

Chapter 459

The hull sliced through, the disc shattered by the waves above, scattering into a golden shard.

The sun shines on your face, and the light breeze blows on your face, a different kind of comfortable and cozy.

However, at that moment, a huge force came from behind.

The golden sunset sun pierced her eyes, and she couldn't see what was happening on the deck, only a blurred silhouette of a person wrapped in golden light.

"Pfft," she fell heavily into the sea, seawater overwhelmingly pouring in, into her ears, nose and throat, making her choke and almost faint.

Suddenly, something gripped my wrist.

Someone lifted her up by her waist and lifted her up hard.

Jenny struggled to open her eyes and saw a familiar figure, the overwhelming seawater blurring his features, but still allowing her to see the person in front of her.

Lu Jing-Shen, how could it be him?

She opened her mouth to ask him to let go, but as soon as her mouth opened, an endless sea of water poured in.

The strong bitter taste poured down her throat, making her several valleys yawning and unable to say anything at all.

She could only hold the hand that held her waist and shook her head desperately at him.

No! No! Leave her alone! Let's go!

However, the other side doesn't move at all.

He looked at her with such determination, like he wouldn't let go no matter what happened.

Little by little he dragged her upstream, and just as he was about to swim to the surface, a huge wave suddenly rolled in.

All she felt was a tremendous force hitting her straight from her chest and a spinning sky before her eyes, followed by a foul sweet taste spreading from her mouth.

And the strong hand that dragged at her waist loosened with it, and she looked down in horror, seeing in the dim light the man swept away by the sea.

He stared in horror and tried to reach out and grab him, but the man was already drifting far away and she couldn't catch him even if she tried her best.

She could only watch helplessly as he was swept away by the sea, falling into a deep darkness as the light grew dimmer.

"Ah!"

Jenny woke up with a startled scream.

She sat up in bed, breathing heavily and covered in a cold sweat.

The room was very quiet, and any remaining sounds were absent except for the very soft sound of the air purifier in the corner, and the even breathing of the man beside him.

She closed her eyes in fear, and when she opened them again, she was sure that the image in front of her was right, and that it had really just been a nightmare.

About as much as she was moving, the man next to her woke up in the end and reached out his arm to wrap it around her waist, his voice still with a hint of sleepy languor.

"What's wrong? Dreaming?"

Jenny Jing let out a long breath and whispered, "Nothing."

Biden Lu opened her eyes and looked at her quietly in the darkness.

Seemingly sensing that something was wrong with her, she braced herself and sat up slowly, cradling her in her arms.

"Don't be afraid, I'm here."

Jenny leaned against his chest, remembering the scene from the dream, and for some reason, knowing that it was a dream, but feeling that image was so familiar, so familiar as if it had been experienced before.

The immense fear that came over her heart caused her entire body to be caught in a moment of panic.

She clutched the man.

of the clothes and whispered, "Biden Lu."

"Well?"

"Do you think we would have actually met a long time ago?"

The people around him seemed to stiffen.

There was a long silence.

In the darkness, a pair of quiet eyes looked at her in deep complexity, yet Jenny was only caught up in her own emotions, not even noticing.

She just said to herself, "You know what? In fact, from the first time I saw you, I always thought you were familiar, like I'd seen you somewhere before."

Biden Lu's eyes sank a little and said, "Are you remembering something?"

Jenny shook his head.

She suddenly raised her face and looked at him innocently, "Biden Lu, do you think we would have been together in a previous life as well, because we felt we didn't get along with each other enough, that's why we agreed to continue to be together in this life as well, that's why I felt familiar when I first saw you."

Biden Lu was startled, momentarily dumb and somewhat cryptic.

But such a beautiful idea, of course, he could not bear to pierce, only nodded his head, softly: "Well, because the past is I have not loved you enough, so I have to continue to love you in this life, not only in this life and the next life, the next eight lifetimes we will continue to be together, so Mrs. Lu your next eight lifetimes I have booked, will you agree to this promise?"

Jenny Jing was startled to look into his eyes, those deep eyes were so affectionate that even through the not-so-obvious light, he could clearly perceive his intentions.

She smiled slowly, the fear that had been in her heart finally dissipating somewhat because of the man's words.

She put her head close to his chest, hugged him around the waist, and said firmly, "I promise you that we'll be together for the next eight lifetimes, and that you'll be responsible for coming to me, and if you don't find me, I will."

Biden Lu laughed out softly and nodded his head.

