

Super Rich Dad Chapter 454-456

Chapter 454

‘Sister Ye, are you really sure about this matter already?’ Jiang Hao still seemed a little unconvinced, after all, from what he had just seen of that Xiao Qi’s performance, he seemed to think that this person was very simple and unpretentious, not like a white-skinned, red-hearted guy.

Moreover, Jiang Hao was reminding Ye Yunjie so much because he was afraid that Ye Yunjie would be too cautious. So as to wrong the good guy.

‘After all, this is someone who has been with you for a long time, Sister Ye, so I think it’s better for you to be more cautious.’ Jiang Hao finally instructed.

Ye Yunjie smiled, got up and went to pour Jiang Hao a cup of water, and said indifferently, ‘Young Jiang, you think this kind of thing. If I don’t check it out, would I dare to talk about it casually?’

Ye Yunjie pushed the cup in front of Jiang Hao’s heels. She said lightly, ‘To be honest, I actually trusted Xiao Qi at first, because I was the one who saved him when he was at his most desperate. I saved him when he was at his most precarious, so I thought he would definitely be loyal to me as well.’

‘But about two years ago, one day I asked him to complete a job for me, and he did the job well, but in the end I found out that he was fishy!’

‘The job was completed well, and you found out about him instead?’ Jiang Hao felt a little incredulous.

Ye Yunjie nodded: ‘Yes, it was because he completed the job too well, and what he didn’t know was that apart from him, there was another person I sent to do that job, and that person was ten times more capable than him. But the completion of that person’s task was surprisingly less than one-tenth of Seven’s, and I personally investigated it later, and indeed the difficulty of that task was enormous. From that. I then began to suspect him.’

Ye Yunjie followed up, ‘Then I hurriedly sent several people to secretly investigate Xiao Qi, and found out that someone was actually secretly helping Xiao Qi to complete the mission behind the scenes, thus he was able to get everything done so smoothly, and from there I knew that he must be someone else’s eyes planted around me.’

When Jiang Hao heard Ye Yunjie’s words, he couldn’t help but be a little surprised, because what Ye Yunjie said, and what Qun had encountered, in his opinion, was simply the plot of a novel and movie, in reality, there was such a thing?

Jiang Hao frowned and hurriedly asked, ‘Then. Then you know he is someone else’s spy planted beside you, why haven’t you driven him away, perhaps’

Jiang Hao gently lifted his hand and made a neck-wiping motion. He was indeed a little curious about this and how Ye Yunjie hadn’t done so.

After all, that was someone else's eyes and ears, staying by his side, that was a time bomb, no one knew that he would explode one day.

But not only did Ye Yunjie not get rid of this nail by her side, she actually valued this person and cultivated him into her own beloved?

Jiang Hao was really confused by this manipulation.

Ye Yunjie seemed to see Jiang Hao's confusion, and couldn't help but smile once again and said, 'Do you think I'm a bit stupid?'

Jiang Hao shook his head awkwardly. He didn't dare to say anything, but that was actually what he was thinking in his heart.

'No, I I didn't think so.' Jiang Hao scratched his head.

Ye Yunjie snorted a laugh. Said, 'It doesn't matter if you think so, in fact, even those who know the inside story of this matter think I'm a bit stupid for doing so, but I'm still doing it because, I'm taking a gamble!'

'Betting on what?' Jiang Hao asked curiously.

'Betting on winning or losing tomorrow!' Ye Yunjie said keenly.

'Tomorrow?' Jiang Hao couldn't help but stare. 'What you mean is that you already knew about tomorrow'

Ye Yunjie certainly understood Jiang Hao's meaning and hurriedly shook his head with a smile, 'Of course I don't know, but I know that since the people behind him have placed him by my side, it's for one day. He could come in handy, and it seems that tomorrow is that time. So what I've been waiting for, is tomorrow!'

Ye Yunjie got up, paced around the room twice, and said indifferently, 'And the reason why I have not been getting rid of him, or even reusing him openly, is actually because I want to know, who the person behind him really is, and I also want to use Xiao Qi as bait, to hang out the one behind him! Getting rid of Xiao Qi is ultimately just getting rid of a dog that is working for someone, and I want to uproot him. This is the only way to end the trouble forever. Otherwise if I get rid of one Xiao Qi today, no one knows how many Xiao Qi that person will send over tomorrow!'

