

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 48

The police officer in the lead squinted his eyes, and subconsciously glanced at Anna Yun beside him. After the latter nodded slightly to him, he answered blankly.

“In that case, just come with us.”

Click.

A pair of bright and dazzling handcuffs instantly appeared on his wrist.

Zoey Gu’s heart trembled, and he looked down in a daze, until he felt the pain in her eyes, and then pulled her lips and laughed bitterly.

fair enough.

Although she may live a long and tormented dark life again, at least, she can stay far away from Liam Lu.

Never see you again!

Behind him, Shiyue watched Zoey Gu being taken away, not believing that she had compromised so much, and couldn’t help but want to step forward to stop it.

“Miss Gu...”

Anna Yun by his side stopped him in time, “Shiyue, it is true that she drove into someone by car, and the surveillance at the intersection can testify, and no one wronged her.”

“However, if Liam wakes up and knows, he will definitely...”

Anna Yun’s expression was calm, as if to say something insignificant.

“In this world, if you do something wrong, you have to pay a price. Besides, Liam is not a god, everything is in control. Or do you want her to return to Liam well and let him die a few times?”

Shiyue opened his mouth and wanted to speak, but he was obviously persuaded by Anna Yun to shut up.

He had never experienced the feelings between Liam Lu and Zoey Gu, and could not deeply understand it. He only understood that Zoey Gu was a curse not a blessing to Liam Lu.

Anna Yun reacted when he glanced with satisfaction.

Finally, I turned on the phone and looked down at the new text message.

She curled her lips and smiled, then raised her hand and quickly returned a text message, “Hope, maybe someday, I will personally return this time bomb to Zoey Gu.”

After sending and deleting, the text message box is blank.

Liam Lu woke up faintly, it was late at night.

The moment he opened his eyes, he instinctively sat up with his body, and asked when he was sitting by the bed.

“Where is she?”

You don’t need to ask, you know it’s Zoey Gu.

Shiyue’s body stiffened, and the expression on his face suddenly became a little unnatural. For a moment, he bit his scalp and replied.

“Lu Shao, Miss Gu had already left when we returned to the hospital. You were injured and you had a high fever, and our attention was on you. So...”

Upon hearing this, Liam Lu frowned.

“That’s it?” He was never such a fool.

Seeing Shiyue’s look different, Liam Lu squinted his eyes and looked at him deeply, “Shiyue, I want to listen to the truth.”

“Liam...”

Having been with Liam Lu for many years, Shiyue understood his temperament too well. Seeing his fierce complexion was obviously a little unbelieving, he almost couldn’t hold back.

The door of the ward was suddenly pushed open, Anna Yun walked in with a thermos bucket, and said softly to Liam Lu.

“Liam, why should you be embarrassed by Shiyue, he didn’t lie to you. Miss Gu did indeed disappear when you returned to the hospital.”

She walked to the bed and sat down, pulled Liam Lu's hand in her arms, raised her eyes and fixedly looked at him with red eyes.

“Or do you hope that she is by your side at this time, is she not me?”
