This world is really cruel.

Mark couldn't care less about emotion, so he continued to look for his wife.

And during this time, the martial arts of various countries are also proceeding in an orderly manner with their plans to destroy the World Tree.

Even Mark, who was thousands of miles away, saw a mushroom cloud rising from the far east.

The news said it was a nuclear test.

But Mark guessed that it should be humans who used nuclear bombs on the World Tree.

"But, it's too late, too late."

"If the seeds have just germinated, they can still be destroyed by manpower."

"Now, it's almost impossible."

Mark felt emotional in his heart.

This matter, no wonder anyone.

After all, in the face of the unknown, no one can make the right decision the first time.

Even Mark, at the beginning, thought that the World Tree would not pose too much threat to human beings.

But after learning about its capabilities, it was already too late to deal with it.

Just like that, with a sigh, Mark continued to search for Helen Qiu.

But let him travel all over the country, let him search all corners of the country, but Helen Qiu just seems to have evaporated from the world.

There is no news at all.

“Helen Qiu, Helen Qiu, where should you tell me to find you?”

On the top of the mountain, Mark looked up to the sky and screamed, letting out a mournful sigh.

At the foot of Kunlun Mountain.

There are giant trees supporting the sky.

And within a radius of one kilometer of this giant tree, there are luxuriant branches and leaves, and exotic flowers and plants compete for beauty.

However, beyond this kilometer, there are barren mountains and Gobi outside.

Chapter 4873

It was cold and windy, and it was snowing heavily.

Snow covered the world.

It can be said that thousands of mountains and birds will fly away, and thousands of people will disappear!

But in this boundless wind and snow, a thin figure quietly emerged, walking on the snow, the direction is exactly where the World Tree stands.

At the same time, under the World Tree, there are countless wooden houses and tents.

However, these camps are basically empty.

Many are covered with a thick layer of loess.

Only the two camps closest to World Tree are still popular.

At this time, the sun has set.

It was pitch black here.

Gaia lit a bonfire outside, sat down by the fire with several young women in her arms, and made tea around the stove.

However, those young women might have been tired from being tossed about by Gaia during the day, so they went back to their room to rest after sitting for a while.

“It’s a pity, in this vast world, there isn’t even a single person to drink with me.”

Gaia sighed with emotion, only feeling lonely and lonely.

“Hahaha...”

“Grandmaster Gaia has a beautiful woman in his arms, and the golden house hides her beauty.”

“With so many girls to accompany you, you still feel lonely?”

“Then how can I complain when I’m alone and alone?”

Under the World Tree, a man’s laughter came.

Gaia already knew this person.

After all, since the powerful people from all over the world have evacuated here, this person has stayed here since then, guarding under the World Tree day and night.

“Those women, vulgar fans, can only relieve the loneliness of my body, how can they relieve the emptiness of my soul?”

“This damn world is really suffocating!”

“It’s not as happy as it was when I followed the dragon master to fight Truman.”

Gaia sighed, picked up the flagon and drank for a while.

I wanted to drink away my worries, but I didn't think about it, but I was even more bored.

"Come on, little guy, come and have a drink with your Grandpa Gaia."

Gaia threw the flagon over.

After the man took it, he came up, sat down by the campfire, and chatted with Gaia.

"I remember, your name is Zhang Nanhai, right?"

"By the way, all of your warriors in Yanxia have evacuated, why are you still here?"

"Why don't you hurry back and prepare your way out, so that you can win a place on the "Noah's Ark" when the end comes." Gaia asked doubtfully.

Zhang Nanhai shook his head, "There are 8 billion people on Earth, no matter how many spaceships are built, how many people can be taken away?"

"The rich and powerful get the doomsday ticket, but what about the millions of ordinary people?"

"Who cares if they live or die?"

"So you just stay here and wait with them to die?" Gaia didn't understand.

Zhang Nanhai continued to shake his head: "Of course not."

"However, God of War and the others said that this world is an extraordinary thing, because extraordinary people can get rid of it."

"I just thought, since this world tree is so magical, then it must also contain more profound laws of heaven and earth."

“So, I came here to observe the World Tree.”

“I just want to find the secret from its texture, appearance, and growth. Maybe it can inspire me to create an extraordinary formation.” Zhang Nanhai said slowly.

But Gaia was amused at the time: “Stop bragging. What about the mysteries of heaven and earth, the laws of the universe? You don’t even understand women, do you still want to understand the nature of heaven and earth?”

Gaia snorted, thinking that this picture of Nanhai was bragging.

“You Yanxia people like to brag.”

“My dragon master is also from Yanxia, he also likes to brag, and he even pretends to be aggressive!”

