

Super Rich Dad Chapter 467-468

Chapter 467

Obviously, Jiang Hao was naturally considered a total loser at this point, and this Feng Da engineer was really a bit angry as to why these people would applaud Jiang Hao.

As soon as his words were finished, the short-haired female reporter just then sneered and said, 'Perhaps he is a true villain. But that's better than being a hypocrite!'

Having said that, the female reporter left the conference venue handsomely, while the others also hurriedly followed suit.

In a short while, all the media present had almost left, leaving Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie with a group of men, as well as that Feng engineer and a few subordinates.

It was obvious. The female reporter's words just now had made the arrogant engineer Feng feel very embarrassed.

But the person who had annoyed him had already left, and he looked at Jiang Hao. It seemed that he felt he had found an object to vent his anger on.

He sneered and said, 'I really didn't expect that, so the one running the show behind the City South project is just a little kid?'

The other party's tone was so contemptuous that he obviously did not even put Jiang Hao in his eyes.

Jiang Hao laughed coldly and said in return, 'You think you've won?'

The other party laughed, 'Of course, I've already won, haven't I? I'll leave you some time to think about what you should do next!'

After he finished speaking, he took a step and walked towards the outside of the release hall.

Looking at the other party's back, Jiang Hao gritted his teeth. His eyes were still cold.

The other party was indeed right, and now, he should really think about how he was going to save this mess on his hands.

At this moment, Ye Yunjie also walked up to Jiang Hao, she looked incomparably lost, as if this matter had hit her so hard that Jiang Hao could feel that the Ye Yunjie at this moment seemed to be very different from the past.

'You shouldn't have stood up for yourself, this all stemmed from my blind arrogance, six should have let me bear the consequences myself!' Ye Yunjie said.

Jiang Hao twisted his head to look at Ye Yunjie and snorted, 'Letting you bear the consequences yourself? So that I can be a big man hiding behind you? Oh, I can't do it!'

Jiang Hao sighed and rushed towards Ye Yunjie, 'Alright. Since things have come to this, it doesn't matter anymore who's right and who's wrong, it's clear that both you and I have underestimated our opponent too much, he's far more terrifying than you and I could have imagined.'

Jiang Hao frowned and fell into a moment of contemplation, before looking up and saying, 'Can you tell now, exactly where the problem lies?'

Ye Yunjie shook her head in discouragement and said, 'To be honest, I don't know either. Because all along, the Chengnan project has been secretly supervised by Xiaorou, so if there were some small mistakes it would be justifiable. But this is a third of the project failing, even a blind man can see that something is wrong, so how could Xiao Rou not have noticed?'

'Hey, it's all my fault, maybe I trusted her too much, Xiao Rou is still too young.' Ye Yunjie glanced at Jiang Hao. Said, 'Jiang Shao, although Xiaorou is greatly responsible for this incident, the main responsibility is still on me, so I hope you can let Xiaorou go, as for how to deal with me. I don't have any opinion, because I asked for everything

Ye Yunjie looked like she was going out of her way, as if she had already prepared for the worst.

Only Jiang Hao shook his head, 'I've said it all, now is not the time to hold anyone responsible, what we need to do now is to find out where the problem actually lies, obviously, with such a big problem, there must be a problem within our project or an inside ghost, if we don't find it now, the consequences are unthinkable.'

Ye Yunjie nodded her head repeatedly at her words. She was stunned to find that at this moment, she and Jiang Hao seemed to have come to a big switch in position.

In the past, Jiang Hao was like a schoolboy. He obeyed his own advice at every turn.

At this moment, when she encountered this situation, Ye Yunjie felt as if she had become so incompetent. Her mind was a muddle.

Jiang Hao, on the other hand, had become clear-minded and wise and decisive.

In response to Jiang Hao's decision, Ye Yunjie could only nod her head. Following his instructions.

Suddenly, Jiang Hao looked around and suddenly frowned and asked, 'Hey? Where's Xiao Rou? Didn't she come today?'

Ye Yunjie shook her head, 'I don't know, normally, she has to be present for this kind of occasion, but I haven't seen her from start to finish today.'

Ye Yunjie hurriedly took out her mobile phone and made a call to Ye Xiaorou, but to her dismay, the call didn't end up being answered either.

'What's going on? This is the first time she's been like this.' Ye Yunjie couldn't help but get a little nervous.

She looked at the time and made another call, which still didn't get picked up.

A sense of foreboding rose in Ye Yunjie's heart.

Obviously, the fact that Ye Xiaorou was not answering her phone and could not be reached must have something to do with today's events, otherwise how could this coincidence be explained?

Such an important occasion she was not there, the phone was not answered, and the work she was responsible for had such a major problem at this moment.

'Could it be that she really

Ye Yunjie murmured in a low voice, seeming to think of something, but quickly swallowed her words back, she had just thought of this possibility, and the more she could not contact Ye Xiaorou, Ye Yunjie felt her suspicions, the stronger they became.

Chapter 468

'What's wrong with her?' Jiang Hao heard Ye Yunjie's muttering to herself and hurriedly asked, 'Could she be related to this matter?'

In fact, once this matter came out, the first person Jiang Hao suspected was Ye Xiaorou.

However, since she was Ye Yunjie's younger sister, Jiang Hao could only keep her suspicions to himself. Now that Ye Yunjie had said this herself, Jiang Hao simply followed up with the question.

Ye Yunjie glanced at Jiang Hao and faintly shook her head: 'I don't know, but she's a bit abnormal today.'