"Okay, I'll come to you."

After they cuddled and rested for a while longer, Jenny picked up his phone and looked at the time, realizing that it was actually getting late.

6:00 AM sharp.

She happened to be out of sleep, so she let go of him and said, "Go back to sleep, I'll get up and walk."

Unexpectedly, Biden Lu shook his head.

"No, I've had enough sleep."

Last night the two of them fooled around for a while and ended up going to bed early, so Jenny didn't say anything else when he saw them.

After getting up and washing up, about the time Mo Nan and Vicky were still resting, so they were not disturbed.

Jenny Jing checked Biden Lu's body temperature and found that it had completely returned to normal, so he only needed to wait until the nurse came in at eight o'clock to change the medicine for his wounds.

Seeing that he was in good shape, they went downstairs together and took a short walk around the downstairs lawn to get some fresh air.

Walked until 8 o'clock before returning to the room.

After the nurse came to change Biden Lu's medicine, Mo Nan walked in from the outside.

"President, Ma'am, there's news from there, Scar will be here at 3:00 this afternoon."

Jenny nodded, "Okay, go make arrangements and we'll go over there this afternoon."

Mo Nan nodded yes and turned to leave.

Not long after she left, she didn't expect Kepler to come over.

Kepler returned to F for two days, and after taking care of a few things, he returned to the country.

Jenny was still a little surprised when she saw him and said, "Didn't you say you were going back? Why are you here again so soon?"

Chapter 460

When Kepler returned at first, he only told them that he had business to attend to, not that it was a private matter.

So he just said lightly, "It happened to be over here when things were done."

He paused and looked at Biden Lu.

"How about it, any news from there?"

Biden Lu looked at him and said in a deep voice, "Today at 3pm."

Kepler frowned, "3:00 pm?"

He thought about it and said, "I'll accompany you there then."

Jenny heard the words and subconsciously wanted to refuse, although with Nina Hua's prior explanation, she was still reluctant to trouble Kepler more.

Unexpectedly, before the words of rejection were said, I heard Biden Lu nod his head and agree, "Good."

She looked at Biden Lu, and since the other party had agreed, she naturally silently took back the words of rejection.

Since they had an appointment to go over together at 3pm, Kepler didn't stay much longer.

After making an appointment to wait for him to come over before leaving, he left soon after.

It was only after Kepler left that Jenny Jing was puzzled and asked, "Why did you ask him to accompany us?"

Biden Lu held her hand and said softly: "This is after all the territory of the Jin family, Kepler is the future heir of the Jin family, this area will belong to him sooner or later.

While it's fine for a few of us to go to that place in Dragon Fight, you're still pregnant, so some trouble can be avoided."

Jenny thought about it, knowing that he was thinking of himself as a precautionary measure, so he agreed without saying anything else.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, Kepler came over as promised, and the five of them set off together in the car.

At the dragon fight, because of Zhang Quan's help, a few people soon saw the legendary Scarface.

Perhaps it was because Zhang Quan had told him in advance that Jenny wanted to see him, so the other party was not surprised to see the group of them, and only sat in their chairs and watched them idly.

"Heh, rare guests, not only the young master of the Jin family is here, even Mr. Lu is here, it's humble to have so many distinguished guests today in Dragon Fighter."

Obviously, Scarface had checked out their backgrounds before they arrived.

After all, this was F country, and the other party was from the Zijin family, so it wasn't surprising that there would be such an action from Jenny and the others.

The group sat down on the couch, and Kepler was used to being straightforward, so he didn't bullshit with him.

Directly in a quiet voice, "Since you know us, you should know that what we came here to try to do is not something you can fix, call the people behind you to come out and meet us."

Scar narrowed his eyes and smiled meaningfully.

"You're making it difficult for me, this casino is owned by me, there's nothing behind it, I'm afraid Jin is in the wrong place if he wants to find someone behind it, right?"

"Don't you bullshit me!"

Seeing that Kepler was about to get angry, he was stopped by Biden Lu.

There was no unnecessary expression on his face, just a calm look at Scarface, his tone flat.

"We need to see the Zygons."

Scarface looked at him and frowned slightly.

"I don't understand what you're talking about."

"Heh, looks like you need us to get on a bit to understand?"

Kepler's voice grew colder, Scarface is used to rampaging through the side, where can he withstand such repeated provocations and knocks?