Ye Yunjie looked at Jiang Hao with a serious face and asked, 'Now you understand, right?'

Jiang Hao seemed to have an epiphany all of a sudden. He couldn't help but have a shocked look on his face.

He finally knew how much of a difference there was between himself and Ye Yunjie, and it was definitely not a star and a half. The gap between himself and Ye Yunjie was definitely not something that he could catch up with overnight.

She is cool-headed and has a long-term vision. Most of all, as a woman, she was surprisingly able to be so calm.

Moreover, knowing that Xiao Qi was someone else's eyes, she dared to stay by her side and let her become her close friend, something that absolutely no ordinary person could do.

And even if someone could do it, they might not be able to do it better than Ye Yunjie.

At this moment, Jiang Hao could not help but have a little more admiration for Ye Yunjie in his heart.

It seemed that his own father had really seen things correctly, and Ye Yunjie valued her so highly at such a young age.

'So what do we do next?' Jiang Hao thought about it and seemed to suddenly think of something and hurriedly said, 'Sister Ye, then since that Xiao Qi is a mole, then the thing he just showed us, could there be something wrong with it too?'

Jiang Hao couldn't help but feel a little nervous and hurriedly said, 'Could his data be fake? And he was at the construction site of the south of the city project, could he be cheating in it? If that's the case, then we seem to be in a real pickle!'

Obviously, since this Seven was the mole, and the man in the blue suit had agreed to the project quality review so easily before, there had to be a connection.

And an unsettling premonition seemed to be gradually growing deep inside Jiang Hao's heart.

Chapter 455

'Hehe, do you think I would be defenseless against him?' Ye Yunjie snorted and said, 'Isn't Jiang Shao underestimating me too much?'

Jiang Hao smiled and blushed, he thought about it and it did seem that way, with Ye Yunjie's meticulous mind, since she knew that there was something wrong with Xiao Qi, how could she not be on guard against him?

It seemed that he was really a bit of a mediocre person, and what he had just said had made Ye Yunjie laugh at him instead.

Ye Yunjie continued: 'Does Jiang know why I sent Xiao Qi to the south of the city for the project? I just wanted to see how he would reveal himself. As expected, this time his chess piece, which has been hidden for so long, has finally started to make a move. And after I sent him to the south of the city project, I sent others to secretly supervise him!'

Just as Ye Yunjie was talking, the door to her office was knocked on again, Ye Yunjie smiled and called in while saying to Jiang Hao, 'Look, someone's here!'

Before Ye Yunjie's words left her mouth, the door to her office was pushed open and a woman in her early twenties, wearing a professional outfit. A woman in her early twenties, dressed in a professional outfit, with high heels on her feet, walked in through the door.

The woman was very pretty, and with the professional outfit, she looked very elegant and mature, although she was not too old.

‘Sister.’ The woman called out at Ye Yunjie as soon as she entered, and she turned her head to look at Jiang Hao. In another low voice, she said, ‘Greetings, young Jiang.’

Jiang Hao hurriedly nodded his head, ‘Hello, hello’

When Ye Yunjie saw this woman, her face was filled with a smile, and the smile was from her heart. It seemed that she was happy to see this woman.

‘Xiao Rou, it’s been hard for you, come and sit down.’ Ye Yunjie hurriedly pulled the woman to sit on the sofa and introduced Jiang Hao while smiling, ‘Young Jiang, you haven’t met Little Rou yet, I believe?’

Jiang Hao shook his head, he had seen almost all of Ye Yunjie’s men, but this was the first time he had seen Xiao Rou.

Ye Yunjie then added, ‘Don’t you think that we are very much alike?’

Ye Yunjie spoke with a smile full of happiness on her face.

Jiang Hao took a closer look at Ye Yunjie and Xiao Rou, and suddenly found that the two of them actually had a 60% to 70% resemblance between their eyebrows.

‘She you guys are relatives?’ Jiang Hao asked with a frown.

