When Mark said this, he slowly raised his footsteps.

Step by step, stepping up the steps, approaching in the direction of Chu Qitian.

With the gradual improvement of Mark's body, Mark's originally sluggish momentum has also gradually increased.

Sensing the change in Mark's breath, Chu Qitian's face suddenly changed, "You guy, have you been keeping your strength?"

When Mark heard this, a smile appeared on his delicate face.

It was a smile of a successful plan, a kind of arrogance with a well-thought-out plan.

"Did you just find out now?"

"I can only say that you are too conceited."

"I'm so conceited that I'm seeing my reality now."

Mark shook his head and said.

Since ancient times, arrogant soldiers will be defeated.

This Chu Qitian never liked Mark from the very beginning.

He only regards Mark as a dog skin plaster with relatively tenacious vitality.

Therefore, from the beginning to the end, Chu Qitian did not pay enough attention to Mark.

Mark's resistance before was only considered as his dying struggle, his stubborn resistance.

However, how could he know that the battle just now was actually just paving the way for this moment by Mark.

“Different Demon, you are very strong, indeed very strong.”

“Over the years, you can be said to be the strongest opponent I have ever met.”

“If in the beginning, you and I attack with all our strength, in a life-and-death battle, the loser must be me.”

“But unfortunately, you made a fatal mistake.”

“That is, you see me too humble, you see me, Brian Chu, as too small!”

“If you had used all your strength to deal with me from the very beginning, by now, I should have been lying on this Kunlun Mountain forever.”

“But you didn’t.”

“You just used the power you thought could kill me to deal with me.”

“Because you want to preserve your strength and go to heaven again.”

“However, how would you know that it is because of your holding back that you gave me a chance.”

“Give me a chance to breathe, and also give me a chance to continue my strength.”

Mark’s words were faint, and there was a distant and frightening light in those deep eyes.

Chapter 4693

It’s like a giant dragon lying on a high mountain, looking into the distance.

Yes, in the previous battle, the strange demon didn’t use all his strength, and neither did Mark.

Most of the time, Mark was passively beaten by relying on the thunder dragon body.

While being beaten, Mark's body was running crazily and fainted, absorbing strength and keeping a low profile.

Of course, while doing this, Mark also used Yunyang Nine Steps to consume Chu Qitian's strength.

It is precisely in this situation of ebb and flow that the gap between Mark and the strange demon is also getting closer little by little.

Until now, Mark felt that it was time.

It's time to start the final battle.

On the fairy road, Mark's words echoed slowly.

When Chu Qitian heard this, his face became more and more gloomy.

Until the end, the torrential anger turned into endless chill and murderous intent.

"Well, you brat, you actually plotted against me!"

"Playing with me?"

"However, do you really think that you can defeat me with these tricks?"

"I tell you!"

"No matter how many schemes you have, no matter how powerful you are, you are still Little Doyle."

"Your heretics are vulnerable under the majesty of this deity!"

"The only use is nothing more than to live a little longer."

Chu Qitian said in a cold voice, the rolling sound was like thunder.

"Yeah?"

"Then let's wait and see."

Mark looked calm.

Not the slightest bit of tension and fear can be seen on the delicate face.

Instead, it became calmer than ever before.

It's like a deep spring, an ancient well.

No matter how big the storm was, it didn't cause any waves in his heart.

Is it because of self-confidence? Because the odds are in your hands?

of course not!

What Yimo said just now is very correct. His little tricks, in the face of power, are after all just trails.

The only use is to tilt the balance of victory slightly in Mark's direction.

As for victory and defeat, life and death

All this is still unknown to Mark.

Even, to be honest, even in this situation, Mark, the winning team, is still slim.

Before coming, Wan'er had warned Mark.

Strange demons belong to extraterritorial life.

This kind of creature that does not come from the earth has strength and strength far beyond common sense.

If Mark chooses to compete with it, it is very likely that tonight's battle will be his last.

That's why Duanmu Wan'er was reluctant to let Mark take the risk alone.

However, even so, Mark still did not hesitate, and chose the road to heaven!

How was the final battle?

So what if there are ten deaths and no life?

Rather than sit and wait for death, it is better to give up your life.

Mark has lost too much in his life.

He didn't want to lose An Qi, no one else.

"It seems that you insist on begging to die?"

"Brian Chu, you really think about it."

"If you retreat at this time, even after I open the gate of heaven, I can still guarantee that I will not move you at all!"

"Even more, I can assure you that neither your Noifork nor your Yanxia will be touched at all!"

The strange demon didn't seem to want to fight Mark.

These lowly earthlings are not qualified to let them take their lives for gambling.

What's more, he still wants to save his strength and knock on the gate of heaven.

Therefore, if the current strange demon can avoid the battle with Mark, then try to avoid it as much as possible.

