

Chapter 483

Evelin lagged behind at the end, and Zhu Yi deliberately took a few steps behind and walked alongside her, asking in a low voice, "Did you know him before?"

Evelin's face was expressionless, "I don't know."

Zhu Yi looked at her, but did not suspect that she was lying, after all, although she was now a small flower in the circle, but in the end, her origin was there, should have no interaction with characters like Zhuge Liufeng.

Evelin didn't end up staying at the World Jin Mansion in the end.

Since it was her birthday, the fans had organized an elaborate support event for her and she needed to make an appearance.

So, at 8 p.m., she informed her assistant to come up and pick her up and leave.

The families were pretty reasonable, and although no one in the house knew about her birthday today, they didn't stop her from seeing that she had work to do.

Jenny called her at 10pm.

When she got the call, she happened to be coming from an event and was feeling exhausted even though she hadn't done anything but show up for an appearance.

Jenny Jing laughed, "Why is it that your birthday, instead, makes you look more tired than anyone else?"

Evelin smiled helplessly, "What's wrong?What can I do for you?"

"It's fine, I just forgot to give you your present at lunchtime today, I've just asked Mo Nan to deliver it to your house, so remember to look at it."

Evelin nodded, "Okay, I got it."

"Then you clean up and get some rest early, happy birthday."

"Thanks, Mister, and good night."

"Good night."

Hanging up the phone, Jenny returned to the bedroom and prepared to rest.

The eye accidentally scans the calendar and realizes that tomorrow is Saturday again.

Previously he said he was away for a week, which is about the time he should be back.

She curled her lip at the thought, which made her lie down to rest.

But then, in the middle of the night, she felt a furry something arching her.

She frowned, subconsciously still thinking it was Hippo, and pushed out, confused, "Ani, stop it."

The ball of fur paused slightly, then a strong roll of force went up her thin, soft waist and held her whole body tightly.

She was shocked, her consciousness fuzzy, and suddenly remembered that Ann wasn't with her now, so how could she show up at home in the middle of the night?

A cold sweat broke out behind her and she brushed her eyes open, only to see in the darkness a dark mass of shadow lying beside her, holding her waist, her head still gently resting on her stomach.

"Ah-!"

She shrieked in terror and slapped at the other's head without a word.

The man let out a muffled grunt, followed by the capture of her haphazardly flapping hand.

A familiar and magnetic voice came, "What's the panic? It's me."

Jenny was stunned.

There was no light on in the bedroom, so she couldn't see his face, but only now that she was conscious did she feel the familiar scent of the man.

She was relieved and amused for a moment, and punched him heavily on the shoulder.

"What for? It scares the hell out of me."

Biden Lu smiled lowly and embraced her in his arms.

"That's how you welcome me back, huh? I should have known I wouldn't have come back all night."

Jenny took the phone beside him and looked at the time, three thirty in the morning.

This man, he came back so late at night?

I wanted to scold him, but the words came to my mouth, touching the cold breath he still carried, and I couldn't swallow them.

Eventually, she just had no choice but to say, "Why are you back so late? I thought we were supposed to be back tomorrow morning?"

"Can't wait to see you sooner."

He hugged her and k*ssed her on the forehead, his palm caressing her stomach.

"Is the baby well behaved? Has it been bothering you the last few days?"

A gentle smile spread across Jenny's face at the mention of the baby.

"No, it's good."

"That's good, if he tries to mess with you, I'll teach him a lesson for you when he's born."

"Don't you dare."

Perhaps because he himself did not enjoy much of the warmth of a family, Jenny had a different kind of indulgence for children than normal people.

Even though she knew that the spoiling wasn't always right sometimes, she just couldn't help it.

Whenever I think of the baby in my belly, I feel that nothing matters anymore, as long as he is healthy and happy.

When Biden Lu saw her like this, he was a little jealous.

"Wife, child or me, which do you love more?"

Jenny was stunned and answered without thinking, "Of course it's a child."

Biden Lu: "....."

This sticks in the old mind.

It wasn't until he felt the stiffness of his body that Jenny realized anything.

Even added, "I mean, I only love our two children. Well, half of it's yours, too."

Biden Lu: "...heh."

He didn't say anything else, Jenny smilingly said, "Alright, alright, are you tired? Hurry up and get some rest, do you want to take a shower?"

"You'll wash me?"

"Get out!"

.....

In the end, someone went to take a nice shower on his own, and when he returned, Jenny was already asleep again.

She is now six months pregnant and is inherently sleepy, so she falls asleep even more easily at night.

Biden Lu lifted the quilt onto the bed and k*ssed her brow before saying softly, "Goodnight."

The next day.

By the time Jenny woke up, it was already morning outside.