Indeed, if one looked at first glance, it didn’t seem to matter, but the more Jiang Hao looked closer, the more he realized that the resemblance between this Xiao Rou and Ye Yunjie was getting higher and higher.

Not only were their faces and features, but even their auras were similar.

Ye Yunjie had a cold and arrogant temperament, and seemed to have a confidence and sensitivity that permeated from her bones.

And this Xiao Rou, although she doesn’t look very old, she also has a bit of this temperament, so to speak. This was simply a replica of Ye Yunjie, only the rhythm seemed to be a little bit worse.

Jiang Hao felt that since Ye Yunjie had said so, then Xiao Rou was probably her relative.

However, once Jiang Hao said this, Ye Yunjie snorted out a laugh, then she looked at Xiao Rou tenderly, held her hand tightly with both hands, and said with affection, ‘She’s my sister, my own sister!’

‘Huh?’ Jiang Hao froze for a moment, he remembered that he seemed to have heard Ye Yunjie say something about how she had been orphaned since she was a child and had been brought up by her own father, so how could she have a younger sister?

Where did it come from?

‘Really really Sister Ye? But you are not’ Jiang Hao although the words did not come out in full, but he believed Ye Yunjie had understood.

Ye Yunjie just smiled and nodded as she spoke, ‘Xiao Rou is indeed my sister, and is really her own sister as well. Jiang Hao you are asking, should I not be an orphan? Wasn’t I raised by Mr. Shen?’

Jiang Hao nodded slightly with a curious look on his face.

Ye Yunjie sighed at his words and slowly told the story of what happened.

‘Actually, my parents passed away when I was only seven or eight years old. Our Ye family had some prestige in our hometown back then, but it seemed that we had offended someone, causing our Ye family to fall into ruin, and my parents died suddenly and strangely. I was only seven or eight years old at the time and survived, and I thought my sister had suffered the same fate as my parents.’

‘Later, when I was on the streets and about to starve to death, it was Mr. Shen who appeared and took me away. And then later. When I grew up, I thought of thoroughly investigating the cause of our Ye family’s downfall and my parents’ deaths back then. But that incident seemed too far back, and I never found out the truth. But just when I was discouraged, a piece of good news suddenly fell from the sky, news that my sister was still alive!’

‘At that time, when I heard this news, I was really shocked, and immediately afterwards, I used all my connections to inquire about my sister’s whereabouts, and finally found Xiaorou’

Ye Yunjie looked at her sister with affection, and there seemed to be crystal tears shining in her eyes.

This was the first time Jiang Hao had seen Ye Yunjie about to cry, and he couldn’t help but be slightly shocked.

In the past, Jiang Hao felt as if this woman, Ye Yunjie, was made of iron, she seemed to be calm and incomparable no matter what time it was, and would not mix any personal emotions into anything she did.

Perhaps this woman herself was devoid of any emotion to speak of.

But today, Jiang Hao found that he was wrong.

The saying that even iron bones have tender tears, only that they have not yet reached the point of emotion always seemed not too appropriate when it came to Ye Yunjie, but that was the truth.

Jiang Hao looked at Ye Yunjie and Ye Xiaorou, and not only was his heart saddened.

He also had to sigh that it seemed too hard for these two sisters who had suffered so much.

In fact, they would have had a better life, a very different trajectory of destiny.

They would have been clothed and fed. They would have grown up happily, but fate has a way of playing tricks on them, sometimes so mercilessly.

Their destiny was rewritten by a sudden stroke of bad luck, and from then on they could only use their weak shoulders to carry their fate.

Compared to himself, Jiang Hao felt that Ye Yunjie seemed to be more like a real man.

Because she was unrelenting. Because she dared to fight. It seemed that it was also because of this that the charm in this woman was so great and so captivating.

Jiang Hao couldn't help but sigh a little, sighing and asking again, 'What about later? Did you find out the real cause of death of your own parents and relatives, Sister Ye?'

Ye Yunjie sighed and shook her head heavily, 'No, and I seem to have discovered that someone deliberately didn't want me to find out all of this, but I never gave up, and I also believe that one day. I will find out everything about this.'

