

Super Rich Dad Chapter 457-458

Chapter 457

Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie arrived at the construction site very early, not yet half past seven.

But even so, there were still a lot of people gathered at the construction site of the Chengnan project.

Some were contractors for the project, there were also 20 to 30 people from the media, and some were third-party engineering quality inspection agencies that Ye Yunjie had commissioned earlier.

At this moment, there were no less than a hundred people here, and after Ye Yunjie's Mercedes-Benz appeared, there was a small commotion in the group of a hundred or ten people.

Those contractors of the project could not help but start to whisper. Some looked a little worried, while others were not.

Those 20 to 30 people from all walks of Chujiang media, after seeing Ye Yunjie's car, rushed up in a rush, before Ye Yunjie could get out of the car, they had already surrounded her car.

'Boom .....

Ye Yunjie got out of the car and slammed the door, while the group of media started to ask questions one after another.

'Miss Ye, we already know. The quality inspection department has issued a temporary suspension notice for the City South project, and it is said that there is also a determination that the quality of a certain item of work is unqualified. Does that mean that the sensational City South project is suffering from an unprecedented crisis?'

'Miss Ye. May I ask if there is really a quality problem with the City South project? This is the most high-profile project in Chujiang, the future window of Chujiang to the world, and the top priority in the future planning of the Chujiang New Area, may I ask if there is really a problem, will you and your company, give an explanation to all the citizens?'

'I heard that there is funding from the Shen family, an overseas consortium, behind the City South project, is the rumour true? And now that the quality of the City South project has gone wrong, is it possible to conclude that this is the overseas Shen family preparing to run away once they have gathered wool in Chujiang? May I ask you, as the party involved, what explanation I have?'

'Huh? Miss Ye, may I ask who this gentleman in your car is? Is he also a figure associated with this engineering quality issue? Or is it your boyfriend? Your boyfriend is very young, he seems to be a student. May I ask if the problem with the quality of the project is also related to the fact that you put too much energy into your personal feelings and neglected to control the project? Will you apologise for this matter?'

Although Jiang Hao did not get out of the car, he was able to hear clearly the questions asked by the media just now.

Jiang Hao's face was gloomy and he could hardly wait to scold these people.

After all, the matter has not been confirmed yet, but these people have already started to say things, throwing dirty water on Ye Yunjie and the City South project, Jiang Hao can't stand it no matter what.

These people are really hateful, the matter was not that big, but if they report it like this, maybe the matter will be serious instead. And some of their questions were obviously digging a hole for Ye Yunjie to jump into.

Some of them were even twisting the facts.

What about the fact that he was Ye Yunjie's boyfriend and that she was negligent in managing the project because she was with him.

These people were talking about this with a nose and an eye, and as if he had already seen it.

Jiang Hao was so angry that he clenched his fists tightly and was so full of anger that he could hardly wait to rush out of the car and go to these people to have a theory.

However, he held back, because on the way here, Ye Yunjie had already informed him.

Ye Yunjie seemed to know these people well, she knew that these people would keep digging holes for themselves and keep twisting the facts to get breaking news.

And it was precisely for this reason that Ye Yunjie told Jiang Hao to stay in the car and not go out.

Because Jiang Hao was so inexperienced in facing these people that he might be caught by the other side just because of a careless remark he made, and then make a big deal out of it and exaggerate the story.

If that was the case, even if Ye Yunjie had the power of a god, it would not help.

On the contrary, Ye Yunjie herself, faced with these people, had already known what they had in mind.

Not only would she not be overwhelmed, but she knew how she was going to guide these people.

Outside the car, Ye Yunjie waited until the noise of these people had quieted down a bit before she opened her mouth.

'Everyone. You can say some things nonsense, but if you distort the facts of the report, then sorry, I will ask my lawyer to deal with you directly in the public court.' Ye Yunjie said loudly, 'I will only say two things here today, firstly, there will not be any quality problems with our Chengnan project, I can guarantee you all that, and the reason why there is the current situation is because someone is behind it, as for who it is, I will find out clearly and give you all a reasonable explanation.'