Mark smiled, "This is the end of the matter, don't you think it's too much to ask these questions?"

"Okay!" Chu Qitian sneered all his life, "Brian Chu, since you are determined to die, today, this deity will do as you wish!"

"Even today, if I don't climb this immortal path, if I don't knock on this gate of heaven, this deity will kill you!"

Huh~

The wind was fierce, and the sound exploded

Chapter 4695

The strange demon in front of him was finally completely enraged by Mark.

Without any hold back, the full power of the strange demon also exploded at this moment.

Everyone saw that Chu Qitian's thin figure was swollen at a frightening speed.

Those tendons and blood vessels like pythons surfaced in the body.

On the original human skin, bloody scales resembling dragon scales appeared.

The ancient and obscure sound of burning singing reverberated even more.

After thousands of years, the strange demon finally showed its fangs again.

A battle that spanned the ages, once again, between the Chu family and the strange demons, unfolded!

The final battle is finally about to begin.

At this moment, the whole world is silent.

Ye Qingtian was not talking, and Aaron, Carlo and others just looked into the distance in silence.

In the land of Noirfork, Ericson Li, Lei Lao San and others are full of respect.

In the old house of the Chu family, the old lady Chu hugged Chu Lin tightly, and hugged the fire seed Mark left in the world.

Tang Yun's brows were flushed, and the thin figure on her face was reflected in her tear-filled pupils.

In the land of Gritsberg, Xu Lei's tears could not stop flowing.

She hates it!

Hate my incompetence!

She hated every time, when his brother Mark was facing a life-and-death battle, she could only watch.

She hates it even more!

Hate this cruel fate!

Why?

Why does his brother Mark have to bear it alone every time there is a catastrophe!

Why some people are born at ease and enjoy wealth and glory all their lives.

Only his elder brother Mark, who had a miserable life experience, experienced hardships all his life.

“Sister Yueyao, Mark, he will win, right?” Nuoya choked up and asked in the land of India.

Yueyao’s beautiful eyes were full of worry, but she nodded with tears in her eyes, “Yes, I will definitely win.”

Although, the battle hasn’t started yet.

However, when some people stand in front of the storm, it is enough to make people burst into tears!

Just because, behind him, there are hundreds of millions of people.

He stood at the forefront of life and death for the sake of all mankind!

At the top of Kunlun, the fairy road leads to the sky.

The quaint Excalibur fell like an angel with broken wings.

Inserted horizontally between the earth!

In the eye, there are ruins and ravines.

Everything in front of me is like the end.

Who can believe that the Kunlun Mountains, this forbidden area for life and human beings, will one day become a place of decisive battle that determines the life and death of the world and the survival of the world!

At the foot of the mountain, Ye Qingtian and the others stared intently at the front.

Juggernaut and others, although their minds were controlled.

But already seriously injured, they dragged their bodies and leaned against the boulder, watching the battle ahead with a blank expression.

It's like life and death, everything has nothing to do with them.

On the top of the fairy road, two figures stood facing each other.

One of the figures had red hair in a blood robe, and scarlet scales filled his whole body, burning like a flame.

The terrifying power stands between the Milky Way, like a sun, shining forever!

That intimidating power makes people look at it from a distance, and they only feel terrifying and awe-inspiring.

Ye Qingtian and others were 10,000 meters away, but the terrifying coercion from the strange demon still made it difficult for them to breathe.

They really couldn't believe what kind of pressure Mark was under when standing in front of him.

On the other hand, he was wearing thin clothes.

Although the thin body was covered with bloodstains, it still stood there straight, like a spear standing upright.

Finally, is it the last moment?

Mark was mentally prepared for this battle.

I thought that he would be excited and nervous when facing such a terrifying powerhouse like the strange demon.

But when this time really came, Mark found himself surprisingly calm.

Perhaps, is used to it.

I am used to the battle of life and death, and I am used to facing invincible enemies.

Therefore, at such critical moments, Mark behaved more calmly.

Calm, like still water.

It is precisely because of this calmness that Mark's mind has reached unprecedented concentration.

At this moment, almost all the cells in Mark's body were serving for the next battle.

Mark clearly felt that in the dantian, the operation of Yun Dao Tian Jue had reached an unprecedented smoothness.

The torrential energy is like a deep sea, surging and surging among Mark's limbs and bones!

Chapter 4697

The thing called power cheered and howled in Mark's body.

And Mark's entire aura is like a raging fire, burning blazingly!

On the other side, Chu Qitian's energy storage seems to have been completed.

He opened his hands, stretching out a scarlet field beside him with infinite strength.

When viewed from a distance, the sky behind him was almost blood-colored.

At the same time, the singing of the strange demon ended.

I saw him stomp his feet violently. Countless runes, as if alive, gathered at the feet of the strange demon.

Then, a huge formation disk quietly took shape under the body of the strange demon!