Ye Yunjie faintly smiled sweetly at Ye Xiaorou, and continued, 'Then later I found Xiaorou and kept her to myself, she was only a teenager at that time. At first I thought I had suffered enough on my own, I wanted her to have a good childhood and memories, but gradually I found that she and I seemed to have a foul temper, surprisingly she learned a lot on her own, and at that time it happened that I was short of capable hands around me, so she took the initiative and wanted to come to my side to help.'

Ye Yunjie stroked Ye Xiaorou's delicate jade-like little hand. Sighing, she said, 'Later on, I simply let her stray outside my organization, specifically to supervise some people I didn't trust so much, and Xiao Rou did a very good job.'

'It's just that Xiao Rou has suffered, the hardships she has suffered over the years, only she knows, right?' Ye Yunjie sighed heavily, she seemed to have an incomparable amount of guilt and an endless amount of pity for this biological sister of hers.

'This time, it was actually Xiao Rou who discovered what happened to Xiao Qi.' Ye Yunjie continued, 'It was Xiao Rou who found out about Xiao Qi's problems and reported them to me in the first place, and it was also Xiao Rou who deliberately sent Xiao Qi to the project site in the south of the city later on and secretly monitored his every move behind his back.'

'A girl who is only twenty years old, groping around on the construction site all day, it's really too hard' Ye Yunjie looked at Ye Xiaorou, in her eyes, and couldn't finish her guilt, 'It's all my sister's fault

Ye Xiaorou suddenly smiled and wiped the tears at the corner of Ye Yunjie's eyes with her hand. Said: 'Sister, what are you talking about, you are my sister, I can help you is my honor, for you, I am willing to do anything.'

After saying the words. Ye Xiaorou then giggled and laughed.

Her smile was bright and beautiful.

It was obvious that such a delicate and beautiful girl, although she was only twenty years old, the charm emanating from the inside was already very strong.

Ye Yunjie. also tried to dry her tears to reveal a smile, but the gaze facing her own sister was still filled with tenderness.

She continued, 'Moreover, because of Xiaorou's presence, Xiao Qi did quickly reveal his horse.'

Ye Yunjie passed a wink to Ye Xiaorou and spoke, 'Xiaorou. It's better for you to talk to Jiang Shao about this.'

Obviously, Ye Yunjie and Jiang Hao said what she had just said, just to make Jiang Hao get better acquainted with Ye Xiaorou, she seemed to have some selfish motives and wanted to push her sister upwards again with her own power

Ye Xiaorou nodded and hurriedly took out a document from her bag in a serious manner and handed it to Jiang Hao.

'Young Jiang, just now Xiao Qi should have shown you a document on the quality of the project, right? I guess it must have said that the quality of all the works on our City South project, all of them are fine, right?'

Jiang Hao nodded, apparently that was indeed the case, those things Xiao Qi had just shown himself, although he couldn't understand many of the professional data himself, but through his and Ye Yunjie's explanation, he knew that there didn't seem to be a single problem there.

But immediately afterwards, Ye Xiaorou spoke up, 'In fact, as long as we know that there is something wrong with that person, then the data he provided must also be fake. The one I'm showing you is actually the real project quality report sheet for the City South project, take a look here, and here

Ye Xiaorou pointed out two places on top of the document to Jiang Hao and spoke, 'Actually, these two places are problematic!'

Chapter 456

'Normally, these two indicators would have to reach a standard of five for us to be considered as passing, but the quality of the work here is actually only at level three!'

Ye Xiaorou said to Jiang Hao with a serious face, 'At first, after I found out this problem, I felt as if this Xiao Qi was ready to make a move, because I have been watching him almost all the time in the past two years, and he has never made any mistakes in his work, and he has completed every task very well.'

Ye Xiaorou then added, 'Later on, when I investigated, I found out that when it came to these two indicators. Xiao Qi had had secret contact with the contractor in charge of this block of projects, and then the quality went wrong.'

'Then that means it was all done deliberately by that Xiao Qi?' Jiang Hao asked.

Ye Xiaorou nodded with a serious look on her face, 'That is indeed the case.'

