“It’s also good to welcome your relatives and friends.”

Duanmu Wan’er always respected Mark’s decision.

She is like Mark’s virtuous wife, helping Mark make suggestions and supporting Mark silently behind the scenes.

Mark was undoubtedly touched, “Thank you, Wan’er.”

Duanmu Wan’er smiled, “Wan’er is also very happy to be able to help Brother Mark.”

After a brief conversation, Mark left the secret land of India again.

This time out, Mark’s biggest purpose was to find Helen Qiu.

The world tree is shocked, and the end of the earth is coming.

This is an unprecedented crisis.

Duanmu Wan’er said just now that even if Mark breaks through the divine realm, it will only give the earth a chance.

Although Mark didn’t ask much, but from this sentence, Mark can also feel how powerful this world tree is.

Even a strong man in the divine realm is not 100% sure that he can defeat him.

In this case, evacuating the earth is almost a must for Mark.

Although there are still ten years!

However, plan ahead.

Mark had to make plans early for his family and friends.

So, after leaving the secret realm, Mark first found Yueyao.

“Mark, I heard the news that the earth is going to be in crisis again?”

“Is this true?” Seeing Mark, Yue-Yao asked.

Mark nodded, “Yao’er, get ready. Maybe, I will take you away from the earth.”

What?

Yue Yao was undoubtedly shocked when she heard this, “Are you kidding me?”

“Leaving Earth?”

“Is it really that serious?”

“So serious that the earth may be destroyed?”

Chapter 4863

“Even you can’t handle it?”

Yue-yao was already frightened.

Even before the Truman crisis or disasters caused by strange demons, Yue-Yao had never been so nervous as she is now.

Because no matter how strong the strange demons are, it is only the martial arts world that will cause chaos. ‘

But the secular world is still singing and dancing.

Most people in the world still live and work in peace and contentment.

But now, Mark told her that she was going to escape from the earth.

Doesn’t this mean that this crisis is really the end of the world, and hundreds of millions of lives will be destroyed?

“Yao’er, this time, it’s really different!”

“Very serious.”

“I hardly see the possibility of humans winning at all.”

“Of course, I’ll give it a try.”

“However, before that, I should prepare for the worst.”

“So, I hope you can help me prepare the evacuation list and supplies in advance.”

“In five years at the slowest, and within three years at the fastest, I will take you away from the earth and go to a secret place to avoid disaster.”

Mark said seriously.

Looking at Mark’s expression, Yue Yao undoubtedly realized the seriousness of the matter.

“Okay, leave the work of evacuation to me.”

Mark nodded, “Many of my relatives and friends are under your protection on the Indian side. Of course, there are also a group on the Noirfork side. I will find someone else to help you with this work.”

Evacuation is a big project.

Who to take away, who not to take away, and the materials that need to be taken away all need to be considered overall.

Of course, if it is considered from the perspective of human inheritance, it may be necessary to take away a group of scientists and some human elites.

However, Mark’s ability is limited.

The only thing he can do is to try to protect his relatives and friends.

As for the others, Mark was powerless.

“Even someone as proud as Brian Chucan say such pessimistic words.”

“How to carry out the next step of work, we really have to plan carefully.”

The Juggernaut at the side was in a heavy heart, and felt that the road ahead was in turmoil.

Ye Qingtian was silent for a long time, and finally sighed, “Since the life and death of all human beings are at stake, the future and destiny should be decided by all human beings.”

“Contact martial arts in Western Europe, America, Africa and other countries, and hold a plenary meeting of the World Martial Arts League.”

“At the same time, this time, high-level UN personnel from the secular world should also participate in the meeting.”

“Just like what Mark said, only by mobilizing the wisdom and power of all mankind may it be possible to survive this doomsday crisis.”

Mark’s words, to Ye Qingtian, touched a lot.

Therefore, that night, the Yanxia Martial God Palace suggested that the World Martial Arts League Conference be held, and that people from the secular world also be present to attend the meeting.

This meeting was still hosted by the Juggernaut.

At the meeting, the Juggernaut simply told everyone what Mark said.

“What?”

“You mean, there are still ten years left on our earth?”

“Ten years later, the earth will perish and the world will be destroyed?”

“Is this true?”

It can be said that the crowd trembled.

Before, they felt that no matter how powerful the World Tree is, it shouldn’t be able to destroy the entire world.