Ye Yunjie paused, and immediately afterwards, she added: 'Secondly, the City South project does have the financial support of Mr Shen Haoting, the chairman of the overseas Shen Group, but it is only financial support, the operation and management of the project, as well as most of the capital investment, is done by our local enterprises. In other words, the City South project, is Chu Jiang's project, it is here and no one can take it away. It is even more unlikely that such a thing as leek-gathering will occur, so I ask everyone to put a hundred hearts into it.'

Ye Yunjie twisted her head to look at Jiang Hao in the car and finally said, 'The person inside the car is just a friend of mine, I hope everyone will not bring rhythm, otherwise I will ask my lawyer to talk to him about this matter.'

After Ye Yunjie said a few simple words, the crowd present was instantly quiet.

After all, just now Ye Yunjie had put her ugly words in front of her, if they dared to report recklessly, then they would be subject to a lawsuit.

These people were just trying to get attention, there was no need to risk so much for a headline story.

'Then Miss Ye. May I ask if you can guarantee that the quality of your company's project in the south of the city has no problems at all?' Suddenly a media person spoke up again and asked.

As soon as this person said this, almost all the media present began to follow suit, asking questions together.

Ye Yunjie pondered slightly for a moment, raised her head with a serious face and said loudly, 'Of course, I can guarantee it!'

As soon as Ye Yunjie finished her sentence, the 20 to 30 media across from her started to take pictures and videos of Ye Yunjie.

Many of them also hurriedly transcribed the words into their notebooks.

After all, this was the equivalent of Ye Yunjie's promise.

Since she had already promised that there would be no problems with the City South project, these people were of course eager to see what the outcome would be.

But at that moment. In the crowd, a voice suddenly came over, and those dozens of media suddenly turned their gazes over once again.

'Oh, I told you yesterday, don't say anything so deadly, and don't say anything so early, the result is not yet out, you know what the result is?'

The voice came and the crowd immediately gave way to allow the man to walk in.

Immediately afterwards, a group of a dozen people walked in from outside the crowd.

At the head of the group was none other than the blue-suited man, who still hadn't changed his clothes today, still dressed in a zhan blue suit, only his head was getting more and more oily, and the look on his face was getting more and more smug.

However, the more smug the other party was, the more ridiculous Ye Yunjie felt.

‘The result? Of course I know.’ Ye Yunjie said coldly.

The other party skimmed her lips and said with a disdainful expression, ‘Fine, let’s wait and see then!’

After saying the words. The blue-suited man waved his hand at the dozen or so people he had brought with him and said, ‘Alright, let’s get to work!’

‘Hold on!’ Suddenly, Ye Yunjie opened her mouth and shouted at the other party.

‘Do you have something?’ The man in the blue suit frowned and looked at Ye Yunjie. ‘What, want to go back on your word? It was you who proposed to apply for a review of the quality of the project, is it hard to say that you have changed your mind now?’

‘Of course not!’ Ye Yunjie pointed her finger at the dozen people at the side and said, ‘This is the third-party testing agency I hired. I don’t believe you guys when you say it’s qualified, I’ve invited them now, if your final test results are the same, then I can only approve it.’

Ye Yunjie had actually left a hand. This really made the blue-suited man a little surprised, and his face instantly turned gloomy.

He looked at Ye Yunjie coldly, and surprisingly, there was a hint of hesitation.

Ye Yunjie also gave a cold laugh and said, ‘What, are you afraid? There are media here, if you can’t agree to this point of my request, where is your credibility, please?’

‘I .....’ The man in the blue suit seemed to be about to say something, but then hesitated when he turned his head to look at the dozens and dozens of cameras that were clicking at him.

‘You can!’ The other man said indifferently.

He couldn’t help but sigh in his heart, he still somewhat underestimated Ye Yunjie.

And now that Ye Yunjie had said so, then if he didn’t agree, it was obvious that he would first be given a hard time asking questions by these media, and then how they were going to write about it, there was no telling.

The man in the blue suit hesitated for a moment, looked at the media, and could only nod, ‘Yes, it’s okay!’

But before Ye Yunjie could get happy, she saw the other party give a cold laugh at herself, ‘Don’t be too complacent, what the final result will be like, everyone still doesn’t know yet!’