Jiang Hao could not help but rub his hands together nervously as he was about to have a review of the whole project tomorrow, and now that something like this had happened, he was a little unsure of himself.

Ye Xiaorou seemed to see the uneasiness in Jiang Hao's heart and hurriedly smiled, saying, 'Jiang Shao, don't worry. In fact, the problem has been lifted, after I found out that there was a problem with the quality of the project, I have secretly fixed that project contractor, maybe that Xiao Qi still doesn't know it, but our project. It's already been stolen and replaced!'

Ye Xiaorou continued, 'Do you think my sister would still be able to sit here with such peace of mind if the problem wasn't solved? Do you think she would dare to ask people to review and inspect the works when she knows that there are problems with them?'

Hearing this, Jiang Hao couldn't help but let out a long sigh of relief in his heart.

So that was how it was, it seemed that he had really been overly worried.

Moreover, Jiang Hao couldn't help but be somewhat convinced by Ye Yunjie's tactics in his heart.

Obviously, this was a set of serial games, both sides were completely calculating me while I was calculating you.

First, the other side had planted an eye on Ye Yunjie's side.

But instead of pulling out this eye, Ye Yun-jie took the ruse and became more and more attached to it, and behind his back, he even sent his most trusted sister to spy on his every move.

The next thing you know, this eye starts to use tricks to cheat in the year of the project in the south of the city.

But still within Ye Yunjie's control, Ye Yunjie not only made the other side feel that he had succeeded, but also secretly undermined the other side's conspiracy.

The other side has already felt that they have won, so they have used a killer trick to stop the project, thus forcing Ye Yunjie to take the initiative to apply for a review of the quality of the project.

In this way, the other side felt that Ye Yunjie had fallen into their own trap.

But what actually happened? On the contrary, Ye Yunjie had played a trick on them.

This is because the other party does not know that there is not a single problem with the City South project at this time, and Ye Yunjie is already waiting for the other party to take the bait with her net open.

If the quality of the project is reviewed, the quality of the project is not a problem, so the other side will obviously be caught off guard.

On the contrary, the other side will be caught off guard. There is enough time to deal with the engineering equipment company.

And the other side's vain plot to completely shut down the project in the south of the city has completely fizzled out.

On the contrary, there is no more reason to stop the project in the south of the city.

The other side probably had other combinations, but if they didn't get the first punch right, even if they had a good plan and strong tactics, it would be null and void, because they had failed in the first step.

Having thought of this, Jiang Hao had a feeling of sudden enlightenment.

He looked at Ye Yunjie with some surprise, simply a little unable to believe his eyes.

With such a complicated situation and such a well-thought-out backstabbing from the other side, Ye Yunjie actually appeared to be busy dealing with the situation on the outside, but in reality, she had already solved various crises one by one behind the scenes.

It seemed that his side was being pushed to the limit by the other side, but the real result was that the other side was being tricked by Ye Yunjie.

'Wonderful! It's fantastic!' Jiang Hao simply didn't know how he could describe Ye Yunjie.

In the past, Jiang Hao thought that Ye Yunjie seemed to have only a little bit of business talent, but what he didn't expect was that her scheming was so good.

Talented, really a rare talent.

It seems that his own father's vision is really good!

Originally, Jiang Hao was still unsure of himself and felt that this project in the south of the city was about to be defeated in his own hands.

But now it seems that he was over-worried.

Because of Ye Yunjie, he had survived this time without any danger.

Ye Yunjie only smiled lightly at Jiang Hao's compliment, without much pride and complacency. She said softly: 'I was forced to do this. Jiang Shao, perhaps you think this is already very thrilling, but this is only where it is, if one day you can know all of Mr. Shen's plans, I guess you will be so surprised that you won't be able to speak.'

When mentioning Shen Haoting, Ye Yunjie's expression suddenly became much more serious and said seriously, 'Jiang Shao, there are some things I wouldn't dare to say without Mr. Shen's permission, but there is one thing you have to believe, your father loves you, no matter what, his love for you exceeds his treatment of everything else, so... ..so I want to say to you that perhaps there are some things that Mr. Shen will do in the future that will make you feel uncomfortable, that will make you feel that your father is taking advantage of you, but I I ask you not to hate him. Maybe there are some things that you can't see for the time being, but one day you will understand that everything that your father did was for you!'