The bloody formation disk spun crazily under the feet of the strange demon.

Almost all the infinite power of heaven and earth was stirred by the array.

A large amount of Dollar power is gathering there.

Like the grindstone of life and death.

Everything is crushed, destroyed, and the cycle repeats.

“This this”

“What kind of martial art is this?”

“Even the void is almost crushed by it?”

At the foot of Kunlun Mountain, Ye Qingtian and others were shocked.

It was the first time in their lifetime of martial arts that they saw such a terrifying martial art.

Not only can it devour the energy of heaven and earth, but even that piece of space seems to be smashed by that roulette.

I can vaguely see that the black space is turbulent, constantly escaping.

“One person forms an formation, this is one person forms an formation.”

“This damn strange demon, although most of its power is still sealed, can still use such a terrifying formation!”

“This extraterritorial creature is too perverted!”

In Noifork Realm, the Old Madam Chu, who saw this scene, couldn't help trembling, and said in amazement.

Tang Yun on the side trembled when she heard it, and asked anxiously, "Grandma Chu, what is a formation of one person?"

"The so-called formation of one person means that in the course of the battle, he uses his own power to gather a formation. With the help of this formation, he can control the power of the surrounding heaven and earth and use it for himself."

"In this case, it can explode with power far beyond its own realm."

"As for Mark, it is equivalent to fighting against the entire world!"

The old lady Chu said solemnly.

The more Tang Yun listened, the more frightened she became, and the more she listened, the more jumpy she became

You know, manpower will eventually run out.

This is because, when fighting, the so-called true energy is released through the dantian.

The heaven and earth energy outside cannot be directly used by oneself, but needs to be absorbed, condensed, purified by exercises, and finally stored in the dantian.

But because the power stored in Dantian is limited, all manpower must also have an upper limit.

But now, with the help of this formation, the strange demon directly manipulates the power of heaven and earth for its own use.

"Doesn't this mean that his strength has no upper limit?"

Tang Yun was completely frightened.

The horror of the strange demon was completely beyond her imagination.

Before the battle started, Tang Yun was already a little desperate.

Victory is really too slim.

The old lady Chu also nodded, "According to the logic, it is true. He manipulates the power of heaven and earth for his own use. There is indeed no upper limit to his strength."

"However, above the earth, the energy of the heavens and the earth is thin."

"So, even if he can control all the energy in the world, there is a limit to it."

"In short, although Mark's chances of winning are slim, it is not without opportunities and possibilities."

"Now, we can only pray."

"Pray that Mark can surprise us again."

The old lady of the Chu family said in a deep voice.

There was an unprecedented heaviness in that low tone.

Ever since she was a child, the old Madam Chu has always heard about the hardships of Chu Yunyang, the ancestor of the Chu family, in starting a business.

When listening to the story, I don't feel anything.

But now, when seeing the power of the strange demon, the old lady Chu really understood how difficult it was for the ancestors of Yunyang when they were in trouble.

What the strange demon reveals now is only the tip of the iceberg of his full strength. In this era, it has become an insurmountable mountain for billions of people around the world.

The old lady Chu couldn't believe it. When the ancestor Yunyang faced the complete form of the strange demon, how did he defeat it and seal him?

The past is beyond recall.

The old lady Chu doesn't know about the current catastrophe, how will Ye Fanhui deal with it?

Huh~

On the top of Kunlun, the wind is howling.

A large number of heaven and earth forces were attracted by the array under Chu Qitian's feet.

Chu Qitian stood on top of the mountain, smiling proudly.

"Hahaha"

"Brian Chu, how about my hell Shura Formation?"

The rolling sound was like thunder rolling by.

Chu Qitian lifted the sky with one hand and stepped on the ground with the other.

Just like Yan Luo in Asura Hell, behind him is the human world, and in front of him is hell, leading to life on the one hand and death on the other.

And he erected the gate of hell, mastering the cycle of life and death!

"Back then, your Yunyang ancestor and I stood on the top of the Nine Heavens."

"Fight for seven days and seven nights!"

"In the end, I missed a move and lost to your ancestors."

"One misstep will cause eternal hatred."

"Afterwards, I was sealed by that damned Chu Yunyang for a thousand years!"

"One thousand years."

"One thousand years of loneliness, one thousand years of watch"

"My strange demon is like a lonely ghost, imprisoned in hell."

“There will never be a day!”

“But I’m not reconciled.”

“My strange demon is one of the most noble races among all the races in the universe.”

“We are born kings, how can we be imprisoned by you weak and despicable humans.”

“So, a thousand years ago, I was thinking about revenge and rebirth all the time.”

“Finally, in the eight hundred and ninety-sixth year of my imprisonment, I realized the Supreme Magic Formation and created the Hell Asura Formation!”

