

Super Rich Dad Chapter 479-480

Chapter 479

‘What? All taken out?’

This statement from King Kong caused an uproar in the room.

Everyone looked at each other in disbelief, and then a buzz of discussion erupted.

Some found it unbelievable, while others questioned King Kong’s words.

Many more, on the other hand, were still trying desperately to look out towards the door to see what the scene outside was really like.

Only how hard they tried. In the end it was to no avail, and in the end nothing could be seen but the sound of wailing, a wailing that was so horrifying to hear.

‘What did you say?’ Liu Guohao was astonished, obviously also for King Kong’s words. There was some disbelief.

After all, there were hundreds of people there, even if this Vajra was strong and his companions were strong. Could he still be this strong?

What kind of people are they if they can handle a hundred people in a few minutes? Superman? And how many of them were there?

Liu Guohao gritted his teeth, he glared viciously at the other party and hurriedly shouted at the door, ‘Give me someone, where is everyone? Come on, someone

However, he shouted for a long time, but no voice responded to him.

At this moment outside the door, there was not a single sound other than the desolate screams of his group of men.

Liu Guohao, somewhat unbelieving, hurriedly put down Liu Qiang and walked quickly towards the corridor outside the door.

As soon as he moved, those who wanted to know what was going on outside the door also hurriedly followed him towards the door.

Only the crowd walked out of the door full of expectation, but they were directly stunned by the scene in front of them.

‘What’s going on here?’ A man suddenly exclaimed, clearly shocked at the scene before him. Feeling incomparably stunned and scared, this man’s eyes were actually seeping with the slightest bit of fear.

All these people were wailing and wailing, and there was not a single spot on their bodies, they had either been beaten black and blue or their legs and feet had been broken.

Beside these people, leaning against a corner, there were several men in black poking around.

Although these people do not have the strong body that makes people feel fearful at the sight of King Kong, but still you can see that the physical quality of these people is different from normal people.

‘This four or five of them have done away with so many people?’ Suddenly a voice from the crowd rang out with a tone full of disbelief.

‘Is this still human? This is too scary, right? My goodness. Commenting on how one person took on over twenty and still won completely?’

‘What is this going to do?’

Obviously, the scene in front of them, where a few people from Lei’s group easily took care of Liu Guohao’s hundred and ten men, really shocked everyone present.

And while they were shocked, they felt even more a touch of panic.

Because these people were brought by Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie, a few of their men were enough to overpower so many people, what about themselves?

They had betrayed Jiang Hao and backstabbed the South City Project, causing them to lose billions of dollars in one go.

And today Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie had brought such powerful henchmen. Would they still be able to spare themselves then?

No one had a bottom in their hearts, they didn’t know, what exactly would happen in the next scene. One by one, they were on tenterhooks.

Suddenly, a member of Lei’s group outside the door raised his head, looked at Liu Guohao and asked with a playful smile, ‘Any more? Come along if you have?’

Liu Guohao’s face changed slightly at his words.

He didn’t have any more. All his family’s money, which he had been running for years, was here, and they had taken it all over without any effort.

Liu Guohao knew very well that he could not count on anyone now.

He grunted coldly and went straight back into the room, while the contractors who had crowded out to watch the fun, also hurriedly followed him back.

If it was said that just now they were still full of indifference and contempt for Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie. Then at this moment, they wouldn't dare anyway.

These people knew very well what kind of fate they would face if they made any more trouble.

When the crowd returned to the room, they were shocked to find that Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie had each drawn a chair and sat down, and were looking at the crowd coldly.

Ye Yunjie sneered and said, 'General Liu, is this meeting gift still to your liking?'

Liu Guohao looked at Liu Qiang on the ground, his heart once again surging with anger, but he knew better that he was powerless to fight Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie at this point.