She had some difficulty getting up, it was always the maids who came up to serve her on weekdays, but before she moved today, a long, strong arm came up from behind her and helped her sit up.

She just remembered that someone had come home last night.

Seeing him already dressed and meticulously dressed, she scratched her hair and asked, "What time did you get up?"

Lu Jing looked at her with deep eyes, "Seven o'clock."

Jenny looked at the time, it was already ten o'clock in the morning.

All right! She looked over the man's lean, strong body just after his morning workout, and then silently at her own size.

Because of her pregnancy, her body, which had been on the thinner side, was now much rounder.

Eating well and sleeping well, Biden Lu simply hated to offer her as a national treasure, and in a few months, the meat grew at a flying pace.

She couldn't help but face bitterly and yelled, "Biden Lu, after the baby is born, I must lose weight."

The man smiled and came over and k*ssed her on the lips.

"No need to cut back, it's the flesh that looks good."

"You lie."

"I swear, lying is puppy."

"Huh."

She gave him a half-hearted, lopsided glance, frowning.

"If you're fat and good-looking, why don't you put on some weight?"

Someone: "..."

There's an illusion that you've dug a hole for yourself?

He attached himself to the past and whispered in her ear.

In the next second, Jenny's face immediately turned red.

He swung his fist at him.

"You son of a b*tch! Pervert!"

Biden Lu smiled lowly and didn't fight back, allowing her to scold.

Chapter 484

She landed her fist on him like a tickle.

After a while, Jenny was tired, and this was the only way to rest.

Time flew by and more than three months passed in a flash.

Canning is about to go into labor.

This month, Biden Lu has stopped going to the company, leaving the company's affairs to Vicky, and the rest can be solved remotely at home as much as possible, just to be at home with her specifically.

It happened to be the Feng family's old man's sixtieth birthday, and Tailor Feng had come a few days ago to inform them that they had to be there on time.

So on this day, Biden Lu and Jenny Jing got everything ready and took a bus to the Feng family.

The Feng family was one of the four great families in the capital, so the old man's birthday was naturally lively.

The boss of the Feng family and Tailor Feng were both sent to entertain guests, and the women accompanying the ladies were naturally the old lady and Mrs. Feng.

Nina Hua and Kepler had recently returned to China as well, so naturally they would come to the birthday banquet.

Seeing Jenny with a big belly, Nina Hua even called for a chair.

Jenny wasn't rude and sat down smoothly.

Nina Hua smiled and asked, "Nine months, right?"

"Well."

"Are you scared to be born soon?"

To be honest, Jenny was a little scared.

She had heard before how painful and miserable childbirth was, and she hadn't been afraid of that, but now that it was really upon her, she wasn't afraid that it was a lie.

Nina Hua saw her steeply revealed nervousness and smiled, "It's going to be hard, but it's fine, when you see your baby finally born, it'll be worth all the hard work."

She is now the mother of a child and couldn't be more qualified to say this.

Jenny nodded and smiled at her.

"Hopefully it'll go better by then."

"It's going to go well."

The old man was a crowd-pleaser, and his status was so esteemed that almost everyone from the entire high society of the capital came.

The entire hotel was contracted, and the banquet was filled with a high crash and joy.

Jenny was tainted by such joy and was naturally in a good mood, so he ate a few extra bites of dinner.

After the birthday feast, some accumulated food, so they dragged Biden Lu together in the backyard of the hotel for a walk.

Firecrackers sounded and fire trees were lit up all around, a bustling and prosperous scene.

Unexpectedly, after just a short time of shopping, Biden Lu suddenly received a phone call from Tailor Feng.

As soon as the phone was connected, there was a blast of music, and Biden Lu frowned slightly, taking the phone farther away, waiting for the sound to pass before putting the phone back to his ear again.

"Something?"

Tailor Feng's excited voice came from the other side, "Second brother, second sister-in-law, are you guys still in the hotel? Come play on the first floor."

The ground floor of the hotel is the lobby, the first floor is a large bar, and the third and fourth floors are the restaurant.

Because of the soundproofing, even though the bar is just downstairs, you won't hear any noise in the restaurant.

Biden Lu said indifferently, "You're at the bar again?"

Tailor Feng laughed, "Yeah, didn't you just finish eating? Someone was in a bad mood and asked me to come and have a drink with him. Where are you? Come along and play too."

Biden Lu directly refused, "No."

"Ugh, don't! You've had a hard time getting out, so come out and relax."

Biden Lu replied with a blank expression, "Noisy."

"Well, let's go somewhere quieter and have tea, shall we? Change the teahouse upstairs."

Biden Lu: "....."

In the end, unable to resist Tailor Feng's stalking, he agreed to go over and sit down.