Chapter 4699

“Originally, I created this formation for your ancestor, Chu Yunyang!”

“But now it seems that I can only test the water with you first.”

“You can die under this trick, Brian Chu, you can be proud.”

The strange demon shook his head and said.

The rolling laughter was full of confidence and arrogance.

As if, in his eyes, the battle was over before it even started.

And Mark standing in front of him was already a dead body.

However, Mark remained unmoved by the words of the strange demon.

On the delicate face, there is always a touch of calmness and indifference.

Even, at the end of the hearing, Mark replied impatiently, “Don’t you think that I talk a little too much?”

“I don’t know if you’ve heard a saying that tells the villain to die from talking too much.”

“You talk so much nonsense, it seems that you are going to die here today.”

Mark smiled casually.

And the strange demon was indeed irritated.

“You despicable human being, you are dying, and you still have the heart to say such bad things to me?”

“good!”

“Since you want to die so impatiently, then this Demon Venerable will fulfill you!”

The strange demon has been completely irritated.

What he said just now was just to show off his ability, and by the way, he wanted to see the frightened expression of the man in front of him.

However, the strange demon found out in the end that after talking for a long time, he turned out to be playing the piano to the cow!

This bastard just doesn't know how powerful he is, and he even said something stupid about the villain's death because of talking too much.

never mind!

Anyway, the strange demon didn't bother to waste his tongue with him.

Since he wants to die so much, let him die!

The strange demon under the fury raised his arm on the top of the sky.

Then, in the depths of the long river, he stretched out a finger, pointed at where Mark was, and pressed it quietly.

At the same time, a billowing sound, like thunder, resounded through the sky.

“Asura finger!”

call!

The giant fingers held up to the sky, and blood surged.

The moment the strange devil's finger fell, everyone saw that the blood-colored roulette under the strange devil's feet burst into dazzling light.

Countless heaven and earth energy were deeply stirred by the strange demon's finger!

That piece of time and space is collapsing and recasting.

Bloody fingertips, with the power to destroy everything, and the power of almost the entire universe, pressed down from the top of the Milky Way.

Although, the giant finger of Shura has not fallen yet.

However, the huge pressure caused the entire Kunlun Mountains to sink several meters.

The sky is falling apart, the earth is shaking and the mountains are shaking.

The scene in front of him is really like Shura's hell.

Ye Qingtian and the others were completely stunned.

In the heart, the turbulent waves swept wildly.

"Is this the power comparable to a god?"

"Is this the strength that can touch the heavens?"

"It's so terrifying!"

Ye Qingtian shouted in shock.

Full of fear and shock.

His body couldn't help trembling under such majestic and majestic power.

That is not the fear of strange demons.

Rather, the awe of that power.

A reverence for the power that destroys all beings.

It was a trembling from the heart, an uncontrollable fear in the mind.

Not only Ye Qingtian, but also Aaron and Carlo were deeply shocked.

The sword masters and the King of Fighters even knelt on the ground, shouting the holy name of their masters like believers.

The whole Kunlun Mountain is like a sacrificial scene.

The sacrifice is the whole world.

And the strange demon is the god that everyone believes in!

“terrible!”

“Is this still a human?”

“How can there be such a strong force?”

People in half the world can almost see the strange demon’s attack.

They looked at the overwhelming bloody giant fingers from a distance, and they looked like a fallen pillar of heaven.

Chapter 4701

No one believed that this was an attack that manpower could use.

“Immortal, he must have descended from an immortal”

“It must be the goddamn one who played with women everywhere and angered God!”

The whole world is boiling at this moment.

The streets and alleys of countless cities have already exploded.

Some fear, some surrender, some bow

The so-called life is full of states, but that's it.

However, just when everyone was trembling at the power of the strange demon's attack.

Who would have thought that after one finger fell, the strange demon followed up with another palm, and then took a picture.

"Devil's palm!"

boom!

It's like thunder piercing through heaven and earth, and it's like a sharp gun shooting straight into the heart of heaven.

After Shura pointed, another more terrifying attack landed.

Looking at it from a distance, it seems that a piece of the sky has collapsed.

And the collapsed world slammed into Mark's direction.

"This this."

"This damn strange monster!"

"There is a second trick?"

"How can this be?"

God of War and others at the foot of Kunlun Mountain were completely stunned.

The whole person was trembling almost insanely.

They originally thought that the previous Asura Finger was already the most powerful hole card of the strange demon.

Unexpectedly, the Demon Sha Palm that followed was even more powerful and even more terrifying!

"This is too perverted!"

"Is this really a creature that exists in the world?"

“This is simply beyond human reach!”

Both Aaron and Carlo were almost scared to pee.

The strange demons attacked twice, and the overflowing power had already made their mouths and noses bleed.

They really couldn't imagine what kind of storm Mark was facing, who was at the center of the storm!

“too strong.”