After all, the previous crisis of Truman and the disaster caused by strange demons caused extremely limited damage.

But now, the Juggernaut actually said that ten years later, six billion people around the world may all die under this catastrophe.

“I think, could it be Chu Tianfan’s alarmist talk?”

“The World Tree, is it really so powerful?”

“Can the entire earth be destroyed within ten years?”

The news was so unbelievable that everyone couldn’t believe it.

The Juggernaut replied, “I’m not sure if the news is true or not.”

“Moreover, the scientific investigators we sent out a few days ago have not yet returned results.”

Chapter 4865

“I don’t dare to draw a specific conclusion.”

“However, always plan for the worst.”

“In today’s meeting, I just hope that everyone can discuss a direction.”

“If this is true, what should we do?”

“Isn’t it, we should have prepared earlier?”

These words of the Juggernaut silenced everyone.

Yes, it is always necessary to plan ahead.

Regardless of whether Mark’s words are alarmist or not, the strange sky in the Kunlun Mountains is abnormal after all.

The human world should deal with it.

“If this is the case, we should destroy that World Tree regardless of the consequences and the cost!”

“As for the specific method, we still have to wait for the investigation results of scientists who come here before doing research.”

Among the crowd, someone suggested.

Many people nodded, “Yes, if this sacred tree is really the source of disaster, it really cannot be kept, and it should be destroyed by all means.”

Everyone present said so.

But Ye Qingtian, who had been silent all this time, suddenly said, “What if it can’t be destroyed?”

“How can this be!”

“There are so many of us, why can’t we help a tree?”

“One person can’t destroy it, so we will send out hundreds, thousands of people!”

“One day can’t be destroyed, then ten days, one hundred days!”

“A drop of water wears away a rock, and an iron pestle turns into a needle. It will definitely be destroyed!”

someone countered.

Ye Qingtian shook his head, “Everyone, I know that everyone must have the same worries as me, but they just don’t want to admit it, and they don’t want to say it.”

“We don’t know anything about this world tree.”

“I don’t know its habits, I don’t know its characteristics, and I don’t know its power.”

“So, we should consider all possibilities.”

“Including, the worst case!”

“That is, the end of the world is really inevitable, how should we prepare now?”

Ye Qingtian’s words exploded in the venue like a thunderbolt.

Many people’s mood has become extremely heavy.

After all, if everything is true as Ye Qingtian said, and the worst situation really happens, then the vast majority of people in this world will probably die.

After a long silence, Ye Qingtian stood up first.

“Everyone, live to die.”

“As the people who stand at the top of this world, we should be fully prepared.”

“So, I suggest that starting today, start the “Doomsday Spark” plan.”

“All major countries, immediately prepare to build spaceships.”

“Reserve supplies and determine a complete list of personnel.”

“If so, everything is really inevitable in the future, and we will have to give up the home we depend on for survival.”

“These spaceships carry the last spark and hope of our mankind and fly into the universe.”

“To explore a new home, and work hard to continue human civilization.”

Quiet!

A long silence!

Although Ye Qingtian’s doomsday spark plan is just a plan.

However, since this is the case, everyone will still feel uncomfortable and a little unacceptable.

Many people, at a very young age, have heard that the earth will eventually be destroyed.

However, the time of destruction is mostly hundreds of millions of years later.

Therefore, everyone feels that the end is very, very far away from them.

But now, the lifespan of the earth for hundreds of millions of years is only ten years left!

Ten years is too short.

Short enough for a child to grow into an adult, short enough for a student to complete his studies, and too short for the world to experience a full life and face extinction.

However, no matter how cruel it is, it must be faced.

In the end, the people present unanimously passed God of War's suggestion.

After the meeting ended, the scientific investigation of the Kunlun Land continued, but another plan was also launched.

The national finances of various major countries allocated emergency funds, and related projects were approved overnight. A large number of scientific and technological personnel in space navigation established a tackling team and were urgently awarded a difficult task.

Some retired technicians were also recalled urgently.

An unprecedented plan was launched today.

Chapter 4867

After leaving Yanshan, Mark went to Jiangbei.

Mark only had one purpose for this trip, and that was to find his wife, Helen Qiu.

“Wan'er said that after ten years, the earth is likely to be destroyed.”

“Perhaps, what Wan’er said is not necessarily true.”

“However, I have to prepare for the worst.”