Biden Lu turned to look at Jenny Jing next to him and asked, "Tailor Feng asked us to go to the sixth floor teahouse to have a seat, do you want to go? I'll take you home first if you don't want to go."

Unexpectedly, Jenny's eyes lit up and he nodded, "Yes, yes, I'm going."

In fact, she's been sleeping so much that she's basically been sleeping for most of the day.

Biden Lu was worried that she was heavy and it wasn't safe to go out, so he just let her stay at home every day and stroll around the backyard when he was bored.

Really want to go out, but also wait until he is free to accompany him personally, even Vicky and Mo Nan accompanying him is not assured.

So it's not easy to get a chance to come out and have some fun, so she won't let it go.

When Biden Lu saw this, he nodded and took her with him to the sixth floor.

They arrived at the sixth floor teahouse, pushed open the compartment door and found that not only were Tailor Feng and Ji Yunshu there, but even Jin Liangcheng was there.

Jenny Jing was slightly surprised and called out, "Jin Liancheng! Is that really you? Why are you here too?"

God knows how familiar she is with this man.

Her former favorite bean, Mrs. Ken, was also a fan of his.

She and Mrs. Ken still met at his meet and greet.

Jin Liancheng looked up at her, his eyes darkening.

Then with a faint smile, "Young Lady Lu, famous for a long time, I finally meet her today."

Tailor Feng coolly said: "Okay, what's the point of all this nonsense? When you grew up with us in crotchless trousers, didn't you always scream "Two brothers, two brothers"? Now call what young lady, call sister-in-law!"

Jin Liancheng didn't say anything.

Biden Lu didn't say anything and helped Jenny Jing over, pulling out a chair for her and letting her sit down.

Jin Liangcheng's eyes deepened slightly when he saw their loving appearance.

Tailor Feng said, "Second brother, Old Jin has fallen out of love, so hurry up and help comfort him, I'm about to be bored out of my mind by their two boredom."

Jenny Jing was slightly surprised.

Has Jin Liancheng fallen out of love?

When did this happen?

No, no, that's not the point, the point is, when did he fall in love?

Seeing her surprised expression, Tailor Feng smiled badly and said, "Jenny, you still don't know, do you? It's a good thing you're still in the same circle!"

Jenny shook his head.

Forgive her, she's been too busy to pay attention to the gossip news, how would she know he's in love?

"Old Jin has a high school classmate who has been dating for ten years and has refused to marry him, and Old XI made up his mind to run away with her in love, but he ran away and lost her, and went overseas to marry someone else, don't you think that's unusual?"

Jenny's mouth opened round in shock.

How could I have never expected this.

And then turned to look at Jin Liangcheng, only to see him nestled in the corner of the sofa, originally warm and jade-like face, now some small stubble on the chin has emerged.

It's a bit unkempt for an artist who half lives off his face, like he's lost his soul.

"Who is that woman?"

Jin Liancheng raised his eyes to her and didn't say anything.

A man has a broken heart and calls his brother over for a drink to fill the hurt and emptiness inside.

But Jin Liancheng is partial to alcohol allergies and cannot drink alcohol, only tea.

Just now in the bar, Tailor Feng called it taking him out to vent, but in reality it was all his own game, and he was already dissatisfied.

Now that he had brought so many people around to watch his broken heart, he became even more dissatisfied.

Chapter 485

"It's getting late, I have to go."

He said, standing up to leave.

But Tailor Feng pulled him down.

"Eh, why go? Go home and cry all by yourself? Can I have some balls? It's just a woman. Out with the old and in with the new!"

After he finished speaking, he even squeezed his eyes at Biden Lu, "Second brother, don't you think so?"

Unexpectedly, Biden Lu only replied with a blank expression, "I don't have a new old one, I only have one."

Afterwards, he also took Jenny into his arms possessively.

Jin Liangcheng was even more stuffed.

Where did this come to comfort him, it was simply to stuff dog food.

Spreading dog food in front of a broken hearted person isn't afraid of heaven and thunder.

He was so angry that he was about to get up with a cold face.

Tailor Feng saw the situation and pressed him down in a row.

"I mean, will you stop acting so deadly? If you really don't like the new one, then go grab the old one!"

Jin Liancheng glared at him viciously, "People are married, what's the point of robbing? You think everyone's a bully like you?"

Taylor Feng was scolded, not only did he not get angry, but he stroked his chin and laughed, "So what if I get married? Marriage is not divorceable!"

He said, poured himself a cup of tea, took a sip, before continuing: "I help you analyze ah, you see they are two international marriage, your ex-girlfriend and no previous experience abroad, all of a sudden married over there must be a lot of cultural ideas on the incompatibility.