“I remember back then, he was only in his teens, and his hair hadn’t even grown yet. In the end, he told me that he was going to kill Truman.”

“Just tell me how daring he is to brag?”

Gaia drank and laughed.

Zhang Nanhai retorted: “Newton was only in his twenties back then, and by observing apple trees, he covered the most basic law of gravity in the universe.”

“By observing insects, Darwin realized the natural law of natural selection of the fittest.”

“Since this world tree is a sacred tree, how can I not understand the higher laws of heaven and earth from him?”

“When I create the formation, I refer to the law of the five elements of heaven and earth.”

“Only if I can comprehend the higher laws of heaven and earth, I will naturally be able to create more powerful formations.”

“It might be impossible to fight this World Tree.”

“At that time, these thousands of ordinary people will also be eligible to survive the apocalypse.”

Zhang Nanhai's eyes were burning, and Gaia saw hope and ambition in his eyes.

“After talking about me, let's talk about you.”

“Why don't you go?”

“Isn't it happier in the city?”

Zhang Nanhai asked Gaia again.

Gaia said with a smile: “The reason why I stay here is very simple.”

“My dragon master asked me to guard here.”

“Of course I'll keep it.”

“Stay here until the end of the world?” Zhang Nanhai asked back.

Chapter 4875

“Then keep it until the end of the world.”

“Anyway, even if I leave here now, I have nothing to do.”

“Every day is to tease girls and sleep with girls.”

“Why...”

“It's boring and boring.”

Gaia sighed.

“Don't you have something to pursue?”

“People still have goals and aspirations.”

“Only when you are full of expectations for the future can you have the motivation to live every day.” Zhang Nanhai asked.

Gaia shook her head: "I am a person with no ambitions."

"Being able to step into the title of Grandmaster is all thanks to the blessing of the Dragon Lord."

"The pursuit of the Dragon Lord in the past is my pursuit."

"But now, Chu Yuan is dead, Truman is gone, and the strange demon has been beaten away."

"My dragon master disbanded the Dragon Temple."

"In an instant, life feels boring."

"It's also fortunate that the Dragon Lord arranged some tasks for me, otherwise I would be bored to death."

"However, to be honest, even if ten years later, this world really comes to an end, I, Gaia, will also die in the catastrophe."

"Then I'm not at a loss."

"I think my life has been wonderful enough."

"Follow the Dragon Lord to conquer the world."

"The Truman, who has dominated the world for hundreds of years, was blown away by us!"

"Chu Yuan, who was spying on the divine realm, couldn't beat us."

"Hahaha..."

"In fact, there are a few awesome moments in life, and you can die without regrets!"

Gaia smiled wantonly, looked up and drank several glasses of wine.

"Speaking of which, I'm very glad."

"Fortunately, I followed my dragon master back then."

“In my whole life, Gaia, I have met countless beautiful women, young women, Lolita Yujie, all kinds of women, but the encounter that moved my heart the most was the encounter with the Dragon Lord!”

“Really, if it weren’t for the Dragon Lord, I, Gaia, would be just a cynical playboy until my death.”

“There is no chance at all, like now, to leave a strong mark in the history of this martial arts world.”

“If you don’t believe me, go out and ask, you ask any titled master in the world, which one doesn’t know my name, Gaia?”

“I go to any country now, and the martial arts leader of that country has to entertain me grandly!”

Gaia said proudly.

The pride and honor in the words are so vivid.

Listening to Zhang Nanhai, he was undoubtedly envious of Gaia.

In one lifetime, who would not want to be famous all over the world, honoring their ancestors and ancestors.

Zhang Nanhai is no exception.

Although, he is now quite well-known among the juniors in the Yanxia Martial Arts world.

However, there is no doubt that it is too far away from Gaia, a big man who is famous all over the world.

Not to mention, that Brian Chuwas already worshiped as a god and feared like a ghost.

“Listen to what you said, I also want to meet the Dragon Lord of your family, and meet our Yan Xia’s Wushuang title, Brian Chuis Senior Chu.”

Zhang Nanhai undoubtedly became more respectful towards Mark.

He couldn’t imagine what kind of man it was that made a hero like Gaia so loyal to him.

Zhang Nanhai had heard too much about Mark’s legend.

Among Yan Xia’s younger generations, many of them have already regarded Mark as a role model for their goals and pursuits.

After all, Mark’s experience is too vivid.

From a small, unnoticed son-in-law in a remote town, to ruling Noifork and dominating the hot summer.

In his twenties, he was listed in the Martial God Hall, granted the Yanxia Zhu Kingdom, and was honored as the unparalleled scholar of the country.