“In case everything is really unavoidable, I must bring all my relatives and friends back to the secret place of India.”

“Like Lei’er, Yao’er, they are easy to talk about, I know their whereabouts, and I can pick them up at any time.”

“However, Helen Qiu’s whereabouts are unknown.”

“I must find her as soon as possible!”

Yes.

The world is so big, and now what Mark can’t let go of the most is his arrogance, Helen Qiu alone.

His mother, Ericson Li and the others undoubtedly helped Mark find it.

Only Helen Qiu, up to now, is still missing.

“One year!”

“I’ll just give myself a year.”

“Within a year, if I can’t find Helen Qiu, I can only start to retreat and attack the realm of immortals.”

“Wan’er said that only in the divine realm can one have the power to fight against that World Tree.”

“In order to give the earth a chance of survival.”

“If that’s the case, even if Helen Qiu can’t be found, as long as the earth is immortal, she will definitely be alive.”

Mark already had a plan in mind.

In the last ten years, it is impossible for Mark to spend all his time looking for Helen Qiu.

Of course, he couldn't really ignore Helen Qiu.

In the past few years, Mark has been asking people to find Helen Qiu's whereabouts.

And he himself was busy with other things, so he couldn't get out to look for it himself.

Now, he gave himself a year!

This year, Mark is going to travel all over the world in search of things.

He couldn't believe it, he still couldn't find Helen Qiu?

When Mark started his one-year journey to find his wife, a large number of scientific researchers had already settled in Kunlun Mountain.

Of course, Mo Wuya and Zhang Nanhai from Yanxia were also included.

Today's World Tree is several hundred meters high.

Looking at it from a distance, it really looks like a sky pillar supporting the sky and the earth.

"No wonder Mr. Brian Chu called him World Tree."

"If, at this speed, it continues to grow, within ten years, its branches and leaves will fill the whole world."

Under the World Tree, Zhang Nanhai looked up.

At this time, he only felt his insignificance, and suddenly felt the magic of the Creator.

"Nanhai, don't be emotional."

“Try this tea and see how it feels?”

Mo Wuya came over and brought a cup of tea to Zhang Nanhai.

“This is what I just picked off the world tree.”

“I have heard for a long time that the leaves of this world tree are treasures for cultivation.”

“After I tasted it, it really lived up to the name.”

It was also the first time for Mo Wuya to come here, and it was also the first time to try the magical function of the World Tree.

Zhang Nanhai took a look, first took a sip, and then drank it all in one gulp.

Feeling a warm current in the body, turning into pure power, flowing slowly in the veins.

Zhang Nanhai was also very surprised: “It’s really amazing.”

“However, Wuya, I heard that Mr. Brian Chubombed here for seven days and seven nights before, but he couldn’t hurt a single branch or leaf of it.”

“But you said, just now, you picked off a leaf easily.”

“Don’t you find it strange?”

Zhang Nanhai asked back.

Mo Wuya nodded again and again: “That’s right. When you say it, I’m also very surprised.”

Chapter 4869

“I guess, maybe the rumors are false and exaggerated.”

Zhang Nanhai shook his head and smiled: “Whether the rumors are true or not, you and I will have a try and practice.”

After the laughter fell, Zhang Nanhai immediately sacrificed a long sword.

Holding the seven-foot green peak in his hand, he angrily cut off the world tree in front of him.

Just a hum!

The long sword trembled, and the sound of clanging and humming continued.

At that time, Zhang Nanhai felt as if his head was touching the south wall, but he was shocked and took several steps back.

On the other hand, the world tree was not damaged at all.

Not to mention cutting off the fallen branches and leaves, there was no scar at all.

“this...”

Mo Wuya was shocked when he saw this.

At the same time, he stepped forward again and reached out to pick the leaves. It was still as easy as before, just like picking something out of a bag.

“What’s going on here?” Mo Wuya was stunned.

But Zhang Nanhai undoubtedly smiled: “I think, I understand.”

“What do you know? Come on, don’t be a fool.” Mo Wuya was even more puzzled.

“Wu Ya, now I believe more and more what Mr. Brian Chu said.”

“This world tree doesn’t look like a human thing at all.”

“It already has a consciousness of its own.”

“It can distinguish whether it is an enemy or a friend, and it can distinguish whether the opponent has malicious intentions.”

“You picked its leaves just to make tea and practice.”