After he finished speaking, the man in the blue suit waved his hand once more, and the dozen or so inspectors under him each started working with their own equipment.

The person in charge of the third party testing agency that Ye Yunjie had hired also asked Ye Yunjie in a low voice, and then also turned around and let his own people go to work.

The next thing to do was to wait.

Ye Yunjie was not too nervous because after all, Ye Xiaorou was in charge of this matter and she trusted her sister completely.

But Jiang Hao, in the car, seemed to be a bit unsure, and got out of the car in an uneasy mood, looking out from time to time not far away.

And at this time, at the side of Liu Guohao, also from time to time to look at Jiang Hao, seems to have something to say, but then want to say again.

Chapter 458

In fact, Liu Guohao was on guard here early in the morning.

Behind him were dozens of contractors from the City South project, large and small.

Regarding today's events, Liu Guohao had actually known that such a day would come, and in fact, he even knew some more unknown secrets.

It was just that he didn't want to say it right now.

Liu Guohao looked at Jiang Hao and could not help but sigh in his heart, he actually still had a trace of good thoughts in his heart, but naive compared to good thoughts. What he cared more about was his own death.

He actually wanted to remind Jiang Hao of two things, but when the words came to his lips, he didn't have the courage to say them.

He knew very well that there were definitely people from the Xu family, and even people behind the Xu family, at the scene today.

If he made a rash move, he would not only turn around and do nothing. On the contrary, he or she will also suffer for it.

'Ai .....

Liu Guohao heaved a sigh and still chose to keep his mouth shut.

The matter had come to this, he no longer had the freedom to choose.

After about two hours or so, each of the men in blue suits' men returned.

They had taken samples from all parts of the project. The next step was to ship them back for testing.

The third party testing agency also seemed to have finished taking the samples.

The man in the blue suit walked up to Ye Yunjie and gave a cold laugh, saying, 'Miss Ye, now that the samples have been taken, we will take them back for testing first. Are you eager to know the results?'

Ye Yunjie's face was breezy, she didn't seem to care about the other party's provocation, she just smiled coldly and said, 'Oh, nervous? I've already given my word that there won't be a single problem with the south of the city project, so why should I be nervous? I advise you to think about how you should explain to everyone when you turn around, if there is no problem with the test results, then how do you want to explain the failure of the concrete grade appraisal before?'

The other party bristled, seemingly a little unhappy, and waved his sleeves away, finally saying, 'That's out of your hands, I advise you to think about how to wrap up the next situation, because what comes next is probably going to be fun!'

'Oh? Is that so? Oh. We'll see then.' Ye Yunjie said, 'At three o'clock in the afternoon, I'm going to hold a press conference at the Grand Hyatt Hotel, and I hope that you will be able to come over with your test results at that time, and then we will all publish the results together to the public, but it doesn't matter if you don't come, because if you don't come, then from now on, no one in Chujiang will also trust you anymore, because people will only think that the so-called I'll see what you can do to shut up the mouth of the people!'

After she finished speaking, the corner of Ye Yunjie's mouth revealed a smug look.

Now, she was neither afraid that the other party would not come, nor was she afraid that the other party would come to the conference.

If they didn't come, then obviously, the result would be like what Ye Yunjie had just said, they would become street rats in Chujiang, not only would no one believe them. On the contrary, they will feel that they are deliberately making the South City project whole, and it is estimated that from now on, any firmness and proof issued by them will lose their credibility.

And if they came, it would be even more interesting. Ye Yunjie would like to see how this person would answer the questioning of that crowd of media then.

Because they were the ones who said that there was a problem with the quality of the City South project and that it needed to be temporarily suspended.

And Ye Yunjie was convinced that there would be no problems with the test results this time, so it was the man in the blue suit who was embarrassed.

How was he going to answer the questioning of others? How was he going to explain the unqualified engineering quality certificate that they had issued earlier?

Obviously, he couldn't explain it at all. And the more he couldn't explain, the funnier it would be.

Ye Yunjie looked at the other party and smiled, asking, 'What, you don't dare to come?'

The other party hesitated for a moment. He could not help but disdainfully skim his mouth, 'Don't dare? Oh, what's there to not dare, right? In fact, I would like to tell you not to trust yourself too much, because there is no guarantee that you will mess up at some point, so don't end up with a stone on your own feet, I am curious how you will end up then!'