Of course, if it’s just these things, Mark’s experience is not too inspirational, and it won’t move the world.

What is really touching about Mark is that he never gave up after all kinds of hardships, and never gave up after life and death.

Even if he was expelled from the Yanxia Martial God Temple, even if he was banned by the world’s martial arts, even if he was not tolerated by the people of the world.

But so what?

The so-called true warriors will bloom when they fall to the bottom of the valley, and look at the moon even when they sink to the bottom of the sea.

The reason why Mark’s voice was so magnificent was that he had come back to the extreme in situations where he was almost certain to die again and again.

In the end, Yan Xia was defeated, Truman was defeated, and Global Martial Arts was defeated.

Chapter 4877

Dare to ask the current martial arts world, dare to ask today's titled masters, who else dares to say half disrespectful words to Mark.

Of course, what outsiders see is Mark's majestic and domineering side.

But today, Zhang Nanhai was here with Gaia and saw another side of Mark.

It is his toughness, tenderness and unparalleled loyalty that make countless people follow him to the death.

"Hahaha..."

"I want to see my dragon master."

"Little guy, you're not qualified enough."

"Now our Dragon Lord is the number one person in the world."

"Does the first person understand?"

"It is the highest mountain in the martial arts world, and it is also the longest river today."

"Could it be that you, a little guy, can see it casually?"

"If you only have ten years left in your life."

"I'm afraid that even if you die, it will be difficult to see my dragon master."

Gaia laughed, eyes full of pride and complacency.

For Gaia, it is undoubtedly an extremely honorable and proud thing to play for Mark.

However, the two were talking.

Suddenly, there is a wind!

The bonfire in front of Gaia suddenly trembled and swayed violently.

An invisible sense of power and oppression came oncoming.

“No, Senior Gaia, someone is here!”

Zhang Nanhai suddenly became nervous.

He subconsciously stood up, his expression becoming more dignified than ever before.

Because, he could feel that the people who came were very strong.

Stronger than anyone he’s ever met.

The tightly overflowing breath actually made Zhang Nanhai tremble subconsciously, almost having the urge to kneel down.

For a moment, Zhang Nanhai felt as if he was facing a formidable enemy.

But Gaia smiled.

“Hahaha...”

“Little guy, how about your luck.”

“Your wish may come true.”

Gaia laughed out loud.

Then, under Zhang Nanhai’s astonished gaze, Gaia jumped up from the campfire like a child, bouncing and bouncing all the way towards the front.

Sure enough, after running in, Gaia saw a dusty figure walking towards the snowy night.

Yes, the person who came before him was none other than Mark who had disappeared for a year.

Compared with back then, Mark today is a little less impulsive and arrogant, and more vicissitudes and introverted.

After ten years, the master and minister met again.

Gaia kowtowed immediately, "Gaia, the god of the earth and mountains, pay homage to the Dragon Lord!"

The majestic voice was like a thunderbolt exploding.

Under the Kunlun Mountains, it sounded slowly.

Zhang Nanhai trembled when he heard this.

His eyes were full of panic, and his heart was excited and trembling.

Dragon.. Dragon Lord?

Gaia actually called him the Dragon Lord?

Could it be that this person is the Lord of the Dragon God Palace, the first person at that time who fought against the world alone, stepped on the Chumen, suppressed the strange demons, and opened the Heavenly Gate on the road to heaven, Chu Tianfan?

Zhang Nanhai's breathing became rapid.

He froze in place, staring at that figure in a daze, and getting closer.

Until finally, it appeared under the world tree.

The bonfire here illuminated Mark's face.

In the darkness, Mark's figure flickered on and off.

"I haven't seen you for a year. Has this World Tree become so big again?"

Mark stood under the tree and looked up, the heaviness on his face undoubtedly increased a bit.

Gaia ran over and replied respectfully: "Yes, Dragon Lord, this world tree can grow several meters in a day. Now it is probably nearly a thousand meters high."

Mark nodded.

Then he glanced around again: "Is it just the two of you here?"

"What about people from other countries?"

Mark remembered that when he came last time, there was still a lot of people here.

Now, people have gone to the empty building, and it is extremely desolate.

It seems that during the year he was away, another great change happened at the foot of Kunlun Mountain.

Chapter 4879

"Dragon Lord, this matter is a long story."

"The year you left, many things have happened under Kunlun Mountain."

Facing Mark's inquiry, Gaia sighed, and then slowly told Mark what happened this year.

It turned out that since the World Martial Arts League determined the policy of destroying the World Tree a year ago, it has exhausted almost all methods to carry out a devastating blow to the sacred tree in front of it.