He came to his feet and said in a cold voice, "Although the Jin family is very powerful in the F country, it is not all hands on deck, Jin Shao wants to

It's just not that easy to do to me, is it?"

However, as soon as the voice fell silent, a shadow of a person quickly passed in front of the eyes, and in the next second, two hands were lifted up and carried behind the back, only to hear a "clattering" sound.

Mo Nan's cold voice came from behind his ear.

"Now do you still think it's not easy?"

Scarface didn't think they would actually do anything without a word, and his face turned angry.

A moment of anger and fear.

"What do you want to do? I'm warning you, this is a dragon fight, and even if you hurt me now, you won't get out of here."

Biden Lu faintly swept a glance at him.

There was obviously little expression on his face, but Scarface saw in that glance a fierceness and coldness like an icy blade.

"Since we dared to come today, we naturally have something to fall back on, so you don't need to doubt our guts, but for the sake of your little life, whether or not the Zijin family is willing to make enemies of the Lu Jin family, that's what you should consider."

Scarface's face instantly went white.

He really saw that if he got real, Biden Lu really had the strength and courage to take him out.

He was silent for a moment, looked across at a few people, and said coldly, "What do you want with him, anyway?"

Jenny Jing spoke out coldly, "This is none of your business, just tell us where he is."

Scarface frowned.

For a moment, gritted teeth, "I don't know."

"Heh!"

Mo Nan smirked and took his wrist with a hard grip.

Scarface went pale, almost sweating in pain.

"I really don't know, although people like us look like we're in charge of one side, but in reality we're just pawns working for them, we can't even find out where they are, if you really don't believe me, you can send someone to squat here, as for when we can squat, that's not up to me to say."

The crowd heard that he should be telling the truth this time, so they didn't embarrass him anymore.

"Well, we'll trust you for once and hope you're not lying to us."

She said, and the group stood up.

"We'll leave first today, but there's one more thing I'd like to trouble you with, if anyone from the Zijin family comes over, just tell him that Guan Jiwan's old friends are coming over to see him, he'll understand."

Scarface frowned, seemingly puzzled.

However, the Kepler standing beside him had eyes that flickered a little.

Scarface asked, "Who is Guan Jiwan?"

Jenny Jing looked indifferent.

"You don't need to know, just bring the word."

Once the group had finished giving their instructions, they had no intention of staying longer and turned to walk out.

Scarface didn't stop them either, which was a hidden relief after seeing the group leave.

On the other hand, as soon as Jenny Jing and Biden Lu's group walked out of the dragon fight, they saw a black Maybach stopping not far away.

The car door opened and first four bodyguards descended, followed by a middle-aged man before getting out of the car surrounded by a crowd of stars.

Several people's eyes narrowed at the sight of him.

Gods and streamers?

Zhuge Liuyong apparently saw them as well and came this way with a smile on his face.

"I haven't seen you for a while, I didn't expect to run into you in a foreign country, it's fate, you guys don't have to leave so early today, since you're here you might as well sit for a while longer, how about it?"

Chapter 461

Everyone was stunned at that, and they couldn't help but look at each other.

Because Biden Lu and Zhuge Liufeng had long known each other, and could even be said to be quite friendly.

They could have asked him for help with this visit to F, but because it involved Old K, the relationship between several groups was too complicated and their interests were entwined.

Later on, the Institute did not inform, firstly, for fear that the other party would be embarrassed, and secondly, for fear that if the Zijin family was really involved, informing Zhuge Liuyong in advance would not only fail to help, but would also easily spook the snake and allow the other party to cover up the facts, thus this is why he did not tell him.

Since the other party had already said so at this point, Biden Lu naturally wasn't in a position to reject it out of hand.

So only faintly declined, "No, we have important things to do, over but just a casual turn, so I won't bother much."

Zhuge Liufeng smiled faintly.

"I already know your important matters, and you don't need to bother looking for that person, I am the man behind the curtain as you call him, the de facto boss of this dragon fight."

The crowd was shaken again.

Ten minutes later, the group returned to the room they had just left and settled back down again.

This time, Scarface saw them, not only by surprise, but also with a hint of caution and caution.

"Sir..." he whispered to Zhuge Liuyuan, however the latter didn't say anything, just waved his hand and let him go down.

He turned and looked at the few people in front of him.

That gentle, elegant face had a gentle smile.

"I've pretty much understood what you've been up to this time, but I might as well be honest and say that while I've thought about doing something about him, that man wasn't killed by one of our own in the end."

Jenny frowned.