You just take this opportunity to do a good job, better do something about your high school memories, after all, it is the first love, and love for so many years, hands can be divided, but the feelings can not just disappear.

Isn't there another line? As long as the hoe is well swung, no corner can be dug down, and you wait until she unloads her guard, and then just snatch the man up again, don't you think?"

Jin Liancheng glared at him again.

"Feng Er, can't you say something nice and comforting to me? Is that something I can do, digging? Only a bandit like you could have done it!"

Biden Lu sneered.

"So that's why you haven't been able to find a wife until now."

Saying that, he also hugged Jenny to his bosom with a particularly smug, proud look that declared his sovereignty, particularly proud and inviting to be hated.

Jenny rolled his eyes.

Taylor Feng clapped his hands and laughed, "Yes, second brother has finally said something fair."

You know, if he hadn't been quick-witted and snatched Jenny from Chu Zifeng's hands in the first place.

With her popularity, we don't know who has her yet!

Jin Liangcheng ground his teeth and gritted his teeth, "Surnamed Lu, don't get too cocky! I think this little girl of yours has been deceived by you because she is young and simple, be careful that one day she will come to her senses, and then you won't come crying to me!"

Biden Lu snorted heavily, "You're being nosy about this, the two of us have already signed a lifelong contract to sell our bodies, no one can separate us, right wife?"

Jenny pursed her lips and nodded.

Jin Liangcheng became even angrier and shouted, "Who told them to come here and spill dog food here! Get them out of here and get rid of them."

With his appearance, even Fu Hengyuan, who had remained silent beside him, couldn't help but laugh.

However, after this, Jin Liangcheng's shadow of his broken heart has been diluted a lot.

The mood seemed to open up a bit.

Seeing that he was looking better, a few people didn't want to reveal his scars anymore and didn't dwell on the issue.

After all, feelings have to be figured out and digested on their own eventually, and it's okay for everyone to console and comfort.

It's common for couples to split up, and cherish it when they're together, but if they're really not together, it's only meant to be.

They really can't do it to break up a loving couple, though.

Tailor Feng saw that he was a bit decrepit, so he poured a cup of tea and said, "Alright, alright, since that's the case, let's not talk about those sad things, today is my old man's birthday, let's all have a drink together, I hope everyone is harmonious and goes along with it!"

His words made several people laugh.

The clouds of sadness in Jin Liancheng's heart also relieved a little and raised his cup.

A crisp crash sounded and everyone drained their cups of tea.

The group didn't linger long at the teahouse.

After all, the feast below had broken up, but there were still plenty of guests left.

As hosts, the Foo brothers are unlikely to be away from the field for too long.

Jin Liancheng also needed a little space to be alone for a while, so the group all said their goodbyes and left separately.

Jenny's child happened to be born on Dragon Boat Festival.

Originally there were still a few days before her due date, Jenny didn't like the smell of the hospital, even though it was a specially booked high-class maternity room, she still felt uncomfortable living there, so she didn't go to the hospital early at that time.

Instead, I've been living at home and want to wait until I'm just two or three days shy of my due date before moving in.

But unexpectedly, a full half a month early, the birth was said to have taken place.

That morning, she was in pain and sweating, Biden Lu saw the momentum was not right, when immediately called Bo's house, then get up to send someone to the hospital.

Once in the hospital, it was only after the doctor examined him that he realized that the amniotic fluid had broken.

I don't know when it broke, the situation was so critical that there was no room for thought, and the original plan to have a normal birth was completely disrupted, and now the only option was to have a C-section.

One of Biden Lu's faces was taut, and his entire body was in a kind of depression.

Jenny is quite calm, her stomach hurts, but she knows what's going on and directs the man to sign the consent form for the surgery.

Then he was handed the task of remembering to have someone go home and get the things he needed to prepare for the postpartum period before he gave birth.

Biden Lu answered yes, looking at her painfully pale and heartbroken.

Jenny also told him not to tell his grandmother and the others the truth, so he said he had a stomachache in the morning and was going to give birth early.

If they knew the amniotic fluid had broken, they'd be worried.

The man tensed his face and answered them all.

Only after this was done did she have her wheeled into the delivery room.

Cesarean births are more demanding than normal births and are not accessible to family members.

So Biden Lu could only wait outside.

The Lu family soon arrived, a group of people wind and fire, it is difficult for the old lady and the old man so old, usually walk slowly, today, hard will feet out of the wind.

As soon as he came in, he immediately asked, "How's it going?How's it going?"

Biden Lu said in a deep voice, "It's only just pushed in."

"How come you're having a baby early?Didn't you do fine with the birth control before?"The old man was anxious.

The old lady gave him a blank look, "How would he know if you asked him?It's not like a woman can pick her own time to have a baby."