'You guys have gone too far!' Liu Guohao roared out in grief and anger. 'Even if you kill all those people outside the door I don't care, but this is my son, you have gone so far as to Liu Guohao hadn't finished his sentence. It was interrupted off by Ye Yunjie's cold indifference.

The latter said icily, 'You asked for this, for the betrayer, we have been merciful enough. We were kind enough to you. Showed the utmost goodwill and trust, but what about you? When you secretly colluded with others and caused us damage. Have you thought about whether you have gone too far?'

Liu Guohao was dumbfounded by the words, this was the truth and he was certainly powerless to refute it.

Ye Yunjie coldly snorted and continued, 'Well, let's start talking now, didn't you call us here to have something to say?'

Liu Guohao gritted his teeth and said, 'There's nothing more to talk about, we called you here today for one thing, you have to count the project and pay us the original amount, otherwise

'Or else what do you want?' Suddenly, Jiang Hao opened his mouth and said in a harsh tone, 'Bullshit logic, I hired you to build the south of the city project in the end you secretly colluded with others and screwed up the south of the city project, in retrospect, you still shamelessly come over and ask me for money? Is that your face, or what is it?'

Jiang Hao hadn't wanted to come, but he felt that he couldn't swallow this anger in his heart, and he came over, in fact, just to ask Liu Guohao about these words.

Ye Yunjie said immediately afterwards, 'When I signed the contract before, I remember signing it very clearly, if there is a problem with the quality of the project, then the final responsibility is to be borne by you, as for the payment for the project to be given or not, I'd better ask you to take a look at the original contract!'

Ye Yun-jie of course remembered every clause in the original contract, in fact, she had originally planned to settle accounts with these contractors, large and small, today, but unexpectedly, these people had gone one step ahead of her and directly ripped their last layer of shame.

But naturally, Ye Yunjie wasn't too worried that these people would argue anything, because according to the terms of the contract, the first people to be held responsible for any problems with the City South project were these people, and there was no exemption clause in the contract, which meant that as long as there were problems with the quality of the project, these people could hardly be blamed.

Chapter 480

Of course, if they want to remove themselves from responsibility, it is not impossible, unless they have a project quality verification certificate signed by Ye Yunjie herself.

The meaning of this certificate of conformity is that it proves that the quality of a certain project has passed and has been accepted by the project. Only then would this certificate of conformity be issued.

Only, right now, none of the projects in the south of the city are completed, so without completion, it is impossible to issue a certificate of conformity.

Secondly, the hand is on Ye Yunjie's body, has she ever signed such a thing. She has a number in her heart, even if the other party wants to forge it, it's impossible.

In other words. No matter how the other party wants to sophomorically argue, since they chose to mess with the quality of the project in the south of the city, they can only eat their own fruit in the end.

Only that Ye Yunjie still seemed to have underestimated these people too much.

After she finished speaking, Liu Guohao at the side actually let out a cold laugh and asked, 'Then Miss Ye, are you genuinely not going to settle the project payment to us?'

Surprisingly, Ye Yunjie was not afraid of anything when the matter had come to this point, and did not even respond.

Liu Guohao sneered and directly stretched out his hand, allowing a person on the side to hand over a pile of documents and said with a smile, 'Then in that case, I would like to show you two something good!'

Having said that, Liu Guohao directly had someone hand over something to Ye Yunjie.

Ye Yunjie couldn't help but still be a little curious, but after she finished reading the pile of documents, her entire face suddenly changed!

'This is a fake. Impossible, I haven't signed anything like this at all!' Ye Yunjie denied it repeatedly, with an unbelievable face.

And when Jiang Hao saw this, he also hurriedly took the thing over and read it over, and after reading it, Jiang Hao also looked incomparably shocked.

Because at this moment, the document in their hands was no other than dozens of acceptance letters, and right at the end of each acceptance letter, there was Ye Yunjie's official seal and handprint!

'This is a forgery!' Jiang Hao also got up and said, 'Do you think you can casually produce something like this to shirk your responsibility all together?'