“And I swung my sword to chop it just now, because I wanted to hurt him.”

“So, he let you pick it, but he took a defensive stance towards me.”

“A creature born with spiritual consciousness is always unreliable.”

“Right now, the energy in this Tianmen can still support it.”

“If in the future, it is no longer satisfied with these, it will inevitably expand outward to obtain other nutrients.”

“At that time, human beings will have a struggle for survival with it.”

“So, I affirm that one day, there will be a battle between humans and the World Tree, and it will be a battle for survival!”

Zhang Nanhai said vowedly, extremely firm.

“Nanhai, that’s not enough.”

“The earth is so big that it can accommodate billions of people. Could it be that there is no room for one more tree?” Mo Wuya was still a little skeptical.

After all, so many scientists have studied for so long, but they have not yet reached a conclusion.

And Zhang Nanhai, who stood under the World Tree for half an hour, concluded that there would be a battle between humans and the World Tree!

This conclusion is too hasty.

Facing what Mo Wuya said, Zhang Nanhai shook his head and smiled: “For us, the earth is very big. But, for World Tree, do you really think that the earth is very big?”

After finishing speaking, Zhang Nanhai turned around and walked outside.

“Nanhai, where are you going?”

“Go back to Gritsberg.”

“Go back now? Don’t watch it for a few more days?”

“The conclusion has been drawn, so why waste any more time. After returning to Gritsberg, I will immediately write my opinion into a report and report it to the Martial God Hall. I think there is no time to waste now. The first task of all human beings should be to actively prepare for war .” Zhang Nanhai said in a deep voice.

In the words, there is a sense of urgency and mission that takes the world as its own responsibility.

The vicissitudes of life show the true qualities of a hero!

The end is approaching, and it is the people like them who will show their talents when the time comes.

Sure enough, that night, Zhang Nanhai took a special plane and returned to Gritsberg.

And reported his conclusions to the Temple of Valkyrie.

At the same time, it is suggested that God of War and the others should immediately find a way to actively prepare for the battle and destroy the world tree.

Of course, Zhang Nanhai was very soft-spoken at this time. Although his suggestion attracted the attention of God of War and others, it was not enough to make a conclusion.

The Temple of Valkyrie is the World Martial Arts League, which still needs to wait for more research reports.

Just like that, another three months passed.

A large number of reports began to be aggregated.

The conclusions drawn are mostly consistent.

This world tree does pose an unknown threat to the survival of human beings.

After reaching this conclusion, the Wumeng will undoubtedly determine the next step soon.

That is, immediately start to destroy the world tree.

“I suggest that first gather the titled masters from various countries in the martial arts world, and work together to launch a saturated and continuous attack on the World Tree!”

“If it fails, use the hot weapons of the secular world to destroy the world tree!”

Chapter 4871

Of course, Mark didn't know anything about the Wumeng's meeting decision.

At this time, he was wandering among the mountains and rivers in the hot summer.

In just a few months, Mark traveled to almost every corner of Yanxia.

I have been to Jiangbei, and I have also looked for Noifork.

Even the northwest frontier and the three northeastern provinces have Mark's footprints.

However, there is still no whereabouts of the person Mark was looking for.

At this time, half a year had passed since Mark left the secret land of India.

Mark has no idea how far the international situation has developed.

From the news, he often sees that major countries are vigorously developing the space voyage business, and a large number of spaceships are being built.

Moreover, all countries are also stockpiling grain, causing international grain prices to soar in half a year.

Through various clues, Mark also faintly felt something abnormal.

That is, the top leaders of various countries have already begun to leave a way for the doomsday.

“But this is a vast world with billions of people.”

“When the end comes, how many people can get on Noah's Ark?”

“At that time, the only ones who will be destroyed along with the earth will be those thousands of ordinary people.”

As the saying goes, prosperity makes the people suffer.

death, the people suffer.

When the world is at peace, it is the broadest masses of the people who do the hardest work and get the best salary.

And those rich and powerful, sitting at home, can enjoy a luxurious life that ordinary people can hardly achieve in their lifetime.

When the doomsday comes, the vast majority of the people will be annihilated in ashes, but those high and powerful dignitaries can still escape from the earth in spaceships and gain hope of life.

is this fair?

It's not fair!

But Mark had no choice.

After all, his ability is limited.

When the doomsday comes, the only thing he can save is those relatives and friends around him.