'What if

Ye Yunjie suddenly looked at Jiang Hao with hopeful eyes and asked with some hesitation. 'Jiang Shao, if this matter is related to Xiao Rou, can you you let her off the hook?'

These words were spoken by Ye Yunjie through clenched teeth. She was a person with strong self-esteem, and when faced with this situation that she had created, and at this time she had to say such words, Ye Yunjie simply wanted to burrow through a crack in the ground.

But she was clear that the more such a time came, the more she could not retreat.

The responsibility for the south of the city project is her own, but Ye Xiaorou is her own sister ah, to protect her is still her own responsibility.

'If if it is possible, I am willing to give my life in exchange for Xiaorou's mettle

Ye Yunjie spoke in a low tone.

Jiang Hao frowned at the words, his heart secretly sighed, he did not promise Ye Yunjie anything, just quietly looked at her.

'Now is not the time to talk about this, it's better to think about it now, how to deal with the matter at hand.' Jiang Hao deliberately digressed from the topic. Not willing to answer this question from Ye Yunjie.

Of course, he didn't want Ye Yunjie to get into trouble, and that was exactly why he had stepped forward to block the knife for Ye Yunjie.

Jiang Hao knew very well in his heart that he could not leave Ye Yunjie now, both in public and in private.

Although she was nominally his subordinate, more often than not, Ye Yunjie was more like his teacher, like a sister.

She always defends herself at the most critical moments, and suddenly appears when she needs her most to resolve a crisis.

Jiang Hao was a man of great affection and justice, and he remembered everything Ye Yunjie had done for him in the past, and he felt that these things were heavy in his heart.

The more he thought about this, the more Jiang Hao himself understood that he could not see Ye Yunjie make any mistakes.

Jiang Hao thought about it and suddenly a sentence came out of his mouth, 'Sister Ye, I hope there are problems. We can all bear the burden together.'

Jiang Hao's words suddenly caused Ye Yunjie to freeze for a moment, obviously the words were somewhat inconsistent.

But Ye Yunjie fiercely felt a warm current run deep within herself, feeling a hint of unspeakable emotion.

She didn't say anything, just nodded slightly.

Only then did Jiang Hao continue: 'I need you to pull yourself together as soon as possible now, you are someone who has experienced big scenes, I don't want you to sink in the face of such a setback. There's still a lot of work that will be done by you in the future yet, I need you, we all need you, do you understand what I mean? Sister Ye.'

Hearing these words, Ye Yunjie only felt her eyes burning hot. There seemed to be a warm current flowing in the bottom of her own eyes.

She almost forced herself to hold it back and finally nodded heavily, turning her head to the side.

Ye Yunjie sighed. Slightly closing her eyes, a crystal teardrop slipped from the corner of her eye, followed by a handful of tears that she wiped away.

Ye Yunjie took a deep breath and when she opened her eyes again, it was as if she had once again changed back to her original form.

Her gaze was once again cold and proud, resolute. The sharpness seemed to carry an edge.

Yes, Jiang Hao had already said these words, so how could she not pull herself together?

Ye Yunjie rushed to the bathroom and fiercely slapped her face with cold water.

She felt as if she was a red-hot iron that had cooled down a lot.

Ye Yunjie looked at herself in the mirror and pondered for a moment. Finally walking back quickly, there seemed to be a little more fortitude in her stride.

'Feeling better?' Jiang Hao asked as he looked at Ye Yunjie.

The latter nodded, looked at the empty launch site, and rushed to a few of her men at the side, 'Now you go and inform all the engineering contractors that tomorrow morning at seven o'clock, still at the Grand Hyatt Hotel, I want to hold a general meeting!'

Ye Yunjie looked at Jiang Hao and continued, 'In fact, it seems to be certain now that there is a mole among these contractors, so now that things have come to this, I think there is no need for us to be merciful to these insiders anymore. Let's just find them and make them all pay the price one by one!'

In fact, without Ye Yunjie saying it, it was clear to everyone that this was the case.

Whether it was Jiang Hao or herself. Both were investors in the project, and the problem with the quality of the project definitely lay with these engineering contractors.

And it was almost certain. These people were deliberately tampering with the quality of the project.

Such people taking their own money but doing things that disgusted them could not be spared no matter what.

And there were not many roads left in front of Ye Yunjie and Jiang Hao now.

The steps they had to take now were also simple. Find the mole, and then remove the mole. The next step was to consider how to push the project back and rebuild it.

And since the promise had already been made, they had to keep it.

Both Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie must admit that they have already lost in this round.

All they could do was to try to recover their losses and hopefully turn defeat into victory in the next round.

In the evening, Ye Yunjie urgently asked her men to inform all the project contractors of the City South project about the meeting tomorrow, and then she plunged into a suite in the Grand Hyatt Hotel and did not come out for a long time.

Ye Yunjie sat in front of the window, a box of cigarettes, an ashtray and a lighter in her hand, while her mobile phone was always in her hand.

Today's incident had obviously dealt her a big blow.

She had thought that she had already won, but she did not want it to end in her own defeat.

In the past, Ye Yunjie had experienced life and death situations, but in her mind, even what happened then was far less humiliating than what happened today.

She had always felt that she had been by Shen Haoting's side for so many years and had experienced so many storms and dangers that even if someone wanted to set her up, she would be able to easily get rid of the project in the south of the city.

But only then did she realise that it was her own arrogance that had ultimately ruined her and the City South project.

The more she thought about it, the more she felt a sense of helplessness and guilt.

She was indeed too ashamed of Jiang Hao and Shen Haoting, and she had been too presumptuous, losing herself and others in the end.

And what Ye Yunjie couldn't let go of the most at this time was her own sister.