As he finished speaking, the other man let out a long wail from the sky. One by one, he led the dozen or so people under his command into a few black cars, and then set off.

Ye Yunjie also sneered as she looked at the other party's distant sedan, her gaze abruptly becoming sharper by a few points.

'Oh, lifting a stone to smash your own feet? Is that a description of yourself?' Ye Yunjie murmured to herself in a low voice.

As soon as these people left, a figure immediately walked over from the side with quick steps.

This person was one of the members of the Lei group, a group leader and the one Ye Yunjie had called to spy on those people.

'Did they make any other small moves just now?' Ye Yunjie hurriedly asked.

What Ye Yunjie had actually been worried about was that these people would secretly play tricks. Or even more in exchange for the samples that went away.

So she had first gotten someone from Lei's group to monitor them, and later found that third party testing agency.

Ye Yunjie was of course also afraid that this third-party testing agency would be infiltrated, so to that person from Lei's group, she continued, 'You guys will go back with them later and keep an eye on the whole testing process.'

The man nodded heavily, glanced back at the dozen or so men behind him, walked over and ordered something in a low voice, and then followed the third-party testing agency's people to the car.

This was almost foolproof, even if the other party wanted to play tricks, there was nothing they could do.

Ye Yunjie turned around and got into the car. At this time, Jiang Hao had also long since returned to the car, but there still seemed to be some apprehension on his face.

'What, are you still nervous?' Ye Yunjie asked with a smile.

Jiang Hao shook his head, 'No, not nervous, just feeling ..... as if something is about to happen.'

Jiang Hao sighed. Scratching his head, he added, 'Hey, maybe I'm thinking too much, what else can happen now that we've reached this point? Let's go.'

Ye Yunjie nodded her head. The car was started and left the construction site straight away.

The duo headed straight for the Howlite Hotel, and when they arrived, Qiao San was already personally greeting the duo at the front door of the hotel.

'Welcome welcome. Welcome Jiang Shao and Miss Ye.' Qiao San said with a respectful accompanying smile.

Qiao San was always polite to Jiang Hao at all times, and Jiang Hao smiled at the other party and exchanged a few brief pleasantries.

Immediately afterwards, Ye Yunjie then spoke up and asked, 'How are the preparations for the launch going?'

When Qiao San heard this, he immediately became serious and said, 'Miss Ye, the preparations are almost ready, don't worry, this time, I have called almost all the media that Chu Jiang can call, and I have also dragged in the provincial No. 1 media to invite them as well, hehe, when the time comes, I will see how those guys will end up!'

Ye Yunjie nodded at his words, seemingly satisfied with the preparations Qiao San had made, 'Good, then take me and Jiang Shao to have a look.'

Qiao San nodded hastily and reached out to invite Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie to walk ahead of him, and he himself trotted three and two steps ahead to guide them towards the launch hall.

The launch hall was a temporary conversion of a banquet hall. Qiao San had all the banquet tables removed and replaced with rows of chairs, while at the front of the room was a row of tables with several staff setting up microphones and other equipment.

Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie looked around the launch hall, and the latter nodded in satisfaction, gave a brief instruction, and then went with Jiang Hao to the side room to rest.

Towards noon, Jiang Hao had a lunch, then Qiao San invited him to the guest room to rest for a while.

It was only half an hour before the launch that Jiang Hao came downstairs.

When Jiang Hao arrived at the bite sized launch hall, he realised that the large hall had long been filled with people.

Most of them were media, some of them were setting up their own equipment, while others were hotly discussing something.

Jiang Hao didn't listen carefully, but he could imagine that what these people were discussing was inevitably about the City South project.

Jiang Hao looked around and searched around before he found Ye Yunjie in a corner.

At this moment, Ye Yunjie was whispering something to a few people, looking a little nervous.

When she saw Jiang Hao, she hurriedly extended her hand and called him over.

'What's wrong Sister Ye?' Jiang Hao asked.

Ye Yunjie let out a long sigh and said, 'Young Jiang, something seems to have gone wrong .....
