month. "

Huo Tingchen listened to Zhao Si's words and then thought about it. He felt that Jin Zhengting would not ignore it as he said. What's more, Cheng mobing's heart beating to Zhao Tong for four times had already touched Jin Zhengting's opposition.

"Let Jin Zhengting and Cheng mobing conflict with each other. It's better for us to take advantage of them. Why do I have to deal with Cheng mobing?"

Huo Tingchen asked the key to the problem.Zhao Si faintly smile: "because you don't know Cheng mobing, she is a very resourceful woman. If Jin Zhengting presses her to bankruptcy, I don't think she will wait to die, but will willingly give her assets to Jin Zhengting."

Huo Tingchen's pupils contracted for a while, which was the last thing he wanted to see, but he still took a chance and asked, "will she really do this?"

Zhao Si nodded faintly: "she will. Cheng mobing is a woman who can endure any grievance in order to achieve her ultimate goal. As long as she can keep her strength, she can even sleep with a male dog."

In his tone, although with disdain, but also showed the admiration for Cheng mobing, a woman can do this step, not everyone can do.
