

Noble Husband At the Door Chapter 469

Strong!

Really strong!

This boy brought pressure to Samuel. It was as though Yan Jun was standing in front of him.

" You piece of garbage, yet you attempt retaliate for him?" That individual claimed to Samuel.

" Can we make good friends with each other?" It would certainly not be good information for Samuel to end up being an opponent of such a solid adversary. It would certainly be the very best thing to attract him over to his side.

However, he didn't appear to have any type of objective of doing so. He grinned contemptuously and also stated, "Make close friends with garbage like you? I'm sorry, I'm not interested."

After that, he browsed at the spectators stand and said, "That else is here to burglarize me of these 100,000 yuan?"

Last evening, when he was battling versus Saber Twelve, most of the target market was present. They had actually seen just how effective he was. Who risked to eliminate right now?

" Since there is no person, you should provide me the money, right?" The man said to the manager.

The manager glanced at Samuel. When he saw Samuel nodding, he said, "I'll go obtain the cash for you as soon as possible."

Samuel returned to the fighter's lounge backstage. There was nothing unusual on the surface of his hands, but the burning discomfort did not vanish whatsoever. Luckily, he needed to bear the force with his hands. If he had punched, he would have been in the plaster for a week.

" Brother Samuel, he left after taking the money." After a while, the supervisor concerned the lounge and stated to Samuel.

Samuel nodded. People like him were not just after money, yet likewise for various other functions.

" Have you sent somebody to follow him?" Samuel asked.

" I have actually sent out someone to follow him last evening, however he has a strong feeling of anti-tracking. I don't assume there will be any type of outcomes this evening," the supervisor said.

Samuel claimed with a dismal face, "I'll attempt my finest. I hope he's not coming for us. Otherwise, we'll remain in big trouble."

After relaxing for a while, Samuel left the boxing place and went to the hospital to clarify the scenario to Saber Twelve.

Saber Twelve was not amazed that Samuel would lose. He knew that there was not much difference between their toughness. Since he had lost so easily, there was no other way that Samuel would certainly win.

" Brother Samuel, do you think a male like him would lack cash?" asked Saber Twelve.

" I understand what you suggest. I will certainly locate a way to figure out his identification asap." Samuel stated.

Saber Twelve responded as well as sighed. "Where did we prompt this master? He's so irregular."

Samuel considered him with a bitter smile. If someone wished to retaliate on him, it was extremely feasible that it would be Luo Container. Nevertheless, if one thought about it meticulously, it did not seem likely. Offered Luo Bin's conceited character, if he really located such a professional, just how could he disappoint up?

Furthermore, the dispute in between he and Luo Bin started at Tian Changsheng. Even if he wanted to make trouble, he needs to go to the martial arts club of Tian Changsheng.

On the top floor of Peninsula Hotel, 2 people, a guy and also a woman, waited the window in the governmental suite. Judging from their backs, they looked extremely young. The lady was using glasses. If Samuel had actually seen them, he would certainly have been very shocked, since she was Qi Yiyun, while the man close to her was a young man that was battling with Samuel in the ring.

"Donghao, in Cloud City, is there anything for you to miss?" Qi Yiyun pushed the framework as well as asked.

The man called Donghao looked at Qi Yiyun obsessively, with a strong sense of love in his eyes.

"What exists to miss in a location where garbage is accumulated? As long as you're right here, it's heaven for me." Donghao did not hide his love in all.

Qi Yiyun was stagnated by Donghao's words. Her eyes were detached as she stated, "You're not qualified to transform my preferences."

After saying this, Qi Yiyun turned her head, removed her glasses, checked out Donghao, and also continued, "Don't forget your position. You're simply a slave."

Donghao decreased his head. Although there was unwillingness in his eyes, he did not risk to withstand at all. He claimed, "Miss, I know."

"Samuel is really interesting. Can you find out who he is?" Qi Yiyun asked.

"I have actually already fulfilled him. He's just an item of garbage." Donghao claimed disdainfully.