Ye Yunjie made this sudden statement at the end. It caught Jiang Hao a little off guard.

What did his own father do that he didn't understand?

Was there anything that his father did that he didn't understand? Jiang Hao didn't feel ah.

He was now actually, deep down, much more relieved about his father abandoning himself and his mother at the beginning.

He felt that his father must have had bitter intentions at that time, and Jiang Hao felt that although he had not met his father yet, from the fact that he had gone through so many things, and the fact that someone like Ye Yunjie could work for his father with all his heart, even if it was just these few points, his father seemed to be a person with no problems.

Perhaps it was really hard for him. And how could one not understand him?

As for what Ye Yunjie said about his father using himself? Himself to hate him?

Jiang Hao felt that this seemed a bit nonsensical, why would one hate one's father?

Jiang Hao smiled lightly, looked at Ye Yunjie and said with certainty, 'Sister Ye, don't worry, I understand what you mean, and I already understand my father now, so how could I hate him?'

Jiang Hao smiled breezily, as if he didn't take all these things seriously at all.

But the more Jiang Hao did so, the more Ye Yunjie sighed in her heart.

Because it was clear that Ye Yunjie felt that. What she meant, Jiang Hao didn't really understand.

She sighed and silently said, 'No, you don't understand, but I believe that one day, you will understand.'

After saying these words, Ye Yunjie then pondered slightly.

Instead, it was her words that made Jiang Hao feel a little cloudy.

How could he himself not understand? How could one not understand one's father?

He was his father's own son, and he had already handed over such a large project as the City South project to himself, so how could he not understand his father?

Jiang Hao felt that Ye Yunjie seemed to be a bit overly concerned.

However, what Jiang Hao didn't know was that Ye Yunjie had already seen through his mind, and it was because of this that she felt that Jiang Hao hadn't understood what he meant, hadn't understood Shen Haoting's hardship.

Forget it, things have come to this, let's take one step and see what happens. Ye Yunjie sighed secretly in her heart, and as she said, perhaps there were some things. Jiang Hao did not understand at all now, but soon, in the near future, he would always understand.

Ye Yunjie thought for a moment and the topic changed. Continuing, she added: 'Oh yes, Jiang Shao, for tomorrow's matter. Is there anything else you want to instruct?'

Jiang Hao thought for a moment and was about to shake his head when he suddenly thought of something and spoke, 'Sister Ye. Should we commission a third party to review the quality of the project in the south of the city tomorrow? Otherwise, will it be whatever they say it is? Even if we are sure in our hearts, there are some things that we have to guard against, don't you think so?'

Ye Yunjie nodded at her words, 'Yes. I've thought about this matter before, so I've already found a third-party testing agency, and they will send someone over tomorrow to participate in the review and inspection together, and in order to completely dumb these people down, I've also specially found some media.'

Ye Yunjie paused and said, 'The Chengnan project is a big deal for Chujiang, and many people and many pairs of eyes are watching, so I plan to call in the media so that everyone can clear our names. I want to see what those people have to say, and I have prepared a lawyer's letter. As soon as the test comes out, I will sue the person who gave us the temporary suspension notice. ...'

Ye Yunjie really did think a lot, too many things had gone before her head.

In response, Jiang Hao could only keep nodding, Ye Yunjie asked herself what else she wanted to instruct, Jiang Hao felt a bit ridiculous, with her around, what else did she need to instruct?

'Well, that's fine.' Jiang Hao looked at Ye Yunjie and then Ye Xiaorou and smiled faintly, 'Thank you guys.'

The two sisters, Ye Yunjie and Ye Xiaorou, looked at each other and smiled, and the former said, 'Young Jiang, what is there to thank for? Don't worry, with us here, the sky here in Chu Jiang can't be turned over for the time being!'

That night, Jiang Hao did not return to Chujiang University, but slept overnight in Qiao San's hotel, and early the next morning, Ye Yunjie drove Jiang Hao in his car, heading straight to the project site in the south of the city.