They first gathered the power of the global titled masters, and continuously bombarded the World Tree indiscriminately for more than a month.

However, it did not harm its branches and leaves at all.

After that, they even used fire, flooded, and even poisoned...

In short, almost every conceivable method has been used.

However, the world tree in front of him seems to have an immortal body.

Not afraid of swords, not afraid of water and fire.

As for poisoning, it is even more useless.

At the end of the day, human beings resort to the last resort.

That is, to use nuclear weapons to carry out the final blow to the world tree.

For this reason, nuclear powers such as Yanxia, Soviet Russia, and Millikin dropped several Yuan bullets under the World Tree one after another.

Even hydrogen bombs, which are far more powerful than Yuan bullets, were used.

The day of the explosion. For thousands of miles, almost all of them have become barren land.

The barren hills were razed to the ground, and the vegetation was turned into fly ash.

The rock is also almost burnt into nothingness by the high temperature.

The mushroom cloud soaring into the sky can be seen even halfway across the earth.

“The results of it?”

“Is it effective?” Mark couldn’t help becoming nervous.

Nuclear weapons should be the most powerful force in this world.

Especially the hydrogen bomb.

Back then, Mark almost died under nuclear weapons.

Of course, the nuclear weapons dropped on the southwestern frontier at that time were much less powerful than hydrogen bombs.

Therefore, Mark wanted to know how effective this kind of power, which is the most powerful in the world, would have on this world tree.

Gaia was silent for a moment, then said with a gloomy face: “It works.”

“The very center of the nuclear explosion, which is powerful enough to burn everything, finally shook the World Tree.”

“At that time, I only saw that after the nuclear explosion was over, there was a leaf of the World Tree falling down.”

“That’s all.”

Gaia’s dignified words sounded slowly in the dark night.

Dead silence!

Deathly silence!

In Nuoda’s world, it seems that only the sound of air flow is left.

The bleak wind blows the boundless leaves, rustling.

However, the swaying sound of the leaves is like the World Tree in front of me, mocking and contemptuous of human beings.

“Dragon Lord, the gap is really too big.”

At the end, Gaia let out a long sigh, raised her head and drank the wine in the pot in one gulp.

Zhang Nanhai next to him also had red eyes.

For a long time, in the eyes of the world, human beings should be the most advanced creatures on earth.

Human beings, who have always been at the top of the food chain, suddenly discovered one day that the cutting-edge technological weapons they were proud of, the destructive power, was nothing but a breeze blowing on the World Tree,

One can imagine how strong that blow was?

What a strong sense of frustration.

That is a gap that is enough to make people desperate.

It is enough to destroy the pride and self-confidence cultivated by human beings for thousands of years.

Hearing this, Mark was also silent.

I couldn't speak for a long time.

Although he had already expected the result, when he heard that the nuclear powers did their best, even attacking with hydrogen bombs, it was just a leaf of the world tree.

This result, even Mark, trembled in his heart.

A great sense of powerlessness came to my heart.

Chapter 4881

"And then?" After a long silence, Mark continued to ask.

"That is, since then, the countries of the world have truly realized the power and invincibility of the World Tree."

"A mood of pessimism and despair hangs over everyone's heart."

"So far, the destruction plan for the World Tree has completely gone bankrupt."

"The major countries gave up one after another. Instead, they chose another road, which is the road of escape."

"After the nuclear explosion, the warriors who stayed at the foot of Kunlun Mountain evacuated and went home one after another."

"Some went back to eat and wait to die, and some began to operate to buy relationships, hoping to get a few tickets to board the ship when the end came."

"Of course, most of the powerhouses have joined the ranks of spaceship forging and Mars construction."

"It can be said that the major powers are now focusing their energy on building Mars and building spacecraft."

“Obviously, the leaders of those countries are ready to give up the earth and the billions of ordinary people.”

“Prepare to move to Mars when the end comes.”

“However, even after the construction of Mars, it really has certain living conditions.”

“But when the time comes, the only ones who will really have the opportunity to emigrate are those rich and powerful who have resources.”

“Most people cannot avoid the ending of flying ashes and annihilation.”

For these things, Gaia has been bearish.

He was just sighing with emotion.

It is said that all men are created equal, but equality is a fart.

When the end comes, only a small number of people can escape.

And most people, without even knowing the situation, have died inexplicably in the doomsday.

Listening to Gaia’s narration, Mark undoubtedly felt extremely heavy.

“It seems that the world has given up resistance.”

“If this is the case, this world will eventually perish.”

Mark sighed.

“No!”

“I haven’t given up yet!”