Liu Guohao smiled sarcastically and said with full concern, 'Still mentioning any responsibility to me? What responsibility do I have now? The responsibility is all yours, the project was accepted by you, and since it has been accepted, then there are problems with the quality of the project again. Naturally, it has nothing to do with us, huh, who do you want to be responsible for you?'

'You bullshit!' Ye Yunjie shouted angrily, 'Most of the projects in the south of the city have just started construction and none of the buildings have been fully completed so far, what acceptance letter am I going to give you? What's more, I am a hundred percent sure that I have never signed this acceptance letter, so this must be a fake!'

In this regard, Ye Yunjie was very convinced, did she not remember whether she had done anything or not?

However, Liu Guohao smiled again and said meaningfully, 'Miss Ye. Please take a close look at the first sentence of the qualification letter, does it say, at the request of Party A. It is given to the construction work in progress and a certificate of acceptance of the construction work is issued. This is your party A's initiative, what does it have to do with us? And I thought you would deny it, so I have found someone to be firm, that official seal is indeed your official seal, and hand seal. What else can you say?'

As Liu Guohao said that, he threw a report of fingerprint confirmation at Ye Yunjie, on which it was written in black and white that the fingerprint was indeed Ye Yunjie's!

Ye Yunjie was shocked, she couldn't believe it.

She couldn't believe it. And she quickly thought about it. If the fingerprints were indeed her own, then it seemed that she had been set up again this time.

Ye Yunjie's mind was frantically thinking back to who could have gotten her official seal and had access to her fingerprints?

It seemed that only Ye Xiaorou was able to do so!

When she thought of this, Ye Yunjie slammed her hand on a small table in front of her, and the table was cracked.

Ye Yunjie's face was chagrined, she really couldn't understand, Ye Xiaorou was her own sister, why did she have to calculate herself so much?

For so many years, she had given her whatever she wanted, and had never even scolded her or slapped a finger at her.

But in the end. But in the end, she had betrayed herself so much, and was really trying to push herself to the brink of extinction!

Ye Yunjie was incomparably pained, gritting her teeth. Under her breath, she muttered, 'This white-eyed wolf!'

Her belly was full of hatred, she could not wait to catch Ye Xiaorou to herself right now and ask her about everything.

But she herself didn't even know where she was now

Ye Yunjie heaved a sigh. At this moment, she finally felt a hint of powerlessness.

'Sister Ye, what's wrong with you?' Suddenly, Jiang Hao gently touched Ye Yunjie. Asking, 'What is going on? Could could this really be you

'No!' Ye Yunjie shook her head decisively and said, 'I will tell you in detail about this matter later, but now it seems that what they have in their hands seems to be real, and I can guarantee that we are being counted!'

Hearing this, Jiang Hao only felt a little uncomfortable!

Calculated again, ah, what was the origin of that person who wanted to put himself to death?

At this moment, Liu Guohao looked a little smug as if he felt that he had moved back a game.

He said proudly, 'How about it, do you believe it now? Oh, if you believe it, just obediently settle all the project payments clearly, otherwise

'Otherwise what do you want?' Ye Yunjie glared at Liu Guohao, a hint of killing intent flooding her eyes.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

'Otherwise, let's meet in court!' Liu Guohao sneered, 'I believe that as long as this matter is taken to court, then you will definitely be the ones to suffer. But if we take the matter to the court and you refuse to pay, then the court will definitely freeze your bank accounts, and then you will really be dead!'

Of course Liu Guohao didn't just talk about it, he knew very well what was going on here and he knew what Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie were most afraid of at this time.

Although Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie were now in a difficult situation, they at least had a large amount of money on hand to work with.

But if the funds were frozen, it would be a miserable end.

Liu Guohao was very proud of himself, he felt that he had caught Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie's sore spot, and as long as he could catch their sore spot, he would be able to pinch them to death!