"Not you guys?"

"Right."

From a drawer in a nearby desk, he removed a file and placed it in front of them.

"You see, this copy is the real Redbud pattern, while this one is the one on your friend, and although the two patterns look identical at first glance, the direction this petal is off in is diametrically opposed."

A few people took a serious look at it and found that it was true.

The pattern above is very similar, but if you look closely you'll see that one petal is to the left and the other to the right.

Jenny didn't tighten her eyebrows.

"You said earlier that you had thought about doing something to him, may I ask what it was?"

At the mention of this, Zhuge Liuyong hesitated slightly.

After all, this kind of thing should be a secret within the organization and could not easily be told.

But he looked at Jenny, and after only a slight hesitation, he still said, "Because of a shooting, when an important member of our team was assassinated, all the spear clues pointed to that friend of yours.

Upon investigation, it was found that only he had been in a very heated dispute with him racing a few days before. The other thing is that there was also some interest in the situation, so I was tempted to kill at the time to give the people down there an explanation.

But later on, after checking, it turned out to be a misunderstanding, and just as I was about to deliver the order to go down and have them call off the operation, I found out that that friend of yours, Old K, had been killed accidentally.

In the end, it's too coincidental from any angle, so I suspect that the other party knew through some channel that we wanted to take action, so they deliberately picked this moment.

The nodes do it so they can frame us."

His tone and attitude were so sincere that Jenny actually couldn't see any signs of lying.

She could only turn her head to look at Biden Lu.

Biden Lu said after a slight pause, "Since you've already found out about these things, you must also be aware that just a short while ago someone from within your ranks had made a move on me..."

Before he could finish his words, he was interrupted by Zhuge Liuyuan.

"I know about this. I'm going to apologize here, this whole thing was actually a misunderstanding in the end."

Jenny's face instantly went cold.

"A misunderstanding? It's too perfunctory to lay a deadly hand on someone like that and now say it's just a misunderstanding!"

Zhuge Liuyu looked at her angry face and was in no hurry, waiting for her to finish before explaining, "It was indeed a misunderstanding, if I had known that it was you guys that night, I would never have issued this order to them."

Jenny was stunned and frowned, "That night?"

"Yes." Zhuge Liuyuan nodded, "At first I didn't know you guys had come to F country. You intentionally concealed your identities, and I didn't pay attention, but one night I heard a report from one of my men that a mysterious force had come here and was still investigating the Zijin family's affairs.

I was worried that the other side would be those people, so I just gave the order, if you do not check okay, as long as the first check, immediately first move to be stronger, one to kill the other side of the idea, and the second is also considered to knock the mountain tiger.

But I didn't think it would be you guys who made the mistake, and I actually regretted it after it happened, but I gave the order, so for whatever reason, I can't absolve myself of responsibility.

If you blame me for this, I have no complaints. I don't have a problem with whatever you want to pursue."

Jenny had never expected this matter to be such a black dragon.

Although Zhuge Liuyong had explained it clearly, it was a fact that Biden Lu was injured, and she still had a lot of dissatisfaction in her heart.

At this time, Scarface also came in from outside.

He looked at Jenny and said with a cold face, "This order was given by me, the Lord just ordered me, and I was also the one who didn't inform Xiaquan in time to withdraw my order, so you can blame me if you want.

Whatever the punishment, I'm willing to take the blame."

Jenny Jing sneered, "Just you? Do you think you can afford it just because you say you can?"

Seeing that she was about to get angry, Biden Lu raised his hand and pressed it against hers.

He looked towards Zhuge Liuyong and said in a soft voice, "Mr. Zhuge, I can let this matter go for now, but you must tell me the clues you have in your hands right now."

Zhuce Liuyong froze, raised an eyebrow at him, and then laughed.

"Worthy of being Biden Lu, I thought this matter could be hidden from you, but I didn't expect that you would still be able to detect it."

Biden Lu faintly picked his lips and said in a light voice, "Since you already know that someone is deliberately framing the Zijin Family and is intent on stirring up hatred between the Dragon Corps and the Zhuge Family, you naturally won't let things go on like this, even if you don't do anything, you should at least find out who the person is who is doing it to you behind the scenes."

Zhuce Liufeng nodded, "You're right, I am indeed looking into this matter, no matter what purpose the other party is reporting, it's not a good intention after all."

"Over the years, we and the Dragon Corps have been in the same range, but we've always been on the same side of the well, and have never had a problem with each other."
